Pre-Inventory Clearing-Up Prices
For Saturday and All Next Week.

In order to have a lighter stock to inventory, we are offering to close out many regular lines at "unheard-of" prices. Although the Pre-Inventory Sale does not close this week, still the prices quoted below will sell much of the merchandise before the week is out, and we do not obligate ourselves to replace lots sold out. The earlier you buy the greater will be the assortment to select from.

Potato Contest.

A potato contest of unusual interest to farmers is now being held at this store. The conditions are as follows: Any farmer on bringing to this store the largest potato he has in his "winter stock" will be entered as a contestant. These potatoes will be on exhibition until Jan. 25, on which date the owner of the largest potato will receive a coupon good for $5.00 worth of merchandise anywhere in this store. The second largest $3.00, and the third $2.00. There is no expense whatever in entering this contest. Just bring in your potatoes and get your receipt for same, the only condition being that the contestants be "legitimate farmers."

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

CZAR DESIRES PEACE

Japanese Minister's Reception Was Cordial and Extended.

"I DESIRE AND WISH FOR PEACE."

At Winter Palace Assembly Russian Emperor Emphatically Maintains Russia's Desire For an Amicable Agreement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister here, called on Secretary Hay and informed him that the Japanese reply to the last Russian note, just delivered, denies all the important Russian propositions. Japan's counter proposals are of a nature that will certainly make them unacceptable to Russia; therefore a most pessimistic view of the future is taken at Tokyo.

On the other hand, advices that come to the state department from Paris, St. Petersburg and Berlin are all of a pacific character. Ambassador Porter, at Paris, cables that pressure is to be brought to bear on the would be belligerents, and particularly on Japan, by at least two of the great neutral powers to cause Russia and Japan to come to terms and so avert open hostilities.

The Japanese minister has supplied the state department with an abstract of the last Japanese note. Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, on his part his acquainted the state department verbally, as is his custom, with the nature of the Russian note, so that the department is fully informed; but, as both these communications have been made in confidence, the officials do not feel they should make them public in whole or in part.

It is stated, however, that there has been no substantial change in the Japanese proposition or the Russian counter proposal since the semiofficial dispatch from Peking last week.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says:

"I desire and intend to do all in my power to maintain peace in the far east."

These were the words which the czar spoke to the members of the diplomatic corps at the New Year's reception held in the Winter palace while making a leisurely round of the great white hall, with its beautiful colonnades, in which the representatives of the various countries had assembled. His majesty chatted freely and at considerable length with several of the diplomats and others.

Keen curiosity was exhibited all over the room when his majesty approached Mr. Kurino, the Japanese minister to Russia. The conversation between the czar and the minister was cordial and extended. His majesty emphasized the high value which he places upon the good and neighborly relations between Japan and Russia, not only now, but in the future, and expressed his unshaken hope that a mutually satisfactory settlement of the difficulties between the two countries would be arranged. Minister Kurino left the reception profoundly impressed with his majesty's words.

It had become known here through the foreign office that Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador to the United States, had been instructed to assure the United States government that Russia would not interpose objections to the commercial treaty between China and the United States or impede American rights or interests in Manchuria. His majesty referred to these instructions in a lengthy conversation with Ambassador McCormick and laid much stress on his desire that Russia and the United States should live on the terms of intimate and cordial friendship which had existed for so many years and which it was his especial desire to maintain. He most emphatically disclaimed the slightest inclination to hinder the development of American commerce.

Ambassador McCormick inquired concerning the czarina and was gratified to learn that her recovery was proceeding and that no concern was felt regarding her condition.

Mr. McCormick presented Spencer F. Eddy, secretary of the embassy, and Lieutenant Commander Roy Campbell Smith, the United States naval attache, to the emperor and the empress mother.

Brigadier General H. T. Allen, U. S. A., chief of the Philippine constabulary, has arrived at Peking from Manila. He formerly was military attache at St. Petersburg and will join the Russian army as an observer in the event of war.

A cable from Seoul says that the native press is advocating the slaughter of all foreigners.

United States Minister Allen has ordered all American women and children to remain indoors, and he believes that rioting by the military is imminent.

M. Collin de Plancy, the French minister, has vainly advised the emperor to take refuge in the French legation.

Cannot Be Paid In Lump Sum.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 15.—Judge Dubers of the supreme court in a rescript handed down holds that under the statutes alimony cannot be paid to a woman in a gross sum. The rescript was in answer to a request that William Hartley, whose wife recently secured a divorce, be ordered to pay alimony in a lump sum instead of weekly installments.

Bulgarians Killed Thirty Turks.

SALONIKA, Macedonia, Jan. 15.—A Turkish powder magazine in the Kumanova district, sixteen miles from Uskub, has been blown up by Bulgarians. Thirty Turks were killed. A sharp engagement is reported to have occurred near Demirhissar, forty-five miles from Salonika.

REHEARSE DISASTER

Mayor Harrison Proposes to Learn Lesson From Flames.

HIS MOTTO, "PRO BONO PUBLICO."

Iroquois Playhouse Will Again Be Given to Well Guarded Fire to Test the Sufficiency of the City Ordinances.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—As soon as the coroner releases his control of the Iroquois theater the playhouse will again be given over to the flames if plans evolved by Mayor Harrison and Walter L. Fisher of the City club are carried out. Experts who will fight over again the Iroquois conflagration will have trained firemen at their elbow to see that the demonstration of the plans does not bring about any property loss outside the partially ruined playhouse.

The purpose of again firing the theater is to test the sufficiency of city ordinances, present and prospective.

At a conference just held between Mayor Harrison and Mr. Fisher this subject was discussed exhaustively, and it was decided that nothing that had been done in Chicago for many years would approach this plan in the amount of good for the public.

With men who understand every detail of the test to watch every action of the flames and gases and to regulate effects by manipulation of the ventilators and doors, it was urged that the benefits to accrue from the fire test would be practically inestimable.

With the Iroquois stage filled with excelsior and rubbish and a fire raging thereon, the conditions being like those of the fatal afternoon of Dec. 30, the experts expect to learn a great deal about the flames that swept so many lives away.

J. R. Freeman, an expert on fires, will be asked to take charge of the test.

Six additional churches have been ordered closed. A number of lodging houses also will suffer in consequence of the strict enforcement of city ordinances.

From action taken last night by the city council it is evident that the theaters in this city will not be able to reopen their doors for some time.

Blizzard at Corry, Pa.

CORRY, Pa., Jan. 15.—The worst blizzard of the winter has been raging for the past twenty-four hours, with no signs of abatement. Not a train has arrived from Pittsburg on the Pennsylvania railroad for a whole day. The New York and Chicago limited, both east and west, was stalled at Watts Flats and lay there for hours until shoveled out at daybreak. Not a wheel turned during the night. Freight traffic has been abandoned until passenger schedules are restored. All country roads in this vicinity are impassable.

Dowie and His Elders' Trip.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 15.—John Alexander Dowie, with his party of Zionist supporters, has arrived at Los Angeles. He announces that he will remain in California until Jan. 21, on which date he will leave San Francisco for Australia. He denied that he would build a Zion city in southern California, but said that it was very likely that he would found a city either on the gulf of Mexico or somewhere on the Pacific coast. He states that he expects to return to Zion City from his trip around the world about June 30.

Successful Test For Gas.

GARLAND, Wyo., Jan. 15.—While several Mormons were wending their way across the prairies near here one, to quench his thirst, rolled a snowball and noticed a strong odor of gas. Scraping the snow aside, he found a steady current of gas issuing with a hissing sound from a cleft in the rocks. Lighting a match to test the substance, the Mormons ignited the gas, causing an explosion, which scorched their faces and sent a column of flame many feet high.

Cool, Deliberate Suicide.

MORA, Minn., Jan. 15. — After arranging a device which would make the recovery of her body easy Mrs. J. C. Pope, wife of a prominent attorney, has committed suicide. She left a note containing the sole information that her body would be found in the lake. Searchers along the shore came upon a post to which was fastened a rope. The rope extended into the water, and when it was drawn in the suicide's body was found at the other end.

Trapper Eaten by Wolves.

BEMIDJI, Minn., Jan. 15.—Jene Cain, a trapper living six miles north of the village of Little Forks, has been killed by wolves. His body was completely destroyed. His jawbone, shoes and part of his clothing were found near the spot. Cain lived alone, and it is supposed he was looking after his traps when set upon by the pack.

France Will Retaliate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Unless congress enacts legislation removing the export duty on manila hemp shipped from the Philippines to countries other than the United States, France threatens to impose a countervailing duty on hemp products imported from this country.

Three Drank Ginger Ale and Died.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 15.—As the result of drinking ginger ale flavored with lemon extract three men are dead from poisoning at Alexander, and two more are not expected to live.

Good Showing at Butler.

BUTLER, Pa., Jan. 15. — The fever situation continues to improve here, only one new case of the disease being reported, and there have been no deaths in twenty-four hours.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY

Mrs. Bechtel Placed on Trial For Daughter's Murder.

AS ACCESSORY AFTER THE FACT.

State Attorney Lichtenwalner Made No Apology For His Condition at the Trial of Alois Eckstein.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 15.—Smiling and chipper, as though he spent all his time at a Prohibition picnic, District Attorney Lichtenwalner appeared in the courthouse to conduct the trial of the members of the Bechtel family as accessories to the death of Mabel Bechtel. The sensational ending of the trial of Alois Eckstein and the abrupt refusal of Judge Trexler to allow the district attorney to go on with the cases brought a larger crowd than ever to the courtroom. Many came to see whether the district attorney would himself conduct the case, and they were not disappointed.

District Attorney Lichtenwalner refused to make any statement concerning his befogged condition, but his appearance was not unlike that of a schoolboy just after being flogged.

It is stated that Judge Trexler will take no further official cognizance of the matter than the statement he made at the opening of court, when he said:

"I expect that this trial will proceed and continue in an orderly and respectable manner, and I will not tolerate another such disgraceful spectacle as has been witnessed here. That is all I have to say now."

The district attorney made no reply.

Mrs. Catherine Bechtel, the mother of the murdered girl, was placed on trial, it having been decided to try all the Bechtels separately. She pleaded not guilty.

Mr. Lutz said the commonwealth would show that there was a quarrel in the house on Sunday night, Oct. 25; that Mabel Bechtel was struck down by her brother Thomas; that the body was hidden for two nights and one day, and that the aged mother aided and abetted in the concealment. He asked the jury for a verdict against the accused mother of being an accessory after the murder.

The first two witnesses testified to the finding of the body of the girl in the alleyway on the morning of Tuesday, Oct. 27.

Mrs. Maggie Miller, a next door neighbor to the Bechtel family, proved a good witness for the defense, although called by the commonwealth. She testified to occurrences and conversations at the Bechtel home on the morning Miss Bechtel's body was found. She had heard the Bechtels' four dogs barking furiously at about midnight on Monday, confirming Mrs. Bechtel's statement made on the day the tragedy was discovered, which was to the effect that she (Mrs. Bechtel) was awakened by the dogs barking and that upon looking out of a window saw two men drive up to her home and take a large bundle from the vehicle. Awakened by Mrs. Bechtel's heartrending cries at 6:45 that morning, Mrs. Miller hurried to the Bechtel home, where she found Mrs. Bechtel hysterical and moaning her daughter's name.

Mrs. Bechtel told the witness that as she opened the cellar door to get her washing machine in the underground alley she stumbled over her daughter's body. Mrs. Bechtel said:

"If she is dead, I shall go crazy."

Charles Bechtel and the witness had to carry her to her home, where she moaned and cried for her daughter.

Mrs. Miller also told of the appearance of Mabel's body, its wounds, the clothes she wore and what was done with the corpse. She told of the finding of some of the dead girl's clothing in the dining room, where they had been laid on a chair.

Asked about the relations between Mabel and Thomas Bechtel, the witness said she never saw them speak to each other.

On cross examination Mrs. Miller said that Tom was exceedingly quiet and rarely spoke to any one in the family. She heard no quarrels at the Bechtel home on Oct. 25 or 26. She last saw Mabel alive on Sunday, Oct. 25.

The witness said she saw Mrs. Bechtel several times on Monday. She did not seem to be laboring under excitement, nor did she appear to be hiding a secret. Late in the day she saw her sitting at the parlor window sewing.

Judge Trexler has discharged all jurors not engaged in the present case. This would indicate that the trials of Mrs. Bechtel's daughter and two sons on the charge of complicity will go over until April. It is not unlikely that in the event of Mrs. Bechtel's acquittal the charges against them will be dropped.

SPORTING NEWS.

ON THE TRACK.

A horse owned by J. Wesley Johnson, of East Seventh street, and driven by George Blake, has set the pace for every horse it has contested with on the local speedway. It has beaten several out-of-town flyers in addition to its Plainfield rivals.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The grading exercises in the Y. M. C. A. gymnastic classes, yesterday afternoon, resulted in the advancement of the following men by reason of age and length of membership: From the third to the fourth class, Leggett, Mackay and Line; second to third, B. McClintock, C. Doeringer, D. Wilcox, St. John and Findeisen; first to the second, Thorn, Karner, Perrin, F. McClintock, Miller, Hart and Patterson.

Waldron Child Improving.

Loretta Waldron, the 10-year-old colored girl, who was shot in the face by Maggie Bentford, a few days ago, seems to be improving. At the hospital today it was stated that no attempt would be made to extract the bullet at present. It is not believed that the piece of lead is very close to the brain, but is probably lodged in a bone on the side of the face.

PLAN A BAZAAR.

Christian Endeavorers and Epworth Leaguers to Aid Children's Home.

The presidents and representatives of the various Christian Endeavor Societies and Epworth Leagues in Plainfield, who have in mind the adoption of some plan whereby money can be raised to assist the Children's Home, met last night in Vincent chapel and discussed several propositions, including one to hold a bazaar.

It was at first thought advisable to give a course of entertainments, but this plan was given up and it seems to be the general opinion that a fair or bazaar would yield the largest returns from united effort.

Damage by Fire.

A lamp left burning on the kitchen table of the house of C. J. Ackerman, of Clinton avenue, a watchman in the employ of Former Mayor Gilbert's bank in New York city, exploded last night and set fire to the table and carpet. It burned itself out and the members of the family had no knowledge of the fire until this morning.

Coal Train Stalled.

An engine drawing an unusually heavy train of coal cars, became stalled on track No. 1, east bound, this morning at 4 o'clock and blocked the passenger service for over two hours at Grant avenue. It was necessary to sidetrack the passenger trains and send them through this city on the freight track.

Daring Capture.

While on his rounds this morning, Whitfield Frazee, the New York messenger, made a daring capture of a runaway horse of the United States Express Company. The horse, which was left standing in front of B. J. Schreiner's drug store, made a bolt to escape and Frazee, who was crossing the street at the time, dropped his bundles and bicycle and grabbed the frightened animal's bridle. He was dragged several feet by the horse before he brought it to a standstill.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Crescent Company, U. R., K. of P., are planning to give a dance at the Casino early next month.

The Mark Mason degree was conferred at a convocation of Jerusalem Chapter, R. A. M., last night.

The officers elect of the Woman's Relief Corps will assume control at the meeting to be held Friday night, Jan. 22.

Court Watchung, Independent Order of Foresters, transacted its usual business at its regular meeting last night. There was no special entertainment.

The Odd Fellows in District No. 10, in which Plainfield is located, have presented a handsome set of resolutions to John Becker, of Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, I. O. O. F., for faithful services as a district deputy. The resolutions are now being exhibited at the postoffice.

Officers of Central Lodge, No. 84, A. O. U. W., were installed last night by Deputy Grand Master Workman Pastorius, of Elizabeth and his staff. An explanation of the new plan of assessment for the order was made by Mr. Pastorius. John A. Wilson was presented with a Past Master's jewel. Refreshments and cigars were provided.

Miss McKeen Not to Speak.

Miss McKeen, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, will be prevented from addressing the Monday Afternoon Club, Monday, on account of illness. Another date will probably be arranged later.

Bank President Now.

Elias H. Bonnell, who married Miss Brunson, of Clinton avenue, a few months ago, was elected president of the Second National Bank, of Orange, yesterday. Mr. Bonnell has been cashier of the bank.

German Society's Officers.

The Gesang and Turn Verein met last night in the temporary headquarters on Somerset street and the officers of last year were re-elected for another term. They are: President, William Gardner; vice president, Joseph Haurand; secretary, John Retzer; financial secretary, Matthias Menzenbach, and treasurer, Carl Felber. The trustees are the officers. Reports were read. There was a discussion regarding the advisability of rebuilding Saengerbund Hall and it was decided to await making a definite decision until the insurance claims have been adjusted. It is generally believed that the building will be reconstructed and on an improved plan.

Evening at Cards.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kyle, in West Sixth street, entertained fifty friends at progressive euchre last evening. Miss Kate Fylnn won the woman's prize and Mrs. E. J. Connolly the booby prize. For the men, John Conway won the prize and John Hurly the booby prize. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Tenant Vacates.

The landlord and tenant case of Samuel F. Dugan against Samuel Harlin has been settled by the action of the defendant in voluntarily vacating the premises. The case was to have been tried yesterday afternoon in Justice Hand's court.

As Good as a Detective.

A brindle bull terrier dog owned by Mrs. Rowland Cox, of West Seventh street, was advertised as lost in yesterday's Daily Press. It was recovered last night through the good offices of a reader of the paper.

Remembered the Sick.

The handsome flowers used in the decorations of the banquet rooms for the collation of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, last night, have been sent to Muhlenberg Hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Giddes have returned from their wedding trip and will reside in Dunellen.

STRONG BASEBALL TEAM FOR ALIS

Arrangements Now Being Made to Secure Crack Players for the Coming Season.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS

GREATER SEATING CAPACITY AND POSSIBLY ENCLOSED GROUNDS.

Impartial Umpire Wanted—Contracts to be Made With All Players—Season to Open in April—Some Possible Games.

The baseball management of the Alis Club has been hustling of late and will soon be able to report the result of its labors in getting a team for next season. It is promised that the team will be the strongest to represent the city in several years. It is said that several former college players will be found in the aggregation.

It is proposed to have a team that will be able to meet any of the semi-professional nines in the Metropolitan district and when the members are secured by contract, the work of preparing a schedule of games will begin at once. It is expected that there will be a series with Westfield, but all of the games will not take place on the Westfield diamond. The probabilities are that an equal number of games will be played at each place and if there should be a "rubber" an agreement will then be made as to where it shall be played.

There are a number of other strong teams in and around New York and dates will be arranged with the best of them. The idea is to give the baseball loving public an article of baseball that will warrant liberal patronage. When St. Mary's management organizes a team a series of games will be arranged with them and the same will be true no doubt with Scotch Plains.

Having become members of the New Jersey State Baseball Associations, the management of the Alis Club is in a position to make contracts with players and hold them just the same as they are held by the big league managers. The contracts have now been sent out by the Alis management and as soon as they are signed announcement of the names will be made. Among the improvements planned are greater seating capacity at Crescent Oval and possibly inclosed grounds. It is likely that the grandstand will be enlarged by building two wings one at either end.

Arrangements will be made for a first class umpire. Last year's experience at some of the games was not pleasing and the management hopes to get an umpire whose decisions will be impartial. The date for opening the season has not yet been decided upon, but no doubt it will be early in April provided the weather is favorable. Last year the season opened late. The club will also endeavor to obtain satisfactory trolley service so that patrons of the game will have no trouble in getting to and from the grounds.

ST. JOHN TO LEAVE "TIMES"

FOUNDER AND EDITOR OF ELIZABETH'S DEMOCRATIC PAPER TO QUIT FEB. 1.

It is announced that the half interest in the Elizabeth Evening and Sunday Times which was bought by Nelson E. Barton, of Binghamton, N. Y., from William W. St. John, will be assumed by Mr. Barton, February 1.

For several years Mr. Barton was circulation manager of the Binghamton Republican and also conducted the Afton, (N. Y.) Enterprise, a weekly newspaper.

The other interest in the Evening and Sunday Times is held by John Moody, of Cranford. Mr. St. John says that he had no plans just now for the future. He intended to take a long vacation and recuperate his health, which had become considerably run down. Mr. St. John was the founder and editor of The Times and through his persevering work the paper has grown to occupy its present position. He was secretary and treasurer of The Evening Times Publishing Company. He did not care to say for publication how much he got for interest in the plant.

Dinner to Employers.

A dinner was served Thursday night at the Potter Press Works to the officers of the company. The object of holding the dinner could not be learned.

LEAL'S SCHOOL DEFEATS P. H. S.

Noisy and Exciting Game of Basket Ball on Y. M. C. A. Floor—First of Series.

THE SCORE WAS 12 TO 4

THE WINNERS SHOWED BENEFIT FROM SYSTEMATIC PRACTICE.

No Goals From Fouls—No Dearth of Rooters—Leal's Scored Twice in the Second Half of the Game—Chapman's Work.

Leal's School drew first blood in the series with the Plainfield High School for the championship in basket ball of the city schools. The initial game between the schools was played yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium before a gallery that lacked nothing in the line of enthusiasm. Each school was represented by a good sized delegation of rooters between whose noise-making capacity there was little to choose.

Twelve to four was the score and there wasn't a single goal made except after a hard struggle. The High School scored first after two minutes play, and Leal's tied the score a minute later. Both scored again, the teams remaining tied until the last few minutes of play in the first half when Leal's forged ahead by more rapid team play and some skillful shooting principally by Chapman. In the second half Leal's scored twice. There was little fouling and no goals from fouls. Leal's team, during most of the played, showed the benefit of a greater experience. The score:

Score—Leal's, 12; High School, 4 Goals from the floor—Champan, 3; Abbott, 2; Haughey, Freeman, Thompson. Referee—Dr. Browning. Umpires—J. H. Doane, Paul Collier. Timers—W. Flanders, J. Valiant, Jr. Scorer—Munro Long. Time—20-min. halves.

The teams will play their next game Friday, February 19, and their third and last, March 11.

THIRD BIRD WILL APPEARS

IN IT THE DUNELLENITE LEAVES $30,000 TO A SON.

The third will signed by Colonel William Bird, of Dunellen, was filed for probate in the Surrogate's office in New York yesterday by D. Frank Lloyd. The will was executed on March 11, 1902. In it Colonel Bird leaves to Harrison K. Bird, his son and military secretary to Governor Odell, $30,000. He bequeaths $500 to each of three nephews and nieces, and $5,000 to Annie E. B. Morrow, a sister. To Howard Bird and his wife, Eilzabeth, Colonel Bird leaves $5,000. The residue of the estate, valued at about $250,000, is divided between the testator's two brothers.

The first will offered for probate set forth that Colonel Bird and his son Harrison had made mutual wills, by which each bequeathed everything at death to the other. This will was dated April 4, 1903. In the other will, filed at New Brunswick, N. J., Harrison K. Bird receives the residue of the estate after bequests of $10,000 each are made to Howard and Joseph Bird, brothers, and Mrs. Morrow, a sister. This will named Constant Bird, of Larchmont, as sole executor.

Along with the papers filed yesterday was a notice of contest to the probate, filed by Philip Carpenter, on behalf of Constant Bird. He alleges that Colonel Bird was a resident of New Jersey and not of New York. Contests have been filed to all of the wills.

Fiedlers Incorporate.

Papers of incorporation have been filed at Trenton for a company to be known as Fiedlers, conducting a department store. The corporators are Louis Borsam, of this city; Frank H. Somer, of Newark; W. H. F., William C., E. J. E. and Bertha Fiedler. The capital stock is $50,000.

Social Club Dance.

The Third Ward Social Club last night gave its annual dance in the T. A. B. Hall. In charge of the arrangements were James O'Keeffe, James Flynn, Thomas O'Keeffe, James Mahoney and James A. O'Keeffe.

HE ADVERTISED FOR A WIFE

A PANTOMINE AS A FEATURE OF THE FIRST BAPTIST C. E. SOCIAL.

The "mum" social held last night at the First Baptist church, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society, proved an enjoyable affair. The idea that every one must keep quiet under penalty of ten cents fine was carried out very well. However, a number of persons found it easier to pay the penalty.

During the evening a pantomime was given representing a bachelor advertising for a wife and a number of persons answering the advertisement. Douglas R. Drake was the bachelor and the applicants to the advertisement were Miss Velma Oakley, Miss Pauline Denton, Miss Elizabeth Wilson, Miss Ada Fountain, Miss Bessie TenEyck and Miss Hattie Mattison. The whole thing was carried out without a word being spoken and was a great fun-maker.

Miss Pauline Denton also gave a recitation in pantomime and a quartette, composed of Miss Elizabeth Wilson, Miss Pauline Denton, Miss Bessie TenEyck and Miss Hattie Mattison gave a vocal selection in pantomime. In addition there were piano solos by Miss Grace TenEyck, after which the committee in charge, composed of Miss Hattie Mattison, chairman; Miss Elizabeth Wilson, Miss Velma Oakley and Miss Bessie TenEyck served cocoa and wafers. Sociability was a decided feature of the affair.

HEART PARTY.

Miss Elsie Brokaw Gives Affair in Honor of the Misses Valiant and Elsberg.

A large and delightful heart party was given last evening by Miss Elsie Brokaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. DeWitt Brokaw, of Sycamore avenue. The party was given in honor of Miss Valiant and Miss Elsberg, whose engagement have been recently announced. The latter, however, was unable to be present on account of illness.

Among the prize winners were Miss Saidee Howell, Mrs. Edward T. Wilson, Edward Wilson, Charles Cook and Herbert Rogers. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the games.

CHARTERS REVOKED.

Some Corporations Put Out of Existence Under Laws of the State.

Under the laws of the State the charters of a number of corporations have been revoked for failure to pay the State tax during the past year. Among those of local interest who have lost their charters are these:

Chapot Chamois Company, Middlesex Land and Investment Company, New Brunswick Foundry Company, New Jersey Bottling Association, New Jersey State Agriculture Society, Plainfield Automobile Company, Plainfield Lumber Company, Raritan Electrical Manufacturing Company, Raritan Shoe Manufacturing Company.

MRS. VANDEVENTER DEAD.

Widow of Willimam G. VanDenter Passed Away at Age of 63 Years.

Mrs. Sarah VannDeventer, widow of William G. VanDeventer, aged sixty-three years, died this morning at her home, 305 Orange place. She had lived in this city many years, coming here from Newark. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Albert Nayler and Mrs. Harry Bennett. The funeral will take place at the late home, Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The interment will be in Mt. Pleasant cemetery, Newark.

Park Club Attraction.

An entertainment of unusual merit will be that at the Park Club Monday night. The attraction will be Miss Amy Murray, whose singing of Scottish songs and telling of Scottish tales is a musical and intellectual treat and is remembered with pleasure by those who heard her at an entertainment given by the Monday Afternoon Club two years ago. The affair will be for the benefit of the club's furnishing fund.

John Schenck's Funeral.

The funeral services of the late John Schenck will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock at his home in Dunellen. Fifty men from the freight yards in Jersey City will be present out of respect to the dead man.

—Elgin butter at 26 cents, Rockdale print at 31 cents and Rockdale creamery butter at 30 cents a pound at Neuman Brothers. Rockdale butter cannot be excelled. It is pure, it is tasty, and it is as much a relish as a necessity. That is why it is almost universally used here in Plainfield.

N. P. FIRE ORDINANCE BEFORE THE COUNCIL

Borough Fathers Pass on First Reading Measure to Change Department to Paid System.

THE CHANGES PROPOSED

MODELED AFTER ORDINANCE IN FORCE IN THIS CITY.

Two Men to be Constantly on Duty at Engine House—Some Call Men—Half of Whom Will be Provided for West End Hose House.

Warren Engine Company and the West End Hose Company, of North Plainfield, were well represented at an adjourned session of the borough Common Council, last night, to listen to the death knell of the volunteer fire department. Councilman Northrup occupied the chair in the absence of Mayor Smalley who is ill. Being an adjourned meeting the regular routine of business was dispensed with and the fire department ordinance was read by the clerk. The ordinance was prepared by Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed.

The new ordinance is quite similar to that which has proved so successful in this city and while there is necessarily a large number of sections to provide for the various contingencies which may arise, yet the practical operation under the new ordinance will be simple. The ordinance contemplates that the officers of the department shall consists of a Chief, and also one captain to each company. These may be filled by citizens who are not supposed to devote their whole time to the duties of the office, but who shall receive salaries similar to those now paid to the volunteer officers.

It also contemplates the employment of two or possibly three men whose entire time shall be devoted to fire duty and who shall sleep in the engine house. It is intended that at least one of these men shall be in the house at all times, day and night, to answer all alarms of fire, whether sent in by telephone or otherwise. One of these men will act as lieutenant of the main company and as such shall be in charge of the house and apparatus in the absence of superior officers. These regular men will be paid under the ordinance at the rate of $40 a month. If there are two men the salaries for their services will amount to $80 a month.

The remainder of the department is to be made up of call men who are to be located in different parts of the borough and will respond to alarms of fire in their district. They are not to exceed ten in number for each company and the salary of each will be $25 a year. The disbandment of both volunteer systems is also provided for in the ordinance and in their stead the establishment of Hose Company No. 1, which will have its headquarters in the present house of Warren Engine Company until the new structure is completed and Hose Company No. 2, which will supplant the West End Hose Company.

According to the ordinance, Hose Company No. 2 will be manned entirely by call men. The members of this company will reside in that locality and no regular men need be kept in that house unless the Council sees fit to station one there. The engineer of the steamer may be one of the call men or one of those regularly employed, as the Council may see fit.

The Board of Engineers will consist of the chief and the captains and lieuttenant. They are to be borough citizens and are not to be removed from office for political reasons. The members of the department must pass a physical and mental examination and must sign an agreement to obey the rules of the company and the ordinances of the borough. The salaries of the firemen will be arranged according to the length of service. In the first class, those who have been in the department for five years, the men will receive $60 a month. The other salaries shall range from $55 to $40, according to the length of service. If any fireman refuses to pay any debts for personal bills, or assigns his wages, he will be dismissed, and no fireman will be allowed to take part in politics. Canvassing for subscriptions for balls, dances, fairs and other events of the kind, is prohibited. The borough will take possession of the property it owns at the West End Hose Company. The ordinance will take effect in March, 1904.

TWO ORCHESTRAS FOR DANCING AND A GOOD ENTERTAINMENT.

The committee in charge of the charity ball, after two weeks of hard work are in a position to announce to the public what they may expect on that evening, and the only thing left is that the latter quickly take up the tickets thus insuring the financial success, which means a nice sum for a most worthy charity.

The Casino will be used for dancing, and for this, Austin, of New York, whose music is so much admired at the cotillions, has been engaged to furnish two orchestras, one of string instruments for waltzes, and the other of brass for two steps, to alternate for continuous dancing.

In the clubhouse proper, the Eureka Trio, Edward J. Brown, manager, three colored artists who both sing and perform on musical instruments, will interest, with the latest songs and music, those who do not desire to dance. This is the first appearance of these artists in Plainfield, but they come with the highest reputation as they not only give concerts at the prominent clubs, including Delmonico's, Sherry's, but at such private residences as Mrs. George J. Gould, Bishop Potter, W. K. Vanderbilt, John Jacob Astor and others

The supper, which is included in the ticket, will be served from 11 to 1 by Davis, of Newark, and the basement will be used, the bowling alleys floored over, the room decorated, a new exit cut through the west end coming out at the left of the stage, and tables set at which eighty can be seated at once.

The covered piazza along the west side of the Casino will be heated and fitted as a lounging hall with entrances and exits at both ends and the covered piazza on the north side will be used as a men's smoking room.

The entrances and exits as well as the staircase will be in charge of uniformed firemen and policemen, and with the tickets limited to three hundred and fifty, those subscribing may feel that every effort will be made for their safety and comfort.

Evarts Tracy has charge of the printing of the programme.

MAYNARD A PREACHER.

A Representative Colored Citizen Passes Examination Required in A. M. E. Church.

Edwin B. Maynard, the North avenue barber, passed the examination for preacher yesterday at the quarterly conference of the Mt. Zion A. M. E. church.

The quarterly meeting will be held tomorrow morning with a love feast at 10 o'clock. There will be preaching at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:30 at night. Rev. I. W. Roundtree, the presiding elder, will be the preacher at all the services.

At Children's Home.

At the January meeting of the board of officers, a vote of thanks was sent to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Beaton for the entertainment of the Punch and Judy show they provided for the children on Dec. 24, and to Ernest R. Ackerman, who on the last day of the year, gave a phonographic entertainment in connection with the Christmas tree. Space will not allow the long list of many other friends whose names will stand on the books in grateful remembrance of their kindness. In recognition of the long and faithful services of Mrs. Emma Otter, on our board of managers, a vote of sympathy was sent to her daughter, Miss Jessie.

Improvement in Party Wires.

The New York and New Jersey Telephone Company is supplanting all party line telephones with what is known as the selective system instrument. The change simplifies and makes work easier for the telephone operator. Where before she was obliged to give a certain number of rings for a party she now only gives one ring and no other party on the line is troubled with the ringing of the bell.

Injured While Sleighing.

Wesley Calston, of Bound Brook, while driving a sleigh through Second street yesterday afternoon near Plainfield avenue, was thrown out and his horse taking fright, he was dragged for over a block through the ice and snow. He was cut about the hands and face. The horse dashed down Plainfield avenue to Seventh street where it was captured. It was cut about the flanks.

A Bridge Over Girard Avenue.

Freeholder Westphal believes that within a week it will be possible to cross Green brook, by the way of Girard avenue, over a temporary bridge.

COLUMBIA LODGE FAVORS SECESSION

Sentiment of Local A. O. U. W. Members Strongly Against Supreme Lodge.

SEPARATE JURISDICTION

MR. M'CULLOUGH AND V. W. NASH ARGUE IN OPPOSITION TO NEW PLAN.

Installation of Officers Witnessed by Members of Central Lodge, of This City, and Upchurch Lodge, of Westfield—Several Addresses.

Officers were installed and the matter of assessments thoroughly discussed last night by Columbia Lodge, No. 58, A. O. U. W. The meeting was one of the most largely attended in the history of the lodge, there being one hundred present, including many members of Central Lodge, No. 48, of this city, and Upchurch Lodge, No. 50, of Westfield, who came to hear the arguments against the new plan of assessments adopted by the Supreme Lodge.

As a result of speeches by Past Grand Master Workman McCullough, of Swedesboro, and Supreme Representative Nash, of this city, it was given as the unanimous sentiment of the lodge that New Jersey should vote to withdraw from the Supreme Lodge and continue as a separate jurisdiction.

Mr. McCullough, in arguing against the new plan which will be decided upon at the meeting of the Grand Lodge in March, claimed that the State had been deceived by the supreme body when the classified plan was adopted a year ago. He believed that the adoption would mean a return to the old level rate and a consequent financial failure of the State jurisdiction. He contended that the A. O. U. W. is the strongest opponent of the Old Line insurance companies and intimated that they are back of a movement to force the A. O. U. W. to the wall, not desiring the rivalry of the oldest fraternal insurance order. He said that under the present plan New Jersey can lay aside $2,000 monthly as a surplus fund which would by the adoption of the new plan be paid into the treasury of the Supreme Lodge.

Supreme Representative Nash contended that the State, with a gain of 400 members yearly, could continue under the present plan with highest success. He said that many other jurisdictions are bankrupt and that the Supreme Lodge desires New Jersey to make up the deficiency.

The officers installed by Past Grand Master Workman McCullough, Supreme Representative Nash and J. W. A. Bauersachs, of the State finance committee, were: Past master workman, J. H. Buchanan; master workman, Frank M. Lunger; foreman, John Bicknell; overseer, Charles S. Wilson; guide, Clarence H. Leland; recorder, R. H. Loughlin; financier, V. W. Nash, Jr.; receiver, Henry Liefke; inside watchman, James Forrestel; outside watchman, Michael Koller; trustees, Henry Nischwitz, Peter Doeringer.

Just a Little "Ad."

Through the medium of a Daily Press want ad, a watch lost last May has been restored to its owner who had long ago given up hope of seeing it again. The watch was a gold one, the property of Charles B. Morse, of Franklin place and was lost at a baseball game on Hope Common May 30 last. The ad in The Press want columns was seen by Francis J. Blatz, Esq., who, remembering to have noticed a timepiece answering the advertised description in the possession of an acquaintance investigated the matter with the result as stated.

R. Marsh a Delegate.

Plainfield is represented by Randolph Marsh, this week, at the convention of the Bricklayers' and Masons' International Union in Trenton. Among the more important measures adopted by the convention has been the appointment of a committee to investigate the Paterson lockout of bricklayers and masons, which has been on since January 2. The convention will probably declare itself as opposed to the Alabama anti-boycott law. J. M. Higgins, of North Plainfield, is also a delegate.

Well Dunn.

Hugh Fawcett, whose team of horses ran away on Second street, a few mornings ago and was subsequently captured by Wesley Dunn, of the borough, has rewarded the latter with a sum of money.

FORESTERS ENTERTAIN FRIENDS AT CASINO

An Excellent Programme Presented by Court Plainfield, No. 1144, I. O. O. F.

CHIEF RANGER TALKS

MEMBERS OF THE WILLARD AMATEUR DRAMATIC CLUB PARTICIPATE.

Dancing a Feature—"Rooney's Restaurant," a Clever Skit, in Which Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Willard Play Their Parts Well.

A big crowd, an excellent entertainment and a successful dance made last night memorable for the members of Court Plainfield, No. 1144, Independent Order of Foresters, and their friends. There was hardly room enough in the hall at the Casino to accommodate the numbers that were anxious to join in the celebration on behalf of the order and witness the wealth of entertainment provided by the Willard Dramatic Club.

The programme opened with a selection by the orchestra followed by a skit called "Rooney's Restaurant" which presented A. E. Willard with splendid opportunities to display his talents in a humorous part. Mortimer Slater was clever as a very English dude and the other parts were well taken by Mrs. A. E. Willard, Walter Emmons, George Bird and Miss Ethel Reynolds. Mrs. Willard was especially good as Catchem, an old maid.

W. Frank Malin was encored for his violin renditions, and the Misses Rothberg and Rothstein danced a graceful French dance. Master Harold Willard in an Irish song and dance made a hit. The little fellow certainly showed astonishing cleverness. Miss Clara Mears sang a pleasing solo. John Taylor and "Skinny" Wilson, the negro specialists, did some original dancing and a few other stunts that captured the crowd.

One of the best numbers on the programme was the acting of a "Rube" by A. E. Willard, who introduced some unique musical effects with the mouth organ. Mrs. Willard in a dramatic recitation and in her always fascinating fire dance, William Jeffery in some beautifully illustrated songs, and M. D. Sweeney, Bertram Firstbrook and Mortimer Slater in a laughable farce, "Who Died First," presented the remaining numbers.

David F. Howell, of Newark, high chief ranger of the Foresters, made a speech in which he described the flourishing condition of the local court and the rapid growth and strong influence of the order in general.

The floor was cleared for dancing at the conclusion of the programme. Music was by O. D. Mead, of New York. The committee of arrangements from the Foresters consisted of Otto Moor, chairman; D. C. Patterson, Henry Hansen, James M. Smith and James Patterson. The floor manager was Frank J. McCabe and his assistants were Louis Feirlag and William Waglow.

WATCHUNG COUNCIL TO MOVE

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS TO OCCUPY ROOMS IN VANDEVENTER BUILDING.

Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, is making preparations to move into larger and more commodious quarters in the building on East Front street over the police headquarters. The lodge has grown wonderfully during the last year and it now becomes necessary to secure a large meeting place. Arrangements were completed a week ago for the lease of the rooms on the top floor of the structure and as soon as necessary alterations have been completed the lodge will probably move in.

A member of the Council, in speaking of the improvements to a reporter of The Daily Press, said that the furnishing of the room would be a matter of special attention. A carpet of much value has been ordered and it is probable that an organ will be installed in the rooms. It is planned by the lodge to make the meeting place one of the finest headquarters of any occupied by the knights in this part of the State. It is expected that the knights will be in their new meeting rooms on or about the middle of next month.

Grand Jury's Sessions.

The Grand Jury for the January term of the Union County courts adjourned yesterday. It will resume its sessions on Monday.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

Be good to yourself and your family. Have your house wired by John H. McCullough, practical electrician, of West Front street.

A. Kane, of Filmore avenue, buys and sells lumber. You will find notice in the advertising columns of some special bargains that he offers.

Do you eat meat? If you do you want the best and nothing but the best. You can get it for the least money at J. W. VanSickle's, North avenue.

Smalley Brothers have their own brand of fine sausages. They make it of a selected choice of meat and consequently they have the best at the right price.

R. W. Barnes, of Park avenue, makes a specialty of table delicacies. They have fine home-made crullers, potato salad, Saratoga chips, and a full line of groceries.

There is no place in this city where the same bargains can be secured in dressmaking as at S. Hirsch's, at 430 Watchung avenue. An efficient corps of assistants is employed and all work is guaranteed.

Carl Silbert, on Somerset street, makes a specialty of clocks, watches, diamonds and engagement rings. Everything is the best and all his prices are right. Clock and watch repairing a specialty.

Don't deceive yourself. One drug store is not as good and reliable as another. There is a difference and the difference between C. M. Nagle's and other drug stores is an indication of Nagle's superiority.

Fine bicycles for spring. There is every indication that the bicycle craze is to return this summer. Prepare for wheeling trips now by securing a model wheel at much lower prices. Harry K. Lister, North avenue.

In the matter of building there are many things of importance to consider and for this reason it is neecssary to engage a first class contractor. Such a person is Titus H. Laury. He is thoroughly conversant in his business and he guarantees all work.

In arranging for a tea or social function there are many little delicacies if the affair is to be a success. You will find these things at the Oriental Tea Store on West Front street, also many things that can be used for room or table decorations.

The Lindsay dairy, on Mountain avenue, will give you the surest quality of good milk. You can depend upon the freshness and purity of Lindsay's milk. The cleanliness that is insisted upon at the dairy as the first essential makes impurity impossible.

Prior to his removal to his new store, Jacob Fass, proprietor of the Paris Cloak Store, on West Front street, will offer exceptional bargains in furs and cloaks, as well as women's suits and waists. The stock is large and permits of an easy selection. All goods are guaranteed to represent the best workmanship, best quality of goods at lowest prices.

At the New York Bargain Store, on West Front street, you will find the biggest bargains in Plainfield. If you are wise you will take advantage of some of the special bargains in rubbers which the present weather conditions make one of the necessities of life. All kinds of rubbers are displayed at the store at prices that will astonish. Notice the ad in today's paper which gives the particulars of the most sensational sale of men's suits and overcoats in the history of Plainfield. Rottsberg Brothers.

MONUMENT FOR HEROIC DEAD

NINTH'S VETS. WANTS LEGISLATURE TO MARK RESTING PLACE OF SOLDIERS.

The Ninth New Jersey Veteran volunteers at a reunion in Elizabeth last fall, appointed a committee to petition the Legislature to erect a State monument in the plot in the National cemetery at Newberne, N. C., where the dust of eighty-two members of the Ninth now repose. Captain Boudinot has prepared a bill for the purpose, and will present it to the Legislature at the present session. Alexander Sergeant, of East Second street, was a member of the regiment.

The Ninth New Jersey took an active part in the battle of Newberne, March 14, 1862, and was the first command to charge the strong works of the enemy, defended by a large force and many cannon. The Ninth drove the Confederates from their stronghold and captured several pieces of artillery, besides the flag of the Beaufort Plowboys and a number of prisoners.

The Ninth had four killed and fifty-eight wounded, some of the latter subsequently dying. In other engagements about Newberne the Ninth lost brave men, and one time several hundred mounds marked their resting places. After the war many bodies were taken up and brought North at the expense of the families of those who had fallen, not, as now days, at the cost of the Government.

The survivors of the Ninth, now few in number, feel that the State should erect a slab to mark the resting place of their dead comrades, and they hope to secure the passage of a bill at the coming session of the Legislature with this object in view.

Shortly after the battle of Newberne, one of the first victories for the Union arms, the New Jersey Legislature had made and presented to the Ninth, the handsomest and costliest flag ever seen in this State.

AMUSEMENTS.

Another practically all-star cast has been secured by Weber & Fields for "An English Daisy," which is to open at the Casino January 18. Christie MacDonald has the principal singing role and Charles Bigelow the leading comedy part. Fred Lennox is another of the prominent fun-makers and all are surrounded by a pretty, graceful and well-gowned chorus. The book was adapted to the American stage by Edgar Smith and additional musical numbers have been interpolated by A. M. Norden. "An English Daisy" is now enjoying a successful run at Weber & Fields' Globe Theatre in Boston.

The latest addition to the list of musical plays in New York is "The Medal and the Maid," now being presented at the Broadway Theatre. Probably the strongest list of principals that has ever been seen in one organization has been furnisheed by Messrs. John C. Fisher and Thomas Ryley for this attraction. Headed by the popular comedian, James T. Powers, it includes such well-known people as Cyril Scott, W. T. Carleton, Ignacio Hartionetti, Jeannette Lowrie, Emma Carus, Cecil Engelbart, Stanley H. Forde, Tom Terriss and Ruth Vincent, the latter brought from London to play her original role. The piece has been very favorably received at the Broadway and will undoubtedly attrot crowded houses for many weeks to come, for it is the only novelty in a musical way that will be forthcoming for some weeks. The New York Herald pronounces the new offering bright and amusing and commends it to the playgoers of the metropolis.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Emma Hull, of Central avenue, has recovered from an attack of heart trouble.

William Gaub and William Mills, of the borough, are visiting friends in Boston.

BRYAN INTERVIEWED

Everything Points to Victory, Says Nebraska Statesman.

SILENT ON PARKER AND GORMAN

Regarding W. R. Hearst as Candidate States That, Though a Friend, He Is Not Advocating His Nomination For the Presidency.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 16.—"Everything points to victory," said William J. Bryan, who spent an hour in St. Louis on his way home to Lincoln, Neb., in answer to a question asked by the Post-Dispatch as to the Democratic national outlook.

"I think we will win, and I am now convinced that a dark horse will capture the nomination," he continued.

"What do you think of Judge Parker of New York?" he was asked.

"I am not thinking about Parker at all."

"How would Senator Gorman suit you?"

"I am not discussing Mr. Gorman or any other candidate at this time."

"Is it true that you have expressed a preference for Mr. Hearst?"

"Now," said Mr. Bryan, "I wish you would write down what I have to say about Mr. Hearst."

He then dictated the following: "I appreciate the work Mr. Hearst has done for the Democratic party and count him among my personal friends, but I am not advocating his nomination or that of any person. I am avoiding any expression of preference for anybody."

"Are you a candidate, Mr. Bryan?"

"I think I have already made it perfectly plain that I am not."

"Would you become one if conditions should indicate the necessity of your making the race?"

"I can imagine no circumstances under which it would be either wise or necessary for me to become a candidate."

Mr. Bryan would not commit himself as to the eligibility of Mayor McClellan of New York for the Democratic nomination.

"Did your journey modify in any way your views on the money question?" Mr. Bryan was asked.

"It did not," he replied emphatically. "I am still a believer in the principle of free silver. But I will say this, that I got one new idea, which I will discuss at some future time."

TRAIN STRUCK TROLLEY.

Thirty-four Detroit People Injured In Smash.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 16.—An eastbound Michigan line car carrying a heavy load of passengers hurrying home at the close of the day was struck by a Grand Trunk passenger train last night at Gratiot avenue and Dequindre street. More than thirty-four people were injured, the heavy double truck car being carried 200 feet down the track from the point of collision and being almost demolished. Seven of the injured were conveyed to hospitals, and twenty-seven were taken to their homes.

No one was killed, though some of the injured are in a very serious condition and may die.

Chicago Drivers' Strike Ended.

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—The strike of the livery drivers, which, since its beginning some weeks ago, has caused much annoyance to mourners and interference at funerals, has been ended, and the union men were ordered back to work. A committee of owners and drivers, the latter headed by President Young of the International Teamsters' association, had a conference at which an agreement was brought about which recognizes the "closed" shop, one of the chief points of disagreement. It was agreed that the matter of an increased wage scale shall be arbitrated as soon as possible by a committee of the union and employers.

Mrs. Howell In Iroquois Fire.

LAPORTE, Ind., Jan. 16.—It is suspected that another victim of the Iroquois theater fire was Mrs. Milton Howell of Westville, this county. Mrs. Howell, who was recently separated from her husband, went to Chicago to visit friends and was downtown on the afternoon of the fire, since which time she has not been heard of. Her Chicago friends supposed she had returned to her home, and her Westville relatives supposed she was still in Chicago. It is thought she was among the unidentified dead or was erroneously identified. An immediate search will be made for her body.

Soldiers and Police Fought Fire.

CALGARY, N. W. T., Jan. 16.—Fire starting from the furnace of the New Normandie theater has gutted the whole block, causing a loss of $280,000. Six large stores in the building burned. The Canadian mounted rifles and Northwest mounted police were called out to assist the fire brigade. The chief of the latter was overcome by carbide fumes. The theater was new and had not been used.

Ex-Queen Lil to Get $200,000.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The senate committee on Pacific islands and Porto Rico has made a favorable report on Senator Blackburn's bill to pay Liliuokalani, formerly queen of Hawaii, the sum of $200,000 in full satisfaction of all claims to the former crown lands in Hawaii.

MOTHER IS ON TRIAL

Mrs. Bechtel at Bar as Accessory to Murder at Allentown.

THE ANALYSIS SHOWED NO POISON

Important Testimony of Neighbor Eugene Hartsell as to Events of Morning In Which It Is Supposed the Girl Was Killed.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 16.—In the trial of Mrs. Katherine Bechtel as an accessory after the fact to the murder of her daughter Mrs. Margaret Miller testified for the defense that she observed three blood spots on the sidewalk directly in front of the Bechtel home. Attorney Schaadt, defendant's counsel, asked the witness to state as near as possible the location of these spots. The first drop, said Mrs. Miller, was about three feet from the entrance to the areaway where Mabel's body was found. The second was two feet nearer the curb, and the third was about the same distance from the second. Changing the subject of examination, Attorney Schaadt asked Mrs. Miller if she noticed any carriage tracks in the rear of the Bechtel house after Mabel's body was found.

"Yes," replied Mrs. Miller. "I saw tracks made by carriage wheels."

"Besides carriage wheel tracks, what else did you see?"

"Hoof marks. They looked as though the horse did not stand still."

Dr. W. W. Esbach corroborated Coroner Schierer's evidence as to Mabel's clothing, wounds, etc. He said a grooved, corrugated instrument made the wounds over her right ear, and a convex instrument struck at right angles caused the wound on the forehead. All the wounds but the latter could have been self inflicted. Death, he said, was due to a fractured skull.

Eugene Hartsell, a next door neighbor, gave some important information. While in the outhouse on his premises at 3 a. m. Monday he saw a light in the Bechtels' kitchen, the rear door being open. Witness heard the voices of a man and a woman. He also heard water flowing into the cesspool from the Bechtel home. Two hours later the Bechtels' door was closed, and no water was flowing.

W. R. Whitehorn, professor of chemistry at Muhlenburg college, identified the articles in evidence and reported his analysis of Mabel's stomach and its contents. There was no poison discovered.

Murder Mystery Solved.

ERIE, Pa., Jan. 16.—A murder mystery of three years' standing was cleared up when Floyd Peckham, aged twenty-two, was held without bail for the shooting of his father, D'Alton Peckham, on the evening of Jan. 18, 1901, at the family home, near Cranesville, in this county. On the morning of Jan. 19, 1901, the elder Peckham was found murdered in his home, and his son Floyd was arrested on suspicion of having committed the crime, but at the request of the district attorney he was not indicted because of insufficient evidence. On Monday last young Peckham was rearrested and committed on the testimony of Herbert Guy, who swore at the hearing that as he was passing the Peckham home he heard a racket in the house, followed by a shot, and then he heard old man Peckham cry out, "For God's sake, spare my life, Floyd!" The shooting continued, and the witness heard Floyd say, "There, you ——, you won't go down cellar for any more cider!"

Two "Trusties" Recaptured.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Jan. 16.—John Roberts and James Stewart, the two "trusties" who escaped from Clinton prison last Sunday night, were caught in a cedar thicket on Cumberland head, Lake Champlain, about three miles from here, by Warden Deyo of Clinton prison and Parole Officer John B. Mooers. The men had kindled a fire, the smoke from which attracted the attention of the officers. They were about twenty miles from the prison and only about a mile from the Vermont line when captured. They told the officers that they had slept in barns and haystacks and lived on bread and other food which they took from the prison. They had great difficulty in getting drinking water, using snow and ice to quench their thirst.

Troops Under Arms.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Jan. 16.—The trouble at Copper Cliff, caused by a cut in wages by the Canadian Copper company, still continues, and the troops at the Canadian Soo are under arms and ready to depart on a moment's notice. Colonel Elliott of the Ninety-seventh regiment has sent a supply of ammunition to Sudbury. One Italian has been wounded in the trouble, and the men are arming themselves. The situation has now reached a critical stage.

RACING IN FOG.

Gold Money Won the Feature From Fossil.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—A full view of the races at Oakland could not be obtained owing to the fog that prevailed. There were three good finishes. Gold Money, the favorite in the fourth race, won by three-quarters of a length from Fossil, who suffered interference on the back stretch. Mount McGregor III., after being retired for five years, started in the third race, and Cousin Carrie beat him only a nose. Nigrette beat Telephone a neck in the last race. Results:

First Race—Algaretta won, My Surprise second, Rosebud third.

Second Race—The Cure won, Lustiga second, Scherzo third.

Third Race—Cousin Carrie won, Mount McGregor second, Rustic Girl third.

Fourth Race—Gold Money won, Fossil second, Rockaway third.

Fifth Race—Fille d'Or won, Expedient second, Augie third.

Sixth Race—Nigrette won, Telephone second, Avenger third.

Golden Rule Won the Feature.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 16.—Golden Rule was in fine form and won the feature race of the day at Ascot park over the Slauson course in track record. With 122 pounds up he stepped the distance in 1:10½, winning pulled up from Americano. Blissful, the second choice, was never a contender in the race. Three out of six favorites won.

Connolly Was Outclassed.

BOSTON, Jan. 16.—The bout between Honey Mellody of Charlestown and Eddie Connolly of St. John, N. B., at the Lenox Athletic club last night was stopped by the referee during the first round and the decision given to Mellody. Connolly was outclassed and at the mercy of the Charlestown man.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—In the first game of the intercollegiate basketball championship series played at the Columbia gymnasium Columbia defeated Harvard by the score of 37 to 14.

PHILIP OF ORLEANS.

Head of the French Royalist Faction Seeks Divorce.

VIENNA, Jan. 16.—The Duke of Orleans is seeking a divorce and has petitioned the curia for a dispensation to enable him to marry the daughter of a great Austrian noble. The duke consulted the leading members of the Royalist party last summer and informed them of his intentions, giving as a reason that his present union was childless and that he desired to continue the royal line. The Royalists endeavored to dissuade the duke from taking the action he proposed and pointed out to him that his divorce and remarriage would scandalize Catholic circles in France, the chief supporters of the Royalist cause.

It at first appeared that the duke acquiesced in the wishes of his followers, but he now renews his request to the curia, urging the nullification of his marriage on the ground that he was forced into the union.

The noblewoman whom the duke desires to marry is the Princess Clementine, daughter of Pauline Princess de Metternich-Sandor, a brilliant violinist and one of the most fascinating figures in Viennese society.

Duke Louis Philip Robert, head of the Bourbon-Orleans house, married in 1896 the Archduchess Marie Dorothea of Austria.

Carpenter Torn to Pieces.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Jan. 16.—William Taylor, a carpenter employed at the Pittsburg Oil Well Supply company's plant, has met a shocking death here. He was tightening bolts when his apron caught in a shafting, and he was torn to pieces. Portions of his body were thrown about the shop, hitting the workmen and so unnerving them that the entire force of nearly 200 men was dismissed for the day.

Disallowed His Claim.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Jan. 16.—After hearing a large amount of evidence against Superintendent of the Poor Abram Sammons the Ulster county board of supervisors has disallowed claims paid by him amounting to $1,500. Some of the bills are disallowed because of suspicions attaching to them and others because not itemized, as required by statute.

Russian Notes Made In Japan.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Commercial Agent Richard T. Greener at Vladivostok has reported to the state department that Manchuria is full of Russian counterfeit notes, which come from Japan and Shanghai and are manufactured very skillfully. Strict orders have been given to destroy such notes and to prosecute persons who distribute them.

Veteran Charged With Manslaughter

BATH, N. Y., Jan. 16.—The grand jury of Steuben county has found an indictment against Daniel McSweeney, a civil war veteran in the State Soldiers' home here, for manslaughter in the first degree, charging him with killing Edward News, a fellow inmate, during a quarrel in a saloon last election night.

EXPERT CHEMIST'S MAD ACT.

Edward K. Landis Kills His Wife and Then Kills Himself.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 16.—Rendered insane by illness, Edward K. Landis, a widely known expert chemist, has shot and killed his wife, Emma, and then ended his own life with the same weapon. The tragedy was enacted in the Landis residence, 4045 Spruce street, West Philadelphia. Mr. Landis had been a sufferer from asthma for many years.

Two months ago he was compelled to give up his laboratory work and had been confined to his bed for the past two weeks. Mrs. Landis, with her sister, Mrs. H. W. Potts, and Mrs. Patton, a dressmaker, were in the room adjoining the apartment occupied by Mr. Landis.

The sick man called to his wife, complaining that the ringing of the doorbell annoyed him. She entered his room and had barely stepped into the doorway when Mr. Landis raised himself in bed and, reaching under the pillow, drew forth a revolver. He fired upon his wife, the bullet taking effect in her breast. She screamed and fled to the adjoining room, her husband following. Mrs. Potts and Mrs. Patton attempted to disarm the frenzied man, but he brushed them aside. Grasping Mrs. Landis by the hair, he pulled her forcibly backward and shot her through the temple. The woman died instantly.

Mr. Landis hastened back to his own room, where he shot himself in the head, ending his own life. Mr. Landis was fifty-three years of age, and his wife was about forty-five years old. He was a prominent member of the Engineers' club of this city. He was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania thirty years ago, after which he traveled extensively and studied in many of the European universities. Fifteen years ago he opened a laboratory here, which was visited by chemists from all parts of this country and Europe, who sought the advice of Mr. Landis.

POSTAL FRAUDS' TRIAL.

Counsel For Defense Wants Documentary Proofs of Conspiracy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—In the trial of August W. Machen, the Groff Brothers and Dr. and Mrs. Lorenz here, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government, the defense made an important point with respect to the character of evidence to be introduced at this time by the government. The defense insisted that the government had not brought forth any documentary evidence showing the existence of a conspiracy to defraud the government and that that which was being offered naturally should follow the evidence of conspiracy so as to specifically connect the defendants with the various transactions which had been referred to. The court sustained the point.

At one point in the trial Attorney Douglass, for the defense, called on Judge Pritchard to reprimand First Assistant Postmaster General Wynne for volunteering the statement that a former employee of the postoffice department recently had been sentenced in Baltimore to a term of two years in the penitentiary. The suggestion was not complied with, but the justice instructed the jury that their minds must not be prejudiced by the statement of Mr. Wynne.

Perry S. Heath, former first assistant postmaster general, who was subpœnaed from his home in Salt Lake City to state what he knew about the administration of his office, was on the stand during the day.

Former First Assistant Postmaster General Johnson also gave testimony as to the practice of his office in the handling of matter originating in the free delivery division.

Sarafoff and Garibaldi Meet.

ROME, Jan. 16.—Boris Sarafoff, the Macedonian revolutionary leader, in response to an invitation visited Ricciotti Garibaldi, son of the Italian patriot, at Rio Freddo, in the Abruzzi mountains. The two leaders embraced and kissed each other and for two hours discussed the Balkan situation. They came to an agreement that all the revolutionary efforts should be directed against Austria and Russia in Macedonia and that an effort should be made to bring about accord between the Greek and Bulgarian revolutionary parties with the view of obtaining for Macedonia the intervention of all the great powers.

Electrocution Seems Permanent.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 16.—Attorney General Cunneen has received a communication from a man in Michigan, who inquires whether electrocution is an effective punishment for the crime of murder. The attorney general in reply stated that so far as he was aware no man who had suffered that punishment had ever again committed murder or any other crime.

Glover Arrested Again.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Jan. 16.—John M. Glover, former congressman from Missouri, has again been arrested by a military squad and placed in the county jail. Mr. Glover, who fought the military three weeks ago and was shot in the arm, was arrested on an order from Commander Verdeckberg because of a threatening letter sent that officer.

CASSINI IS ASSURED

Russian Ambassador Confers With Hay as to Manchuria.

OUR INTERESTS PURELY COMMERCIAL

Consuls Sent to Mukden and Antung Will Act In the Interests of American Trade Alone—No Policy of Aggression Contemplated.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16. — What might have developed into an unfortunate misunderstanding between the governments of the United States and Russia regarding the interest of the United States in Manchuria was adjusted at a conference at the state department between Mr. Hay, the secretary of state, and Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador. As a result the Russian government will be advised by the ambassador that he has the best assurances that the interest of this country in Manchuria is absolutely and exclusively commercial and that the consuls sent to Mukden and Antung will confine their activities to the faithful care of American trade interests in that province.

Count Cassini called at the state department to inquire into certain statements which several European diplomats here had brought to his attention and interpreted to indicate a change of policy on the part of this government in the direction of political intervention in Manchuria. The ambassador himself was unwilling to believe that any such change was even contemplated in view of his understanding throughout the negotiations that the United States interests in Manchuria were those of trade, not territory.

This conviction was confirmed by his visit to the state department. The conference between the secretary and the ambassador was characterized by frank cordiality on both sides. The ambassador was assured that this government does not contemplate the substitution of a political for a commercial policy in the far east.

This position of the United States, it was stated later, enables the Russian government to execute with minute fidelity the assurances given Secretary Hay that in any eventuality which unrest in Manchuria or war with Japan may precipitate the interests of this country will receive the fullest protection at the hands of the Russian authorities. Not even a change of administration control, it is said, should the progress of events necessitate such a step, would interfere with the treaty provisions this government has with China regarding our trade in Manchuria.

A London cablegram says that Baron Hayashi, has received no indication of the probable attitude of Russia, but he said, "It is virtually certain that any declaration of war will not emanate from Russia."

The minister is not very hopeful of the result of the latest Japanese note, but he specifically denies that Japan's reply suggests the neutralization of a portion of Manchuria as well as of a portion of Korea or that mention was made of the right to break off negotiations.

"Our conditions," said the minister, "are summed up in the concluding portion of the state department's announcement regarding the Chino-American treaty. For these principles, to which Secretary Hay says the United States is irrevocably committed, we are willing to go to war unless Russia will consent to give us a definite pledge that she, too, adheres to the open door and Chinese sovereignty in Manchuria."

Russia has applied to Turkey for permission to send her Black sea fleet through the Dardanelles, and it is asserted that Russia will press for Turkish consent. Germany's attitude, as at the time the four unarmed Russian torpedo boat destroyers passed through the straits in September, 1902, is that she has no concern in the matter.

A Peking cable says it is reported from consular sources at Newchwang that Russian troops are concentrating at the towns of Liaoyang and Haicheng and other places, where they will be in a position to reoccupy the territory between the Liao river and the great wall and seize the Newchwang-Shanhaikwan section of the Chinese railroad.

A cable from Seoul says M. Pavloff, the Russian minister to Korea, in an interview said:

"Russia will refuse to agree to the opening of Wiju and will protect Korean sovereignty at all costs. Russia would regard the landing of Japanese troops in Korea as an unfriendly act and would defend the independence of Korea against pagan invaders."

In the same interview Minister Pavloff declared: "The Russian fleet will not fight. Fabian tactics will be employed, and Japan will defeat herself within a short period of being on a war footing."

A Tokyo dispatch says the Korean cabinet has decided to open Yongampho and Jikoho and that this decision will be promulgated at the expiration of the mourning for the empress dowager.

Bryan's friends that the Commoner will be issued daily in St. Louis while the Democratic convention is in session. The pencil is mightier than the tongue nowadays.

INSTALLATION OF PASTOR

REV. JOHN C. WHITING MADE PASTOR OF CLAREMONT PARK CHURCH.

Public services attending the recognition of the Claremont Park Congregational church, New York, and the installation of the pastor, Rev. John C. Whiting, were held at the church last night.

Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church, gave the charge to the pastor. Mr. Whiting lived in Plainfield until he commenced to prepare for the ministry. The Claremont Park church was established by him.

Y. M. C. A. BOWLERS WON

O. F. C. TEAM DEFEATED IN THREE STRAIGHT GAMES.

The Orange Field Club bowling team was given an emphatic beating last night by the Y. M. C. A. five on the association alleys. All three games were won with ease by the association boys. Whitley, with 180, was high roller. The total scores: Y. M. C. A.—618, 726, 658; Orange Field Club—564, 504, 566.

PROSPEROUS SOCIETY.

Young Woman's Mission Band of Trinity Reformed Church Holds Important Meeting.

The last monthly meeting of the Young Woman's Mission Band, of Trinity church, for the fiscal year, was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church parlors, with Mrs. F. E. Woodruff in the chair. Reports for the month were read and a committee was appointed to make nominations for new officers. This committee is composed of Mrs. F. S. Cutter, Mrs. H. S. Potter, Mrs. Zeiss, Miss Minnie Williams and Miss Mary VanFleet. The annual meeting will be held next month. It was reported that there was $119 in the treasury. This will be equally divided between the domestic and foreign missions and part of it will be sent to India towards the support of an Indian girl.

—The St. Joseph Holy Name Society, of Bound Brook, through its president, Fred J. Pettingill, has invited the members of the North Plainfield Holy Name Society to attend their meeting tomorrow night. Rev. Father Miller will be the speaker.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

The ordinance of baptism was observed at the Seventh-Day Baptist church last night.

Rev. Dr. Snodgrass has recovered from his slight illness, and will occupy his pulpit tomorrow.

There will be an election of trustees at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, Monday night.

F. E. Whiteside, formerly a newspaper reporter in this city, will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. There will be good music.

The congregation of the German Reformed church on Craig place is urged to attend a meeting to be held tomorrow morning, when there will be an election of officers.

Special services will be held at the Whosoever Mission on Whitewood avenue, opposite Regent street, Sunday afternoon at 4:15. A prayer meeting will be held at the chapel Tuesday night.

Excellent work has been done by the members of the First M. E. church in liquidating the indebtedness incurred by recent improvements. But $209 yet remains to be paid to clear the debt.

At the Third Street chapel tomorrow evening, the Rev. Lester Girard Leggett will preach a special sermon to the bread winners of Plainfield. His theme will be: "Is not this the Carpenter" All are invited to hear him.

Mrs. Lizzie Seal, of East Fifth street, and Mrs. Clara Rose, of Manning avenue, were recently received into membership at the First M. E. church by letter, and Leslie M. Leland, of Sandford avenue, was received on probation.

The local union of the Christian Endeavor Society for the northern division of Somerset county will hold its convention at Stirling, Feb. 2, at which time the State president, J. T. Sprowl, will make an address. The societies of Liberty Corner, Stirling, Bedminster, Peapack and Basking Ridge compose the union.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Monroe Avenue church, will have a mite box opening on Monday night in the Epworth House. An address will be given by Miss Jennie V. Hughes, of South Orange, one of the National organizers of Young People's Work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Refreshments will be served.

William Carey, an engineer of Newark, will observe the sixteenth anniversary of his conversion in the W. C. T. U. Hall, corner Market and Mulberry streets, Newark, on Wednesday night, January 20, at 7:30. A number of Mr. Carey's Plainfield friends will attend and Mrs. John Manley will render several solos. Rev. Dr. J. R. Bryan, also of this city, will attend and take part in the celebration.

L. B. Greenwood, the evangelist, will hold his first service at Warren chapel tomorrow morning, but as he wishes to complete his labors at Hope chapel tomorrow night he will not speak at the night service at Warren chapel. Every afternoon and night next week, with the exception of Saturday. Mr. Greenwood will conduct services, in the afternoon at 3 and at 7:45 at night. A chorus choir will assist in the services.

Abandoned Pullman.

A Pullman coach attached to a Royal Blue Line "flyer" which passes Plainfield at 3:19 o'clock in the afternoon, going east, was left in this city yesterday. In the vicinity of Dunellen it was discovered that the brasses on the Pullman were broken. At Grant avenue the train was stopped and an effort was made to remedy the difficulty until the train reached Jersey City. This was found impossible and when Plainfield was reached the car was dropped and run on a siding, the passengers being transferred to the other coaches.

Smoker at Alis Club.

A clam chowder supper was served to the members of the Alis Club and their friends, last night. Songs, recitations and a smoker were features of the evening's programme.

Dance in Coward Building.

An informal dance will be given under private auspices in the old Common Council rooms, Monday night. H. H. Coward is chairman of the committee.

—The members of the Young Women's Club will give a euchre party in their rooms in the Babcock building, Monday night.

THE LADIES favor painting their churches, and therefore we urge every Minister to remember we give a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Paint toward the painting.

Wears and covers like gold.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy other paints in a can with a paint label on it.

8 and 6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight of L. & M., and mix 6 gallons pure Linseed Oil with it, and thus get paint at less than $1.20 per gallon.

Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M. and three gallons of Linseed Oil mixed therewith.

These Celebrated Paints are sold by Woolston & Buckle, Plainfield; H. C. Meyer, Scotch Plains.

UP AND DOWN THE STATE

The Veterinary Medical Association of New Jersey held its annual meeting in Trenton Thursday.

It is not generally known to the citizens that one-fifth of the money appropriated by the State of New Jersey for public use goes to the support of dependents—men, women and children who are incapable of taking care of themselves. For this purpose $677,342 was appropriated last winter, and the sum will probably be increased by the appropriation committee of the Legislature this winter.

I. R. TRAVELL DEAD.

Father of Plainfield High School's Principal Passed Away Yesterday.

Ira R. Travell, of Troy, N. Y., died yesterday at the residence of his son, I. W. Travell, 123 East Ninth street. He was in his sixty-eighth year. He was born at Gilboa, N. Y., but early removed to Troy and identified his life with the various business, socially and religious interests of that city. He is survived by four sons, one of whom is the principal of the Plainfield High School. The funeral will be held in the First Congregational church, of Troy.

P. S. C. Badges.

The motormen and conductors, employed by the Public Service Corporation have all been supplied with new badges for their caps. They are of large size and the lettering is quite plain.

Former Councilman Jan. vanHerwerden, of South avenue, has returned from a southern business trip.

Mrs Joseph Schultheis, of Jersey City, who has been visiting borough relatives for some days past, returned home yesterday.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

The New Senate Chamber.

When one gets used to it it seems better. No doubt. One gets used to anything. It comes awkward at first for a man to tie his necktie or cut his steak with one hand, but he gets used to it after a while. We even suppose that a person gets used to being dead, after he has been buried a month or so. But experience will tell whether it is a success or not. At all events it would be practically impossible to make the Senate chamber much worse than it was before.—From the Paterson Call.

The Waiter's Tip.

Many a true word, etc. One of the speakers at the Hotel Men's banquet remarked: "One of the great fruits of this science is forcing the guest to pay the wages of the hotel help, and it is arranged and shaped in such a scientific manner that the public imagine they are doing it of their own free will—under the name of gratuities or tips."—New Brunswick Home News.

Put Our Guardsmen in the Field.

The War Department having selected a tract of land on the northern border of this State for the fall war maneuvers of regulars and National Guardsmen, it would be a good idea for the Legislature to make provision for the entire division, New Jersey National Guard, to spend at least ten days in taking part in this simulated warfare. The summer camp at Sea Girt could be dispensed with and by the saving thus effected and a slight additional expenditure the division could be put in the field, officers and men being paid as in actual service.—Camden Post-Telegram.

Biennial Sessions.

There is a revival of the agitation in favor of biennial sessions of the Legislature. We came nearer to the abolition of annual sessions in 1897 than we shall be for some years to come, and the only thing that defeated the proposition then was a difference of opinion between the late Senator Sewell and Governor Voorhees over the reconstruction of the courts, as a result of which difference both the judiciary amendments and biennial sessions were defeated in the Senate. There will be no chance of securing amendment to the constitution before 1908, so that discussion of the desirability of curtailing the volume of legislation by reducing the opportunites to pass it, may as well be put away in camphor for a year or two. New Jersey is one of five States in the Union that stick to the old system of holding legislative sessions every year.—Trenton Times.

LITERARY.

If the New Amsterdam and New Lyceum theatres which have recently ben erected in New York, two important public buildings, in which the architects, Messrs. Herts & Tallant, have tried to substitute for the current routine a certain orginality of conception and treatment; they have tried to give their individual powers of designer a freer expression than has been customary. This individuality of expression, exhibited in absolute freedom in the New Amsterdam Theatre, under self-imposed freedom in the New Lyceum, is evident in all the work of this firm. They did not, however, permit themselves such complete liberty of expression until they had schooled themselves to avoid the excesses of their qualities, first by as good an art education as the world affords, and second by the execution of several important buildings designed along the standard architectural lines.—The Architectural Record Magazine.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Democratic Club, of Elizabeth, sent beautiful floral rememberances to Assemblymen Hague, Moffett and Gunn, and these were on their desks when the Legislature opened its sessions.

Ex-Senator Lewis Martin, of Sussex, has announced himself as candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor. One of the interesting rumors is to the effect that Robert Davis, Democratic leader of Hudson, looks with favor upon ex-Senator Martin's Gubernatorial boom, and will soon declare for Martin, if he is not ready to do so even now. Ex United States Senator James Smith, Democartic State leader, several months ago in a newspaper interview, mentioned Martin as one of several Democratic candidates who could bring out the full party vote, if nominated.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

Although the season is quite distant, those interested in baseball have already begun to discuss the prospects for a team such as the borough had last year. The plan for organizing a league among a few neighboring towns is looked on with favor as this will increase the interest in the game and help the management financially as well. The Bound Brook team has expressed a desire to join such a league.

The funeral services of John Schenck, who was killed at Jersey City on Wednesday, will be held at the residence of his parents this evening at 8 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

While walking on North avenue Thursday evening, Firm Gise slipped on the ice on the walk and was thrown heavily to the ground. He was badly shaken up but no bones were broken.

A movement is afoot to reorganize the local Board of Trade, which exists in name only, in order to meet the demands of the important boom which has already begun in the borough.

A party of young people have arranged for a sleigh ride which will start from the postoffice this evening, and drive to New Brunswick by way of Metuchen.

The elders of the Presbyterian church expect to call a congregational meeting shortly, in order to vote for a permanent pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Darby will remove shortly to Trenton, N. J., where they lived before coming to the borough.

Rev. Mr. Ketcham, of Westfield, will occupy the pulpit of the Preesbyterian church tomorrow.

Mrs. George Schenck will entertain the Literary Circle at her home on Monday evening.

Stacy H. Opdyke, of Rutgers' College, is visiting his parents on Washington avenue.

Grover Kratzel has taken a position as carpenter with Contractor Willard Apgar.

Mrs. Edward Teel has been entertaining relatives from Easton, Pa.

The school library will be open this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Engineer John Logan is on the sick list.

NEW MARKET.

Mrs. Alice W. Pierce, whose late husband was a veteran of the Civil War, has been granted a pension from the Government.

Some new members will be admitted to the First Baptist church tomorrow at the conclusion of the morning services.

William Dana left this morning for Southern Kansas, where he will be employed on a cattle ranch.

Col. Downey has entirely recovered from a sprained ankle which he sustained three weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Machamer have returned from an extended visit with Harrisburg relatives.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

It is quite probable that both political parties will recommend the raising of a larger police appropriation at the spring election. The amount raised for several years past, has been $100. This amount has been found to be too small during the past year. Every one admits that an officer on duty Saturday night and Sundays has the effect of curbing the boisterousness of some of our out-of-town visitors who can only be subdued by authority, which means $10 or thirty days, which is Judge Clark's prescription to evil doers.

The Suburban Club, of the borough, is preparing to take an active interest in out-door sports during the coming summer. An athletic committee has been appointed, baseball and football teams are talked of while those who enjoy tennis will have the use of one of the best of courts. The club is in a flourishing condition and will no doubt take a prominent place in the athletic world.

In writing the history of New Jersey Baptists, which is being prepared, the question has been raised as to whether Dr. James Manning, president of Brown University, was ever a member of the Scotch Plains Baptist church or not. The records show that Dr. Manning was licensed and ordained here, but no record has been found of church membership.

The house occupied by Mrs. McCaskie, of Short Hills, was totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday. Mrs. McCaskie and family are well-known in the village and borough. Mrs. McCaskie's father, Rev. F. E. Osborne, has occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church upon several occasions.

Fanwood Council, R. A., will celebrate its twentieth anniversary in March. The entertainment committee has the matter in charge, and the event will be observed in a befitting manner.

John Patterson, a former well-known resident of the village, but now holding a position at the State Hospital, Morris Plains, is spending a few days with relatives and friends in town.

Sunday services at the Baptist church will be: Sunday-school, 9:30 a. m.; morning preaching, 10:45; B. Y. P. U. meeting in the parlors of the church at 7 p. m.; evening sermon, 7:45.

The Misses Hayes, of the borough, are planning a pleasure trip of several weeks. The trip will include Washington, Lynn, Mass., and other points of interest in the country.

The condition of Adam Gray, who is ill at the home of his brother, Joseph Gray, of Front street, is considered serious, pneumonia having developed.

Miss Susie Hueston, of Brooklyn, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Marsh, of Park avenue.

Work at the stone crusher will be resumed as soon as the weather will permit.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Charles C. Fulmer, who succeeded Mr. Barton as track superintendent on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, is residing with his family in rooms adjoining his office on the second floor of the station. Mr. Fulmer was ont able to secure a suitable house in town.

Public worship at the Baptist church with preaching by the pastor will be as usual at 10:30 a. m., and 7:45 p. m. Sunday-school at 11:45 a. m. The subject for the Christian Endeavor prayer meeting at 7 o'clock will be: "How May I Overcome Temptations."

Thomas Brantingham has men gathering ice for use in his meat shop.

The express train carrying the afternoon mail was two hours late yesterday.

Mrs. Henry Teeple is visiting her son, William Teeple, in Newark.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Staats, of West Front street, are entertaining company from Jersey City.

W. M. Smith, of Elmwood place, has been visiting his sister at Orange for several days.

Mrs. Elvaine VanName, of Madison avenue, has been detained at home with a severe cold.

Stephen Blazier, of Chatham, has returned home after a visit with Plainfield relatives.

Rev. John McMurray, pastor of the Monroe Avenue church, has recovered from a recent illness.

Mr. J. H. Snyder, of Manning avenue, is detained at her home with a severe attack of the grip.

Roland Perrine, infant son of Cornelius Perrine, of Park avenue, who has been ill, is recovering.

Miss Beekman, of Martinsville, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Cleaves, of West Front street.

Miss Gould, trained nurse, has returned from Canada, where she spent a pleasant holiday season at her former home.

Miss Jeffery, of Summit avenue, is detained at home, the result of a recent fall on the ice causing a fracture of the left arm.

SODA SUCCESS.

Soda success is earned by attention to details.

We've built up a good soda trade by looking after our soda business. We see that the syrups are properly made—see that there is enough to make it palatable—see that everything is kept clean.

Then, too, our soda fountain is the handsomest in the State of New Jersey.

This ordinance passed its second reading.

Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed said last night: "The result should be a compact, well organized, efficient department, with men on duty day and night in the engine house, ready to answer instantly any alarm, whether rung in from a box or by telephone, and the expense need not be greatly in excess of the present departments. And that expense will be shared equally by all taxpayers, in proportion to their taxable property

"The ordinance prohibits soliciting subscriptions and the like, by means of which volunteer companies frequently collect large sums of money from a comparatively few.

"The question of purchasing horses, new truck and apparatus, is not at all dependent upon the establishment of a paid department. It is generally conceded that a new truck, new hose and some other new apparatus are necessary in any event, and horses are necessary or unnecessary without regard to whether the department be volunteer or paid."

Dr. D. C. Adams, upon the recommendation of the Mayor, was reappointed a member of the Board of Health.

A serious condition confronts the people of North Plainfield since the ordinance was introduced in the Council last night, substituting a paid fire department for the volunteer system, and if the statement of some of the firemen is true, and the threat they make is carried out, the property interests in the borough will be seriously jeopardized.

Now that the paid system seems an assured fact, it is said that many of the volunteers threaten to resign before the time for the paid department to go into commission arrives. Such action would leave the borough in a bad plight in case of fire.

Just how many will carry out this threat cannot be learned. It was ascertained this morning that the majority of the members are opposed to such action and inclined to discredit the story. Two borough firemen were seen last night, however, and declared that the introduction of the new system showed that the volunteer firemen's services were not appreciated and that for them to work without receiving credit would be foolish.

A special meeting of Warren Engine Company will be called Monday night, and at that time the future of the company will be discussed and possible resignations considered.

Councilman Robert Clark, Jr., who has championed the firemen's cause during the heated debates in the Council, when the paid department was talked of, was absent last night.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Children's Home, 146 Jackson avenue, corner Westervelt. Mrs. Sarah A. Hendrickson, matron. Take Somerset street car to Jackson avenue and walk east two blocks. tf

—Charles Wilson, an errand boy employed by Dudley S. Miller, the Park avenue druggist, destroyed several dollars worth of drugs Thursday, the string, by which he carried the package containing the drugs, breaking.

—It is expected that early next week a settlement of the loss on the Saengerbund Hall, caused by the recent fire, will be effected. The insurance adjustors are awaiting a time of meeting to be appointed by officers of the Gesang and Turn Verein.

—Prof. C. F. Colton, of Upsala College, will be the speaker at the Swedish-Lutheran church tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. Monday night Rev. C. F. Sandahl, presiding elder, will speak and the annual business meeting of the church will be held at the home of Charles Johnson, of Manning avenue, the financial secretary.

Mrs. William Mosher, of New street, is recovering from an attack of the grip.

THE INDUSTRIOUS ESQUIMAU.

A Good Word for the Man of the Frozen North Who Deserves a Helping Hand.

The natives of Alaska are a fast dwindling race. Their sun is setting. Probably their midday sun never rose higher than the midwinter sun rises in this latitude.

Most of the Esquimaux in Alaska are gathered at the missions, says the Nome News, but the traveler will find a few in villages of two or three or half a dozen igloos in places convenient for fishing, as fish is the staple diet of these people. Starvation and disease have left but a remnant of once populous tribes.

Contact with the white race has had a great deal to do with their deterioration. They like whisky, and like all other native races are not naturally industrious. Before the coming of the white man stern necessity made them provide for the immediate future. The sea supplied them with most of their food, and there were wild berries and various kinds of game on the land to vary their fish diet. By instinct inherited from a long line of ancestors they are fishermen and hunters, but by contact with the Caucasian they are makers of curios and traders. In their new avocations they have become dependent to a great extent upon the white people.

But the higher race is not responsible for all their ills. The unsanitary state in which they live is not conducive to longevity. The impure air in the native winter huts, the lack of personal cleanliness and much of the food the native eats would shorten the days of the hardiest people.

The Esquimau has some qualities of character to be admired. He has often shared his last bit of food with starving prospectors or wrecked sailors. He is bright and ingenous, simple minded as a child, with a happy disposition that takes no thought of the morrow. He is bad only when under the influence of liquor.

The government should make some provision for the Esquimau. He can be made self-supporting, possibly a contributor to the wealth of the world, by placing him in a line of work for which nature has fitted him. Provide him with modern appliances for fishing and whaling and with proper management he will become a producer of wealth.

Snake Killing Cats of Cairo.

A native woman living in old Cairo was entering her house when, to her great terror, she perceived a snake of formidable dimensions which had taken possession of the hearth during the owner's absence. The woman fled, leaving the door open. Her cat then appeared on the scene, entered, saw the cobra, put up its back and tail, spat and otherwise manifested its hostility, and in turn went out. A few minutes afterward it returned in company with a second cat. After a similar exhibition both went out and returned with a third, and similarly went away, returning finally with a fourth. Considering that sufficient force had been recruited to kill the snake, the four at once fell on the reptile, and after a short but fierce struggle the latter was literally torn to pieces.—Egyptian Gazette.

Little Woman at Bargain Sale.

She Knew the Whole Thing Was a Cheat, Didn't Want Any of the Goods Advertised, Wouldn't Make a Fool of Herself, Yet in the End Succumbed to the Temptation Against Which No Woman Is Proof.

"Well, I'm glad of it!" exclaimed the little woman, as she got out of the jam and straightened her hat and borrowed two pins to make repairs to her dress. "I might have known better than to come to this sale. This bargain-counter business is all a cheat, and I'll be glad to know that all these women are sure to be swindled. Just look at 'em, will you? They are almost tearing the clothes off each other to get at those stockings.

I didn't intend to buy any—not me. I know all about 50-cent stockings marked down to 17 cents. They are simply 15-cent stockings marked up to 17, just as my husband says. They are not fast colors, and they have been kicking around the store for the last year. I simply wanted to look at 'em and see—"

Here the little woman paused, drew a long breath, and dashed at an opening in the crowd. It closed up before she could reach it, however, and she was flung back again.

"I wasn't trying to get in there," she explained to herself, as she leaned against a pillar to recover her breath. "I know all about that toilet soap, and I wouldn't give it to a tramp to wash his feet with. A friend of mine bought some a few days ago and it gave her a skin disease and made her look a fright. My toilet soap costs 30 cents a cake, and my husband would divorce me if I used anything cheaper! There are two ladies whose husbands allow them $200 a month pin money, and yet they are ready to scratch each other's eyes out over three-cent cakes of toilet soap! There's a sign of pins at three cents a paper. I don't want any, you know, but I'd just like—"

She made a jump and followed a cash girl into the press. That is, she managed to squeeze ahead of an old lady with gold glasses and a young woman with a Roman nose and take them by surprise. They recovered after a moment, however, and crowded her against a dumpy woman with such force that she was glad to get back to the corset counter alive.

"Never again in all my life will I make a fool of myself by attending another bargain sale!" she gasped, as the tears came to her eyes. "I didn't want those pins, as I said to myself, but I had a curiosity to see them. They are just what I thought they were—brass crowbars, with points so dull you couldn't stick 'em into pumpkin pie. Think of a lady using three-cent pins around her house, when the cheapest second girl or cook would be ashamed to ask for anything under seven! There's a lawyer's wife with a $100 dress and a $25 hat, and yet she's got her elbows into everybody's ribs in her mad desire to buy five papers of pins at a saving of four cents a paper. I'm going home, I am. I just dropped in to see the women make idiots of themselves. When you catch me—"

At that instant, says the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, her eye caught sight of a sign: "Corset covers for seven cents," and with a push and a jam and a rush she made her way into the crowd and finally reached the counter and ordered two. She was a wreck from hat to shoes, and had broken her parasol and lost her shopping bag, but she had found a real bargain, and was happy at last.

BEANS LEAD TO ALTAR.

Boston Baked Variety No Longer Has Any Terrors for This Smart Young Jerseyman.

There isn't much romance in the common or garden variety of beans. Anybody will be willing to admit that, but when baked in the Boston manner they seemed to promote matrimony if in the meantime they do not swell the membership of the suicide club.

Otto L. Stoeffler formerly lived in Jersey City. Not long ago he went to Boston—that is, most of him did—and obtained a position.

His heart—as the story book tells it—was left behind in the keeping of Miss Josephine Staubinger, of Griffith street, Jersey City. They were both young and were to have been married in two years.

But they had reckoned without the Boston baked beans. Otto took up the burden of life in Boston and daily the burden became increased by baked beans. This went on for some time and then he sent a call of distress, headed towards Jersey City. A letter from him to a friend announcing that he is to be married soon throws light on the subject. It is as follows:

"Dear John: I cannot stand Boston baked beans much longer. For nearly a year this dish has been set before me at breakfast, dinner and supper. As you know, I have strong will power, but it has been broken down completely by the everlasting and ever present baked bean. After due deliberation I have decided to get married at once, so that I may have something else for meals besides beans. Josephine has consented, and thank goodness there is a prospect of my sitting down to a table and not finding beans on it. The Boston baked have no more terrors for me now. Rejoice with me for my lucky escape."

Boy Caught by a Catfish.

Otto Scavinsky, 11 years old, had an exciting tussel with a catfish weighing 32 pounds, and but for the timely assistance of two men would probably have lost his life. The boy was fishing on the river bank at the foot of Chestnut street, in St. Paul, Minn., when suddenly his line was jerked violently, and he was yanked headlong into the river. He cried loudly for help, but held on to the line. James Goodhue and Thomas Murphy heard his cries and pulled him out of the water. They landed the catfish, after a struggle.

WIFE IS HIS BOSS.

And She Wouldn't Let Her Husband Off to Defend Himself in a Suit for Divorce.

John Helmess could not attend his wife's divorce suit in Judge Tuthill's court at Chicago the other day, because Mrs. Helmess, who is head of the department in which he is employed in a downtown department store, would not let him off. Hereafter Helmess must not only report for orders to his divorced wife, but he must pay her alimony of $5 weekly, and that may come hard, for Mrs. Helmess told the court that heretofore she had always supported her husband.

"I paid the rent and household expenses for six years," the wife explained, "and gave John a little money each week to spend. He got only a small salary and spent it all on himself."

"You have not asked for alimony," said the court.

"No," Mrs. Helmess replied, with a smile; "all I care for is the divorce."

"Well, I'll allow you alimony of $5 a week. As head of Mr. Helmess' department I suppose you can see that he pays it."

"I can," the department head answered.

"I wonder whether she will discharge her ex-husband or raise his salary when she gets back to the store?" whispered a woman who was waiting her own turn for a divorce.

Queer Trade Commodities.

Most people nowadays hear a lot about the conservation of waste, but looking through the catalogue of traders of various kinds it is astounding what a number of eccentric commodities are utilized for trade purposes. The skins of millions of eels are tanned and used as leather for bootlaces; frogskin has become one of the most beautiful and useful articles known to the binders of fancy books and the makers of fans; walrus whiskers provide the most elegant toothpicks known to the modern man of fashion; and beetles of a certain kind are exported by the hundredweight for use on theatrical dresses.

When Money Talks.

A quiet little game is one in which money does nearly all the talking.

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

WHAT IS WORN.

Gray Cloth Combined With Chinchilla—Blue Dinner Frocks.

The wreath of small flowers has long been a favorite evening headdress, but it is now a trifle out of style. At any rate it is only becoming to a well shaped head and hair dressed low.

Gray ball gowns are a novelty of the season, but this demands bright hair and a brilliant complexion. An evening gown of pale gray oriental satin seen recently had a wide girdle of silver ribbon and a white bertha of creamy duchess lace. The skirt was laid in flat plaits at the waist and flared out into a pretty fullness.

Chinchilla is the fur to go with gray materials, and when this is combined with silver embroidery and cream lace the effect is very rich.

Pale coffee shades growing into cream are very smart trimmed with narrow touches of bronze velvet or mink. They are trimmed in addition with bands and applications of heavy lace dyed ecru to match.

Bright blues if becoming to their wearer make stunning dinner and theater frocks, but they must be trimmed in the same tone with dyed lace, sequins or chenille fringe.

The picture shows a gown of gray cloth trimmed with chiffon of the same shade and bands of oriental embroidery in red and green. The hat is of gray felt trimmed with a greenish owl.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

ELABORATE DRESSES.

Dyed Brussels Net—Chenille and Velvet Embroideries.

Brussels net is dyed in all the fashionable pale shades, and when this is made up over chiffon and silk it forms a beautiful and dainty costume. A gown of this description seen recently was in pale turquoise blue. The bodice, made decollete, had a draped bertha of dyed lace and chiffon, with tiny bows of velvet. The skirt and bodice were laid in graduated horizontal tucks, growing wider as they reached the bottom, and the belt was of swathed velvet, with a beautiful jeweled buckle having stones of a much darker shade of blue.

Jet robes have returned to favor, and they are made up with much chiffon and a spray of beautifully shaded velvet roses.

Black and white chiffon effects are particularly smart in evening gowns.

A DAINTY WAIST.

and Parisians are especially fond of black chiffon gowns trimmed with medallions of lace embroidered in black and white sequins.

All kinds of mirror velvets are worn, both plain and spotted, but chiffon velours in black, gun metal and a new shade of brown is the leading fabric for reception gowns.

Cloth gowns are trimmed with fanciful applications of velvet, diamonds, squares or round spots, and these spots are worked into a shaded design, interwoven sometimes with embroidery in leaf design.

Chenille is frequently seen not only in fringe, but in embroidery designs. Cut jet ornaments and even those of amber and pearl are being used on lace gowns.

The picture shows a cream crepe de chine waist made up of wide and narrow tucks and cordings.

RELIC OF THE PAST.

The Talamancans a Forgotten People of the Isthmus.

Their Ancient Usages and Customs Have Not Been Affected by Four Centuries of Medieval Spanish Civilization.

Within less than 100 miles of where the United States intends to complete the greatest interoceanic ditch the world has seen, in territory where the newly created republic of Panama is situated, there dwells an Indian nation that is to all intents and purposes identically the same to-day as it was when Columbus first discovered the western hemisphere. These are the Talamancans, who inhabit a few square miles in the mountains almost midway between the two oceans and but a comparatively short distance from the Panama railroad, though it is much to be doubted if they have ever seen it or are aware of its existence. The Scientific American says that although for upward of four centuries the medieval civilization of Spain has surrounded them on all sides, they have neither been contaminated by its influence nor exterminated by its kindness, as was the case in Cuba and other Spanish colonies. Their language is still their own, and seems to have lost little of its original character through contact with the execrable mixture of English, Spanish and French spoken by the lower classes throughout the West Indies and along the Spanish Main. Living in virtually an unknown region, at least three days journey from the nearest settlement, their solitude is seldom broken. The visitor is received with the greatest hospitality, and is welcome as long as he desires to remain. Their visits to the outer world are infrequent, rarely extending beyond the nearest port, and are undertaken only in quest of luxuries. Extra fowls and porkers are bartered on these occasions for tobacco, gewgaws and ammunition. The spear and blowgun are used more than firearms for various reasons. The former are not only infinitely cheaper, but usually more effective in the hands of the Indian than the cheap muzzle-loading fowling piece of French or German origin with its paper-like barrel—the only arm he can afford to purchase besides the machete.

Their language and customs in some respects resemble those of the score or more of widely differing peoples that are scattered over the territory lying between the Mexican border and the isthmus. Their ancestors doubtless served Aztec masters for centuries before Cortez appeared on the scene to impose a worse slavery upon them, for they are not of the superior race of which so many reminders in the shape of gold and silver ornaments, stone idols and curious specimens of pottery have been unearthed in quantities in several of the Central American states, and being the opposite of warlike, they could easily be held in bondage.

They are not idolaters in any sense of the word, nor do they profess religion or hold public worship of any nature, though their belief tends more to fear of an evil spirit than faith in a good one; in fact, the Talamancans present an instance of a nation without doctor, lawyer or priest, the "sokee," corresponding to the medicine man of the North American tribes, usually combining the functions of all three. Polygamy is the most important feature of their domestic relations, few if any of the members of the different tribes being content with less than three to half a dozen wives, while his Talamancan majesty might well exclaim with Launcelot: "Alas! Fifteen wives is nothinge." His seraglio is usually better provided in point of numbers.

The government of this Indian nation is entirely hereditary, and it is astonishing to learn of the many points of the doctrine of primogeniture as practiced by the reigning families of Europe, with which they are familiar. Their laws are naturally few in number, both the legislative and judicial power, as is usually the case where no fixed principles of either have been acquired, being vested exclusively in the king. In common with others in his position the world over, he is a despot, and rules according to royal whim where this does not conflict with long-established custom. The marital relation is held sacred. The engagement of a girl begins within a few hours of her birth, the bridegroom-to-be making a contract with the parents at that time. It is usually consummated when she reaches the age of ten or twelve, a custom that is responsible for great disparity in the age and longevity of the sexes.

"No Man's Land"
Sun Cured Codfish.
This Codfish is the famous "No Man's Land" fish acknowledged to be the finest Codfish in the world. It has not as much salt as most Codfish as we depend on the sun to cure it. It is caught and cured under my own supervision and I guarantee it to be a table delicacy with the old fashioned Codfish flavor. For family use we put it up in 20-lb boxes at 20c lb and trial boxes of 10-lbs at $2.00. Address,

TRADE CONDITIONS.

R. G. Dun & Co. Report Trade Good on the Whole.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

Reports of improvement in the volume of business outnumber unfavorable dispatches, although the situation is decidedly irregular. As the money market becomes easier there is better prospect of postponed work being resumed. All structural lines are largely dependent upon the ability of the railroads to borrow money and the restoration of confidence among investors. Only fair reports are received regarding the leading manufacturing lines. Many iron and steel plants have resumed, but the preceding curtailment was very severe. Textile fabrics are as badly unsettled as ever, lower prices for new lines of woolens proving a disagreeable surprise to the many small operators, and speculation in cotton rendering forward contracts for goods an impossibility.

Grain still fluctuates according to the latest war news, and no other influence is effective. Nothing new is reported as to the winter wheat crop except that there is a lack of moisture in the southwest. Receipts have increased to 5,011,935 bushels, against 3,211,894 in the same week last year, but exports for the week, flour included, were only 3,065,141 bushels, against 3,797,864 bushels a year ago. Complaint is heard regarding the poor quality of corn arrivals, which aggregated 4,137,116 bushels, against 4,107,161 bushels a year ago. Atlantic coast shipments of 1,026,586 bushels compare with 2,155,309 in the same week of 1903.

Liabilities of commercial failures thus far reported for January aggregated $4,876,735, of which $1,143,263 were in manufacturing, $2,701,034 in trading and $1,031,538 in other commercial lines. Failures this week numbered 324 in the United States against 267 last year and 24 in Canada compared with 38 a year ago.

TO ARREST E. R. THOMAS.

For Killing of Peasant Woman With Automobile In Italy.

ROME, Jan. 16.—The authorities deny that orders have been sent to the Italian embassy at Washington to secure the arrest of E. R. Thomas, son of the late General Samuel Thomas of New York, on the charge of killing an old woman while riding in his automobile near Gaeta recently.

The procedure in such cases is long, it being required that Italy, after asking for extradition, should be required to furnish evidence of guilt. It is believed, however, that the United States would not grant the extradition of Mr. Thomas, as Italy does not grant the extradition of Italians who have committed crimes in the United States, but tries the charges against them in the Italian courts. Therefore Mr. Thomas might be arrested in the United States if requested by Italy in diplomatic form, accompanied by complete evidence of his guilt of the accusation brought against him, but he would be tried in United States courts.

It is believed that Mr. Thomas is still in Europe.

Steel Mills Resume, Wages Cut.

NEWCASTLE, Pa., Jan. 16.—The McKinley furnace of the Carnegie Steel company resumed after an idleness of several weeks. It is announced that the steel mill will resume Monday. There will be reductions in wages amounting to nearly 50 per cent on some of the tonnage men. Laborers will be cut from $1.50 to $1.40 per day.

CHURCH SOCIETY'S BIG SALE

CAKES AND CANDIES RETAILED BY FIRST BAPTIST ORGANIZATION.

Under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Missionary Society, of the First Baptist church, a successful cake and candy sale was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Florence Serrell, of Myrtle avenue. The attendance was large and the patronage liberal, all the cakes and the candy being disposed of at good prices. As yet the exact amount realized as profit is not known, but a goodly sum will be placed in the treasury for mission purposes.

The guests were received by Miss Ada Fountain, president of the society, and Mrs. Harold Serrell, Miss Florence Serrell, Mrs. F. W. Jones and Miss Hattie French. The decorations were attractive, red being the prevailing color.

In the dining room Miss Edith Cairns poured tea and Miss Bessie Wilson poured chocolate. They were assisted by Miss Bessie TenEyck and Miss Helen Robins. At the cake table Mrs. R. W. Barnes was in charge and Miss Pauline Denton and Miss Bessie Flanders assisted. Mrs. W. B. Vail presided at the candy table, assisted by Miss Mae Batchelor.

Aside from the sale the social features were greatly enjoyed by all and the affair was not only one of profit, but socially a great success.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Because four non-union tile layers are mixing cement for use at the Eighteenth street station, three thousand men threatened to go on strike in New York yesterday, and the completion of the Rapid Transit subway will thus be further delayed.

In Mattison's Court.

Decision in the contract case of W. O. Chamberlin against W. H. Kiroh was given by Justice Mattison this morning. The plaintiff sued for $77 and was awarded judgment for $46. An offset filed by the defendant was partially allowed. The plaintiff was represented by W. S. Angleman, Esq., and the defendant by C. M. Dolliver, Esq.

C. P. A. Organized.

A Children's Protective Alliance has been organized in Newark for purposes of co-operation with officials and others interested in the enforcement of the State child labor law. Among the members of the alliance is Henry M. Maxson, president of the Organized Aid Association and superintendent of schools of this city.

Randolph Jones Dead.

Randolph Jones, a colored veteran of the Civil War, died yesterday at Muhlenberg Hospital at the age of eighty years. The funeral will be held from his late home at 36 Somerset street, Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The interment will be in Pennington, N. J.

He's a Hustler.

Captain Hand's trucks today delivered two loads of Singer sewing machines to M. L. H. Trowbridge, Jr., the local agent of the company. Mr. Trowbridge is full of young blood and proposes to increase the business of the company in Plainfield.

Cantata Repeated.

The Christmas cantata, "The Old-Fashioned Santa Claus," was repeated at the First Presbyterian church, last night, before a large audience. The only change in the original programme was a vocal solo by William Holmes.

Westfield Won.

The series of games, in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament, rolled last night at Roselle between the Westfield Club and Roselle Casino, resulted in the visiting team winning two of the three games.

Cake Sale.

Under auspices of the Women's Guild, of the Church of the Holy Cross, $30 was realized at a cake sale this morning. Mrs. J. O. Stevens and Mrs. W. M. Downey were in charge.

—Press want ads pay.

TALK TO TOILERS BY REV. MR. LEGGETT

Some Lessons Drawn From the Life of the Great Carpenter.

FOR BREAD WINNERS

SERMON PREACHED IN THE EAST THIRD STREET CHAPEL.

Text of Rev. Mr. Leggett's Remarks—Upon the Life of the Toiler is the Royal Seal of Honor—Class Among Whom Christ Associated.

Rev. L. G. Leggett, who has taken up the work at the East Third Street chapel, preached a sermon in that edifice last night expressly intended for toilers. His text was: "Is Not This the Carpetner?" Mark VI, 4. He said in part:

"The great majority of human lives are spent in comparative seclusion; the greater number of homes are humble and modest ones; the vast majority of the human race toil for their daily bread. The luxuries and elegancies of life are denied them; toil with a few simple pleasures is their lot. Among this class Christ spent the greater portion of his life. We know Him best from three epochs in His life. His birth, ministry and resurrection.

" 'Tis sad but true we seldom think of the toiling years at Nazareth. Years veiled behind modesty, yet teeming with love. True, the curtain of mystery dropped and hid from view those years in their entirety yet the hands of Luke and Mark, part the curtains a little way and we catch a glimpse of the hidden years in the life of our Lord. Years made sweeter and holier for their very seclusion. 'Is not this the carpenter' Ah, the revelation in the question. Jesus Christ the Son of God was a toiler! A mechanic, a bread winner, wearing the garb of the artisan. 'The village carpenter,' as some have termed him.

"There is a tradition that Joseph, his foster father, died while he was still a youth and that the responsibility to provide for his master and his brothers and sisters fell upon him. Be this true or otherwise, this we know that He knew what it was to toil and to economize. He knew what it means to be hidden away in obscurity, to feel the weariness of toil, and to eat the bread of economy, He knew what it is to count the ways to make both ends meet. No one can stand closer to the life of a toiler than Jesus Christ. No one can be in closer touch or sympathy. It is His hand, his life moving upon the sea of commerce that is leveling the mighty and lifting the lowly, compelling the financial forces to listen to the voice of labor.

"Pessimism lifts her face, wet with tears and declares that the fires of hate and malice are burning so hot in the hearts of labor and capital, they never can be quenched, but optimism lifts her smiling face declaring that the grace of Christ will cool the fires and love shall embrace them. Abraham Lincoln said, 'God must have loved the common people because He made so many of them!' One of the most comforting things I bring you tonight is that your Lord was a toiler, a bread winner once upon the earth.

"Now I want you for a moment to look upon the other text. 'Thou art my beloved son in whom I am well pleased.' What was God pleased with son for. He had not entered yet upon His public ministry. He was pleased with those toiling years in Nazareth, pleased with Him as a toiler and a caretaker of the family, and in this declaration of His Son. God set the seal of divine approval upon every legitimate branch of labor in His universe.

"If you are a toiler, an honest toiler, I care not how humble the position you occupy upon your life is the royal seal of honor. If you toil honestly and conscientiously, if you give the best there is in you to your working hours and serve God, at eventide you may look up into your Heavenly Father's face and hear Him say, 'Thou art my beloved child in whom I am well pleased.' Every working man's home is dear to the Master's heart Every working man's home may entertain the royal guest. All this! His life Jesus loved the toiler. It was the toilers he called to be His disciples. It was the toilers He labored among. When He gased upon sect, class and conditions of humanity, 'the poor was the first word that dropped from His lips.' Do you sometimes halt in the fields of toil, as you

SOMERVILLE IN BASEBALL

POSSIBILITY OF LEAGUE WITH PLAINFIELD A MEMBER.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Somerville, Jan. 18—The baseball enthusiasts of Somerville have taken the initiative toward the formation of a baseball league to be composed of teams in Plainfield, Westfield, Flemington, Somerville and Dunellen. Chester A. Cawley, manager for the Somerville club, has been instructed to confer with representatives from these towns.

The Somerville Baseball Association met Saturday night for permanent organization and these officers were elected: President, W. J. DeMond; first vice president, George A. Dilts; vice presidents, L. C. Mack, Charles C. Kenyon, J. G. Gaston, H. W. Reusswig, Cornelius Cruden; secretary and treasurer, W. H. Cawley, Jr.; manager, Chester A. Cawley; financial committee, W. H. Cawley, Jr., Sol. Goodman, C. D. McMurtry; ground committee, W. W. Major, Jacob Cornell, Finlay Wyckoff, A. M. Beekman and John Enright.

Surrogate DeMond is at the head of the organization, and according to appearances Somerville and Raritan should be well represented on the diamond the coming season as in the old Crescent Club days. The club's grounds will probably be located between Somerville and Raritan along the trolley line.

WESTFELD BOWLERS WON

DETAILED RESULT OT MATCH WITH ROSELLE CASINO.

The series of games in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament, rolled between Westfield Club and the Roselle Casino on the alleys of the latter on Friday night last, resulted in Westfield taking two of the three games. The visiting team, while not altogether up to their best bowling, rolled good scores on the average. The first game went to Westfield by a score of 844 to 828 and the second game they lost by a score of 833 to 790. They rallied in the last game, winning by a score of 830 to 756.

The detailed scores arrived too late to be published on Saturday and they are herewith given:

WESTFIELD.				ROSELLE.
Forster	151	181	160	S. Smith	145	205	148
Condit	182	128	168	C. Smith	153	176	133

WARREN'S ATTITUDE.

Borough Engine Company Meets Tonight—May Take Decisive Action.

What is to become of Warren Engine Company and the West End Hose Company when the paid fire department goes into commission is a matter which is interesting a number of North Plainfielders. A special meeting will be held tonight in Warren Engine Company's headquarters, and this matter will probably come up for discussion. There is a general inclination on the part of the firemen to disband the engine company and reorganize as a social club. There is in the New Jersey State Relief Association several thousand dollars, subscribed by the borough firemen for relief to those who are injured at a fire.

Westfield Case Trial.

The action in tort of Miss Evelyn Simonson, of Duer street, against the New Jersey Central for injuries alleged to have been sustained in the wreck at Westfield, January 27, 1903, is scheduled for today at Elizabeth. John H. VanWinkle & Son, John H. VanWinkle, Jr., represent the plaintiff. A number of persons from North Plainfield will be called as witnesses.

City Purchases Fine Team.

The city has purchased a new team of horses for Hose Company No. 3 in the West End from Stonewall Jackson for $550. They are the team which drew the Warren engine through Somerville on the recent parade there. The team is gray with white manes and tails.

Good Basket Ball.

One of the big basket ball games of the year for the local Y. M. C. A. will be that tonight with the Newark Y. M. C. A. five, one of the strongest teams in the State. The game will be played in the local gymnasium.

OBSERVED BIRTHDAY OF M'ALL AUXILIARY

Wants of the Mission at Limoges, France, Told by Two Speakers.

URGENTLY NEEDS $1,000

MRS. FREDERICK G. MEAD'S INTERESTING TALK ON LOCAL WORK.

George Soltau, of London, Makes an Address—Meeting in Congregational Church — Rev. Mr. Goodrich Participates.

The anniversary of the founding of the McAll Mission work in France was observed at a meeting held last night at the Congregational church. Mrs. Frederick G. Mead, who is deeply interested in this work, and who is prominently identified with the local branch of the Auxiliary, gave a brief summary of the work being conducted at Limoges, this work being supported by the Plainfield branch.

Mrs. Mead stated that the local branch was organized November 5, 1885, and on August 28, 1892, took up the special work at Limoges, the money necessary to do so being subscribed in Plainfield. She then told of her visit to Limoges and of the excellent work being carried on there. She said that the people were anxious to hear the Gospel and eagerly attended every meeting held in the McAll Halls. In conclusion, Mrs. Mead said that $1,000 is needed to continue the work and hoped that the necessary sum would be received.

At the conclusion of Mrs. Mead's talk she introduced George Soltau, of London, a brother of William Soltau, who is actively engaged in the McAll work in Paris. Mr. Soltau said at the beginning of his talk that it was his brother who had such a personal knowledge of the work and that the light of that work would be reflected through him. Mr. Soltau did not dwell particularly upon the work being done by the McAll Missions, but rather told of the needs as they present themselves in France. He referred to the fact that Roman Catholicism has a strong hold on the people in that country. Yet, notwithstanding this the people are eager to hear the Gospel as preached at the McAll Missions.

He said he deplored the fact that so many persons who have been members of churches for thirty years or more do not understand the Gospel of Christ and cannot give inquiring persons the help they need when they seek salvation. They do not seem able to tell, said he, why they are Christians. Mr. Soltau spoke of the Gospel's saving of the sinner and of this power working so wonderfully in the McAll missions.

Through the talk given by Mrs. Mead, as well as that by Mr. Soltau, considerable interest was aroused among the large number present and no doubt additional support will be given to this work as a result. The meeting was held under the auspices of the McAll Auxiliary of Plainfield, and Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, pastor of the church, was in charge, reading the Scripture lesson and offering prayer.

POPULAR GIRL DEAD.

Florence E. VanSickle Buried This Morning—Dr. Schenck Officiated.

Florence E. VanSickle, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. VanSickele, died Saturday afternoon at her home, 313 East Third street, following an illness of twelve days with diphtheria. Death was due to paralysis of the heart. The young girl was nearly eight years old and was a favorite in her home as well as with many companions. She was a member of the primary department of the Trinity Reformed church Sunday-school. The funeral services, which were private, were held at 9 o'clock this morning, Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, conducted a short service at the grave in the North Plainfield cemetery, where the interment took place.

An Heroic Act.

Miss Edith Squier, of the borough, while skating Saturday, severely sprained her thumb in saving her companion, Miss Josie Romond, of the borough, from being thrown down and injured on the ice at Coriell's lake. The smaller child was directly in the path of some older boys who were playing "snap the whip" when little Miss Squiers rushed in front of her and received the blow herself.

FIREMAN HART REINSTATED

REPRIMANDED, HOWEVER, FOR CARELESS DRIVING, BY FIRE COMMITTEE.

Fireman Frank Hart, driver of No. 2 hose wagon, who has been off duty for two weeks, pending an investigation into his conduct on the day of the Saengerbund Hall fire, has been placed in service again.

It was alleged that Hart had been acting improperly at the time the alarm for assistance from North Plainfield was rung in and that he was incompetent to drive the fire team across the brook. The fire committee took up the investigation and found that Hart was not guilty. He was reprimanded, however, for reckless driving, which, it is alleged, was the cause of John Rafferty's fall from the rear of the wagon.

HOW TO DEAL WITH TRAMPS

REV. MR. NICKERSON DISCUSSES THE SUBJECT AND CONDEMNS PLAN.

Rev. A. C. Nickerson preached an interesting and thoughtful sermon at All Soul's church yesterday morning on the subject, "Christianity and the Tramp." The occasion for the sermon was the method adopted by New Brunswick of dealing with tramps by putting them in a chain gang. The speaker did not approve of the New Brunswick method, avering that it was too punitive and not sufficiently reformatory.

Mr. Nickerson said that the tramp was a nuisance to himself and to society. He described the hobo's morbidness, his general cowardice, and the danger of his attacking women and children. The habits of the tramp, his system in preying upon those easily influenced by tales of woe, were described in detail, the pastor evidently having given the subject much study.

The method of dealing with tramps practised in Germany Mr. Nickerson said was the most successful. In that country, a series of stations have been established where wanderers may, by doing a certain amount of useful work, earn a night's lodging and food. All tramps are sent to these places and none is allowed to stay at any particular one more than a single night. The result is that Germany is practically freed from tramps, most of whom have turned their steps to Constantinople, the "beggar's paradise," or to America.

A SUCCESSFUL TEST.

Plainfielders' Patent Covered Car to Prevent Freezing of Black Diamonds Given Trial.

The storm on Saturday assisted materially in the test which was made at the freight station of the Hetfield patent covered coal car. There were a number of interested people present including William R. Codington and J. TenEyck and the patentee, J. M. Hetfield. J. D. Loizeaux is an owner of the patent. The car will be taken to the coal fields where a more practical demonstration will be made.

General manger of the Central Railroad W. G. Besler has taken an interest in the invention and loaned Mr. Hetfield a car on which to demonstrate the appliance. He is loud in his praise of the contrivance, and in a statement, said that it is something that has been needed for some time. Much time is lost, he says, in thawing out a carload of coal after it arrives at its destination.

Arranging for Masquerade.

A business meeting of the I. C. T. Club was held last night. Harry Flannery, Burlin Banks, Joseph Bolby, Charles Heartle, Fred Winn, Charles Becker and William Waters were appointed a committee on arrangements for the masquerade ball to be given on February 11. A dance is to be given in the hall Thursday night for club members only.

M'NAUGHTON WRECKS Y. M. C. A. RECORDS

Beats Marks of Local Association, State and Eastern Sections in Running High Dive.

CLEARS 5 FT. 9 1-2 INCHES

FINAL EVENTS IN Y. M. C. A. INDIVIDUAL CHAMPIONSHIP CONTESTS.

Raymond Smith Won Championship Title, With C. B. Koons Second—The High Jump Record Also Broken by McNaughton.

Sensational work was done Saturday night by W. C. McNaughton in the running high dive in the athletic games at the Y. M. C. A. Not only did McNaughton break the local and State Association records but the mark established in the Eastern section of Y. M. C. A.'s, including New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, District of Columbia, Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland and West Virginia. The national record of five feet ten inches is held by Connecticut but the mark is not registered for the Eastern section. McNaughton's record was five feet nine and one-half inches. The previous local record was five feet eight inches made last year by McNaughton himself.

After the record had been made McNaughton made three trials at five feet ten inches and was all but successful. He was easily the star of Saturday night's events, breaking the local high jump record. His winning jump was five feet two inches, but on the trial for the record he cleared five feet three and one-half with ease, beating the best previous record established in 1899 by Raymond Carroll.

Raymond Smith is Y. M. C. A. individual athletic champion having won the title by consistent work throughout the contests which closed Saturday night. He scored 570 points. C. B. Koons was second with 444 points, W. C. McNaughton third, with 333 and William D. Mundy and Irving Stevens tied for fourth with 278 points. McNaughton entered but five of the twelve events, however, and in all probability would have held his championship won last year had he made the attempt.

In the running high dive, second place to McNaughton was one by Neal who cleared five feet. W. Mundy was third and Raymond Smith fourth. In the high jump Stewart, with four feet, eight inches was second to the record-breaker. C. B. Koons was third. Smith, Mundy and Neal also contested in this event.

The rope climb was won by Smith in 7 1-5 seconds. Smith and Neal were tied on the first trial, Smith winning the run-off. Other entries were Mundy, Stewart and Koons.

Smith, as the winner of the championship title will receive a silver medal, and Koons, second man, wins a bronze. Winners of individual events receive silver buttons and badges. The officials at the events Saturday were C. B. Egan and C. Heywood scorers and judges; H. S. Brokaw, measurer.

GRATIFYING REPORT.

The Treasurer of Crescent Avenue Church Makes Financial Statement.

William F. Arnold, treasurer for the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, has just issued the statement of the church's finances for the past year. The report shows the receipts for the year to be $30,450.17. The disbursements, including a balance, are the same as expenditures, notwithstanding that there were extra expenses during the year amounting to $1,994.97, which included chiefly the work of obtaining pulpit supplies, securing a new pastor and making alterations and repairs to the new parsonage on Park avenue.

The estimated expenses for 1904 are $12,690. In the report of the chapels, Hope, Warren and Bethel chapels, the receipts for the year are reported to be $8,400.30. After meeting obligations there is a balance on hand of $860.77. The expense of the chapels to April 1, 1904, is given as $1,560. There is $6,375 on hand for the purpose of erecting a new building in the borough for Warren chapel.

SERVICES AT DUNELLEN LARGELY ATTENDED BY FELLOW-EMPLOYES.

The funeral services over the remains of the late John Schenck whose tragic death occurred in Jersey City Wednesday, were held Saturday evening from his late residence on Front street, Dunellen, Rev. Cornelius Schenck, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, this city, officiating. The services were largely attended and the array of floral remembrances was handsome.

"Abide With Me" and Lead Kindly Light," two favorite hymns of the dead man, were sung by a quartette from the Presbyterian church in Dunellen. Many of the employes of the railroad company in Jersey City and members of the Trainmen's Brotherhood were present at the services. The pall bearers were Arthur Vail, of Dunellen; James McLane and Edward Vail, of this city, and Albert and John Tappin and James Martin, of Boonton, N. J. From the Trainmen's Brotherhood a handsome floral piece representing the "Gates Ajar" was conspicuous among the floral pieces which covered the casket. The employes of Woodhull & Martin, where the dead man's sister is employed, also sent a large floral piece. The services at the grave were conducted yesterday morning in Somerville by Rev. Augustus F. Todd, of Dunellen.

NEW SCHEDULE OF TROLLEY CO.

THROUGH CARS WILL BE RUN FROM ELIZABETH TO DUNELLEN.

To Dunellen from Elizabeth without change is the new arrangement which the Public Service Corporation will make today or tomorrow with its through line cars. This will mean a saving of time and it is thought, make better trolley service through the city. The schedule has not yet been completed.

The Public Service Corporation's private trolley car, the "New Jersey," passed through this city yesterday on a tour of inspection of the trolley conditions here. In the company were Colonel Hine, General Manager Wheatley, Division Superintendent Brown and Local Superintendent Phillip Maguire.

The plan is to operate the main line double truck cars from Elizabeth to this city, and from here to Dunellen on a fifteen minute schedule. There will be no transferring at Watchung avenue. The yellow cars which have done duty in this city for many years will be sent elsewhere. It is probable that the Netherwood cars will be operated up Somerset street and that two cars will run from the North avenue station on the Fourth street line to Seventh street and Monroe avenue. The Arlington avenue line will be operated as at present. This plan has not been given out officially.

The run between Dunellen and Newark will be the longest in the entire Public Service Corporation's system. It will give a continuous trolley ride from one end of the city to the other and the Netherwood route will give a continuous ride from the two outlying districts and the city, a belt line in its most thickly populated parts.

A QUESTION OF WATER.

Plainfield Supply Co. Defendants in Suit of South Plainfielder.

A suit has been instituted against the Plainfield Water Supply Company by John Otto, of South Plainfield, who runs a mill at that place. He claims that the water company has been taking water from the pond thereby interfering with the operation of his mill. Justice vonMinden, of New Market, has been retained as counsel for Mr. Otto.

Camera Club Lecture.

The Plainfield Camera Club has arranged with John L. Yatman, an expert on lenses, for the latter to give a lecture and demonstration of lenses at the club rooms on Monday night, January 25. Every amateur and in fact any one who is interested in the subject of lenses or photography, is invited not only to attend the lecture, but to send any questions on the subject to J. Hervey Doane in advance and they will be fully answered the night of the lecture by Mr. Yatman.

Farmers Petition Legislature.

The State Board of Agriculture passed a resolution Friday asking the Legislature to amend the existing law to permit farmers to kill robins when they are actually destroying the fruit on the farms. They also passed a resolution to compel railroads either to abolish grade crossings or maintain gates or flagmen at the crossings.

SENSATION SPRUNG BY AN EVANGELIST

Mrs. O'Brien Told at Rescue Mission a Startling Story Regarding Mabel Bechtel.

MURDERED GIRL'S TALE

MRS. O'BRIEN'S TESTIMONY MAY BE IMPORTANT IN THE CASE.

Evangelist's Plans for the Future—Speaks Tonight on Mission Work in the Slums—Visited Saloons Saturday Night.

Mrs. Lou O'Brien, the evangelist who has been conducting revival services at the Rescue Mission for several weeks past, sprang a huge sensation yesterday afternoon and last night by making startling references to Mabel Bechtel, the girl who was murdered last fall in Allentown, Pa. Mrs. O'Brien stated that she had been conducting a series of revivals in Allentown and that after one of her open-air meetings a few days before the tragedy, Mabel came to her, confessed that she was in trouble, and asked for advice.

The statement of the girl to Mrs. O'Brien was that some man was following her and that she was afraid she would be murdered before morning. She said that she loved one man and hated another and wanted to be told what was best to do. Mrs. O'Brien advised her to forsake both men and give her heart to Jesus. She further told her that, unless she mended her ways, trouble was bound to follow.

The girl's fear was such that Mrs. O'Brien offered to take her home with her. This offer Mabel declined, however, and, as the next best thing, Mrs. O'Brien put the girl on a trolley car bound for her home. It is then said that Mrs. O'Brien noticed that a man boarded the next car and that he may have been following Mabel. He was the only man on the car.

It seems likely that the facts as stated may have an important bearing on the trial. Mrs. O'Brien has been making constant allusions to the case of a girl such as that of Mabel Bechtel, but not until yesterday did she mention the girl's name.

It is Mrs. O'Brien's plan to remain in this city for another week's work at the Rescue Mission, where she intends to hold her last meeting next Sunday night. From there she will go to Whosoever Mission, in North Plainfield, for two days, leaving for Reading, Pa. After a series of revivals in Reading she will go to her home in Easton, Pa. She will talk at the mission tonight on her work in the slums of New York, where she labored for eight years.

Saturday night Mrs O.'Brien and her co-worker, Miss Mattie Sutton, spent in visiting the several saloons about the city, distributing tracts and showing the drinkers the error of their ways.

MISS WINN MARRIED.

Edward Baker the Groom—The Announcement Surprised Friends of the Couple.

Many friends were surprised today to learn of the marriage of Miss Deborah C. Winn, daughter of Captain and Mrs. W. W. Winn, of 113 Madison avenue, and Edward Baker, Jr., of Somerset street, which took place yesterday at Perth Amboy, where Mr. Baker has an uncle. The young couple are now enjoying a wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker are both members of the First Baptist church and for some time past have been actively engaged in religious work at the East Third Street chapel, in the Sunday-school and Christian Endeavor Society. Mr. Baker is employed at M. C. VanArsdale's shoe store as a salesman and both he and his wife are popular in a large circle of friends.

Mr. Greenwood at Warren Chapel.

L. B. Greenwood, the evangelist, held his first services at Warren chapel yesterday morning, speaking before a large congregation. He was unable to be present in the afternoon or night, on account of his work at Hope chapel. This week he will hold services at Warren chapel every afternoon at 3 o'clock and every night at 7:45. On Thursday there will be a service at 10 o'clock in the morning, 3 o'clock in the afternoon and at 7:45 o'clock at night. A cordial invitation is extended to all persons to attend any and all of these services.

JAPAN GRIMLY WAITS

Nation Is Prepared For Combat With Russia.

RUSSIA MUST BE STOPPED NOW

Growth of British and American Sentiment Is Marked at Tokyo—More of Our Troops Enter Seoul—Missionaries In Korea Warned.

TOKYO, Jan. 18.—Japan does not anticipate Russia's rejoinder for at least one week. In the meantime the nation is prepared and grimly reconciled to war. Political and other distinctions have disappeared, and the country is patriotically united. The government is receiving many offers of contributions in the event of war amounting to many millions of yen. The Japanese people would welcome an honorable peace, but are resolved to fight before receding from their position in oriental affairs. They fear the aggression of Russia and believe if it is not stopped now it will never be stopped. They are confident that their demands are fair and moderate and that their diplomacy, which has been patient, has gone to a reasonable limit. They expect the world's sympathy in the struggle and have a splendid confidence in their army and navy. In the event of reverses or a national disaster it is thought that England and the United States would intervene to preserve the balance of power in eastern Asia. There is no fear of an invasion of Japan, a country which is probably the most strongly defended in the world. The growth of British and American sentiment is remarked. Numerous displays of the flags of the two nations are made and popular songs reciting the glories of the lion and Uncle Sam are sung.

The characters of Uncle Sam and Johnny Bull are also seen at public dances. The activity of the United States in the opening of the ports of Mukden and Antung is keenly watched, and in some quarters it is hoped that this may aid in solving the problem of insuring peace. The censorship prohibits the publication of military movements. At present the movements are merely preliminary and aimed to insure an immediate dispatch of an immense land and sea force if it should become necessary.

Dispatches from Seoul, Korea, say the American guard at the United States legation has been increased.

Sixty more marines have arrived and are quartered in the city at the electric power company's building.

The American authorities have taken the precaution to provide male escorts for women and children of that nationality while on the street.

The native press is slightly offensive to foreign residents, and it is possible there will yet be trouble with Korea.

Troops now guard all the foreign residences, probably in sufficient numbers to keep the natives in check should they begin to make trouble.

A German man-of-war has just arrived at Chemulpo.

A change in the personnel of the government has begun in favor of the Japanese, and as the people have been more angry with the government than the foreigners it is likely that this change will completely pacify them.

All Methodist missionaries in Korea have been cautioned to move into Seoul immediately or go at once to Japan. It is thought that the missionaries are in great danger of losing their lives.

The ambassador here has been advised that two officers and sixty-four men have been sent to Seoul from the United States steamer Vicksburg, now at Chemulpo. They carried a machine gun with them. There are now a hundred or more men from the Vicksburg at Seoul guarding the legation.

A Seoul cable says that the wife of the Russian minister has become influential at the Korean court and that owing to this influence the Russian minister has been enabled to make a compact with the Korean emperor whereby he may take refuge at the Russian legation in the event of war and issue all administration orders from the Russian legation.

A number of war correspondents gathered at Tokyo have made visits to Korea and Manchuria and await events.

Francis Joseph Hopes For Peace.

VIENNA, Jan. 18.—During the presentation of the general circle at the court ball Emperor Francis Joseph said to Ambassador Storer: "I think that affairs are going to be better in the far east. Everything will be arranged." His majesty spoke in a similarly hopeful strain to other members of the diplomatic corps. The United States embassy was represented at the ball by Ambassador and Mrs. Storer, First Secretary Chandler Hale and Mrs. Hale, Second Secretary George B. Rives and Military Attache Captain Floyd W. Harris. The British charge d'affaires, Hon. Alan Johnstone, presented his wife, who was formerly Miss Antoinette Pinchot of New York.

Refuge Under British Flag.

ROME, Jan. 18.—Although twenty sailors from the Italian cruiser Elba have been landed to protect Signor Monaco, the Italian minister at Seoul, the legation building cannot be easily defended, and Minister Monaco has been instructed in case of danger to take refuge in the British legation, where the Italian sailors will join the British bluejackets.

New Peasant Code Ready.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—Minister of the Interior Plehve has completed the draft of the peasant code, or scheme for the peasant reforms outlined in the czar's recent manifesto and it will probably be sent to the local committees throughout the empire within a few days.

TRUE PANAMA STORY

Actual Facts of the Revolution as Told by New York World.

MILLIONS MADE BY STOCK GAMBLERS

Real Tale of the Plot Told For the First Time—New York and Paris Syndicate Worked the Revolt Through Varilla, Its Agent.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Below are given the actual facts of the revolution in Panama, as given by the New York World, which resulted in the creation of the republic of Panama and a treaty with the United States by which the latter is to construct the isthmian canal. These facts present the revolution and its consequences in an entirely contradictory light from that given by President Roosevelt in his special message to both houses of congress, in which he declared that his administration had no part, directly or indirectly, in the revolution.

The World gathered these facts from men who took an active part in the events described. The greatest care was taken to substantiate all of the statements here given. Facts gathered from one source were submitted to others, usually those with interests antagonistic to the original informants, and every effort was made by the World to verify all of the following:

The Panama revolution was fostered and promoted in many ways by a syndicate of New York and Paris brokers who had formed an immense pool for speculating in the shares and other securities of the Panama Canal company. This syndicate furnished $100,000, which was used by the revolutionary party in Panama to perfect the revolution. Of this money $8,000 was used to bribe Colombian troops and get them to leave the isthmus.

The agent or chief reliance of this speculative syndicate was Philippe Bunau-Varilla, the present minister of the Panama republic to the United States. The leading member of the syndicate was Minister Varilla's brother, Maurice Varilla, editor of the Matin, a Paris newspaper. The shares of the Panama Canal company when the bankers' syndicate took hold of the revolutionary project were selling at 67 on the Paris bourse. Now they are selling at 115. The profits of the syndicate at present prices are estimated at $4,000,000.

The operations of the bankers' syndicate and the connection of Minister Varilla with the speculative pool was not known until quite recently by the native Panamanians, who went into the revolution purely out of a spirit of loyalty. There is no evidence that any of these joined with the speculative pool or reaped any of its profits.

The appointment of Bunau-Varilla as minister of the new republic to this country was bitterly opposed by leaders of the revolutionary party on the isthmus until they discovered through representatives they had sent to Washington that nothing could be done in the way of getting assistance from this government except through Mr. Varilla.

Some time before the revolution occurred Varilla insisted to the active leaders of the revolution that he must be made minister of the republic to this country, in exchange for which he would furnish: First, the revolutionary fund necessary; second, that he would have United States warships on the scene at the proper moment to serve the interests of the revolutionists; third, that he would have the United States recognize the republic of Panama immediately after the revolution. Varilla kept all three pledges.

Took Enough to Kill a Hundred.

BIDDEFORD, Me., Jan. 18.—Rather than face his creditors Harry S. Twambley, a well known jeweler, has ended his life by drinking cyanide of potassium. Mr. Twambley was associated with his father in the jewelry firm of Samuel B. Twambley & Son. A week ago the firm assigned. Mr. Twambley procured a solution of cyanide of potassium, which he placed in a glass and drank. With the exclamation, "I won't have to meet them now," he fell dead. The coroner said Twambley had taken sufficient poison to kill a hundred men.

Ex-Mayor Shot Himself.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Jan. 18.—Colonel John H. Bacon, who was mayor of Colorado Springs in 1880 and prominent as a business man, has committed suicide by shooting because of illness. He left a note saying that he had suffered so much pain from rheumatism and insomnia that it more than offset the pleasures of this world. Colonel Bacon was seventy-five years of age.

Mrs. Gilbert Better.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Mrs. G. H. Gilbert, the aged actress, who has been very ill for some days, has so far recovered that she expects to be able to leave the city today for New York. She claims to be good for fifteen or twenty years more and says she will stay on the stage as long as Joe Jefferson does.

Death of McKeon Was Accidental.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Jan. 18.—Medical Examiner Seymour has rendered a verdict of accidental death in the case of Thomas McKeon, whose body was found near Smith's Ferry. Patrick McGee, a companion of the dead man, who was detained by the police, has been released.

Kamp Summer Home Destroyed.

MONMOUTH BEACH, N. J., Jan. 18.—The handsome summer residence in course of erection here for William Kamp of New York has been destroyed by fire. The loss is said to be about $40,000. The fire is suspected to have been incendiary.

AN ICY BATH.

Eighteen Excursionists Have Narrow Escape In Mammoth Cave.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 18.—Eighteen delegates to the convention of the National League of Commission Merchants were thrown into the icy water of Echo river, which winds through Mammoth cave, and were saved only by the coolness of the guide, John Nelson, and the heroic work of Charles A. Muehlbronner of Pittsburg. The party included W. J. Harris, Chicago; Mr and Mrs. G. S. Weil, Cincinnati; L. S Owens, Chicago; Frank E. Wagner, Chicago; John H. Barnett, Chicago; L. Lipman, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Smith, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Muehlbronner, Pittsburg; S. P. Craig, Pittsburg; H. C. Rogers, Buffalo; C. S. Stacey, Minneapolis; Ed Tubbesing, St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fillebrown, St. Paul, and Miss Lucie Patch, Boston.

The roof of the cave over Echo river is arched, and the space in the center, owing to an unaccountable rise in the river, was only two and a half feet above the water. In order to insure the passage of the boat the men and women were forced to stoop over. At one place the boat swerved to one side, raking the heads of the persons in the boat next to the bank. These leaned farther forward to escape striking their heads. This lowered one end of the boat, and the water began to flow in rapidly. The guide saw the danger and called to Mr. Muehlbronner to jump and take the chain. This he did, landing on a steep bank, which offered only a slight foothold. Lying down on his face, he held to the chain and pulled the boat toward the bank.

The boat sank in eight feet of water, but farther back, where there was no landing, the water is eighteen feet deep.

By the light of a single lantern the party escaped by climbing over Mr. Muehlbronner's prostrate form and after waiting several hours for a boat were brought in safety to daylight.

REBELS EXECUTED.

Monplaisir's Conspiracy Failed, With Fatal Results to Followers.

CAPE HAITIEN, Jan. 18.—Five persons connected with the conspiracy headed by General Monplaisir to start a revolt against General Nord were condemned to death by a military tribunal and executed here in the presence of a vast crowd. Several foreigners who took part in the conspiracy will probably be deported.

In the absence of President Nord, who went to Gonaives to take part in the celebration of the centenary of the independence of Haiti, General Monplaisir attempted to start a revolt against the president, but the movement failed. The general's son and an accomplice were killed, and many arrests followed.

Newmans Agree as to Son.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Jan. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Newman of Yonkers, N. Y., have come to an agreement concerning their six-year-old son. Newman, with his boy, has been living in this city for ten months under the name of C. W. Brown. Last Friday Mrs. Newman came here and took possession of the boy, whom she saw on the street. Mr. Newman swore out a writ of habeas corpus to enable him to regain possession of the boy. It has been agreed by Mr. Newman and his wife that the boy should be with his father twice a week, and all court proceedings have been abandoned. Mrs. Newman, accompanied by her son, has left for her home in Yonkers.

War Talk Subsiding.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 18.—Emperor Nicholas' pacific utterances made during the New Year's reception at the Winter palace in St. Petersburg on Thursday last, together with the favorable comments of the foreign press which have been reproduced here, have created a splendid impression and have also had a good effect in perceptibly diminishing the war talk in army and navy circles, which were quick to take their cue from the assurances coming from the throne.

Mexicans Take Warning.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 18.—The recent fire in the Iroquois theater, Chicago, has been the cause of better protection being afforded to the patrons of the theaters here. The first trial has been made of the new asbestus curtain recently installed in a large theater. This curtain will be lowered at the end of each performance, to show the public that it is in good order and ready for a case of emergency.

American Road to Silver Mine.

LIMA, Peru, Jan. 18.—The government has granted permission for the use of freight trains having a velocity of twenty kilometers an hour to be run on the new American railway line between Oroya, on the Oroya river, ninety-five miles from Lima, to Gerro de Pacco, where is situated one of the richest and most extensive silver mines in the world.

Politician Killed by Trolley.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 18.—M. L. Hughes, aged fifty years, of Plains, four miles from this city, was struck by an electric car on the Laurel line railroad near this city and instantly killed. He was a prominent Democratic politician of Luzerne county.

Loomis Goes to Ohio.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Hon. Frank B. Loomis, who during the illness of Secretary Hay has been acting secretary of state, has left for a few days' visit to Ohio.

Chicago Malting Plant Burned.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Fire in the Chicago Consolidated Milling and Malting company plant has caused a loss of $75,000.

RIOTING TROOPS.

Mutinous Turkish Soldiers Terrorize Beirut, Syria.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 18.—Mutinous Turkish troops have been terrorizing Beirut, Syria, for several days. The mutineers, who number about 1,300 men, were landed on Jan. 11 from Yemen, Arabia, and immediately besieged the governor's palace, demanding the payment of about $80,000 in arrears and threatening otherwise to sack the town.

The governor succeeded in pacifying the men and made them daily small advances borrowed from the branch of the Ottoman bank until the bank was closed owing to its being a holiday.

The latest accounts received here said the mutineers were threatening to sack the bank.

The United States armored cruiser Brooklyn, flagship of the European squadron, commanded by Rear Admiral Cotton, according to the latest report, is available at Beirut, where she arrived Jan. 4 from Alexandria. The cruiser San Francisco sailed from Alexandria on Jan. 8 for Aboukir bay, thirteen miles from Alexandria.

FORCE IS TOO SMALL.

Minister Powell Had to Refuse Owing to His Weak Guard.

SANTO DOMINGO, Jan. 18.—The revolutionary General Navarro having seized cattle on an estate at La Fe, which is an American property, the agent of the estate applied to United States Minister Powell for protection. The minister was compelled to refuse the request, as he had no force at his command sufficient to guard the estate.

The force on the United States gunboat is too small to safeguard estates from pillagers, and in order to protect United States property there is great need of a larger warship here. If the revolutionists should enter the city just now it would be impossible to prevent the pillage which would be sure to take place, and there is no other warship here to support the Newport should it be found necessary to land men.

There was continued firing around the city. A shell from the enemy's camp has entered a private dwelling and injured a child.

There is great misery and suffering among the poorer classes.

Stole Three Hundred Books.

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—The police searched the residence of Frederick H. Bates in Hyde Park and removed 300 books, valued at $3,500, which, it is alleged, Bates had taken from the public libraries of this city, Andover and Hyde Park and from Boston and Brown universities. Bates is under arrest. He is twenty-six years old and claims to be a newspaper and magazine writer. He has been a frequent visitor at the Boston Public library, where he is well known. On one of his recent visits he asked for a copy of Hawthorne's "Fanshawe," edition of 1828, which has an auction value of $400. A few days later the book was missed, and the investigation which followed resulted in his arrest. The police claim that Bates has sold many rare volumes to book dealers.

Will Honor Remains of Smithson.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—The United States dispatch boat Dolphin, Commander J. H. Gibbons, from Washington, has arrived here under orders from the navy department to await the arrival of the North German Lloyd liner Prinzess Irene, from Genoa and Naples, which is due to arrive tomorrow and which bears the remains of James Smithson, founder of the Smithsonian institution. The Dolphin will meet the Prinzess Irene in New York lower bay and escort the vessel to her dock. The coffin containing the remains will be transferred to the Dolphin, which will take them to Washington, where reinterment, with appropriate ceremonies, will be made.

Our Italian Immigrants.

ROME, Jan. 18.—The United States continues to be the chief direction of Italian emigration, the number of emigrants going there in 1903 reaching a total of nearly 250,000. The government has intrusted Adolfo Rossi, inspector of emigration, with a mission to the United States for the purpose of studying with the United States immigration commission the best means of directing Italians to the agricultural states and of thus preventing their concentration in the large towns. Signor Rossi will also investigate the relations of the Italian emigrants to the trades unions.

Chicago Police Union.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Members of Chicago's police force, numbering 300 and including patrolmen and officers of rank in the force, met and launched an organization to be known as the Policemen's Progressive association. Its principal object, it is stated, will be the protection of its members against false charges made by criminals and thieves.

Cyrus Jordan Dead.

SACO, Me., Jan. 18.—Cyrus Jordan, formerly president of Hillsdale college, at Hillsdale, Mich., is dead at Ocean Park, aged seventy-four years. From 1881 to 1900 he was connected with the Morning Star, a Free Will Baptist publication issued in Boston.

Danish King Is Well Again.

GMUNDEN, Austria, Jan. 18.—King Christian of Denmark, who is now restored to health, has left for Copenhagen, accompanied by his daughter, the Duchess of Cumberland, and his son, Prince Waldemar.

Admiral Keppel Dead.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—The Hon. Sir Henry Keppel, admiral of the fleet, is dead. He was born in 1809.

BONIER IS CONVICTED

Aged Murderer of Franz and Johanna Frehr Must Die.

HIS INGENIOUS STORY DID NOT GO

Prisoner Said the Couple Had Left Buffalo, but, Buried In a Shallow Grave Beneath the House, Their Bodies Were Discovered.

BUFFALO, Jan. 18.—Charles Bonier has been found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing Franz and Johanna Frehr, an old German couple, in their little home in Jefferson street. The verdict carries the death sentence with it. Bonier, who is seventy-four years old, took the conviction coolly, looking calmly at the foreman as he announced the result of the jury's deliberations.

The Frehrs were murdered for their money. The murderer buried the bodies in a shallow grave in their own yard and proceeded to install himself and his housekeeper in their former home within a few feet of the mutilated bodies of his victims. Mr. and Mrs. Frehr had been thrifty. They had considerable money and kept several hundred dollars in gold in their house. Bonier was a constant visitor at their home.

When relatives called at their house they found Bonier in possession. He informed them that Mr. and Mrs. Frehr had sold the property to him and had left the city to enter an old folks' home. Search by relatives failed to disclose their whereabout. They became suspicious of foul play, and the police were informed. They soon became convinced that murder had been committed, and a thorough search of the Frehr premises was begun.

Buried in shallow graves beneath a pile of lumber in a small outhouse they found the bodies of the old man and his wife. Their heads had been battered in with a hammer which was found in the shed. Twelve hours after the bodies were found Bonier was arrested in Erie, Pa., whence he fled under an assumed name. Bonier told the police an ingenious story to the effect that he had bought the Frehr property, but that they had left the city before he could obtain their signatures to the deeds. Fearing that he would lose his money, he forged Frehr's signature to the transfers. The circumstantial evidence against him was very strong, however, and the trial has ended in his conviction.

Porto Plata Captured.

CAPE HAITIEN, Haiti, Jan. 18.—The government troops which disembarked recently at Sosua have been ordered to march on Porto Plata. A brisk attack, supported by the guns of a Dominican war vessel, began in the evening. The operations were pushed to an assault, and the government troops entered Porto Plata, causing the flight of General Deschamps, who took refuge in the United States consulate. The British cruiser Pallas has landed marines to protect the consulate. The United States training ship Hartford has arrived.

United Mine Workers Convene.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 18.—What promises to be a most interesting convention of the United Mine Workers of America has convened here. The thing that makes the outlook for the convention more interesting than ordinarily is the fact that within the last two months there has been apparently a preconcerted move on the part of several of the operators to cut wages at the rate of 10 cents a ton. A conflict between operators and miners seems probable.

Garibaldi Was Captured.

CARACAS, Jan. 18.—Giuseppe Garibaldi, a grandson of the Italian patriot, was discovered among the revolutionists who were captured last August at Ciudad Bolivar. When President Castro learned of this fact and when Garibaldi was recognized by officials of the Italian legation he ordered his immediate release out of respect held here for the struggle for Italian independence.

Hot Journal Caused $110,000 Fire.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 18.—The Olyphant breaker and washery of the Delaware and Hudson company at Olyphant has been totally destroyed. A hot journal is supposed to have started the blaze. The breaker was one of the largest and most modern in the state, having a capacity of 2,200 tons a day; loss, $110,000.

Train Robbers In Florida.

M'CLENNY, Fla., Jan. 18.—Passenger train No. 76, eastbound, on the Seaboard Air line, was held up one mile east of Sanderson by four men. The door of the baggage car was blown open with dynamite, the robbers mistaking this car for the express car. They were driven off before securing any booty.

Overdue Ship In Port.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—After a long and stormy voyage from Fernandina, Fla., the three masted schooner James D. Dewell of New Haven, fears for the safety of which have been entertained, has arrived in port. The vessel was thirty-two days making the passage.

Pius Receives New Yorkers.

ROME, Jan. 18.—The pope received in private audience Mr. and Mrs. St. John Gaffney and Miss Humphreys of New York. The pope was extremely cordial to his visitors.

Smallpox at Lockport.

LOCKPORT, N. Y., Jan. 18.—All the public and private schools in this city will be closed today and will remain closed until the smallpox epidemic has subsided.

"Bedelia is in jail," is the headline of an article in an exchange. We regret to report that this Bedelia is an Hoboken girl and not the one they're singing about.

Hanna's press agents are as busy as ever reporting their master's dislike at hearing his name mentioned in connection with a Presidential nomination. Does anyone suppose for one moment that Hanna would decline to run for the office if he could only secure the nomination?

The nation owes its unity largely to advertising. New foods, new fashions, new working systems are introduced promptly by the old announcements of the advertiser, and to this unity is wedded, through the same cause, the great variety and quick changes of our people's action.—Ex.

Senator Cross has lost no time in introducing a bill for the creation of the office of register of deeds. The idea was favored in the Republican party platform and has since been advocated by citizens of the county irrespective of politics. There appears to be no opposition to the plan and it is safe to say that it will not be a long while before this needed office is added to Union county's list.

UP AND DOWN THE STATE

Following the steps taken by other cities, Somerville is now agitating the question of having telephone and electric light wires placed under ground for the safety of the public.

An $80,000 clubhouse is to be erected at Lake Hopatcong next spring, the work to be started as soon as the weather permits. The capital for the enterprise will be furnished by men from Newark and Brooklyn.

"New Jersey in the Revolutionary War" will be the subject of an illustrated address to be delivered on Washington's Birthday by Rev. Henry R. Rose, of Newark, at the celebration to be held at Bound Brook under the auspices of the Washington Camp Ground Association. The entertainment will be held at night and the lecture will be illustrated with stereopticon views.

AMUSEMENTS.

Frank Daniels and his opera company, which only recently closed a long and prosperous engagement in the laughable musical comedy, "The Office Boy," at the Victoria Theatre here, has been brought back to New York by Manager Charles B. Billingham and is presented this week at the Grand Opera House. The popularity of "The Office Boy" during its nine weeks' run on Broadway should insure a big engagement at the Grand. "The Office Boy" is the best vehicle Daniels has yet had for a display of his unique fun-making abilities and the chubby star is surrounded by a more than capable company of singers, dancers, comedians and show girls. Daniels himself was long ago voted a favorite at this theatre, and he seems in for a flattering reception. After "The Office Boy" will come two non-musical plays, thus giving our patrons a breathing spell from the reigning style of entertainment. The two attractions secured are of widely different variety but each is a masterpiece in its line.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

A series of stereopticon views on "Jerusalem" will be given at the Rescue Mission, Thursday night.

There will be a meeting of the official board of Grace M. E. church tonight at the parsonage on Park place.

As a result of the labors of Mrs. Lou O'Brien, at the Rescue Mission during the past six weeks, there have been thirty-three conversions and fourteen baptisms.

During the recent severe cold weather Rev. Dr. D. J. Yerkes has been detained at his home in West Seventh street, and has been unable to attend services at the First Baptist church for four Sundays.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the First Baptist church, preached a sermon of unusual interest last night from the text "And Lot pitched his tent toward Soddam." There was a large congregation present.

Officers were elected at the German Reformed church yesterday morning. The elders for two years are: Phillip Bach and Joseph Agnerbauer, and for one year, John M. Schorb. The deacons are Frank Bach, Henry Hess, for terms of two years, and Gottlieb Tallarek, for one year.

The Men's Club of the Bound Brook Congregational church will give a dinner in the chapel of the church, Friday night. Rev. Robert J. Thompson will be toastmaster, and Rev. John Sheridan Zelie, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, will deliver the principal address.

The members of the Rescue Mission have been invited to attend a reunion at Newark, Wednesday night, in commemoration of the sixteenth anniversary of the leadership of Brother Kerry, of the Newark Mission. Twenty members are expected to attend from Plainfield under the leadership of Mrs. O'Brien, Miss Sutton and John Goodwin.

SNAP SHOTS.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

Rev. T. E. Davis, of North Plainfield, who until recently was pastor of a Presbyterian church, has in his possession an interesting relic of Bound Brook in the Colonial days. It is the impress of a seal of Queen Ann, made in 1756 by Isiah Younglove, who was a commissioner of the peace at Bound Brook at that time. The seal is on the end of a knife handle. Isiah Younglove settled at Bound Brook in 1738, coming from Connecticut. He had six sons and six daughters. His third son, Isiah, Jr., served in the "New Jersey Grays" under Colonel Dayton, and went to Fort Stanwix, and from there to Oswego, where he was wounded and captured by the Indians. He was taken to Toronto and was the first prisoner of war exchanged. The exchange took place at Lake George. He afterwards furnished General Schuyler with much information about the British. After the war he returned to Bound Brook, where he died and was buried in the old burying ground.

PERSONAL.

John Ross, of Prospect place, the borough, is ill with an attack of the grip.

Mrs. Louis Poor, of Somerville, is visiting Plainfield relatives for several days.

Herbert Conover, of Jackson avenue, is detained at home with a severe cold.

Miss Rose McMurtry, of New York, who has been visiting friends in the borough, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clark, who have been visiting friends in town, have returned to their home in Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sauer, of Paterson, who have been the guest of friends in this city, have returned home.

Miss May Gulick, of Plainfield, has been visiting her brother, J. J. Gulick, of Round Valley, Hunterdon County.

Miss Ella Saunderson, of Fairview avenue, who has been the guest of friends in New Rochelle, N. Y., has returned home.

T. F. Budlong, of this city, has been elected treasurer of the Taylor Iron and Steel Company's Employes' Beneficial Association, of High Bridge.

Charles Ward visited friends in New Brunswick on Saturday.

The Y. M. A. will meet this evening.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Those who were compelled to be on the streets Saturday afternoon found walking a rather dangerous thing. The light fall of snow had hidden the icy spots on the sidewalks, and the result was a number found the earth coming up to meet them when they least expected it. No bad falls were reported, but the danger could be averted if the residents would either clean their walks thoroughly after a snow storm or sprinkle ashes or sawdust on the dangerous places.

The membership committee of Fanwood Council, R. A., met Saturday night at the home of William E. Collins, of the borough. Plans were made for the year's work of the Council towards increasing its membership. Last year's work resulted in a net gain of over 30 per cent. This year's figures will in all likelihood pass the one hundred and fifty mark by January 1, 1905. The Council now numbers one hundred and seven members.

Through the kindness of Deacon David Hand a number of the members of the Baptist church and Sunday-school enjoyed a strawride Saturday afternoon. The pleasant affair was hastily arranged Saturday morning, but the news spread and when the time arrived three large sled loads of happy boys and girls were bundled together and tucked in with straw. It is needless to say none was happier then Mr. Hand, who held the reins.

Several cases of diphtheria have developed in the eastern part of the village, the homes of Jacob Sourmilk, on Montague avenue, and Robin Frasee, on Cook avenue, being under quarantine. The Board of Health has taken the usual precautions to hold the disease where it is and no spread of the disease is feared. At the home of Mr. Sourmilk two of the children are sick.

Samuel Radin entertained a number of friends at a reception and dance at his home Saturday night. Dancing was a feature enjoyed until near the midnight hour after which refreshments were served. Sam France, of Plainfield, furnished the music.

Rev. Mr. Anderson, of the Westfield Methodist church, will make the address at the meeting of the Epworth League to be held tonight in the Methodist church.

Rev. G. M. Shott was the speaker at the Reform Club meeting held in Plainfield Sunday afternoon. Mr. Shott's subject was "Temperance Reform."

A sleigh load of young people from town attended the reception and dance held Saturday night in the hall at Berkeley Heights.

Miss Nellie Hollingsworth led the weekly meeting of the Epworth League at the Methodist church Sunday night.

The Brookside Gun Club was unable to hold its weekly shoot Saturday afternoon on account of the snow storm.

The B. Y. P. U., of the Baptist church, held its weekly meeting last night in the parlors of the church.

David Patterson, of Johnston avenue, was the guest Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gray, of Front street.

George Schick, formerly of the village, but now of Bordentown, N. J., has been visiting friends in town.

A cocking main was held Saturday night near Orange. Several from town attended the society event.

Mrs. James Buckley, of Stout avenue, has returned from a visit with friends at Netherwood.

The K. O. G. Club will hold an invitation dance in the Fanwood Hall Thursday night.

Henry Keuhn, of East Sixth street, spent Sunday with friends in town.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

The Waldron exhibition of glass-blowers and working held in Washington Hall, closed Saturday night. In the voting contest for the handsomest baby the prize was awarded to Alma Randolph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Randolph.

Mrs. Wilroy Voorhees and daughter, of Asbury Park, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Voorhees' parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Manning.

Henry Mollison, of Philadelphia, has returned after spending Sunday with his family on Clinton avenue.

Mr. Rubinstein has moved from Washington Valley to his new house near Clinton avenue.

George Stover, of Oak Tree, is improving from his recent attack of bronchitis.

Cassie Mollison is slowly recovering from a severe attack of the grip.

Miss Grace Dayton is visiting friends in Westfield.

Miss Berth Swackhamer, of Whitehouse, is the guest of Assemblyman and Mrs. S. S. Swackhamer, of the borough.

Ira G. Hulbert, who has been detained at his home on West Front street by a severe illness, is able to be out again.

—Motorman Barney Feeley, of Westfield, was in charge of the main line trolley car which killed J. T. Vail's horse in this city, Thursday night. It is said that Feeley was in no way responsible for the accident.

THERE'S SAFETY in our PRESCRIPTIONS.

Safety in drugs cannot be overestimated—its value is incalculable. Cheap drugs mean doubtful drugs—pure drugs mean safety. We invite the confidence of those who want the BEST DRUGS, and are willing to pay a fair price for them. We promise (besides pure drugs) a prescription service Absolutely Errorless; our checking system makes it so—at a cost unusually low for the service rendered.

ORIGIN OF THE TENT.

Talmudic Legend Attributes Its Invention to the Ingenuity of Adam.

"An ancient Talmudic legend relates that Adam, on his expulsion from Paradise, encountered a cutting north wind against which his scant girdle of fig leaves proved poor protection," says Hiram M. Stanley, in Outing. "As he wistfully cast his eyes over the desolate plain of Shinar he perceived at a great distance a dead thorn bush, running thither he crouched behind it, and while still shivering he saw a wild ass come by. And Adam cried to the beast to lie down alongside and keep him warm. But the ass spake out ("for asses sometimes spake in those days, as since," saith the commentator), and derided him for not having a warm coat of fur. Whereupon Adam waxed wroth, and slew the ass with a piece of the thorn tree, and with teeth and nails stripping off the ass's coat wrapped it around himself. But toward noon, the sun growing hot and a scorching wind arising, Adam conceived the happy thought of hanging the skin over the bush and reposing in the shade thereof. It was done, the tent was invented and civilization began."

COFFEE AS A STIMULANT.

Medical Authority Declares It Is an Antidote for Alcohol and Otherwise Beneficial.

One of the highest authorities among medical publications, the London Lancet, gives a few words of advice and comfort to the lovers of coffee and says that this most popular of all drinks is not harmful.

As an after-dinner drink it believes coffee is distinctly beneficial. Coffee also is an antidote for alcohol. The dyspeptic, it says, should not drink coffee or tea, because both are injurious to weak stomachs.

As a substitute for the hot drink, however, coffee jelly is recommended. In this form it can be taken into any stomach without injury, provided there is no stinting of the quantity of coffee in the jelly. It has a cooling effect, assuages the thirst and is generally beneficial.

Coffee, the Lancet declares, is a stimulant, like alcohol, but, unlike alcohol, it arouses muscular energy without the collapse which follows alcoholic drinks. This is likely to prove grateful information to the thousands of Americans who think they cannot begin the day without a free indulgence in coffee and often consume that beverage with each of the three daily meals.

Scientists Who Believe in Ghosts.

Among the great physicists, Sir Oliver Lodge believes in telepathy and Sir William Crooks in ghosts. Lord Kelvin recently said that "science positively affirmed creative power," and Sir William Thistleton-Dyer, the director of Kew botanical gardens, complains that Kelvin "wipes out by a stroke of the pen the whole position Darwin won for us," and Prof. Lankester, director of the British museum, says he does not know "of anyone of admitted leadership among modern biologists who is showing signs of coming to a belief in the existence of a vital principle."

Automobiles and Safety.

Ample evidence of the narrow margin of safety in the powerful automobiles is shown by the fact that in the Paris-Madrid race nearly all the big cars came to grief through failure of working parts. The heat softened the metal in the bearings, cylinder heads crooked, rods bent, giving evidence that the machinery was under-proportioned and overworked. It is more than probable that this disastrous race will prove useful in showing that the limits of safety, either in construction or operation, cannot be exceeded with impunity.

Births and Deaths.

From 1890 to 1900 the average annual excess of births over deaths in the United States was 17.7 per 1,000 of population, while Prussia stood next with 14.7 per 1,000. Then came Holland, with 14 per 1,000; Norway, with 13.9; the German empire, with 13.7; Denmark, with 12.6; Scotland, with 11.9, and England and Wales with 11.7. The two foreign countries in which there is the nearest approximation to race suicide are France and Ireland.

Henry Rogers Honored.

At the meeting of the New Jersey State Agricultural Society in Trenton, Saturday, W. H. Rogers, of North Plainfield township, was re-elected on the executive committee. The old board of officers was re-elected.

catch the laughter of the pleasure seeker and the worldly; or the flash of the wheels dassle your eyes or spatter you with mud? Do you sigh and sometimes murmur in discontent, as you wipe the perspiration from your brow, pause a moment to remember that His brow was wet with honest sweat and the dew upon your brow is sweeter than the dew of Heaven to your Heavenly Father.

"Oh ye jaded mothers, trying hard to make both ends meet. Oh ye ministering Marthas. Ye sons of toil, look up at eventide and let your Heavenly Father take your face flushed with the weariness of the work of the day into His strong loving hands and listen while He says: 'Thou art My beloved child in whom I Am well pleased.'"

HEN SAW PINK BEAR.

Wife Thought for a Time That Husband Was Crazy.

Subsequent Events Proved, However, That the Old Man Knew What He Was Talking About—A Complete Vindication.

From Bridgewater, Vt., the cheerful news comes to the New York World that the mystery of Hen White's pink bear has been cleared, and Hen has been restored to his old place among the sane-minded and truthful citizens of the Corners. There was a time a few weeks ago when he was looked at askance and classed with Mose Perkins, who, while haying, declared he had run across a nest of purple snakes, with eyes in their tails.

The pink bear first put in an appearance at the Bigelow abandoned farm, whither Hen had gone alone to gather butternuts. It was investigating an old bee tree when the farmer first laid eyes on it and then was so spellbound at the sight that he swallowed a lump of spruce gum he was chewing. The bear had his head in the bee hole and hadn't seen Hen.

When Hen arrived he was so out of breath that it was a considerable time before he could explain matters to his wife. Mrs. White is a practical woman and she advised her spouse to put his feet in hot water, take a pint of catnip tea and go to bed.

When, after a night's rest, Hen still declared he had seen a pink bear, Mrs. White "allowed" there must be something in it, but strongly advised that the story be kept for home use. But Hen insisted on telling the neighbors. They treated the man kindly, but shook their heads and spoke to Mrs. White about the state insane asylum at Waterbury. Her husband might get dangerous at any time, they told her, and urged her to take time by the forelock and send him away before he murdered the baby. The arguments were beginning to have effect when the vindication of Hen came in a most unexpected manner.

John Bugbee, who lives back in the hills on a farm he bought in the spring, both vindicated Hen and killed the pink bear. The farm buildings needed much fixing up when Bugbee took the place, and the first thing he did was to lay in a supply of red paint. In fair weather he tilled the soil, and when it rained he painted. The soil was pretty rocky and promised little the first year, so Bugbee bought a dozen hives of bees. He figured that the honey with what crops he could raise would carry him over the first winter, and then the sailing would be before a fair wind. The bees thrived and the farmer hived several swarms and then built a bee house. This he completed about a week before Hen saw his bear.

Ordinarily Bugbee wouldn't have painted the bee house, but inasmuch as he had some red paint he thought he would make a good job of it. There wasn't enough of the red paint to do the work, and he added some white lead and spread a coat over the house, inside and out, floor and ceiling. The next morning he awoke to find that a bear had invaded the bee house and ripped open several hives. The newly painted floor showed many tracks, and the walls were scratched where Bruin had attempted to climb them. It then developed that he had eaten so much honey that he had difficulty in making an exit through the low narrow door through which he had entered, and that he had been forced to lay down and worm his way to freedom.

Bugbee would have taken the news to the village and Hen would have been cleared at once, but the farmer had too much to do to gather his slim crops and repair the bee house to indulge in an afternoon off. Then, too, he was bound to get the bear, and sat up several hours every night awaiting his return. Finally, early in the week, he was rewarded.

The moon had just come up when Bugbee heard a movement back of the bee house and soon discerned an odd-appearing animal sniff around the corner and look in the door. He was a dirty pink and the farmer knew the old marauder had come back for more honey. After a few more sniffs the bear crawled inside and Bugbee sneaked up and pounded on the side of the house with the stock of his rifle.

Instantly the bear stuck his head out of the door and, seeing the farmer, growled. The moon gave plenty of light to shoot at ten paces, and Bugbee fired, catching the animal between the eyes and killing him instantly. When he was drawn from the bee house Bruin was found to be a faded and soiled pink, the paint having dried on the hair and then become dirty through contact with the woods

PROPER WINTER DIET.

Rich Dishes Appropriate to the Season and Ways to Prepare Them —Use of Spices.

Winter is the season for rich pies, fruit cake and sweet preserves, as well as for heavy meals, says the New York Tribune. The diet most agreeable to a man of normal appetite in winter is the one which is most wholesome and necessary for him. The flesh of full grown animals, such as beef or mutton, is better in the months of December and January than at any other time, because it can be hung to ripen in the open air, instead of in close icehouses or refrigerators.

Rich soups, made of the tougher portions of these nourishing meats, as well as roasts, braises and boiling pieces, should be regularly served in winter. In summer considerably less meat, and that of a more delicate nature, such as young lamb, veal or poultry, is required.

Preserved fruits and rich spiced puddings are more valuable winter food than fresh fruits, which are always scarce in the depth of winter, and proportionately expensive. Sweet marmalades and jellies that call for a great deal of sugar are also necessary in winter, as the human system needs the heating qualities of sugar more in cold than in warm weather.

It is not always a degenerate taste that prompts delicate children to cry for candies in winter; it is generally because their systems actually need the sugar, which science recognizes as a food necessary to keep the fires of life burning. It would be foolish to imagine, however, because a certain amount of sugar is necessary that a larger amount will do no harm. When too much sugar is taken into the system the stomach has no chance to digest bread and meat.

The housekeeper should not be afraid to use spices and seasoning in a reasonable manner, for they help to digest the rich fats so necessary to winter diet.

GARDEN NEEDLE PAINTING.

Reproducing in Fine Crewels on Canvas—Some Sketch of a Pleasing Spot Is the Latest.

A new fashion in needlework is coming a good deal in favor. It is for the worker to reproduce in fine crewels on canvas some sketch or picture of her own or a friend's garden. The work is carried out on very fine single thread canvas, with the finest of fine crewel wools, the stitch used being the old petit point, says the Brooklyn Eagle.

The designs are first painted roughly on the canvas, and here a happy opportunity presents itself to the worker who can handle the paint brush as well as the needle, for the pictures may be original sketches or adaptations from finished paintings. The work itself is not by any means difficult, as it merely involves following out the coloring suggested in the rough painting; but great care must be taken to work perfectly evenly and to preserve the forms, while blending the colors softly and gradually. It is always better to carry out this kind of work in a frame rather than in the hand. Another way in which these garden pictures may be carried out, and which, less exquisitely minute, is easier to work and can be done in about a quarter of the time that it would take if executed in petit point. The canvas used is of coarse texture, somewhat resembling that of huckaback. The garden scene is roughly painted upon it, as for the smaller pictures. The details are then darned in with much coarser crewel wools than those used for the finer work, the entire picture being thus filled. When a strong touch of massed color is needed, satin stitch may be used. Most of the forms are outlined in hemstitch. For boldly decorative effect, or from a position in which it has to be looked at from a distance, this kind of garden picture is much commended; the first mentioned has, however, thee haracteristic charm of delicate needle-painting.

A Medicine Cupboard.

A useful and inexpensive little medicine cupboard for a bedroom can be made out of two cigar boxes of equal size. Glue them together at the sides, so that the lids of the boxes come together like cupboard doors. Then paint or enamel them both inside and out, or, if preferred, cover with a pretty, small pattern wallpaper. For handles use two small rings, such as are used for hanging pictures, and also fasten two at the top to hang the cupboard on the wall.—Chicago Tribune.

Maple Candy.

Boil together for five minutes one cup of maple sirup and one cup of sugar; add one-quarter of a teaspoon of cream of tartar, two teaspoons of butter, and two teaspoons of vinegar. After it has boiled until it is brittle when tried in cold water, pour it into buttered pans to cool. When cool enough to handle, pull it until it becomes hard, then cut it in pieces and allow it to stand two or three days to become "ripened."—Good Housekeeping.

Nut Cake.

One and one-half cupfuls sugar, one-half cupful butter, four eggs, one-third cupful milk, two and one-half cupfuls of flour, one teaspoonful cream of tartar, one-half teaspoonful soda; add hickorynut, butternut or walnut meats (as much in quantity as you use flour is a good rule, but some cooks prefer less); bake in a moderate oven.—Good Literature.

To Freshen Stale Doughnuts.

Doughnuts or biscuits may be heated "amaist as good as new" by putting them in a whole paper bag, sprinkling in a few drops only of water, twisting the ends, putting in the oven, raised a little from the bottom on a grate. The oven must be very hot.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

THE COMING MODES.

Spring Styles and Materials Forecasted by Miss Rousseau.

No wonder women like the soft moleskin fur, for it is very beautiful, with such a fine and delicate surface, even softer and more enticing than seal, and that is so fine and silky that I at least always want to pass it across my cheeks. A short and tight fitting jacket of this fur was made in such a way that each tiny skin formed a diamond, and the seam had not been pressed flat after it was sewed, which gave the whole garment the appearance of being quilted.

The long stole shaped fur neck pieces are running close rivalry with the long and fluffy boas, which are so much more becoming than the flat and almost if not quite collarless shapes in the 1830 styles.

Speaking of these styles, it appears that we are really in for them, as every new thing has something reminiscent of them. The ugly, flabby, flat muffs and the hourglass stoles and the shorter and more extensive sweep of skirt all point so. The many flounces are indications, and for these last we should be grateful, as flounces understandingly applied are very pretty and graceful. A few of these harbingers of spring have from two to three flounces eight to ten inches deep. Where they are put straight around the skirt they are not ungraceful, but the worst feature is that the modiste is trying to follow the olden styles too literally and puts them on in festoons or scallops, with homely rosettes at the apex. But as the fashion becomes a settled fact all these queer fancies will give place to a modified style.

This week has been prolific in the bringing to our shores of millions of dollars' worth of new dress goods for early spring and even for the coming summer. Of these I shall not speak, lest the gloss of newness be worn off before the warm days come. But a few words about the pretty spring woolens may not be amiss, for I have often remarked that it seems but a short time after Christmas has come and gone until spring is with us.

In the first place, we may say that mohair is to be the leading fabric, not the old mohair that we knew as a glossy but harsh stuff, but a new one, soft and silky, with none of the old roughness which made it a dubious pleasure to have one of the gowns. Besides, the new mohair is produced in so many novel and pretty styles that it would be an impossibility to mention half of them. The main point is that they are woven into pin head and graduated stripes, white on gray and white on black, in many designs. But all are marked by great fineness in weave and delicacy of design. Indeed the material looks like the richest silk. Another excellence has been added to these new goods. They have all been cravenetted, which means that some process in the manufacture has rendered them absolutely waterproof. This is a great thing, as now we can wear the pretty and serviceable mohairs out in the heaviest rain without danger to the fabric. Nearly all of the best goods are now cravenetted.

The handsomest of these new mohairs show striped effects, mostly white and pepper and salt, though occasionally there is one with a red or blue hair line stripe. There are tans, olives, grays and several other colors. The new silk warp henriettas show small brocaded designs in sunburst patterns and others all small and fine. This material is too well known to require any description other than to mention that it is now produced with brocaded figures. There is another mohair with a deep twill something like armure silk and quite as rich and heavy, with a frosty bloom, and it is also rendered unspotable. There is still another rather lighter, and this will be made up, like the others, into handsome tailored suits. There is also a heavy twill something like prunella, and this is exceptionally rich and with a deep luster.

The costume represented here is made of the tan shade as a pattern gown and is finished simply to show the beauty of the mohair. It is trimmed at the waist with plain white silk castle braid and darker braid ending with fancy breloques.

These braids, breloques and buttons and many other things all fashioned by the same process are in the highest style now, and it may almost be said that they are displacing lace as trimming of fine dresses. Hats are also made of the suitable braids.

HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

ABOUT DABBLERS

They Do Many Things a Little, None Well

A WISE woman has written, "It is better to do one thing well than to dabble in forty things."

Our time is crowded full of pleasant things to know and to do. A woman of lively imagination and warm sympathies looks over the field of feminine activities and many a time wishes to do a dozen things at once. Let us say she is a girl just out of school. She has been made to take piano and singing lessons. She has a voice that might be made a fine one with practice. But she desires a good time socially, so is content to remain an indifferent musical thrumster. She sees other girls taking up as a fad a little embroidery and fancy knitting work, so into that she goes headlong. After she has learned even it only half she gets wearied of it and throws it aside.

Then the girls decide they will form a French literary and conversation class and improve their minds. They are to meet twice a week for three months. Ten girls are of the class in the beginning. At the end of a dozen lessons one girl is left. The others dropped out, being taken up with skating parties or dancing or a fad of slumming. The superior fascinations of slumming and becoming a teacher in a Chinese Sunday school quite blotted out the claims of the French language and the improvement of the mind.

Our young lady keeps up the slumming and the Chinese Sunday school for a whole six months. Then she sees a girl who is "just wild" over gymnastics and is developing her chest and her back muscles at a great rate. Miss Amarilda, our young lady, has her imagination captivated at once by the fine physical proportions possible for her to acquire. She goes in furiously for athletics, and the fit lasts only two months this time.

Miss Amarilda's next fad, maybe, is learning to cook. She takes lessons, she gets half a dozen newfangled egg beaters and at length makes a cake and some charlotte russe. The cake is a failure, the charlotte is successful, but before she takes another whack at cookery Miss Amarilda goes off to spend the winter with a cousin.

She meets at the cousin's a fascinating young man. She gets a new fad, and the new fad is matrimony. Mrs. Amarilda settles down. Shortly the novelty of matrimony wears off. By that time the fad for painting china and porcelain shirt waist buttons is on violently among the feminine sex, and Mrs. Amarilda paints buttons "to beat the band." She has really artistic talent that might be made worth while if she would only learn to draw well. But drawing well means drudgery, working year after year. Mrs. Amarilda's scheme of life is that of the amateur and diversion seeker. Maybe she gets far enough along to do some pretty rose and fern plaques or even get a photo of her husband transferred to a china plate. That is the end of high art with Mrs. Amarilda. A woman friend comes along and interests her in what the friend proudly calls "new thought," though it was enunciated ages ago by Socrates and other philosophers. Mrs. Amarilda is going to do things by force of thought and will, forgetful that she, on the other hand, cannot thus do anything. The little boss that sits up aloft in the brain long ago abdicated to Mrs. Amarilda's mere fancy. She has no more steady power of will or concentration than a baby. She practices concentration a whole week, then quits.

She goes in for women's clubs. In the midst of it all her husband is stricken with incurable invalidism, and Mrs. Amarilda must earn her own living.

What can she do? That is a question for thousands of Amarildas to put to themselves this day.

Our age requires as no age has before required perfection of work. There can be no perfection unless the worker gives herself heart and soul and with all enthusiasm to her task. Life is not long enough to do many things well. Let not women fritter it away nibbling faddish at this, that and the other. A woman may gain success in an art or profession quite as well as a man, but she must task herself like a man to do it. She cannot work and go into society too; she cannot even work in a half hearted way at anything and attain excellence. She must give herself wholesouled to her labor.

MARY EDITH DAY.

SPORTS AND ATHLETICS

The remarkable showing of Mrs. Bernard Horne, formerly and better known as Miss Bessie Anthony, as a golfer during the last season has left her as the undisputed premier woman golfer in the west. Her last victory was the woman's western championship, at Exmoor, which made her the fourth-time winner of the greatest golfing honor that can be gained outside of the national championship. Mrs. Horne, since engaging in matrimony, has announced that she will not defend her title next year. She has been the winner of 16 open tournaments, and has a collection of some 47 cups, medals, fobs and other prizes. Her string of victories far surpass that of any other golfer west of the Alleghenies and probably very closely approaches the number of honors that any one golfer in the country can lay claim to. Mrs. Horne began playing golf in 1899, and though she did not devote much attention to her game until 1900, she was able to play very cleverly after about four months' practice. In 1900, however, she spent much of her time on the links, and before the year was out succeeded in performing the remarkable feat of winning the governor's cup at Onwentsia, which was considered the western championship. Her play the past year was but a repetition of her work of the two previous season's. Consistency always was Miss Anthony's long suit, and it was indeed very seldom that she was off her game. She was not inclined to be erratic and was probably the coolest woman player on a western course. One of her finest characteristics as a golfer was her nerve. On more than one occasion when her match was all but finished and defeat seemed evident, she buckled down and did what had to be done in order to win—namely, play better golf than her opponent. Miss Anthony's nerve was usually the strongest on the last few holes of her matches, where most other golfers are generally shy. Not a few matches and honors were won by the remarkable nerve that the champion was able to muster in the most trying stage of a match, and this is probably one reason why she annexed so many tournaments.

Mrs. Horne

President John H. York, of the Cleveland Bowling association, is making extraordinary efforts to interest the bowlers of Greater New York in the national championship tournament to be held next February in Cleveland. Mr. York has issued a special invitation to the eastern men, and, while he has undertaken a big task, reports from the east would indicate that his efforts may bear fruit. Enough interest has been stirred up in New York to start the bowlers discussing the proposition, and westerners would not be surprised to see New York well represented in the big annual event. Only two men were entered from Greater New York in the Indianapolis tourney, but at that time the absence of the Gothamites was attributed to the long journey as much as to the loaded ball question. If Mr. York succeeds in bringing the eastern cracks into line again, he will be credited with a notable accomplishment. Western tenpin men would like to see the easterners compete in the next year's affair, as without the Gothamites it loses some of its national aspects, as well as losing the inter-city rivalry between Chicago and New York. Since the easterners split with the western men two years ago at the Buffalo convention they have not taken any active participation in the affairs of the congress, organizing instead a local association in New York to govern their affairs. The chief reason for the split between the east and the west was the loaded ball, and, while the present rules limit the weight of a ball to 16½ pounds, the New Yorkers insist on an all-wood ball. However, the men in the metropolis are still rolling under the A. B. C. rules and regulations, and while a few leagues retained their membership in the national organization last year, they failed to enter a team in the Indianapolis events. With the adoption of the new constitution and by-laws by the A. B. C. the situation as to membership has been changed entirely. Formerly the A. B. C. was composed of leagues, but now it deals exclusively with clubs through city associations.

J. H. York

J. S. Westney, the old University of Pennsylvania track captain, has been suspended by the English Amateur Athletic association until July, 1904, for tendering an entry without the necessary fee. Next to Duffy, Westney was considered the best man in Europe in the sprints last year, and with a yard and a half handicap in the Glasgow games defeated the Georgetown sprinter by inches in the fast time of 9 4-5 seconds. Westney has a record of ten seconds for the hundred and during the past three years has been competing in England.

F. D. Colson, for four years coxswain of the Cornell 'varsity crew, will coach the Harvard 'varsity crew for the annual race with Yale next June. It is expected that a radical change will be made in the methods of rowing at Harvard.

BRYAN A DELEGATE.

St. Louis Democratic Convention Will Hear the Nebraskan.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—William J Bryan will be a delegate to the next Democratic national convention. This is the announcement of his supporters in Nebraska, who are absolutely in control of the Democratic state organization.

The presence of Mr. Bryan in the convention will make him the acknowledged spokesman of that part of the Democratic party which has dominated its policy since 1893, and it is likely that under the two-thirds rule which prevails in the Democratic body no man can be chosen as the candidate for president whose nomination would be regarded as an affront to him.

A majority of the Democratic national committee at their session in Washington expressed the opinion that Mr. Bryan would not only be powerful enough in the coming convention to name the candidate and dictate the platform, but to veto any action of the majority as to a candidate offensive to him and his followers.

RIVER TOWNS SUFFER.

Ice Closes Ohio Navigation and Stops Supplies.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 18.—Dispatches from Ohio river points indicate that new ice is forming, while the gorges between Evansville and Louisville were already firm and also those between Madison and Cincinnati. The same conditions exist for seventy miles above Cincinnati, where the gorges are almost continuous, and at some places icebergs thirty and forty feet high exist.

Navigation on the Ohio and its tributaries has been suspended for almost six weeks, and many river towns without railways that depend on the boats for mail, groceries, fuel and almost everything are suffering great inconvenience. There is only a supply of coal available at Cincinnati for two weeks, and colder weather prevails.

While there have been colder winters, the Ohio river was never frozen over for so long a period before. This is due to the low stage of water.

JAMES L. BLAIR DEAD.

Will Answer Charges Only at the Court of Heaven.

EUSTIS, Fla., Jan. 18.—James Lawrence Blair of St. Louis has died here. It was thought that he was improving in health until a few days ago, when his condition changed alarmingly for the worse, and the physicians advised that his wife be telegraphed for, and she and her son, Percy Blair, arrived a short time before his death.

The cause of death in the physicians' certificate is cerebral congestion. The body has been embalmed and has been shipped to St. Louis, accompanied by Mrs. Blair and son.

Mr. Blair was the son of the late General Francis Preston Blair. He was graduated from Princeton in 1875, was admitted to the bar in St. Louis in 1876 and was one of the leading lawyers of that city. The charges against him were of fraud in connection with the affairs of a large St. Louis estate of which he was a trustee.

Board of Trade's Annual Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The annual meeting of the national board of trade will be held in this city for three days, beginning tomorrow. Some 200 delegates from all sections of the country will be in attendance. The matters to come before the board cover a wide range, including various phases of the present interstate commerce law and proposed amendments thereto, the ship subsidy question, postal affairs, including one cent postage and the proper postal classification of mail matter; the isthmian canal question and river and harbor improvement projects, reciprocity with Canada, Cuba and other countries, various suggested reforms in the currency laws, irrigation and forestry, national inspection of grain and government crop reports, amendment of the immigration and naturalization laws and other minor matters.

"Dollar Dinner" to Bryan.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 18.—Five hundred tickets have been issued for the "dollar dinner" to be given here tonight in honor of W. J. Bryan. The speakers comprise many of the leading Democrats of the state. Tomorrow he will leave for New York city, where he is to participate in the banquet of the Holland society. From there he will go to the south to fill a number of lecture engagements. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Bryan and his daughter Grace.

Want Roosevelt at Jackson.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The Michigan delegation which is to invite the president to visit Jackson, Mich., on July 6 to attend the anniversary of the founding of the Republican party in Michigan fifty years ago has arrived here. They are to see President Roosevelt today, when James O'Donnell, the head of the delegation, and Governor Bliss will urge the executive to accept the invitation.

Fourteen Incendiary Fires.

SHARON, Mass., Jan. 18.—The fourteenth recent fire to be declared incendiary by the police has destroyed the Morse block, a three story frame structure occupied by small stores, a dance hall and tenements. Mrs. John Grant, a tenant, barely escaped with her life. The fire started in a stairway leading to the rear entrance of the dance hall on the second floor.

Jailbird Caged Again.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Jan. 18.—William J. Reid, alias L. O. Hoffman, who escaped from the Springfield (Mass.) jail a week ago, has been arrested at Northville, Fulton county, N. Y.

A WOODCHUCK STORY

Joys and Sorrows in the Life of the Little Animal.

Her History from the Coming of Spring to the Closing Chapter of Life in the Late Summer.

Very early last spring, a woodchuck poked her black nose from the mouth of the burrow in which she had spent the winter, and blinked her little round black eyes in the sunlight. Then she came out, and lay basking on the mound of hard earth before her doorway. She looked very weak, and she was certainly dreadfully thin. Her grizzled pelt hung loosely on her bony frame, and when she moved it was with a languor not usually observed in woodchucks. The fact is that she had but just awakened from an all-winter sleep, and as she had fasted since the previous October, she was not only drowsy but famished. Soon she found strength to go off in search of some food.

One morning, after the little rodent had had her morning meal of clover, and she was taking a sun-bath on the mound of earth in front of her doorway, some small object struck the mould about six inches in front of her face, and threw a pinch of the dirt sharply in her eyes. She did not know what the trouble was, and she did not stop to find out, but pitched headfirst into the burrow and stayed there. As she disappeared, a small boy, brandishing a Flobert rifle and followed by a little yellow dog, jumped from behind a hillock, and ran up to see how near he had come to the 'chuck. He pulled a grimace when he saw where his bullet had pitted the earth, reloaded his weapon and went back to his hiding place. But the woodchuck, not being quite a fool, remained where she was safe until the boy became tired of waiting and came back to the hole, the yellow dog still at his heels. The boy now picked up the dog and put its nose to the mouth of the burrow, and after a few words of encouragement the cur, which had more assurance than wisdom, plunged into the black hole. The boy sat down on the mound of earth and yelled "Sic 'em, Prince!" and for about a minute no doubt Prince was doing as he was bid. After that, it seems that the woodchuck did most of the "sicking," for the dog backed out of the burrow with two terrible cuts on his head, and howling in a most unprincely manner. Then, tucking his tail as far between his legs as he could get it, he made for home by a short cut, and at his very best pace.

Not long after, the woodchuck appeared at the mouth of the burrow with a family of five little ones. They had been born some time before, but this was their first appearance in the open. They were pretty, dark-eyed, soft-coated little fellows, ready to topple back again out of sight at a sign from their mother.

Every morning now, the whole family might have been seen moving through the grass to the spots where the clover grew the thickest. For a short time they lived in peace, but one evening they made themselves a powerful enemy by journeying into the next field and eating off, close to the ground, three long rows of young peas. The owner of the peas said very little, but he drove to town and brought back a stick of dynamite, which he thrust far into the burrow. A minute later there was a muffled boom, and the farmer went off, satisfied that he would not be bothered again by that family of woodchucks. But in the evening a cautious gray head was thrust from the mouth of the hole, and soon our old woodchuck crawled from her home and made off slowly across the field. The dynamite had killed the young ones, but their mother had only been stunned. She went directly to an old burrow which she had occupied two years before, and next morning there was a large heap of fresh earth in front of it. She lived there quietly until the latter part of the summer, when, returning after an absence somewhat longer than usual, she found the entrance to her home barred by a snarling black head, with a white stripe down the front. The premises had been seized by a skunk, and the woodchuck was obliged to seek a residence elsewhere. She started to dig a fresh tunnel on the other side of the field and for hours she threw out the soil with her strong claws. The following afternoon she was still at work, when the figure of a man, in brown overalls, crept under the brow of the hill, and lay down behind a rock at the top. For half an hour the woodchuck worked on, and at last she appeared at the doorway for a breathing spell. A little curl of white smoke leaped from behind the rock, there was a sharp report, and the woodchuck dropped back into a newly-made grave.

SPORTING NEWS.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Westfield Club bowling team will meet the Cranford Casino team, tomorrow night at Cranford, in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament, and Friday night Roselle Casino will visit the Park Club. These games are increasing in interest. Although, as yet, the Parks have not succeeded in getting among the leaders they promise better things before the season closes.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

Candidates for the athletic team which will represent the local Y. M. C. A. in the inter-association meet to take place in this city Feb. 8, will meet at the Y. M. C. A. building Tuesday night to receive instructions. The meeting will take place after the class work.

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

There will be a meeting of Plainfield Council, Loyal Additional, tonight, at which time a visit from Supreme Recorder F. S. Helter is expected.

John A. O'Keefe and William J. O'Keefe, of this city, left Saturday for New Haven, Conn., where they have exemplified the major degree of the Knights of Columbus in the New Haven Lodge. They have had the assistance of the New Jersey degree team.

In the Supreme Court.

Chief Justice Gummere will hear the issues in the Supreme Court at Newark today. Codington & Swackhamer will appear as the counsels for the plaintiff in the case of Walter D. Smalley against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and in the case of Mabel Conover against the Central Railroad and the Philadelphia and Reading Company. In the case of LaRue against Sebring, which will come up at that time, Codington & Swackhamer represent the defendant.

New Church Publication.

The first issue of the Holy Cross Messenge was distributed to the members of the church yesterday. The bulletin is neatly printed in pamphlet form and in the leading editorial a few facts leading up to the publication of a parish bulletin are given. WAS ARRESTED FOR FRAUD

BARTZ SAID TO HAVE PASSED WORTHLESS CHECK ON HARRY WERNER.

Chief of Police P. S. Kiely yesterday arrested Theodore Bartz, alias Ritter, charged with passing a worthless check upon Harry Werner to the amount of $26. Justice Huff, this morning, held Bartz without bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Bartz is the man whom Patrolman Saunders failed to arrest several weeks ago when he was pointed out to the patrolman on a trolley car. Saunders was reprimanded for the neglect.

Bartz had been held on another charge in Rahway where he was arrested.

Firemen Respond Promptly.

As a test of the promptness of the local fire department Councilmen Lee, Randolph and Bullock, of the fire committee, rang in a house alarm at headquarters at 11 o'clock Saturday night, just as the firemen were retiring. Some of the men were in bed, while others were preparing to "turn in" when the gong downstairs clanged. Hardly had the gong stopped sounding when all the firemen were in their places in different stages of attire.

Mrs. McCann Buried.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Susan McCann, wife of Charles McCann, were held this morning at 9:45 in St. Mary's R. C. church, where a solemn high mass was held. Rev. Father Delahanty officiated. The interment was in St. Mary's cemetery

RIDING TO HOUNDS.

Dr. Knott's Pack Out Saturday for First Time—Club May be Formed for the "Chase."

Dr. M. O'M. Knott, of this city, took his pack of eight hounds out Saturday afternoon for the first time on a "chase." A number of people with Dr. Knott followed them. The hounds, although not thoroughly broken in, followed the scent furnished by the scattering of annis seed, remarkably well. The start was made at Woodland avenue, and the course was followed past the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club grounds, through the woods to Park avenue, past Holly's place and through the Vail property. In all about three miles were covered.

Dr. Knott proposes to take his hounds out every Wednesday and Saturday afternoon and no doubt many persons will follow the "chase." It is not at all unlikely that in the near future a club will be organized among those interested in hound chases.

Mrs. Hulbert Dead.

Mrs. Anna H. Hulbert, wife of Ira G. Hulbert, aged 66 years, died yesterday at her home, 1136 West Front street, after a lingering illness. SINGLE TAX ADVOCATE ADDRESSES MINISTERS

Bolton Hall Made Interesting Speech Illustrating His Theory.

POVERTY NOT RIGHT

LACK OF EMPLOYMENT, NOT INTEMPERANCE, CAUSES MOST POVERTY.

Landholders Should Pay State for Use of Property—All Vacant Land Should be Assessed to Full Value to Prevent Dog-in-Manger Act.

The Plainfield Ministers' Association held a meeting yesterday afternoon of unusual interest, at which time Bolton Hall, son of the late Dr. John Hall, of New York, gave an address on the subject of "Taxation." Mr. Hall is considered one of the foremost exponents of the single tax idea in the country. He came to Plainfield through the efforts of William Jeffery, a personal friend, who served him as secretary for ten years. There was a large attendneace of members of the association and during the twenty-five minutes following the address, Mr. Hall was kept busy answering questions put to him by the ministers.

In part Mr. Hall spoke as follows: "It seems to me unnatural that the church with its tremendous influence and vast membership should continually be in straits for money. The Church of God ought not to be oppressed by financial difficulties. God is by no means poor and it does not seem as if it could be his intention to let his work suffer for lack of funds. Every clergyman knows that it is from persons in moderate circumstances that the church derives its chief support; that it is they who give really in proportion to their means, and it appears to me that if the natural order, which is the order of God, were followed, these person of moderate means would have such resources and ability to contribute as would put the church forever beyond the reach of want and deliver its clergy forever from the dominance of a plutocracy which in the temporal interests of the church, the clergy feel that they can ill afford to offend.

"These people have to provide first for their ordinary needs, and with them it is a hard struggle to give anything, but it ought not to be so. It seems clear that if we obey the law of God we must get our daily bread. Physical and social sins have their physical and social punishment and we must believe that if we observe God's laws in temporal things we will find temporal things added unto us.

"Physical right doing is rewarded by physical well-being the world over, and the same with spiritual well-doing. We live in this world, then we must walk in the right path in this world, not wait until we get into the next. Everything that man has comes out of the earth by labor. Labor and land enter into everything man uses, yet we find thousands of men able and willing to work who can find nothing to do. It was never God's intention that men should be involuntarily poor; such a condition is the work of the devil, that is to say of selfish stupidity. We are too prone to belief in the doctrine of total depravity.

"Some men attribute the needs of the poorer classes to intemperance. This is not the chief cause of poverty. Reports of the associated charities from New York, Boston, and Toronto show that of the needy over one-third are so through lack of employment, about five per cent. through shiftlessness; seventeen per cent. through sickness and 12¼ per cent. through drunkenness. I am not trying to minimize the effects of intemperance, because there are more things than poverty flow from intemperance, but the statement of some that most people are out of work because they are lazy and drunken is untrue. Of the very poor of the cities I have mentioned, 48 per cent. wanted work rather than relief. Is there anybody so blasphemous as to say this condition of affairs is the will of God? Such would be to charge God with folly and to impute to the Almighty lack of understanding.

"We ought not to divide up all the land, or to put a farmer off his farm and give it to somebody else. What we should do is to make all the landholders pay a fee to the State for the use of it. The fee is called the single tax, though it would not really

A CONCERT AT ST. MARY'S

PUPILS PLEASE THEIR FRIENDS BY WORK WITH VOICE AND INSTRUMENT.

Music, song and recitation cleverly rendered made the first concert given by the members of St. Mary's Convent and friends of the institution, last night, a great success. The attendance was large and the renditions by the members of the different classes and departments were well done and received unstinted applause.

Miss Mary Smith in a solo "Tarentella," opened the programme and was followed by Miss Elizabeth Day who gave a vocal selection. Charles Schuck and Jule Lincke, sang a duet. A piano selection by Edward Hanrahan, was well received. A vocal selection by Miss Alice Keeley was also heartily applauded as was a piano selection by Miss Elizabeth Brown.

"Snow Bells," a duet by Warren Seaman and Miss Madeline Seaman, was exceptionally well produced and a trio singing Schneider's "Bridal March," rendered by Miss Mollie Traynor, Miss Ethel Schuck and Miss Lillie McInerny was one of the most delightful numbers on the programme. Charles Matthews sang a pleasing selection and Miss Catherine Galbraith rendered, "Sylvana," from Bohm on the piano in a masterful manner. Edward Hanrahan and Miss Margaret Watson, rendered a duet from Ringuet and a recitation by Miss Jennie Murphy proved to be another bright number in the programme.

Miss Katherine Quinn rendered on the piano a selection from Bohm and Joseph O'Keeffe in a vocal selection sang "Queen of the Earth." "The Caliph of Bagdad" by Boieldieu, was rendered by Miss Mary Murphy, first violin; A. Quinn, second violin and K. Quinn, piano. On the piano Miss Etta Trembly, favored with a selection and Miss Etta Trembly and Miss Catherine Kelly played a duet, entitled "The Gypsy Dance."

The programme closed with a vocal selection in two parts, by Miss Anna Daley. The pupils all acquitted themselves in a commendable manner and credit is not only due the pupils for the success of the affair but to the sisters who drilled them.

TO OPEN UP DUNELLEN AVE.

COMMISSIONERS APPOINTED TO ACT IN THE MATTER HELD DISCUSSION.

J. Wesley Johnson, David O. Smalley and George M. Griffin, commissioners appointed by the Common Council to meet and treat with the property-owners regarding the opening of Dunellen avenue in the city to Myrtle avenue in the borough, met in the Common Council rooms last night, and made a favorable start toward carrying out the project. There were about eight property-owners present who were concerned in the matter. No one of them expressed himself as against the improvement and there seems to be every indication that it will eventually be carried out. The commissioners adjourned to meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, when further business will be considered regarding the matter.

This improvement is desired by residents of both city and borough as it will give a desirable boulevard direct from Compton avenue through to the heart of the borough. One of the strong advantages will be that it will give persons a thoroughfare through which to drive apart from the trolley tracks. It will necessitate the building of a bridge across Green brook at a point south of the West End avenue bridge. It is proposed to make the avenue or street an attractive one and if it should be laid out it will open up a most desirable lot of property which will no doubt be used for building purposes in the near future.

SUCCESSFUL EUCHRE.

Young Women's Club Entertained at Its Rooms in Babcock Building.

A most successful euchre was held last night under the auspices of the Young Women's Club in the club's rooms in the Babcock building. Unlike other gatherings of the club the sterner sex were invited and helped to occupy the ten tables used in play. At the conclusion of play the first prize was presented to Miss Nannie Lockert and the second to Miss Catherine Duffy.

The rest of the evening was spent in a social way. Refreshments were served under the direction of Miss Conklin and Miss Huntington, who were in charge of the affair.

Mrs. Sarah T. Malcome, of Neshanic, who has been the guest of friends in this city for several days, has returned home.

SUPPOSED HORSE THIEF CAPTURED

Man Who is Thought to Have Stolen Horse and Carriage of Dr. Pocock Arrested.

SAYS HE IS JNO. BROWN

CAME ON TROLLEY FROM WESTFIELD WHERE HE TRIED TO OBTAIN RIG.

Questioned by Officer He Broke Away and Led Lively Chase—Was Identified by Dr. Pocock—He Denies His Guilt.

Behind the bars in the police station is a prisoner who is thought by the police to be one of the most dangerous horse thieves in the State. He gives his name as John Brown, but it is known that he has several aliases. The man has been positively identified by Dr. Lewis S. Pocock as the fellow who three months ago stole a horse and carriage from him. Brown then claimed that he was a collector for an installment house.

The accused man called at the office of a Westfield livery stable this morning and applied for the rental of a horse and carriage. He said he was about to start out and make collections for a sewing machine concern. Hanging in the office of the livery stable is a description of the thief who stole Dr. Pocock's horse. The full foreign face, the drooping shoulders and the irregular teeth of the applicant corresponded with the description of the thief and the owner would not let him have the rig.

Believing that the livery man was suspicious of him, Brown boarded a trolley car from this city. When the car arrived here Patrolman Vanderweg and Dr. Pocock were at the trolley station. Dr. Pocock approached the suspect and asked him which way the next car was going. The fellow was startled when he saw the local liveryman and started to walk down North avenue at a lively pace. He turned into Park avenue and gave Patrolman Vanderweg a long, hard chase before he was overtaken.

At the police station Brown protested his innocence in spite of the damaging evidence. Henry Keenan, of Elizabeth, from whom Brown tried to get a rig, positively identified him this morning and a telephone call was sent to Carpenter's livery stable in Woodbridge for the owner, who also lost a rig through the operations of the man.

Brown has been living in Woodbridge, Rahway and Elizabeth for several months under the name of Bower and Bowen. It is believed that the fellow can be made to confess what he did with the stolen property and the "third degree" will probably be worked upon him this afternoon in an effort to make him talk.

FOR FOREIGN MISSION WORK

ORGANIZATION EFFECTED AMONG GIRLS OF MONROE AVE. M. E. CHURCH.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, listened to an entertaining talk by Miss Jennie V. Hughes, of South Orange yesterday afternoon. Miss Hughes is organizer of the Woman's Foreign Mission work. At the conclusion of her talk she undertook the organization of an army of standard bearers among the young girls of the church. Much enthusiasm was evinced in the plan and the organization was effected with fifteen members. Its purpose will be to spread information as to foreign mission work and stimulate an active interest in it.

The officers of the new organization, which completes the list of mission bands at the church, were elected: President, Miss Christella MacMurray; corresponding secretary, Miss Marion C. Pierson; recording secretary, Miss Anna Hess; treasurer, Miss May Cumberson. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. C. Pierson. The mite boxes given out a year ago were opened and a social hour followed.

Mrs. Emmons Dead.

Mrs. Elizabeth Emmons, widow of Joseph Emmons, died this noon at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. George W. Reighton, 1270 Park avenue. She was about 85 years old.

—The officers-elect of Howell Division, Sons of Temperance, were installed last night at a regular meeting. The work was postponed from a week ago, when a number of visitors from other divisions were entertained.

COLORED VETERAN FROZEN TO DEATH

He Was Found Sunday in His Hermit's Home in Westfield Several Days After.

CRIPPLED IN CIVIL WAR

HAD BEEN SUPPLIED BY OVERSEER OF THE POOR WITH COAL AND WOOD.

Charles Holmes His Name—Was Evidently Too Weak to Start a Fire—His Leg Shot Off While Holding a Horse During Battle.

Lying frozen to death on the floor of his miserable hovel in the woods in back of Westfield, Charles Holmes, an aged colored man, was found Sunday afternoon by Overseer of the Poor Hamilton and Elston Darby. Although the unfortunate man had been supplied by the overseer with coal and wood, none of it had been used. The old man was probably enfeebled by the intense cold, and with the added difficulty of getting about with only one leg, was evidently too weak to build the fire.

Holmes lived a hermit's life in the woods. He was known throughout the town as one of its characters. He appeared to have been dead several days, perhaps a week.

Holmes was a cripple, having lost a leg during the Civil War. While holding a physician's horse during a battle, a cannon ball shot off the member. Not having enlisted he could not receive a pension. He was provided with an artificial leg but of late had hobbled about with an artificial limb made of a piece of broomstick.

County Physician Westcott viewed the remains and gave a permit for burial. The remains were taken to Undertaker Conly's morgue.

EVENING OF SCOTTISH SONG

MISS AMY MURRAY GAVE DELIGHTFUL ENTERTAINMENT AT PARK CLUB.

Under the auspices of the entertainment committee of the Park Club an evening of Scottish song was given last night by Miss Amy Murray before more than two hundred people. Miss Murray sang the songs and described them charmingly. She was accompanied on the piano by Charles Edmund Wark, of New York.

The entertainment was unique and a pleasure in every way. Miss Murray opened her programme with the old Scottish song written by Dr. James Bethune, in 1830, entitled "O Sing to me the Auld Scots Sangs" and "Annie Laurie" by Douglas of Fingland. Sir Walter Scott's "Bonnie Dundee" was also sung. These were rendered in the true Gaelic tongue. "Wha'll be King but Charlie," "Hey Johnnie Cope" and the "Skye Boat Song" with Robert Louis Stevenson's words; all songs of the Jacobite Revolution, were rendered in a sympathetic manner.

"Hey, the Bonnie Briest-Knots" a traditional selection and "Bonnie Doon" by Robert Burns, were exceptionally well rendered. "When the Kye Comes Hame" from James Hogg, in the "Ettrick Shepherd" also received unusual applause.

"Taladh," and "Mo Mhairi Bhan," two old Hebridean songs, were sung in the Gaelic with accompaniment upon the ancient celtic harp. These were the real treats of the evening and Miss Murray was loudly encored. The programme closed with an Old Folks Song, entitled, "The Barrin' o' the Door." Some of the songs were produced in costume, the most cleverly rendered being the imitation of the fisher woman.

In charge of the arrangements was the entertainment committee of the club, which is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. George Hallock, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Heely, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McGee and Everett Murray.

GREAT VICTORY FOR LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

Newark Basket Ball Players Defeated in a Hot Battle in the Plainfield Gymnasium.

WON BY A SINGLE GOAL

NEWARK LED AT END OF FIRST HALF AND PUT UP STIFF FIGHT.

Denton's Throwing of Goals a Feature—Jones Was Newark's Strongest Player—Score Was 27 to 25—Another Game February 6.

Plainfield won a splendid victory in basket ball last night in one of the hottest games ever played in the local Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. Newark Y. M. C. A., considered one of the foremost teams in the State, presented a formidable line-up and contested every bit of the going with a vigor that left the result in doubt until the last second of play. A single goal, two points, was the margin by which the local association won out, the final score being 27 to 25.

Newark led at the end of the first half, 15 to 12 and the outlook was dubious for Plainfield. The local athletes quickly got into their stride, however, and opened the second half with a dash that for a few minutes carried the visitors off their feet. They took the lead quickly and maintained it to the end.

Denton, Whitley and Neal succeeded Smith, Caboone and Scull in the second half for Plainfield and the infusion of new blood gave impetus to the whole team. Denton made astonishing plays, scoring seemingly impossible shots for baskets from all positions on the floor. Jones played a strong game for Newark. The feature of the first half was his one-handed throw for a basket the entire length of the floor. Long at forward, proved an almost equally powerful player for the visitors. The team work on both sides was excellent.

Enthusiasm ran high throughout the game and especially in the latter part of the second half when a single score was likely to turn the tide. The summary:

Plainfield Y. M. C. A. — Hand, Smith and Denton, forwards; Caboone and Whitley, centre; Scull, Neal and Heinecke, guards. Newark Y. M. C. A. — Stager and Long, forwards; Jones, centre; Pollard and Dalrymple, guards. Score, Plainfield 27, Newark 25. Goals from the floor, Hand 3, Smith, Caboone, Denton 4, Whitley 2, Heinecke, Stager 3, Jones 6, Long, Dalrymple 2. Goals from fouls, Heinecke 2, Denton, Jones.

Referee, C. B. Morse. Umpire, Myers, of Newark. Timers, Doane and Collin. Scorer, Weintraub. Time, 20-min. periods.

The teams will meet again at Newark February 6.

Between the halves of the game a close and well played hockey game proved an attraction. The opposing teams were composed of Y. M. C. A. men captained respectively by Bentliff and Sebring, each team having previously won a game. Bentliff's men captured the rubber 10 to 9.

FORMER PLAINFIELDER'S LUCK

ARTHUR L. LONGWORTH BENEFITS BY SETTLEMENT OF ESTATE IN ENGLAND.

Wm. Donaldson, of East Fifth street, has received word from Arthur L. Longworth, who formerly lived here, that the estate left Longworth by the decease of an uncle in England has been settled and that his share is $12,450. Mr. Longworth has been in England for the past six weeks during the settlement of the claims of the heirs and has just returned. Mr. Longworth was at one time a gas engine expert at the Campbell Printing Press Works, but resigned his position there to take another with the Holland Submarine Boat Company. In his letter Mr. Longworth states that he will prepare for a course in Cornell University, where he will study physics and mechanical engineering.

Death of Mrs. Coon.

Mrs. Frances Coon, of Mt. Bethel, died yesterday morning at the age of sixty-five years. The cause of death was cancer in the stomach. She was well-known in Mt. Bethel, where she lived for most of her life. She was a widow. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 from her late residence in Mt. Bethel. Rev George Bowers will officiate. The interment will be in Mt. Bethel.

WESTFIELD WRECK CASE

MISS EVELYN SIMONSON TOLD CHIEF JUSTICE GUMMERE HER STORY.

Chief Justice Gummere sat at the opening session of the Supreme Court at Elizabeth, yesterday, and listened to several cases of interest to Plainfield. In opening the court the Chief Justice declared that it was his purpose to listen to as many cases as possible during the week and that counsellors not ready with their cases would have to run the risk of not having them heard this term.

Miss Evelyn Simonson's case against the Central Railroad and the Philadelphia and Reading system, was heard. Being a minor, Miss Simonson was represented by her mother. Craig A. Marsh was the counsel for the plaintiff.

According to the story told by Miss Simonson, she was a passenger on the ill-fated local in which, when the crash occurred, she was thrown violently forward against the back of the seat next in front of her.

She was not aware of having received any serious injury until a day or two following, when she was stricken with extreme nervousness as a result of the shocks she had sustained, and for weeks thereafter was confined to her bed under the care of a physician. Miss Simonson claims to be still a sufferer to a more or less extent, although she is able to follow her occupation as stenographer.

On the opening of the case, Mr. Lindabury, counsel for the defendant, the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, acknowledged compensatory damages, providing the plaintiff could prove that she was a passenger on the local that night and had received the injury alleged.

Mrs. Emma Harkins, of 331 South avenue, Westfield, the heroine who on the night of the wreck opened the doors of her home, transforming it for a time into a hospital, was the next witness. She testified to having seen Miss Simonson in her home that night, leaning over a Miss Balch, who lay on the floor seriously injured. Five minutes later, on re-entering the room, she found Miss Simonson lying in a dead faint across Miss Balch, over whom she had fallen.

Mrs. Harkins testified to having had fifteen victims of the wreck in her home that night, five of whom died there.

The case for the plaintiff was closed by Craig A. Marsh, Esq., soon after noon and given to the jury about 1 o'clock. It was the general opinion that Miss Simonson would receive damages. During the morning the time was occupied in examining a few remaining witnesses, including Drs. J. S. Green and Greer, representing the railroad, and Miss Bilyeu and Chauncey F. Colthar, of this city.

The case of Joseph Wall, administrator, against the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light Company, an action to recover $10,000 for the death of his son, is expected to be called in the Supreme Court this afternoon.

FIREMEN WILL NOT RESIGN

BOROUGH VOLUNTEERS TO SERVE UNTIL PAID DEPARTMENT IS IN POWER.

Warren Engine Company met in special session last night for the purpose of transacting important business. Resolutions were unanimously adopted by the members of the company, contradicting the reports that the borough firemen are to resign their positions as firemen before the paid department goes into commission.

In answer to a question as to whether anything was brought up about the matter of forming an Exempt Firemen's Association in the borough, several members of the department said this morning that nothing had been done. No information was given out as to the nature of the business transacted. It is stated by one member who was present that the future of the fire companies was discussed informally. Bert Bodine, former Chief Fairchild and Charles Keller were appointed a press committee.

Mrs. VanDeventer Buried.

The remains of the late Mrs. VanDeventer, widow of William G. VanDeventer, whose death occurred Saturday morning at her home at 305 Orange place, were taken to Newark for interment this morning. The burial was in Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

ALLEGED FORGER IN ROMANTIC LOVE AFFAIR

Theo. Bartz, Accused of Passing Worthless Check Here, Was Loved by Rahway Girl.

SHE SAYS HE'S INNOCENT

LOVE LETTERS BRIMMING WITH ENDEARMENTS WERE FOUND ON HIM.

Bartz Made Pathetic Appeal to Chief Kiely Against the Disgrace of Arrest—Charge of Larceny Entered Against Him in Rahway.

A romantic love story surrounds the case of Theodore Bartz, who is held to await the action of the Grand Jury on a charge of forgery, preferred by Harry Werner, of this city.

For some time past Bartz has been keeping company with a young girl working in Rahway, whose home is in Elizabeth, and when he was arrested Thursday night a number of letters written to Bartz by the young woman were found in his possession. The letters were brimming over with endearments.

On hearing that her sweetheart had been arrested the young woman hastened to police headquarters and did her utmost to have the news of his arrest kept out of the papers.

Notwithstanding the positive proof presented of Bartz's guilt, she still believes him innocent.

Bartz was arrested Thursday evening last, in Rahway, on the charge of entering the office of his former employer, Captain William H. Cloke, and stealing therefrom a check for $6.75, a gold fountain pen and a number of postage stamps. He was re-arrested Sunday afternoon and taken to this city to answer to the charge of passing a forged check.

Chief of Police Kiely having, in the Elizabeth Journal of Friday last, read the story of Bartz's arrested in Rahway, became convinced that Bartz was the man who, during the holidays, visited Plainfield and succeeded in cashing a check for $26, made payable on the Rahway bank to the order of Elmer Oliver, dealer in coal and mason materials in Rahway. Bartz cashed the check in Werner's clothing store, and receiving a check in change, passed that in turn at James Blair's men's furnishings store.

Chief Kiely, on visiting Rahway Saturday, was accompanied by the young man who sold Bartz the clothing, for which he tendered in payment the bogus check.

Taken into custody, Bartz expressed the greatest surprise. On being informed at police headquarters why he had been arrested, he protested his innocence, saying, "I am already under $500 bail on one charge, for God's sake don't accuse me of something of which I know nothing and am perfectly innocent."

Chief of Police Wright, of Rahway, turned down the collar of the coat which Bartz had on his back, exposing to view the name of Werner, from whom he had fraudulently obtained it. The young man who had sold Bartz the coat identified it as well as the man himself.

Bartz, not abashed, declared the accusation false. A few minutes later, however, he wilted and confessed all. When asked how he came in possession of the $26 check, he swore that it was given him by some man in East Rahway. Who the man was, however, he was unable to say.

When Chief Kiely proceeded to place handcuffs on Bartz previous to starting with him to this city, Bartz begged him not to disgrace him.

The reply he received was, "Don't talk about disgracing you, you've done that yourself, and, as for trusting you, I wouldn't trust you an inch."

When arrested Thursday last on complaint of Captain Cloke, Bartz succeeded in getting out on bail, August Ritter, of Clark township, becoming his surety in the sum of $500.

LITERARY.

The American Boy for January contains five complete short stories, namely: "The Defender of Aracena," by William Murray Graydon—a New Mexican Indian story; "The Boy of Many Tongues," by the author of "Dickey Downey"—a school story; "An Adventure With Wolves," by Tom Chapman—an animal story; "A Real Pirate," by George H. Coomer—a story of the sea; and "My First Steeple Chase," by T. E. Donaldson—an English story of sport. It also contains further chapters of Kirk Munroe's fine story, "The Blue Dragon," and the editor's "Three Yankee Boys in Ireland."

The February issue of The Metropolitan Magazine contains what is unquestionably the best story by Anthony Hope ever published. This story is entitled, "Mrs. Thistleton's Princess." It has all the charm of a new "Zenda" story, and is profusely illustrated by Cushman Parker. Even without this exceptional feature, the February issue is unusual in the quality and character of its contents. George Ade has again appeared in the field of literature, and the first of this series of new Ade articles to appear in The Metropolitan is Mr. Ade's appreciation of New York. E. H. Sothern, the actor, is another of the noted contributors to this issue.

While There is Life There is Hope.

I was afflicted with catarrh; could either taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it. —Marcus G. Shautz, Rahway, N. J.

ABSOLUTE FAITH.

You Can Depend Upon the Word of This Plainfield Citizen.

He has had the experience;
He has thoroughly tested the article;
He found it as represented;
He has absolute faith in its merit.

Mr. Jepp Zeusen, of 728 West Front street, pattern maker by trade, says: "For a year I had a sort of grinding pain across my back, at times extending up to my shoulders, and there was a lameness over my kidneys and severe headaches. When I stooped I always felt dizzy and sometimes was fairly blinded. In the mornings I felt stiff and sore until I got some exercise. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in my city paper and so highly recommended for kidney complaint that I went to L. W. Randolph's drug store and got a box. They did me a great deal of good. From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I cannot do otherwise than endorse them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

AMUSEMENTS.

The fact that an interesting vaudeville programme can be arranged without the adventurous aid of "featured" or "tar" numbers will be demonstrated during the coming week at Keith's Union Square Theatre, New York. The bill will afford four hours and more of solid enjoyment, and yet it is difficult to select any one feature that is to be set above another. In the whole entertainment there will not be a moment that will not have its special appeal, and dullness will find no place for its unwelcomed entrance.

Mr. Kyrle Bellew, as "Raffles, The Amateur Cracksman," now enjoying a sensational run at The Princess Theatre, New York, is beyond question or dispute the most pronounced success of the season. The New York press has so decreed, and the theatre-going public has indorsed the sentiment and in the most emphatic way. The first burlesque of a New York success that Weber & Fields have undertaken this season was the burlesque they gave of "The Amateur Cracksman" on the evening of the 17th inst., and it promises to be the greatest hit Weber & Fields have so far made in this peculiar line of work. This is a tribute to the popularity of the Kyrle Bellew play which those residing here in New York, who know that Weber & Fields never burlesque aught but the most marked successes, will understand.

PERSONAL.

Rev. T. Logan Murphy, of Madison avenue, is slowly recovering from an attack of grip.

Mrs. O. W. Dunham, of East Fifth street, has returned from a visit with Somerville friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Northrop, of East Front street, spent Sunday with friends in Flemington.

Ira Randolph, of West Seventh street, has been spending the past month at Barnegat, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Codington, of Sandford avenue, have been enjoying the sleighing at Millington.

A son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs C. C. Marshall, on Watchung avenue and Seventh street, on Sunday.

Mrs. Peter S. VanFleet, of East Third street, who dislocated her arm a few weeks ago by a fall on the ice, has recovered.

William B. Price, of Perth Amboy, who has been visiting friends in this city, has returned home. Mr. Price formerly lived here.

Miss Lucy Cooper has returned to her home in Somerville after spending some time as the guest of her cousin, Miss Brown, of Park avenue.

William Snyder, of 440 West Front street, is seriously ill with pneumonia which developed from an attack of pleurisy. He is a member of Somerset Council, Jr. O. U. A. M.

George M. Anderson, formerly steward at the Park Golf Club, who recently underwent an operation at Augusta, Ga., has recovered and has been discharged from Bunuss Sanitarium at that place.

Mrs. Beach, of Rome, N. Y., who has recently returned from an extended trip abroad and who is staying with her aunt, Mrs. A. E. Faber, Jr., of Mercer avenue, has leased the house on Rockview avenue occupied last year by Mr. Dewey, where she will reside.

REYES' COMPLAINT.

Envoy Claims Treaty Agreements Were Violated.

PANAMA RICHEST PART OF COLOMBIA

Claimed That Had Not Coghlan Stopped Troops From Bogota Insurrection on the Isthmus Would Have Been Suppressed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—President Roosevelt has transmitted to the senate additional correspondence touching the relations of the United States with Colombia and Panama, covering the period from Dec. 23, 1903, to Jan. 6 last.

A statement of grievances on the part of Colombia was presented to the state department by General Reyes on Dec. 13. General Reyes says that the course of the United States has worked deep injury to Colombia, and he cites the treaty of 1846 as showing that the independence and sovereignty of Colombia were to be maintained intact between the two governments.

As to the recognition of the republic of Panama, General Reyes says that it is a matter of public knowledge that the mother country commands sufficient forces to subdue a revolution. The attitude of the United States, he says, constitutes, according to the most ancient and modern authority on international law, "not only a great offense, but also a formal attack upon her wealth."

After declaring that Panama formed the most important part of the national wealth of Colombia, General Reyes continues:

"If there be an eternal and immutable principle of right, that right of Colombia has been injured by the United States by an incredible transgression of the limits set by equity and justice.

"Before the coup de main which proclaimed the independence of the isthmus took place at Panama there were in this very city agents of the authors of that coup in conference with high personages clothed with official character, as is asserted by reputable American newspapers. I have received information to the effect that a bank in New York opened a considerable credit in their favor, with a knowledge of the general use for which it was intended, even though unaware that it was to be applied in part to the bribery of a large part of the garrison at Panama."

Before the news was divulged that a revolution was about to break out on the isthmus General Reyes says that American cruisers, which reached their destination precisely on the eve of the movement, were plowing the waters of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. A United States military officer, he says, stops the railway from carrying to Panama, as it was under obligation to do, a battalion of troops from Bogota, which had just arrived at Colon, "at the very time when its arrival in that city would have impeded or suppressed any revolutionary attempt."

General Reyes says that in leading the Colombian army to restore order on the isthmus he (Reyes) had the honor to address a note on the subject to Rear Admiral Coghlan, to which he received a reply without delay as follows: "His (Coghlan's) present orders are to prevent the landing of soldiers with hostile intent within the boundary of the state of Panama."

At this time the Colombian army consisted of 10,000 men, which General Reyes declared to be more than sufficient to suppress the Panama revolution.

"The true character of the new state of Panama," says General Reyes, "is revealed in the fact that it came into existence by a coup de main effected by the winning over of troops valorous without doubt, but who have fought against no one, assaulted no intrenchment, captured no fort, contenting themselves with putting in prison the constituted authorities. Secretary Hay answered this note under date of Jan. 5. He says the government has carefully considered the grave complaints made and assures General Reyes of our most friendly sentiments for the government and people of Colombia. The questions submitted, he says, can be considered only in the light of accomplished facts, of which one is that the republic of Panama has become a member of the family of nations. "The department has read with surprise," Mr. Hay comments, "your repetition of gross imputations upon the conduct and motives of this government which are said to have appeared in reputable American newspapers."

Mr. Hay reviews in detail, first, the necessity of a waterway connecting the two oceans and, second, all the legislative and diplomatic procedure which has taken place to serve that end. Secretary Hay says the United States has faithfully borne during the long period since the treaty of 1846 was completed the full burden of its responsibilities. "Meanwhile," he continues, "the great design of the treaty of 1846 remained unfulfilled, and in the end it became apparent, as has heretofore been shown, that it could be fulfilled only by the construction of a canal by the government of the United States.

Fund to Continue Till "Jesus Comes."

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 19.—By the probating of the will of William Worth Kendall a fund is created the income of which is to be devoted to establishing a memorial fund to be called "the William W. Kendall fund of the Methodist Episcopal church." The amount is stated to be $50,000. The clause pertaining to the fund reads, "It is my will that this fund shall continue until the end of this world, when Jesus comes."

ON HIGH AUTHORITY

Present Status of Russo-Japanese War Crisis.

TWO MAIN QUESTIONS AT ISSUE

Demand From Czar For Neutral Zone on Yalu and Japan's Request For Guarantees Regarding Manchuria.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 19.—The following is the present status of the negotiations between Russia and Japan, given on high authority:

Russia recognizes Japan's predominance in Korea, and Japan recognizes Russia's special position in Manchuria. There are two main questions still at issue—the Russian demand for a neutral zone on the Korean side of the Yalu river, which Japan met with a proposal for a similar neutral strip on the Manchurian side. Japan also asks for certain guarantees covering Manchuria which Russia thus far has declined to grant. It is pointed out, however, that the assurances given a few days ago by Russia regarding open ports in Manchuria and respect for treaty rights is a concession on this point.

That the two countries are not so far apart may be fairly inferred from the following statement made by Mr. Kurino, the Japanese minister, officially:

"War now would only be disastrous to both countries. Owing to the geographical situation an armed conflict would result in a great drain of the men and treasure of both Japan and Russia without being decisive. Besides, I believe it would not be worth while to go to war on the questions still in dispute."

Port Arthur advices say that the public there is strongly in favor of war. China's firmness in reoccupying Mukden has complicated Russia's arrangements for the defense of Manchuria. It doubles the difficulties of guarding the long line of communications between the boundaries and the coast line. There are about 200,000 Russian troops in Manchuria. Half of them are employed in guarding the railway, which is 2,000 versts long.

The Japanese banks are rapidly closing up their accounts in Manchuria and are stopping business. Japan is seeking for agents in Manchuria and Korea to supply the government with information of the Russian movements in view of the hurried departure of the Japanese residents. The Russian occupation of Simmintun, thirty miles west of Mukden, is now reported to be an accomplished fact.

Mr. Kurino, the Japanese minister to Russia, has had a special audience with the czar at Tsarskoe Selo.

Minister Wants More Marines.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Minister Allen, at Seoul, Korea, has made a request of the state department that the legation guard be increased. The request has been referred to the navy department, which is considering means of sending more marines from Cavite to Chemulpo. It will require about a week to re-enforce the present guard.

No Jurisdiction Over the Heart.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 19.—Judge Wood in the circuit court has held that a medical college had no jurisdiction over the heart affairs of its students and could not legally withhold a diploma from one of them who had fallen in love before the time set for his graduation. It was alleged as a reason for withholding the diploma that a student named York fell in love with a young woman with whom he afterward quarreled and that she through revenge told of their love affair to the college faculty.

Arrest of "Sir William Brassey."

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—A man said to be Sir William Brassey of Gloucester, England, has been arrested here. In his pockets were found personal letters from Lord Charles Beresford, a card of admission to the house of lords made out to Sir William Brassey and party and other communications. Brassey was arrested on a complaint filed in a justice court by a restaurant keeper, charging him with cashing worthless checks for $30 and $40.

Savelli Stabbed Nine Times.

MILAN, Jan. 19.—While a cavalry officer named Cesare Savelli was entering the Scala theater a man rushed at him and stabbed him nine times, crying, "Long live anarchy!" As the officer was wrapped in his heavy military mantle, he was unable to defend himself, but it is believed that the mantle saved his life. The would be assassin was arrested and identified as Luigi Manfredi, an anarchist, twenty-seven years old.

Chandler and Fleet at Canaries.

LAS PALMAS, Canary Islands, Jan. 19.—The United States cruiser Buffalo and the torpedo boat destroyers Decatur, Bainbridge, Barry, Chauncey and Dale, under the command of Lieutenant Lloyd R. Chandler, from San Juan, Porto Rico, Jan. 6, have arrived here after an uneventful trip. The flotilla encountered head winds throughout the voyage.

Holdups Are Held For Jury.

CLINTON, Mass., Jan. 19.—After a hearing Owen McNamara and Martin Macey, charged with holding up an electric car on the Worcester Consolidated Street railway on Jan. 9, when the conductor was robbed of $8, have been held in $1,000 for the grand jury.

Oxford Seminary Destroyed.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 19.—The Oxford seminary at Oxford, N. C., has been destroyed by fire. There were eighty young lady students in the building, and all escaped. The loss is $25,000.

In Chancery of New Jersey.

To William H. Reynolds and Elise R. Reynolds:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein George R. Hall, administrator of the estate of John R. Marsh, deceased is complainant, and you and others are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of said complainant on or before the fifth day of March next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill is filed to foreclose a mortgage given by Sarah H. Heyniger and husband to the said John R. Marsh, dated August 5th, 1892, on lands in the City of Plainfield, Union County, New Jersey, and you the said William H. Reynolds are made a defendant because you are the owner of said lands; and you Elise R. Reynolds are made a defendant because you are the wife of said William H. Reynolds and have an inchoate right of dower in said premises.

EMPIRE OF SAHARA

Lebaudy's Request to Roosevelt For Ex-Rough Riders.

FOR GREAT COLONIZATION SCHEME

Will Redeem Desert Tracts With American Negro Emigrants—American and English Officers Wanted For Emperor's Life Guards.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The development of Jacques Lebaudy's "empire of Sahara" is about to take a turn which will be of some interest to the United States. M. Lebaudy has decided to draw the officers and noncommissioned officers for two battalions of imperial life guards from Great Britain and the United States, and in pursuance of this idea he will submit to President Roosevelt an invitation to name any officers of his former Rough Riders whom he can personally recommend for commissions.

Colonel George Gouraud, Thomas A. Edison's representative in England for many years, who as governor general of Sahara is organizing a military establishment for M. Lebaudy, states:

"The invitation to recommend officers will be submitted to President Roosevelt in a few days. Whether the president will consider it proper to accept the invitation or not, the emperor wishes to pay him this compliment.

"The imperial life guards will consist of two battalions. The first will be officered exclusively by Americans, preferably former Rough Riders, and the second by retired officers and noncommissioned officers of the Seventeenth English lancers and the royal horse artillery. These battalions will constitute the emperor's personal bodyguard. The troopers will be composed of Arabs and native Saharans, who are among the finest riders in the world.

"It is proposed besides the formation of the battalions of life guards to organize a Sahara constabulary which will police the country somewhat along the lines of the Canadian Northwest mounted police. This constabulary will be composed wholly of American negroes, but whether under white or colored officers has not yet been decided. The management of the entire force will be in the hands of a retired British army officer who has already been selected—a man with an unsurpassed war record.

"Extensive farm lands will be allocated on which ex-officers and the men of the constabulary can obtain homestead rights if they choose at the end of the period of enlistment.

"We purpose also to encourage the emigration of American negroes to the new empire, selecting only approved settlers who will be chosen by thoroughly reliable agents scattered throughout the United States. Personally I believe this scheme will secure the support of the American negroes to an extent which no other emigration plan has ever yet attained, because it will not involve the taking of them to a purely negro colony, but will settle them in a new and prosperous land with a mixed white and black population."

Controverts Root's Words.

HAVANA, Jan. 19.—Those engaged in controverting the alleged declaration made by Secretary of War Root before the committee of the United States senate investigating the case of Major General Wood to the effect that certain teachers in the Cuban schools during the intervention government had been guilty of immorality have obtained a statement from Captain Hanna, the United States military attache, which says: "I have never seen a class of women who conducted themselves with more circumspection than the Cuban teachers. If there has been any isolated case where a teacher was discharged for immorality, I do not know of it."

Findlay Opera House Burned.

FINDLAY, O., Jan. 19.—The Turners Opera House of this city has been totally destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at $40,000. The building was occupied by the Glessner Medicine company and two other business houses. The fire, which broke out on the third floor, was started by a defective flue. The opera house was dark when the fire started. No loss of life.

Northern Securities Suit.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—In the case of the state of Minnesota versus the Northwestern Securities company the United States supreme court has issued an order granting twenty days to counsel for the filing of additional briefs covering the question of the jurisdiction of the federal circuit court in the matter of the removal of the case.

Discipline Saved Pupils.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Jan. 19.—The Vine street school building was burned during school hours. The loss will be about $20,000. Five hundred pupils trained by the fire drill left the building inside of a minute without accident to one of them.

On Stage With Booth and Barrett.

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 19.—William Lansing, an actor, sixty-two years of age, is dead. During his younger days he traveled over the United States and Europe with Edwin Booth and Lawrence Barrett.

Carnegie Library For Negro Students

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Andrew Carnegie has given $15,000 to build a library at Talladega college, Talladega, Ala. Talladega college, founded in 1867, is devoted to the education of the negro.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 19, 1904.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printer's Ink.

A Passaic man "114 years old" is said to be seeking a bride. We can announce with equal authority that Noah Raby will be a candidate for a Plainfield football eleven next fall.

Baron Kodama, the commander in chief of the Japanese army, is a graduate of Rutgers College. There aren't many events, national or world that haven't a more or less direct connection with New Jersey.

Where do our friends the editors of the New Brunswick Home News spend their time when they print an article about a "frog frozen in a cake of ice, thawed out in a barroom and now alive and prosperous?"

The students of the University of Missouri have petitioned the faculty for less to eat. They are not much to be blamed or wondered at unless college boarding house "fodder" has changed considerably since our college days.

A chivalrous Kentucky justice has imposed a penalty of $5 upon all those who "beat their wives so as to disturb the neighborhood." It is not stated whether he offers a prize to the husband who is able to chastise his better half and at the same time prevent her pained remonstrances from reaching the public ear.

Although the members of the German Baptist church of Greensburg, Pa., are not known as devotees of the "chase," nevertheless they have been "hounding the hair" strenuously of late. They have placed the wearing of all moustaches and beards under the ban. Who knows but there may be a barber's union at the bottom of it.

The Camden Post Telegram editor who pens the following is evidently a believer in watered stock: "A Plainfield liquor dealer announces that if he is forced to pay $1,000 for his license he will be obliged to give his customers a cheaper quality of drinks. He would be foolish to carry out his threat when all he would have to do to play even would be to add water and serve."

"Tinker's dam" is announced as the limit to which Columbia students who have organized an anti-swearing society are allowed to indulge themselves without paying a penalty. If the members of the society are ever fated to play golf, or struggle with a refractory collar button, or stub their uncovered extremities against a bed post on a dark night, they may come to realize the pleasure of omitting the "tinker" part of the phrase, and the general incompetency of "O, fudge," and "dear me."

—L. T. Clawson, a brother of James Clawson, of West Second street, is the proprietor of Lakeside Hotel, on Lake Weir, Wiersville, Fla., and has issued a neat little book telling of the delights of the place and of the many advantages to be found there by searchers after health. Mr. Clawson's home is at Bethlehem, N. H., in the summer and the winters he spends in the south.

NEW MARKET.

Under the auspices of Friendship Council, No. 81, Jr. O. U. A. M., a wonderful exhibition of glass blowing will be given in Friendship Hall for one week, beginning last night. The wonders of glass blowing will be illustrated each night and a large collection of glass work will be given away.

The question as to whether the Lehigh Railroad and Lehigh Coal Company are one or two separate corporations has finally been decided. The two companies are distinct. The result is that the tax collector of Piscataway Township has received a check for $500 back taxes.

THERE'S SAFETY in our PRESCRIPTIONS.

Safety in drugs cannot be overestimated—its value is incalculable. Cheap drugs mean doubtful drugs—pure drugs mean safety. We invite the confidence of those who want the BEST DRUGS, and are willing to pay a fair price for them. We promise (besides pure drugs) a prescription service Absolutely Errorless; our checking system makes it so—at a cost unusually low for the service rendered.

Both the ice houses which are owned by J. Y. Wilson have been filled, and Mr. Wilson expects, if the cold weather continues, to build another one.

The recent snow and cold weather have demonstrated very clearly the need of trolley connection between this place and Plainfield.

The local band has appointed a committee to arrange for a ball to be held the last week of this month.

The Y. M. A. will meet this evening at the home of Wm. Pennington.

The Misses Dent are entertaining out-of-town friends this week.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The monthly social of the Baptist Sunday-school will be held tonight in the church parlors. The several classes of the school take turns in entertaining. Tonight's social will be under the auspices of Miss Westcott's class.

The meeting of the Epworth League, held last night at the Methodist church, was well attended. Rev. Mr. Anderson, of Westfield, made the address of the evening, his subject being "Temperance."

Nancy Wade, who has been spending Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Wade, returned Monday to her duties as teacher in the Springfield school.

John Patterson, who has been spending a few days with relatives and friends in town, has returned to his home at Morris Plains.

Coasting is again popular on Spencer's hill. The recent cold weather following the thaw has made the hill a glare of ice.

The condition of Mrs. Susan Stout, of Mountain avenue, who has been sick for several weeks, remains about the same.

Miss Susie Parse has returned from a visit with Mrs. John R. Cochrane, of Vanderbilt avenue, Brooklyn.

William Borkowsky, formerly of the village, now of New York, has been visiting friends in town.

The local ice company has almost completed the work of cutting its supply of ice.

The company has harvested the largest crop this winter than it has ever cut.

Rev. G. M. Shott was the guest Monday of friends in New York.

John Thys has resigned his position at the Central Hotel.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

It is reported that a game of hockey will be played here this afternoon between the Leal's High School team and the Plainfield High School team.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Laing visited Mr. and Mrs. William Silence at Mount Pleasant, Sunday.

Benjamin Hand, of Westfield, recently spent several days in town on a business trip.

Mrs. W. B. Manning is suffering from an attack of erysipelas.

SINGLE TAX ADVOCATE ADDRESSES MINISTERS

be a tax, and all other taxes should be abolished. The fee would vary with the value of the land. At a concert one man sits in the front seat and pays fifty cents for it, and another pays twenty-five cents for a rear seat, another goes into the peanut gallery for five cents, and the man who stands on the sidewalk and listens to the music pays nothing. Each pays according to location. Suppose two men occupy two fifty cent seats in the theatre and one goes to sleep. After the performance he tackles the box office. 'Here, I want my money back.' 'What for?' 'Because I slept in my seat.' 'Oh, but you kept somebody else off it.' He is like the man who holds lots vacant awaiting the rise in value which will follow his neighbor's improvements and industry.

"The first step should be to assess for the purpose of taxation all vacant land up to its full value, so as to compel men either to use it in order to get the taxes back from it or to quit their dog-in-the manger policy and let someone else use it. In the meantime, and until we exempt all improvements from all taxation we shall have a considerable number of vacant lots which ought to be used and we can find an immediate use for those."

Mr. McCann's Excellent Position.

Charles McCann, who has been employed by the New York and New Jersey Telephone company in this city for several years, has accepted a position with the Inter-State Telephone Company and for the present will be located at the Atlantic City exchange of the company.

UP AND DOWN THE STATE

Senators Dryden and Kean and Representatives Parker and Wiley, of New Jersey, have received a communication from the Presbytery of New Jersey, representing 70,000 church members, urging the Government to insist upon total abstinence in the army and navy, approving the exclusion of liquor from the Capitol and favoring the Hepburn bill to prohibit the introduction of liquor into prohibitory States.

Dentists throughout New Jersey will be interested in a bill which Representative Wiley has introduced. It provided that when a dentist shall have practiced five years in any State he may remove to another State and practice without being obliged to take another examination. The father of the bill is Dr. Stockton, of East Orange, a well-known dentist. In speaking of the object of the bill Major Wiley said that it was often the case that after a dentist had practiced for five years it was difficult for him to pass the examination, although he might be an excellent dentist.

In the report of State Librarian Henry C. Buchanan, just submitted to the Governor, attention is called to the fact that the walls of the State House have been declared by experts to be carrying their full weight, and that an enlargement of the State Library within the building or the proposed installation of heavier steel stacks is out of the question. In view of this fact it is recommended that the State build a new or a separate building for the State Library. The number of books in the library a year ago was 61,909, and during the year there have been added 3,363 books, making a total at present in the library of 65,272. Of the 3,363 additions made during the year, nearly 600 relate to New Jersey, including the laws, reports, journals, documents and other official publications, 153 books and pamphlets purchased and 148 given by individuals. The binding and repairs cost $209 10, and the balance of the $3,500 appropriation made for the repair, preservation and purchase of books was spent for books, magazines and pamphlets. Books added to the Law Library cost $1,-951.24. Referring to the State's travelling libraries authorized by the Legislature a few years ago, the report says: "At the date of this report but fifteen of the sixty-two travelling libraries provided by the commissioners of the State library, under authority of the act of April 20, 1898, are in use.

CAMPBELL FIRE CHIEF?

Rumor That Marshal is to be Placed at Head of Department Not Confirmed.

It has been reported in the borough that Chief Marshal Wm. B. Campbell, of the police department, is to be made chief of the fire department in North Plainfield. No official confirmation of the report can be secured. Campbell declared this morning that he had not been officially notified.

Not Wanted in Borough.

Eugene Jones, too full for utterance, was arraigned before Borough Recorder Doud by Chief Marshal Campbell last night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. He was fined $5. This morning he was escorted to the borough limits and given a warning never to return.

Shooting Rabbits at Duke's.

Owing to a plague of rabbits which have infested the Duke farm at Raritan, permission was obtained from the State to throw open the grounds to sportsmen. During the first hour 87 rabbits were shot and by noon more than a hundred cotton tails had been bagged.

—The case of McVoy against Masters on contract, to recover $50, will be returnable in Justice Hand's court on Monday at 2 o'clock.

—Clarence Anthony, who was employed in Lafayette Rosenstiehl's barber shop, will be removed to the hospital today to be examined by Drs. Adams and Carman for cancer of the stomach.

END OF WATT DIVORCE CASE

CHARGES OF PASTOR DISMISSED—MRS. WATT DIVORCED IN ORANGE COUNTY.

The demand made by the Rev. Dr. George R. Van De Water, rector of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal church, of New York, upon Commodore Archibald Watt for a bill of particulars describing in detail the times and places where, as Mr. Watt alleged, the clergyman had been guilty of criminal conduct with Mrs. Adele F. Watt, of Rockview avenue, North Plainfield, having been persistently ignored by Mr. Watt, Dr. Van De Water's counsel, William H. Sage, took yesterday the only course open to him in this proceeding and applied to Supreme Court Justice Leventritt for an order dismissing the charges contained in Mr. Watt's answer in so far as they relate to Dr. Van De Water. Mr. Watt and his counsel, John O. Shaw, paid as little attention to this motion as they had paid to the demand for a bill of particulars and, no one appearing in opposition, Justice Leventritt granted the application and directed that an order dismissing the charges be submitted to him for signature on notice to the other side.

The motion granted by Justice Leventritt probably marks the last step in the long fought litigation between the Watts. They were married June 15, 1895, by Dr. Van De Water and lived in apparent happiness until almost two years ago, when Mrs. Watt began her suit for a separation, alleging that her husband had treated her with great cruelty and had brought women of low character on the yacht America, on board of which Watt spent a great deal of his time. She also charged that he had excluded her from the yacht when it was practically their home.

Watt replied with a countersuit in which he demanded a divorce on the ground of his wife's alleged criminal conduct with Dr. Van De Water and Major Truman. Both these corespondents denied the allegations, as did Mrs. Watt, and availed themselves of their legal right to defend themselves by putting in answers. But before the suit and countersuit were brought to trial, and without the knowledge of Dr. Van De Water, Mrs. Watt began a new suit in Orange county for a divorce, which she obtained on Sept. 8, the decree becoming final on Dec. 12, when Justice Gaynor signed it at Goshen. That decree allowed Mrs. Watt to resume her maiden name and to remarry, and provided also that Commodore Watt should pay her $33,-000 in lieu of alimony.

Ever since the decree was granted Dr. Van De Water and his counsel have sought to discover some legal way of bringing the suits still pending here to trial, so that his name might be cleared.

Westfield Doesn't Want Them.

If the two large grocery establishments—one in Plainfield and one in Elizabeth—are waiting until spring to see if they can obtain liquor licenses before they open branch stores in Westfield, they will have a very long wait. It is hardly probable that the town council would grant a liquor license to any liquor grocery combination. At the present time Westfield supplied with liquor establishments and has a goodly number of up-to-date grocery stores. If the proprietors of the two stores in question desire to conduct a straight out and out grocery business, all well and good; let 'em come.—Westfield Standard.

MET AN EMERGENCY.

Young Couple Unite Parents to Keep from Solitude.

Double Wedding Results Which Brought Happiness to Four Hearts —Bride Had Wed Another When Suitor Arrived.

When Orville Cowden and Miss Mary Baker, of Zanesville, O., decided that they cared enough for each other to marry, they found an obstacle standing in the way.

Miss Baker sorrowfully told Cowden of this when he began to urge her to name a day.

"I can't," she exclaimed. "I can't leave father."

"You don't expect us to sit around and wait for the old folks to die, do you?" asked the young man.

"I don't know," said the maiden, hesitatingly, "but I can't leave father all alone."

Father would have been a lonely man if the daughter had married. Mrs. Baker had died and the daughter was the only member of his family. When Miss Mary thought of him sitting in a lonely room, spending lonesome evenings by himself, and eating at a dismal table set for one, she decided that she could not plunge him into this condition for all the lovers in the world.

So the affair ran along for a half year, and then Cowden began to do some thinking. His mother was a widow, and the young man saw that if he left her she would be alone in the world.

The logical course to pursue came so suddenly to the understanding of the two young people that it quite took their breath away.

"It's the thing to do," said Cowden.

"Do you think we can?" asked Miss Mary.

"Well, we can try," replied the young man. And try they did.

John V. Baker, the father, was introduced to Mrs. Lucy Cowden, the mother. The young people sat down to watch what followed. Gradually it came about that about the time the young Cowden was preparing to go to the Baker homestead the elder Baker was preparing to go to the Cowden home. And they passed each other on the way home again.

It all came out just as the young people had intended it should. Mr. Baker finally asked his daughter if she had any objections to a stepmother, and she replied that she didn't if he had none to a son-in-law. Then a double wedding was planned, and it has taken place.

A brave young woman set forth from her home in Ireland not long ago. Fourteen years before she had been engaged to marry John Lewis, who decided that he would make his fortune in America first. After 14 years trying he succeeded, and Miss Phoebe Jane Benn, the girl who had waited all these years for him, was told to join him.

With a willing heart she packed her trunks and came to New York. Thence she went to Northport, L. I., and the groom met her. The wedding took place immediately.

Thomas Norman, a bachelor living near South Wayne, Wis., was about to be married. He understood that he had been accepted by Mrs. Susie Saucerman, living in another town. He had written four letters full of plans for the wedding, which was to take place on a certain day.

On the day appointed he arrived at Mrs. Saucerman's residence, attired as befits a bridegroom. He noticed that the place was enlivened, but considered this just and proper, the wedding to take place immediately.

"Where's the bride?" he asked, presenting himself at the door.

"Here's Mrs. Evans," said the person who opened it to him. "Mrs. Evans, here's somebody wants to see you."

When Mrs. Evans reached the door she gasped, and when Mr. Norman got his scattered wits together he gasped. There had been a wedding, but he had not figured in it. Mrs. Saucerman had not received his letters, had concluded that he had changed his mind, had accepted the proposal of E. H. Evans—and—well that was all there was to it.

Mr. Norman was in time to extend his congratulations to the groom and wish joy to the bride.

Oarsman's Wonderful Feat.

Jules Piot, an oarsman, of Lyons, who held the sculling championship of France in 1895, matched himself for a wager to scull from Lyons to Chalon, a distance of 80 miles, up the Saone, in less than 24 hours. He entered his boat at five o'clock on a Saturday afternoon, and reached Chalon at three p. m. on Sunday. He is described as having arrived in the very pink of condition.

LOFTY TOSSED BULL.

Circus Giant Made Short Work of Infuriated Beast.

Threw Him Over a Fence Into a Pool of Water and Coolly Walked Home—An Old Story in Reversed Form.

"Every now and then, you know," said the old circus man to a New York Sun reporter, "you see in the papers a paragraph headed 'Chased by an Infuriated Bull.' It is a simple little story, and it always runs about the same:

"'As Farmer Jones, of West Cheshire, was crossing his pasture lot on Thursday last he was chased by an infuriated bull,' and it goes on to tell how Farmer Jones barely escaped, and all that, the bull hooking on the top rail of the fence just as Farmer Jones went over it, and so on.

"A simple little story, sure enough; and one that we've read a hundred times; but do you know if the newspapers should stop printing it, I should miss it greatly? For somehow that little story has always interested me very much, and ever since a little experience that the greatest of all giants had once with an infuriated bull it has interested me more still.

"We had a pasture lot right next to the home lot at the show's winter quarters, and in that pasture lot we had at one time a bull. The home lot and the pasture lot stretched along from the house alongside a road.

"The giant stepped over the fence between the home lot and the pasture lot one day to make a short cut across the pasture to a point down the road, and just as he'd got pretty near across somebody back in the home lot hollers out to him:

"'Hey, Lofty! The bull!'

"The bull, down in one corner, had spied the giant making across the pasture, and it started for him at once. It didn't make any difference to the bull how big the giant was; you can't scare a mad bull.

"Did the giant start and run away from it? He could have done it easy; but he didn't stir a peg. He just stood still till the bull was about ten feet of him, and then he side-stepped just one step, which was equal to three steps of an ordinary man, and stood stock still again; and when the bull turned around to follow him, and just as he was ready to spring, the great giant took him by the horns.

"He gave the bull a swing and swung him clean off the ground and up and around his head, and swung him so twice, like a hammer-thrower swinging a hammer before he throws it, and then he launched the bull into the air. And the bull went sailing over the pasture fence, and over the road, and over the fence beyond, and—disappeared!

"But it didn't take long to find him. On that property across the road there was an abandoned quarry, that had been quarried out to the depth of about 60 feet, and had about ten feet of water in the hole at the bottom, and the bull had dropped into that quarry; and here he was when we got over and looked down the sides, swimming around in the water down below.

"Well, we got out some of our tent tackle that had been stored for the winter and got the bull out and put him back in the pasture lot, where he frisked around as gayly as ever, what you call defeated, but not dismayed; and he'd have charged on the giant again in a minute if the giant had set out to cross the lot again."

"But that was something the giant never tried to do. He was a man of sense, the giant, and he knew that it was doubtful the next time he threw him, whether the bull would come down in as soft a spot as the pool of water, and he didn't want to hurt the bull, and so the giant and the bull never met again.

"But that one meeting between them, as you can easily imagine, gave me a new interest in the time-honored little story that we see in the papers every now and then under the heading of 'Chased by an Infuriated Bull,' and every time I read it I think of what happened when the bull chased not Farmer Jones, but the greatest of all giants."

Lightning Burned Big Hole.

Lightning burned a chimney hole in a hayrick on Mrs. Allison's farm, on West Grand river, near Grant City, Mo. The rick was not far from the house, and a couple of boys, seeing it smoking, went to it at once. They found in the top of the rick a small hole, from which the smoke was issuing, and, throwing a wisp of hay into the hole, smothered the fire. When the end of the rick was cut off it was found that the lightning had burned a hole from the top to the bottom of the stack about two inches in diameter.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark.
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

MILLINERY NOTES.

Camellias the Leading Flower—Beaver the Smartest Material.

Camellias are quite the smartest millinery flower. There is something about its stiff waxen petals and important exterior which adapts itself particularly well to millinery purposes, and the foliage, too, is particularly effective against fur or lace. To get the very fluffy effect in hats the skins of cats and rabbits are being dyed all the hues of the rainbow, and flowers in velvet are placed on them of a contrasting or harmonizing shade.

As for the vogue of beaver, it still is on the increase, and no smooth felt can hope to be fashionable by its side.

The fluffy white beaver is the most fashionable material for hats, and this is often sewed with little ermine tails and trimmed with white ostrich tips. Black silk beavers are also modish, and they are trimmed with gold or silver braid and white or shaded pink roses.

Toques of moleskin and ermine are trimmed with white or shaded ostrich plumes.

Hats both for grown people and children are extra large. The prettiest hat for a child is a French sailor shape in beaver to match the little coat and trimmed with two big rosettes of ribbon of a pale contrasting shade.

The illustration shows a French sailor of white beaver bound with a deep shade of heliotrope velvet and trimmed with a twisted bow of the same and clusters of violets.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

WAISTS AND FANCY EFFECTS

Blouses of Chiffon and All Over Lace. The Flat Stole.

The most fashionable and really the most practical waist, although it is rather expensive at first, is of ecru net trimmed with shirred insertions of yellow lace and embroidered figures. This is made up over a slip of white china silk, and the whole thing will clean or wash beautifully.

Crepe de chine waists in white and pale colorings are largely taking the place of the stiffer silks. They are trimmed with embroidery, white or dyed lace, and many of them are made very dressy by the addition of chiffon.

Whole waists of chiffon trimmed with lace are very dressy, but, alas, very perishable. The all over lace waist trimmed with taffeta bands seems to be the most practical to wear under a coat, and it can be softened around the neck by the addition of a tulle bow.

Owing to the low dressing of the hair tulle bows are now worn in front under the chin instead of at the back of the neck.

The wide fi-t stole is with us to stay, and every tailor made is improved by the addition of this charming piece of neckwear. When not of fur it is of heavy dyed lace and cloth, of chiffon and lace or of white or pale gray feathers. In any case it must harmonize with the gown.

The picture shows a bride's dress of crepe de chine and fine lace. There is a tucked yoke, a big bertha and wide flounced sleeves, which give a picturesque air to the whole. The shirred skirt has its fullness increased around the feet by a double chiffon frill.

ANANIAS WON EASILY.

Most of the Winners Were Well Played at Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—The track was muddy at Oakland, but the public had a good line on the performers, and most of the winners were well played. In the third race Creedmore was played from 60 to 1 to 15 to 1, but after leading until well in the stretch Ananias, the favorite, won easily. Daisy Green was an even choice in the last race, but the well played Kenilworth led all the way. The Cure, favorite for the first race, was all but left at the post. Results:

First Race—Celebrant won, Dungannon second, Coroner Kelly third.

Second Race—Meada won, Marie J. second, Arisbe third.

Third Race—Ananias won, Creedmore, second, Goddess of Night third.

Fourth Race—Modicum won, Horton second, Chickadee third.

Sixth Race—Kenilworth won, Soothsayer second, Daisy Green third.

Bill to Regulate the Auto.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Senator Hill of Buffalo has introduced a bill superseding all existing laws on the subject of automobiling. The measure is the result of an investigation of the subject by the committee on legislation of the New York State Automobile association. It generally permits such speed as shall be "reasonable and proper," with arbitrary limitations between eight and twenty miles an hour, dependent on the way being closely built up. It calls for reduction of speed when approaching frightened horses, at crossings and bridges, on curves and in passing or overtaking persons or animals.

Princeton's Baseball Schedule.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 19.—Princeton's baseball schedule, announced by Manager Preston, provides for thirty-one games, three more than last season. Eleven of these will be played away from home. The new teams on the schedule are the Philadelphia and Washington American league teams, Gettysburg, Pennsylvania State, Syracuse, Washington and Jefferson and University of West Virginia. Two games have been arranged with the University of Pennsylvania, with which Princeton renewed relations last year for the first time since 1894.

Bessie McCarthy a Winning Favorite

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 19.—Bessie McCarthy was the only winning favorite. The ring profited largely by the defeat of Ralph Young and Atheola, both of which were heavily backed. Queen of Dixiana was sold to A. C. McCafferty and Star and Garter to L. Licalzi. The price in both cases was kept secret.

World's Record With Rifle.

DENVER, Jan. 19.—D. W. King, Jr., president of the Colorado State Rifle association, has made a world's record, scoring 917 points in 100 consecutive shots with a rifle at the grounds of the Denver Rifle club. The previous record, 908 points, was made by Colonel H. Pope.

Belmont Rules In 1904.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—At a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey club August Belmont was re-elected chairman, James R. Keene vice chairman and F. K. Sturgis secretary and treasurer of the Jockey club for 1904.

Columbia Defeated Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Columbia defeated Cornell at basketball here last night by a score of 31 to 18. The visitors won by brilliant team play, accurate passing and clever goal shooting.

Hoadley Building Burned.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 19.—Fire and water completely wrecked the Hoadley building here last night, causing a loss which will aggregate $150,000. A score or more of tenants lost all their office effects. The thermometer was not far above zero, and the firemen worked under harsh conditions. Almost adjoining the Hoadley building on the Crown street side are some of the largest furniture houses in the city, and to protect these was the chief aim of the firemen.

Martindale Is Free.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 19.—William Martindale, former vice president of the First National bank of Emporia, Kan., who was indicted for misapplication of the bank's funds after it failed in 1891, has been freed by a decision rendered by Federal Judge John F. Phillips in Kansas City. Following the failure Charles F. Cross, president of the bank, a noted stock breeder, committed suicide. Martindale is one of the most prominent men in Kansas.

Shot Mother by Accident.

BURLINGTON, Ia., Jan. 19.—While handling a gun he did not know was loaded Charles Crabtree, twelve years old, accidentally killed his mother. When full realization of his mistake dawned upon the boy he fainted on his mother's body. A coroner's jury has declared the shooting an accident.

Child Fatally Burned.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Jan. 19.—During the absence at a funeral of James Kerr and his wife their youngest child, a girl of four years, was fatally burned by her clothing catching fire from a stove, and her elder sister was seriously injured while attempting to extinguish the flames.

Disaster at Orange River Capital.

BLOEMFONTEIN, Orange River Colony, Jan. 19.—Nearly thirty persons were drowned and three hotels and 176 houses destroyed as the result of the bursting of the city reservoir here. Hundreds of persons have been rendered homeless and destitute by the disaster.

MRS. BECHTEL ON TRIAL.

Circumstantial Evidence Is Strengthening the Case Against Accused.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 19.—The chain of circumstantial evidence which the commonwealth is attempting to forge around Mrs. Catharine Bechtel, charged with being an accessory after the fact in the murder of her daughter Mabel, has been greatly strengthened by the witnesses called by the prosecution, and, coupled with this, what little was left of the fair name of the murdered girl was completely wiped out by the testimony of Alois Eckstein, who said he was willing to overlook her faults and make the pretty, wayward girl his wife.

Eckstein's story of the intimacy of himself and other men with Mabel Bechtel was shocking. He went so far as to testify that the mother countenanced the misconduct of her daughter. He related his visit to the Bechtel home on the day that Mabel's body is alleged to have been hidden in the house and said that the actions of the members of the family appeared strange to him.

Dr. John Lear, a biological expert of Muhlenberg college, testified that the stains on the carpet and other articles taken from the Bechtel house were human blood spots. In the examination of the witness the defense was assisted by Dr. Alvin Davidson, professor of chemistry at Lafayette college, who tried to attack Dr. Lear's methods of blood examination. Dr. Lear said he used three methods—the microscopical, chemical and biological or Bordet method. This is the first time, he said, that the biological or Bourdet method had ever been tried in a murder case in this country.

The court adjourned early to permit Judge Trexler to attend the funeral of his father-in-law.

Bryan and the Bennett Will.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 19.—Counsel for William J. Bryan has filed in the superior court a demurrer to the plea in abatement recently offered by counsel for the heirs of Philo S. Bennett, of whose will Mr. Bryan is an executor. The plea in abatement was to set aside the appeal of Mr. Bryan from the decision of the judge of the probate court excluding the sealed letter which was left by Mr. Bennett and which provided $50,000 to Mr. Bryan. The demurrer says the allegations in the plea constitute no reason for abating the appeal; that Mr. Bryan has no interest as executor or otherwise adverse to the appeal, and that his purpose in appealing is to effectuate and not to thwart the intent of the testator.

Charged With $23,000 Shortage.

WATERTOWN, Conn., Jan. 19.—The Watertown Savings bank has begun suit for $20,000 against the town of Watertown on account of the town's failure to pay notes and orders said to be held by the bank to the amount of $14,000 and interest amounting to $6,000. At a recent meeting B. H. Mattoon, treasurer of the bank and also treasurer of the town, was charged with a shortage of $23,000 in the town accounts, part of which was alleged to be in the form of notes and orders held by the savings bank, but not entered on the treasurer's books.

Probing Get Rich Quick Concerns.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 19.—Major Hugh C. Dennis, president of the Rialto Grain and Securities company, has been subpenaed to appear as a witness before the federal grand jury which has convened here. W. B. Mahaney, formerly associated with Major Dennis, with several brokers, has also been called as a witness. Altogether about a hundred witnesses have been summoned for the investigation of alleged get rich quick concerns. The grand jury will also continue the investigation of naturalization frauds.

Funeral of James L. Blair.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 19.—The body of James L. Blair, formerly general counsel of the Louisiana Purchase exposition, who died Saturday in Eustis, Fla., arrived here, accompanied by the widow and the eldest son, Percy. The funeral took place today and was private, only members of the family being present. The remains were buried in the Blair lot in Bellefontaine cemetery beside the body of General Blair, father of the deceased.

Judge Got Bullet In Vest Pocket.

ARAPAHOE, Colo., Jan. 19.—In a quarrel over a $300 note John Bigham, agent for a Milwaukee brewery, shot and killed Gus Huddleston. Bigham indorsed Huddleston's note and when the latter neglected to pay it attached Huddleston's cattle. One of the bullets fired by Bigham lodged in the vest pocket of ex-Probate Judge Love. Bigham fled after the shooting.

Glines Indicted For Fraud.

SALEM, Mass., Jan. 19.—An indictment in fifty-four counts was returned by the Essex county grand jury against John A. Glines, former city treasurer of Haverhill. The indictment alleges the larceny from the city of Haverhill of bonds valued at $2,000 during 1901 and of bonds valued at $43,000 during 1902 and 1903.

Ainu People For St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 19.—Professor Frederick Starr of the University of Chicago has left here for the Pacific coast, where he will sail for Japan in order to secure representatives of the Ainu people, the aborigines of the Japanese islands, for the Louisiana Purchase exposition.

Barge Sunk by Ice.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 19.—While being towed into harbor yesterday the barge Elcurah, from Perth Amboy, N. J., collided with a large cake of ice, which stove a hole in her starboard side, causing the barge to sink almost immediately.

POSTAL FRAUDS' TRIAL.

Witnesses Testify Against Machen and Other Persons Indicted.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—In the trial of August W. Machen, the Groff brothers and Dr. and Mrs. George H. Lorenz, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government, the prosecution introduced a number of witnesses to prove the relations of Machen with the Lorenzes and the Groff brothers.

One of those, Ina Liebhardt, Machen's former stenographer and chief clerk, testified to visits of Dr. and Mrs. Lorenz to Machen at his office, but declared on cross examination that during the several conversations she was present she heard nothing said about letter box fasteners.

James E. Beall, superintendent of delivery of the Washington postoffice, testified that the Groff fastener had been adopted without any report on it having been submitted by him, although it would have been his duty to make such report, as the fastener was tried first in this city.

John F. Clark, a letter carrier, described the failure of the fastener to work at a test made in 1894 in this city, at which Machen and Samuel A. Groff were present, which, he said, caused Machen to remark to Groff at that time that unless the fastener would work without sticking he would not recommend its adoption.

During the day Justice Pritchard showed a disposition in arguments on admissibility of evidence not to tolerate unnecessary delays in the progress of the case.

Refugees From Santo Domingo.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Jan. 19.—The French line steamer St. Simon, which sailed from Puerto Piata, Santo Domingo, Jan. 16, has arrived here, bringing thirty Porto Ricans, who left the republic because of the revolution. The list included Consul Bernier, a follower of former President Wos y Gil, who is still in San Juan. Bernier says that the cause of President Morales is practically lost, but that the residents of the capital will support him as long as possible because they dislike General Jiminez, now at the head of the revolutionists. The people of Puerto Plata, according to Bernier, express the hope and the expectation that the United States government will soon intervene in the affairs of the republic. General Wos y Gil is much cheered by the news and seems confident that General Jiminez will soon be victorious.

To Regulate Trading Stamp Business

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 19.—Assemblyman Newcomb has introduced a bill of the New York Merchants' association designed to regulate the use of trading stamps throughout the state. The bill provides that all trading stamps or similar devices must bear upon their face a cash value in cents and that they must be redeemed on demand in cash or merchandise, at the option of the holder and regardless of the number presented. Further, any merchant giving such stamps to his customers is to be responsible to them for the redemption of them by the person or firm originally issuing them. The act is to take effect June 1, 1904.

Fatal Breakaway of Train.

PEORIA, Ill., Jan. 19.—A cut of cars on the Iowa Central broke away from a switch engine and, rushing down hill at a fearful rate of speed, collided with a work train at the bottom, just outside the city limits, and instantly killed Allen E. Hire, car repairer; Peter Johnson, car inspector, and Albert O. Schwartz, car repairer, all of this city. John Meil and E. H. Truman of Monmouth, section men, sustained fractures of the skull and are in a serious condition.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

Jersey's Growth.

In an interesting article, "The Growth of Rural Population," published in the December Popular Science Monthly, Frank T. Carlton, of the Toledo University School, shows by a study of the figures of the last United States census that while the growth of our large cities continues more rapid than that of the remaining parts of the country, the rural districts are not being depopulated, but, on the other hand, are rapidly increasing in population. The writer attributes this increase largely to the development of an extensive suburban electric road system. The statements made about New Jersey show that in the ten cities in this State having a population of 25,000 or more the total increase in population 1880-1890 was 205,053, and the increase in population 1890-1900 was 238,268. The total increase in population in the entire State, 1880-1890, was 313,817, of the 438,736 increase in population in the entire State 1890-1900, 200,468 was the increase in places other than cities having 25,000 or more inhabitants. In the decade 1880 1890, this increase in rural districts was 108,764, out of a total State increase of 313,817. To put it in percentages, of the total increase in New Jersey population 1880-1890, over sixty-five per cent. went to the large cities and less than thirty-five per cent. outside, while the proportions for the decade, 1890-1900 were: Large cities, over fifty-four per cent.; outside, less than forty-six per cent. In New Jersey but one county, Hunterdon, decreased during the last decade, and of the cities, towns and boroughs separately returned in 1890 and 1900, a very large proportion, about eighty-three per cent., showed increase.—Newark Evening News.

Most Famous Jerseymen.

The selection of the names of ten men who represent New Jersey in various capacities, placed in the dome of the new Senate Chamber at Trenton, was made with considerable care. They are McClellan, Beasley, Livingston, Dayton, Frelinghuysen, Henry, Hobart, Boyden, Witherspoon and Kearney. The last named is spelled with an "e" in the final syllable but there is some dispute as to whether this is right or wrong. The list of famous Jerseymen is probably as good as could be chosen. Of course, Governor and General McClellan should pass unquestioned. Chief Justice Beasley very fairly represents the learned Jersey judge, and Livingston the famous Governors. Dayton, as a diplomat and candidate for Vice President with Fremont in 1856, together with his son, who was also prominent, would cause no criticism, if the name of Stockton were not omitted. Surely, that famous family should have been included, considering its prominence in the Senate and navy, despite modern changes. Frelinghuysen, of course, goes well—either for the Dominie of 160 years ago, the General or the two Senators. Boyden well represents inventive genius and the workingman, and Kearney, or Kearney, the modern soldier. Hobart gains place as New Jersey's Vice President. Joseph Henry, the famous professor of Princeton, and head of the Smithsonian Institution at Washington, deserves all honor, but was he really a Jerseyman? His greatest work was done at Princeton. Witherspoon, the famous John, was selected by Senator John F. Dryden and his merits were greater than most folk understand. The Governor made the list from a large number of names suggested and it must be confessed it is fairly representative of different interests, parties, professional and lines of thought.—Newark Sunday Call.

ON THE TROLLEY SERVICE.

Times Editorial Referring to Mass-Meeting Calling for Action.

Arrangements are in progress for a great mass meeting of citizens of Newark and neighboring New Jersey towns to voice the popular protest against the kind of service they have had at the hands of the Public Service Corporation since that company took over the control and management of the electric traction system of Northern New Jersey.

That there are good grounds for complaint must be admitted. In many respects the service is extremely unsatisfactory, and those responsible show no disposition to improve it. Whether they would pay any attention to the resolutions of a mass meeting is doubtful; but a clear expression of public opinion as to the way in which the company operates its valuable franchises would be apt to impress the representatives of Essex and Hudson Counties in the Legislature with the advantages of doing something for the people and less for the corporation. Up to the present time the principal concern of those connected with the management of the merged lines seems to have been to finance their undertakings on the basis of the largest profit for those interested. There is no objection to that, perhaps, but a public utility which neglects the purposes for which it is created and builds up the opposition of a cumulative popular dissatisfaction cannot be considered well managed even from the point of view of its corporate finances.—New York Times.

$10,000 Fire at Roselle.

An oil stove left burning in a rear parlor of the home of George A. Rawlins at Roselle, last night, was responsible for the entire destruction of the home, resulting in a loss of $10,000. A little later fire broke out in the greenhouses of Robert Gordon at Aldene and the Roselle fire department responded. The loss will amount to several hundred dollars.

MRS. FEICKERT DEAD.

Mother of Cashier of Trust Company Passed Away After Long Illness.

Mrs. Margaret Feickert, mother of Edward Foster Feickert, cashier at the Plainfield Trust Company, died this morning at 7 o'clock at her home on East Front street, corner of Richmond street. She had been ill for some time past and her death was not wholly unexpected. She had been a resident of Plainfield a little over a year, having taken up her residence here when her son assumed his position with the Plainfield Trust Company. She lived in New York prior to that. Besides a son, she leaves one daughter who lives in Denver, whose arrival will be waited before completing arrangements for the funeral.

OPTION TO NEW YORKER.

Mountain Park Inn to be Used as Home for Invalids and Cripples.

The owner of the Mountain Park Inn has given an option on the property to a New York man, who is planning to open the place within a few months as a home for invalids and crippled children. Inquiry was made today concerning the matter and it was learned that the owner expects to close the deal within a week or two. If the hotel is used for the object many changes will be made in the property to accommodate the children and others who will be admitted and treated there.

Penitent Drunk Discharged.

Alfred Rugg, who was arrested yesterday for being helplessly drunk, was penitent before City Judge William N. Runyon, this morning, and promised to amend his ways in the future. He was discharged.

THROUGH TROLLEY CARS

From Elizabeth to Dunellen Without Change—Improvement Began Today.

The trolley cars on the through line between Elizabeth and this city, began running through to Dunellen this morning. The change is one of the greatest improvements in the local trolley system made for Plainfield since the Public Service Corporation took charge. The change, it is expected, will do away with much confusion at the terminus at Watchung avenue.

It is said that attention will later be turned towards the operating of through cars from Jersey City to Trenton and Philadelphia, the plan now being to break in the motormen in the new route and to get the track in shape for the heavier cars which are to be ordered.

INFORMAL DANCE.

Young People Enjoyed Affair in Old Council Chambers.

An informal dance was given last night in the old Common Council rooms, Park avenue, under the auspices of a committee of which H. H. Coward was the chairman. This was one of a series given during the winter by this particular set of young folks and it was considered one of the best. There were twenty couples present and all thoroughly enjoyed the fine programme rendered by Westervelt, of Newark, on the piano.

Wirth's Wagon Smashed.

The sleigh owned by John Wirth, the baker, of West Front street, was smashed in an accident on Somerset street at 1 o'clock this afternoon. William Johnson, the driver, was thrown from the sleigh before he could reach the reins and the runner caught in the trolley track causing the upset. The horse ran at breakneck speed to Front street, stopping voluntarily in front of Wirth's store. The injuries to the horse were slight.

SIMONSON DAMAGE CASE COMPLETED

Suit Against R. R. Companies for Injuries Received in the Wreck Brought for $10,000.

VERDICT WAS FOR $1,350

CONFLICTING TESTIMONY OF MISS BILYEU AND THE INJURED GIRL.

Principal Injury From Shock at the Scenes About Wreck — Plaintiff Represented by VanWinkle & Son and C. A. Marsh.

The case of Miss Evelyn Simonson, of Duer street, against the Philadelphia and Reading and New Jersey Central for injuries alleged to have been sustained in the Westfield wreck January 27, 1903, was completed yesterday in the Supreme Court and a verdict given of $1,350. The jury retired at 12:45 in the afternoon and returned with a verdict at 6 o'clock. Miss Simonson's suit was for $10,000. She was represented by John H. VanWinkle & Son, Esq., and Craig A. Marsh, Esq. R. V. Lindabury, Esq., represented the railroad companies.

The case occupied two days and the most damaging evidence presented against the plaintiff was by Miss Bilyeu, of this city, who testified that when the crash came she was seated beside Miss Simonson, who was reading a magazine, that the effect on the car was nothing more than would be felt by an ordinary application of brakes. When the collision occurred the witness said she was looking directly at the plaintiff and that Miss Simonson was not thrown forward from the seat. These statements were denied by Miss Simonson, when called in rebuttal.

Frank J. Quass, of West Second street, a clerk for the New Jersey Central, was one of the interesting witnesses called yesterday. He testified that he had met the plaintiff in August before the accident and had since then seen her two or three times a week, and chiefly when she was in bed. He said she had then complained of pains in her back and told him that Dr. Boston, an osteopath, had been treating her for some time before the accident occurred.

It was put in evidence that Quass was a discarded suitor of the plaintiff, and is employed by the Central road, and that Miss Bilyeu had received $100 in settlement from the railroad.

The sum given Miss Bilyeu, it was explained by her, was in settlement of damages to her clothes.

It was admitted by the railroad company's doctors that Miss Simonson was suffering from neurasthenia, nervous prostration due entirely, they claimed, to what she had seen at the wreck. They believed she would recover in a short time after the trial and the excitement attending it had passed away. Mr. Lindabury, for the defense, in his summing up, insisted that Miss Simonson's condition was due to the terrible scene she witnessed after leaving the train.

This case was bitterly fought by counsel on both sides from the start. When it was first called a few months ago, it was abruptly terminated through a technical error and papers were at once filed for a new suit, which was concluded yesterday. The railroad company's counsel stoutly maintained throughout that Miss Simonson was not injured beyond a severe nervous shock. Miss Simonson has not since the wreck returned to the position of typewriter and stenographer, which she held in New York.

The next case of a similar character will be that of Percy Ising, of Dunellen, against the same companies. He also sues for $10,000.

To Aid Teachers.

Two bills providing State aid for the teachers' retirement fund were introduced in the assembly yesterday by Mr. Swackhamer, of Somerset. Mr. Swackhamer wants the State to repay to the retirement fund all the money that has been paid to the State treasurer since its establishment for administration. This sum, with interest, now amounts to $12,235.43. In addition, Mr. Swackhamer asks the legislature for the future to appropriate $2,500 a year for the administration expenses of the fund.

POLITICS IN SCOTCH PLAINS

LIKELY THAT PRESENT FREEHOLDER AND COMMITTEEMAN WILL BE NAMED.

The buzz of the political bee is already being heard in Scotch Plains and Fanwood for the spring election is only about six weeks away. The two principal offices to be filled are a chosen Freeholder and a member of the Township Committee.

John Robison, who is the present representative in the Board of Freeholders, will no doubt receive a renomination, as his work in the Board has been fearless and above party lines. He has made many friends among Democrats as well as Republicans. The Democrats, whoever their candidate, appear to have little chance of victory.

The member of the Township Committee whose term expires is Theodore Bruchman, who has been treasurer of the township for several years. Mr. Bruchman has served several terms in the committee and will no doubt receive a renomination on the Democratic ticket. His work in the past has made him a hard man to defeat, even with a Republican majority of 45. From present indications the retiring officers will both receive a renomination and their chances of election are good.

MINSTREL SHOW POSTPONED

HOPE CHAPEL BOYS WILL GO ON THE BOARDS ON THE IDES OF MARCH.

The dates for the great Hope chapel minstrel show were set last night at a rehearsal. Because of a lack of time for preparation, the show is postponed from February 9, 10 and 12 to March 15, 16 and 18, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday. A good rehearsal was held with most of those in the cast present. William Holbert did the coaching, instructing the end men particularly in some new steps for dancing. He was assisted by W. N. Runyon. Several new features were introduced.

The names of the end men were announced. They were Bertram C. Firstbrook, M. D. Sweeney, Leonce Texier, William Holbert, Allen E. Beals and George B. Cose. John H. Cose will be interlocutor.

There will be a special rehearsal Saturday night. The meeting will be of a social nature. Refreshments will be served.

OBJECTIONABLE PARK.

No Truth in Story That a Colored People's Pleasure Ground Will be Established in Plainfield.

An item is going the rounds of the State papers to the effect that the Plainfield negroes propose to buy a park in that city's fashionable section, and to allow no white people to it enter. This is said to be a retaliatory measure, because the negroes were barred from the park last summer. There is also a hint of still broader revenge, because the negro candidate for coroner was overwhelmingly defeated last November, and an additional incentive to "get even" with the white people, because they objected to the erection of a negro orphanage in the really fashionable residential section of the city. About all the truth there is in the item is the fact that the owner of a popular picnic resort located about three miles east if Plainfield refused last summer to rent it to an association of negroes, claiming that it would discredit his place and damage his business. It may be that the negroes intend to buy it and have it all to themselves; but this is very doubtful; and if they do it will disturb Plainfield not in the least. As for any retaliatory measures, the colored citizens of Plainfield are far too shrewd to indulge in them. —Newark Evening News.

Little Boy Dead.

Marion Reed, aged two and a half years, son of Dr. and Mrs. Howard Reed of New York, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Compton, of West Front street, died yesterday morning at the home of his parents in New York, following a short illness with pneumonia. The interment was in Hillside cemetery this morning.

WESTFIELD BOWLERS DEFEATED CRANFORD

The Leaders Won Two Out of Three Games in Contest on Defeated Team's Alleys.

SOME EXCELLENT WORK

THE WINNING TEAM MADE 927 IN THE FINAL GAME.

Smith Rolled a 224, Hegeman a 200 and Woodward a 199—Park, of Cranford, Made a 209—Westfield Has 14 Games to Its Credit.

The Westfield Club bowling team met Cranford Casino on the alleys of the latter, last night, in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament, and captured two of the three games in the series. Cranford rolled good scores on the average, but Westfield put up too strong a game for the home team. The best work was done in the last game of the series, when Westfield rolled a score of 927 against 811 for Cranford. This is the second time this season that Westfield has gone over the 900 mark.

Cranford took the first game by a score of 866 to 854, the second game they lost by a score of 816 to 719 and the third as told above. High scores were the rule for Westfield, Smith rolling a 224 and Hegeman 200, while Woodward rolled 199. The other scores were above the average. Park was high man for Cranford with a score of 209 in the first game, while Crane was second with a 194 in the third game.

As a result of last night's series Westfield now leads in the tournament with a total of fourteen wins and four defeats. With such a lead and in view of the fine work being done by Westfield the other teams will have to hustle very much to catch up.

These are the detailed scores for last night's series:

WESTFIELD.				CRANFORD.
Forster	136	179	147	Park	209	145	143

THIRTY-SEVEN RABBITS, $740

J. B. DUKE'S AGENT MISCONSTRUES A PERMIT, WHICH MAY PROVE COSTLY.

James B. Duke, in his efforts to rid his 2,000 acre estate near Somerville of a plague of rabbits, has become a victim of the New Jersey game laws. The State game law permits the killing of rabbits only in November and December, but empowers the president of the State Game Commission to issue a permit to trap the rabbits in box traps.

An agent of Mr. Duke used the long distance telephone in stating Mr. Duke's troubles with the rabbits to Benjamin P. Morris, president of the State Game Commission, in Long Branch. Mr. Morris instructed the agent to catch the rabbits. The agent believed it was immaterial whether the rabbits were caught dead or alive. It is alleged that four gunners killed thirty-seven rabbits in less than two hours.

Deputy Game Warden Miller is prosecuting the case and it is probable that Mr. Duke will be compelled to pay $20 for each rabbit, a total of $740 for the day's hunt. Formal permission to trap the rabbits was given to Mr. Duke's agent yesterday. Extensive preparations for trapping the animals are now being made on the estate They must be turned over alive to the deputy game warden, who will use them to stock hunting grounds in other parts of the State.

SUING TO RECOVER FOR LAD'S DEATH

Seeking Damages for Death of Joseph Walls, Jr., Who Killed by a Live Wire.

NOW IN JURY'S HANDS

GROSS NEGLIGENCE CHARGED TO DEFENDANT COMPANY.

Plainfield Gas and Electric Light Company Allege Contributory Negligence—School Teachers as Witnesses.

The case of Joseph Walls, administrator, against the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light Company, in a suit for damages for the death of Mr. Walls' son several months ago, was called at Elizabeth yesterday and today noon the case was given to the jury. It will be remembered that Joseph Walls, Jr., met his death one night, after a severe storm, the result of coming in contact with a broken electric light wire on Essex street.

An attempt was made to show that the lad's death was due to gross carelessness on the part of the company in not getting broken wires out of harm's way. Employes of the company, called as witnesses, stated that they were aware of numerous breaks about the city, but were fixing the same as fast as possible. It was stated that the wires had been up in Essex street about ten years and it might be possible that the insulation was off.

Among the witnesses called were Miss Petrie, principal of the Irving School, and Miss Emma Cory, a teacher in the Washington School, each having had the boy under instruction. They testified that on the day when young Walls met his death that they warned the children to look out for broken electric light wires.

Craig A. Marsh, Esq., represents the plaintiff, and R. V. Lindabury, Esq., the defendant.

VERDICT FOR WALLS.

In the case of Joseph Walls against the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light Company the jury brought in a verdict of $2,500 this afternoon. The amount of the claim was $15,000.

TO RESTORE TAX EXEMPTION

HOUSE ASKS OPINION AND SENATE HAS RESOLUTION ON SUBJECT.

A prominent feature of the session in the Legislature is the tax-exemption-of-firemen topic. A recent decision of the Supreme Court held that the $500 exemption which firemen have enjoyed in this State for a long time was unconstitutional. This has not been received by the volunteer firemen throughout the State with complaisance, and they have been considering ways and means of getting round the decision, if such a thing was possible. In the House, Mr. Miller, of Cumberland, has offered a resolution to the effect that, as there was a doubt through the State generally as to whether the volunteer fireman and members of the various firemen's relief associations of the State are exempt of $500 under the provisions of the general tax act of 1903, the attorney-general be requested to convey to the House information as to whether, in his opinion, the general act of 1903 allows such exemption, and whether the act in that respect has been declared unconstitutional.

In speaking in support of his resolution Mr. Miller said that the act of 1903, which went into effect December 20, allowed the exemption in other terms, and it would be a great relief to the firemen in his county to have the matter definitely settled. The resolution was adopted.

In the House yesterday Mr. Buck, of Cumberland, introduced another petition for the enactment of a law granting a $500 exemption to firemen.

In the New Jersey Senate Senior Ferrell, of Gloucester, has offered a resolution requesting that some legislation be enacted restoring to the firemen their $500 exemption. The Senator said that he introduced the resolution on behalf of the firemen and the firemen's relief association of this county. They were worried over the present situation, and felt that they ought to have the exemption continued.

Senator Scrimple, of Salem, has offered a resolution to a similar effect.

Mrs. John H. French, of West Seventh street, has returned from a several weeks' visit in Brookline, Mass.

KEAN AND FOWLER INVITED TO BANQUET

Union County's Distinguished Sons in Congress to Attend Board of Trade's Dinner.

JUDGE COMPOSING SONGS

MARSH, 'MARTINE, SAUNDERS AND SWACKHAMER TO SPEAK.

VanEps Brothers to Furnish the Music—Politics to be Eschewed—Former Mayor Gilbert to Act as Toastmaster—Menu to be Good.

United States Senator John Kean and Congressman Charles N. Fowler will sit at the same festive board in this city and drink to Plainfield's prosperity if the plans of Former President of the State Senate Charles A. Reed do not fall amiss. The two distinguished citizens of Union County, who are supposed to be enemies politically, have been invited to offer toasts at the banquet to be held by the Plainfield-North Plainfield Board of Trade on Thursday night, January 28, and it is supposed that because of the peculiar condition in politics here both will accept the invitations.

Former Mayor Alexander Gilbert, whose name has been mentioned in connection with a renomination for the office he held here sometime ago, will act as toastmaster. Among the other speakers will be former Mayor William L. Saunders, of North Plainfield; Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh, of this city; Samuel St. John McCutchen, of North Plainfield, a member of the State Board of Education; James E. Martine, of this city, "the farmer orator of Cedar Brook," and Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer, of North Plainfield.

City Judge William N. Runyon has consented to compose some songs for the occasion and he is now engaged in grinding out "poetry" which he will set to music. He will lead the singing. Music for the banquet will be furnished by Fred and William VanEps, two popular young Plainfielders.

The menu has been arranged by the chef of a New York dining club and it promises to be particularly enjoyable. Some novel features will be introduced during the course of the banquet. Politics will not be mentioned, the ban having been placed on it by the committee in charge of the affair.

ALLEGED MIXUP IN ESTATE

JAMES P. NORTHROP, AN EXECUTOR, IN ESTATE SAID TO BE TANGLED.

According to the report of Charles E. Hendrickson, Jr., master in chancery, appointed to look into the affairs of the estate of the late Charles A. Woodsley, there is a discrepancy of $37,000 between the account of moneys received and disbursed by the executors, one of whom is James P. Northrop, a Jersey City lawyer, who resides in this city. Mr. Hendrickson's report was filed yesterday in the Hudson County Orphans' Court, and among other things he reports to the Court that the terms of the will have been disregarded and that the money ordered to be invested has not been so applied. He also declares that the executors did not pay the two legacies of $5,000 and $10,000. On the other hand he says the executors increased their own salaries from $3,500 to $6,000 as officers of the paint company.

At the end of eight years the company under the management of the executors was declared insolvent. Mr. Hendrickson calls attention to the fact that the executors never filed an inventory of the estate nor an account until August 6 of last year.

Changing Time of Meeting.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church will hold a special meeting Friday night, Jan. 29, at which time a vote will be taken on the question of changing the time of meeting from Sunday night to some night during the week, it being the opinion of many that the present time is not as convenient as a week-day night would be.

To Increase Her Pension.

Senator Kean has introduced a bill to increase the pension of Mrs. Jennie Long, of North Plainfield, widow of General Eli Long, to $100. General Long received 26 wounds in the Civil War. The bill was introduced earlier in the session, and through a clerical error was made $50 a month. Mrs. Long received a pension of $8 a month.

PRACTICING FOR BIG MEET

PLAINFIELD TO HAVE STRONG TEAM IN STATE Y. M. C. A. GAMES HERE.

Practise preliminary to the choosing of a team to represent the local Y. M. C. A. in the inter-association athletic meet to be held here February 8, began last night. The excellent showing made by the competitors in the recent games for the individual championship of the association indicate that Plainfield will make a strong bid to win the meet.

The five events to be contested are the running high jump, running high dive, potato race, three standing broad jumps and shot put. In the high jump and high dive, McNaughton demonstrated his ability Saturday night by breaking records in both events. Cahoone in the high jump and Neal in the high dive are other good men. In the shot put, Munger is a record breaker, though not so greatly in advance of Marclay. Smith seems to be the leading light in the three standing broad jumps and potato race. None of the men can be sure of their positions on the team, however, and a good string of second men is necessary in case of accident.

There will be a trying-out for many of the candidates for the team next Saturday night.

THE MAYOR'S PRECAUTION

ARRANGES WITH CITY FOR GIVING OF ASSISTANCE AT FIRES IN BOROUGH.

With his usual foresight and desire to take time by the forelock, Mayor Newton B. Smalley, of North Plainfield, has made arrangements with Plainfield's Mayor and fire committee, whereby they have agreed to provide assistance to the borough in case of fire, should occasion demand.

While it is not anticipated that there will be any serious trouble attending the changing of the system from a volunteer to a paid one, Mayor Smalley shows his shrewd business tact by making provisions in advance for any emergency that may arise.

Converts to the proposed change to a paid department are being made every day, the Mayor says, and he has received on all sides assurances that the organization of a paid department will be for the best interests of the borough. Many borough officials have declared that the delay in sending for the Plainfield apparatus at the time of the Saengerbund fire undoubtedly resulted in considerable loss, and they unite in commending Mayor Smalley, who is determined that the interests of the borough shall be looked after and its property protected with Plainfield's assistance if necessary.

PALMA SHOOT.

International Contests for Riflemen to Take Place at Sea Girt September 8.

The board of directors of the National Rifle Association have selected September 8 as the date for the next international rifle match for the historic Palma trophy. The shooting will be at the New Jersey State rifle ranges at Sea Girt. The date selected for the match comes at the time when the national shooting tournament will be held at Sea Girt.

The trophy was won back by the Americans from Great Britain in the international shoot at Bisley, England, last June, when Uncle Sam's marksmen defeated the best shots of England, Canada, France, Australia, Natal and Norway. The trophy was created in 1876 in the name of the United States, to the marksmen of the world. Its value is $1,500, and is contested for yearly by teams of eight men from any country with any rifle, at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards, thirty shots to a man at each distance.

Big Collateral Tax.

Representatives of the Metropolitan Museum of Art of New York Monday paid to the State Treasurer $267,322.62, being the collateral inheritance tax due the State from the bequest made to the museum by Jacob S. Rogers, the Paterson millionaire, who died about two or three years ago.

Henry Compton Buried.

The funeral services of the late Henry Compton were held yesterday afternoon from the M. E. church, Metuchen, the pastor of the church, officiating. There was a large attendance of friends and neighbors. The interment was in the Metuchen cemetery.

To Rest From Their Labors.

It is believed that the jury work of the present Grand Jury will occupy over two or three days more and it is quite likely that by the latter part of next week the labors of the juror will be completed.

ALLEGED HORSE THIEF PLEADS INNOCENCE

Charles Brown, Suspected of Stealing Pocock's Horse, to be Given a Hearing.

STABLE BOY A SLEUTH

EDWARD FOGARTY'S CUNNING WORK RESPONSIBLE FOR CAPTURE.

Dr. Pocock Identified Brown—A Hearing Tomorrow Afternoon—Fogarty Followed Suspected Man to This City.

Charles Brown, the supposed horse thief who was captured here yesterday, will be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in Justice Huff's court. He still asserts his innocence.

A clever bit of detective work was done by Edward Fogarty, the young man employed at A. E. Decker's livery stable in Westfield, who was mainly responsible for the capture. Fogarty suspected Brown as soon as he entered the stable and requested a horse and carriage to deliver a sewing machine "to a woman named Smith." He remembered that a man answering Brown's description was wanted for the theft of a horse from a man named Keenan, and telephoned to the Elizabeth police who asked that Brown be held until they could arrive on the scene. As there was no direct evidence against the man, this could not be done and he was allowed to carry out his intention of going to this city. Meanwhile a description was telephoned to the local police.

When Brown boarded a Plainfield car Fogarty followed him, shadowing him to this city until he met Patrolman Vanderweg on North avenue. Vanderweg then made the capture as told in yesterday's Daily Press and Fogarty, at Vanderweg's suggestion, went in search of Dr. Pocock, who was able to identify Brown as the man who had stolen a rig from him several months ago.

ON A BOND TO HIS SORROW

CHARLES H. HAND WISHES TO RECOVER FROM TUNISON WHO DISAPPEARED.

Harry C. Runyon, Esq., representing Charles H. Hand, was yesterday authorized by Chief Justice Gummere, of Elizabeth, to serve a summons upon Watson J. Tunison by publication. This method is one adopted only in emergencies and when other methods of reaching the desired party have failed. The summons against Tunison will hold in and out of the State.

Tunison is alleged to have induced the plaintiff six years ago to go on his bond for a considerable sum. He then disappeared and has not been heard of since. He is thought to hold attachable property which can be reached through the serving of summons by publication.

NEW WARREN CHAPEL.

Work Will Begin This Spring on the Structure Which Will be Built Mostly of Stone.

The plans for the new Warren chapel to be erected on Watchung avenue in the borough, have been completed by the architect, A. L. C. Marsh and the officers of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, together with a committee from Warren chapel have examined them. It is now hoped to have the work of building begun this spring.

The idea is, according to the plans, to have the structure mostly of stone, with separate compartments for the Sunday-school, church and social affairs. The sum of $5,000, one quarter of the amount necessary to complete the building, was given by James Clark, of West Seventh street, and it is estimated that about one-half the total amount is now in hand. The building is to be located on Watchung avenue near the corner of Fairview avenue, an especially attractive site having been purchased.

Miss Phillips to Marry.

Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips, of 401 Plainfield avenue, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Georgie Anna, to Ernest William Stones, on Wednesday night, February 10, at 8:30, at the home of the bride's parents.

Fireman Off Duty.

Fred Broem, of fire headquarters, has been suffering for the past week from an attack of rheumatism. He expects to return to duty tomorrow.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

Men who have had experience of hotels always register at the Kensington when they come to Plainfield. They know the best.

The Hotel Waldorf, on East Front street, is one of the few places in this city where the best stock in wet goods is sold. Henry Windham leads in fine wines and liquors.

Fine electrical work done at moderate prices at Allen B. Laing's store, on North avenue. Contracts made for all kinds of buildings and repair work is made a specialty.

John Wirth, of West Front street, has built up a strong reputation as the best baker. The materials in his baked goods are pure and fresh and the cooking is unsurpassed.

If in search of a suitable ring for an engagement present, J. Hervey Doane, of Park avenue, can accommodate you. There is never any question about the quality or price of goods at this store.

Fine jewelry, watches, diamonds, clocks and engagement rings at L. Moraller & Son, on Park avenue. A specialty is made of watch and clock repairing. Finest work, moderate prices.

Charles Conover & Co., of Elmwood place, have been kept busy this season doing painting and paper-hanging. The firm handles only such wall-papers and paints as are sold by the leading manufacturers and all work is guaranteed.

To some people it makes no difference what kind of meat they eat, but particular people are learning that the meats and fish sold by Roth & Co., of East Front street, is first-class, while the prices are lower than is asked at many other markets.

You make no mistake when you trade with the Gayle Hardware Company. The line of goods sold by this house is the best, whether it be nails or a large cook stove or range. The company's guarantee is behind these goods and you will find the prices right.

Mme. E. Cottrelley, of East Front street, will give the best satisfaction to all who desire dresses made according to the latest models. There is a style about dresses made by Mme. Cotrelley that no other dress maker can approach. Woodbull & Martin building.

Good warm clothing, the kind that M. Weinberger, of West Front street, keeps, is the kind you want this winter. The clothing for men and boys is made of the best material and the finish and workmanship cannot be excelled. You will find every garment satisfactory, as well as the price.

If you once give the goods of the A. and P. Tea Company a fair trial you will become a steady customer. In order to induce you to give them a trial some extraordinary offers of goods and trading stamps are made this week. The A. and P. Tea Company keeps the best and nothing but the best of everything for the table and besides that extra stamps are given free with many articles. There is a great special sale of soap on this week.

LITERARY.

The Red Book continues to increase in size and improve in quality. In the February number, now on the news stands, fourteen clever stories well illustrated, and seventeen photographic portrait studies of various types of beauty offer entertainment, heralded by a cover of striking beauty. The authors who contribute the fiction are M J. Reynolds, Eugene P. Lyle, Jr., Norman H. Crowell, Mary B. Mulelit, A. Shackelford Sullivan, Leo Crane, Edna Kingsley Wallace, Hayden Carruth, Clinton Dangerfield, Edgar Franklin, D. H. Talmadge, Ethel Shackelford, Izola L. Forrester and John H. Whitson. A page of personal paragraphs by the publishers relates some interesting facts about the growth of The Red Book which is attested by the visible improvement in the magazine itself and by the remarkable increase in its advertising patronage.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. David Bush, of West Second street, has recovered from a recent severe illness.

W. L. Julliard, of Lincoln place, has returned home after spending a few days with friends at Flemington.

Miss Dora Hartpence, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days with her cousin, Mrs. E. E. Hann, of Somerset place.

After spending a few days with Somerville friends, Miss Tillie Coddington, of Grove street, has resumed her studies at Coleman's Business College, Newark.

STREET RAILWAY SERVICE.

TO THE PUBLIC:

January 19th, 1904.

Public Service Corporation of New Jersey is fully cognizant of the general complaint existing with regard to the service given by the street railways controlled by the company. The bad service is due largely to conditions that began to develop before Public Service was formed, and which could not be changed within a short time, and in part to necessary changes of schedules which experience shows always create confusion and irregularity of service for a time, but in the end will undoubtedly produce satisfactory results.

The conditions above referred to differ somewhat in different localities, but the deterioration of the car equipment and the lack of sufficient cars is common to the whole system. The car equipment of the various street railroad companies has not been maintained for many years as it should have been, nor was adequate provisions made for the future. Since the formation of Public Service the shortage of cars has been such that it has been impracticable to take cars from the streets for a sufficient time to repair them properly. The recent storms and severe weather, however, have so intensified the equipment troubles that many of the cars can not be run for more than one or two trips at a time without giving out in some essential part. As an illustration of the existing condition: during the greater part of last week twenty-one cars out of a total equipment of forty-five cars on the Belleville and Clinton Avenue line, in the City of Newark, were unable to run, and were housed for repairs. The management of the street railroads has also been greatly annoyed during the past few weeks by trucks and other vehicles occupying the parts of the streets used by the street railroads because cleared of snow.

Almost immediately after the formation of Public Service one hundred and fifty cars were ordered, deliveries to commence in November. Only about twenty of these cars have actually been delivered and are ready for use. This number of cars, however, will only enable the company to spare the worst of the present equipment for repairs. Appreciating these conditions the company has also authorized the purchase of one hundred and fifty additional cars, for delivery during the spring and summer. Several months ago the pay roll of the employes of the street railroad companies was increased by more than four thousand dollars per week, or two hundred thousand dollars per year, and more convenient hours for work prescribed, in the hope of improving the services.

In Jersey City and Bayonne, and in some of the suburban sections of Essex County the power conditions are still deficient, but are being rapidly improved, accordieg to elaborate plans heretofore made.

It is apparent that there can be no relief in the matter of car equipment until the arrival of the remainder of the first order for one hundred and fifty cars, and the coming of the warm season, when the open car equipment can again be put in use. With three hundred new cars, and with the present equipment thoroughly repaired, the company will be in a position to render satisfactory service.

The changes in the schedules referred to are of this character. The schedules of many of the lines now require the cars to run only from five to seven miles an hour, and certainly the public expect, and have a right to more rapid transportation. Standard street railway service is nine miles an hour in territories similar to that occupied by the street railroads controlled by Public Service. The operating department is endeavoring to bring its schedules up to the standard. This process is always attended with some confusion and annoyance to the public, and temporary embarrassment to the employes as well. It is perfectly feasible, however, to accomplish this object, which will no doubt result in much better service to the public. The inauguration of this change of schedules on certain lines in Essex County within the past ten days has caused more confusion than elsewhere, which it is hoped will quickly pass away.

This company is exerting every effort in its power to improve the street railroad equipment and service. It has already actually expended for improvements to the street railway department, the sum of $1,500,000, and has authorized the expenditure during the year 1904 of the additional sum of $2,169,000 for further improvements to the system. It has secured the services for its operating department of three well-known street railroad men. Its General Manager was for several years General Superintendent of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, and was especially recommended for this position by Mr. H. H. Vreeland, President of the Metropolitan Street Railroad Company in New York. Its General Superintendent was for many years General Superintendent of the Detroit United Railway Company, which is generally acknowledged to be the best managed street railroad property in this country. Its Chief Engineer was formerly Chief Engineer of the Cleveland system, a street railroad company famous for its good management and equipment.

Public Service Corporation has every disposition to comply with all reasonable demands of the public, and regulations of municipal bodies. It cannot, however, thoroughly reorganize and largely re-equip an extensive street railroad system in a few months. Unreasonable and vexatious ordinances and impositions can only result in additional delay in the efforts of the company to improve its system and will, of course, be contested if enacted. The strike of last Summer, followed by the flood, and the severity of the present Winter, have added considerably to the strain upon the facilities of the company to discharge its duties to the public. Besides, harsh and intemperate criticism tends to demoralize discipline and weaken the efficiency of the service.

Public Service Corporation will spare no effort to improve the existing conditions as promptly as possible. The enormous sum of money already expended and appropriated for improvements may reasonably be accepted as a guarantee of the good faith of the company.

THOS. N. M'CARTER, President.

THIRTY-FIVE HELD.

Battle at Boswell Between Miners and Sheriff's Officers.

LABOR RIOT MAY END WITH DEATHS

Meyersdale Company's Men Held Up Train With Strike Breakers, and Fifteen Were Hurt In the Fight Which Ensued.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Jan. 20.—In a battle at Boswell, near here, between strike breakers and deputy sheriffs on the one side and sympathizers of striking coal miners on the other at least two men were fatally wounded, three or four seriously hurt and half a score slightly injured.

More than 100 shots were fired from revolvers, shotguns and rifles, and it was feared for a time that the trouble would get beyond the control of the local authorities.

The trouble began at Zimmerman, near Boswell, where the employees of the Meyersdale Coal company are on strike. A train bearing a squad of strike breakers was held up there by rioters, who went through it and tried to get the strike breakers to leave.

Sheriff Coleman, with his force of fifty deputies at Boswell, arrested thirty-five of the men and women who took part in the riot, and they were given a hearing before Justices Ickes and Bauch. The justices fixed the bail at $2,000 each, which the strikers are hardly able to furnish, and those who are held for court were brought to Somerset on a special train. In a roundup the detectives visited in a body all the places where the rioters are harbored, gathering them in as they went, and the posse met with no resistance. One of the men caught is said to be the man who shot Deputy William Begley. Deputy George Saylor, who is thought to be mortally wounded, is still living, but is in a very critical condition. It was stated by Deputy Sheriff Begley that more arrests would be made. The situation in the town warrants the belief that the disorder on the part of the strikers is at an end.

PANAMA'S PARLIAMENT.

Minister of War Reported the Army Prepared to Defend the Republic.

PANAMA, Jan. 20.—The constitutional convention met in open session. It was originally intended to have the session a secret one, but Senor Obarrio, minister of war, announced that there was no business before the convention which it was needful to hide from the country, and consequently the session was public.

Senor Obarrio said the Panamanian army was prepared and ready to defend the independence of Panama and that the reported invasions of Panamanian territory by Colombian troops lacked confirmation. He reported upon the number of Panamanian garrisons throughout the Darien country and upon their state of preparedness, mentioning also the large quantity of munitions of war recently received on the isthmus. The other matters discussed before the convention were unimportant.

Feud Over Girl Caused Death.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 20.—The murder for which Giancento, or Tomasso Caruso, is under arrest in New York was committed in this city. It was the result, it is said, of a quarrel over an Italian girl for whose hand Caruso and Vincenzo Carbone, the murdered man, were rivals in their native town of Italy. Caruso came to this country about seven months ago and was followed shortly afterward by Carbone. The men met in this city, and the feud was renewed. In the fight that followed Caruso was assisted by two companions who have so far eluded the police. The authorities say they have an eyewitness who will testify that Caruso fired the shot that killed Carbone.

STEAMER BEACHED.

Sound Liner Stove In by Ice Floe Near Bridgeport.

RAPID SINKING CAUSED A PANIC

Officers Calmed Passengers, Many of Whom Were Asleep When the Steamer Struck, and Thus Avoided Loss of Life.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Jan. 20.—Crashing on what is believed to have been an enormous piece of partly submerged ice, the steamboat John H. Starin of the Starin line, bound from New York to New Haven with passengers and freight, began to sink while off this place and was hastily run ashore to prevent her going down.

She was assisted into the harbor by tugs, but was filling so rapidly that it was thought best to run her ashore on the flats so that she would not sink in deeper water and would be more easily raised afterward.

There was the greatest excitement among her passengers, many of whom were still asleep, when the tremendous crash as the Starin hit the ice threw many of them from their berths. They ran on deck, where they found a scene of disorder, as the crew rushed about trying to ascertain the amount of the damage to the steamboat and the size of the hole which had been stove in her bottom.

From the manner in which the steamboat began to list to one side almost immediately it was seen that she was filling rapidly and that it was only a question of moments before she would sink, unless immediate steps were taken, in deep water.

The captain and his officers found time in the midst of their exertions to calm the fears of the passengers and persuade them to quietly return below until they could be taken off or the boat run ashore.

The tug John E. Randerson immediately put out from this harbor to the Starin and in a few moments was alongside and prepared to convey the frightened passengers to safety.

As soon as the passengers could be lowered from the deck of the sinking steamboat to the tug they were carried ashore, and most of them left immediately by train for New Haven.

Daughter of the Warwicks Married.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—Lady Marjorie Greville, daughter of the Earl and Countess of Warwick, and Viscount Helmsley, heir apparent of the Earl of Feversham, were married at Warwick. The ceremony, which was brilliant, occurred in the presence of a church full of prominent people. The bishop of Oxford officiated. The center aisle was filled with flowers, and the church was lined by the county yeomanry. There were fourteen bridesmaids, including Miss Astor, and the presents numbered from 500 to 600, jewels predominating. King Edward sent Lady Marjorie a diamond and ruby brooch, accompanied by an autograph note reading: "To Queenie, on her marriage, with the best wishes for her happiness, from Edward R."

Strikers Close Mines.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Jan. 20.—Two hundred striking trammers of the Quincy mine marched to the Masnard shaft, the only part of the mine in operation, and demanded that the miners be called up at once and the engines shut down. The captain in charge refused, but was notified that if the miners were not up by a specified time the strikers would throw him down the shaft. The engineers also were threatened, and as a result all the miners were brought up. The trouble was caused by the company lowering wages $5 a month.

Robbed Iroquois Victim.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—The police last night arrested Frank Uhler, a printer, nineteen years old, on a charge of robbing the dead after the fire in the Iroquois theater. Uhler attempted to dispose of a diamond ring valued at $800 and when taken into custody confessed that he had stolen it from the hand of a dead man which was hanging over the edge of a wagon when the load of corpses was backed up in front of the morgue.

Was Burned Saving Baby.

MAYNARD, Mass., Jan. 20.—Mrs. James J. Morgan was called to the house of Joseph Grovel by a little girl who had been left in the house with a baby sister. Mrs. Morgan found the baby lying on a couch with its clothes afire. She smothered the flames on the baby's clothing, but in so doing set her own clothes on fire. Then she ran from the house and rolled in the snow. She is badly burned.

Made Bogus Notes.

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—Joseph Baumenblitt, who had turned state's evidence before United States Commissioner Hale, told of his alleged connection with John Davis and Moses Novak in the alleged extensive manufacture of bank notes in New York, Newark and Revere, and the three men were held in $10,000 each for the federal grand jury.

Burglars Got Away With $500.

RANDOLPH, Neb., Jan. 20.—Burglars robbed the State Bank of McLean, six miles east of here, of $500 in cash after blowing open the safe. The robbers made their escape in a stolen rig after covering the citizens with revolvers.

Train Quarantined on Bridge.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Jan. 20.—After vaccinating all of the passengers on the train held on the bridge here with smallpox on board and fumigating the cars the train was allowed to proceed.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 20, 1904.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printer's Ink.

A history of the life of the late George Francis Train would read like a novel. Few men live lives so full of incident. Nor, in spite of his eccentricity, are their many men whose lives have been more genuinely useful.

The physical department of the local Y. M. C. A. is evidently well looked after. At any rate there is a husky set of basket ball players in the association who deserve all credit for their victory Monday over the team from the largest branch of the Y. M. C. A. in the State.

When is that Democratic candidate for Governor going to be boomed. It is unusual to have a legislative session open without any definite idea of who is going to run for Chief Executive the following fall on both sides. Surely the Democratic party is not short of Gubernatorial timber. There is considerable of it right here in New Brunswick.—New Brunswick Home News.

If there is, New Brunswick is extraordinarily successful in keeping it under cover.

While a Pennsylvania church has forbidden its members to grow moustaches, a new religious sect in Boston gives it as part of its creed that the members shall allow their hair and whiskers to grow uncontaminated by shears. If piety depends upon shaving, as one might infer from the dictates of these pious orders, it might be suggested that our Boston friends enshrine their simian ancestors as their patron saints. As for the Pennsylvania brethren, possibly they may have had trouble at home in which the possession of hair has been an inconvenience. At any rate the whole thing goes to illustrate the fact that much that is expressed in creed is an unintentional confession of ignorance.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

An illustrated lecture on "The Holy Land" will be given at the Rescue Mission tomorrow night.

Stephen Cahoone, president of the Y. M. C. A., will be the speaker next Sunday afternoon at the men's meeting in the large hall.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the First Baptist church, will be at the church for conference a half hour prior to the mid-week service tonight.

William F. Arnold and George A. Strong have been re-elected trustees of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church for a term of three years. They succeed themselves.

The topic for discussion at the prayer meeting at the Third Street chapel tomorrow night at 8 o'clock will be "Searchlights." Rev. Lester G. Leggett will be the leader.

The sixth quarterly conference will be held at the Monroe Avenue church tonight. Francis E. Whiteside will apply for a renewal of his license to preach. Rev. Dr. Halleron, the presiding elder, will be in charge.

At a meeting of the Methodist ministers of Trenton on Monday, there was a general discussion on the time limit of pastorates. It was the general sentiment of the ministers that there should be a return to the rule providing for a three-year limit.

About twenty-five Plainfielders will go to Newark tonight to attend the exercises held in connection with the observance of the sixteenth anniversary of the conversion of Engineer Wm. Carey. The affair will be held in the W. C. T. U rooms. Mrs. John Manley, of Park avenue, will render several vocal solos.

A choir guild has been organized at the Church of the Holy Cross with these officers: President, Bradley S. Hall; secretary, Ralph S. Lane; treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Skiff. The Boy Choristers' Club has these officers: Director, J. Edmund Skiff; president, Harrison Fahn; vice-president, George Mead; secretary, Ira Vail; treasurer, Horace Davis.

UP AND DOWN THE STATE

A new building, costing $95,000, will soon be put up at Princeton University The Cottage Club, which is similar to a fraternity at other colleges, has announced its intention of starting the new house some time this spring.

A crusade against cigarette smoking by boys in Springfield, and the selling of cigarettes and tobacco to children under sixteen years of age, in violation of the State law, was started last night at a meeting of religious workers in the Springfield Presbyterian church.

A. N. Hamilton, a mining engineer and promoter, of Seattle, Wash., has interested himself in the scheme for a ship canal, in Newark, proposed by Joseph Labadie, of Orange. Mr. Hamilton is a man of much experience in that line of work. In a communication to Mr. Labadie, he says: "This is not a visionary scheme; on the contrary it is eminently practicable, and it is surprising that capital has not become interested."

Barbers from all the larger cities and towns of the State attended a meeting of the State Barbers' Association Monday evening in Trenton. The object of the meeting was to secure the opinions of the men of this craft with respect to legislation this winter for a sanitary shop law. The State association desires the enactment of a measure at this session of the Legislature regulating the practice of barbering, the licensing of persons to carry on such practice, to ensure better sanitary conditions and to authorize the board of health to co-operate in securing conditions to prevent the spreading of contagion or infectious diseases.

A section of the Atlantic Ocean from off the New Jersey coast, with all its finny and shelled inhabitants, transported bodily to St. Louis, will no doubt be among the most popular and interesting exhibits in the World's Fair this year, Colonel Lewis T. Bryant, the secretary of the New Jersey commission, devised and will carry out all the details of the novel enterprise. Nothing like it has ever been seen at an international exposition. A huge tank, thirty feet across, in the centre of the Forestry building, will contain this piece of the Atlantic Ocean. It will be filled with sea water, carried in large tank cars loaned to the general government, for the purpose by the Standard Oil Company, and transported by the government free of charge.

Fast Shore Train Promised.

The Central Railroad of New Jersey announces its intention to place a record breaking train on its schedule from Asbury Park next summer. This train will leave Point Pleasant at 7:45 a. m., Spring Lake at 8 and Asbury Park at 8:10, making no further stops until it reaches Jersey City. It will be due on the New York side at 9:30, giving business men ample time to be at their offices before 10. The train will return, leaving New York at 4:45 and arriving at Asbury Park, the first stop, at 6:05. Everything will have to give way to the flyer, which will make the run between Asbury Park and New York in one hour and twenty minutes, the lowest ever attained by any regular passenger train.

John McGinley, of Terrill road, is seriously ill.

Miss Beekman, of Martinsville, has returned home after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Frank Cleaves, of West Front street.

Samuel Hand, of Elmwood place, has recovered from a recent severe attack of rheumatism and is able to be out again.

THERE'S SAFETY in our PRESCRIPTIONS.

Safety in drugs cannot be overestimated—its value is incalculable. Cheap drugs mean doubtful drugs—pure drugs mean safety. We invite the confidence of those who want the BEST DRUGS, and are willing to pay a fair price for them. We promise (besides pure drugs) a prescription service Absolutely Errorless; our checking system makes it so—at a cost unusually low for the service rendered.

AMUSEMENTS.

An event of more than usual importance will be the revival, at Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre, of "The Brixton Burglary," with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sidney heading the cast. Mr. Sidney, the author of this clever comedy, will make his first appearance in this country in some time, in the part of Septumus Green, while Mr. Al. Roberts, son of R. A. Roberts, the well known actor, will assume the role of Pontifex, one of the best drawn low comedy characters in the play catalogue

Mme. Adelaide Herrmann, in her novel magical seance, "A Dream of the Orient," heads the interesting bill at Proctor's Newark Theatre next week. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins D. Fisher share the stella honors in the presentation of Ezra Kendall's clever comedy sketch, "The Half-way House" Hoey and Lee, Hebrew impersonators and parodists; Lotta Gladstone, a clever delineator of rural tpyes; James B. Donovan, "The Comic King of Ireland;" Burnett and Wyerson, in a singing and dancing sketch; the Four Lukens, in a casting act of merit, and the Kalatechnoscope, completes the entertainment. The latter will present a special novelty, "The Damnation of Faust."

"The County Chairman," at Wallack's Theatre, New York, continues in office despite the change in the city administration. He is a holdover, as it were, and likely to remain in possession of his place of unbounded popularity for a long time to come. George Ade's rural comedy, with its strong love story, droll characters, intensely laughable situations and continuously sparkling dialogue, has in fact captured public approbation far more firmly than any other example of play writing this season. At night the playhouse is crowded with persons more mature but not more sedate than those of the afternoons, for "The County Chairman" banishes solemnity from the moment the curtain goes up.

"Whoop-Dee-Doo" and "Waffles," with the Weber & Fields all-star cast, continues to create merriment at the comedians' Music Hall. Many changes have been made in the stage pictures and the dual entertainment has altogether been subjected to the renewing process which characterizes the Weber & Fields' shows. The new year will be celebrated by Miss Lillian Russell with a new set of gorgeous gowns. Weber & Fields will have a new set of resolutions to distort the English language more than ever. Louis Mann is to have a new pair of fowls for the "chicken" scene. Peter F. Dailey is to have a new song and John T. Kelly a new stage suit of more exaggerated pattern. Evie Stetson will introduce her "show" girls with a new verse of song and, in short, the Weberfield performance will be, as ever, up to the times.

SNAP SHOTS.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

A discouraged editor, in a fit of desperation, dashed off the following: "The wind bloweth, the water floweth, the farmer soweth, the subscriber oweth and the Lord knoweth that we are in need of our dues. So come a runnin', ere we go gunnin'. This thing of dunnin' gives us the blues."

Every once in a while, at too frequent intervals, perhaps, there crops up an alleged popular song that drives the average person to distraction. Just now "Bedelia" seems to be the craze, the heroine of the song being an Irish girl. This sort of composition, as a rule, appeals to the hand-organ audiences, but in the case of "Bedelia" it has been demonstrated that even the musical worm will turn. All the newsboys, bootblacks and street urchins in general are going about asking each other: "Have you chipped into the fund?" "What fund?" asks the victim, if he hasn't heard it before. "Why, the fund to send Bedelia back to Ireland," is the reply—Philadelphia Record.

Inasmuch as seekers after light (gas and electric) are not all skilful in guessing conundrums and have not time to guess them when in a hurry to pay their bills, would it not be well for the electric and gas light company to put a sign upon their office that would be intelligible so that "the wayfaring man though a fool would not err therein?" An old and successful writer gave this advice to a younger one, "Always write as if the public knew nothing." The electric and gas light company take for granted that the public know a great deal when they put for a sign on their office "Public Service Corporation of N. J." A public service corporation may mean a dozen things beside electric and gas light and only to the initiated would the sign indicate any connection with the lighting facilities of the town.

For Mailcarrier.

Postmaster E. H. Bird has sent to Washington twenty bids from as many men who desire the job of carrying the U. S. mail between the postoffice and the railroad station. The death of William Ruckman left a vacancy which compelled the readvertising for bids for this work. The name of the successful bidder will be known within a few days.

TROUBLED KOREANS

Russia Complains of Rioting Soldiery In Seoul.

OUR MINISTER FEARS AN OUTBREAK

Emperor of Korea Will Have No Interference From Czar's Troops. Russian Division Bound Northward—Threatening Outlook.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—A dispatch from Seoul says Russia complains that Korean soldiers are causing trouble. Korea answers that Russia must not interfere.

The tension in Seoul is increasing, and the native press, which probably is inspired, is more bitter against foreigners than formerly. The emperor's trusted advisers have a daily council. The Russian and English legations have increased their guards by sixteen. The Japanese are buying and storing much rice in northern Korea. The ginseng trade is dead.

The Korean General Yihak Kiun, whose sympathies are pro-Russian, has made a veiled threat against foreigners.

Additional advices received overnight at the state department from the east came from Minister Allen, at Seoul. He reports that Korea is in a panicky condition, and there is apprehension of a riotous outbreak at any moment.

The intimation is conveyed that interested foreign emissaries are at the bottom of these disturbances, the result of which may be to afford an excuse for intervention and the placing of large forces in Korea, thus precipitating a hostile collision between Russia and Japan.

It is understood that the matter of re-enforcing the United States legation guard at Seoul will be left to the mutual arrangement of Mr. Allen and Rear Admiral Evans.

Reports from Port Arthur say that 4,000 Russian troops left there today, bound northward. Otherwise city life is normal, and there has been no exodus of families.

Applications by correspondents desiring to accompany the forces were met with a reply that hostilities are not expected, and therefore it would be premature to issue permits.

The authorities here state definitely that Russia has no intention or desire to interfere in Korea, even should Japan continue to land small bodies of troops there in contravention of the existing treaties, as the Russians assert the Japanese are doing, under the pretext that they are only railway guards.

ALEXIEFF HOPES FOR PEACE.

The Russian Viceroy May Be Able to Arrange Modus Vivendi.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—A correspondent at Port Arthur has had an interview with Admiral Alexieff, the Russian viceroy in the far east, who spoke hopefully of the possibility of arranging a modus vivendi with Japan. The viceroy referred the correspondent to his diplomatic agent, M. Plarcon, who emphasized the impossibility of Russia's evacuation of Manchuria and said:

"Orders were given six months ago to evacuate Newchwang and Manchuria provided the Chinese would agree to simple terms, but owing to the intrigues of the Japanese minister with the wai wu pu (Chinese foreign board) these orders were countermanded."

Stenographer Assaulted by Negro.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 20.—Mrs. Stella Applegate of this city was brutally assaulted in the outskirts of the town by an unknown negro. She was on her way home when the negro jumped from a clump of bushes, hurled her to the ground and choked her to insensibility. Her cries brought aid, but the negro escaped with a gold watch and $15, leaving her in a critical condition. Mrs. Applegate, who is about thirty years old, is the wife of Frank Applegate of this city and is in the employ of the Princeton Lighting company as a stenographer.

Boston Warehouse Burned.

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—While all of the fire apparatus of the vicinity was responding to another alarm a blaze broke out in the four story wool warehouse of H. P. Garrity & Co., 200 Purchase street, last night, and before a stream could be directed upon the flames the building was gutted and its contents destroyed. The fire leaped across an alley in the rear and caused considerable damage to the large building of the Associated Wool Growers' company. The loss is $75,000.

A Dozen Widows Claimed Estate.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 20.—The estate of Charles Hall, to which more than a dozen widows have entered claims, was distributed by order of court. The entire estate, amounting to $144,000, goes to heirs in Boston. The successful claimants are Salem D. Charles, Helen A. Bliss, Mrs. Leonard A. Hyde, Myron W. Charles, Fred M. Charles, Jennie M. Sherry, Mrs. Mary L. Charles and Mrs. Sarah F. C. Barrett.

Soldiers Leave Telluride.

TELLURIDE, Colo., Jan. 20.—The military force here is to be further reduced, and seventy-three men have been sent to their homes. Everything has been quiet here since the arrival of the troops, and Major Hill has gradually reduced the force until now little over 100 men remain in the county. Six more men have been arrested and deported.

"Elijah III." For Australia.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—Rev. John Alexander Dowie has arrived here and will sail tomorrow for Australia.

IROQUOIS INQUEST.

Building Commissioner Under Heavy Crossfire Examination.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—For an hour during Commissioner Williams' examination the city building department was under fire of scathing inquiry. For the first time during the investigation the language "guilty knowledge" went into the records, and those who followed the proceedings were impressed with the full extent of the responsibility for the holocaust, which the jurors seem to place upon that branch of the city government.

The examination of the building commissioner was so severe that Assistant Corporation Counsel Rothman interfered in defense of Mr. Williams. A clash with the coroner resulted. The witness was not permitted to testify as to his competency, and with cold sweat glistening on his forehead he left the stand after as bad an hour as any witness has experienced at the hands of the jury and the coroner.

Eight more churches and a number of halls have been closed by order of City Building Commissioner Williams for violation of the city ordinances.

Another instance of the work of ghouls during the excitement following the Iroquois fire is believed by the police to have been unearthed in a report received that the body of Herman O. Dreisel, a teacher in the Normal Practice school, who lost his life, was found to have been robbed.

SUSPECT MURDER.

Suicide Thought to Have Poisoned His Wife.

GLENS FALLS, N. Y., Jan. 20.—It is strongly suspected by the authorities here that Edmund Loveland, who died suddenly here, committed suicide by poison after having poisoned his wife, who died yesterday without medical attendance. Immediately after the woman's death Loveland attributed her illness to eating pork and declared that he had in vain tried to get a physician to attend her. Loveland appeared to be much perturbed when the coroner took charge of the body and announced that an autopsy would be performed.

While preparations for the autopsy were being made Loveland was taken ill and died with symptoms of poisoning within two hours. An analysis will be made of the stomachs of both. Neighbors of the Lovelands say that the couple were drinking together during the greater part of the night.

The house in which the Lovelands lived was the scene five years ago of the mysterious murder of a gypsy named Sharkey.

THE BECHTEL TRIAL.

State Evidence Is All In—Lear's Testimony Unshaken.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 20.—After having examined forty witnesses in its endeavor to prove that Mrs. Catharine Bechtel was guilty of being an accessory after the fact in the murder of her daughter Mabel the commonwealth has closed its case. The proceedings were taken up entirely with the examination of experts on blood.

Dr. John Lear, professor of biology at Muhlenberg college, who testified that the stains on articles taken from the Bechtel home were made by human blood, was again on the witness stand. Counsel for the defendant tried to discredit the biological or Bordet test of determining human blood, which Dr. Lear had employed, but the cross examination failed to shake the direct testimony of the witness.

Yachtsman's Sudden Death.

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 20.—Henry Tracy, one of the best known yachtsmen on the lakes, died suddenly at his home here, aged sixty-seven years. He was commodore of the Interlake Yachting association last year, and during the races at Put-In-Bay one of his fingers was slightly scratched. Blood poisoning set in, and several operations were necessary. He was downtown on Monday feeling fairly well. Yesterday he complained of a weakness and, falling into his wife's arms, expired.

Narrow Escape From Distillery Fire.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 20.—The large plant of Mihalovitch, Fletcher & Co., on Pearl street, used as a distillery and for compounding liquors, has been burned. The loss is $250,000. Joseph Rigby and Joseph Bocklage, firemen, were seriously injured by falling walls. Bocklage is not expected to recover. Fifty girls and many men employed in the six story warehouse had narrow escapes.

To Be Tried For Lynching Sermon.

DOVER, Del., Jan. 20.—The Newcastle presbytery has decided to try the Rev. R. A. Elwood of Wilmington, Del., on charges in connection with the preaching of a sermon by him entitled, "Should the Murderer of Helen Bishop Be Lynched?" The trial will take place in the Presbyterian church at Newcastle on Feb. 2.

Bayonne Greek Church Burned.

BAYONNE, N. J., Jan. 20. — The Greek Catholic Church of St. Johanna has been totally destroyed by fire, which badly damaged the adjoining rectory. The sacred vessels were rescued from the altar by Father Elias Gojdich, the rector, who entered the building at great risk.

Lee Anniversary Observed.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 20.—The anniversary of the birthday of General Robert E. Lee of the Southern Confederacy was observed throughout the south. Many schools and banks were closed in his honor. Memorial services were held in many cities.

Stamford Has It Forty-two Below.

STAMFORD, N. Y., Jan. 20.—The temperature here last night was 42 degrees below zero.

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

TRIMMINGS AND MATERIALS

Horizontal Tuckings and Pipings. Crushed Plush In Moleskin Shades.

Trimmings and tuckings have grown horizontal instead of vertical on gowns. The most fashionable skirt of the moment is made full around the waist line, and it begins to be trimmed at the knees with wide entredeux of lace, sometimes edged with fur and wide tucks.

The full skirt and the round bertha, together with the decolletage drooping off the shoulders, are reminiscent of the early Victorian period. The shawl is to be revived, experts say, but just now it takes the form of graceful cape effects trimmed with fringe, and these are seen even in fur, notably ermine trimmed with black and white chenille fringe or, better still, a fringe made of the tails.

GRAY CLOTH DRESS.

Velvet gowns are the thing for evening and afternoon wear. They are made quite plainly, with a touch of fine lace at the neck and at the big sleeve puffs.

Crushed plush in moleskin shades forms some of the smartest costumes. These are made quite simply, with a little, loose hanging coat having wide sleeve ruffles of yellow lace. Sometimes a coat of this description is worn with a skirt of gray cloth similar in shade. The picture shows a gray cloth gown trimmed with rosettes of gun metal velvet and rows of dyed lace. There is a cape effect bordered with fur. With this is worn a picture hat of black velvet.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHIONABLE COLORS.

Purple From Deep to Pale Tones All the Rage—Kid Trimmings.

There is a great vogue of purple now, from the pale shades to the deepest tones of violet, in cloth or velvet for street wear. Pale heliotrope crepe de chine is one of the dressiest costumes a woman can have, and this should be trimmed with chiffon and touches of embroidery.

There are some new materials in cream and white. They have a very rough surface and are embroidered in spots, either blue or black.

Red cloth and velvet of all shades are still much seen, and this is trimmed with bands of fur and oriental embroideries.

Muffs and stoles are if anything increasing in size. They are not only becoming more fantastic, for the muffs are shirred into jeweled buckles, and the stoles droop far over the shoulders and are trimmed with jeweled clasps, lace and even artificial flowers.

Ruchings are used on hats as well as gowns, and the favorites, made of satin, chiffon velvet and chiffon, ornament the brims of otherwise plain hat shapes.

Odd shapes in pale tinted felt are considered smarter than velvet in the millinery world. They are trimmed with shaded velvet bows or flowers.

Leather is used as a trimming on many of the smart walking suits. The kid and suede is of course very pliable and makes very smart belts or the folds held together by a jeweled buckle.

The illustration shows a deep purple cloth costume having a bolero trimmed with tails. The hat is of rough felt trimmed with a single large bird. The muff is of yellow lace and sable.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

DEATH OF CITIZEN TRAIN.

End of Unique Character Who Was Presidential Candidate.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—George Francis Train is dead at the Mills hotel of heart failure resulting from chronic nephritis or Bright's disease. Although he had been ailing for a long time and had grown correspondingly feeble with the progress of the disease, Mr. Train had been about the hotel as usual up to a short time before his death. One of his relatives was with him when he died.

George Francis Train was born in Boston March 24, 1829. His entire family when he was three years old died of yellow fever in New Orleans. He entered his grandfather's office in the shipping business in 1844 and the next year was at the head of the Liverpool office.

In 1858, after having been very successful in business in Australia, he went to London and floated the bonds of the Atlantic and Great Western railroad. He interested English capitalists in the project of starting street railways in London, but his intense partisanship during the civil war in this country caused a revulsion of feeling.

During the Beecher-Tilton trial he made himself famous in his attacks on Beecher and was imprisoned in the Tombs six months for indecent writing. In 1863, after having organized the Union Pacific railroad, he broke ground for the first construction work at Omaha.

He organized the Credit Mobiler and the Credit Foncier schemes. In 1868 he was independent candidate for the presidency. He made the circuit of the earth five times and lectured in almost every city in the country. His writings have been published all over the world.

KID KNOCKED OUT CHOYNSKI.

Two Minutes In the First Round Only Were Needed.

BOSTON, Jan. 20.—Kid Carter of Brooklyn knocked out Joe Choynski of Chicago after two minutes of fighting in the first round before the Criterion Athletic club last night. Choynski had the better of the round up to the knockout, when Carter landed a vicious right hand jab for the stomach, and the Chicago man went down and out.

The blow looked low to the spectators, and the referee's decision awarding the bout to Carter was greeted with cries of "Foul!" Choynski was out nearly four minutes and appeared in great distress. The men were matched to fight fifteen rounds.

Racing at Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—Close finishes and the success of long shots were features of the racing at Oakland. Sir Preston, at 7 to 1, took the first race by a nose from Lady Kent. Antolee, a 15 to 1 chance, gained a nose victory over Silurian in the fifth race. Rockaway won the six furlong handicap easily. J. Martin rider of Kigrette, claimed Rockaway interfered with his mount, and the judges fined Bell $25.

British Visit Tibetan Camp.

CHUMBI, Valley of Sikkim, British India, Jan. 20.—The general staff of the British expedition to Tibet, accompanied by a mountain battery, has returned to Chumbi. They report that Colonel Younghusband, with two officers, visited the Tibetan camp at Guru and met with an insolent reception. Up to the present there has been no hostile act on the part of the Tibetans.

Victory Over the Ice.

NANTUCKET, Mass., Jan. 20.—The captain of the steamer Nantucket having received orders not to be frozen in here at any hazard, succeeded in breaking through the ice after a two hours' battle. Nantucket harbor is closed with ice, and the sound for miles northward is packed with huge floes. A four masted schooner has been caught near the Cross Rip light.

Stolen Books Found In New York.

BOSTON, Jan. 20. — The copy of Hawthorne's "Fanshawe," valued at $400, and other valuable books alleged to have been stolen from the Boston Public library by Frederick H. Bates, who is under arrest, were brought to Boston from New York by W. H. Lee of the Boston library. The books were recovered in an art and book auction room in New York.

Japan's New Cruiser at Perim.

ISLAND OF PERIM, Red Sea, Jan. 20.—The Japanese armored cruiser Niasin, formerly of the Argentine navy, has arrived here from Suez. She reports all well on board.

Eighty-three Herefords Burned.

EMPORIA, Kan., Jan. 20.—Eighty-three head of high bred Hereford cattle, valued at $22,000, were burned to death in a barn on C. A. Stannard's ranch here.

THE New York Times

"All the News That's Fit to Print."

Gives more space to news than any other New York newspaper. It prints a greater variety of news. It gives impartial news free from bias. It goes into homes that bar other newspapers. It is a sane newspaper, neat in typography, rational in its news treatment, and independent in its opinions. It has refused to appeal to the vicious, the ignorant or the thoughtless.

Special Cable News is one of the most important features of THE NEW YORK TIMES. The London Times' foreign reports appear in this country exclusively in THE NEW YORK TIMES. No other American newspaper excels THE NEW YORK TIMES in the presentation of Domestic Telegraphic news. The Associated Press reports are augmented by hundreds of Special Correspondents.

The New York Times

is now appearing every Sunday

Improved and Enlarged

A departure of the Magazine Supplement which accompanies each number of the Sunday Edition of THE NEW YORK TIMES is the introduction of Cartoons and Illustrations. The many bright, breezy, entertaining articles are brightened by illustrations from the pens of well-known artists.

New features will be constantly introduced to improve the Magazine, but the old friend, THE MAN IN THE STREET, will remain to amuse people with his bright, chatty and clever stories of men and women who figure prominently in the news and events of the day.

The News Section of

The Sunday Edition of

will be as interesting as it always is—readers of the SUNDAY TIMES may depend on getting "all the news that's fit to print" promptly, accurately and well told.

The Financial Quotation Supplement which accompanies the SUNDAY EDITION of THE NEW YORK TIMES covers all transactions in Stocks, Bonds and Investment securities—both listed and unlisted. It includes capitalization of corporations—dividends—date and rate, the fluctuations in quotations for the closing week—high and low price for both the current year and the year preceding, and other information indispensable to either investor or speculator to aid him in solving financial problems. The Quotation Supplement is kept on file by all banks and financial institutions for daily references.

The New York Times

Saturday Review of Books

Which accompanies the Saturday Edition, treats books as news. The book publishers of the country have made THE NEW YORK TIMES SATURDAY REVIEW OF BOOKS their preferred medium for announcements of new publications.

POSTAL FRAUDS' TRIAL.

Evidence as to the Groff Fastener Showed Overcharge of $1.05.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The trial of August W. Machen and the others indicted with him for conspiracy to defraud the government is proceeding rapidly. The government put in evidence a number of documents having a direct bearing on the dealings of the Groff brothers with Machen's division in the postoffice department, and bank officials gave testimony concerning the deposits of the Groffs and the checks drawn against these deposits.

The fact was brought out by two witnesses representing firms which manufactured the Groff fasteners that the price to the Groffs of the complete fastener was 25 cents, with a rebate of 5 cents on each fastener conditioned on prompt settlement of bills.

The price at which the fasteners were furnished to the government at first was fixed at $1.50 each, but later it was reduced to $1.25 each.

A flurry was created during one stage of the proceedings when Attorney Kumler, representing the Lorenzes, complained to the court that Postoffice Inspector Walter S. Mayer had been talking to witnesses before they came on the stand. Mayer denied the charge. When subsequently the matter cropped out again and Attorney Kumler said he had positive information that Mayer committed the offense Judge Pritchard rebuked the inspector and warned him against its repetition. District Attorney Beach demanded an affidavit to prove the assertion, which Mr. Kumler said he would furnish later in the day, but the matter apparently was allowed to drop as the affidavit was not presented.

HEARSE DRIVERS BEATEN.

Strikers Attack Returning Funeral Parties at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.—Five coal wagon drivers, temporarily placed by Chris Schwacker on five carriages ordered for the funeral of Peter Comis, a Greek merchant, were waylaid, beaten and routed by fifteen men said to be members of the cabmen's union returning from Calvary cemetery. One carriage was driven into a ditch and left there. Policemen arrested John Thralike, a cabman, who is charged with taking part in the attack. The others escaped.

Members of the cabmen's union are on strike for higher wages and for an arrangement of other differences. Schwacker says he put the coal drivers on because the order for the five carriages was a "rush" one, and he could not find cabmen to drive. He says the men drove to the cemetery without interference.

Some of the five drivers received bruises and black eyes.

At the Blair funeral before the casket was brought from the house there was a threat that the funeral would not move unless a carriage belonging to a prescribed livery firm and driven by a man not approved by the union drivers of the other carriages was taken out of line. A negro driver of one of the other carriages made the threat directly to the gentleman who had engaged the carriage. Assurance was given that the carriage would not be kept in line, and the matter ended.

SPORTING NEWS.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Roselle Casino bowling team will visit the Park Club, Friday night, and compete for honors in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament. It is said that the Park team has been practicing of late and will give its opponents a surprise.

The schedule for the second round of matches in the Y. M. C. A. Bowling League of Northern New Jersey was arranged at a meeting in Newark, Monday night. C. B. Koons, secretary of the local league, represented the local association. Plainfield will meet Passaic, Saturday, at Passaic, and Summit, at Summit, Wednesday. A sleighing trip for the members of the association is planned to go to Summit on the same night. Plainfield and Rahway will bowl Friday, Feb. 5.

BASKET BALL.

The next basket ball game on the schedule for the first team of the local Y. M. C. A. on the home floor is that with Orange Feb. 15. It is probable, however, that other games will be arranged to be played here before that time. An attempt is being made to secure a game for next Monday night.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The Y. M. C. A. bowling team will roll at Passaic, Saturday night. The Business Men's team of the Y. M. C. A. will play basket ball with the second team from Passaic on the same night. The Passaic combination will include three men from the first team.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Iona Council, D. of P., will adopt several palefaces at tonight's meeting.

The Knights of the Golden Eagle received eight applications for membership at their regular meeting last night.

The Fellowcraft Degree was conferred by Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., at a regular communication held last night."

W. N. Runyon, of this city, was present at the installation of a new lodge of Elks at Montclair, Monday night. The new lodge will be known as Montclair Lodge, No. 891. The Judge entertained at the piano and sang "Cassidy's Christening."

HOUNDS FOR RUNS TO BE HELD HERE

Dr. M. O'M. Knott Says Animals Were Purchased by Subscriptions for Purpose.

ORGANIZATION'S PLANS

IDEA TO HOLD RUNS ON WEDNESDAYS AND SATURDAYS.

One Event Scheduled for Today—Similar Clubs in Other Places—Believed That Plainfielders Will Enjoy the Sport.

Dr. M. O'M. Knott says that the hounds spoken of as his in The Daily Press of Monday are not his private property, although he has had the privilege of getting them together. Several people have subscribed for their purchase. Anyone interested in the sport will be welcome to ride in the runs.

As previously stated, it is planned to have runs every Wednesday and Saturday afternoons when the weather will permit, the idea being to arouse an interest in this sport. It is not unlikely that in the near future a regular club will be organized and a schedule of runs be decided upon. Successful clubs of this character are maintained in other places and it is the opinion of Dr. Knott and others that there are a sufficient number of Plainfielders to make a strong club here.

The run last Saturday was attended with many pleasant features. The course covered about three miles and the hounds took the scent very well, considering that they are just being trained and that the work is new to them. Another run is scheduled for this afternoon.

HOPE BASKET BALL.

The Y. M. A. Re-enters Arena With Promise of Many Game With Strong Teams.

A basket ball revival for Hope Y. M. A. was started last night. George Firstbrook was appointed manager of the team, with James Montross and George McComb as assistants. A schedule of two games weekly will be arranged to include teams from this city, Elizabeth, Rahway, Westfield and other near-by places.

All candidates for the team will report for first practise next Monday and Tuesday and a game will probably be played the latter part of next week.

Sleigh Upset.

A light one-seat sleight owned by Mrs. Adolph Hagerdorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Arens, was upset and partially wrecked this morning on West Front street. Mrs. Hagerdorn was shopping about town and a colored coachman was in charge of the rig. The sleigh got between the car tracks and in making a short turn to get out, the coachman was thrown out and the sleigh overturned. Only the quick action of a bystander prevented the horse from running away. The coachman was uninjured. The horse was taken home and the sleigh was removed to a carriage-repair shop, while another rig was obtained from Mrs. Hagerdorn's home.

Amicable Settlement.

The P. H. Pound and Brother contract case against Carrie Pierson in Justice Hand's court has been amicably settled. E. J. Blatz, Esq., represented the plaintiff.

Case on Contract.

The case on contract of Griffen against James E. Totten in Justice Hand's court will be heard January 27. The plaintiff is represented by L. A. Clement, Esq.

THE STATE'S SILK INDUSTRY

PRODUCTION OF SILK GOODS IN NEW JERSEY DURING 1903.

Part 1 of the report of the Bureau of Statistics of New Jersey for 1903, now in the hands of the printer, contains the statistics of manufactures of the State for the year 1903. Among the industries for which figures are given, the most important in the number of persons employed, capital invested and value of products, is the silk industry. Including the dye houses and throwing-mills, there are 165 establishments engaged in the production of silk goods. Of these, 84 are owned and managed by private firms, and 81 are under the corporate form of management. The number of partners included in the private firms is 147; of these 143 are males, and four females.

The corporations have 451 stockholders, of which number 393 are males, and 52 are females, and six are banks acting as trustees for the estates of minors. The aggregate number of partners and stockholders or the total number of persons whose money is invested in the industry and who control its operations is 598.

The aggregate amount of capital invested in all the establishments is $24,872,624. The aggregate value of stock or material used is $27,819,826. The principal item of stock is, of course, raw silk, of which 5,087,192 pounds, valued at $21,380,045 was used. The product consisted of broad and ribbon silk, the quantities of which cannot be given in a uniform standard of measure because of the varieties of forms used by the firms in reporting; some being by yards, and others by pieces and cartons without naming the number of yards which these contain. The total selling value of the goods produced reached the enormous sum of $47,849,608. The number of persons employed during the year is as follows:

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Average	14,968	12,022	26,990
Smallest	12,541	10,936	23,4 7
Greatest	16,064	12,615	28,679

The total amount paid in wages during the year to this army of working men and women was $11,089,184, and the average yearly earnings per employe are shown to be $410.86. A classification of employes shows the percentage of weekly earnings:

	Males.	Females.

A majority of the establishments were operated during every working day in the year, that is to say, for 306 days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays. There were, however, a sufficient number whose working time was broken by one or another cause, not a few being from strikes, to reduce the average number of working days for the entire industry to 285, or 21 days less than full time.

The production of silk and silk goods is the principal manufacturing industry of New Jersey. It gives employment to a large number of persons and pays out more money in wages than any other single line of manufacture carried on in the State. The following figures show the number of persons employed, the cost value of stock or material used, and the selling value of the silk goods produced in the United States and in New Jersey for the year 1900:

	U. S.	N. J.	P. C.
Average persons employed	65,416	24,157	37.0
Value of material	$60,406,665	$21,631,118	35.8
Selling value produced	107,256,258	39,966,662	37.3

Not only was New Jersey the first State in the Union in the production of silk goods in 1900, but from its mills came, as shown above, much more than one-third of the country's entire output. In the two years that elapsed since 1900, the average number of persons employed in the industry in New Jersey has increased 2,833, or 11.8 per cent.; the value of stock or materia' used in the manufacture of goods has increased $6,188,708, or 26.6 per cent.; and the selling value of the goods produced has increased $7,883,941, or 19.7 per cent.

Services for Mrs. Feickert.

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Feickert, widow of the late Charles J. Feickert, and mother of Edward F. Feickert, will be held from her late residence, 504 East Front street, tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock. The interment, which will be private, will be at Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn, on Friday. The services will be conducted by Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector of Grace church. Mrs. Feickert was seventy years of age and had been an invalid for a number of years.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

The Hearst boom has at last what seems to be a solid foundation in New Jersey. The Bricklayers and Masons' International Union, in session at Trenton, Saturday, practically indorsed that aspirant for the Democratic Presidential nomination. There is some fear, however, that the weather was so cold that the foundation may be discovered to be insecure when the frost is drawn out of the mortar.—Newark News.

Stop the Brutality.

After the brutal exhibition at Guttenberg this week, when 1,800 frightened pigeons were killed and mangled as they fluttered from the traps, the Legislature ought not to hesitate any longer about enacting a law which will enable the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to stop such exhibitions. True sportsmen everywhere should join in the demand for such an act, not only because it is brutal, but because it is humiliating to have the men who kill birds in that way class themselves among gentlemen who are real sportsmen.—Hoboken Observer.

State Auditor Desirable.

Governor Murphy's suggestion in his message to the Legislature that the office of Auditor of State Accounts be created, ought to command more than usual considerable. The proposition is in line with the idea expressed in a bill introduced in the Legislature last winter which provided for a board of governors whose duty it would be to control the affairs of all the public institutions of the State. The board of governors' scheme was not a popular one because it contemplated removing from the management of the various institutions many men and women who had given their time and attention to the work for many years gratuitously and enjoyed the honor of their positions. It was not popular, too, because it meant a largely increased annual expenditure in the form of salaries. As we understand it, it would be the duty of an auditor of State accounts to examine all bills contracted by the State institutions, determine whether or not the money had been honestly spent and certify to the correctness of the accounts of the State Comptroller. The suggestion offers a safeguard to the State against errors, either willful or accidental, in the disposition of its funds and it seems as if the office would be worth to the State all that it might reasonably cost. It would not be a bad idea to try the experiment.—Trenton State Gazette.

FOOTBALL MAKING.

London Manufacturer Gives Some Interesting Information About the Business.

Yes, sir, remarked a well known maker of footballs, it is surprising how few people, even veteran footballers, have any idea of the amount of labor and skill that is expended in making this necessary adjunct of the national winter game, says London Tit-Bits.

The leather we use is "split" cowhide. Ordinary cowhide is too thick for the regulation weight, so it has to be split into two parts. The outer, or hair side, is what we make the best balls with. Previous to splitting the leather has been soaking in the tan-pits for 10 or 12 months. Some makers cure their hides in six weeks by "faking" with chemicals, but leather so treated won't make a good ball.

The "split" hide is well softened with dubbin and then passed on to the cutter, who cuts out the various sections, which, when sewn together, make a perfectly round ball. The method of doing this is kept a trade secret by most makers; but I don't mind telling you that in my factory I use tin plates the exact size of the sections required. All the cutter has to do is to place one of these on the leather and cut out the shape with a sharp knife. These shapes are taken in hand by expert sewers, and soon the outer cover is ready for the bladder.

This is made of the best Para rubber, and involves even more care in its construction than the leather cover itself. It is of immense strength, and is an expensive item, representing nearly half the cost of manufacture. The next operation is the inflation of the ball. This is done in a second by machinery, and then the ball is laced up. However, even yet it is not complete, for it still has to pass through the hands of the shaper, who pats down any inequalities in the seams or contour of the ball. It now stands the finished article, ready to afford exercise and amusement to the thousands of players and spectators who annually follow the great winter pastime.

Do we send many footballs abroad? Yes, we do a large export trade. You see, Tommy Atkins takes his Soccer and Rugger balls along with him to every quarter of the globe; except, perhaps, Central Africa, where it is rather warm for the game. The missionaries, too, are good customers, and have introduced football to the natives of many lands. And first-class players some of these natives make, too, I am told. I would give a trifle to see a game between them and one of our crack elevens, such as Woolwich Arsenal or Sheffield United.

HORSE THIEF MADE FULL CONFESSION

Charles Brown Admitted to Chief Kiely That He Stole Pocock's Horse Among Others.

TRIED TO HANG HIMSELF

TIED HANDKERCHIEF TO BARS OF CELL AND ABOUT HIS NECK.

Cut Down by Alex. Ayres—Perth Amboy Saloon Keeper, Rabinowitz, Arrested for Receiving Horses and Selling Them.

Charles Brown, who was arrested here Wednesday on a charge of stealing horses, made a full confession of his guilt to Chief of Police Kiely yesterday afternoon. He admitted the theft of seven or eight horses, including that of Dr. Pocock's for which he was arrested. He confessed only after considerable urging, his admissions going to prove that he is one of the most important captures made in some time by the local police.

Brown made an attempt to hang himself Tuesday night after his capture. He tied his handkerchief around his neck attached it to the bars and let himself go, when his groans attracted Alexander Ayres from the outer office at the police station. Ayres cut him down quickly before he was much hurt. Brown said afterwards that he was "only bluffing" and did not really expect to kill himself.

The fellow was identified yesterday by Nief Apgar, a Somerville liveryman, and by Dr. Eanerrost and David Cooley, of Newark, as well as by a man from the Lawrence livery stable of Newark, from all of whom he had stolen horses and rigs. His method in each case was a slight variation of the one adopted in this city, when he told Dr. Pocock that he wanted the horse to deliver sewing machines.

Acting on information obtained in the man's confession, Chief Kiely and Patrolman McCarthy went to Perth Amboy last night and after a long hunt arrested Jacob Rabinowitz, a saloon keeper of that place, on a charge of receiving stolen goods. The arrest caused a sensation in Perth Amboy.

Rabinowitz admitted having received horses from Brown but denied that he knew they were stolen. He gave bonds in $100 to appear in this city for a hearing next Wednesday at 2 in the afternoon. He is on trial at New Brunswick today, the charge against him there being the keeping of a disorderly house. He is represented by Walter Gloeckner, Esq., of Perth Amboy and Former Judge Cohenhoven, of New Brunswick. Rabinowitz is a saloon keeper in Perth Amboy. He was at one time a dealer in horses.

Brown's hearing was adjourned this afternoon. He will appear for trial with Rabinowitz in Justice Huff's court next Wednesday afternoon.

JOLLY SLEIGHING PARTIES

LOTS OF FUN FOR YOUNG AND OLD ON THE FROZEN HIGHWAYS.

A number of young people from the Seventh-Day Baptist church enjoyed a sleigh ride on Tuesday night. The affair was arranged by Miss Weeks, with the assistance of a number of other young women. W. H. Rogers was the chaperone.

A jolly lot of young folks from this city were out last night on a sleighing party. Gordon Stewart arranged the trip which included Plainfield and vicinity. During the evening the young folks stopped at L. W. Randolph's drug store and had hot soda.

Twenty-five young people from Raritan came to Plainfield last night in a large box sleigh drawn by four horses. They all carried horns of various sizes and there was every indication that the party were enjoying themselves fully.

Injured While Sledding.

The danger of coasting down the driveway leading from the railroad station to East Fourth street was indicated yesterday afternoon by an accident which happened to one of the boys, William Jones, who ran into a passing wagon and was painfully injured. The coast runs directly across the street railway tracks and serious injury to one of the boys is possible at any time.

—Maynard's barber shop will be reopened on Saturday.

The report that Dr. T. S. Davis, of Park avenue, is taking a vacation, is untrue. He is busy with his practice.

HOLLAND DESCRIBED AT CHURCH SOCIAL

An Instructive Entertainment Given by the W. S. for C. W. of Seventh-Day Church.

PROGRAMME IN DETAIL

SKETCH OF THE QUEEN AND OF HER HAPPY SUBJECTS.

Story of the Seventh-Day Baptist Church History in That Land—Vocal Solo and Duett—Those in Charge of the Affair.

"An Evening in Holland," was pleasantly spent at the Seventh-Day Baptist church last night, under the auspices of the Woman's Society for Christian Work. Mrs. George H. Babcock read the Scripture and Rev. George B. Shaw, pastor of the church, offered a prayer. Mrs. William C. Hubbard read a paper telling of Holland and its people and their characteristics.

A piano duett by Mrs. Frank J. Hubbard and Miss Eloise Santee was followed by a short sketch of "Queen Wilhelmina. As the story was presented three stages in the life of the Queen were given by Helen Ford, representing girlhood; Miss Bessy Fitz Randolph, young womanhood, and Mrs. Oscar Ellis, the Queen as she is today. Each was in costume. Mrs. James S. Kimball read the story.

After a vocal solo by Mr. Shaw, Mrs. Sarah Wardner presented a paper telling of the history of the Seventh-Day Baptist church in Holland, where several local persons are now engaged in mission work. Among them is Ferd Bakker, who formerly resided in this city.

This concluded the programme and the rest of the evening was spent socially. Refreshments were served by the Misses Nellie Williams, Eva Rogers, Bessie Dunham, Marie Rogers, Isabelle Randolph, Edna Randolph, Maggie Randolph and Kizzie Neagle. They were attired in Dutch costume.

Those in charge of the affair included Mrs. George H. Babcock, Mrs. T. C. Smith and Mrs. Thomas B. Titsworth.

A TARDY JUROR REPRIMANDED

CHIEF JUSTICE GUMMERE REBUKES FERDINAND SMITH FOR BEING LATE.

Ferdinand C. Smith, of this city, a juror in the county court, was severely reprimanded for tardiness yesterday by Chief Justice Gummere. Smith was juror in a case against the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light Company and when he failed to appear, Craig A. Marsh, Esq., for the plaintiff, said he was willing to try the case with eleven jurors. Smith rushed into the courtroom five minutes later.

Sharply questioned by the Chief Justice, Smith made the excuse of having missed a train. The lawyers suggested that the testimony taken previous to Smith's appearance be read to him by the court stenographer, but the Judge refused to allow it.

"Take your seat with the rest of the panel," thundered the angry Justice, and the Plainfielder retired crestfallen.

The case was tried before eleven men.

WANT A PASTOR.

Dunellen Presbyterian Church Congregation Hold a Meeting Without Results.

A congregational meeting was held last night in the Presbyterian church, Dunellen, called for the purpose of extending a call to a minister to become the pastor of the church. Rev. J. O. McKelvey, of Warren chapel, presided at the meeting. After an informal discussion, it was decided to take no action at present. The names of candidates who have been considered were given up and it was decided to continue the search for a pastor.

Alls' Baseball Schedule.

Although the Alls Club baseball schedule for 1904 has not yet been made up, it is about decided to open the season on Saturday, May 28, two days before Decoration Day, and the baseball management will endeavor to have the opening game with the Seventh Regiment team of New York. The idea is to open the season with strong teams and secure games of that calibre throughout the season.

PUPILS SHOULD NOT GIVE TO THE HOSPITAL

Former City Judge Runyon Calls Board of Education's Attention to a Practice.

DOUBTFUL PROPRIETY

SCHOOL CHILDREN NOT NEEDED TO HELP INSTITUTION.

"Teachers are not paid for Dragooning Scholars into Furnishing Supplies for the Hospital" Says the Writer.

The following communication from Former City Judge Nelson N. Runyon explains itself:

Editor, The Daily Press:—My attention has just been called to a custom, in vogue in our public schools, whereby the teachers request that contributions be brought by the scholars to the school for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital. However good the intent of the teachers may be in this matter, the establishment or continuation of such a custom is of doubtful propriety, to say the least. When, however, on failure on behalf of the scholars to furnish what, in the opinion of a principal of one of our schools, was but a poor and beggarly contribution in comparison with what some other school had furnished, this principal took occasion to severely rebuke her scholars therefor, it is time that the Board of Education called a halt.

These teachers are not paid for dragooning the scholars into furnishing supplies for the hospital or any other charitable institution of our town; especially as in more than one instance in the matter referred to, I am informed the scholars' cheeks were caused to tingle because of inability to contribute to the general fund. Nelson Runyon,

FEES INSTEAD OF SALARIES

BILL INTRODUCED IN SENATE FIXING SCALE OF COUNTY OFFICERS' PAY.

A bill has been introduced in the Senate by Senator Jackson, of Middlesex, which is in accord with the recommendation of Governor Murphy in his annual message, to the effect that the county officers throughout the State be placed upon salaries instead of receiving compensation in the form of fees.

Mr. Jackson's bill provides that surrogates, registrars of wills, county clerks and sheriffs who are now remunerated by the fees attached to their offices be paid salaries, and that the fees at present received by these officers be paid over to the counties.

The bill fixes the following schedule of salaries in the various counties for these officers:

Counties of more than 200,000 population, $7,500 per year; 100,000 to 200,000, $6,000 per year: 80,000 to 100,000, $5,000; 70,000 to 80,000, $4,000; 50,000 to 70,000, $3,500; 335,000 to 50,000, $2,000; 20,000 to 35,000, $2,000; less than 20,000, $1,500.

Lecture Before Camera Club.

John L. Yatman, an expert on lenses, will give a lecture next Monday night under the auspices of the Plainfield Camera Club. He will explain the various kinds of lenses, tell of their uses and explain the art of photography in detail. Persons interested in this subject and wishing information can write out their answers and leave them with J. Hervey Doane, of Park avenue, and they will be forwarded; or they can attend the lecture, which will be free, and ask such questions as they desire at that time.

Invitations to Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester F. Randolph, of West Eighth street, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Sadie Louise Randolph, and William H. Abbott, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Abbott, of West Front street. The marriage will be celebrated Wednesday night, Feb. 3, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother, Edward S. F. Randolph, 927 Park avenue. Rev. C. E. Herring, of the First Presbyterian church, will perform the ceremony.

Election of Directors.

At the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A., tonight, six directors will be elected. Those whose terms expire are J. Herbert Case, H. O. Newman, R. H. Radford, George M. Rittenhouse, Curtis M. Thorpe and John Valiant.

A SYNDICATE INCORPORATED

PLAINFIELD MEN ORGANIZE A COMPANY TO DEAL IN LAND.

In the office of the county clerk at Elizabeth a certificate of incorporation has been filed by the Assured Investors' Syndicate, the principal office of which is located in this city. The incorporators are Lemuel B. Woolston, H. W. Marshall, Elias H. Bird, Morris C. VanArsdale and William N. Runyon, all of Plainfield.

The incorporation is formed for the purpose of taking or acquiring by purchase, lease, exchange, hire or otherwise, any lands or real estate. The authorized capital stock is $35,000, divided into 12,500 shares at a par value of $10 each. The company begins business with $5,000.

BOARD OF HEALTH'S NOTICE

In view of the fact that a case of small-pox has been reported, this Board of Health would advise everyone who was in the barber shop of Edwin B. Maynard, 141 North avenue, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week and Monday and Tuesday of this week, January 14, 15, 16, 18 and 19, to be VACCINATED WITHOUT DELAY.

We would further notify the public that Mr. Maynard has closed his barber shop for the present in order to thoroughly clean and disinfect everything therein; this work is being done under the direction of this Board of Health. So that on Saturday, when the above barber shop is opened to the public, it will be clean and absolutely free from any contagion.

As small-pox is once again amongst us, we would take this opportunity to inform the public of the urgent need of general vaccination. Everyone in the City of Plainfield who has not had a successful vaccination within five years, should be vaccinated without delay. Charles J. Fisk.

WORK AT POND'S.

More Orders This Month Than Last But Work is Still Somewhat Slack.

There was a report in circulation last night that the Pond Machine Tool Works is about to receive a large contract and that the prospects for the works returning to the full force and time are good. Inquiry at the works today only brought the information that more orders were received this month than last. At present the entire night gang and one-half of the men employed in the foundry are out, while the same number of day men are employed in the machine shop.

MISSION HOME.

Shelter and Christian Help to be Given to Fallen Women—Other Comforts.

A "Plainfield Union Mission Home" is to be established, Mrs. Lue O'Brien and Mrs. Edward J. Perrin being the organizers. The home will be located on Front street, west of the Baptist church, where it is planned to hold services every night at 8 o'clock. The object of the home will be to "preach the Gospel to the needy and administer aid to fallen women."

ANOTHER WIFE BEATER.

Frank Schaefer Arrested on That Charge and is now in the Borough Lockup.

Frank Schaeffer, of the borough, was arrested this morning by Marshal George Weiss on a charge of wife-beating. He is confined in the borough lock-up in a cell directly opposite that of Adam Fritz, who is serving a seven day sentence on the same charge. Both men are Germans. Schaeffer is accused of having hit his wife with a stone jug.

Trustees Re-Elected.

Application for renewal of permission to preach was granted Frank E. Whiteside last night at the quarterly conference of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church. Walter M. McGee and Blanchard E. Randolph were elected trustees to serve three years. They succeed themselves. Howard L. Cox and W. H. Stine were the newly-elected members of the Board of Stewards. These members were re-elected: John T. Stafford, T. W. Jacobs, N. Mansfield Smith, John P. Thompson, E. H. Beekman, J. J. Praed, Theodore Van Pelt, Nicholas Brouard, Mrs. I. P. LaRue, Mrs. Nicholas Brouard, Mrs. Theo. Van Pelt, Mrs. D. P. Hicks.

—Normer Gray, of New York, has leased a residence on West Front street, near Clinton avenue, and will take possession February 1.

WEDDED JANUARY 12

THE CEREMONY TOOK PLACE IN ST. JAMES' CHURCH, NEWARK.

Groom Was Formerly Rector of St. John's Church, Somerville—Succeeded Rev. W. Vincent Dawson at St. Stephen's.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Ella A. Brown, daughter of the late George P. Brown, of Newark, and Rev. William R. Harris, rector - in - charge of St. Stephen's church, on Ravine road, and former rector of St. John's church, Somerville. The couple was married in St. James' Episcopal church, Newark, on Tuesday, January 12, by Rev. William H. Vibert, of New York, assisted by Rev. Cyrus B. Durand, rector of the church.

The bride was dressed in white mulle over white taffeta, with a veil, and both bride and groom were unattended. A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride in Newark.

Mr. Harris resides on Martine avenue, and soon after the acceptance of the resignation of Rev. W. Vincent Dawson, as rector of St. Stephen's church, Mr. Harris was secured as a successor and upon his return from a wedding trip he will reside on Ravine road and at once take up his new duties at the church.

DISINFECTING BARBER SHOP

PLACE WHERE SMALL-POX PATIENT WORKED BEING CLEANSED.

With a desire to take every precaution, Edward Maynard, the North avenue barber, closed his shop this morning for the purpose of having it thoroughly cleaned and fumigated by the Board of Health. Alexander Stills, one of Mr. Maynard's assistants, was taken ill last Saturday and yesterday the physicians pronounced his trouble that of small-pox. Mr. Stills worked at the shop on Saturday, but it was not until Monday night that the eruption appeared.

In the cleaning-up process at the shop nothing will be left undone in making the place perfectly safe and after all rules have been complied with the Board of Health will stand by Mr. Maynard.

MRS. HULBERT BURIED.

Rev. Drs. Bryan and Snodgrass Officiated at the Funeral Services.

The funeral services of Mrs. Ira G. Hulbert were held from the late residence on West Front street, yesterday afternoon. Rev. Dr. J. R. Bryan, assisted by Rev Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, were in charge of the services. These were the pall bearers: George Dell, W. H. Clarkson, F. H. Hopler and A. R. Gillman. The interment was in Rahway.

Plainfielder in Trouble.

The St. Louis police are holding a man who says his name is William McKinney and that he comes from Plainfield, on a complaint of attempting to bribe an officer. McKinney was arrested on complaint of a Salvation Army leader, who charged the theft of $1.27. Patrolman McKey, who made the arrest, said that McKinney offered him $1 on condition that he let him go.

Mrs. Coon's Funeral.

The funeral services of Mrs. Frances Coon, who died at her home on Grove street, Monday, were held yesterday afternoon from the Baptist church at Mt. Bethel. Rev. George Bowers officiated. The interment took place at Mt. Bethel and four nephews of the dead woman served as pall-bearers.

Mr. Frelinghuysen Dead.

Dumont Frelinghuysen, a retired lawyer and a brother of Former Senator Frelinghuysen, died this morning at his home in Somerville. He was very well known in a large circle of friends and highly esteemed by all.

Broke His Wrist.

James H. Searing, of Watchung avenue, broke his wrist this morning by a fall on the icy sidewalks of West Third street in front of Pollock's store.

—Dr. Dundon's coachman froze three fingers, yesterday. It is expected that they may have to be amputated.

ADAM FRITZ GIVEN HIS JUST DESERTS

Wife Beater and Profane Man Receives a Severe Sentence in the Borough Court.

MOST BITTERLY SCORED

MAYOR SMALLEY SHOWS NO MERCY ON THE PRISONER.

Ill Treated His Wife and Children—Considered a Bully in the Borough and Mayor Determined to Punish Him—Before Recorder Doud.

Accused of abusive treatment by his wife and children, and given a bitter raking-over by Mayor Newton B. Smalley, of the borough, Adam Fritz, of Somerset street, last night received "all that was coming" to him in Recorder Doud's court in the borough, including a sentence of seven days in the borough "cooler" and a $20 fine.

Yesterday morning, according to the evidence of Mrs. Fritz and her two daughters, Fritz acted in his home like a wild man, seizing his wife by the hair and throwing her to the floor, kicking his children brutally, and addressing them in the vilest language he could bring to his command. He was arrested and released on bail furnished by Joseph Blatz and for an hour or more before the trial last night he walked the borough streets talking profanely to all he met and boasting that the entire borough was afraid of him and that he "would show his wife up for what she was."

W. L. Hetfield, Jr., Esq., retained by the plaintiff, asked for leniency.

Mayor Smalley in addressing the court did not spare the prisoner.

"He has reached a point in his career," he told the court "where intimidation doesn't go and there is one man in the borough who is not afraid of him."

The Mayor told the story of Fritz's past life without sparing unpleasant detail. Mrs. Fritz, says the Mayor, pays all the family's bills including her husband's. Fritz keeps two or three cows and charges his wife for the use of the milk. The Mayor says Fritz will be fed on bread and water during his confinement.

ONE CASE OF SMALL-POX

ALEX. STILLS, COLORED, THE VICTIM, IS IN ISOLATION HOSPITAL.

Alexander Stills, colored, of East Second street, is ill with smallpox. He was taken ill last Saturday. Mr. Stills will be removed to the isolation hospital, tonight, where he will be cared for under the customary regulations of the Board of Health. Those who have come in contact with Mr. Stills have been vaccinated and every precaution has been taken to prevent the spread of the disease. It is believed that he contracted the disease in Passaic where he was on New Year's Day.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES.

L. R. Greenwood is Meeting With Much Success at Warren Chapel.

The evangelistic services were continued yesterday afternoon and last night at Warren chapel, under the direction of L. R. Greenwood, there being large congregations present at both meetings. Mr. Greenwood spoke with much power on the subject of "Decision," and he held the closest attention of all during his talk. Three services will be held today. The first one was held this morning at 10 o'clock, while there will be services this afternoon at 3 o'clock and again tonight at 7:45. A chorus choir assists, there being special music at the meetings.

CITIZENS ANGRY.

At Public Service Co.'s Inadequate Trolley Car Accommodations.

Almost every individual who has to ride in the cars of the Public Service Corporation in Essex, Union, Hudson, Bergen and Passaic Counties has a complaint to make. It is not the ordinary "kick," which is spasmodic and individual, but a concerated rumbling roar from all points of the compass. Everybody is protesting against lack of service, lack of heat and the general demoralization of the system.—New York Sun.

In Justice Mosher's Court.

Papers are returnable January 25 in Justice Mosher's court in the contract case of C. Frank French against Fred W. Hand. L. A. Clement, Esq., represents the plaintiff.

JAMES P. NORTHROP REPLIES TO ATTACK

Question of Discrepancy in Estate Peculiar One for Legal Discussion.

EXECUTORS VS. MASTER

LEGATEES GOT ALL THAT THE WILL AWARDED.

Every Dollar That Came into Executors' Hands was Applied to the Benefit of Legatees—Difference a Question of Law.

That there should have been a discrepancy of $27,000 between the master's and executors' reports in the estate of Charles A. Woolsey, of Jersey City, as told in yesterday's Daily Press, caused some talk inasmuch as one of the executors, James P. Northrop, who practices law in Exchange place, Jersey City, has resided here for twelve years and has served as a member of the North Plainfield Council for three years.

Mr. Northrop, one of the executors whose actions were criticised by the Master, Mr. Charles E. Hendrickson, Jr., was a very much surprised man when he heard the story of the filing of the Master's report. After perusing it carefully he said:

"Why this statement is a surprise to me. There is very little to be said by me about it beyond this: Every dollar which came into the executors' hands was applied to the benefit of the legatees and the only question here is whether the amounts which the Master says are chargeable to us are chargeable at all. The fact is we didn't get these amounts. We paid out everything which we were authorized to do, and there is no discrepancy. You can't eat your bread and still have it, you know. However the Court will decide these legal questions."

Judge Charles L. Carrick, who was counsel for the executors, discussed Mr. Hendrickson's report, and his conclusions were on all fours with the opinion of Mr. Northrop as to the technicality of the alleged discrepancy of $27,000 between the reports.

"The Master and us agree on one fact, that undoubtedly it is a matter of fact that whatever moneys came into the hands of the executors were paid out. The only questions between us are strictly legal ones. I may say further that they are not within the jurisdiction of the Orphans' Court, but may be raised in the Court of Chancery and if the charge sought to be made against the executors that they had left the investments of the estate where they found them be established why they can readily claim all liabilities from so doing. The only persons who could raise that question as to the discretion employed by the execution were creditors of the estate, and these have been paid every dollar due to them. The legatees, Miss Alice Woolsey, Mrs. Virginia Woolsey and Mrs. S. A. Newell, have received all the moneys due to them under the provisions of the late C. A. Woolsey's will and the absurd contention is made that if these moneys had been paid to them as legacies the executors would have been exonerated, but because the executors paid the amounts under the name of annuities they are, forsooth, liable to pay them over again."

"Have these legatees been paid everything due to them by the terms of the will?" the Judge was asked.

"Every penny," he promptly replied.

Judge Carrick added that any proceeding in reference to the estate and the two reports would be by a bill in Chancery for the construction of the will of Mr. Woolsey, and to hold the executors liable for negligence in obeying its mandates.

"But even in that case," said the judge, "there is the clause in the will exonerating them from any liability whatever."

Tickets for Banquet.

Frank H. Smith, secretary of the Board of Trade, has a few tickets remaining for the banquet to be given on Thursday night, January 28, and he would like to dispose of the tickets by Saturday afternoon, not later than 2 o'clock, so that the committee in charge of the spread may know exactly how many to provide for.

If you really want tender and juicy meats you will trade with M. R. Giles, the Park avenue butcher. He sells only one kind of meat, that is the best.

A. M. Harper, the Park avenue stationer, is showing an excellent line of paper, envelopes and writing materials, as well as a complete line of toys and sporting goods.

Woolston & Buckle, the old and reliable firm of painters and paper-hangers, of North avenue, can be depended upon to do first-class work, and all contracts awarded the firm will be carefully attended to.

Putnam & DeGraw, the West Front street dry goods' merchants, have received a choice stock of white Madras goods for waists and the firm is also showing a handsome line of spring embroideries which is now on sale.

Persons in search of bargains in furs and cloaks will find what they want at the Boston Cloak and Fur Store on West Front street. These goods are all of the latest pattern and styles and represent big values for little money.

Most people when they once locate a good thing stick to it. That is why Peck, at his store on West Front street, has so many steady customers. Those who want the best dry and fancy goods know where to go. It is Peck's.

At the Rogers seafood market, on West Second street, you will find absolutely the best fish on the market. Always fresh and always low-priced. Rogers has the largest number of cutomers of any seafood market in Plainfield.

No patrons of T. Timbo & Co., of North avenue, ever leave that restaurant dissatisfied with the menu or service. Every day the same excellent and complete menu is served and you can get anything from a simple lunch to a full meal.

L. W. Randolph, the West Front street druggist, is making a specialty of hot water bottles in all sizes. They are the guaranteed kind and there is nothing more useful at this season of the year than one of these bottles. Mr. Randolph invites a share of your patronage, believing that he can please you.

"The Fair," on West Front street, is the popular place to secure bargains in women's suits, shirt waists, silk underskirts and a host of articles so useful to every woman's wardrobe. The stock carried by this house is exceptionally large and very desirable, representing the best manufacturers. You will find the prices quite reasonable.

One of the grandest offers of the season in men's suits and overcoats is made this week by Rothberg Brothers, of the New York Bargain Store. You will never again get an equal chance to buy an overcoat or suit of clothing at such record-breaking rates. Equally fine values are offered in boys' clothing, men's hats, and shoes for men, women and children. You get more for your money at the New York Bargain Store than at any other store in Plainfield.

LITERARY.

New York, most important of "doubtful States," will be a party and factional storm centre in the coming Presidential campaign. Democracy has a new stimulus in the rise of Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, by force of sensational ability to handle the most complex political machinery. David B. Hill is overshadowed. The party will fight a Republican organization torn by a struggle between an old man with an old machine behind him, and a young man with the vigor and skill to construct a machine of his own. The factional fight for leadership has a national interest at this time. Senator Thomas C. Platt is past seventy. When he sits through a long dinner his body droops with physical weariness, and he becomes childishly petulant. Benjamin B. Odell, Jr., Governor since 1900, is fifty. He was chairman of the Republican State Committee before Platt put him forward as a candidate for Governor to succeed Theodore Roosevelt, who, it was believed, had been sidetracked politically by Platt when he was made his party's candidate for Vice President.—Collier's Weekly.

ABSOLUTE FAITH.

You Can Depend Upon the Word of This Plainfield Citizen.

He has had the experience;
He has thoroughly tested the article;
He found it as represented;
He has absolute faith in its merit.

Mr. Jepp Zeusen, of 728 West Front street, pattern maker by trade, says: "For a year I had a sort of grinding pain across my back, at times extending up to my shoulders, and there was a lameness over my kidneys and severe headaches. When I stooped I always felt dizzy and sometimes was fairly blinded. In the mornings I felt stiff and sore until I got some exercise. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in my city paper and so highly recommended for kidney complaint that I went to L. W. Randolph's drug store and got a box. They did me a great deal of good. From my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills I cannot do otherwise than endorse them."

BOOK NEWS.

It is planned to issue on Thursday of each week items of library news. This will frequently take the form of book lists, such as lists of books recently added, lists on special subjects and like topics. Frequently the lists will be annotated, the aim being to make these annotations of real service to the reader, by giving him the opinion of a trustworthy critic as to the value of the books or a few words as to their scope. Borrowers should keep these lists. The Plainfield Public Library will furnish to anyone making application a list of its books on a given subject.

Morgan's Bill In the Senate to Annex Isthmian State.

SENATOR TALKS NICARAGUAN ROUTE

The Measure Provides For Payment of Sixty-five Millions as Compensation to Panama, Colombia and the Canal Company.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—In the senate Mr. Patterson and Mr. Platt spoke at length on the Panama canal question. Mr. Patterson declared that the president was largely responsible for the revolt in Panama and announced his decided preference for the Nicaragua route.

Mr. Platt took this pronouncement for Nicaragua as the text for his remarks. He said it explained the mystery of the otherwise unexplainable opposition on the part of the Democratic senators to the Panama treaty.

Mr. Patterson referred to the portion of the president's message, in which he stated that it had been his intention if Colombia did not accept our terms to submit to congress "the propriety of a direct arrangement with Panama or take what other steps might be needful in order to begin the canal enterprise." Such a proposition, Mr. Patterson declared, "would have been an insult to the dignity and honesty of congress." He repeated the charge that the president's mind was known in Panama and asserted that his course was pure, cold blooded participation with the rebels."

Mr. Patterson having quoted certain newspaper reports, Mr. Aldrich interrupted that the statements were unauthorized newspaper reports.

Mr. Patterson replied that he had observed that incorrect newspaper reports concerning the affairs of the administration are promptly contradicted. As an instance he cited the denial of the report that the president had said concerning a certain senator's attitude toward the presidential nomination that he would "either have to fish or cut bait."

Mr. Patterson asserted that Mr. Bunau-Varilla had come to Washington to lobby the canal measure through for the Panama Canal company and declared that Mr. Bunau-Varilla had not even been in Panama since 1886.

He charged that the effort to displace the Nicaragua canal with the Panama canal was in the interest of those who want no canal at all and, at the worst, one which would give the least competition to the transcontinental railroads. He believed the Nicaragua canal could be completed in fifteen years' less time than the Panama canal. He therefore would vote against the ratification of the treaty.

Mr. Platt then argued in support of the course of the administration in Panama. He declared that the Democrats lost sight of the fact that Panama's independence was an established fact, recognized not only by the United States, but by all the great nations of the earth, and if we had violated international law so had Great Britain, Germany and France.

Senator Morgan introduced a bill providing for the annexation of Panama to the United States, "the rights and property of Panama resting in the United States without reserve." The bill appropriates $10,000,000 as compensation to Panama for its cession, places $15,000,000 at the disposal of the president for the compensation of Colombia and appropriates $40,000,000 for the purchase of the property of the new Panama Canal company in Colombia, including the Panama canal.

It is especially provided that the provisions of this bill shall not have the effect of repealing the Spooner act.

Mr. Morgan gave notice that he would submit some substantial reasons why the United States should take over Panama at an early date.

Senator Morgan also introduced a concurrent resolution directing the president to enter into negotiations with the governments of Nicaragua and Costa Rica for the construction of a canal via the Nicaragua route.

Police Will Protect Funerals.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 21.—Governor Dockery talked with Chief of Police Kiely over the telephone in regard to the strike situation. The governor urged the chief to take every precaution to protect funeral processions from interference. "I have given special orders to the police captains to watch funeral processions," said the chief, "and to prevent trouble at all costs. There will be no halfway measures and no halfway treatment of those who should attempt to interfere."

Doctor Stabbed Seven Times.

MACON, Ga., Jan. 21.—Dr. Eugene B. Elder, superintendent of the City hospital, is lying at the point of death as a result of knife wounds inflicted by a negro servant named Thomas Frank, whom he had dismissed from the institution. The physician was stabbed in the head and body seven times.

Odell and the State Bar.

ALBANY, N. J., Jan. 21.—Governor Odell both when the State Bar association called upon him and in the afternoon at their banquet declared strongly that the judiciary should be absolutely divorced from politics and that the designation of judges should be made by the courts and not by the executive.

Land For Italian Immigrants.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Seven thousand acres of land situated in Washington county, Alabama, thirty-five miles from Mobile, on the main line of the Southern railroad, has been purchased for colonization purposes. The tract will be subdivided into small farms and sold to Italian farmers.

RACERS DESTROYED.

Accidents Resulted In the Shooting of Two Fine Mares.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 21.—All Scarlet, Ascension and Major Mansir were the winning favorites, Ascension reducing the six furlongs track record to 1:12 1-5. Mrs. Frank Foster, the favorite in the first race, was left at the post, and Banana Cream, who finished second in the same event, was disqualified for fouling Miss Hume. All Scarlet was much the best of the two-year-olds and won all the way. Tioga broke her leg in the fifth race and was destroyed. Ida Penzance ran into the fence during exercise and was so badly injured that it was necessary to destroy her.

First Race—Neither One won, Miss Hume second, Miladi Love third.

Second Race—All Scarlet won, Fair Calypso second, Dancing Nun third.

Third Race—Ben Howard won, Emigre second, Icicle third.

Fourth Race—Ascension won, Saducee second, Morning Star Third.

Fifth Race—Over Again won, Annie Max second, Mayor Johnson third.

Sixth Race—Major Mansir won, Stonewall second, Boaster third.

Pardello Disqualified For Roughness

BALTIMORE, Jan. 21.—Leo Pardello of New York, the heavyweight wrestler, was disqualified last night for "roughing it," the police having stopped the bout. His adversary was Frank (Shad) Link of this city. The conditions were that Pardello should throw Link twice catch-as-catch-can style in one hour, Link to be given 75 per cent of the purse should he either throw Pardello or stay the limit. After wrestling for more than half an hour, always on the defensive, Pardello began rough tactics, once nearly throwing Link off the stage. He was warned several times by Referee O'Bailey. He continued the rough tactics, however, and the police interposed when the bout had gone forty-five minutes. A small riot might have ensued had not the large squad of police jumped upon the stage and protected the participants and their friends.

Princess Tulane Won Handicap.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 21.—A cold wind made it disagreeable for the small crowd at the races. Two out of six favorites won. A free handicap for a purse of $600 brought out a good field for the fourth race at a mile and a sixteenth. Chub ruled a redhot favorite, but was never in the running. Ocean Dream set a warm pace, with Princess Tulane well up. Princess Tulane went to the front in the last fifty yards, winning by half a length, Ocean Dream second and M. F. Tarpey third.

Boston Is Down on the Ring.

BOSTON, Jan. 21. — In connection with the arrest of Joe Choynski and Kid Carter, who boxed at the Criterion Athletic club, on the charge of mutual assault, Chairman William H. H. Emmons of the police board announced that it was the intention of the board to purge the city of what he called prizefighting. This policy is in line with that pursued by Mr. Emmons while he was justice of the police court at East Boston, where he succeeded in stopping boxing exhibitions.

Claude Won Handicap.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—All the favorites went down to defeat, and the twenty-eight bookmakers in line had the better of the argument. The main attraction was the Owners' handicap at a mile, in which a trio of well known performers met. Fossil was a 3 to 5 favorite and set the pace, with Claude close up until three furlongs from the finish, when Claude assumed command and won pulling up from Fossil. The muddy track prevented fast time in the handicap.

Racing on Saranac Lake.

BECHTEL TRIAL.

Members of the Family Will Testify In Mother's Defense.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 21.—The battle of the experts on blood in the Bechtel trial has come to an end, and every member of the Bechtel family will be placed on the witness stand in an endeavor to prove that the aged mother is not guilty of being an accessory after the fact in the killing of her wayward daughter Mabel. The defense called six experts, and each declared that the biological, or Bordet, test, the new method for determining the difference between human and animal blood, was not a standard one and that it was unreliable.

The experts called testified that only one of the many articles taken from the Bechtel home contained human blood and that one was the undervest worn by the girl when she was found dead.

Before the defense opened its case the court was asked to instruct the jury to render a verdict of not guilty, because not sufficient evidence had been presented to hold Mrs. Bechtel, but the court decided that the trial should proceed, Judge Trexler adding that he did not wish at this time to pass upon the merits of the evidence presented.

Attorney Schaadt in opening the case for the defense said he would prove that all the stains were either from tobacco juice or from Thomas Bechtel's dog. He said it would also be shown that no member of the Bechtel family had a hand in the killing of Mabel and that she was murdered away from home.

A RUNAWAY TROLLEY.

Many Seriously Hurt at Rankin, Near Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 21.—Of the thirty passengers aboard a trolley car which ran away in Rankin last night five persons were seriously hurt and ten others badly bruised and shocked.

The seriously hurt are: Simon Callahan of Braddock, head crushed and legs broken, will die; Edward Frazer of Braddock, skull fractured, condition critical; P. C. Starkie of Wilkinsburg, head and body cut, critical; Joseph Scaefelt of Wilkinsburg, head cut and leg broken, serious, and Miss Mary McNutt of Wilmerding, face and body cut, serious.

The car was on the Swissvale and Braddock division of the Pittsburg railway and while descending the steep grade on Hawkins avenue got beyond control by reason of icy tracks. After running about thirty yards it jumped the curve at Second avenue and plunged over a twenty foot embankment, turned completely over and lodged in a snowbank just on the brink of a hill overhanging the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks.

Plan an "Unparalleled Speed."

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Jan. 21.—Plans to equal and possibly beat the speed record of 120 miles an hour, made at Zossen, Germany, some time ago, have been made at a conference between officials and experts representing the New York Central railroad and the General Electric company. The tests are to be made on the tracks between this city and Hoffmans, and it is planned to attain a high rate of speed. If present plans hold the Central will be enabled to run trains through to New York city and on its suburban lines at an unparalleled rate of speed.

Dowie May Be Held Up For Debt.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—Hugh Craig, insurance agent and ex-president of the chamber of commerce, appealed to the courts to recover $962 from John Alexander Dowie. Mr. Craig in his petition claims that twelve years ago the ruler of Zion borrowed $2,772 from him. All of it was returned except the amount sued for, and that, it is alleged, Dowie refused to pay. Dowie had planned to sail for Sydney today on the steamer Sonoma.

Explosion Caused Death.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 21.—The explosion of a lamp in the Hope Mission building here caused the death of James Bodigo, six years old; the fatal burning of his mother, Mrs. Mary Bodigo, and the serious burning of his three-year-old sister. The boy was burned to a crisp, and Mrs. Bodigo was burned all over the body and can hardly live.

Crowd Gathered to Lynch.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 21.—Robert Woodson shot and fatally wounded P. H. Harris at Wilsonburg during a quarrel over Woodson's wife. A crowd gathered to lynch the shooter, and it became necessary to spirit him away and bring him to jail here under a heavy guard.

Baylor Made Dying Confession.

SALEM, N. J., Jan. 21.—Leroy Baylor, colored, charged with the murder of Oscar Hendrickson, also colored, during a quarrel over a girl several years ago, died in the county jail of consumption just as he had completed a confession to Supreme Court Justice Hendrickson.

Ex-Confederate Captain Dead.

ROANOKE, Va., Jan. 21.—Captain Arthur O'Sullivan, an ex-Confederate officer and for the past thirty years doorkeeper of Virginia's house of delegates, is dead at Christiansburg, Va., aged sixty-seven years.

Woman Clerk to Share $40,000,000.

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 21.—Mrs. C. B. Hollarn, who is a deputy United States clerk in this city, has been notified that she is one of the heirs to an estate in Wales valued at $40,000,000.

Baron Mannlicher Dead.

BERLIN, Jan. 21.—Baron von Mannlicher, inventor of the Mannlicher rifle, is dead.

RUSSIA BACKS DOWN

Concedes Demands of Japs In Far East Imbroglio.

FRANCE WOULD NOT GIVE ARMED HELP

St. Petersburg Government Is Still Unwilling to Recognise China's Sovereignty Rights In Manchuria.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Lord Lansdowne's reception at the foreign office was attended by almost all the ambassadors and ministers in London, including the American, Russian, Japanese, German and French representatives. At the end of the reception it was officially stated that the situation looked perhaps slightly more hopeful, but as the Russian reply apparently is not yet drafted no definite statement could safely be made.

The foreign office has reason to believe, however, that Russia is willing to concede practically all of Japan's demands, but she cannot see her way to make a treaty with Japan recognizing in black and white China's sovereignty over Manchuria. Russia has approached Great Britain to urge Japan to forego this stipulation and to accept in lieu thereof the assurances to the same end already given to the other powers. It is pointed out at the foreign office that Great Britain, being such an interested party, is in a difficult position and can scarcely recommend such a course to her ally. For the moment the situation rests there. Whether or not Japan will insist to the bitter end on a treaty recognizing Chinese sovereignty over Manchuria the foreign office does not yet know. It thinks the Japanese themselves will not decide until after the delivery of the Russian reply.

Japanese newspapers publish a report that Russia has decided to appeal to the powers to avert war. This is regarded here as proof of Russia's unreadiness to make satisfactory concessions.

A cable from Suez says nine Russian torpedo boat destroyers have arrived there from Port Said, bound for the far east.

The Russian transport Orel has sailed for the far east.

The Japanese armored cruiser Kasaga has sailed from Aden for the far east.

A high official said that the anti-American irritation in certain government quarters at St. Petersburg is due to the conviction that Japan's aggressiveness is largely the result of the American attitude, which presumably is based on fear that the Manchurian treaties will not be respected, although, the official insisted, the United States was informed months ago that Russia would recognize them.

A report from Paris says France has declined to give Russia any assurances of armed help, should war be the outcome of the far eastern differences, even should Great Britain aid Japan.

A late dispatch from Seoul says the emperor of Korea has ordered that 700 revolvers and clubs be distributed to the "peddlers," who are nominally secret police and a dangerous element.

Many Americans are leaving Seoul, fearing trouble.

Shults Surrenders.

BATH, N. Y., Jan. 21.—Andrew E. Shults, indicted seven times by the Steuben county grand jury, once for perjury, three times for knowingly overdrawing his bank account and three times for receiving deposits in an insolvent bank, has surrendered himself. Shults was manager of the W. J. Shults bank at Cochocton before it went into bankruptcy on July 27 last, with liabilities of $36,000 and assets $20,000 less.

Express Collided With a Freight.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Jan. 21.—A Pennsylvania baggage, mail and express train, westbound, collided with a freight train at Davis, Ind. Engineer J. C. McCarthy, Fireman L. F. Kring and one of the express messengers were injured. The express train was carrying no passengers. None of the injured is in a serious condition.

Explosion Caused by Fire.

BOSTON, Jan. 21.—An explosion, presumably of naphtha, that blew a hole through the top of the large brick structure 95 to 107 Albany street started a fire that gutted the fourth and fifth floors and for a time threatened a row of tenement houses in the rear on Hudson street. The total loss will probably reach $50,000.

Monument For Gordon.

COLUMBUS, Miss., Jan. 21.—General Stephen D. Lee, commander in chief of the United Confederate Veterans, has issued an unofficial call to every Confederate organization to organize immediately to secure subscriptions for a monument to be erected to the late General John B. Gordon at Atlanta, Ga.

Elbert Hubbard Weds.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Jan. 21.—Elbert Hubbard of East Aurora, N. Y., and Alice L. Moore of Concord, Mass., have been married in this city by a justice of the peace. After the ceremony they left immediately for New York.

Postmaster Arrested.

OCALA, Fla., Jan. 21.—Benjamin F. Mountain, postmaster at Oriole, has been arrested on the charge of embezzling postoffice funds and was held for the next term of the federal court.

Marietta (Ga.) Fire Cost $100,000.

MARIETTA, Ga., Jan. 21.—Fire has destroyed the mercantile establishment of Florence King & Co. and five business buildings; loss, $100,000.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 21, 1904.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printer's Ink.

Any day is the beginning of a new year for those who try to do better.

It is rumored that Governor Murphy will again be the chairman of the State Republican committee. Give him anything he wants, but spare the gubernatorial chair for another man.

Mr. Roosevelt is planning a quiet summer at Oyster Bay. His quiet summers would put the average man in a sanitarium.—New Brunswick Home News.

If he continues being Sun-struck, may be he'll need a quiet summer.

James E. Martine boasts of the fact that he has a copy of the Chicago platform and a picture of Bryan buried beneath the gate to his home at Cedar brook. The interment took place just after Bryan was first nominated. The American people were not so hasty, although their method of burial was much more complete.

An advertisement should be just long enough to cover the idea you wish to impress upon your readers and no longer. When it is spun out too long it becomes too thin to warm the desire you seek to inspire. When it is cut too short it leaves people to guess at what you mean, and when it comes to guessing they're almost sure to guess against your interests.—Jed Scarboro.

A bill has been introduced in the Assembly to prevent the use of the American flag for advertising purpose. It is sad to realize that the necessity for such a law exists but that it does is demonstrated time and again when some ignorant and unpatriotic merchant advertises his wares in such a manner. Pennsylvania and other States have such a statute and New Jersey should lose no time in following their example.

Despite the formal protests of the proper authorities, Bishop Henry Codman Potter admitted Rev. Dr. Charles A. Briggs to orders in the Episcopal church after he had been kicked out of the great Presbyterian denomination. At the time of his ordination he was no more of an Episcopalian than he had been a Presbyterian. His recent utterances before the Church Club of New York are likely to make him the principal in a heresy trial and the Christian world is promised a repetition of the disagreeable proceedings which characterized the latter days of his career in the Presbyterian church.

Woe to the unhappy newspaper man or the unlucky citizen who invades the sanctity of the holy of holies where the noble body of statesmen composing the Senate of New Jersey meet to pass upon the affairs of State. Ill betide the public that would manifest a sacrilegious concern in its own business as brought before its wise men. Verily they shall be cast into outer darkness. For the decree has gone forth that the ignominious knights of the pen and the upstart public shall be excluded from the Senate chamber unless forsooth they are the specially favored holders of cards entitling them to entrance into the august presence. So saith the lord and master, Franklin Murphy.

To this most awful mandate has subscribed himself, the most righteous and sanctified Senator Joseph Cross, who leadeth the Republican host. For it has been spoken that the chamber wherein sits the most awful of bodies is too constricted and limited a place for the reception of its lawful inmates and the scribes and the Pharisees at the same time. Wonder is that walls of stone and mortar are constructed that will not tremble and fall apart before the dreadful majesty of this most illustrious "concursus omnium conorum."

The word has gone forth! Let the people tremble!

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

Jersey City's Plight.

The Trenton "State Gazette" says: "Jersey City appears to have advantage of all inland New Jersey cities in its matter of railroad relations." It has some advantages, but it pays a million a year for them and they are very dear at that rate. It would pay Jersey City to wipe out every railroad terminal in the city. The railroad companies have criss-crossed and cut up the city, running streaks of blight through the city wherever they have touched, and they not only depreciate the value of contiguous property, thus reducing its taxable value, but they pay practically but one-third of their taxes. If the city of Trenton were called upon to surrender as much of its area for railroad purposes as Jersey City has had taken from her list of ratables there wouldn't be any city of Trenton.—Jersey City Journal.

That Billboard Message.

The message of Governor Murphy, protesting against the billboard nuisance and recommending restrictive legislation to the New Jersey Legislature, is attracting wide attention and grows in interest with each reading. Commenting on the impossible men and women displayed on the boards, with other billboard features, Governor Murphy says:

If they continue to increase it is not difficult to foresee the day when the traveler will have the beautiful hills, and vales, and trees, and flowers completely shut from his sight and will pass through a continuous and unbroken lane of signboards that will trouble his nights and days with suggestions of things that are disagreeable.

With 1,650 signboards on one line of railway traversing the short distance between Jersey City and Trenton the day of the walling in of the hills and vales can not be so very far distant. The billboard increases in numbers and hideousness with each vacant lot or dead wall coming in view of the billboarder, and it is not a matter for wonder that Governor Murphy said to the Legislature: "In the interest of an indignant and suffering public, I present the subject in the hope that you may be able to find a remedy."

The message is being discussed not alone in Ohio but in Massachusettr. The Boston Herald commends the billboard feature of the document, saying that if the Governor can free his State from the billboards he would, undoubtedly, receive the thanks of the thousands of persons traveling through New Jersey which, in proportion to its area, has the largest railway mileage of any State in the Union. He would also be entitled to receive, and would receive, the thanks of persons who live in New Jersey, as well as the thanks of the thousands traveling on its railways.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Werner Philpit, of Potter's Press Works, visited Brooklyn for the first time in his life last week when he attended a social function in that place. Previous to the event Philpit had worked at Potter's for seven years without missing a single day. His record is unique in the shop.

The Bricklayers' and Masons' International Union convention at Trenton will conclude this week. The remainder of this week will be devoted to acting upon reports and recommendations. The officers and delegations were banqueted last night by the two Trenton unions. Frank Buchanan, president of the Structural Iron Worker and Housesmiths' Union of America in an address before the convention urged affiliation with the Structural Building Trades Alliance. Radnolph Marsh is Plainfield's delegate to the convention.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

At the conclusion of the regular weekly prayer meeting in the Presbyterian chapel last evening, the annual election of officers was held. Messrs. Brown, Rarrick and Lake were re-elected elders and James Touzeau was elected deacon. A vote was then taken for a new pastor to succeed Rev. Mr. Sproul, but this resulted in a tie. It was then decided to invite four or five more ministers to address the congregation and then call another meeting to decide on a pastor. The meeting then adjourned.

Engineer Anson, of drill engine 654, was injured at Grant avenue yesterday afternoon and was compelled to stop work and go to his home at Somerville. Mr. Anson was leaning out of the cab window when his head was struck by the signal lamp on a passing caboose. The injury is not of a serious nature however.

The boiler for the new factory was set in position yesterday afternoon. It was necessary to dig down 12 feet in order to get a safe base for the foundation for same.

A sleighing party from Cranford passed through the borough last evening and made their presence known by shooting off Roman candles and firecrackers.

Nathan Hill has returned to work after being laid up for two weeks with injuries received while working on the Newark Bay bridge.

Coasting on the hill on Front street is now excellent and the younger elements of the borough spend their leisure hours coasting.

A missionary service will be held in the Methodist church this evening. Miss Horn, of Cranford, will address the meeting.

Mrs. A. N. Randolph has returned from a week's visit with her sister at Jersey City.

Mrs. Calvin Gardeper is entertaining relatives from Glen Gardner this week.

Mrs. Bernard Siriski has returned from a visit with relatives in Elizabeth.

David Smith, of New York, visited borough friends last evening.

James Totton, of Easton, spent yesterday in town on business.

Mrs. W. N. Apgar has recovered from a severe illness.

Henry Garretson spent Tuesday in Trenton on business.

Lud Frasee is on the sick list.

NEW MARKET.

A game of hockey has been arranged between the Y. M. A. and the Norwood A. C. team, of Plainfield, which will take place Saturday afternoon if the weather permits. The local boys are playing a fine game this season and expects to make it interesting for their visitors.

The glass blowing exhibitions which are being given each evening in Friendship Hall, are very well attended.

Miss Frances Davis has returned to the State Normal School after a two weeks' vacation.

Justice Von Mindon was in New Brunswick yesterday attending to court business.

Miss Mabel Lefner has recovered from a severe cold.

Cottage prayer meeting was held last evening.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The annual meeting of the Fanwood Fire Company was held Tuesday night in the borough fire house. The annual report of the treasurer showed the company to be in a flourishing condition financially. The annual election of department and company officers resulted as follows: Chief, Charles Sheelen; first assistant, Charlese B. Loomis; second assistant, J. H. L. Todd; foreman, W. M. Maxim; first assistant, Augustus Sheelin; second assistant, S. G. VanHoesen; secreary, R. R. Thompson; treasurer, W. M. Maxim.

The baseball club is beginning to get ready for active work, in preparation for the coming season. A meeting will be called in the near future to talk over plans for the season. With a nice balance in the treasury, which was left over from last season, the club will be able to put one of the strongest teams in the field that has ever represented the village on the diamond. With good clubs in all the neighboring towns, the prospect for a successful season is very bright.

The change made by the trolley company in running the Elizabeth cars through to Dunellen, is a great convenience to the local patrons, as it saves the annoyance of transferring at the terminus.

Sleighing still continues fine, especially out on the county road. Everybody in town who owns anything in the way of a sleigh, is enjoying the sport while it lasts.

A number of the followers of the National game in town, will attend the dance and reception tonight of the Aeolian ball team, which will be held at Garwood.

A party of young people from the village will attend the I. C. T. Club dance to be held tonight in their rooms, corner of North and Park avenues.

Joseph Thys, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, continues to improve and hopes are entertained of an early recovery.

Charles Reick, who has been visiting his father, John Rieck, of Forest avenue, has returned to his home in New York.

The boys of the Chautauqua Boys' Club, of the Methodist church, held a well attended meeting in the church last night.

Harry Flannery is taking a vacation of two weeks, from his position with the Electrical Company, at Westfield.

Thomas Coles, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., is the guest of his sister, Miss Hattie Coles, of Front street.

Twilight Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., holds its weekly meeting tonight in the library rooms.

The local stone crusher will resume work again as soon as the weather will permit.

Mrs. William Field, of Front street, has recovered from a recent illness.

Miss Alice Shott is visiting friends in Plainfield for a few days.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Miss Nora Maguire met with a serious accident yesterday morning, which was caused by a spark from a lighted match coming in contact with her celluloid comb. Her hair on the top of her head was burned off and her forehead and ears were slightly burned.

Peter G. Emmons, living between Oak Tree and New Dover, will sell his personal property at public auction on Monday.

THE ROBIN NOT HARMFUL

PROFESSOR W. E. D. SCOTT, OF PRINCETON, DEFENDS THE RED BREAST.

The robin prefers wild fruit to the common or garden variety and will not trouble fruit growers if it can have access to its favorite diet, is the contention of certain naturalists who oppose recent measures taken against robins in the interest of fruit growers. Professor W. E. D. Scott, of the laboratory for the study of live birds, of Princeton, has made public a letter of this purport from Professor E. L. Beal, in charge of economic ornithology in the United States Department of Agriculture.

The measure specifically attacked is a bill recently introduced in the New Jersey Senate, proposing to give fruit growers discretionary power in killing robins and cat birds in the fruit season. Professor Scott says of the measure:

"Such mischievous legislation can result only in disaster which must be obvious."

Professor Beal, in his letter, says that, as a result of years of experience and the examination of the stomachs of 500 robins, he can assert positively that cultivated fruit forms a very small percentage of the robin's food. He recommends that fruit growers plant wild fruit-bearing shrubs near their orchards. He says that the robin is of great use as an insect destroyer and that to kill the bird is to do far more harm than good.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—The Voehl case against the Lackawanna Railroad will be tried at Hoboken, Thursday, Jan. 28.

—The case of Derby against Warden et als in Justice Mosher's court has been adjourned to February 1.

—Arthur Otterson, of Evergreen avenue, entertained a number of friends as a card party, Tuesday night.

—Albert Hedden, of East Fourth street, has purchased a fine team of horses at a sale by A. S. Case, of Three Bridges.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Stokes is making a hard fight for nomination for Governor and has a number of influential aides on his staff. But he will encounter opposition of a serious character. Friends of ex-First Assistant Postmaster General William M. Johnson, of Hackensack, are busy in behalf of the Bergen County man, and Johnson's friends are numerous and potential in State politics. The convention is six or seven months off yet, and there is no telling what may happen meantime. Much may depend upon the progress of events during the present session of the Legislature.—Jersey City Journal.

Swackhamer's Chance.

Assemblyman Swackhamer engaged in a debate with Rev. John MacMurray, a Methodist minister, in Plainfield the other evening, the subject being the abolition of capital punishment. Judging from the newspaper accounts of the tilt, the legislator, who opposed capital punishment, had the audience with him so long as he treated them to clever anecdotes with which he interspersed his argument, but when it came to solid argument the dominie captured the judges, and won the verdict. Swackhamer appears to be unfortunate of late in the forum, but he has a chance of retrieving his lost laurels in the State Assembly as soon as that body gets into working order.—Camden Courier.

Commissioners at Work.

J. Wesley Johnson, David C. Smalley and George M. Griffin, commissioners appointed in the matter of laying out and opening Myrtle avenue, met yesterday afternoon and took a trip over the ground proposed to be used in the improvement. This trip and the result of their investigations will form a part of their report to the Common Council. It is the opinion that the improvement will be made that the commissioners will report favorably on the matter.

"OF ALL THE SAD WORDS——"

GOVERNOR ANNULS 1,250 CHARTERS, AND "THEREBY HANGS A TALE."

Twelve hundred and fifty New Jersey corporations have just been blotted out of existence for non-payment of State taxes. Governor Murphy has issued a proclamation declaring their charters annulled, thus greatly weakening the assertion made in his annual message to the Legislature that corporations are usually prosperous under Jersey laws.

Stock the par value of which is many millions of dollars is of no value except the weight of the certificates as waste-paper.

Thus the hopes and ambitions of thousands of men have perished, except where the promoters succeeded in inducing the public to buy stock.

Those first in the market were fairly successful in this, but the printing presses were worked overtime to issue stock certificates, and the public appetite for stocks was soon more than satisfied.

The companies that failed to pay their taxes include those that were expected to pay dividends by securing a corner on certain materials used in tombstones, burying the dead in Hawaii, preserving human life and meats and vegetables by liquefied air; making artificial granite; causing hair to grow on bald heads.

Not a few were companies organized to develope mining properties that were supposed to hold millions in gold or silver and would make the stockholders rich in short order.

Work for Nat. Guard.

Marksmen in the National Guard of New Jersey will have to get down to hard work at the State range at Sea Girt if they want to make a showing in the national match this year. The national board for the promotion of rifle practice adopted rapid fire and skirmish fire for the national match as well as the provision for slow fire at 200, 600, 800 and 1,000 yards. The skirmish and rapid fire is the weak point of many marksmen. The organization of all rifle associations in the United States was placed in the hands of the National Rifle Association, of which General Bird W. Spencer, of Passaic, is the president.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Jan. 24: "If Christ Should Come to Our Town."—John iv, 28-30; 39-42.

Has He not come? Is He not ever coming? He may often be unrecognized, for He must be sought to be known. He is at Jacob's well, where our ancestors found refreshment. You will need to go there if you would see Him.

If He should come!

His intimate friends might wonder at what He would do. While they are busy getting dinner and fixing things He might refuse to eat and might do things contrary to all their notions of propriety. It would be embarrassing. He would companion with people to whom we would not dare be seen to speak. While we were thinking of our physical comfort He would be setting before some starved life the rich things of His Father's providing and arousing appetite in them and feeding the new hunger.

If He should come!

He would tell her all she did.

Not all the details and incidents of the long course of wrongdoing. That would be worse than waste of time. He would show her what it all meant in waste of life when He set before her in clear light all the beauty and charm of the better way. He would show her the loathsomeness of the evil until her soul would recoil, and all this by the opening of the vision of God's purity. When she caught the glimpse of His glory and true worship in spirit and truth she saw what she had done. She never knew before what it meant. The well was deep, deeper than that into whose depths she had so often lowered her earthen pitcher for filling. He knew the "abyssmal depths of personality." And He had wherewith to draw from them something better than "sore despair."

He knew the hidden springs long choked by worldliness and lust and was able to touch them until they should pour out the waters of everlasting life. Where the life seemed hopelessly bad He had found possibilities of purity and started into action the powers of goodness.

If He should come!

He would set feet and tongues in motion.

She forgot her usual work, the time of day, the water pitcher and all the old mode of life and went into the city to find her friends. "Come and see a man who told me what I have been doing!" They had understood all along what her life meant and knew she was blind. Something has happened surely if a man has told her what she did. "Can this be the Christ?" she asks. "Come and see Him!" Can it be any but the Christ who could so change her? Surely they will go. Work, dinner, everything is left, and they go. Feet and tongues are active. And these are Samaritans, sinners, the defiled and ungodly!

What can the disciples say or do? Defilement is imminent if this crowd presses around the Master, and is not dinner ready and the time past for eating and we all tired and hungry? And here comes that woman also! Master, eat! They speak out, but fail to gain their purpose. He will talk with her and the people whom she brings. And they believe Him to be the Christ, not because of what He told her, but they have heard Him themselves.

Do you wish He would come?

What would you do if He should come?

Why not do it now and see if He has not been coming and is here?

"In His Name."

We must pray "in His name." As the ambassador speaks in the name of the queen and country, as the tax collector appeals in the name of the authorities, both deriving from their identification with their superiors an authority they could not otherwise exercise, so our words become weighted with a great importance when we can say to our Father: "We are so one with Jesus that He is asking in and through us. These words are His, these desires His, these objects those on which His heart is set. We have His sanction and authority to use His name." When we ask a favor in the name of another, that other is the petitioner, through us. So when we approach God in the name of Jesus it is not enough to append His sacred name as a formula, but we must see to it that Jesus is pleading in us, asking through our lips, as He is asking through His own in the heart of the sapphire throne.—Rev. F. B. Meyer.

The Truest and Highest.

Let us have the courage to live by the truest and highest revealed to us. The life of our best hours and experiences is our true life. Not to strive to make these best hours the standard by which we daily live; to be disloyal to that which we see and worship and love in the most exalted and most radiant moments of our existence; to make no effort to preserve and perpetuate the glory of this occasional spiritual life is to resist and quench the spirit.—Churchman.

Preceding the Light.

It is important to wait the moment of God to correct others. We may see real faults, but the person may not be in a state to profit by being told his faults. It is not wise to give more than one can receive. This is what I call preceding the light—the light shines so far in advance of the person that it does not benefit him. Our Lord said to His apostles, "I have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now."—Mme. Guyon.

Thankfulness.

Thankfulness is a most becoming grace. Its spirit adorns all acceptable worship. Most people have at least a hundred reasons for being thankful for one for being sad and melancholy.—Religious Telescope.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Jan. 24—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—What if Christ came to our town?—John iv, 28-30; 39-42.

There is very little in the life of the Lord Jesus Christ to suggest the idea that the servants of God should become hermits, hidden from the world. Christ moved among men. Forty days were spent in the wilderness that Satan might be met and overcome, but beyond that Christ spent little time from the people except an occasional night in communion and prayer to God. He went about through all the towns of Judæa and Galilee, even into Samaria and as far as Tyre and Sidon. His ministry was an active, busy ministry. His time was not spent in religious seclusion, but He constantly went about doing good. In this respect the disciple of Christ should imitate his Lord. We can bring Christ to our town if in the spirit of Christ we go about among the people doing as He did.

The hypothetical case of Christ coming to congress, to church or to town is rather an unsatisfactory one. What Christ would do if He came to our town no one knows. When He visited the towns of Palestine He usually did the thing that was least expected of Him. As a boy He visited Jerusalem. Who would have thought of His remaining to discuss profound questions with the doctors of law? He visited Jerusalem at the first Passover of His public ministry, but no one would have thought that He would have scourged the temple of those who defiled it. He visited Cana of Galilee, but would any one have dreamed of His changing water into wine at a wedding feast? What Jesus would do under given circumstances no one can prophesy with any degree of success, and it is little short of folly and presumption even to make the attempt. But we do know from sacred history what Christ did at Sychar, in Samaria, and this may be helpful and suggestive.

1. Christ at Sychar sacrificed Himself for others. He came to Jacob's well near evening, wearied with His journey, thirsty and hungry. The disciples left Him that they might procure food, and in their absence the woman of Samaria appeared. Immediately Jesus forgot His own needs and thought only of the spiritual needs of the sinful woman before Him. He at once sacrificed His wants to her wants. This was always characteristic of the Master. He "came not to be ministered unto, but to minister and to give His life a ransom for many." Today He would do the same and is doing it through those who are His disciples in all our towns.

2. Christ at Sychar put aside national and ecclesiastical prejudices to save a soul. The Jews and the Samaritans had no dealings with each other. Nationally and ecclesiastically there was enmity between them. But did Christ allow this to stand between Him and an opportunity to give the living water to one needing it? No. In the face of all national and ecclesiastical prejudice He sat down on the curb of Jacob' well and preached the gospel to a poo sinful Samaritan woman. No doubt He would do the same today, and as His disciples we should do it for Him. No class or race prejudice should interfere with our giving the gospel to all men, for all need it.

3. Christ at Sychar emphasized the value of the spiritual above the material. He soon turned from the water in Jacob's well to Himself, the living water. Nor was He unsuccessful. The woman believed and many of the people of Sychar. Representing Christ in our own town, we should lay special stress upon spiritual things. The soul is far superior in value to the body and should receive the greater care by all men.

BIBLE READINGS.

Matt. xviii, 1-14; Mark ii, 1-12; vi, 1-6; xi, 1-11; Luke ii, 40-52; viii, 1; xv, 1-10; John ii, 1-11; xiv, 1-12; xv, 1-16.

Evangelistic Effort.

The season for active evangelistic work is here, and we need to bestir ourselves and multiply our activities. Let us work along three lines:

First.—Our prayer life. Let us not put aside the morning hour or let anything interfere with its observance. If rushed to get at the day's business let us "chop off" a half or three-quarters of an hour from the morning drowsiness and profit by an early rising to seek the face of God.

Second.—Our Bible study life. This can be combined with the early "morning watch" and thus make the time doubly profitable. Let us try to digest what we read. Better get the full meaning of five verses than skim over five chapters. Let God's word get a hold on our lives and become a part of our daily experience.

Third.—Our personal work. Oh, that Endeavorers could feel the importance of this daily seeking to reach a soul for Christ. If you observe the former two suggestions there will be natural outgrowth in the line of reaching some one for Christ.

Our opportunities will increase and multiply as we embrace them from day to day or they will grow less and less as the days and years slip away when unimproved. "He that winneth souls is wise."—Rev. F. H. Jacobs.

An Endeavor Enthusiast.

Let me say again what I have said before—the best thing that has ever come to the church of which I have the honor to be pastor is its society of Christian Endeavor.—Rev. Dr. Wayland Hoyt.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

STREET COSTUMES.

Ankle Length Skirts Very Generally Worn—Suitable Materials.

Accordion plaiting is immensely popular in Paris, where Mme. Rejane affects this graceful fashion.

The tailor made suit, just clearing the ground, has become one of the necessities of the smart woman's wardrobe, and every woman has at least one costume of this sort. The favorite material is zibeline or rough goods of some sort, although cloths are also seen. Royal blue heliotrope and all shades of gray are very smart in the rough materials. They are trimmed with beautiful braid and even velvet bands. The jackets are as dainty and as elaborate as those worn with the longer skirts. They have fluffy fronts eked out with embroidery, and the little hat matches the costume. Many of these coats have wide fur collars, and the flat muff carried matches this collar and is decorated with a bow of velvet to the shade of the costume.

WHITE FELT HAT.

The ankle length skirt is trimmed horizontally with tucks and pipings and is almost as full as the skirt with the train.

Velveteen and corduroy in plum and deep red shades make very smart street costumes of this description.

The hat in the sketch is of white felt trimmed with velvet straps held down with gilt buttons and a white feather.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

DAINTY GOWNS.

Ruching the Favorite Trimming. The New Chiffon Voiles.

The most popular trimming at present is without doubt ruching. This is made of a great variety of materials, net and taffeta being the favorites. They head and border flounces and are also seen on either side of bands of wide lace. Ruchings of chiffon are used on gowns and millinery as well, while, as for the frayed out ruffle of taffeta, it is the very smartest thing for dresses of veiling or crepe de chine.

GOWN OF DOTTED NET.

Net and chiffon voile skirts are trimmed with broad bands of shirring divided off by rows of ruching.

The present soft, pretty styles are eminently becoming to the young girl who is apt to be a trifle angular and unformed.

The new chiffon voile, while not an inexpensive material, pays in the long run, and as it is very durable while at the same time soft and pretty it lends itself admirably to accordion plaiting. Nothing can be prettier for a young girl than a dress of cream chiffon voile worn over a petticoat of inexpensive satin, the waist being trimmed with white embroidery and chenille network or perhaps a tiny touch of gold thread.

The new veils are exquisite in color and texture. White illusion, having a tiny black ring, is worn with the large white hats. The veils for automobiling are of chiffon, with hemstitched ends, and so long that they are brought around twice and fastened in a knot under the chin, allowing the ends to fall below the waist line.

The newest thing in muffs is very flat and large and lined with its own fur instead of with satin.

In the picture we have an evening gown of white dotted net, with a shirred bertha having an embroidered edge. The skirt is very full, with three bands of shirring and seven tucks at the bottom.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

TRAINS STALLED.

Drifting Snow Ties Up Trains and Trolley Lines.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 21. — The eastbound train on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad leaving Syracuse at 10 p. m. became stalled in the snow at Summit for fourteen hours. The Auburn trains out of Syracuse were also canceled. The trolley line to Auburn was forced to suspend business. Heavy drifting snow paralyzes all the roads except the main line of the Central, where trains are late.

New York bound passengers, stalled all night on the Auburn road at Skaneateles, were brought here by special train and left for New York on a special in charge of General Manager A. H. Smith.

The worst blockade in recent years on the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg division of the New York Central is now on. Trains are, where running, ten to fifteen hours late, and many have been abandoned. The road between Watertown and Syracuse is completely closed, no trains having passed over the line for twenty-four hours. Several trains are stalled in snowbanks near Richland, thirty miles south, and every plow is in commission seeking to release them. High gales have filled the cuts, completely tying up all traffic.

THE FIRE FIEND.

Theatrical People Suffer From Fire In Chicago Hotel.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—The bad luck of Chicago theatrical people was again in evidence at a fire in the Grand Palace hotel here when nearly 200 members of theatrical troupes were driven into the streets by flames. It was with difficulty that a panic was averted and the frightened men and women got from the structure in safety. The fire originated on the second floor, supposedly from crossed electrical wires.

The halls became filled with excited men and women, the cooler guests being compelled to force them back from windows and fire escapes, toward which a rush was being made. Several women were preparing to jump from the windows when policemen arrived and aided the work of restraint and rescue.

Miss Louise Mitchell, who was hemmed in by the flames, was rescued by the firemen and taken down a fire escape.

The fire was extinguished quickly after the guests had been taken out. Almost all the guests are members of theatrical companies stranded in Chicago.

Bryan Has to Pay Bryan.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 21.—The answer of William J. Bryan to the appeal from the probate court brought by heirs of the late Philo S. Bennett has been filed in the superior court. In the answer Mr. Bryan figures both as executor of the Bennett will and as trustee under the terms of the will. In effect the answer declares that the sealed letter referred to in the will makes it the duty of the executor to pay $50,000 to Mrs. Bennett, to be turned over to William J. Bryan, and that section 12 of the will mentioning the sealed letter is valid.

Mrs. Bassford Tried to Save Her.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Jan. 21.—Marie Gerren, a German servant, died in the hospital here from the effects of burns received at Hartsdale. She was employed as maid by Mrs. Harvey Bassford, who in trying to save the girl when the latter's dress caught fire from the kitchen range was herself fatally burned, dying in the hospital on Monday.

Lady Visitor Shed the Most Charming Tears Ever Known.

Saw the Room Where She Had Spent Many Happy Days and Also Saw Other Things, Which She Took Along.

Tears in Mrs. Cutler's eyes were such an unusual sight that the whole family were concerned. Reasons for that manifestation of grief were solicitously demanded, and are given thus by the New York Times:

"It is the thought of that poor young lady that makes me cry," said Mrs. Cutler. "She was such a very sad young lady. She could hardly speak for crying. She came in about two o'clock. She hadn't really called to see me. She wanted to see a Mrs. McClellan, but when she found there was no Mrs. McClellan here she said I would do.

"'I am awfully sorry to disturb you,' she said. 'I thought Mrs. McClellan was still here. She lived here five years ago. I lived with her. I had the second story back room. What a sweet room that was! I loved it dearly. I called to-day to see it. I don't want to live in it again—I couldn't afford to live in such a nice place now, and, anyway, I see that you do not keep boarders—but I am very fond of the room, and I should like to see it. I am going to leave New York for a while, and I should like to bid the place good-by. Possibly you cannot understand my feeling in the matter. The place is endeared to me by many associations. Love came to me in that room, and joy and death. It may be that I am absurdly sentimental, but I am very blue to-day, and somehow I have an idea that I should feel better if I could sit down in there for a few minutes and think and plan.'

"At that," said Mrs. Cutler, choking back her own sobs, "the pretty young thing began to cry, and I cried with her. I never felt so sorry for anybody in my life. I told her that of course she could see the room, and sit in it till dinner time if she felt so disposed. Then I took her upstairs. The minute she stepped inside that room the poor young thing was so overcome with emotion that she sat down on the edge of the bed and cried as if her heart would break. I knew she would not like to be watched, so I stepped out and left her alone with her sorrow for a few minutes. When she joined me in the hall she had stopped crying and appeared more resigned.

"'Thank you, Mrs. Cutler,' she said. 'My little visit has done me a world of good. I can go away now in a much happier frame of mind.'

"Humph!" grunted Cutler, Jr., as he made a bee-line for the stairway.

"Did the woman have a valise?" he asked.

"Y-y-yes," stammered Mrs. Cutler. "She said she was going to leave the city. I presume she just stopped in here on her way to the ferry.

"Quite likely," cried Cutler, Jr., as he bounded up the stairs.

A hurried examination showed him what things were missing.

"My silver combs and brushes," he said, "two suits of clothes, a pair of shoes, and the onyx clock. Her depredations were probably limited by the size of the valise, but even so she made a pretty good haul. If she works on the sympathies of other women as she did on yours she will be ready to start up a fully stocked department store of her own by the first of January."

Mrs. Cutler listened dully. Even when they learned later that the woman with the broken heart had worked upon other sympathetic souls with equal profit, she could not understand the situation.

"I don't care," she said, in reply to Cutler, Jr.'s., veiled reproaches and outspoken advice. "She was a lovely young lady, and she certainly did know how to cry if ever anybody did."

Cowards Slay Harmless Man.

A band of cowardly cowboys, in a Montana district, who no doubt imagine themselves brave fellows, captured an unfortunate shepherd and beat him with whips until he was dead. His only offense was that, having been warned to take himself and his sheep away from that part of the state, he had refused to go.

Funerals Cheap in Mexico.

Funerals are not costly in Mexico. When a poor person dies the corpse is tightly wrapped in matting and placed in a coffin hired for about 52 cents. A couple of natives place the coffin on their heads and go at a trot to the grave, where the body is interred, and the coffin is then returned.

C. M. SCHWAB'S OFFER

Asks No Special Terms of the Shipyard Bondholders.

WILL SHARE PRO RATA WITH OTHERS

Withdraws Demand For Special Consideration In Regard to His Precedence Claims on Ten Million Dollar Mortgage.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—At a conference which lasted until after midnight and was continued early in the day at the residence of William Nelson Cromwell here terms were offered the complaining bondholders in the United States Shipbuilding company's case which practically mean an unconditional surrender on the part of Charles M. Schwab and his associates.

The offer was made by Mr. Cromwell in behalf of Schwab and the Sheldon syndicate to Attorney Samuel Untermyer, representing the complaining bondholders.

Mr. Untermyer, after hearing the offer made by Schwab and his associates, insisted on one or two points which they had not included, and it was to settle these that the conference was resumed at Mr. Cromwell's house.

Max Pam, Schwab's attorney, was called in by Mr. Cromwell to meet Mr. Untermyer. It is expected that Schwab will agree to concede the points demanded by Untermyer.

The terms offered to Mr. Untermyer at the conference were drawn, it was claimed, on a very liberal scale so far as Mr. Schwab's large interests in the Shipbuilding company are concerned. He has practically renounced all control of the company and by his offer has placed himself on a par with the smallest and humblest bondholder in the company.

In his offer he asks for no special advantages because of his large interests and pledges himself to share pro rata with other holders of shipbuilding securities. He withdraws completely his demand that his $10,000,000 second mortgage take precedence over the $16,000,000 first mortgage.

State Water and Sewer Board.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 21.—To place the water supply and sewer systems of the state under the control of a state board similar in makeup and powers to the state railroad commission is the purpose of a bill introduced by Senator Stewart of Ithaca. It creates "the state board of water and sewer commissioners, to consist of three competent persons who shall be appointed by the governor by and with the consent of the senate for a term of five years. One shall be a competent civil and hydraulic engineer and one a competent sanitary engineer and bacteriologist." The salary of each commissioner is to be $8,000, and the board is to have a secretary at $3,500 and a marshal at $1,500, together with clerical force, inspectors, bacteriologists and chemists, at a gross expense for salaries not to exceed $15,000 per year. The bill appropriates $75,000 to carry out the provisions of the act.

Will Ask Mercy For Old Man.

BUFFALO, Jan. 21.—Charles Bonier, convicted of the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Frehr, was brought into Justice Lambert's court for sentence. Attorney Fennely asked for an adjournment of the case until tomorrow, which was granted. Mr. Fennely was engaged by Bonier's son when Attorney Murphy abandoned the case. He will ask for a new trial and carry the case to the court of appeals if necessary, and, failing there, he will appeal to the governor for clemency on the ground that it will be inhuman to execute a man seventy-five years old.

"Antijug Law" Applies.

RALEIGH, N. C., Jan. 21.—In a decision rendered in the superior court here by Judge Brown it is held that what is known as the "antijug law," passed by the last legislature under a title which named four counties, really applies to every county in the state which has prohibitive liquor laws. It prohibits the shipping by liquor dealers in the state to prohibition territory.

American Lady Student Honored.

BERLIN, Jan. 21.—The University of Berlin has conferred the degree of doctor of philosophy, with the greatest praise, on Miss Ina Milroy of Detroit, Mich., for her work in chemistry, her dissertation being the result of original work on the influence of inactive substances on the optical rotation of dextroglucose.

Verdi's House Under the Hammer.

ROME, Jan. 21.—The house in which Verdi was born, which is situated at Busseto, near Palma, is to be sold soon at public auction. The house is the property of the Marquis Pallavicino, who was once very wealthy, but who is now in reduced circumstances. The creditors of the marquis insist upon the sale.

LAW MAKERS TO BE BUSY

MANY MEASURES INTRODUCED COVERING MATTERS OF STATE INTEREST.

Twenty-one bills in the Senate and twenty in the House was the record for the first night of the 128th New Jersey Legislature. This is rather below the average, and the measures were with few exceptions of more than local interest.

One bill provides that no mortgage shall be taxed in cases where the mortgage has agreed not to claim a reduction from the assessed valuation of his property because of such mortgage.

The much-maligned robin has found another enemy in Mr. Hunt, of Salem, who introduced a bill prohibiting the killing of robins, meadow larks, flickers and doves except between August 20 and October 31. Robins are now protected all the year round. Opinion as to the general iniquity of the robin in stealing the farmers' fruit appears to be divided here. Some of the members declare that the robins are not as black as they have been painted, while others are just as positive that of their wickedness the half was never told. There are prospects of a lively fight when the bill authorizing their destruction comes up.

A third measure by Mr. Duffield is a supplement to the act of 1899, which permits municipalities to refund floating indebtedness and matured and maturing bonds.

Mr. Scovel, of Camden, made one fell swoop upon the pound net fisheries with a bill prohibiting their use on the Atlantic coast of the State.

The assault upon the telephone companies was made by Mr. Duff, of Hudson, who introduced a bill which fixes $50 a year as the maximum rate to be charged by any telephone company. It also provides that the charge for the use of a telephone between two points in the same county shall not exceed ten cents.

The Circuit Court judges are evidently getting tired of paying their fare on the railroads of the State, judging by a bill which Mr. Besson, of Hudson, introduced providing that the judges of that court shall be added to the list of State officials who are entitled to free transportation on the railroads of the State.

Assemblyman Van Blarcom, Republican, of Passaic, introduced a bill giving the governing bodies in cities the right to pass ordinances regulating the trolley car systems, forcing trolley companies to establish waiting rooms at intersecting points, heat their cars properly and provide for adequate ventilation and equipment. Failure to comply with the ordinance is to be punishable by a fine not to exceed $50 for each violation, and imprisonment of the guilty officials for ten days in the County Jail.

Ising Case Being Tried.

Percy Ising, of Dunellen, who claims to have been injured in the Westfield wreck on the New Jersey Central a year ago, will probably receive reasonable damages from the railroad companies. The case was opened yesterday and is being continued today. The plaintiff claims to be suffering from chromatic neurasthenia, nervous prostration. The case will probably be given to the jury this afternoon.

Mrs. Charles L. Brownell, of 121 Elmwood place, underwent an operation at Muhlenberg Hospital, Saturday, for a trouble of long standing. The operation was successful and the patient seems to be doing very well.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

A social will be held in Vincent chapel, tomorrow night, under the auspices of the Epworth League of the First M. E. church.

Communion services will be held at Hope chapel, Sunday night, Jan. 31, When it is expected that a large number of persons will be received into membership as a result of the recent revival services.

Six lads and young men presented themselves at the First Baptist church at its service last evening, asking for admission after baptism. The rite will be administered at some date before the coming communion service, Feb. 7.

A majority of the local pastors are now provided with telephones and members of the congregation and others wishing to consult them can do so more conveniently than ever. Arrangements have been made whereby other ministers will have telephones.

Because of an inability to heat Reform Hall on account of a defective boiler, there will be no meeting of the Reform Club tonight. The members and friends of the club have been invited to attend the meeting in Warren chapel, conducted by L. B. Greenwood, the singing evangelist.

STATUS OF NATIONAL GUARD

CONSIDERED BY THE STATE MILITARY BOARD AT SPECIAL MEETING.

The State Military Board met in Trenton yesterday and among other matters acted upon the National Guard bill, which is to be introduced in the Legislature at this session.

The Dick bill, passed by Congress last year changes the duties of members of the National Guard in this State in several important respects, and it will be necessary to alter the State law of 1900 on that account.

The State law provides that members of the National Guard are subject to the call of the Governor, whenever necessity arrives, for a period of three months within the State's service. The Dick law makes militarmen subject to the call of the President of the United States at any time for a period of nine months' service outside of this State.

New Jersey has not as yet adopted the Dick law although some of the regiments claim to be acting under it. When the law has been adopted those now enlisted in the State regiments will either get an honorable discharge so that they may re-enlist, if they care to, or else a new enlistment, providing for a nine months' call to military duty, at the discretion of the President, will be provided for.

It is feared, however, that many of the National Guardsmen will quit the service for good if a bill is passed providing for the honorable discharge of all men now enlisted.

PURE FOOD WANTED.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, Jan. 21.—Senator John Kean has received a petition that is entirely different from any that have yet reached either Senator or Representative in the way of petitions. It is not simply a stock petition, printed so as to fit any section of the whole country, such as come to Senators and Representatives by the thousand. It is, however, a strong argument for pure food legislation, and a plea for its enactment, and comes from the Village Improvement Association of Cranford, whose members are all women, 233 of whom have signed it, and not only the petition, but the names of the signers are all printed in the best style of the art. The Senator also has petitions on the same subject from Bridgeton, Jersey City, another from Cranford, and from Metuchen.

Remember Hospital's Work.

The first anniversary of the greatest disaster that ever afflicted Plainfield will be on Wednesday. The splendid work done at the time of the Westfield wreck by Muhlenberg Hospital in relieving the sufferings of the injured is remembered by all. A timely method of giving the hospital recognition for its good work is to contribute to the Harvest Home festival which takes place today.

The Anti-Cigarette Bill.

There ought to be a good chance for the anti-cigarette bill at this session. It was reported last spring that Governor Murphy made the discovery, when it was too late to rectify the mistake, that he had committed an error when he vetoed the Camden bill. If the cigarette can be legislated out of New Jersey it cannot be done too soon.—From the Trenton Times.

—Miss Josephine Serrell, of Plainfield avenue, arranged a pleasant straw ride party, Tuesday night. There were twenty young people in the party and a trip about Plainfield and Fanwood was enjoyed.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Protective Conclave, Improved Order Heptasophs, will meet tonight and install officers.

A regular meeting of the Women's Relief Corps will be held in G. A. R. Hall tomorrow night.

Under the auspices of the Union Veterans' Union a dance will be given Thursday night, Feb. 4.

The adoption degree was worked on several candidates at the meeting of Iona Council, Degree of Pocohontas, last night.

The members of the order of Good Templars will entertain their friends at a package festival Saturday night in their rooms in the Coward building.

Washington Camp, No. 78, P. O. S. of A., will install its officers next Monday night. District President Drake, with Messrs. Jordan and Stephens, of Elizabeth Camp, No. 78, will install the officers. There will be a special meeting of the order Monday, February 1.

GOVERNOR WANTS A MANSION

BELIEVES THAT STATE NEEDS AN OFFICIAL HOME FOR ITS EXECUTIVE.

Agitation for an executive mansion has been renewed by Governor Murphy. Though the effort to secure the property of Mrs. Caleb S. Green to the east of the Capitol at Trenton, has been temporarily deferred the Governor is of the opinion that in the very near future the erection of a home for the State's executive will come about.

"The Governor of the State should be located at the capital" he has said, "and this cannot be accomplished, to any degree of satisfaction, until the Legislature provides him with a suitable and accessible residence. It is only by the best of fortune that I have managed to temporarily locate in Trenton during the last three sessions of the lawmakers, and it is doubtful if any of my immediate successors will be so fortunate. I almost failed in the attempt this year.

"I believe the Governor should entertain the legislators in an executive capacity in a suitable mansion and be in a position to look after those who are forced to come to the capital to see him on official business of the State. For these reasons, and for the official dignity of the State, there should be an executive mansion," he declared.

The Governor repeated his declaration of a year ago to the effect that the salary of the executive is for him to spend in the interest of the State and in the proper furtherance of the social duties that devolve upon such an official position.

"It was the cry of expense and extravagance that deterred my efforts of some time ago to establish a gubernatorial residence," he added, "but I am fully convinced that the Legislature will soon discover the wisdom of following the example of other States in the provision of an official home for their executive."

CITY JOTTINGS.

—John L. Swayze, secretary to Governor Murphy, is engaged in the preparation of a bill to be presented to the Legislature shortly, providing for a reorganization of the State Department of Factory and Workshop inspection. Mr. Swayze is hard at work on the bill, at the request of the executive, and expects to have it ready for introduction next week.

ANNUAL MEETING OF LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

Reports of Officers Read and Six Directors Chosen at the Yearly Session.

SUMMARY OF THE WORK

PRESENT CONDITION IN THE VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS EXCELLENT.

Institution Has Prospered—Objects Accomplished—Systems in Vogue—Plans for the Future—Religious and Educational Features.

The annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. for the election of directors and the receiving of reports took place last night. The meeting opened with the reading of Scripture by President Stephen Cahoone and prayer by William D. Murray. After the reading of the minutes of the last meeting by A. B. Beers, the report of the nominating committee was read by R. H. Radford, and the president's report by Mr. Cahoone. George M. Rittenhouse reported for the religious work committee, C. S. Rogers for the boys' work committee, and C. E. A. Heywood for the physical department. The report of the educational work committee, prepared by Ira W. Travell, was read by Noble C. King. Curtis M. Thorpe read his report as treasurer.

A vote of thanks, proposed by Asa F. Randolph, was extended the newspapers for assistance given during the year.

The directors elected to serve three years were J. H. Case, H. O. Newman, R. H. Radford, George M. Rittenhouse, John Valiant and Curtis M. Thorpe. Officers will be elected by the directors at the February meeting.

This is a summary of the reports as reviewed by the president, Mr. Cahoone:

"In reviewing briefly the past year's work, it is encouraging to note the growth and activity, and to feel assured that this association is fulfilling the end for which it was organized, with a fair measure of success. Before entering on such a summary, a brief statement of the financial situation should be presented.

"The estimate for 1903, prepared by the finance committee, called for expenditures of about $8,000, but according to the treasurer's report, the total expenses for the current year were $8,795.38. This excess of $795 was due to unforeseen requirements, and for re-wiring the building and providing additional locker room in the gymnasium. The total receipts were $8,796 76, of which sum $5,578 were received from membership dues, rentals and other sources, while $3,218 was contributed by 188 different persons, in sums varying from $8 to $150.

"The membership stands at 350, a gain of 80 from the preceding year. The junior department numbers 123; total membership, including juniors, 473.

"In 1903 there were held on Sunday afternoons in our large hall fifty-two meetings for men, with an average attendance of eighty-nine, and there were also held sixteen boys' meetings, averaging sixteen. The week of prayer for young men was observed in November last, by services in the small hall, and in December Mr. Greenwood conducted a series of evangelistic services in our building and also noonday meetings at several of the machine shops of our city. Another feature of religious effort is Bible study and in the past year five classes had a average attendance in all of thirty.

"During the past year, what was formerly known as the 'Volunteer League,' the organization through which we have sought to develope missionary interest among the members, was changed to the 'Forward Movement Club,' and a missionary committee was appointed to have charge of this work. A room in the building has been assigned to this club identified with this world-wide work for young men.

"In connection with this Forward Movement Club there were held during the year three missionary rallies on Sunday afternoons, these services being substituted for the regular meetings, and there has been forwarded to the International Committee the sum of $120 for the work among young men in foreign lands.

"The boys' department is deservedly prominent in all our plans and the advantages of such a work are self-evident. The membership has risen from forty-seven in July, 1902, when Mr.

BRIDGES ABOUT THE CITY

IN THE SPRING NEW STRUCTURE MAY BE ERECTED AT WEST END AVENUE.

Partially through the efforts of Freeholder William A. Westphal the county-line bridges have been put in good condition and during his term of three years he has been successful in obtainining three bridges for this end of the county. No additional new work is likely to be taken up until spring, when among the first matters to be considered will be the West End avenue bridge. It is planned to either build a new bridge there or move one of the other bridges down the stream, or else build sidewalks on either side of the present structure. As the bridge now stands it is too narrow for the street. Early in the fall the sidewalk on the westerly side of West End avenue in the city was filled in and made more passable and suitable opening were made to carry off surface water. Other improvements will probably be made in this vicinity during the coming year. If Myrtle avenue is opened between the city and borough a new bridge will be necessary over Green brook and this may bring about improvements of a general character which will tend to enhancing the value of property in that part of the city.

HON. JAMES CLARK DEAD

James Clark, of West Seventh street, formerly an Assemblyman of Union County and one of the wealthiest men in Plainfield, died at 2:30 this afternoon. He leaves a wife and two sons, James and Frank.

GIRLS CHOSE THEIR PARTNERS

LEAP YEAR FEATURE OF DANCE AT THE I. C. T. CLUB.

There were twenty-five couples to enjoy "ladies' night" at the I. C. T. Club rooms last night. The main attraction of the night's entertainment was its leap year feature from 10 o'clock to 12 when the girls eagerly seized their prerogative of requesting the young men to dance. Leonce Texier delighted all who heard him sing "Always in the Way" and Allen Squier played the piano for dancing. The guests present included several from Scotch Plains, Dunellen and Westfield. Raymond McVoy was chairman of the committee in charge and was assisted by Arthur Caleen and Burlin Banks.

HARVEST HOME AT HOSPITAL

ANNUAL AFFAIR, CONDUCTED BY WOMEN, AS SUCCESSFUL AS EVER.

The annual harvest home at Muhlenberg Hospital was held yesterday afternoon under favorable auspices. The affair usually takes place just prior to Thanksgiving time, but owing to the work attendant upon moving from the old to the new institution a postponement was necessary. Everything from glasses of jelly to flour, potatoes and the more substantial articles were contributed in large measure.

The affair was held in the men's ward, where plenty of room was allowed for the display of the fruits, vegetables and other things. In addition to these donations, there was also many substantial remembrances in money, all of which is greatly appreciated.

Those in charge and who helped to receive and serve tea included Miss Elizabeth R. Cook, president of the Woman's Auxiliary; Mrs. Samuel Huntington and Mrs. D. T. VanBuren vice presidents, and these women: Mrs. August Kleinecke, Miss Imogene Bass, Mrs. J. Evarts Tracy, Miss Emily Tracy, Mrs. William Pelletier, Mrs. Drake and Mrs. Theodore D. Wilson. Miss Wildey, superintendent of the hospital, also assisted in receiving.

KNOWLEDGE ALONE, OF LITTLE VALUE

Pupils Should be Made to Acquire Common Sense Says Henry M. Maxson.

ADDRESS TO EDUCATORS

AIM OF SCHOOLS IS TO ENABLE PUPILS TO WIN SUCCESS IN LIFE.

Plainfield Superintendent Speaks Before the Newark Principals' Association—Topic, "What We Expect of the School."

In an address before the Newark School Principals' Association in that city Wednesday afternoon, on "What We Expect of the School" Superintendent Henry M. Maxson, of this city, advanced the opinion that knowledge alone was no longer the chief end of the school. The pupil was sent to develop such qualities as would enable him to win success in life, he said.

"The first element which the school should produce," said Mr. Maxson, "is physical strength. By this I mean good carriage of the body, good habits of walking, sitting and breathing; sharpness, alertness, elasticity and vigor in bodily movements. The best brain is of little value if there be no bodily vigor to support it. A trained physical director and a good gymnasium are essential parts of the equipment of every school.

"A second result which we should expect is power of attention; that is, power to devote one's self to any subject for a period of time without wandering to a thousand and one other things.

"Next is the power of observation, the ability to see and remember things that we pass, the power to look at a thing and take in all its details.

"Then comes good judgment, and that is one of the greatest needs in public life today, for we see the absence of it everywhere. People make decisions without any foundation of fact. They run away after religious delusions, medical absurdities and social extravangances by the hundred, simply because they have not the power to discern fundamental principles and reason logically to right conclusions.

"Next to intelligence is the quality of alertness, the ability to start new ideas, to make new inventions, to find new ways of doing things, the power to recognize opportunities and seize them. Next is the power of self-control. If the man is to be a success, the child should learn to control his thoughts, his actions and his desires, and obtain power to bend his will to whatever he undertakes. Self-government in school is a very strong medium for developing this quality.

"Then comes the quality of patriotism. Horace Mann once said: 'Whatever you wish to appear in the life of a nation, you must first introduce into its schools.' So, if our method of government is to exist, then our children should learn to understand it, to appreciate it, and to develop loyalty toward it. But a man cannot be a good citizen without having regard for law.

"One of the greatest dangers that now threaten our national life is the growing tendency toward disregard for law on the part of great corporations, on the part of organization of various kinds, and on the part of private citizens. Officers do not enforce the law which they are appointed to enforce, and the citizens overlook violations of every kind. That is where our work must be done, for a good school should develop in its pupils an intelligent regard for law as an expression of right, and a feeling of obligation, not only to observe the law themselves but to insist upon its being observed by others.

"To sum up the matter," said Mr. Maxson, "it is not so much what the school stores up in the mind of the pupil that is valuable as it is what it works into his character. The pupil's success depends on what he can do rather than on what he knows."

Dissolution of Partnership.

Percy S. Dayton and Herbert S. Taylor, who have been doing business under the firm name of P. S. Dayton & Co., have dissolved partnership by mutual consent. The firm was engaged in business at the City Mills, Somerset street, and it will be continued by Mr. Dayton.

MISSIONARY WORKERS AT A CONFERENCE

Semi-Annual Meeting of the M. E. Church Home Mission Society Well Attended.

MISS BARGE'S ADDRESS

THE CALIFORNIAN TELLS OF HER WORK AMONG THE CHINESE.

Rev. John McMurray Conducts the Devotional Exercises and Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass Makes the Address of Welcome.

The semi-annual meeting of the Elizabeth District of the Home Mission Society of the M. E. church, was held in Vincent chapel, yesterday, morning and afternoon. There was a good attendance of women from all parts of the district, including the pastors of the local M. E. churches. The president of the conference, Mrs. Woodruff, was ill and could not preside, and the conference took its own course following the regular programme.

Rev. John McMurray, pastor of the Monroe Avenue church, conducted the devotional exercises and Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, pastor of the First M. E. church, gave the address of welcome. Greetings were extended from the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society by the district secretary, Mrs Irewin. The rest of the morning session was occupied with various conferences comprising all of the departments of the work.

The chief feature of the afternoon session was an address by Miss Barge, of California, who is the organizer of the young people's societies in the denomination. She gave a graphic description of the labors, especially the Oriental work in SanFrancisco, and she urged the young people to thoroughly organize themselves so that they will be ready to take the places of the older women.

In connection with the conference a basket-luncheon was served under the direction of the auxiliary of the First M. E. church, of which Mrs. E. Clark, Jr., is the president.

There was a noon-tide prayer service conducted by Rev. Dr. E. L. Earp, of Grace M. E. church, and he also conducted a Bible reading in the afternoon for the president, Mrs. Woodruff, who was detained by illness.

FREE VACCINATION!

Board of Health Notice.

Because of the present severe case of small-pox in Plainfield, the Board of Health has decided to offer FREE VACCINATION to all those who apply at the offices of the Board, Room 11, 149 North avenue, between the hours of 3 and 6 on Saturday, Sunday and Monday afternoons, January 23, 24 and 25.

In order to prevent the further spread of small-pox in our city, the Board of Health is anxious that every one who has not been vaccinated successfully within five years, should be vaccinated without delay.

O. J. Fisk,
President.

KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS.

William E. Gardner Fell Heavily on Front Street Icy Pavement.

William E. Gardner, of the grocery firm of Vail & Gardner, of East Front street, had a severe fall about noon today in front of Powlison & Jones' furniture store. In fall Mr. Gardner struck the back of his head throwing him into an unconscious state from which he did not recover for nearly an hour. Drs. J. B. Prosbaco and N. H. Probasco were called. He was removed to his home in Arlington avenue about 1 o'clock. His injuries are not considered serious.

Mother or Wreck Victim Dead.

Mrs. Francis Happersett, mother of Robert Happersett, who lost his life in the wreck on the New Jersey Central at Westfield, a year ago, died in Philadelphia a few days ago in the eightieth year of her age. The funeral services were held from the late home, yesterday. Mrs. Happersett formerly lived in this city. This makes the the third death in the family during the last year.

Warrant for Wagner.

A warrant has been issued from Justice Von Minden's court at New Market for the arrest of Herman Wagner, who is charged with larceny of money and valuables from Alfred N. Foote, by whom he was employed as a coachman. Wagner is thought to have skipped to New York.

JURY AWARDS ISING $10,000 VERDICT

Plainfielder Hurt in Westfield Wreck Recovers Big Damages of R. R. Companies.

A HARD FOUGHT BATTLE

A GREAT VICTORY FOR CORPORATION COUNSEL CRAIG A. MARSH.

Testimony Greatly Conflicting — R. V. Lindabury Represented the Central and Reading Roads—Jury Out Four Hours.

After a hard fought legal battle, Percy M. Ising was awarded a verdict of $10,000 yesterday in the Supreme Court at Elizabeth as damages for injuries received in the Westfield wreck on the Jersey Central a year ago. The action was brought against the Central and the Reading roads and the jury was out for over four hours before returning its verdict.

Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh, of this city, represented the plaintiff and R. V Lindabury, Esq., of Newark, was counsel for the defendants. There was the greatest possible conflict in the testimony presented, and the case was the most bitterly contested that has taken place before a jury in this county in years.

Dr. James S. Green, of Elizabeth, and Dr. G. W. Endicott, of this city, called by the defendants, testified that a stiffness in the plaintiff's knee was but a temporary injury, while Dr. Graeme Hammond, of New York, and Dr. William H. Murray, of this city, called by Mr. Marsh, swore that the defect was permanent in nature and that the plaintiff is suffering from a shattered nervous system.

In summing up each lawyer occupied a full hour's time and every scintilla of evidence was rehearsed for the benefit of the jurors. The jury did not return to the court room until after 8 o'clock last night and when it did it brought a verdict of $10,000 for Mr. Marsh's client. Mr. Ising is much elated over the result. His counsel had been offered by the defendants to settle.

OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Greenbrook Council, Royal Arcanum, Holds an Important Meeting.

Officers were installed and a smoker enjoyed at Greenbrook Council, No. 1720, Royal Arcanum, last night. Grand Deputy Samuel Drummond, of Bound Brook, acted as installing officer, and subsequently as a speaker. He told of the progress and aims of the fraternity and his remarks were well received.

Those installed were: Regent, William Taylor; vice regent, George W. Taylor; orator, R. F. Hazard; past regent, L. B. Skillman; secretary, Webster Grant; collector, J. F. W. Bamberger; treasurer, H. H. Coward; chaplain, Horace Conover; guide, John Dixon; warden, Andrew Krog; sentry, C. F. Mehlenbeck.

NEW MILITIA BILL.

State Military Authorities to Present One to Legislature Monday.

During the week the military authorities of New Jersey have been in almost constant conference and Tuesday they held a session for quite some time and nearly completed the formation of an entirely new State militia law, to be introduced in the Legislature next Monday night.

It is the object of the board to have the law revise all former State legislation, governing the National Guard, and to bring New Jersey officially within the provisions of the national Dick bill.

WILLING WORKERS MEET.

H. J. Martin's Sunday-School Class Spend Pleasant Evening.

A business and social meeting of the Willing Workers of Trinity Reformed church Sunday-school was held last night at the home of the instructor of the class, Horace J. Martin, of East Front street. About twenty were present, the difficulties of travelling preventing the attendance of a larger number. At the conclusion of the business part of the programme games were played and an informal musical programme enjoyed.

ALLEGES IT TO BE A FRAUD

SEAMAN WILLIAMS REFUSES TO PAY NOTE, CLAIMING CONCERN A FAKE.

In Mercer court at Trenton yesterday, the suit of John V. Boyd, of this city, against Seaman Williams et als., of this city, was begun before Judge Pitney. The action is brought to collect a $2,500 promissory note made by Williams to the order of Charles V. Overbaugh, of this city, and by him endorsed to the plaintiff for full face value.

It seems that Boyd and Overbaugh got Williams interested in a company for the manufacture of non-refillable bottles. Williams gave the note for some stock in the concern. He charges that at the time he was given to understand that the company was solvent and that the stock was likely to bring him big returns. Subsequently, he says, he learned that the company had practically no assets and that it did not, in fact, manufacture any more bottles than were needed for samples. He made an effort then to return the stock and have the note canceled, but without avail.

The defendant claims that the note was obtained from him by fraud and he therefore refuses to honor it.

The suit will be continued today.

I. P. Runyon represents the plaintiff.

ALL READY FOR THE BALL

AIDES APPOINTED TO FLOOR COMMITTEES AND A CATERER SELECTED.

George T. Rogers and Thomas R. VanBoskerck, of the ball committee of the charity ball to be given for the hospital on January 28 have selected an out of town caterer, Simon Davis, of Newark. The supper will be served in the basement of the Casino from 11 until 1.

Dr. Norman Probasco, Howard Huntington, George T. VanBoskerck and Morris J. Dumont have been appointed aids to the floor committee.

Because of the fact that in many instances the needed materials and services have been freely contributed, the expenses will be slight and it is expected that a handsome surplus will be the result of the affair.

CHURCH WOMEN IN SESSION

THE CONGREGATIONALISTS HEAR AN ADDRESS AND REPORTS.

The members of the Woman's Association of the Congregational church listened to the reading of papers and reports at a well attended meeting yesterday afternoon. Mrs. C. L. Goodrich, president of the associaiton, presided. It was the regular monthly missionary meeting of the organization. A paper on recent events among colored people was read by Miss Marion Woodcock, and one on "Alaska" by Miss Stuart. The secretary's and treasurer's reports revealed a satisfactory condition of the affair of the association. Mr. J. M. Whiton, president of the Home Missionary Union of New Jersey, described the objects of the union, stating that she hoped for a substantial advance during the year towards its definite financial aim. Tea was served at the conclusion of the business meeting. The committee having charge of the affair was Mrs. John V. Beekman and Mrs. Frank Weeks.

GOVERNOR INVITED BY CO. K

LOCAL MILITARY MAKING ELABORATE PREPARATIONS FOR FAIR.

Company K will entertain its brigade and regimental officers at its fair to be held February 22 to 29. Among those who are expected to be present in full uniform are Col. Collins, Brig. Gen. Gilmore, Capt. Hall, of Co. I, Capt. Park, of Co C, and Capt. Bell, inspector of rifle practice. An invitation has been extended to Governor Franklin Murphy and it is understood that he will attend if his executive and other duties will permit.

The sale of tickest, which include coupons entitling holds to chances on a sewing machine, has begun. The sewing machine will be exhibited next week in a show window of one of the Front street stores. Music for the week will be by Suhr's orchestra. Tickets are on sale at the pharmacies of E. S. F. Randolph, Frank Rowley, Schreiner's and Hodge's and at F. H. Clevely's.

E. H. Hoadley and A. A. Braker, of Ansonia, Conn., were in Plainfield today, as guests of J. T. MacMurray, of the Pond Machine Tool Works.

CREDIT FOR CAPTURE OE HORSE THIEF

Patrolman Vanderweg and Edward Fogarty Entitled to the Rewards Offered.

AS TO O'NEILL'S CLAIM

HOW THE SELF-CONFESSED CROOK WAS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY.

Rewards Offered in Union, Somerset and Middlesex Counties—Doubtful Loss of Horses Can be Laid at Brown's Door—Keorn Fooled.

There has been some uncalled for dispute over the matter of reward for the capture of the horse-thief, Charles Brown, who has confessed to the theft of at least seven horses and is thought to have been implicated in other cases. The number of horses stolen in Somerset, Middlesex and Union counties during the last few months has been large and many of them have been followed by offers of liberal rewards. The farmers of the three counties have suffered particularly, so much so in Somerset that they held a mass meeting in Somerville and offered large sums of money to the persons who should cause the arrest and conviction of the thief. Though it is rather doubtful if any or all of these robberies from farmers can be laid at Brown's door, nevertheless the rewords from various sources due for his arrest are sufficient to make them worth the effort of any officer.

The credit for Brown's capture is due to two men, Patrolman Matthew Vanderweg, who made the arrest, and Edward Fogarty, the boy who first suspected Brown in Westfield and shadowed him on the trolley car to this city. It was the combined work of these two that resulted in the capture. Patrolman Vanderweg, when he learned Fogarty's suspicions, never hesitated for a minute but followed up his man and succeeded in making the arrest after a hard chase. To these two men should go whatever reward has been offered.

Patrolman Thomas O'Neill, of Westfield, has entered himself as a claimant for the reward on the ground that he telephoned a description of the man to the local police. As a matter of fact, however, this act had nothing directly to do with the arrest. Furthermore, when Fogarty requested O'Neill to arrest Brown, as he later requested Vanderweg, O'Neill refused on the ground that the evidence was not conclusive enough.

An interesting fact in connection with Brown's capture is the manner in which he is said to have fooled Chief County Detective Keorn, of Elizabeth, on Tuesday morning, the day of the arrest. Chief Keorn runs a livery stable in Elizabeth and Brown approached him with the request for a rig and his usual story of wishing to deliver goods, Keorn suspected nothing, his sole reason for not granting the request being that all of his horses were out.

MAIL MESSENGER.

Difficulties Encountered in Having Mail Transferred From Trains to the Postoffice.

There is probably no feature of the local U. S. mail service that has been attended with more trouble than that of having the mail carriaed back and forth between the postoffice and the North Avenue station. The office is too far away from the station to have the railroad company handle it and in consequence the Government is obliged to give the contract to the lowest bidder for the work. Since James Frisbie died, it has been a difficult matter to keep any one at the job because of the small wages paid. Many trips are made back and forth between the postoffice and the railroad station during the day and night, and at times the mail is particularly heavy. The average bids for the work are about $500 or $600 a year and the duties are such that the employe has to work from early in the morning until at least 9 o'clock at night.

MRS. FEICKERT'S FUNERAL.

Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, Rector of Grace Church, Officiated.

The funeral services of Mrs. Margaret Feickert, mother of E. F. Feickert, were held last night from the late home on East Front street, corner of Richmond street. Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector of Grace church, officiated. During the services Miss Grace Carroll sang appropriate selections. The interment will take place today in Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn.

This firm has taken unusual pains to please its customers and judging by the great success which has come to it, there is no doubt as to the excellent methods employed to give the people the best goods at fair prices.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

Criminality Not Hereditary.

"No child is born a criminal," says a writer in a French magazine. "After many years of study I am convinced that criminals are produced by bad surroundings and lack of training, and not be heredity. The child who has no school but the street, no authority over him expect that of the policeman, who eats poor food and wears clothes, who is unwashed and untaught and neglected, is quite certain to grow up to be some kind of a social enemy." He recommends that the city, not a private society, should take charge of all neglected children. —Paterson Evening News.

LITERARY.

As our social organization is almost purely commercial, as every great question in our politics is a commercial question, our actual capital is necessarily Wall Street. It sets the fashion in manners and in morals for all the rulers, great and small, from the least town in Maine that can boast, and does boast, a millionaire, to the least town in California where the richest man is the weightiest citizen.—Everybody's Magazine for February.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Checkers," pronounced by the press and public of New York, Chicago and Boston, one of the few real hits of the present theatrical season, is to return to New York to begin an engagement at the Academy of Music on Monday evening, January 25th. This is the play which the New York newspaper and magazine critics have declared: "Pleases all classes." There is in it that which appeals to those who are students of the drama and that which appeals to those who go to the playhouse simply for an evenings pleasant amusement. The story told by "Checkers" is a strictly up-to-date tale of love and luck. It bristles with witty lines; its humor is fresh and contagious and of its love story, the New York Times has said: "It is a long time since the old, old story has been told in so delightful and charming a way.

The large audiences that steadily show enthusiasm over "The Virginian" at the Manhattan Theatre, New York, stamp that stage romance from Owen Vister's fascinating novel of cowboy life in Wyoming as the most distinctive success of the mid-season in New York, and there is every prospect that this play will run indefinitely to the same approval. "The Virginian" is acted by one of the best all-round companies seen in New York this season, and it is staged with every care as to a realistic reproduction of the picturesque scenes of its original locality. Dustin Farnum, who plays the chief part, has made a pronounced hit with the public, so true is he to the character of the Virginian created by Mr. Wister, and very clever players ably second him in interpreting the story with charm and fidelity.

MOTHER TESTIFIES.

Calls God to Witness That All the Bechtels Are Innocent.

A PLAIN, STRAIGHTFORWARD STORY

Prisoner Denies All Guilty Knowledge of Her Child's Death and Said She Would Not Shield the Slayer of Mabel.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 22.—Mrs Catharine Bechtel, whose trial on the charge of being an accessory after the fact to the murder of her daughter Mabel has been in progress here since last week, took the witness stand in her own defense. She was on the stand for four and a half hours and proved a good witness. She told a plain, straightforward story, in a low, plaintive voice, which frequently broke as she related the incidents and conversations that wrung her heart. Briefly stated, Mrs. Bechtel positively denied that her son Tom killed Mabel or that she had guilty knowledge of the crime. She was under cross examination when court adjourned, but the commonwealth up to that time failed to shake her story.

Mr. Schaadt, examining her, thus put the most pointed question of all.

"It is charged," said Mr. Schaadt, "that on that Sunday night Tom struck Mabel in anger and killed her. Now, you are an old woman and have not much longer to live. As you must some day answer to your Creator, so tell us now, did anything like that occur in your house?"

The tears welled in the gray haired woman's eyes, her hands were clasped as if in prayer before her breast, and with her head toward heaven she fervently replied:

"I swear by my God that Mabel was not killed or struck by Tom in my home!"

An impressive silence followed, and then her attorney led her up to the movements of the family on Monday morning. Tom left the house to go to work at 6 o'clock. Mabel came downstairs, she said, at 7:30 and helped herself to breakfast. The sobbing mother then said:

"She came out in the kitchen and said she was going out driving. I asked her, 'With whom—Weisenberg?' and when she answered, 'Yes,' I exclaimed, 'Oh, Mabel!' in a rebuking tone. Mabel put her hands over her eyes and began to cry. I asked her why she cried, and she answered, 'I am crying now; maybe you'll cry later!'"

The witness told of Eckstein's call on Monday evening and of the conversation that ensued. She contradicted some of his statements made earlier in the trial. She added that Eckstein often quarreled with Mabel, and several times he struck her.

Then Mrs. Bechtel told of hearing dogs bark in the yard at midnight on Monday. Tom was asleep, she said, and had one dog with him in his bedroom. Another dog was in the cellar. Arising, she went to the rear window and saw a cab in the alley. She saw two men carry something into Miller's yard next door. The witness did not awaken Myrtha. She heard Tom snoring. The witness told of finding Mabel's body Tuesday morning in the areaway under the house when she went to get a washing machine. This recital and what followed were identical with the statement told by her before the trial and as given by other witnesses. Two aprons placed in evidence belonged to the witness, who accounted for the blood stains by saying that in handling meats she wiped her hands on the aprons.

Mr. Schmidt asked, "Is it true that you wanted Mabel to go with other men?"

"Never in my life," was the answer.

"Did you say to Eckstein that you wanted Mabel to go with men and bring in money?"

"Never in my life, and she did not either. There was never such a thing said."

Replying to another question as to whether she knew how Mabel had come by her death she said:

"God knows that I don't. If I did it I would not be here now. I would have said it long ago. If it was from the youngest tot or the oldest of my children I would not shield them, and I would not be saved myself. I have often implored and prayed that it might be revealed before I die. As it is now, many people stare at us innocent people, and I don't care to go on the street."

This ended her direct examination, and Assistant District Attorney Lutz in the absence of District Attorney Lichtenwalner began the cross examination, but Mrs. Bechtel's story did not vary.

Mrs. Bechtel is a Pennsylvania German, and the entire proceedings were carried on in the Pennsylvania German dialect, which was understood not only by the judge, jury and attorneys, but by most of the spectators in the crowded court room. It is probable that night sessions will be held in order to hasten the end of the trial.

Ice Swept Away Steel Bridge.

COSHOCTON, O., Jan. 22.—The ice gorge in the Walhonding river at Walhonding swept away the steel railway bridge, and the village of Warsaw is half under water. Stock is being driven to the hills, and intense excitement reigns. Grave fears are felt in this city at the junction of the Walhonding, Tuscarawas and Muskingum rivers.

Mad Mollah Defeated Again.

ADEN, Arabia, Jan. 22.—Advices from Somaliland say that Kenna's Somali mounted infantry surprised a body of the Mollah's forces Jan. 17, in the vicinity of Eilinaada, killing fifty spearmen and capturing 3,000 camels and thousands of sheep.

CABLE TO NICHOLAS

The Czar and Mikado Urged to Arbitrate.

LET HAGUE TRIBUNAL DETERMINE

Londoners Request the Two Rulers to End Dispute at Peace Conference if Diplomacy Does Not Settle Far Eastern Trouble.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—Two identical cablegrams originating with W. T. Stead and W. R. Cremer, M. P., were dispatched last night to the czar of Russia and the mikado of Japan urging these potentates, if diplomacy failed, to submit the far eastern dispute to The Hague tribunal.

The messages are lengthy, and they appeal especially to the czar as "the courageous originator of The Hague conference" to take the initiative in referring the matter to The Hague.

The appeals were signed by sixty prominent English advocates of arbitration. Among the signers are all the members of the labor delegation in parliament, Lord Avebury, Lord Hobhouse, the Marquis of Bristol, Frederic Harrison, George Meredith, Sir John Gorst, Earl Grey, the Rev. J. C. Clifford, the Rev. R. J. Campbell and many labor leaders outside of parliament.

Late St. Petersburg advices say the foreign office does not offer any indication of when the Russian reply to Japan will be ready. Some of the strongmen in the empire are working to secure a successful termination of the difficulties, the main fear being a breakdown of the negotiations. But they are meeting with opposition on the ground that concessions which are acceptable to Japan do not preserve Russia's pride.

The Listok says it expects the crisis to end in an understanding in the form of a treaty supplementary to the Russo-Japanese convention regarding Korea.

The papers are still disposed to seek pretexts to attack the actions of the United States, considerable ammunition being wasted on the alleged decision to send the American Asiatic squadron to Yongampho, on the Yalu river. These papers, however, have learned that the squadron's destination is Olongapo, in Subig bay, not far from Manila.

M. Kurino, the Japanese minister, considers that the unfortunate tone of the foreign dispatches, including some from New York to London, tend to create irritation here. He equally deprecates the attempt of the Russian press to "fly the flag of the yellow peril" and says:

"The whole history of Japan since the restoration shows her aim and purpose to take her place on the plane of European civilization and become a world power, politically and commercially. Japan is not so narrow as to advocate 'Asia for the Asiatics.'"

The war ministry's order to convert twenty-seven reserve battalions into regular troops is robbed of significance so far as the present situation is concerned, the order having been issued last February.

Evans' Fleet at Subig Bay.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Word has been received at the navy department of the arrival at Olongapo, in Subig bay, of Rear Admiral Evans' battleship squadron, consisting of the Kentucky, Wisconsin and Oregon.

Connellsville Miners Organize.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 22.—District officers of the United Mine Workers have put into effect the order to organize the miners in the Connellsville coke regions, as decided by the district convention. Four organizers were sent to the field to personally solicit the miners in their homes and in the mines—when they can get near them—and in mass meetings on the outside. There are 18,000 unorganized men in the region. Organizers also were sent to the Slippery Rock mines of the United States Steel corporation to take charge in Butler county of the strike declared there against a reduction in wages.

Ball's Victim Is Dead.

DANVILLE, Va., Jan. 22.—Brantley Carter, the Lynchburg commercial man who was shot at Chatham, Va., on Monday by George Ball, a Danville drummer, is dead. Ball is in the county jail awaiting a preliminary trial, and his brother, Thomas Ball, has been committed to jail as an accessory before the fact. This is the third murder in Pittsylvania county in the past month, and much excitement prevails in the country districts.

Van Tassell Is Dead.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Wilber J. Van Tassell, the young man who was shot by James Newman of Wappinger Falls while entering a hotel in this city in company with Newman's wife, is dead. Newman was immediately arraigned and held without bail to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of murder in the first degree.

Ice Gorge Formed.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 22. — Ice coming down the Ohio river has formed at Six Mile island a gorge a few miles above the city, and boats have been dispatched to break it. Five boats are busy in front of the city attempting to keep the harbor clear. A barge and the Juniata, a small steamer, have been swept away at Madison, Ind.

Cold In Southern California.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 22.—Unusually low temperature prevails in southern California. The mountains north of here are covered with snow to a depth of four or five inches. Lack of rain is causing the loss of a large number of cattle, which for want of feed and water are near the point of starvation.

We have a note on the desk from James E. Martine, whom we mentioned yesterday. He says: "Mr. Bryan stands higher in the estimation of the people than any other American citizen." We agree with Mr. Martine. In the estimation of the people brother Bryan, of the Commoner, is away up in the air.

Editor, The Daily Press:—

In a recent issue of The Daily Press there appeared a brief notice of the death of Mrs. Ira G. Hulbert. But her life and character were such that she deserves more than a passing notice. Mrs. Hurlbert was born in New Providence, N. J., March 6, 1838. She was married to Ira G. Hurlbert Feb. 16, 1859. Her married life covering nearly a half century was a very happy one and having continued so long—now that one is taken and the other left her departure has been severe wrench to her bereaved companion, filling his life with a great sorrow. Though her death was sudden—occurring after an illness of less than a week, her life of more than three-score years, was such as to warrant the hope that she was fully prepared for the change. When but fifteen years of age she became a Christian and for more than fifty years she humbly followed her Saviour. Twenty years of her life she spent in Rahway, where she was an active, consistent and useful member of the Methodist church, respected and esteemed by all who knew her. For the last nineteen years of her life she and her husband have resided in Plainfield, and during this time she has shown the genuineness of her Christian profession by going about doing good, visiting the sick and performing Christ-like offices among the poor and afflicted. Her concern for an invalid sister, residing in her home has been most marked and beautiful. So careful was she that she should have every needed attention, she watched over her by day and by night not allowing herself to be away from her for a single night. For her to serve others was to serve God. She loved to do good. Her motto might well have been: "Where love is there is God also." Her's was emphatically the altruistic spirit. She was happy only as she was ministering to those about her. Such a life will be missed by those whom it touched and made better. Yet such lives passed without show—without note—without pretension, may be said to be hidden lives and their graves are often the unvisited ones. For such death is "transition, translation—coronation." Indeed for such there is no death.

"It is not death to fling,
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise on strong—exulting wing.
To live among the just."

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

William Mague, of the Potter Press Company's Works, is still on the sick list.

William Mosher, superintendent of the Potter plant, is confined to his home by illness.

William McComb, of West Front street, left yesterday for Virginia on a business trip for the Manganese Steel Safe Company.

About a dozen machinists employed at the Scott Press Company's plant have decided to go to Panama. This trip has been the topic of conversation among the shop men for the past two months. The United States Government is building a large factory which will be completed this month. There will be work in this plant for several hundred machinists.

Trolleymen Resign.

Martin Lance, conductor, and Patrick McGuire, motorman, have resigned their positions with the Public Service Corporation. They have been employed in the service eight years and, when the changes in the operation of trolley cars were made early this week, they believed that they should have preference as to the choice of a run, which was denied them.

She's Eight Years Old.

In honor of the eighth anniversary of the birthday of Miss Marguerite Currin, a party was given at her home in Mountain avenue, yesterday afternoon. There were about twenty-five of Miss Currin's friends present and the time was pleasantly spent in playing games and having a general good time.

In Memoriam.

At a meeting of the Middlesex Bowling Green Club, held at the office of the secretary of the club on the eleventh day of January, A. D., 1904, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously passed:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Almighty Ruler of the Universe, in His infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst our worthy associate, brother member and president, Christian Schepflin; and,

WHEREAS, We are again reminded of the solemn truth, that in the midst of life we are in death; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of Christian Schepflin, the Middlesex Bowling Green Club has lost the founder and most liberal supporter of the ancient game of bowling green in these United States; a worthy member, a capable officer, whose lea. home, purse and friendship were always at the disposal and enjoyment of his brother members; one who stood for manly ideals, uniform courtesy and ready hospitality to all.

Resolved, That we tender our sincere and profound sympathy to the bereaved widow for the loss she has sustained, and commend her to the Father above, who looks down with compassion on the afflicted in their deepest hour of sorrow.

Resolved, That these resolutions be suitably engrossed and presented to the widow of our departed friend and brother member.

ANNUAL MEETING OF LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

Robbie first assumed charge, to 123. A large number of boys, about seventy, have expressed an interest in spiritual things, or a desire to lead Christian lives, while twelve have united with different churches in the city. Mr. Robbie's influence over the boys has been excellent.

"The educational advantages that are offered to men, through our evening classes, are not appreciated nor availed of by as large a number as might be expected, considering the population of the city, and the many machinists and clerks who might profit by attending those courses of study. The total enrollment in October, 1903, was fifty-eight against forty-one the previous year, and the total average attendance in all classes from October to January was twenty-seven.

"The gymnasium is one of the most interesting features of the building. The average attendance for the year in the men's gymnasium classes was sixteen, and in the boys, twenty-five, representing six classes per week. Total number of men using gymnasium privileges, 184; boys, 126. Eighty-one physical examinations were made by the physical director, including some members of the police force of our city and at different times men have been sent to Mr. Heywood for special treatment by physicians in Plainfield.

"The tennis courts were fully appreciated and largely used, and baseball, basket ball, bowling and other out-door recreations have been enjoyed by the men and boys of this department.

"One important event in 1903 has been the formation of a Ladies' Auxiliary. This society, started last fall, has now a membership of eighty-six. In the way of entertainments the 'Star Course' maintains its popularity and needs but a reference in passing.

"Among what might be called social events were the annual dinner of committeemen on which occasion plans of work for the coming year were discussed, the Thanksgiving dinner for young men away from their homes, and the Christmas dinner in our hall for poor boys, when about seventy-five were our guests. There have also been receptions given to men in shops; the shuffle-board, chess and other games have been popular. The reading-room has been patronized more than usual during the past year and we have endeavored in different ways to render the building attractive to those who frequent it. We were represented at Northfield and at the Lake George conference, at the Boys' Convention and Educational Convention in Newark, and at other conferences in the State and neighborhood."

The report concludes: "As an association our thanks are due to our employes for the conscientious and faithful discharge of their respective duties, to the teachers of our evening classes who render such valuable service, to the daily papers of our city for the space accorded our work in their columns, and to all our many friends, who by gift and effort have made possible this work for young men. Above all we would recognize our dependence on that Higher Power, whose presence has hitherto sustained and guided us and in whom is all our confidence and our assurance of future success."

Kenneth Robbie, who has been so successful in building up the local boys' department, did the honors at the luncheon served at the conclusion of the discussion. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Joseph W. Gavett, Mrs. T. F. Budlong, Mrs. Howard J. Runyon and Mrs. Roger F. Murray. Those present were Secretaries Nixon, of Morristown; Burger, of Paterson; Robinson, of Trenton; Kight, of Camden; Wones, of Newark, and State Secretary Charles R. Scott, of Newark.

WIFE BEATER SENTENCED.

Frank Schaeffer to Spend Fifteen Days in Jail for His Cowardly Acts.

Frank Schaeffer, of the borough, whose wife complained that he had abused her and threatened her with bodily injury, was sent last night to join the amalgamated sons of rest who make the Somerville jail their headquarters. Schaeffer much preferred fifteen days of recreation at Somerville to paying over $15 had cash. Recorder Doud gave him his choice. The only witness to appear against Schaeffer was his wife. He pleaded guilty.

Concert at Heavenly Rest.

A concert to be given at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, under the direction of Garret T. Dunham, will take place Thursday night, February 4. The programme will include several selections by a large chorus, and there will be vocal solos by Mrs. F. M. Ward, William Holmes and George Smith. Mr. Dunham will direct the chorus and have general supervision of the concert.

Crack Billiardist.

Joseph Gerstel, a trick billiardist, gave an exhibition last night before a large crowd in the Park Club house, doing some marvellous stunts with a billiard ball and a high hat. He will perform tonight at a local pool room. Mr. Gerstel is a former resident of this city.

Mrs. S. A. Weaver, of Truell Court, is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Stokes, of Philadelphia.

MORGAN EXPLAINS.

Senate Listens to Arguments For Annexation of Panama.

PLATT DEFENDS THE PRESIDENT.

All Quiet on the Isthmus—Gunboats Still Patrol—Ellsworth Welcomed at Cartagena—Market at Barranquilla Destroyed by Fire.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Mr. Platt (Conn.) concluded his speech on Panama. He defended the course of the president throughout the Panama revolt and eulogized the executive personally as brave and fearless. During the day Mr. Morgan spoke in explanation of his bill for the annexation of Panama to the United States, basing his argument on the ground that the pending canal treaty practically contemplated that result.

Dispatches from Colon say that no change has occurred in the situation on the Atlantic side of the isthmus. The American gunboats are still patrolling the coast as far as Cape Tiburon to the southeast. Some Indians came into Portobello in canoes last week and informed the captain of the Atlanta that Colombians were landing on the San Blas coast. A careful search of the coast was made, but no evidences were found of any movement of Colombian troops toward Panama.

The Porvenir of Cartagena, referring to the recent arrival at Cartagena of United States Consul Luther F. Ellsworth, extends to him a welcome and says "he is an affable and sympathetic gentleman, who is anxious to maintain cordial relations between Colombia and the United States."

News has been received here of the destruction by fire of the public market at Barranquilla. Owing to a recent strike of longshoremen at Savanilla, the port to Barranquilla, there is a great accumulation of freight at the port which cannot be handled by the railroad connecting the two places because of the lack of sufficient rolling stock. Large shipments of coffee and other exports are accumulating at Barranquilla for transport to Savanilla. The strike is now over, and efforts will be made to move the freight.

The Royal Mail steamer Orinoco has arrived here from the coast and reports that the Colombian gunboats Pinzon and Cartagena are at present absent from Cartagena. It is believed they have returned to Titumati, the Colombian base on the gulf of Darien.

Skinner's Unification Scheme.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 22.—The plan of educational unification favored by Superintendent Charles R. Skinner of the department of public instruction is embodied in a bill introduced in the assembly by Mr. L. L. Davis of Warren county. The bill provides for a selection by lot of nine of the present regents, who thereupon shall become the board of regents, the terms of office of all the others thereupon ceasing. The legislature shall thereafter annually elect one regent for a term of nine years. Within ten days after the passage of the bill the legislature is to elect a commissioner of education, who is to supplant both the present superintendent of public instruction and the secretary of the board of regents, each of whose offices is abolished. The commissioner's salary is to be $7,500. No person now connected with either the department of public instruction or the board of regents shall be eligible for election as commissioner.

Chinaman Met Death in Refrigerator

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 22.—A body identified by Chinese letters and papers found in the pocket as Leong Yieke of Toronto was found in an ice stocked refrigerator that had just reached this city from Montpelier, Ind., to be loaded. The papers and cards were taken to Chinese merchants here, and from the parts translated the police reached the conclusion that Yieke had been living in Toronto and had smuggled himself across the line. His presence in the car is accounted for in that he attempted to steal a ride and was unable to open the car door after drawing it shut.

Officers Dismissed From the Service.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The president has approved the sentence of the court martial in the cases of Knud Knudson, Seventh infantry, and Hector R. Robichon, Thirteenth infantry and they have been dismissed from the service. Knudson was convicted of the misappropriation of funds and embezzlement and Robichon of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman.

Colonel Lester Honored.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Colonel James W. Lester, recently promoted to the command of the Second regiment, N. G. S. N. Y., was last nigh the guest of honor at a reception given here by Companies L of Saratoga Springs and M of Hoosick Falls.

The Prophet Met a Frost.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—John Alexander Dowie, with his party from the east, sailed for Australia on the steamer Sonomo While in this city he delivered two addresses, but was coldly received on both occasions.

Minneapolis at Kingston.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Jan. 22.—The United States cruiser Minneapolis, flying the flag of Rear Admiral Wise, has arrived here from Santo Domingo.

Mayflower to Come Home.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—The president's yacht Mayflower, which has been at Panama since the middle of November, has been ordered home.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark.

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

SLEEVES GROWING LARGER.

Cloth and Velvet Costumes Alike Boast Wide Frills of Lace.

Sleeves are growing continually in size, and they are shirred and puffed in most wonderful fashion. Old fashioned sleeves can be cut off at the elbow, slashed and filled in with ruffles of very full lace. Cape effects, shirrings and much tucked and huge puffs are all features of the new sleeves. Cape effects bordered with narrow fur and decorated on their points with tassels add to the breadth of the shoulders.

The velvet craze still continues. The three-quarter Louis coats in this material are lined with white satin and trimmed with wonderful embroideries. Dark royal blue and a shade of violet are great favorites, and when these are worn with a stole of ermine the effect is truly regal.

Some of the long garments are faced back for a distance with wonderful bro cades. A favorite design is baskets of roses on a white silk gown. Lace ruffles in the wide sleeves and lace fronts are necessary features of the dressy coats, and, in fact, the lace sleeve ruffles are seen even on humbler tailor mades of cloth.

Three-quarter garments of fine black or gray cloth are trimmed with collars of dyed lace and deep fringe. The buttons are as rich as the owner can afford, and when they are of enamel or cut steel they add much to the smartness of even a very plain coat.

The picture shows a sable and velvet coat and a sable three cornered hat trimmed with a white plume.

EVENING DRESSES.

Transparent Silks—Wider Belts Than Ever.

Soft crepe de chines and eastern silks which have a certain degree of transparency are charming worn over pale colored slips. Thus white can be made up over pale green trimmed with pale green embroidery and a cluster of parma violets and their leaves. These diaphanous materials are particularly good form for young girls and make admirable dressy costumes.

The expensive velvet gown should be made practical by having two bodices, one for day and the other for evening wear. This last if cut plainly may do service for many occasions simply by changing the trimmings in the shape of berthas of fancy lace or flowers.

Pink and pale blue is a combination just now much in favor, especially on ball gowns, where it takes the form of pale pink roses and forgetmenots.

Belts are wider than ever, and no gown can be quite smart with a narrow belt. Broad ribbon is crossed and fastens in the back with two oddly knotted ends. All the belts are brought down into a point in the front, where they are held by a jeweled pin or buckle.

Black costumes are now relieved by a bit of color, emerald green being one of the favorite shades for this purpose. Some of the handsomest black gowns are incrusted with ecru or even white lace, and this light colored lace is even seen on jet gowns.

The picture shows a black chantilly lace gown trimmed with white lace applique which has the wide cape effect and wide girdle.

FLOODS THREATEN.

Pittsburg and Allegheny In Danger From Rising Rivers.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 22.—Unless there is a sudden change in the weather Pittsburg and Allegheny, Pittsburg's Brooklyn, will suffer greatly from flood. Rain is falling steadily up the valleys of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers, and they are rising suddenly. There is every indication that the ice in both rivers will break up at about the same time, and if this occurs there will be millions of dollars of damage done.

In the Monongahela valley the danger is particularly great on account of the many dams which slackwater the stream to Morgantown, W. Va. It is feared that the loss of life will be heavy.

Below here the danger is even greater, for both the swollen rivers are pouring their floods into the Ohio, and residents of the lower portions of the two cities are moving out.

Forecaster Ridgeway says that his reports from up river points are far from reassuring. From some observation stations he has not heard because telegraphic communication is interrupted.

Preparations are being made for a break up in the rivers and a flood today as the result of the warm weather and the heavy rains of the last twenty-four hours.

The entire fire department has been called out to assist in saving property.

The residents of the lower part of Allegheny are about ready for the expected flood. Many families have removed their household effects to the second floors and made every preparation for the flooding of their homes when the high water comes. Business houses which are affected by floods on both sides of the river have also made preparations, and in anticipation of sudden high water the police of Allegheny have arranged for skiffs to patrol the water front and assist residents from their houses.

Mr. Ridgeway said he was not an alarmist, but he ventured the assertion that some time Pittsburg will have a forty foot stage of water.

This would exceed the floods of 1884 and 1832.

EXPLOSION IN SEITZ HOTEL.

Three Killed and Many Others Badly Injured.

MARION, Ind., Jan. 22.—In an explosion which wrecked the Seitz hotel building three people were killed, two fatally hurt and ten seriously injured.

The building was a two story brick, having five business rooms on the first floor, the hotel occupying the second floor and having about thirty guests.

The outer walls were blown out, the second floor falling on the first, with the roof on it. The guests were under the wreckage, which at once ignited. They were asleep in their rooms when the explosion occurred.

The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Beitel could be seen through the flames and wreckage for an hour before they were recovered.

All the injured lived in or near Marion. The property loss is $25,000.

Thomas Twigg and Randall Biddle, two glassworkers rooming at the hotel, were hurled to the ceiling and then dropped to the first floor. William East, a guest of the hotel, was pinioned to the floor by a mass of broken timber and may die from injuries received.

Has Abolished the Lock Step.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 22.—State Superintendent of Prisons C. V. Collins has a new idea concerning the treatment of prisoners based on the same theory which prompted him two years ago to abolish the dreaded lock step. He will at an early day abolish the stripes for first term men and substitute in its place a plain gray cloth suiting. Superintendent Collins says, "As the lock step betrayed men to the outside world as criminals, so the stripe system for first year men degrades them to such an extent that they cannot forget it when they leave prison."

Victim Pleaded For Prisoner.

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Jan. 22.—Gardner W. Northrup, the former police officer who shot and dangerously wounded Chief of Police William F. Dineen of North Adams on Dec. 17, retracted his plea of not guilty in the superior court and pleaded guilty of assault with intent to murder. He was sentenced to serve not less than three nor more than five years in state prison. Chief Dineen addressed the court before sentence was pronounced and asked that for the sake of the prisoner's family the sentence be made as light as was compatible with justice.

Largest Cyanide Mill Burned.

FLORENCE, Colo., Jan. 22.—The cyanide mill of the United States Reduction and Refining company, north of this city, the largest in the world, has been destroyed by fire; loss, $100,000. The mill was being dismantled, and the machinery was to have been shipped to Utah, where the company is building a new mill.

German Cruiser at Charleston.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 22.—The German cruiser Stein, with a large class of cadets aboard, has come into port and will remain a week. One cadet recently died of scarlet fever and was buried at sea.

Yale Man Chosen Pastor.

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Rev. Edward A. George of Willimantic, Conn., has been chosen pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Ithaca. He is a graduate of Yale university and Yale Divinity school.

Funeral of Von Holst.

BERLIN, Jan. 22.—The funeral of Hermann E. von Holst, the constitutional historian, who died at Freiburg, will take place today. The remains will be cremated at Heidelberg.

AT NEW ORLEANS.

Racing on Sloppy Track—Ida Penzance Not Dead.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 22.—The Pageant, in McLyle's stable, trained by W. H. Roller, is dead. The Pageant was a cheap selling plater. Ida Penzance, which was reported to have been killed on Wednesday, is not dead. Mattie Orr was the name of the mare killed. She was in the same stable with Ida Penzance and greatly resembled the latter.

Pittsburg Phil and party have left for Los Angeles, Cal. It drizzled last night, and the rain came down at intervals. The track was sloppy, but there was a good bottom to it.

Big Ben frightened everything out of the third event, and in consequence Street's big sprinter, who is extremely partial to a muddy track, was held at prohibitive odds. Results:

First Race—Shortcake won, Responsive second, Snow Cup third.

Second Race—Felix Bard won, Caterpillar second, Circus Girl third.

Third Race—Clangor won, Big Ben second, Parisienne third.

Fourth Race—Lauralighter won, Ethics second, Hands Across third.

Fifth Race—Friar Tuck won, Garret Wilson second, St. Resolute third.

Accident at Oakland Track.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—Immediately after the field broke in the fourth race at Oakland Oarsman, the 1 to 2 favorite, stumbled and threw Jockey Wonderly. The boy escaped injury. With Oarsman out the event proved easy for Waswift, a 7 to 1 chance. Scherzo, winner of the third race, was bid up from $400 to $800 by Frank Doss, but he was retained. Cascine was given a bad ride by Bell in the fifth race, and after he appeared to be winning he was beaten by Princess Titania, the even money favorite. Jockey Bullman, suspended for failure to keep his engagements, will be allowed to ride in the Lissak handicap.

Choynski and Carter Held.

BOSTON, Jan. 22.—The carrying out of the plan of the Boston police board to stop all boxing exhibitions and alleged prize fighting in this city resulted in the holding for the grand jury of Joe Choynski and Kid Carter, who were found probably guilty of having committed mutual assault. Choynski and Carter were arrested Tuesday night at the Criterion Athletic club after the former had been knocked out by Carter in the first round. Eight others were arrested on the charge of aiding and abetting a prize fight. In court these defendants waived examination and were held for the grand jury.

Knocked Down Four Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 22.—"Yank" Kenny of New York essayed to go six rounds with Jim Jeffords of California last night at the Broadway Athletic club, but was so far outclassed that the referee ended the fight thirty seconds before the first round was to have ended. In the two minutes and thirty seconds the bout lasted Kenny was knocked down four times and was all but out when the referee stopped the fight.

General Miles For President.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—The Post says that the Iroquois club, to which prominent Chicago Democrats belong, is preparing to boom General Nelson A. Miles as the man to nominate for president on the Democratic ticket this year. A committee of the club has been authorized to arrange for a banquet soon, at which General Miles will make the principal address and be hailed as a bona fide candidate for the presidency. General Miles has been invited to attend and has accepted. The date of the banquet has not been fixed, but it will be in the near future. The Iroquois club is one of the leading Democratic organizations of the west.

Big Fire Scorched Dawson.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Jan. 22.—A special from Dawson says: "A fire in Dawson has caused great consternation. The thermometer was 35 degrees below zero, and water was thrown on the fire with difficulty. The firemen's clothes were covered with ice. After two hours' work the fire was controlled. The loss was $105,000. The Ladue company, in whose warm storage quarter the fire started, lost $75,000, and the Ames company lost $30,000."

Meadville Flooded.

MEADVILLE, Pa., Jan. 22.—The lower business section and much of the residence section of Meadville is inundated. The trouble comes from Mill run and follows a thaw and light rain of twenty-four hours. The run passes under several business blocks and streets and has become completely clogged with ice, forcing the water over the banks. A torrent is sweeping through several stores on Front street, and cellars are flooded.

Fifty-six Chinamen Deported.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 22.—On board the Baltimore bound steamer Dorchester when she sailed were fifty-six Chinamen from Boston and Buffalo listed for transportation to their native country. They are in charge of United States Marshal Bennett of Auburn, N. Y., and have been convicted of being illegally in this country.

Monument Bills Introduced.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Representative Spalding of North Dakota introduced bills in congress appropriating $100,000 each for monuments to William McKinley and Alexander Hamilton in the District of Columbia.

Blood For Blood.

ROANOKE, Va., Jan. 22.—At Wytheville, Va., Judge Fulton has sentenced Chesley Peoples to be hanged on March 25 for the murder of John Seagle last December.

SPORTING NEWS.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The bowling match between Plainfield and Passaic Y. M. C. A.'s, scheduled for tomorrow night, has been postponed.

The Y. M. C. A. five will bowl a team from Scott's, tonight, on the Y. M. C. A. alley at 7:30 o'clock. Of the games previously rolled by the two teams, five have been won by the Y. M. C. A.

The Roselle Casino bowling team will meet the Parks on the local alleys, tonight, in a series of games in the Daily Press Bowling League tournament. It is said that the Parks are ready for their opponents and will give them a lively chase. The Roselle five have the reputation of rolling high scores and they will endeavor to take all three games.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

Joe Gerstel, formerly of Plainfield, gave an interesting exhibition of fancy pool and billiard playing at the Perk Club last night before a large audience. A number of very difficult shots were made with perfect ease, while several trick shots attracted considerable attention.

ROD AND GUN.

J. S. Fanning, of New York, who recently broke 245 clay pigeons straight, is expected to attend the big shoot to be held on Saturday, January 30, under the auspices of the Bound Brook Club. It will be an all-day shoot.

BASKET BALL.

The Business Men's basket ball team of the local Y. M. C. A. will play the Triangle Athletic Club team, of New Brunswick, in the local gymnasium, Monday night.

BREAD AND WATER FOR FRITZ

WIFE BEATER, ADAM, MUST SERVE HIS SENTENCE IN CLOSE CONFINEMENT.

Adam Fritz, the wife beater and profanity expert, who is contemplating his sins and cooling his heels and his temper in the seclusion of the borough lock-up, will serve out the remainder of his seven day sentence in spite of the efforts of a few misguided friends to get him out. Mayor N. B. Smalley made a statement to that effect this morning.

The Mayor intends to have Fritz examined as to his sanity, though he has not yet decided upon the date for the ceremony. His opinion is that Fritz is either lacking in balance or possessed of the devil. If pure cussedness is the cause of Adam's wildness, it may be confidently expected that he will receive a great sufficiency in the way of return attentions from the borough authorities. Adam's peculiar ideas of running his garden of Eden have caused utmost disgust among the borough citizens, who generally regard his sentence as far too mild.

Bread and water as a diet did not tempt Adam yesterday but this morning he ate a slice of bread.

MRS. EMMONS' FUNERAL.

Services at Her Daughter's Home Conducted by Rev. Dr. Schenck.

The funeral services of Mrs. Elizabeth Emmons were held today at 11 o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. George W. Reighton, 1270 Park avenue. Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, of which the dead woman was a member, conducted the services. The interment was in Hillside cemetery and the pall-bearers were John Clarkson, William Noe, Edward F. Randolph, David Randolph, Nathan Randolph and Rowland A. Smith.

Miss Matilda M. Gassner, of West Front street, is the guest of Brooklyn friends for several days.

CHIEF KIELY'S GOOD WORK

HORSES AND RIGS STOLEN BY BROWN FOUND IN PERTH AMBOY.

Chief Kiely yesterday located the rig stolen from Dr. Pocock. Through information from Jacob Rabinowitz, who bought the horse property from Brown, the horse was discovered in one place, in Perth Amboy, the carriage in another and the harness in still another. It required a good bit of shrewd detective work to discover all the property.

The Chief also located the horse stolen from Nief Apgar, the Somerville liveryman, though unable to discover the carriage and harness. He got a line on a number of other horses and rigs stolen by Brown at different times and disposed of through Rabinowitz.

The Chief has gone to Pennsylvania today searching for other property stolen by Brown. He was unable to state his exact destination.

DISCUSSED PANAMA QUESTION

TOPIC AT MEETING OF FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH MEN'S CLUB.

The monthly meeting of the Men's Club of the First Presbyterian church, was held last night in the chapel of the church. The feature of the evening was a discussion of the Panama question, which was introduced by I. B. Hill and William Harrison. They spoke of the advantages and disadvantages of the project, each presenting strong arguments pro and con. Afterward there was a general discussion of an informal character concerning the question, in which everyone became enlightened on the problem.

A more elaborate programme is in contemplation for the next meeting to be held in February, where an effort will be made to have an address by the president of a well-known railroad company, who is a friend of a member of the club. There will also be a musical programme.

A NEW BASEBALL MANAGER

EDWARD L. HAND SUCCEEDS GEORGE JOHNSON ON SCOTCH PLAINS TEAM.

Edward L. Hand was elected manager of the Scotch Plains baseball team at a meeting of the club last night. He will succeed George Johnson, who will continue his active interest in the club. Hand is an old ball player and the club's assistant manager last year. Arthur Haskard was elected secretary and treasurer. The advisability of entering a six team or Central New Jersey league, should such an organization be effected, was discussed. Big improvements to the Scotch Plains grounds will be made before the opening of the season and a new grandstand will probably be erected.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Rev. John McMurray, pastor of the Monroe Avenue church, conducted the services in the M. E. church, Westfield, last night.

The Men's Assembly of Grace M. E. church will meet tonight, and an address will be given by Rev. Mr. Bergwin, of Brooklyn.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church a social and entertainment will be given in the chapel of the church on Thursday night, January 28.

District Deputy J. E. Vanderhoef, of this city, installed the officers of Orange Conclave, Improved Order Heptasophs, Wednesday night.

J. M. Higgins, delegate from Lodge No. 44, of this city, to the Bricklayers' and Masons' convention at Trenton this week, will return tomorrow morning

Martha Washington Council, No. 28, Daughters of America, will meet tomorrow evening in I. O. O. F. Hall, Babcock building. Business of importance will be transacted.

IROQUOIS INQUEST.

Architect of the Ill Fated Theater on the Stand.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Benjamin H. Marshall, architect of the Iroquois theater, and Monroe Fulkerson, attorney for the city fire department, were the principal witnesses at the Iroquois theater inquest. Mr. Marshall's testimony related entirely to the construction of the building and the changes which had been made in it since the drawing of the first plans. His testimony flatly contradicted that of Building Commissioner Williams, who declared that he had visited the theater but once, about two weeks prior to the opening. Mr. Marshall said that he personally conducted the commissioner through the building four days before the opening and that Mr. Williams pronounced it thoroughly fireproof and the best constructed theater he had ever seen.

Mr. Marshall declared that the blind passageway in which nearly 100 people were killed was never intended as an exit and showed to the coroner's jury that it was not so marked on the plans.

Mr. Fulkerson became involved in trouble with the coroner over the fact that a short time before the fire in the Iroquois theater his office had issued certificates of safety to practically every theater in the city except the Iroquois. The certificate was not issued to the latter because it was not ready for inspection at the time the other theaters were investigated. These certificates, Attorney Fulkerson declared, were issued only because the aisles were sufficiently wide to meet the requirements of the city ordinances. Nothing else was taken into consideration at the time the certificates were issued.

Mr. Fulkerson declared the certificates were made on reports from the office of the building commissioner and were furnished to the fire marshal, who signed them without investigation.

TRAIN ROBBERS GOT SAFE.

Wells, Fargo & Co. Said to Have Lost $80,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—Train robbers stole the iron safe from the express car of the Sunset limited, northbound, on the Southern Pacific railway near San Luis Obispo and secured a large amount of treasure from the stolen box, the sum being placed as high as $80,000.

The Sunset limited was traveling in two sections, and it was in one of the express cars of the second section that the robbery occurred. The express messenger, T. Sullivan, had two cars to look after, and shortly after the train left San Luis Obispo and while the train was nearing San Marguerite he discovered the loss of the safe.

He had been working in the forward express car, and as soon as he went to the rear he made the astounding discovery that the safe had been wrenched from the corner of the car, where it had been secured by heavy steel bars, and carried away.

Had the Goods on Him.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., Jan. 22.—Harry Landon, who says his home is in Philadelphia, has been arrested here and locked up on a charge of having in his possession and passing counterfeit half dollars. When arrested eight of the imitation coins were found in his possession.

Nantucket's Third Siege.

NANTUCKET, Mass., Jan. 22.—The inhabitants of this island have settled down for the third ice siege of the winter. The harbor is impregnable, and the sound for miles is filled with floating ice. Provisions are plentiful, but the grain supply has been exhausted.

NOW IN ISOLATION HOSPITAL

ALEXANDER STILLS, SMALL-POX VICTIM, REMOVED TO QUARANTINE.

Alexander Stills, the colored barber, who is ill with small-pox, was removed to the isolation hospital, last night, the removal from his house to the hospital being done without any trouble whatever. Mrs. Gerold, the trained nurse, who cared for the small-pox cases at the hospital last winter, will have charge of Mr. Stills. She is expected to go there today. In the meantime Mrs. Stills is assisting in the care of her husband. The physician in charge believes that Mr. Stills will have a severe case of the disease.

The Board of Health will conduct free vaccination at its rooms in the Smalley building tomorrow, Sunday and Monday afternoons from 3 to 6 o'clock, and all persons who have not been vaccinated during the past five years are urged to have the operation performed now.

SNAP SHOTS.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

In this cold season of freezing nights the animals which are dependent upon us for their comforts should be properly sheltered from the weather. Incredible as it may seem there are a few people who think that this consideration is unnecessary and their animals suffer accordingly. The fact that very few farmers are so indifferent to their faithful beasts, and that the law forbids their being left unsheltered from the weather would seem to prove that it is a cruel thing to do. It is senseless to compare our domesticated animals to the wild creatures that live the rough life of the wilderness. Man has for so long provided for the farm animals that they have lost their toughness and ability to live independent of man's care without much suffering. The man who leaves his beasts out in the cold at night is a person to be made acquainted with the law.

William C. Carroll, a distinguished resident of Plainfield, N. J., came to the city yesterday as chaperon to a brace of mules. The mules had been sold by a neighbor to J. S. Thomas, who lives in Harlem. Mr. Carroll offered to escort the animals to their new owner's establishment, for a nominal consideration.

"I will have a chance to see the sights," he said, "and I will also have the society of the mules."

When they arrived in New York in light marching order Mr. Carroll mounted one of the mules and, hanging forked end down, started Harlemwards, leading the other animal. He selected Fifth avenue as the route after he had passed up Broadway to Twenty-third street.

When he reached Thirty-fourth street he stopped and said to the mules: "This looks like a good, sizable tavern. I will go inside and see if the kind they have here is as good as that I found further downtown. The liquor these places sell is certainly fine, though it costs money."

Leaving the mules outside, Mr. Carroll entered the Waldorf-Astoria and inquired the way to the bar. While a house detective was arguing with him, the warmth overcame him and went to sleep on a divan. Policeman Thomas Butler was called, and he conveyed the wayfarer to the West Thirtieth street police station.

The cold air revived Mr. Carroll, and when the station house was reached he was able to tell his story as above. "I've had a few drinks," he admitted. "I counted up to eighteen, and then I didn't care how many I had. I'm no human cash register."

It was warm in the station house, and again Mr. Carroll went to sleep.

In the meantime the mules, annoyed at the ribald remarks of cabmen at the Hyphen Hotel, had separated. One was going up Fifth avenue and the other was headed toward the great East Side, when they were lost to the sight of the cabmen.—New York Morning Telegraph.

S. C. PECK'S FATHER DEAD

DIED AT HIS HOME IN MILFORD, CONN., IN HIS NINETY-SIXTH YEAR.

S. C. Peck, father of S. C. Peck, Jr., of West Front street, died on Monday at his home in Milford, Conn., following an attack of pleurisy. He was born at Milford in June, 1808, and would have been ninety-six years old next. He had the distinction of passing through four wars, the one of 1812, Mexican, Civil and Spanish. Although he never enlisted he was very patriotic and contributed in other ways to the success of the Union forces. He had an unusually good memory and could often recall incidents of his boyhood days. Without a doubt he was the oldest resident of Milford and it was with veneration that his fellow-townsmen looked upon him. He was admired and eminently respected for his excellent qualities.

For a great many years he was engaged in the shoe business at Milford, and was very successful. His son, S. C. Peck, of this city, enlisted in the Civil War and served as a commissioned officer. Two other sons survive Mr. Peck. Ralph Peck resides in Milford and James Peck lives in Providence, R. I.

The funeral services were held in Milford on Wednesday, the Odd Fellows being in charge. Mr. Peck was made a Mason many years ago and he retained his interest to the last. There was a large attendance of friends and neighbors at the funeral.

A SUCCESSFUL EUCHRE PARTY

GOODLY SUM REALIZED BY HOLY NAME SOCIETY OF ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

The poor and the orphans of St. Mary's church parish will benefit to the extent of $300 as a result of the highly successful charity euchre conducted by the Holy Name Society of the church last night. There were 100 tables, with four people at a table.

Especially handsome prizes were awarded the winners in the euchre playing. Miss Margaret Richardson won the ladies' first prize, a beautiful Japanese vase valued at $40. Miss Margaret Simpson won the second prize, a silk umbrella. The first men's prize was won by John Hurley.

The admission tickets to the euchre included coupons giving the holders chances on a $5 gold piece. Father Egan was the judge in this contest and John McCarty was the successful contestant. The prizes were distributed by Father Egan, Father Delehanty, John O'Keefe, M. J. Cashin, Frank McInerney, James O'Keefe and Thomas Harding. The committee in charge included Mrs. McElroy, Miss Noretta Doyle, Miss Katie Harding and Miss Alice Keeley.

Dancing was the feature after the card playing. Music was by O'Reilley's orchestra.

PASTORS ENDORSE MAYOR'S ATTITUDE

Ministers' Association Commend Dr. Jenkins for His Opposition to Liquor Licenses.

LETTER TO THE MAYOR

BELIEVE THAT STAND IS TAKEN IN INTEREST OF CITIZENS.

Association Hopes That Common Council Will Follow Mayor's Recommendations—Does Not Approve of the Licenses Granted.

At the meeting of the Plainfield Ministers' Association on Monday by a unanimous vote, resolutions were adopted favoring the plan suggested in the Mayor's message that the number of saloons be not increased the coming year. Accordingly the following will be presented to the Common Council at its next regular meeting:

Plainfield, N. J.,
Jan. 21, 1904.

The Hon. O. L. Jenkins, M. D,
Mayor of Plainfield.

Dear Sir: In behalf of the Ministers' Association of Plainfield, and in accordance with the vote of that body assembled January 18, 1904, we write to express its sincere approval of your recommendatino to the Common Council that no increase in the number of saloons in our city be permitted. The sentiment of the meeting was that you were earnestly taking this stand with a view to the best interests of the city and should have our expressed sympathy. At the same time it was made very clear that the members of the Association do not wish this action to be construed as in any way committing them to the license system as such. The action simply declares the sense of the meeting that with things as they are the least that can be done is to prevent an increase in the number of saloons, and that if the honorable Council see fit to follow your recommendation in this respect it will have the sympathy and support of this Association.

Respectfully yours,
A. H. Lewis, Moderator. L. R. Howard, Secretary.

DEATH FROM FALL.

Mrs. George E. Firstbrook Died at Harrisburg, and Was Buried There This Afternoon.

Mrs. George E. Firstbrook, for many years a resident of this city, died Thursday in Harrisburg, Pa., at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Page. A fall on a slippery pavement sustained a week ago was the direct cause of death. Mrs. Firstbrook was an active worker in Hope chapel during her residence here. The funeral took place in Harrisburg this afternoon.

To Sojourn in Florida.

Miss Ernestine C. Smith, of Madison avenue, has been granted a five weeks' leave of absence by the Board of Directors of the American Sabbath Tract Society, and on Thursday next she will sail on the Comanche of the Clyde Line for Daytona, Florida, where she will visit her aunt, Mrs. Asa S. Briggs. She will be accompanied by Miss Lillian A. Force, of Duer street.

Stole Coal.

Holloway Holland, colored, and Mrs Annie Donkel were fined $3 this morning by City Judge Runyon for stealing coal near Cottage road. Mary Jane Holland, Holloway's mother, was charged with the same offense but failed to appear in court.

Liquor License Applications.

The next meeting of the Common Council will be held Monday night, February 1, at which time applications for licenses will be received.

—L. W. Randolph, the West Front street druggist, has received the large sized bottles of Te-Ni-Ta.

STATE PRESS' VIEW OF THE BILL BOARDS

Editorial Opinions Endorsing Gov. Murphy's Condemnation of Landscape Disfigurement.

REMEDIES SUGGESTED

BOYCOTT OF ADVERTISERS AND A HEAVY TAX RECOMMENDED.

Favorable Comment Generally on Efforts Attempting to Take Balance Due—The Governor Has Struck a Popular Chord.

Heavy Tax Recommended.

Governor Murphy touched a popular chord in calling for the abolition of ugly signboards along railroad lines. It is an outrage to have the State thus disfigured where it should look its best to outsiders passing through. The proposed tax on this kind of advertising cannot be made too heavy, for the only object of it would be to drive the nefarious things away altogether, and force the owners to confine themselves to legitimate advertising that does not nauseate the public.—From the New Brunswick Home News.

Boycott Suggested.

Governor Murphy's recommendation that some action be taken to relieve travelers of the offensive bill board signs which mar the scenery along the principal routes of travel is urgently seconded by the public. There should be some way found to abate the nuisance, for nuisance it is, and legislative ingenuity must get to work on the problem. There is a great deal of this defacement of scenery elsewhere and if New Jersey takes action, a reform of great value may be obtained. Meanwhile, it would be a good rule to carefully avoid purchasing articles thus advertised, and if customers of the firms using the bill-boards would notify them of such a purpose, much might be accomplished without legislation.—From the Newark Sunday Call.

Attracting National Attention.

The message of Governor Murphy, protesting against the bill board nuisance and recommending restrictive legislation to the New Jersey Legislature, is attracting wide attention, and grows in interest with each reading.

With 1,650 signboards on one line of railway traversing the short distance between Jersey City and Trenton, the day of the walling in of the hills and vales cannot be so very far distant. The billboard increases in numbers and hideousness with each vacant lot or dead wall coming in view of the billboarder, and it is not a matter of wonder that Governor Murphy said to the Legislature: "In the interest of an indignant and suffering public, I present the subject in the hope that you may be able to find a remedy."

The message is being discussed, not alone in Ohio, but in Massachusetts. The Boston Herald commends the billboard feature of the document, saying that if the Governor can free his State from the billboards he would, undoubtedly, receive the thanks of the thousands of persons traveling through New Jersey, which, in proportion to its area, has the largest railway mileage of any State in the Union. He would also be entitled to receive, and would receive, the thanks of persons who live in New Jersey, as well as the thanks of the thousands traveling on its railways.—Passaic Daily News.

People Will Thank Him.

Gov. Murphy's protest against the bill boards which line the railroads and disfigure barns, farmhouses and scenery generally has elicited very general and favorable comment. The Boston "Herald" says if the Governor can free his State from the billboards he would undoubtedly receive the thanks of thousands of persons traveling through New Jeresy. The Cincinnati "Commercial Tribune" commends the Governor's suggestion and says he will receive the thanks of all who live in New Jersey, as well as the thousands traveling on its railways, if he succeeds in stamping out the evil.—Jersey City Evening Journal.

"IDEAL AND THE IMPEDIMENT"

SUBJECT OF ADDRESS OF BROOKEYN PASTOR BEFORE GRACE MEN'S CLUB.

Rev. W. H. Burgwin, of the Eighteenth Street M. E. church, of Brooklyn, spoke before a small audience in Grace M. E. church last night on the "Ideal and the Impediment." The address was given under the auspices of the Men's Assembly of the church.

Referring first to the physical side of man's development, Mr. Burgwin said that the attainment of the ideal in physical man is hindered by the decay of the body through disease and the passage of time. To the attainment of the ideal in the mental and spiritual life, self-seeking is the impediment.

The committee from the Men's Assembly in charge of the arrangements consisted of O. L. Force, J. H. Hardin and Charles Ammeran.

TRICKS AMUSED THE BOYS

ROLAND REEDER ENTERTAINED LARGE NUMBER OF Y. M. C. A. LADS.

Roland Reeder, lighting sketch artist, trick performer and impersonator, entertained a large audience of boys the Y. M. C. A. Hall last night. The event was the fourth in the boys' entertainment course.

Mr. Reeder's quickly drawn crayon sketches greatly amused the lads, and the strange things he made to appear from the hat of one of their number puzzled and delighted them. Most mystifying of all his tricks was the pouring of water and wine from the same pitcher, though some of the wise ones among the youngsters suggested that the pitcher had a false bottom. Mr. Reeder's command of facial expression was well illustrated in his clever impersonations in which he portrayed vividly in pantomime a variety of characters.

The next event in the course will be a stereopticon lecture, "Glimpses of Foreign Lands," by Ernest R. Ackerman, of this city.

PARKS LOST TO ROSELLE

CASINO TEAM WON TWO OUT OF THREE GAMES BOWLED.

The Parks tried hard to make it three straight last night in the series of bowling with Roselle Casino in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament, but they had to be satisfied with one game. In that one they rolled their best score of the season, a total of 908. McCutchen was credited with a foul in that game, else the score would have been a top-notcher, 928.

The Parks lost the first game by seventy-eight pins, the second one they won by fifty-six pins and the last game they lost by 107 pins. There were no remarkably high scores last night. William Townsend made the highest score, 208, rolled in the second game, but generally the scores rolled by the Parks showed improvement. Howe, of Roselle, made the highest score, 185, for his team. All of the scores of the visiting team were above 150 and their steady work counted in the end.

Westfield still leads in the tournament, but Roselle is now a close second, with twelve wins and six lost games. The Parks increased their standing last night by one game.

The detailed scores:

PARKS.			ROSELLE.
W. M'C'tch'n	179	162 150	S. Smith	181	171 165
W. Town'nd	124	208 136	C. Smith	168	160 170
R. T. Willis	148	171 171	Harris	152	175 185
F. O. Ball	138	192 127	Howe	181	179 182
Dr. Thiers	181	175 180	Mulford	168	167 169
	772	908 784		850	852 871

This is the standing in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament:

	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	14	4
Roselle	12	6
Parks	4	10
Cranford	2	12

SHAKESPEARIAN PLAY BY SOCIETY TALENT

"The Taming of the Shrew" to be Produced After the Lenten Season.

PARK CLUB THE PLACE

MRS. WILLIAM L. SAUNDERS IN THE LEADING ROLE.

Mr. Young Engaged as Coach—The Casts Not Entirely Selected—To be the First Time a Shakespearian Play Has Been Rendered Here.

Society folks in Plainfield and North Plainfield will produce a Shakespearian play after Lent. The exact date for the performance has not been decided upon, neither has the entire cast been selected. "The Taming of the Shrew," will be given and Mrs. William L. Saunders, who has previously won distinction for her clever work in amateur theatricals, will take the leading part, that of "Katharine."

The play will be given at the Park Club, where thorough extensive improvements and alterations, it will be possible to present it in a satisfactory manner. William L. Saunders, who has heretofore taken the lead in these amateur performances, will again have charge. Mr. Young, who has devoted much time to the study of Shakespeare, and is the author of several works relating to the Bard of Avon, will coach those who are to take part. This will be the first time that a Shakespearian play has been attempted here.

ASKS $100,000 DAMAGES

SUIT BROUGHT TO RECOVER FOR DEATH OF C. T. THAYER, A WRECK VICTIM.

Papers were filed in the sheriff's office, Elizabeth, yesterday, in a suit against the New Jersey Central and Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Companies, for $100,000. The suit is brought through Craig A. Marsh, Esq., attorney, by the relatives of Charles T. Thayer, who was killed in the Westfield wreck on the New Jersey Central January 27 last, and it is believed to be the largest damages asked for in any of the suits brought as a result of that wreck.

Mr. Thayer resided on East Ninth street, this city, for several years, and at the time of his death he was superintendent of the Eastern Division of the National Express Company, with offices in New York, and it is reported that his salary was about $5,000 a year. He began work as a solicitor for the United States Express Company and worked himself up to the position of general agent for the company in New York city, having charge of all the agents and depots in that city. That was the last position he held with the U. S. Express Company and he afterward went with the Eastern Express Company. Before moving to Plainfield he lived at Glen Ridge, N. J., for several years. He was survived by an aged mother, a son and three daughters.

STOLE COPIES OF DAILY PRESS

FOUR YOUNG RASCALS WHO ROBBED SUBSCRIBERS PUNISHED IN COURT.

Four boys, whose ages range from ten to fourteen years, were arrested by Patrolman McCarthy on a charge of stealing copies of The Daily Press from doorsteps on East and West Fifth streets, West Fourth street and Central avenue. The boys are Edward Linzer, William Doyle, Edward Eskerson, Jr., and Michael Comiskey. Sentence to pay a $2 fine or serve ten days in jail was passed today in the city court upon all but Linzer, who is the only one of the four who has not been previously arrested.

The boys have been making depredations on the property of The Daily Press subscribers for the past three weeks, taking the papers from the porches and selling them on the streets. Patrolman McCarthy started to work on the case, watching the boys and the houses closely until he was able, through a description furnished by one of the subscribers, to identify Linzer and induce him to give the names of the other boys.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS ROUTED

SCORE OF 19 TO 8 IN FAVOR OF A Y. M. C. A. BASKET BALL TEAM.

A practise game of basket ball to try out the candidates for the Plainfield High School team was played last night in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium between the High School and a Y. M. C. A. team captained by Bentliff. The Y. M. C. A. boys won out 19 to 8. The summary:

High School—Thompson, Collier and Long, forwards; Guinn and Freeman, centre; Gavett, Sloom and Fenno, guards. Bentliff's team—Bentliff, Rothberg and Cahoone, forwards; Whitley, centre; Hoagland and Kirch, guards.

Goals from the floor—Rothberg, 3; Whitley, 3; Bentliff, 2; Thompson, 3; Guinn. Goals from fouls—Cahoone, 3. Referee—C. B. Morse. Umpire—Scull. Timer—C. Heywood. Time—15-min. halves.

BISHOP DUDLEY IS DEAD

DISTINGUISHED FATHER OF BOROUGHITE SUCCUMBS TO HEART DISEASE.

Those who had anticipated hearing Bishop Thomas Underwood Dudley, of Kentucky, preach at the Church of the Holy Cross, tomorrow morning, will learn with deep regret of his sudden death which occurred yesterday afternoon at the home of his mother-in-alw, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Aldrich, No. 200 Madison avenue, New York. Death was due to heart disease and followed within a few minutes after the Bishop was stricken.

He was called to New York from Louisville because of the illness of his mother-in-law and it had been arranged for him to visit the North Plainfield church tomorrow morning and at the same time visit his son, Thomas U. Dudley, Jr., of Park place.

By a strange coincidence the Bishop's funeral will occur on Wednesday next, that day being the twenty-ninth anniversary of his consecration as Bishop of Kentucky.

FREIGHT WRECK AT GARWOOD

REAR-END COLLISION DELAYED TRAFFIC ON CENTRAL ROAD.

A rear-end collision of two east bound freight trains block three tracks of the New Jersey Central at Garwood for a couple of hours this morning. The accident occurred about 7 o'clock, at a time when there was a dense fog obscuring signals. The fact that both trains were running under reduced speed accounts for the comparative little damage. Three freight cars on the train ahead and the caboose were wrecked scattering debris across the main east and westbound tracks and the westbound freight and coal tracks. The engine of the rear train did not leave the tracks neither was it damaged very much.

The men in the caboose of the head train got out of the way before the collision, escaping injury and in fact no one was injured by the wreck. By 9 o'clock traffic was resumed on the regular schedule. Prior to that time the westbound trains were held up and when the tracks were opened the early morning express matter all came in a rush.

FREE VACCINATION!

Board of Health Notice.

Because of the present severe case of small-pox in Plainfield, the Board of Health has decided to offer FREE VACCINATION to all those who apply at the offices of the Board, Room 11, 149 North avenue, between the hours of 3 and 6 on Saturday, Sunday and Monday afternoons, January 23, 24 and 25.

In order to prevent the further spread of small-pox in our city, the Board of Health is anxious that every one who has not been vaccinated successfully within five years, should be vaccinated without delay.

Y. M. C. A. BOWLING LEAGUE SCHEDULE

List of the Second Round of Matches of Northern N. J. Associations Arranged.

PLAINFIELD'S SHOWING

RESULTS OF FIRST ROUND PUT LOCAL TEAM IN SECOND PLACE.

Louis Menzenbach Made Highest Score—Morris Sutphen Second—Plainfield to Play Four Games, One to be on Local Alleys.

The schedule for the second round of matches in the Y. M. C. A. bowling league of Northern New Jersey has been announced. Here it is:

Jan. 23—Plainfield at Passaic.
26—Orange at Rahway.
27—Plainfield at Summit.
Feb. 5—Rahway at Plainfield.
11—Plainfield at Orange.
17—Summit at Passaic.
23—Rahway at Summit.
25—Passaic at Orange.
Mar. 3—Summit at Orange.
4—Rahway at Passaic.

Plainfield plays four games, three of them away from home. In the first round of matches completed last month, Orange led with ten games won and two lost; Plainfield was second with five won and six lost; Summit third with five won and seven lost; Passaic fourth with four won and five lost; Rahway, fifth and last with three won and six lost.

The highest average score for Plainfield in the first round of matches was made by Louis Menzerbach. Capt. Morris Sutphen was second high roller and Chauncey B. Koons third. Whitley, Spicer, Mundy, Dreier, Hummer, Linbarger and Brokaw followed in the order named. Murray, of Orange, had the highest individual score for the first round average, his mark being 184 5-9 for twelve games.

O. B. Koons, of the local Y. M. C. A., is chairman of the league and A. J. Hobbs, of Orange, is secretary.

TROLLEY AND WAGON COLLIDE

A. B. DUNAVAN INJURED BY ACCIDENT ON WEST FRONT STREET.

A collision between one of the main line trolley cars, No. 76, and an U. S. Express Company wagon in charge of A. B. Dunavan, near the corner of West Front street and Giraud avenue, last night about 5:30 resulted in injury to the driver. Mr. Dunavan had a short time before stopped at Theodore Gray's house on West Front street, where he left a package. He jumped on his wagon and started toward town. As he was crossing the trolley tracks, the trolley car going west stuck the front part of the wagon, breaking the shafts and cutting the horse loose from the wagon. Mr. Dunavan was thrown backward in the wagon, sustaining severe sprains and bruises to his back and right leg.

Mr. Dunavan went to the home of Mr. Geibelhouse, nearby and telephoned to the express office regarding the accident and Manager Mills rendered assistance at once. In the meantime the horse was caught near the Babcock building by Frank Haffner and Joe Gjettlesen and returned to the company's stables. The animal was not injured.

It was generally reported last night that the trolley car did not have a headlight and that it was travelling at a good rate of speed. At the time of the accident there was a dense fog and Mr. Dunavan says that he did not see the car until it was too late to escape a collision.

Sunday Times Quits.

The Elizabeth Printing and Publishing Company announced yesterday that The Sunday Times has ceased to exist. A reasons given is that there has not been a sufficient amount of advertising in the medium to make it a profitable venture.

Another reason given is the unjust action of the Elizabeth Typographical Union in demanding exhorbitant wages for the compositors.

February Teas.

Invitations have been sent out by Mrs. Martin I. Cooley and her daughter, Mrs. Mason M. Patrick, wife of Major Patrick, of West Point, N. Y., for teas to be given at Mrs. Cooley's residence, 2 Rockview terrace, on Tuesdays, February 2 and 9 from 4 to 6 o'clock.

JAMES CLARK DEAD AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Plainfield's Wealthiest Citizen Succumbed to Pneumonia in His Home on W. Seventh St.

HE WAS 83 YEARS OLD

LIBERAL GIVER TO CHARITY, HIS BENEFACTIONS BEING MANY,

Made a Fortune in a Tannery at St. Louis—A Big Stockholder in a Leather Concern—Survived by a Wife and Two Sons.

James Clark, for many years one of the most prominent citizens of Plainfield, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 404 West Seventh street, after a brief illness with pneumonia. Mr. Clark was eighty-three years of age and owing to his advanced age did not have the strength to rally from the disease.

Mr. Clark was born in Westfield and early in life he was an apprentice of a tanner. From that time he worked himself up until he eventually became the owner of one of the largest tanneries in the country, located in St. Louis. He remained in the latter city until 1858, when he moved to Plainfild. He continued to make his home here.

In addition to a thriving business in St. Louis Mr. Clark acquired large holdings in the United States Leather Company stock and from this he received a princely income. He was considered to be one of the wealthiest if not the wealthiest man in Plainfield. Some months ago he remembered the Children's Home through a gift of $10,000 and at the same time he gave $5,000 to Warren chapel. This last named sum will aid the members of the chapel in their plans to erect a new house of worship on Watchung avenue. Both gifts were timely and the donor was gratefully thanked for his beneficience. It has been said of Mr. Clark that his beneficiences were quietly bestowed and that in a number of instances he has assisted worthy charities.

Mr. Clark was believed to be the oldest Odd Fellow in St. Louis, where he joined a lodge over fifty years ago. In regard to his wealth, it is estimated that he was worth about $10,000,000.

About twenty-five years ago Mr. Clark was active in politics in this city, being a strong Democrat. At one time he ran against Amos Clark, of Elizabeth, for State Senator, but was defeated. He was a descendant of Abram Clark, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. Aside from his interests in the leather business he also had large railroad interests in St. Louis and Keokuk, being an important factor in the commercial business of those two cities.

Mr. Clark was married three times. A wife and two sons survive him. The sons are James E. Clark, of Boston, and Frank Clark, of this city.

The funeral services will be held from the late home Monday afternoon.

Y. M. C. A. BOWLERS WIN

SCOTT PRESS WORKS TEAM LOSE THRE STRAIGHT GAMES.

Scott's Press Works bowling team proved no match for the Y. M. C. A. five last night. The games were rolled on the association alleys and all three of them were won by the Y. M. C. A. by big bargains. Sutphen was high roller with 184. The scores:

Y. M. C. A.				SCOTT'S.
Dreier	98	140	134	Montross	167	107	100
Linbarger	123	108		VanHorn	109	101	95

Narrow Escape.

Walter C. Randall, of Berckman street, together with a number of other passengers had a narrow escape from being killed yesterday afternoon at Dunellen. The passengers were getting on a train which is due in this city at 2:49, when a "flyer" going west rushed by the station. For a few minutes there was the wildest confusion. It is understood that there is a rule prohibiting trains from passing one another when one is at a station receiving and letting off passengers, yet the rule is frequently disregarded.

—George Feller, of Pearl street, severely injured his arm and leg by a fall from a Front street trolley car, yesterday.

Mabel Harrison as "Jane."

Famous Wall Scene.

"Babes in Toyland" has had the longest run of any on Broadway.

Recent inquiries by the New York Fire Department and the newspapers concerning the conditions for safeguarding the public has revealed the fact that the Majestic Theatre has the lowest rate of insurance of any theatres in New York and that the authorities believe it to be the safest of any of the theatres standing in the metropolis today.

Two new stanzas have been added to the catchy "Put Down Six and Carry Two" song of "Babes in Toyland" at the Majestic Theatre. Frank Hayes a member of the cast, spurred by his muse gave up the lines here:

If on this eve a man should make resolutions nine,
And break them all by half-past six
'Cause friends called him a shine.
If he should drink of everything
But water by the pail,
How many high balls would it take
To land this man in jail.

Bessie Wynn as "Tom Tom."

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

To be sure of the affections of the only girl in the world, buy her a box of candy at H. Mehrten's candy store on East Front street.

William Hand & Son, of East Second street, are prepared at all times to do carting or moving of any kind. The firm is experienced in this work and satisfaction is guaranteed.

I. N. Wyckoff, the West Front street painter and paper-hanger, is now prepared to take contracts for spring work. His stock of wall-papers represent the latest designs and he uses the best paints.

For years John H. Tier, of Bank place, has had the reputation of manufacturing a superior grade of ice cream. He is ready at all times to supply cream for weddings or social events of any kind.

In all social functions of note floral decorations always help to make the affairs a success. C. L. Stanley, the florist, of North avenue, can supply flowers of all kinds for either society affairs or for funerals.

J. P. Powers, the Somerset street druggist, is always striving to please his customers and increase his business. For anything in the drug line, for prescription work, toilet articles or first-class soda stop at this pharmacy.

Herman Hansen, the carpenter and builder of 21 Regent street, is always willing to give you estimates on all kinds of building work. You can reach him by telephone, number 2542, or a postal card will bring Mr. Hansen to you home.

Why not be sensible and buy your furniture at Powlison's & Jones' furniture store on East Front street instead of going to New York. You can get more satisfactory goods at quite as reasonable prices without the bother of a trip out of town. The biggest assortment of up-to-date furniture in the State at Powlison & Jones'.

Local dealers are always more anxious to please than dealers in a big city, because they depend upon permanent rather than transient customers. That is one reason why you should buy your groceries at R. H. Keenan's East Fifth street store. Best in town and lowest prices. Look for their Saturday specials and ask for green or red trading stamps.

A. M. Griffen, the hardware dealer, is advertising a 15 per cent. cut in heaving stoves. The line of ranges carried by this house is the best obtainable and repairs are carried in stock for all stoves sold by Mr. Griffen. A 20 per cent. reduction is also advertised on ice skates. A specialty is made of builders' hardware materials and Mr. Griffen is prepared to fill all contracts at New York prices.

In addition to the handsome new line of laces and embroideries now offered at Woodhull & Martin's store, the January sale of furniture is attracting much attention. This sale includes parlor and dining room tables, single beds, iron and wooden, and complete bed-room outfits. You will find this line of goods equal to any in New York and an investigation of prices will show that they are remarkably low. One can really furnish their home at little expense by trading at this store.

AMUSEMENTS.

James K. Hackett has evidently found a gold mine in "The Secret of Polichinelle," which he is presenting with an especially brilliant cast at the Madison Square Theatre. The play opened its New York engagement on last Tuesday evening, and strange as it may sound, there was not an adverse bit of criticism in any of the Wednesday papers. It is a comedy of the purest type, teeming with alternate heart interest and clean, wholesome fun. W. H. Thompson, W. J. Ferguson, Miss Grace Kimball and the other popular players are doing the best work of their lives.

The most wonderful collection of moving pictures ever shown is now on exhibition at the Eden Musee. Arrangements were made last summer so that the Musee should get the exclusive right to the best pictures produced. Many of these pictures have already arrived and every steamer from abroad brings an additional collection. They are shown in series of twelve pictures, a different series being shown each hour during the day and evening. Many of the pictures are of a mysterious character and wonderfully interesting. Many of the pictures are reproduction of actual scenes or representations of them. These pictures are so realistic that it is difficult to believe one is not witnessing the actual event.

State Normal Graduation.

Graduation exercises of the February class of the State Normal school will be held Friday evening, January 30, in the auditorium of the school. There will be no calss day exercises. Miss Ida F. Davis, of New Market, is a member of the class.

Senator Hanna on Socialism and Trades Unions.

BELIEVES IN POWER OF EDUCATION

Desires to Consecrate His Life to a Federation the Motto of Which Is the Golden Rule—Menace of Today Is Socialism.

BOSTON, Jan. 23.—Senator Marcus A. Hanna of Ohio contributes to the February number of the National Magazine, published in this city, a timely and forceful article under the caption of "Socialism and the Labor Unions." It embodies in concrete form some of the conclusions drawn by Senator Hanna from his observations and experience in business and politics and in a measure outlines his lifework and indicates his personal ambition.

After expressing his belief in the power of education over the American people and declaring that the basis of right success is fairness and justice, Senator Hanna writes:

"There is no more engrossing question than that of the relation between labor and capital, which seems the paramount issue today. The instinct of workingmen to band together to protect themselves is no more to be wondered at than the same instinct when shown on the part of capital. Now, my plan is to have organized union labor Americanized in the best sense and thoroughly educated to an understanding of its responsibilities and in this way to make it the ally of the capitalist rather than a foe with which to grapple.

"It is often asked what is to become of the nonorganized consumer if an amicable alliance is made between labor and capital. But every man belongs either to the one or the other group. For that matter, he is likely to belong to both.

"I took some time to consider the work of the Civic Federation and am firmly convinced that it is the object to which I desire to consecrate the remaining years of my life. I fully appreciate that it is a long struggle, but the progress already made under the motto of the Civic Federation, the Golden Rule, has surpassed even my most sanguine expectations, and I am sure that the American people will sustain a policy, based upon the highest moral and social impulse, which will eliminate the passionate prejudices that now exist between capital and labor."

Discussing some of the objects of the Civic Federation, Senator Hanna writes:

"Until within a comparatively few years big capitalists, or the employing interests, have had the advantage, because there were more workmen than there was work. But conditions have changed, and for every workman on an average there are two jobs now in the heyday of our prosperity, and it is expecting too much of human nature to suppose that workingmen shall not desire a larger share of the profits. Has not this motive been the stimulating incentive of the men who are managing business affairs? No one who is acquainted with union labor for the past five years can fail to recognize the wonderful advancement that has been made in conservative, cool headed and thoroughly practical management of these matters by the workingmen themselves.

"Labor organizations may be open to sharp criticism at times, but it cannot be fairly stated that they are always wrong. If every man is treated as a man and an appeal made to his heart, as well as to his reason, it will establish a bond of confidence as a sure foundation to build upon. While labor unions may have been a curse to England, I believe that they will prove a boon to our own country when a proper basis of confidence and respect is established.

"The menace of today, as I view it, is the spread of a spirit of socialism, one of those things which is only half understood and is more or less used to inflame the popular mind against all individual initiative and personal energy, which has been the very essence of American progress. There is a spirit of co-operation or community of interests which some people may confound with socialism that is making headway with us, but when any one attempts for political or financial reasons to advocate the whole programme of European socialism he will find little prospect of the seeds taking root in American soil. This, I think, was demonstrated very conclusively in the Ohio campaign, where higher socialism was brought forth as an issue.

"Fairness and justice will never agree to the confiscation of the products of one man's toil in order to insure comfort to the idle and worthless. No 'ism' is wanted by the American people that will take from any citizen the just and equitable reward of his labor.

"Both capital and labor must yield in time to the great law of fair dealing, man to man. I wish I could impress upon every American the individual responsibility that rests upon each one of us. Every year of experience, every dollar of accumulated capital, every talent we possess, should be regarded as a sacred charge for the good of the nation to help in uniting the interests of rich and poor, learned and unlearned."

Abeel Remains In Jail.

TORONTO, Jan. 23.—Until Justice Street gives his decision Abeel must remain in jail at Welland. Among the technical arguments advanced for Abeel was the contention that Miss Anderson's affidavit of identification was improperly admitted, having been made after the warrant against Abeel was sworn out.

GORMAN RESOLUTION

Senate Adopts Measure Probing Panama Affairs.

WHEN AND WHY WAS MILITARY USED

Senator Wants to Know if the United States Employed Troops Solely on Its Own Initiative and Uninvited by Colombia.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The senate has adopted the resolution of inquiry concerning affairs in Panama introduced on the 5th inst. by Mr. Gorman and in addition listened to a speech on the Panama question by Mr. Dolliver and another on the subject of recess appointments to office by Mr. Tillman.

Mr. Tillman's address had especial reference to the nomination of Collector Crum of Charleston, S. C., but the fact that it also bore on the nomination of Brigadier General Wood added to its interest.

Mr. Dolliver contended that the course of the administration in Panama was patriotic throughout.

Following is the text of the Gorman resolution as adopted:

"Resolved, That the president be requested, if not in his judgment incompatible with the public interest, to inform the senate:

"First.—The date when and the circumstances under which the United States used for the first time and each succeeding time a military force in the internal affairs of New Grenada or Colombia under the treaty of 1846; whether such use of military force was on the initiative of the United States or by the request of New Grenada or Colombia or in consequence of any official representation of either and also to transmit to the senate copies of the letters or notes in the department of state and of the orders by the navy department relating to such use of military force.

"Second.—Also to inform the senate whether or not the United States has been asked by New Grenada or Colombia or any official representative of either to execute by armed force either the guarantee of the neutrality of the isthmus or of the sovereignty of New Grenada or Colombia over the same and if the United States has been so asked then the dates and circumstances thereof and to send to the senate copies of the letters or notes in each case conveying the application and what was done thereunder by the United States.

"Third.—And also to inform the senate in which, if any, of the disturbances on the isthmus of Panama, referred to by the president in his last annual message, the United States employed a military force solely on its own initiative and uninvited by the government owning the isthmus, and also to inform the senate of the circumstances in each case which required such use of military force and transmit copies of the orders issued by the navy department for such purpose.

"Fourth.—And also that he will inform the senate of the dates when and circumstances under which the United States has employed military force in the internal affairs of New Grenada or Colombia on account of any revolt or rebellion or disturbance of the peace therein."

SANTO DOMINGO.

Jiminez's Army Has Fled—Powell Recognizes Morales Government.

CAPE HAITIEN, Haiti, Jan. 23.—Late dispatches from Santo Domingo say that General Jiminez and his followers have fled before the government force under General Caceres, as they were completely out of ammunition and consequently could not confront the enemy.

The receipt of this news has caused much rejoicing among the friends of General Morales. What will become of the troops under General Jiminez is not known, but many of them have deserted and are now in the ranks of the government. The cause of General Jiminez now seems to be completely lost. His last retreat is Monte Cristi, where he is now thought to have taken refuge.

United States Minister Powell has recognized the provisional government of General Morales as the de facto government of Santo Domingo, and he has informed the members of the diplomatic and consular corps to this end.

The officers of the United States cruiser Columbia paid an official visit to the provisional president and were received with military honors. Subsequently, at the request of Minister Powell, they were allowed to view the relics of Columbus, which are kept in the cathedral here, and they visited the forts and other places of interest. It is considered a great favor to be allowed to see Columbus' bones, as the remains are closely guarded and seldom shown to foreigners.

There is still no change in the political situation. An attack on San Pedro de Macoris is expected, and the United States gunboat Newport has proceeded there to protect American interests.

Twining Was Convicted.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 23.—Albert C. Twining, former president of the defunct First National bank of Asbury Park, was convicted in the United States district court here on the charge of making false certificates to the comptroller of the currency as to the bank's condition. A number of other indictments are hanging over Twining.

A Small Senate.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 23.—Four senators constituted the state senate, heard the chaplain's prayer, approved the journal and adjourned till Monday at 8:30 p. m.

THE BECHTEL TRIAL.

Mrs. Bechtel Broke Down—Martha Bechtel Also on the Stand.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 23.—Martha Bechtel told for the first time what she knew of the strange death of her sister, Mabel Bechtel. Like her mother, she is accused of having known that her brother Tom killed the girl and that she later tried to shield him from the consequences. If Mrs. Bechtel is acquitted, as is probable, the indictment against her will fall also.

Before Martha went on the stand her mother had been under a heavy fire of cross examination for over two hours. So tense was the ordeal that after it was over she was almost carried from the courtroom by her son. Once during the long ordeal she broke down entirely, and it was necessary to take a short recess.

In beginning her testimony Miss Bechtel was asked:

"Do you know who killed your sister Mabel?"

"I do not!" came the answer in an emphatic tone.

"Do you know anything otherwise than what you have formally stated relative to Mabel's death?"

"I do not."

This ended her direct examination. On cross examination Martha admitted that there was considerable trouble between her mother and Mabel about Weisenberg and that Tom and Mabel did not speak to each other for a year. Even when the two met at the table for meals not a word passed between them.

John and Charles Bechtel, who, along with Martha and the mother, are also charged with being accessories after the fact to the murder of Mabel, denied that they knew anything about the death of their sister.

Charles admitted that the bloody lather's hatchet was his and stated that he frequently cut his fingers while at work. He broke the handle in 1902 while at work.

CLEVELAND BANK FAILS.

George A. Rose, Cashier, Defaulter to the Extent of $170,000.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 23.—The Produce Exchange Banking company, on Broadway and Central avenue, has closed its doors. The insolvency court has appointed the Cleveland Trust company receiver.

The assets and liabilities of the bank are each placed at $1,500,000.

Attorney Andrew Squire, in behalf of the bank, made the following statement:

"George A. Rose, cashier of the bank, is a defaulter to the extent of $170,000."

It is said that Rose is now under guard at his home and will be taken before the grand jury today. According to statements of other bank officials, he will plead guilty to the charge of embezzlement. There is a great deal of uneasiness among the depositors, many of whom are small merchants, Italians and other nationalities, who sell fruit and vegetables from door to door and deposited their money in the Produce Exchange bank. The irregularity has been going on for eight years.

The defalcation is more than the paid in capital and surplus combined. The original capital was $200,000, but only $50 per share was paid in. The depositors will be protected fully. The stockholders will have to pay in $100,000 more on their capital stock and $200,000 in stockholders' liability.

The directors worked all day trying to make up the deficiency, but the burden was too heavy, and they decided to close the bank.

For many years Rose has been speculating in Chicago grain. He covered his speculations by manipulating the bank's loan accounts. He voluntarily confessed. He will be taken into custody. The directors know where he is.

FLOODS DAMAGE SHIPS.

Big Steamers Swept Away and Stove In at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 23.—A gorge broke above the city, and a flood of water swept down the Cuyahoga river, tearing away three big steamers from their moorings. The vessels were carried down the stream and crashed into the drawbridge of the Superior street viaduct. The boats were all badly damaged by the collision, and it is believed the foundation of the bridge has been seriously damaged.

All the tugs in the harbor are below the vessels jammed at the viaduct, and it has been found impossible to get a tug to the assistance of the imprisoned vessels. The big steamer William E. Reis, one of the boats in the jam, is badly wrecked, with an immense hole smashed in her bow and another about midships. The Reis is loaded with iron ore, and it is feared she will go to the bottom. The other two vessels are also badly damaged.

When the steamers broke away from their moorings and started swiftly down the river the watchmen and their families aboard became frantic. None of the vessels had steam up, and there was absolutely no way to check their speed. The women on board ran screaming from one end to the other of the boats, crying and praying for help. All were safely rescued without injury after the boats struck the bridge.

American Schools on Isle of Pines.

HAVANA, Jan. 23.—The government has installed a school at the Isle of Pines, with an English speaking teacher in charge. This is in addition to the English school already established there by Americans.

Provost of Old Trinity Dead.

DUBLIN, Ireland, Jan. 23.—The Rev. George Salmon, D. D., provost of Trinity college since 1888, is dead. He was born in Dublin in 1819.

MONONGAHELA RISING.

Pittsburg Grimly Waiting—Railroads Suffer From Washouts.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 23.—Pittsburg's historic relic, the blockhouse, is endangered by the high water. Surrounded as it is by the Monongahela, Allegheny and Ohio rivers, it is in the very center of the flood.

The Monongahela river rose slowly all day, the first rapid rise experienced there being when the Allegheny caused the former stream to back up. The ice started out of the Youghiogheny river during the afternoon and also from the third pool of the Monongahela. The ice is not nearly so heavy in this stream as it is in the Allegheny, and the owners of river property, deciding to choose the least of two dangers, have their craft moored at different points along the banks of the Monongahela.

The Allegheny at Leechburg is but three feet from the railroad bridge. One track of the Pennsylvania railroad at Roaring Run, forty-five miles east of Zegh, is washed out and is also washed out at Avonmore. Trains are being run on one track. The railroad bridge at Apollo was declared unsafe by the railroad company, and no trains are being run over it. The yards at the east end of Blairsville are also under water. The high water is doing much damage to railroad property owing to the recent improvements. Across the river from Leechburg the tracks are being washed by the water and undermined.

Damage from the flood at Sharon, Pa., will reach several thousand dollars. The Shenango river is still rising, and the lower parts of the town are under several feet of water. Two piers were washed away from the railroad bridge of the Stewart Iron company, putting it out of commission. The bridge at the waterworks plant was also damaged. Part of the South Sharon Steel works is under water, and a shutdown is probable.

The water in Mercer is higher than it was ever known before and continues to rise. That part of the town known as the Flat is completely under water.

AT ASCOT PARK.

Two Favorites Only Got a Place, and the Talent Lost a Large Sum.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 23.—Two favorites won at Ascot park, and the general public lost a large sum. The last race was one of the most disastrous to the betting public that has been run here. Lunar, the odds on favorite; Montana Peeress, Merwan and El Oriente were played all along the line by the talent. Montana Peeress was the only one to get inside the money, and she could do no better than third. Labor at 15 to 1 won, and Invictus at 25 to 1 got the place. Summaries:

First Race—Gottlieben won, Negrusca second, Rosserie third.

Second Race—Geheimness won, Effervescence second, Phyz third.

Third Race—Blue Ridge won, Emir second, Rio Chico third.

Fourth Race—Cruzodos won; Sais second, Dolly Hayman third.

Fifth Race—Fox Lake won, Laocoon second, Lady Fonse third.

Sixth Race—Labor won, Invictus second, Montana Peeress third.

Iridius Gave Oakland a Surprise.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23.—Iridius won the six and a half furlong event, which was the feature of the card at Oakland. His victory came as a surprise, all the money going in on San Nicholas, the favorite, and Futurita. Iridius got away flying and was never headed, winning ridden out from Futurita and O'Hagen. San Nicholas was never better than fourth. In addition to taking the handicap, Walter Jennings landed the last race with Stillcho, who was the only favorite to reach the wire in front. Amasa proved a surprise by winning the first race.

Coach Courtney May Leave Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 23.—The undergraduate management of the Cornell crews selected an assistant coach to succeed F. D. Colson, and in consequence Charles E. Courtney, the veteran Cornell coach, is said to have given up his work in the Cornell crew room. It appears that Courtney, believing that the power to select an assistant coach lay solely in his hands, appointed one after a conference with the captain and manager of the crew. Subsequently Captain Coffin and Manager Aldrich overruled his selection and appointed C. A. Lueder, '03.

Yale Beat Princeton.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 23.—Yale won from Princeton at basket ball last night by the score of 15 to 10. The game was a ragged one, the passing and throwing on both sides being poor, although Princeton occasionally showed good work in rushing the ball down the floor.

Racing at Saranac Lake.

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., Jan. 23.—The closing races on Saranac lake were run on an excellent track in the presence of a large crowd. Lady Matt won the 2:30 class purse, $200; Pat Murphy won the 2:25 class purse, $200, and John M. won the free for all purse, $300.

"Human Punching Bag" Won.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23.—Joe Grim of Philadelphia won the purse hung up by the Eureka Athletic and Social club in a ten round bout and an additional $100 from Gans, who thought he could put out the "Human Punching Bag" in six rounds.

McNamara's Body Found.

A TORNADO'S HAVOC

Moundville's Business Section Completely Swept Away.

DEATH CLAIMED 37, INJURED 100

Victims Blown a Hundred Feet In the Air—Freight Cars Torn to Splinters, Trucks Blown From the Track.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Jan. 23.—The most disastrous cyclone that ever swept over this section visited Moundville, Ala., a town of 300 inhabitants fifteen miles south of Tuscaloosa, and as a result thirty-seven persons were killed and more than 100 injured, and every business house in the town, with the exception of a small drug store, was completely destroyed.

The cyclone struck the town from the southwest. Its path was a quarter of a mile wide right through the town. The following is a list of the white persons who were killed: E. P. Seymour of Nashville, Tenn., who had just accepted his position as operator at the railroad station; A. H. Warren of Birmingham, employed by the Alabama Grocery company; J. H. Redmond of Nashville, superintendent of pumping station; Robert Powers of Tuscaloosa, and Miss Nettie Farley.

Twenty-three negroes were also killed. The names of the negroes have not yet been procured.

By the force of the storm persons were blown hundreds of feet from their beds in the blackness of the night. Through terror a father, mother and three children fled from their home to seek refuge and in their excitement left a five-year-old boy in bed. He was pulled from beneath some timber, and thus far it is impossible to find any other members of the family.

Bedding, carpets and wearing apparel are scattered a distance of ten miles throughout what was a forest, but which is now as clear as if it had been cut by the woodman's ax.

Freight cars were torn to splinters, the trucks under them being hurled hundreds of feet from the track.

The depot, the hotel, warehouses, gins, thirty homes, the storehouses occupied by R. T. Griffin, A. W. Wiggins & Son, W. J. Domenick, A. D. Griffin and W. P. Phifer, together with their stocks, were completely destroyed. Where they stood it is impossible to find even the pillars on which these structures rested.

Bales of cotton stored in warehouses were blown to atoms, the fragments of lint, together with the debris, lodging in trees, making it appear as if that section had been visited by a snowstorm. Heavy iron safes were carried away by the storm and the doors torn from their hinges.

A young clerk employed by W. P. Phifer, hearing the terrible roaring of the approaching cyclone, let himself down into a well in the center of the store. He no sooner had found his place of safety when the store was completely demolished. He has been drawn out uninjured.

FAR EAST CRISIS.

Government Officials Now Hope For Pacific Outcome.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 23.—The czar has not yet called the council to consider the Japanese reply, but it is said at the foreign office that the summons may be issued any day. The delay, coupled with dispatches from Tokyo saying that Japan is armed and grimly waiting, has caused a slight renewal of public nervousness, which was reflected by the weakness on the bourse.

This alarm is seemingly not shared in the higher government circles, where it is insisted that the czar's pacific declarations were not idle words. The worst that is now anticipated is a breakdown of the negotiations in the event of Russia's response being unacceptable to Japan.

The papers have published prominently the statement that the United States Asiatic squadron will remain in Philippine waters. The Gazette, in pointing out the mischief caused by the erroneous statement that Rear Admiral Evans' destination was Yongampho, Korea, instead of Olongapo, Subig bay, near Manila, welcomes the correction as evidence that the United States will not meddle in the quarrel.

A dispatch from Newchwang says 6,000 Russian soldiers have entered Newchwang. The municipal affairs of Newchwang are managed by a Russian commissioner, and, acting on his orders, the Chinese merchants displayed the Russian colors when the troops marched into the city.

Charged With False Pretenses.

BOSTON, Jan. 23.—Mrs. Isabel M. Dewey, a fashionably dressed young woman of twenty-seven years, was extradited to Washington by order of Judge Lowell in the United States circuit court. She was arrested at Springfield a few days ago on the charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses. At the request of the federal authorities at Washington the young woman, who was accompanied by a year-old baby, left on an evening train for the capital in custody of Deputy Marshal Waters.

Run on a Savings Bank.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Jan. 23.—There has been a slight run upon the Manufacturers' bank of Mechanicville, $6,000 being withdrawn from the savings department of the bank by operatives of the Mechanicville and Stillwater mills. The deposits made by others exceeded that amount, and the bank officials do not fear a continuation of the run.

Weather Probabilities.

Don't concoct elaborate advertising schemes to get the same old business you've had all the while. Don't offer prizes and premiums that simply mean giving a bonus with goods that you would have sold just the same any way. When you go after business, go after new business. If you are going to pay people to be your customers they should be people who are not already you customers.—Frank Farrington in Ad-Writer.

The University of Berlin has conferred the degree of doctor of philosophy, with the greatest praise, on Miss Ina Milroy, of Detroit, for her work in chemistry, her dissertation being the result of original work on the influence of inactive substances on the optical rotation of dextro-glucose.—Herald.

Now there's the sort of girl to have around the house. Will somebody please introduce us, quick! We don't know much about the optical rotations of dextro-glucose, but we know that the earth revolves. We've felt it.—New Brunswick Home News.

After this confession of the Home News' editor, is it not time that New Brunswick holds some temperance meetings.

In another column we publish editorial opinions concerning the unsightly sign boards scattered along the lines of the railroads in this State to which attention was called by Governor Murphy in his annual message. The subject is one of serious moment. The entire State is being disfigured by these signs and it is time that the Legislature took the matter under consideration. As the Governor says it will be difficult to find a proper remedy but there is some hope in his suggestion that taxation, made so great as to be prohibitive, may bring about a solution of the matter.

No individual or corporate body is strong enough to successfully withstand the justified attack of an united press and the Public Service Corporation will realize this, though probably not until it is too late. The wretched condition of its trolley system and the empty promises made by those in control have caused general indignation throughout North and Central Jersey. An exchange in commenting on the situation says that it is due to mismanagement and this is no doubt correct. From Jersey City, Newark, Orange, Bayonne, Hoboken, Elizabeth and other points comes the cry of the outraged public which is compelled to pay for a service which is simply rotten. There is but one remedy and that is for these municipalities to revoke the franchises which the corporation holds. The service in this city is miserable and we hope that the Common Council will bring the necessary pressure to bear to have it improved. There is no doubt that the service between Plainfield and Dunellen has been improved by having the Elizabeth cars run through to that place and for this credit should be given.

—The Retail Clerks' Association will meet Monday night and elect officers for the coming year.

—Don't venture out these unpleasant days. Just call up Neuman Brothers on the telephone. They're reliable and you will be well suited. The Rockdale print butter is but 29 cents a pound. If you prefer Rockdale creamery you can have it for 28 cents or the fancy Elgin for 25 cents.

—A table published by the Spectator shows that average interest earnings per $100 of mean invested funds of American life insurance companies have declined from 7 per cent. in 1878 to 5½ per cent. in 1890, then rose to 5.4 per cent. in 1891, and there has been a general decline till 1902, in which year the per cent. was 4.4.

—The annual meeting of the Norfolk and New Brunswick Hosiery Company will be held at the factory in New Brunswick on next Wednesday, when the most important question that has come before the stockholders in years will be brought up. This question will ask for a reduction of the capital stock of the company and for an issue of preferred stock to the amount of $300,000.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

Miss Davis' dancing class held a delightful reception in Apgar's Hall last evening. About twenty-five couples were present and an enjoyable time was spent. Refreshments were served during the evening.

A. A. Parker, of West Dunellen, a fancier of chickens, carried off four prizes at the annual poultry show at Madison Square Garden last week.

Owing to the rain of yesterday, Greenbrook has overflowed its banks and flooded the adjacent fields.

Frank Boulby has returned to work after being laid up for three weeks with an attack of the mumps.

Mrs. Ferdinand Hoch, of Somerville, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Catherine Maier.

Stacy H. Opdyke, of Rutgers' College, is visiting his parents on Washington avenue.

Miss Louise Brakeley is entertaining her cousin, Miss Florence Abernetly, of Jersey City.

The two children of George Mitchell are confined to the house by sickness.

The stone quarry of Garretson & Gray has closed down for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shively have been entertaining Newark relatives.

Mrs. George Huff has returned from a visit with relatives in New York.

William Conley, of Port Reading, visited his family yesterday.

William Stanch, of Newark, was in town yesterday on business.

John Haynes is suffering from the effects of a severe cold.

Mrs. John Kinney has recovered from her recent illness.

M. T. Moynihan is visiting relatives in Harrison, N. J.

The Banjo Club met for rehearsal last evening.

Colonel Downey is suffering with a severe cold.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Borough Collector Charles Sheelen will issue the annual borough report within a few days. The borough is in excellent condition, all claims are paid; no floating debt to hamper the taxpayers, and a neat sum is still in the treasurer's hands. Collector Sheelen has collected all of the 1903 poll and personal taxes, a record which but few collectors can boast of. Mr. Sheelen has tendered his resignation to the Council several times during the past four years, owing to pressure of other business, but the Mayor and Council have each time prevailed upon him to withdraw the same.

The election of Edward L. Hand as manager of the baseball team at the meeting of the club, Thursday night, was a good selection. As Manager Johnson was unable to guide the destiny of the team during the coming season, no better selection could have been made. Mr. Hand is an old ball player and one who has been identified with the club since its organization.

Mrs. Stites Parse, of Front street, who has been sick for several months, is much improved. Her trained nurse who has been serving her during her illness, fell down stairs Thursday and was painfully injured.

The quarterly examination at the public school has been discontinued. Only one yearly examination will be held in the future, this being the June one, which is held for promotion of scholars.

The Suburban Athletic Club is remodeling its clubhouse in the borough. A number of changes are being made, and when completed the members will have an attractive and cozy home.

Services tomorrow at the Baptist curohh will be: Sunday-school, 9:30 a. m.; morning preaching, 10:45; B. Y. P. U. meeting, 7 p. m.; evening sermon, 7:45.

Fanwood Council, R. A., entertains Grand Regent Washbourn and staff at Tuesday night's meeting. A full attendance of the members is desired.

Friday was a record breaker for the blacksmiths. The ice made travelling with anything but a sharp shod horse a rather dangerous thing.

The Homestead is a favorite winter resort for a number of New Yorkers who enjoy being suburbanites nearly the year around.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shepard, of "The Gables," have returned from a few days visit with friends in New York.

The several cases of diphtheria in the village are doing nicely. No new cases have developed.

The tenant case of Sobenck against Strait, in Justice Clark's court, has been settled.

THE LADIES favor painting their churches, and therefore we urge every Minister to remember we give a liberal quantity of the Longman & Martinez Paint toward the painting.

Wears and covers like gold.

Don't pay $1.50 a gallon for Linseed Oil (worth 60 cents) which you do when you buy other paints in a can with a paint label on it.

8 and 6 make 14, therefore when you want fourteen gallons of paint, buy only eight of L. & M., and mix 6 gallons pure Linseed Oil with it, and thus get paint at less than $1.20 per gallon.

Many houses are well painted with four gallons of L. & M. and three gallons of Linseed Oil mixed therewith.

These Celebrated Paints are sold by Woolston & Buckle, Plainfield; H. C. Meyer, Scotch Plains.

FFEDERATION OF CHURCHES

ARRANGEMENTS MADE BY NEW ORGANIZATION TO DO EFFECTIVE WORK.

Rev. Dr. Jesse L. Hurlbut, of Morristown, formerly pastor of the First M. E. church, of this city, has been made a member of the executive board of the Federation of Churches and Christian Organization of New Jersey. The first meeting of the general committee, composed of representatives from the various denominational bodies of the State, met in the First Presbyterian church June 1 last and appointed a sub-committee to formulate a constitution and report at a later date. The sub-committee held a session at the Bible House, New York, last fall, and a meeting was held in Newark this week to hear the report, which follows:

"This association shall be called the Federation of Churches and Christian Organizations of New Jersey.

"The object of the federation shall be the promotion of effective co-operation among the churches and Christian organizations of New Jersey, in order that their essential unity may be manifested; that the evangelization of every community may be more systematically accomplished; that a means may be found for expressing the united Christian sentiment of the State in regard to moral issues; that the various Christian and benevolent activities of the Commonwealth may be more completely co-ordinated, and that other appropriate ends may be secured, and to stimulate the formation of local federations in the cities, towns and counties of the State for the promotion of the same ends.

"The churches uniting in the work of this federation shall act through a State council. Each denomination shall be entitled to choose from the State body, or the highest local body, one person as a member of this council, and one additional representative for each 10,000 communicants, or major fraction thereof, in the churches of the denominations in the State.

"When no action is taken by a denominational body, local churches under its jurisdiction shall have representation in the council on a basis to be provided for by the executive board.

"Local federations and ministerial associations established in the cities and towns of the State shall be entitled to choose one representative and one additional representative for every two thousand communicants in the churches affiliating with the said local organization.

"Each organization of Christian workers affiliating with the federation shall be entitled to one representative in the council."

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

Smith and Davis.

The Hoboken Observer (Democrat), thinks that since Robert Davis thrashed ex-Senator James Smith in the Gubernatorial convention of 1901 and nominated James M. Seymour for Governor, and the Essex leader later retaliated by assisting in electing a Republican Mayor of Jersey City, there has never been a possibility of real friendship between the two Democratic leaders. The cohesive power of political ambition and the necessity for united effort in a Presidential campaign may inspire some party harmonizer to discover or invent a sort of neutral zone within which these two rivals may work together. There was for a time a hope that the Cleveland boom would serve this purpose, but that has been dissipated.—From the Trenton Times.

Repeal Meeker Act.

Of late we have heard little or nothing of the erstwhile strenuous demands for the repeal of the Meeker Act. It is to be hoped, however, that the agitation will not be forgotten, and that strong representations will be made to the present Legislature to undo the evil effect worked by this law. As we have repeatedly urged, local elections should not be merged with National and State elections. The effect is bound to be evil. When the people have to vote for Presidential Electors, for a Governor or for a Representative in Congress they are apt to be so absorbed by larger issues as to forget the smaller ones. Next fall the people of Passaic will be called upon to vote for Presidential Electors, for a Governor, for a Representative in Congress, for members of the General Assembly and for many local officials. This will be too much of a good thing. It is doubtful whether a campaign for the restoration of the spring elections would be successful at this time, but it is never too early to begin.—Passaic Daily News.

LAST FOUR DAYS

OF THE

Pre-Inventory Sale

Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday

THESE DAYS will be full of interest to the careful shopper. Rather than take in stock much of the merchandise, we are going to offer it to you at a great sacrifice in price. This is NOT one of the usual "fake" "Sacrifice Sales," but is a positive saving of from 25c to 50c on the dollar. Such opportunities as these occur only before Inventory, so you will have to wait until next January if you do not take advantage of this one. Remember, just three days.

Potato Contest.

For the benefit of a few of our customers who requested a longer time, we will hold the contest open until January 28th, which is the last day of the Inventory Sale.

Potatoes will be on exhibition January 26, 27, 28, 29, 30.

Awards will be made Saturday, January 30th.

A PAIR OF FLICKERS

The Naturalist Watches Them Build a Home and Set Up Housekeeping.

How the Male Called His Lady Love and Began His Courtship—Interruption by a Jealous Rival—The Nest and Little Ones.

The flicker is known throughout almost the whole of North America, and wherever he is known he is loved by all right-minded members of the community. He is of good appearance, industrious in his habits, and minds his own business. He is a good citizen, and an example to the rest of us; many of us are proud of him and the others ought to be.

Last spring I saw a male flicker alight on the slanting trunk of a dead tree, and, after hitching sidewise two or three times, he stopped near a spot where the bark was loose, and began prying off bits of it with his strong curved bill, pausing now and then to devour the insects which he brought to light. Then, flying to a higher branch, he sent forth a long call, "Wicka-wicka-wicka-wicka," which penetrated to the very heart of the woods. Presently he flew to another tree, alighting close to a hard, dead branch. Then he threw his head back, and, after a momentary pause, brought the tip of his bill to bear upon the dead branch, with marvelous force and rapidity. The effect was a loud, vibratory sound not unlike the rapid rolling of a small drum, and after a moment's silence, during which the woodpecker turned his head on one side as though listening, it was repeated, seemingly louder than before.

Again and again the sound rolled forth from the resonant branch, and then, with a little "pat," a second flicker alighted upon the tree. Then the drummer ceased his drumming, for he had something better to do. The lady love he had been calling for had arrived, and the delightful task of winning her affections was before him. He drew near and bowed to her, uttering notes which sounded like as though they might be pretty speeches; then pranced in front of her, spreading his tail and his wings, displaying the golden feather shafts and the white patch on his rump. How much further he would have gone with his courtship will never be known, for at this interesting point another male flicker arrived from somewhere, and the two rivals, uttering harsh notes, dashed off together, and were followed soon after by the cause of their jealousy.

Which, if either, of the two males was eventually successful, I don't know, but, at all events, I saw a pair of mated flickers in that corner of the woods a very few days later. At last a decision was reached, and on a dead chestnut tree work was commenced. For eight days they labored hard; then, because no more chips were thrown out, I presumed that the home was finished.

Some ten days later, I enlarged the entrance a little, that I could put my hand into the nest. Inside the nest-hole was much wider than one might have supposed from glancing at the door way, and opened out into a roomy cavity which extended downwards perhaps 18 inches, affording ample room for the mother as she sat upon her eggs. Of the latter there were seven, transparent white, with pink veinings showing through the shell. The yolks, as in all fresh woodpeckers' eggs which I have seen, were plainly visible, and floated lightly to the top, no matter which way up the eggs were held.

Next time I visited the nest, the young birds were hatched, for as I tapped on the tree-trunk there came from the hole a sound like that made by escaping steam or a singing kettle; the sound of very young flickers crying in chorus. I did not see the parent birds feed the young, but we know from the observations of Mr. William Brewster that young flickers are fed by regurgitation in much the same manner as young pigeons are given their nourishment. The parent flicker thrusts his bill down the throat of a little flicker, and with his wings and tail, and in fact his whole body, quivering with the effort, he literally pumps the half-digested food from his own stomach into that of his offspring.

Some time before they were ready to leave the nest, the fledglings would scramble up to the mouth of the nest-hole, and sometimes four or five inquisitive little heads might be seen peering out at once.

On leaving the nest, they could fly well at once, making more than a hundred yards at the first attempt. Their plumage at this age was almost identical with that of the parents.

Japanese Smugglers.

Japanese smugglers are driving the Russian officials frantic by their persistent running of contraband goods into Siberia. The other day a Jap tailor was caught at Port Arthur with a large quantity of silk. It is likely to go hard with him, as the Russian law is stringent on this point.

SUNKEN SPANISH TREASURE.

Romantic Material in Search Prosecuted by Duke of Argyll Near Island of Mull.

There is material for a romance in the search for treasure trove being prosecuted by the duke of Argyll, off the shore of the island of Mull, says a London paper. The duke hopes to recover from the wreck of the Spanish galleon Florida a portion of the treasure sunk with her when she met her fate with the ill-starred Armada fleet. The Florida was reported to have been the richest galleon in the Spanish fleet. The duke located the site of the wreck and employed a wrecking tug and divers to prosecute the search for the sunken treasure. Already the ancient ship's timbers, cannon balls, coins, skulls and swords have been rescued. The sea divers hope soon to find the treasure chests. The duke of Argyll's ancestors began the search for the treasure in 1642, and now the present duke, aided by modern appliances, has renewed the search with better success. The Florida was sunk by a Scottish chieftain whom the Spanish commander abducted from the Isle of Mull. The chieftain, discovering himself to be a prisoner aboard the ship, thrust a torch into the magazine, blowing up and sinking the treasure-laden galleon. If the duke recovers the treasure he will have to give the lion's share to the treasury under the ancient law of treasure-trove.

AMONG THE ALPS.

One of the Finest Panoramic Views Is in the Very Heart of Switzerland.

The city of Lucerne, on the northwest arm of the lake, is one of the largest and most important cities of Switzerland. Southwest of the city rises the gigantic peak of Pilatus, from whose summit is secured one of the finest panoramic views of the Alps, for the lake of Lucerne is in the very heart of Switzerland, writes Guy Morrison Walker, in Four-Track News. From most other points the views are in one or two directions, but from the peaks around the Waldstatter sea the wild Alpine summits rise round you in every direction.

East of Lucerne, across the lake, stands the rival peak of Rigi, from whose summit can be obtained a view rivaling even that from Pilatus, since it commands a better view of Lake Lucerne itself, and also a magnificent view of the Lake of Zug, to the north and west. At the foot of Rigi, at the head of the north arm of the lake, nestles the valley of Kussnacht, where the tyrant Gesler built his famous castle called "Uri's Menace," which was destroyed after the Swiss had overthrown the power of Austria in the fourteenth century.

IN SHAH'S PALACE.

Appalling Combination of Dinginess and Splendor, Squalor and Luxury.

The palace of the shah of Persia, according to Donald Stuart, in "The Struggle for Persia," is an appalling combination of dinginess and splendor, of squalor and luxury. One of the most interesting rooms is that filled with the portraits of all the monarchs of Europe. In the next room is his majesty's writing apparatus. Here stands a globe such as may be seen in a schoolroom, except that the continents are made with gems of different color and all the names and rivers are marked in diamonds. On the walls a painting by an old master is framed next to a highly colored advertisment of a dealer in fishhooks. The throne itself is a sort of wooden bed, about nine feet by six, the woodwork covered with diamonds, emeralds, rubies and sapphires, some an inch long. The value of the whole is estimated roughly at $5,000,000 or $6,000,000. On the floor o. the throne is a carpet so thick with pearls that the texture of the cloth is hardly visible, while a huge vase, set with turquoises and pearls, stands side by side with a cheap painted urn, such as is sometimes seen at country fairs.

Soap Boiler and Mont Blanc.

The latest failure to ascend Mont Blanc is interesting, says the Pall Mall Gazette. The heroes of the story are German students with whom the primary difficulty of the enterprise was that of finding the money to pay for it. A happy thought struck them, and they called upon a Berlin soap boiler to make a proposal. If he, on his part, would finance the expedition, they on theirs would placard the mountain from base to summit with the posters with which he advertised his wares. The soap boiler liked the idea, and the bargain was duly struck. Happily, however, the communal authorities at Chamonix got wind of the proposal, and the German students are now on their way, leaving a trunk full of confiscated posters behind them.

Testing Radium.

A correspondent of the Scientific American recently passed through a peculiar experience. He tasted a small fraction of a grain of radium. It acted as a powerful stimulant, affecting both the heart and kidneys. It was several hours before his pulse became normal. It affected the mind also, producing hallucinations.

Doesn't Work That Way.

The Erie railroad will hire no more men who are over 35 years of age. It will not, for the present, however, remarks the Chicago Record-Herald, prohibit stockholders who are over 50 from receiving dividends.

Military Watch Dogs.

The military posts at the German naval port of Wilhelmshaven are fitted out with watch dogs. Each sentry has one dog by the leash and lets it loose when suspicious people refuse to stop.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark, 14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

FOR FORMAL OCCASIONS.

Black Materials Which Are Smart. Dainty House Gowns.

Black chiffon, black crepe de chine and black lace combine to form a very dressy gown which can be worn either summer or winter.

Black chiffon accordion plaited and having a bolero of black lace makes a charming evening blouse, particularly if the bolero be trimmed with chenille.

Gowns of pale gray or fawn cloth are trimmed with wide bands of crushed plush of a corresponding shade. The plush appears on the wide shoulder cape and the large drooping sleeves, with their inner ruffle of lace.

White cashmere makes admirable negligees, as it washes perfectly. It should be trimmed with a good quality of white lace and knots of white satin or black velvet ribbon.

Wash satin makes pretty house gowns also, and this is daintily trimmed with embroidery and a wide collar of lace which can be removed at will.

Negligees of all over lace are very smart, and they are made so that they can be worn over different shades of china silk.

Velvet tea gowns edged with fur and having fronts of soft ecru draped lace are quite the prettiest cold weather house gowns, and they are not really expensive if they are made at home by a reasonable seamstress.

The picture shows a picture hat of black beaver trimmed with black velvet ribbon and a white plume.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE LATEST IN DRESS.

Brown Tulle Ball Gowns—Checked Tailor Mades.

The ball gown of brown tulle is the latest Parisian novelty, and so is the brown chiffon frock. Both require relieving with lace. This is a particularly becoming shade to those who have chestnut or auburn hair and a good complexion.

Wine color is very smart for a winter costume when seen in rich velvet or particularly fine cloth, for it does not come in the right shade in cheap materials.

Tailors are again using checks in browns and greens. These are softened with chenille trimmings. A gown seen recently was of green and white checked material, having a bolero bodice trimmed with dull green silk pouching over a very wide kid band. With this was worn a very large toreador toque of green velvet trimmed with parma violets.

All the soft fabrics are gauged and plaited at the waist, while even the heavy velvets and plushes are allowed to hang in full folds.

There is no such thing as a stiff fitted skirt any more. Everything hangs full and is trimmed so as to conceal rather than reveal the figure. Gray is the smartest color for a reception gown, and it is not trying if relieved by white lace or a tiny touch of color next to the face.

The picture shows a gown of brown cloth trimmed with rows of mink. The skirt is very full and is trimmed with six rows of lace dyed to match. There is a mink stole as well as a hat of mink trimmed with a white feather.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

AMERICAN ADAPTABILITY.

Admirable Poise of a Chicago Girl in Her Position as First Lady of India.

Lady Curzon, the vicerine of India, stands as a shining example of the facility and the adaptability of the American woman, says the Kansas City Star. Occupying a position which brings her in continual contact with royalty, she bears herself with as much dignity and distinction as if she had been born to the purple. No daughter of the reigning house of Great Britain could sustain herself in the place of Lady Curzon with more admirable poise than she exhibits in all of the great functions in which she is caleid to figure. Lady Curzon belongs to what would be called a new family even in America. She has not behind her the generations of culture which many American women can point to. She was brought up in Chicago, a town that is conspicuously associated with the commercial idea. Her acquisitions were not aided by the influence of hereditary culture. Her achievements are the fruit of a keen and active mind and an agreeable personality under the spur and encouragement of liberal advantages. Her accommodation to the requirements and the opportunities of large riches shows the difference between the British and the American systems. In England it requires centuries to manfacture the sort of ladies and gentlemen who are often developed in this country in a single generation.

SERVE MEALS PIPING HOT.

Three Pittsburg Women Fill a Long-Felt Want and Are Making It Pay.

One of the most unique business enterprises in this country was established not long ago by three Pittsburg women. Something like a year ago they rented a house in one of the best residence sections of Oakland and began to prepare and deliver what they called a "ready to serve" dinner. A patent "buffet" was constructed which would retain heat for hours. In that ingenious contrivance these dinners were served. They were guaranteed to remain fresh, appetizing and hot for three hours.

Success was theirs. Housewives soon took notice and in a short time those who had heretofore had much trouble in getting a cook ordered the meals from these women. The "ready to serve" dinners proved a quick and easy way out of the dilemma and the ever troublesome cook was done away with.

The "ready to serve" dinner business is a new feature in nearly every city in the United States. San Francisco and fashionable Paris have soundly established cooking establishments on the same basis and it has become very popular. The three women realized a surprisingly large sum, it is said.

PHOTOGRAPHY IN THE DARK.

German Professor Says Light Is Not Needed in the Making of Pictures.

The light is not needed for the printing of photographs is a discovery which has been made by Dr. Wilhelm Oswald, professor of chemistry in the University of Leipsic. He produces the required changes in the sensitized paper by the use of silver on negatives treated with a solution of peroxide of hydrogen. The presence of the silver causes the elements of the solution to react against each other. In a very short time in those places where there is silver in the negative the solution will disappear; in the other spots remain. This invisible picture is then transferred to gelatine paper and finally developed by iron sulphate in solution. Gallic acid is then applied and the result is a genuine ink picture. Dr. Oswald declares that in this method the sensitized paper will keep indefinitely and the silver can be used over any number of times. He says the process is far cheaper and quicker than any now in use, besides requiring no light. By it any design or drawing can be quickly copied.

A KENTUCKY BREAKFAST.

Col. Williams Explained the Presence of a Dog in the Bill of Fare.

"Col. Williams, of the Second Kentucky regiment, is universally beloved and respected in the middle southern states," said A. M. Taylor, amusement caterer to the Flagler hotels in Florida, reports the New York Sun. "I was on my way to New York recently, when I met the colonel at Cincinnati.

"'I tell you, sah,' said the colonel, 'Kentucky is the finest state in the union, sah. There you will find the best cattle, the noblest and most beautiful women, and the finest eating, sah, in all this broad land.'

"'Eating? Colonel,' said I to draw the colonel out. 'Now, what do you have for breakfast?'

"'Breakfast, sah,' exclaimed the colonel. 'Why, I last had a steak and a bottle of whisky and a dog, sah!'

"'A dog?' said I. 'Seems to me that a dog is rather a queer dish for breakfast.'

"'You misunderstand me, sah,' replied the colonel, with hauteur. 'I procured the dog to eat the steak, sah.'"

Probably Had a Hard Time.

Baron Henri de Rothschild has been fined two dollars in Paris for auto scorching, reports the Chicago Record-Herald. The cable doesn't say how he succeeded in raising the money.

Prettiest Not Always Best.

They say that Shamrock III. is a prettier boat than the Reliance. No doubt, remarks the Chicago Record-Herald, there are prettier mares than Lou Dillon.

BUZZING ALARM CLOCK.

Successfully Used to Rout a Burglar Who Was Armed with a Six-Shooter.

Ernest Saidler, who had been employed as lineman for the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company, in Anaconda, Mont., had a thrilling experience with a bold burglar one night recently. Saidler repaired to his home quite early during the evening, and at ten o'clock was fast asleep, dreaming of fortunes to be his in after years.

Saidler reports that about 10:30 o'clock he was awakened by a noise at the window. He raised his head, and was startled to see a stranger making his way toward the bed. Saidler was not at all certain as to what course to pursue, yet he felt that he could not afford to lose the $145 in cash and a gold watch and chain which were in his clothes not far distant from his bed. He looked about him for a weapon with which to attack the midnight intruder, but could find nothing that seemed at all likely to put him on an equal footing with the man, who held a big six-shooter in his hand, as he approached. Driven to desperation Saidler grabbed the alarm clock resting on a nearby table, and, with a yell that would have done credit to an Indian, he threw the now buzzing alarm clock at the burglar.

The intruder was so dazed by the blow from the clock that he hardly knew which way to turn. He made his get-away quickly, however, and was out of the window and gone before Saidler decided on another move. Saidler considers that he escaped from the thief quite luckily.

FIGHT WITH COYOTE.

Woman Attacks Beast, Aided by a Dog, and Ends Its Life with Blow from Ax.

Mrs. C. P. Horton, who lives on a ranch near Falcon, Col., had an experience recently that she will not soon forget, in the shape of a battle with a ferocious coyote. In the end the woman and her pet shepherd dog, Nero, were the victors, and the brute was dispatched with an ax.

Mrs. Horton and her dog were near the ranch house when a hungry and fierce-looking coyote attacked the dog. The woman made haste to the woodshed, where she secured the ax, that being the weapon most available, and rushed to the assistance of her fast weakening canine. The enraged coyote made several ineffectual attempts to reach the woman, and her dress was badly torn by the claws of the animal when it sprang at her throat. Mrs. Horton finally struck the coyote a blow that disabled it, and then with a few well directed blows the beast was killed.

The dog was badly used up in the fight, suffering severely from the sharp fangs of its antagonist, but will live. Mrs. Horton was not badly injured. The coyote was undoubtedly driven to its fierce attack through hunger, it being very gaunt.

Red Tape in Germany.

The Deutsche Juristenzeitung records the following instance of Prussian red tape: A woman who disappeared from her home was legally adjudged dead after a time. Three years later she reappeared, proved her identity beyond a doubt, and demanded a passport and other legal documents which Germans are required to possess. The authorities, however, refused to give her the documents, declaring that legally she was dead, and the law courts decided that she could not appeal against the ruling that she was dead, because too great an interval had elapsed for an appeal to be allowable. The courts unfortunate woman is still dead, though very much alive to the absurdities of red

TRADE CONDITIONS.

R. G. Dun & Co. Report Wholesale Trade Very Active.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

Weather conditions have furnished the chief influences in the general trade situation. To some extent traffic has been hindered, especially in the east, but the latest returns of railway earnings for January show an increase of 3.9 per cent over 1903. Consumption of fuel was increased and retail trade in coal greatly expanded, but no commensurate gain at first hands is reported, owing to the large supplies held by dealers. Mills relying upon water power suffered interruption, and the output of news paper was forcibly restricted. Retail distribution of footwear and heavy wearing apparel felt the stimulus, and annual clearance sales removed accumulations of dry goods, millinery, etc.

Wholesale business is fairly active, traveling salesmen sending in about average orders, and jobbing trade is normal. Manufacturing plants are more active, with little change in quotations, and the outlook for spring trade is considered favorable.

Easier money facilitated operations in securities, the sixty most active railway stocks rising above an average of $91 for the first time in over six months, but industrials are still $5 lower than they were last July. Bank exchanges at New York for the week were 17.3 per cent less than a year ago, and at other leading cities there was a loss of 4.4 per cent.

All records since 1875 have been surpassed in the quotation of spot cotton, and compared with the corresponding date last year there has occurred an advance of $28.25 a bale, which is more than the total value of 500 pounds of cotton at the lowest record a few years ago.

Scarcely less remarkable was the sudden upward tendency of grain in the face of more pacific news regarding the situation in the far east. Wheat rose to much the highest price of the season at Chicago, and corn also developed a firmer tone. Heavy consumption at domestic flour mills was the chief legitimate support, supplemented by vigorous speculation. Interior receipts of wheat for the week aggregated 4,230,126 bushels against 3,974,181 bushels last year, and exports from all ports of the United States, flour included, were 2,755,340 bushels compared with 3,415,146 bushels a year ago. Receipts of 4,986,168 bushels of corn compared with 5,072,436 bushels last year, and Atlantic coast shipments of 1,223,727 bushels fell short of the 2,113,068 bushels exported a year ago.

Edna Was Reproved.

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 23.—Edna Wallace Hopper gave rebuttal evidence here in the suit brought by her against former Premier James Dunsmuir to break the will of his brother, the result of which involves a large fortune. She told of conversations with Mountford Wilson, the San Francisco attorney, regarding her mother's health, the state of Alexander Dunsmuir's mind and the ground for an attack on the will. She said Dr. Thorne told her that Dunsmuir was incompetent and there should be no difficulty in upsetting the will. The witness insisted on adding statements which were not considered evidence and was reproved by the judge.

VISIT TO LOURDES

Annual Pilgrimage to This Little Village in Southern France.

Holy Spring Which Religious Fervor Credits with Many Miraculous Cures—Devout Invalids Flock Thither.

In this twentieth century we are apt to smile at the superstitutions which religious fervor may produce and foster. It seems almost incredible that there are thousands and thousands of poor invalids who believe that the water from a certain holy spring will cure them of their complaints. There is something poetic and mediaeval about such unquestioning faith. The annual pilgrimage to Lourdes is a case in point. Lourdes, in the Hautes Pyrenees, in the south of France, which was once a little unknown village, has now a European reputation, having gained it solely through the numbers of pilgrims who visit the place annually. This town, which is beautifully situated in a valley opening towards snow-clad mountains, 12 miles southwest of Tarbes, dates its prosperity from the year 1858. In that year a young peasant girl, named Bernadette Soubirons, related that the Virgin had appeared to her. The apparition was repeated several times, and at last a wonderful spring issued from a corner of the grotto where it had been seen. It was soon proclaimed that the spring possessed miraculous qualities, and it says much for the power of the Roman Catholic religion, that on the faith of Bernadette's story hundreds of thousands of persons have visited the cave annually; and a hospital and convents, hotels and houses, have been built to meet the wants of the pilgrims. The girl's vision was declared to be authentic by the Bishop of Tarbes, and the place attracted such a multitude of pilgrims that a railway was built to bring them to the town.

THE BASILICA OF NOTRE DAME.

In 1876 35 archbishops and bishops, presided over by the Archbishop of Paris and the Apostolic Nuncio, gave their seal to the story of Bernadette by assisting at the dedication of a handsome basilica, built in the thirteenth century style, which was erected over the cave. This was only a short time before Bernadette, who had become a nun, died in a convent. The many chapels and corridors below the church are lined with votive offerings. Generals leave their orders and brides their veils. The walls of the upper church are also entirely covered with similar offerings. The first chapel on the left records the 18 appearances of the Virgin and the singular words which Bernadette described her to have spoken: "Go to the fountain, eat of the grass beside it, pray for mankind, tell the priests to build me a chapel; I am the Immaculate Conception." From the upper church paths lead through shrubberies to the grotto beneath, facing the river. Here the rock is covered with the crutches of cured cripples. On the one side is the famous fountain, on the other a pulpit from which a priest directs the devotions of the pilgrims. Special trains bring countless invalids to Lourdes, and the sight of so much human suffering gathered in one spot is deeply pathetic. There are numerous bands of volunteers at the town who skilfully undertake the organization of the throngs of pilgrims, most of whom are of the poorer class, and who have spent what is to them a large sum on the journey. The majority of the invalids, unfortunately, return as they came, but their faith is unshaken; they have not had sufficient faith they say.

Apart from the religious excitement which has made Lourdes one of the most prosperous towns in the south of France, it is a picturesque and beautiful place, with its old church and modernized

UP AND DOWN THE STATE

Governor Murphy has accepted an invitation to attend the Hebrew charity ball in Trenton, February 1. He will be accompanied by his staff in full uniform.

The action of the Springfield Township Committee in demanding concessions from the Morris County Traction Company, which proposes to operate a trolley system from Dover to Elizabeth, which the company claims are prohibitive, according to one interested in the company's plans will not seriously interfere with the scheme. It was learned yesterday that the company had instructed Engineer Carl J. Seller, of Summit, who surveyed the proposed route of the trolley line through Summit to Elizabeth, to proceed at once in surveying through private property in the township of Springfield. This survey was begun yesterday and unless the Springfield officials modify their original demands private property will be purchased as soon as the route is determined through Springfield.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Mr. Wakefield walks to and from Plainfield to his business here every day while the roads are unfit for bicycling.

Public worship at the Baptist church will be held at the usual hours, 10:30 a. m., and 7:45 p. m. Sunday-school at 11:45 a. m.

The Union Bible class, taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns, will meet at Y. M. C. A. Hall, Tuesday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock.

Stephen Cahoone will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The Y. M. C. A. orchestra will render special music and accompany the singing.

Religious service was held at the township home last Sunday afternoon. It will be conducted there at regular periods hereafter, led by the pastors of the local churches in the vicinity.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon in the chapel, when the members spent the time in making garments to be sent to mission fields.

The Workers' Training class of the Y. M. C. A. will meet tomorrow morning at 9:15 o'clock, and will continue the series of studies by Dr. Howard Agnew Johnston, of New York. Visitors are invited.

Rev. L. G. Leggett will speak at the East Third street chapel tomorrow night at 8 o'clock on the subject of "Power." There will be special music. The meetings under the direction of Mr. Leggett have increased very much in interest and attendance.

A home for fallen women has been opened in this city by Mrs. Lou O'Brien, the evangelist who has been engaged in converting thirty-three souls at the Rescue Mission during the past eight weeks. The home will be located in the Lindsay house on West Front street. Services will open tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

A number of boys from St. Mary's Parochial School enjoyed a sleighride to Bound Brook, Thursday night, where they were entertained. The committee in charge was composed of these boys: John L. O'Keeffe, chairman; James P. Lynch, William J. Mahoney, William A. Casey, Edward A. Carty and Thomas Bebout.

Mrs. Elizabeth Emmons, whose funeral services were held yesterday from the home of her daughter, Mrs. George W. Reighton, of Park avenue, was one of the oldest members of Trinity Reformed church. She was identified with the church under the pastorate of Rev. Dr. Smith and she retained her interest to the last.

At the morning service in the Church of the Holy Cross the offertory as sung last Sunday will be repeated. At the afternoon service at 4:30 the Magnificat in F, Schnecker, will be sung. The other selections will be: Nunc Dimittie, Garrett, male quartette, "God is Love, Shelley; "Hark! Hark, My Soul, Shelley; solo, "Fear Not Ye O Israel," Buck, Mrs. William L. Saunders. J. Edmund Skiff is the organist and choirmaster.

The officers-elect of Washington Camp, No. 30, Patriotic Order Sons of America, will be installed Monday night.

The officers-elect of Mispah Lodge, No. 1, U. O. of I. O. L., will be installed Thursday night, January 28. An entertainment and social will follow.

Charles Jensen entertained at his house on Somerset street Thursday night, after his initiation into Wetumpkah Tribe, I. O. R. M. A programme of informal speeches, songs and recitations was presented.

To commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., the past masters of the lodge will work the Master Mason Degree at a regular communication to be held Tuesday night, January 26.

J. P. NORTHROP TO HIT BACK

TO CALL TO ACCOUNT EXAMINER WHO QUESTIONED HIS STEWARDSHIP.

James P. Northrop, Esq., of this city, and Frank Woolsey, of Jersey City, executors of the estate of the late Charles A. Woolsey, whose account of their stewardship has been criticised by Charles E. Hendrickson, Esq., appointed to restate the accounts of the estate, have decided to get back at the master by proceedings against the report, which they say is full of erroneous conclusions.

On Feb. 5 they will present to Judge John A. Blair their reasons why the report shouldn't be set aside. The judge's contention will be that the master's report is irregular and that he has exceeded his jurisdiction.

The report, which made such a sensation a few days ago, practically found that the executors had disregarded the provisions of the testator's will and that there was a discrepancy of $27,000 and odd dollars, which amount the executors ought to have on hand, instead of $5,000 in round numbers, which they said in their report they had on hand. As it has been previously pointed out, the matters at issue are purely legal.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.

L. B. Greenwood, Evangelist, Holding Services at Warren Chapel.

The evangelistic services yesterday afternoon and last night, conducted by L. B. Greenwood, were well attended despite the bad weather. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon Mr. Greenwood spoke on "Aaron's Rod," and at 7:45 on "The Atonement." No meetings will be held today.

Tomorrow there will be services at 10:30 in the morning, 2:30 in the afternoon and at 7:45 at night. The evangelist is supported by free-will offerings and they will be received at tomorrow's services.

Death at Oak Tree.

The death of Liza Smith McIntosh, aged sixty-one years, occurred at her home in Oak Tree, last night. The funeral services will be held from the late residence on Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment will be in Hillside cemetery. Mrs. McIntosh's death was due to dropsy and pneumonia, she having been ill some time. She was a member of Marconnier chapel and Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck will have charge of the services. Mrs. McIntosh is survived by a husband, two sons, one of whom lives in Jersey City, and a daughter.

Donkey Party.

Herbert Hoover and Clifford Staats gave a donkey party last night at the home of Herbert Hoover, affording a number of young people a jolly good time. George Cole won the prize for fixing the tail of the donkey the nearest to the right place and he received a gold pin. These persons were present: Herbert Hoover, Clifford Cole, Adelaide Cole, Edna Cole, George Cole, Grace Lematty, Julia Lematty, Harold Blackford, Irene Voehl and Elsie Hones.

Church Social.

A social given by the Epworth League of the First M. E. church, last night, was attended by a small number who were well repaid for braving the unpleasant weather conditions. The evening was passed in the playing of games. The committee in charge consisted of Harry Gee, chairman; Mrs. Harry Gee, Mrs. Stephen Tugwell, George Horne and Arthur Crone.

Case on Contract.

Suit will be brought on Monday in the Middlesex Circuit Court by Isaac P. Runyon, representing Joseph Kuldoshes and John Moynihan, executors of the estate of Helen Kuldoshes, against Charles W. Kent, administrator of the estate of Xavier Stehlin, to recover $2,675, alleged to be due.

SNAP SHOTS.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

James E. Martine, of this city, possessed a slight acquaintance with the late George Francis Train. His manner of meeting Mr. Train for the first time was extremely unconventional as befitted the subject, Mr. Train being noted for nothing if not for defying the conventions.

The farmer orator first saw the distinguished New Yorker at the World's Fair in Chicago in 1893. Mr. Train was seated at a table in one of the open-air restaurants in the Fair grounds, looking, as Mr. Martine expresses it, "a man of 10,000." He was dressed conspicuously in immaculately white summer clothes, his outing shirt decorated with an elaborate frill. With his bushy shock of white hair and his striking features, he made a picture that could not fail to attract a second glance from the most indifferent of passers-by.

Mr. Martine though unaware of his identity, seated himself at Mr. Train's table and engaged him in actual conversation on the subject of Chicago's wretched water which drove so many of the Fair visitors to an indulgence in almost anything else in the line of drinkables. The discovery that both men were New Yorkers led to a delightful conversation on subjects mutually interesting, including references to Hugh Vail who was an intimate friend to both.

The late Hugh Vail lived on East Front street of this city for many years, being in fact one of Plainfield's wealthiest citizens. The latter years of his life, Mr. Vail spent in Los Angeles, California.

Mr. Vail was associated with Train in one of the enterprises for which he was best known, the building of the London tramway, the first street railway line ever constructed in England. The financial part of the undertaking was looked after by Mr. Vail.

MAJOR TREADWELL DEAD.

Father of Federick-Ayres Company's Manager Passes Away at Albany.

Major George H. Treadwell, father of Louis Treadwell, manager of the Federick-Ayers Company of this city, died Thursday at his home in Albany, N. Y. Major Treadwell leaves five children, one of his sons being Col. George Curtis Treadwell, formerly military secretary to Gov. Black and Gov. Roosevelt, of New York, and a member of their military staffs. A daughter is the wife of John Boyd Thatcher, former mayor of Albany and a World's Fair commissioner.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—One of the main line trolley cars, now operated between Elizabeth and Dunellen, was seen going through West Front street between 8 and 9 o'clock, last night, without a headlight. In view of the fog prevailing early in the evening this fact did not add to the general safety of travel. Patrolman McGinley noticed the absence of the light and made a report of it.

—An oil stove, supposed to be self-regulating, in the home of Mrs. H. K. Carroll, of Westervelt avenue, refused to be regulated Thursday and blazed up through the top, filling the room with smoke. Danger was averted by the prompt action of Mrs. Carroll, who, instead of calling for the fire department, summoned a servant who carried the stove out of doors and threw it into a snow bank.

LITERARY.

Scribner's Magazine for February begins one of those series which from the days of the Thackeray Letters to the Waddington Letters have been characteristic of this Magazine. Mrs. George Bancroft's Letters from England are a worthy successor to these notable literary achievements. Mrs. Bancroft was a brilliant woman, born in Plymouth, Mass., and all her life associated with people of distinction. As a young girl she was a great friend of Emerson and his wife, and of many of the Brook Farm people. She married George Bancroft, the historian, in 1838 and when he was sent to England as Minister in 1846 she wrote these letters, principally in diary form, to her children. The Bancrofts knew all the eminent people in politics, society and literature. It was the age of Samuel Rogers, Macaulay, Lord and Lady Holland, and Palmerston.

Question His Sanity.

Adam Fritz, wife beater, will be examined this afternoon by Drs. Dundon and Pittis, of the borough. If it is determined that Fritz is insane he will be sent to Trenton without delay.

False Alarm.

A false alarm was caused at fire headquarters this morning at 11 o'clock by a Western Union lineman who was repairing wires on Madison avenue.

FATHER IS DISTANCED.

Race with Eloping Daughter Ends with Meeting After Wedding and in Forgiveness.

"It was a fair race and I lost it by half an hour. If I had won they would not have been married. But they won, and it's all right with me," said George Stephenson, of Louisiana, Mo., who arrived in Clayton 30 minutes too late to prevent the marriage of his daughter Florence to George Paine, also of Louisiana.

The father raced with the couple without a clew to their whereabouts. They had a few hours' start of him at Louisiana, and although he gained on them constantly through the race, they won by 30 minutes.

Stephenson left home in anger at the runaways. As he stepped off a street car at Clayton and met them leaving Justice Gucke's office as Mr. and Mrs. Paine, he gallantly acknowledged defeat and gave them his blessing.

"I LOST IN A FAIR RACE."

"I've no mind to find fault when I've lost in a fair race," said he.

He called on the marriage license clerk and the justice of the peace, informing them that he was satisfied with the marriage, and then took his daughter and son-in-law to the Terminal hotel at St. Louis.

"They are my guests," he told the clerk. "Here's the marriage license They beat me in a race to get it."

Indians Eat White Ants.

White ants are considered a delicacy by the Indians of South America. They are caught by pushing into the nest a grass stalk, which the ants soon cover. In a few minutes the stalk is withdrawn and the insects are brushed into a vessel containing water.

MR. ANDREWS, CHAIRMAN OF Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION

Four Hundred Delegates to Attend Thirty-Third Annual Meeting at Trenton.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

THE SESSIONS ARRANGED TO LAST FOUR DAYS.

Trenton People to Entertain Delegates—The Lotus Glee Club to Furnish the Music—The Programme in Detail.

Four hundred New Jersey Y. M. C. A. workers, representing all the associations in the State, will assemble in Trenton next month on the occasion of the thirty-third State convention. The convention will be held in Association Hall, will open Thursday, Feb. 11 and will last until Sunday evening, February 14.

The session will open at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon in charge of Frederick H. Andrews, of this city, chairman of the State executive committee.

The official call has just been issued, which, among other things, says:

"Meeting as the guests of the progressive association of the capital city, and covering a legal holiday, February 12, Lincoln's birthday, the place and the time and the elaborate preparations should ensure a large attendance."

Department conferences will occupy an entire afternoon and will meet in the following sections: City association directors and committeemen, railroad and street railway delegates, student delegates, county and town delegates, leaders in boys' work, physical directors.

Several prominent leaders not mentioned in the list of speakers will appear in these conferences.

The convention music will be directed by Secretary Merton L. Beebe, of Rahway assisted by the Lotus Glee Club, of which Charles L. Lewis, of this city is a member, and the Trenton association orchestra.

Three hundred of the delegates will be entertained in the homes of the local citizens. Some of the best homes in the city have already been placed at the disposal of the convention for this purpose, and members of the local association are actively engaged in securing additional homes for the delegates. In order that the work of securing all the homes required may be completed as soon as possible, those willing to entertain one or more delegates are requested to communicate with Secretary Fry at once.

F. H. Martin Spoke.

F. H. Martin, of the religious work committee of the Y. M. C. A., was the speaker at yesterday afternoon's meeting for men in the large hall of the Y. M. C. A. building. Special music was given by the association orchestra, which also accompanied the singing. Louis Hummer played the piano and W. C. Leek led the singing. George M. Rittenhouse presided at the meeting. The speaker next Sunday afternoon will be Rev. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Watt Corespondent Cleared.

Justice Leventritt, in the Supreme Court, New York, Saturday, made a formal order dismissing the charges made by Archibald Watt against Captain Wm. H. Truman, who recently lived here, of misconduct with Mrs. Adele Watt, formerly of North Plainfield, which Mr. Watt alleged in an answer to his wife's suit for a separation on the ground of his alleged cruelty and abandonment.

Trolley Service Stopped.

A Bound Brook car bound for Dunellen jumped the track at Lincoln Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock and blocked the track three hours before it could be replaced.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement is announced of Miss Carolyn Wurster Wagner, of Stanley, N. J., to T. R. Collins, of the borough.

SALE TO AID Y. M. C. A. WORK

FAIR PLANNED TO PROMOTE INTERESTS OF BOYS' DEPARTMENT.

The boys' work committee of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., assisted by the boys of the association, will hold a fair in the Y. M. C. A. parlors on Thursday, Feb. 4, from 3 o'clock in the afternoon to 10 o'clock at night. The sale is for the purpose of raising funds to buy games, and in ways to make the boys' rooms more attractive.

The women in charge of the different tables will be: Candy table—Mrs. John Valiant, Mrs. Anna Most; cake table—Mrs. John B. Probasco, Mrs. Walter H. Freeman; fancy table—Miss S. Lena Bass, Miss Genevieve Daniel, Miss Edith Clark, Miss Ida L. Spicer and Miss Mabel Maxson; lemonade booth—Miss Elizabeth M. Cahoone; grab-bag—Miss Florence Serrell; ice cream, hot chocolate and cake—Mrs. E. A. Janke.

One corner of the fancy table will be devoted to articles especially for men. It is requested that all donations be sent to the Y. M. C. A. building by noon on the day of the fair.

The fair promises to have many attractive features and it is hoped that all who are interested in the boys will make an effort to attend and help in promoting the good work.

ADAM FRITZ NOT INSANE

WIFE BEATER IN BOROUGH LOCKUP IS MENTALLY BALANCED.

Adam Fritz, wife beater and man of profanity, was adjudged not insane on Saturday by Dr. Albert Pittis and Dr. A. H. Dundon, the two borough physicians appointed by Mayor Smalley to examine into the man's sanity. He was rigidly examined but the physicians were unable to find any indictions that the fellow was mentally unbalanced.

His term of seven days' imprisonment and diet of bread and water will end tomorrow night at 7 o'clock if he pays his fine of $20. Unless it is forthcoming by tomorrow night he will begin a term of twenty days longer. If he is to still be a prisoner he will probably be kept in the North Plainfield jail instead of at Somerville. In the borough lockup he will not be given his liberty until his time is up, while in the county seat he would have the "freedom of the town" except during "office hours."

WESTFIELD'S NEW FIRE DEP'T

PAID SYSTEM TAKES PLACE OF VOLUNTEER ORGANIZATION.

The little town of Westfield now has a paid fire department with a perfect system of call men, regulars, up-to-date apparatus and horses to pull the engines and hose carts to the scene of any fire. This is now said to be the smallest town in New Jersey where a paid fire department is maintained. The new system went into effect on Saturday night although the Common Council passed the odinance on January 14. The paid department is the result of the progressiveness of the town.

Two permanent men will be employed by the borough, besides the chief who will act as building inspector and fire marshal. One will be in the house at all hours of the day which will be divided into two shifts. The other members of the department will be call men.

GIFT TO TEACHER.

Sunday-School Class of Hope Chapel Present Cigar Holder to Judge William N. Runyon.

City Judge William N. Runyon was presented with a handsome gold mounted cigar holder yesterday afternoon by his class of young men at Hope chapel. The gift was in recognition of helpful work done by the Judge for his class and the Sunday-school in which he has offered as pianist. V. W. Nash, Jr., made the speech of presentation and Mr. Runyon responded gracefully.

Infant Dead.

Elizabeth Corrigan, aged about a year and a half, daughter of John and Mary Corrigan, of 924 West Third street, died last night of pneumonia. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning.

Being Vaccinated.

The number of visitors to the Board of Health office for free vaccination has been quite large. Dr. C. B. Leffburrow, the city physician, has been in charge of the work.

ELOPED WITH WIFE OF HOTEL PROPRIETOR?

Mrs. J. B. Medhurst and Alfred Stocker, Manager of Central Hostelry Disappear.

LEFT FANWOOD FRIDAY

HUSBAND WILL NOT PURSUE THE ERRING WOMAN.

Marital Bliss of Ten Years Interrupted—Man in Husband's Employe—Last Seen When Boarding Train for New York.

After her husband had lavished gifts upon her and spent about $50,000 during the past few years to gratify her merest whims, Mrs. J. B. Medhurst, wife of a prominent New York electrical engineer, who is also proprietor of the Central Hotel at Fanwood, left him Friday morning. Alfred Stocker, employed by her husband as manager of the hotel and occasionally as bartender is also missing.

Stocker has been unremitting in his attentions to Mrs. Medhurst it is said, while he has managed the Central Hotel which Mr. Medhurst purchased about eighteen months ago.

Nothing like the alleged denouement was anticipated, however, as Mr. and Mrs. Medhurst had lived peacefully together during their ten years of married life. Mr. Medhurst went to Fanwood three years ago from New York, first buying The Maples, a hotel which he intended to run as a side issue to his New York business, which brings him in a handsome income. He purchased The Maples from George Thatcher, the well-known minstrel, selling it to James Loughlin to become proprietor of the Central Hotel, on Park avenue, which he bought of E. L. Hand.

Stocker and Mrs. Medhurst left the hotel Friday morning, taking with them two trunks and a sewing machine. They had their goods taken by express to Westfield where they embarked on a train for New York, it is said. That is the last known of them. They left the hostler in charge of the hotel. Mr. Medhurst did not discover his loss until he returned at his usual time from his business in New York.

Mr. Medhurst was seen Saturday night and stated that he did not intend pursuing his wife. He said that if Mrs. Medhurst preferred another to a faithful husband and the comforts and luxuries of home life she was welcome. He has with him his little four-year-old daughter.

Nothing is known of Stocker beyond the fact that he came to Fanwood from Jersey City. He is an expert mixer of drinks.

EQUAL BEFORE GOD.

Minister Says That All Men Are Created Alike When Placed on Moral Platform.

Rev. John McMurray, of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, preached a sermon on different phases of immortality in Trinity Reformed church yesterday morning. The dictum that all men are created equal, he said, holds when you place them on a moral platform for judgment in the sight of God. There is no special standard of divine judgment for special classes. In the evening Mr. McMurray occupied his own pulpit and spoke on "Christian Warfare. He said that people should take conditions as they are and labor to improve them instead of finding fault.

CARROM TOURNAMENT.

Contest at Y. M. C. A. in Which the Junior Members Are Participating.

The carrom tournament of the members of the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A. has progressed as far as the semi-finals and Chester Denton, Howard Freeman and Kenneth Stern are still in the game for final honors. The results of the matches to date are: R. Mcrris defeated T. S. Sperry, 29 to 0; H. Freeman defeated R. Gomez, 21 to 0; Chester Denton defeated Morris, 21 to 0; Kenneth Stern defeated Norman Loughlin, 27 to 15. Stern and Freeman will contest in the semi-final round and the winner will meet Denton.

Death of J. T. Green's Sister.

Miss Barbara Green, sister of John T. Green, of Somerset street, North Plainfield, died January 9 at her home in King's Lynn, Norfolk county, England. Miss Green lived in this city and New York for many years.

Captain and Mrs. Treat, of Truell Court, will soon go South for the benefit of their health.

AN ALLEGED JOINT PULLED FRUIT STORE SAID TO BE A GAMBLING PLACE RAIDED IN BOROUGH.

An alleged gambling place was raided Saturday night by Chief Marshal William B. Campbell and Marshal Weiss. The proprietor, George Alexander and six boys were arrested and taken to the lockup. All the boys are less than fifteen years of age.

The alleged "speak-easy" is a store situated on the Somerset street bridge. It is a small place in front of which is a fruit stand. In the rear is a partition behind which are a number of low tables.

Chief Campbell has received a number of complaints recently from people residing in that locality and he has received orders to stamp these places out. A list of such places has been supplied him. The prisoners will be given a hearing in the borough lockup tonight.

BUSINESS MEN WON GAME

PASSAIC TEAM DEFEATED AT BASKET BALL ON Y. M. C. A. FLOOR.

The Business Men's team of the Y. M. C. A. did good work Saturday by defeating the Passaic Y. M. C. A. at Passaic, by a score of 29 to 26. The game was close, hard-fought, and well played and at times the going was rough. Scull did most of the scoring for Plainfield, with six baskets to his credit. The summary:

Business Men—Hand and Whitford, forwards; Scull, centre; Utzinger and Neal, guards. Passaic—Dunn and Renig, forwards; Horton, centre; Brown and Freeman, guards.

Score—Business Men, 29; Passaic, 26. Goals from the floor—Scull, 6; Whitford, 3; Hand, 2; Neal, 3; Renig, 3; Horton, Brown, Freeman, 3. Referee—Spicer. Umpire—Thomas.

J. ACKERMAN COLES' GIFT

TWO PIECES OF STATUARY PLACED IN POSITION IN NEWARK LIBRARY.

The copies of the two pieces of statuary, Caesar Augustus and the Apollo Belvedere, given to the people of Newark by J. Ackerman Coles, M. D., LL. D., in memory of his father, the late Abraham Coles, M. D., LL. D., and accepted by the art committee of the Newark Free Public Library, have been placed in position on pedestals just inside the main entrance of that institution. The "Caesar Augustus" occupies a position at the south end of the vestibule, while the "Apollo Belvedere" keeps watch and ward at the opposite end.

NEW MAIL MESSENGER.

Uncle Sam Strikes a Bargain With a New Market Man.

The contract for carrying the U. S. mail between the postoffice and the North Avenue Station, has been awarded to Israel Stites, of New Market, his bid being $445 a year. This bid is about $135 less than the mail was ever carried for for one year between the points named. Mr. Stites has entered upon his duties.

Firemen's Denial.

It was denied by the firemen in North Plainfield this morning that the members of Warren and West End Hose Company were about to present to the Common Council a petition asking that body to continue the volunteer system. The men say they have nothing to ask and they have not been circulating the petition which is going the rounds among citizens of the borough.

Evangelistic Services End.

The evangelistic services, which were held in Warren chapel last week, came to a close last night. Large attendances have been the rule and the services have done much good. The chapel was filled last night, every seat being taken. Lawrence Greenwood, who has been conducting the services, will open a new series in Massachussetts tonight.

Attachment Discontinued.

The attachment cases of McKenna and Gavin against William H. Townsend have been amicably settled. The plaintiffs were represented by Reed & Coddington and the defendant by William R. Wilson, of Elizabeth. The case was to have been tried in Justice Hand's court.

KIELY RECOVERS MORE STOLEN HORSES

Charles Brown's Booty Discovered in and About Bristol, Pa.

RESULT OF CONFESSION

HORSES AND RIGS BROUGHT TO THIS CITY YESTERDAY.

The Most Accomplished Horse Thief Captured in Jersey in Many Years Locked Up in Police Headquarters—What Brown Has to Say.

Every day that passes seems to bring new proof of the talents of Charles Brown, probably the most accomplished horse thief that ever operated in New Jersey. There is hardly a county in Northern Jersey that has not one or more crimes charged up against him. Four more horses and rigs were discovered by Chief Kiely Saturday in Bristol, Pa., as the result of confessions made by Brown. This brings the total to six horses recovered and the Chief said last night that he has a line on several more.

Chief Kiely was greatly assisted in the discovery of the four horses in Pennsylvania by Chief of Police Charles Saxton, of Bristol, and Howard N. Douglass, a Bristol liveryman. Mr. Douglass aided Chief Kiely in shipping the stolen property back to this city and returned here with him.

Of the four horses, one which belonged to D. P. Carpenter, of Woodbridge, was located in Newportville, four miles from Bristol; another the property of Henry Keenan, of Elizabeth, was found in Thomas Moffett's livery stable seven miles out in the county from Bristol; another was brought to light in the stables of Edward Minster, a wholesale butcher, doing business also several miles in the country from Bristol; and the fourth was recovered in Irwin's livery stable in Bristol itself. The last two horses were owned by one David Cody and the other by the Lawrence livery stables, both of Newark. In each case the harness, blankets, and other equipment were recovered as well as the horse and carriage. All were stolen from liverymen.

In addition to the recovery as already described of Dr. Pocock's horse and carriage in Perth Amboy, the local police have information which they expect will lead to the finding of the rig belonging to Niel Apgar, the Somerville liveryman.

Jacob Rabinowitz, the Perth Amboy saloon keeper, who received the horses and rigs of Dr. Pocock and others from Brown and disposed of them, was tried Saturday in New Brunswick for keeping a disorderly house. His defense as presented by his lawyers, C. T. Cowenhoven and George Plechner, attempted to show that political influence was the cause of complaint against him. The case was continued to this morning.

Brown received a visit Saturday from his wife who lives in Bucks Co., Pa. He has four sons and does not know where any one of them is. He has not the appearance of a desperate horse-thief. His air is one of mildness. He has a pale complexion, with sunken cheeks, reddish brown hair and moustache. He is dressed something after the manner of a laborer. He is forty-two years old.

Brown says that he is going to do not more horse stealing. He would have given it up long ago, he claims, but for the fascination of it. It was such an easy way of making money, to ride off with a livery man's property and forget to return it. All of the horses which were found Saturday in and near Bristol were driven to their destination by Brown from the places where they were stolen.

The accused man operated at headquarters in Newportville under the name of T. Young, and it is said he had a dozen different aliases in other parts of the country.

He appeared with his wife in Newportville last October and rented the house adjoining that of James Everett, clerk of the Orphans' Court of Bucks County. He was suave, well-dressed and made friends easily. He said he was a horse dealer, and would show the people of old Bucks some bargains that would open their eyes.

Banquet at The Kensington.

Those in charge of the banquet to be given Thursday night, under the auspices of the Board of Trade, have arranged with J. A. Staats to have the feast at the Hotel Kensington, where ample room and much better service is possible. The change in the plans, which is generally approved, was made Saturday afternoon.

STILL AFTER HOSE CARRIAGE

CHIEF HALE, OF KANSAS CITY, PAYS ANOTHER VISIT TO GET AMITY RELIC.

Former Chief George Hale, of the Kansas City Fire Department, has been in this city for several days endeavoring to borrow the old volunteer department relic known as the Amity silver hose carriage. Chief Hale represents the St. Louis Exposition managers in the East and is seeking curiosities in the shape of old fire fighting apparatus to exhibit at the big fair. He was accompanied by Captain Osgood, of the New York department.

Chief Doane favors consenting to the loan because he says it will serve as an advertisement to the city. It is probable that a number of other relics from this city will be sent to the Exposition if the consent of the Exempt Firemen's Association can be secured.

Before he left this city former Chief Hale, who was in charge of the American firemen's exhibit at the International Show in London some time ago warmly congratulated Chief Doane on the appearance of the local fire headquarters. He said he has been in many fire departments and for the neatness and fine condition of horses and apparatus and fine department of men, Plainfield need be well proud of her department.

CONSECRATION ANNIVERSARY

CONVOCATION OF N. B. TO CELEBRATE BP. SCARBOROUGH'S ELEVATION.

The convocation of New Brunswick will meet in Grace church, Elizabeth, Tuesday, February 2, the festival of the purification of the Virgin Mary. The date is the twenty-ninth anniversary of the consecration of the Rt. Rev. John Scarborough, D. D., Bishop of New Jersey. The new chantry, Edward Clark Memorial, will be consecrated by the Bishop at 10 o'clock in the morning. Holy Communion at 11. The preacher will be Rev. William Montgomery Downey, rector of the Church of the Holy Cross. The clergy and delegates will be entertained at 1 o'clock in the afternoon by members of the parish.

At the business meeting called for 2:30 in the afternoon, there will be an essay by Rev. Hamilton Schuyler, rector of Trinity church, Trenton, on "What good a church club can be expected to accomplish in the diocese." Missionary meeting at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

CHARLES JAEGER SURPRISED

FRIENDS GATHERED IN HIS HONOR AND A MERRY TIME WAS SPENT.

A double surprise was the result of a party arranged by about twenty friends for Charles Jaeger, of West Third street, Saturday night. From the home of W. G. Gray, of West Third street, the conspirators went to Mr. Jaeger's home but were themselves surprised to find him out. Inquiry discovered him at Potter's Press Works where he was employed on a rush order. The members of the party immediately besieged Potter's and forced an adjournment to Mr. Jaegers' home, where dancing, music and recitations passed the time. A piano and violin duet by the Misses Mamie and Agnes McInnis was well rendered. Mr. Jaeger received a handsome gift which was presented by James McInnis. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jaeger, Mr. and Mrs. William Gray, Mr. and Mrs. John Eberley, Mr. and Mrs. James McInnis, Alfred Montjoy, John Gray, the Misses Agnes and Mamie McInnis, of this city, and David Gray, of Easton; James Gray, of Phillipsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Gray, of Phillipsburg.

BACHELOR DANCE.

Second in a Series Given at the Park Club.

The second of series of bachelor dances was given Saturday night at the Park Club by H. Reeve Stockton and Harry McGee. Like the first affair, there was a large attendance of society folk from both the city and the borough, and the programme of dances was considered one of the best of the season. An out-of-town orchestra furnished music. Shortly before midninht light refreshments were served. The last dance will be given early in the spring.

Rasores Meeting.

The Rasores Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Leander Lovell, in Watchung avenue, tomorrow morning. The subject for discussion will be "Hawthorne."

P. S. C. ANXIOUS FOR IMPROVEMENT

President McCarter Admits That There is Just Cause for Public's Protests.

SYSTEM IN BAD SHAPE

LACK OF CARS THE CAUSE OF MUCH OF THE TROUBLE.

Corporation Disposed to Comply With All Reasonable Demands—The Severity of Winter Has Hurt the Company.

Thomas N. McCarter, president of the Public Service Corporation, admits that there is just cause for the hostility recently displayed throughout Northern New Jersey toward the trolley company because of inadequate transportation facilities. He also admits that the deterioration of the car equipment and the lack of sufficient cars is common to the whole system. But he strenuously protests that since the formation of the corporation, nine months ago, he has not been able to obtain from the manufacturers the 150 new cars that were ordered for Jersey City, Hoboken and Bayonne, and he has not had sufficient time in which to build power houses in these cities.

"The Public Service Corporation has every disposition to comply with all reasonable demands of the public and regulations of municipal bodies," said Mr. McCarter yesterday. "It cannot, however, thoroughly reorganize and largely re-equip an extensive railway system in a few months. Unreasonable and vexatious ordinances and impositions can only result in additional delay in the efforts of the company to improve its system, and will, of course, be contested if enacted. The severity of the present winter has added considerably to the strain upon the facilities of the company. Besides, harsh and intemperate criticism tends to demoralize discipline and weaken the efficienty of the company.

"We are going to do everything that is possible, and hope there will be less cause for complaint in our trolley department. How much there has been to do and in what a prostrate condition we found the lines could hardly be told. It was far worse than anybody has known."

BODY FOUND BY BLOODHOUNDS

JOHN KISSTER, OF STIRLING, WAS KILLED BY RAILROAD TRAIN.

Bloodhounds were used near Stirling Friday night to find the remains of John Kisster, who was struck by the Bankers' express of the Lackawana Railroad and decapitated at a lonely spot about 100 yards west of the Stirling station. A man's hat caught on the pilot of the engine as it rolled into Bernardsville, attracted the attention of a passenger and a search resulted all the way along the track from Bernardsville to Stirling without any success.

A butcher, who had a pair of hounds, was appealed to and they were put upon the trail. The ghastly find was made in a lonely pool which was frozen over. The body was headless and the search was resumed along the track. Two hundred yards further on the head, crushed to an unrecognizable mass, was discovered.

Kisster was well known in this city where he had been employed on several occasions. He is survived by a wife and four children. The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock from his residence at Stirling. The interment was in the same place.

Tickets for Ball.

In order that any person who has not as yet had an opportunity to procure tickets for the charity ball to be given at the Casino on January 28, may obtain the same. Notice is hereby given that tickets are for sale at Armstrong's pharmacy or can be secured from H. V. Borden, Dr. F. C. Ard, W. C. Kinney or L. G. Timpson. George P. Mellick, Chairman Finance Committee.

They Cut Ice.

Smalley Brothers, the North avenue butchers, have begun cutting ice on the pond, near Brook avenue, for use in their refrigerators. They are storing it in one of Charles Hand's barns.

"Big Tim" Invited.

Timothy Sullivan, of New York, has been invited by the local Democrats to attend the ball and entertainment to be given in the Casino here on February 15.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

John H. McCullough, of West Front street, will do your electric wiring for you at the lowest rates and with the best results.

You never hear anything but praise of the meats sold by J. W. VanSickle, of North avenue. It's because they're never anything but the best.

A. Kane, of Fillmore avenue, will give you the best bargains in lumber whether you want to buy or sell. He has special bargains that will repay your investigation.

There's a big difference in drug stores and the difference is all in favor of C. M. Nagle's, West Front street. Nagle's preparations for the bath are unequalled.

If you contemplate building in the spring consult Titus H. Laury, the contractor, and he will not only give you a reasonable estimate, but his work will please you in every particular.

Carl Silbert, the Somerset street jeweler, carries one of the most complete lines of jewelry and silverware in the city. He also has a large assortment of diamonds and the best make watches.

S. Hirsch, the New York ladies' tailor and furrier, of Watchung avenue, is sure that he can please you with his work. He is an expert in the matter of cutting and fitting garments and satisfaction is guaranteed.

Harry K. Lister, of North avenue, has had long experience in the bicycle business and in the matter of selecting a wheel he will sell you only what is right. His prices for wheels and supplies can be relied upon as reasonable.

The Lindsay dairy, Mountain avenue, sells nothing but the best milk. Why not buy your milk at a place where you can rely upon getting it fresh every day and prepared for you with absolute cleanliness and absolutely without adulteration. The Lindsay dairy is the place.

The trial and troubles of deciding the question as to what one should have to eat is solved when you go to R. W. Barnes, of Park avenue. A full line of delicacies is always kept. Choice cooked meats, all kinds of cheeses, pickels and a full line of canned goods can be found at any time.

There is now an excellent opportunity offered at the Paris Cloak Store to secure furs and cloaks at reduced prices. These goods are all of first-class make, best quality and before Mr. Fass moves to his new store he will dispose of them at very low prices. He also has a large stock of women's suits and waists, plain and fancy.

SNAP SHOTS.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

Here are some sentences that will amuse you. Give them to your friends and have them say each of them over as rapidly as possible:

Six thick thistle sticks.

Fleas of freshly fried flying fish.

Two toads totally tired tried to trot to Tedbury.

The sea cooseth, but it sufficeth us.

Give Grimes Jim's great gilt gig-whip.

Strict strong Stephen Stringer snared slickly six sickly silken snakes.

She stood at the door of Mr. Smith's fishsauce shop welcoming him in.

Swan swam over the sea; swim, swan, swim! Swan swam back again. Well swum swan!

time in view of the disturbed condition of the country to which they are to be sent and the growing American trade there. They are also the first American representatives at their respective posts.

Mukden is the largest city in Manchuria and is the capital of the province of Laotong. It is a walled city and the ancient seat of the present Mantchoo dynasty of the empire.

Dalny is the new Russian port in Manchuria, and Antung is a seaport town of the same province.

Convicts' Efforts to Escape.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., Jan. 25.—Warden Abraham Gotwals and Night Watchman Samuel Beckwith of the Montgomery county jail were murderously assaulted last night by two prisoners who made a desperate attempt to escape, but failed. Beckwith was so badly battered that he had to be taken to the Charity hospital. He received eight or ten severe scalp wounds. At first it was thought that his skull was fractured. The warden has half a dozen wounds on the head, none of them being serious. The prisoners who made the assault are Fred Bond and George Cornwallis, both said to be from New York. They were awaiting trial at the March term of court on the charge of larceny.

Fireman Saved a Teacher.

WORCESTER, Mass., Jan. 25.—A special from Orange says: "The house of C. L. Pierce, principal of the Orange high school, has been damaged by fire. Miss Christina Lewis, a teacher, who boarded there, was carried from her bedroom by G. E. Dike, a fireman. She had just awakened and was partly overcome by smoke. Dike wrapped a quilt about her and carried her out. Principal Pierce was away from home, being called to Maine to attend the funeral of his father. The property damage was about $2,000."

Town Destroyed by Fire.

TRONDJEM, Norway, Jan. 25.—The town of Aalesund has been practically destroyed by fire, but so far as ascertainable there was no loss of life. The flames started at 2:30 a. m. and owing to a high wind spread with alarming rapidity, quickly enveloping the church, schoolhouse, shops and three-quarters of the town. The latest news received says the remaining buildings are on fire. The telegraph office has been destroyed, and communication with Aalesund is interrupted.

Slayer Got Twenty-eight Years.

SEDALIA, Mo., Jan. 25.—Frank G. Dunton, who killed Emil Myer in this city two months ago for the betrayal and desertion of Dunton's daughter Daisy, has been convicted of murder, the verdict fixing his punishment at twenty-eight years in the penitentiary. The evidence showed that Myer was shot in the back, and on this ground the verdict was given.

FLOOD REACHES EBB

Pittsburg and Allegheny Still Partly Submerged.

HIGH WATER IS NOW SUBSIDING

Riots Caused by Want of Fuel In Flooded Districts—Desolation In All Parts of Two Cities Where Water Has Receded.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 25.—The flood has in a great measure passed this point, but portions of the two cities are still submerged and will not be freed from the water for some time to come.

The Monongahela gauge at 8 o'clock registered twenty-three feet and falling at the rate of about six-tenths of a foot per hour.

The biting cold weather that has prevailed all day augmented the distress which exists in the flooded sections.

In Allegheny the gas supply was erratic, and the distribution of coal by the city authorities in the poorer neighborhoods brought about a riotous condition. When the fuel was dumped in the streets men, women and children fought for its possession, requiring a strong guard of police to restore order.

Desolation exists in all parts of the two cities from which the waters receded. Wreckage and huge cakes of ice strew the streets. A thick settlement of slimy mud mingled with ice makes many districts unfit to walk through. Huge timbers, portions of doors, stairways, barrels, boxes, cans and other debris washed upon the streets by the flood have rested where the water left them.

Street car service has been resumed between Pittsburg and Allegheny, but is operating under difficulties in some of the lower lying portions of the roads.

The big coal companies have been busy all day preparing their fleets for coal shipments to the south. There are thirty towboats in the harbor ready to start, and it is estimated that fully 10,000,000 bushels of coal will have started by noon.

Much excitement was caused by a fire which completely destroyed the packet Elizabeth, the towboat Olivette and two house boats. These craft were moored in the Allegheny for safety just above the Union bridge at the Point. From some unknown cause fire started in the Olivette, and in spite of desperate efforts by the crew to control the flames they soon had complete possession of the boat and quickly spread to the Elizabeth and the two house boats. The Elizabeth was sent adrift and in passing under the Union bridge set fire to that structure. This fire, however, was soon controlled. The burning hulk of the Elizabeth continued down the Ohio until she sank.

The continued rise in the Allegheny river caused the water to force its way into more than forty-three manufacturing establishments, including mills, furnaces and factories of various descriptions, that line the banks of this stream from the Point out to the Sharpsburg bridge at Sixty-first street. On account of the condition brought about by the high water most of the works will not be in shape for resumption for a few days. Some of the plants are better located than others for high water and will not be seriously affected.

From the headwater points on both the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers the reports show them to be either stationary or falling. At Oil City the Allegheny is thirteen feet and falling six inches an hour, and at Warren the river is stationary.

At Greensboro, on the Monongahela, the mark is 15 feet 6 inches and falling. Colder weather, with snow, prevails.

A roundup of the damage done in the Pittsburg district demonstrates that owing to the timely warning given of the approaching high water the actual damage done will not reach the high figures at first given out and will probably not exceed $500,000. To this amount, however, must be added the loss to the factories and mills through forced shutdowns and to workmen through suspended wages, which will run the total close to the $1,000,000 mark.

CATAWISSA IN DARKNESS.

Ice In the Susquehanna Blocks the River For Thirty Miles.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 25.—Telephone advices received here state that an ice gorge has formed in the Susquehanna river and that from Sunbury to Creasy, a distance of thirty miles, the river is entirely blocked and that the water is backed up as far as Nescopeck.

The ice is piled up against the bridge at Catawissa, and the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad company has loaded its bridge at Rupert down with coal cars. Nearly the whole town is submerged, and on Water street the water comes up to the second story of buildings. The Pennsylvania railroad depot is surrounded by water, and several houses have been moved from their foundations, and the great majority of the farms are under water.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad tracks between Catawissa and Upper Limeridge, twenty-one miles, are under water. At Catawissa the electric light plant is under water, and the town is in darkness.

Six Blocks Destroyed.

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 25.—Fire has destroyed six blocks of frame business houses at Sour Lake and got into the Cannon tract in the oilfields, doing considerable damage. The loss is placed at $200,000.

Geneva Variety Store Burned.

GENEVA, N. Y., Jan. 25.—A fire that started in W. F. Chitry's variety store completely gutted the Wheat block at Seneca and Linden streets here, causing a loss of $75,000.

MARINES ARE ACTIVE

Korean Mob Quickly Overawed by Our Troops.

AMERICAN TROLLEY KILLED NATIVE

Crowd of Rioters in Seoul Attacked Operators of Electric Car, Who Were Rescued by Prompt Action of Our Legation Guard.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The state department has received official information of an attack by a mob of native Koreans on an electric car on the trolley line owned by Americans in the city of Seoul because of the fact that it had killed a Korean. The news came in the following cablegram received from Minister Allen at Seoul:

"On the American electric railway here a Korean was accidentally and unavoidably killed. Thereupon a mob of natives attacked and partially destroyed the car. The operators of the car would have been injured had it not been for the presence of mind and prompt action of our marine guard for the American legation. What might have been a serious riot was quickly crushed."

Although there have been previous reports of disturbances in Korea, this is the first mob attack made thus far on property of Americans. The railroad is owned and operated by Americans. H. R. Bostwick of San Francisco and H. Colbran are its principal officers. It runs through the heart of Seoul, the Korean capital.

The guard which made the rescue came from the American legation. It consists of 100 marines, who were sent there some time ago to be on hand for the protection of Americans and their property. The re-enforcement of this guard has been urged and could be made in a week's time by details from the Philippines, but nothing has been decided on this point. Conditions in Korea are recognized to be critical, and the state department is keeping in close touch with the situation.

No fresh instructions have been sent as yet as a result of the mob's attack. The Korean legation has received no advices concerning the matter.

The Korean government has notified its legation here that it has issued a formal declaration of neutrality as between Russia and Japan in the event of war, and Minister Min Hui Cho has formally advised the state department of this action.

A cablegram from St. Petersburg says that Russia disapproves of Korea's declaration of neutrality.

Advices from St. Petersburg say that while the Russian government understands the situation in Korea to be disturbed and possibly threatening it has no information of a situation grave enough to warrant the landing of a large Japanese force there. Russia freely admits Japan's right under existing conventions to land in Korea a reasonable number of soldiers to preserve order, but the landing of an army at this stage of the negotiations could not be viewed with equanimity.

M. Kurino is in no way anxious because of the delay in Russia's response to the latest Japanese note and says that Japan is not pressing for an immediate reply. "Russia will be given all the time she needs," the minister is quoted as saying.

An outcry over the reported sending of Chinese troops to Manchuria has been raised in St. Petersburg, and if it is true that these troops go with the purpose of threatening the railroad between Port Arthur and Vladivostok it might mean war with China and not with Japan.

A Chefu dispatch says that an engagement has occurred on the Manchurian railroad between Russian troops and Chinese marauders, in which three Russians were killed.

The government has placed an embargo upon all horses at Port Arthur and has forbidden the sale of provisions without the consent of the authorities. Troops are pouring into Port Arthur from the north, and the entire garrison has been employed in maneuvers. Viceroy Alexieff is suffering from angina pectoris and was unable to attend the military conference held Sunday.

Homes Flooded at Wheeling.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 25.—The crest of the flood swell has been reached here. The damage was kept down to a minimum. Nevertheless fully one-third of the homes in the city were wholly or partially inundated, and the sharp fall in temperature, with resultant formation of ice, accompanied by shutting off of natural gas in the flooded districts, has caused a great deal of suffering.

Aid Asked For Tornado Victims.

GREENSBORO, Ala., Jan. 25.—Mayor N. L. Castleman of Greensboro has issued an appeal for aid in behalf of the people of Moundville, Ala., which place had been visited by a cyclone, when many people were killed and injured. Contributions should be sent to Mayor Castleman. Many of the injured have been brought here and are being cared for by citizens.

Ice Gorge In Crooks Riffles.

DANVILLE, Pa., Jan. 25.—The twenty inches of ice on the upper Susquehanna river has broken, causing a twenty-two foot flood. The ice has gorged in Crooks Riffles, between here and Northumberland, and is backing up Mahoning creek and other tributaries, flooding the lower part of this town.

The Shah's Grand Vizier.

TEHERAN, Persia, Jan. 25.—Prince Gin ed Daouleh, son-in-law of the shah, who has hitherto filled the position of minister of the interior, has been appointed grand vizier and prime minister of Persia.

"THE IOWA IDEA."

Cummins Says He Is Not at Odds With President on Tariff.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 25.—Governor Cummins, who has returned from Washington, states that there is no difference between himself and President Roosevelt on the tariff issue. He said:

"The Republicans of Iowa are intelligent and know what they want. The convention should, and I assume it will, elect delegates who are in harmony with the views of a majority of the members of the convention and send them to Chicago to carry into effect, so far as they are able, the prevailing sentiment of the state.

"I have read the interview with Mr. Blythe, recently published, and I note that he says he cannot understand the meaning of my inaugural. If he will give a little attention to the Republican platforms of 1901 and 1902 and 1903 he will understand it better.

"I note, too, that he says my views differ from those of President Roosevelt. I say they are exactly the same, and I am quite willing that the people shall determine whether Mr. Blythe is right or I am right.

"I had a long talk with the president, but I have not a word to say upon that phase of my trip, save this: There has never been and is not now, so far as I am aware, the slightest difference of opinion between the president and myself respecting the tariff or reciprocity, and no such supposed differences were ever mentioned in any conversation I ever had with him.

"He knows the Republicans of Iowa are for him, and all that he wants is that their delegation in the national convention shall be his friends."

WAITING FOR EXHIBITS.

St. Louis Exposition Managers Ask For Immediate Shipments.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 25.—The Louisiana Purchase exposition now stands ready and is waiting for the full and general installation of exhibits. The point has been reached where the management of the exposition is no longer occupied with the rapid advancement toward completion of the buildings, but instead it now lays particular stress upon the importance of the speedy shipment of exhibits, especially those assembled by domestic exhibitors.

Officials of the exposition make the statement that the one thing of paramount importance to insure the anticipated successful and auspicious opening of the world's fair is the immediate commencement by domestic exhibitors to ship their cars forward just as rapidly as can be done.

The world's fair management has devoted more than ordinary attention to preparation for the handling of cars, and the arrangements are now completed. Adequate railroad facilities are ready, the warehouses have all been erected, and the buildings are in such a state of completion that installation of exhibits can be commenced immediately.

What the management now most ardently desires is to promptly force ahead the shipment of American exhibits from the different parts of the country.

Religious Mania Caused Murder.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., Jan. 25.—Miss Hannah Hall, thirty years old, has been murdered at her home in Van Buren, west of Dunkirk, by her brother, Isaac Hall. He is in jail at Fredonia, having given himself up after the murder. He declares that he obeyed a divine behest when he killed his sister. He used four weapons—a pistol, a jackknife, a butcher knife and an ax. Hall was religiously inclined, and there is no doubt he lost his mind, his insanity taking the form of a religious mania.

The Archduke's Love.

VIENNA, Jan. 25.—Reports are being persistently published that Archduke Ferdinand Charles, nephew of Emperor Francis Joseph and brother of the heir presumptive to the throne, Archduke Francis Ferdinand, is determined to marry Bertha Czuber, daughter of a professor of mathematics at Vienna university, with whom he has fallen madly in love, and it is even asserted that the wedding has been fixed for Feb. 1 at Dresden.

General Collier Dead.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 25.—General Daniel R. Collier, United States pension agent for the Louisville district, died suddenly of angina pectoris here. He was prominent in the Goebel-Taylor struggle, having been Governor Taylor's adjutant general, and was in command of the troops which held the statehouse at Frankfort.

IRISH BRIGADE LEADER.

Colonel Lynch Liberated on License by British Government.

LONDON, Jan. 25.—The Daily Telegraph this morning says it understands that Colonel Arthur Lynch, who commanded the Irish brigade against the British forces during the war in South Africa and who was afterward convicted of treason and sentenced to imprisonment for life, has been liberated "on license." Lynch has not received the royal pardon.

The liberation of Colonel Lynch is the outcome of an interesting series of events. When Michael Davitt was last in the United States he saw President Roosevelt, who mentioned Colonel Lynch to him, saying he had once entertained him at Albany. The president expressed great interest in the case and regretted he could not suggest clemency without laying himself open to a palpable snub. On his return to England Mr. Davitt mentioned his conversation with President Roosevelt to Sir Thomas Lipton and to Mrs. Lynch, who has suffered bitterly since her husband's arrest.

Mrs. Lynch made a pathetic appeal to Sir Thomas, who then personally interceded with King Edward in behalf of his condemned fellow countryman. Without any hesitation his majesty promptly informed the home secretary of his wishes in the matter, and the prisoner was released.

Colonel Lynch, who completed a year in prison last Saturday, was the only political offender in prison in Ireland. Patrick A. McHugh, ex-member of the house of commons, who recently shared this distinction with Colonel Lynch, was only released from jail through the mediation of Sir Thomas Lipton with King Edward.

Colonel Lynch will enjoy personal liberty and may even leave the country should he care to do so; but, not having received the royal pardon, he is disqualified from sitting in parliament or from holding any public office.

When Mrs. Lynch called on Sir Thomas to thank him for what he had done she was so overcome that she was unable to find words to express her gratitude, and impulsively taking hold of his hand she kissed it.

Big Steamer Has Narrow Escape.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—An alleged attempt to destroy the steamship Kurdistan, lying at Jersey City, was reported to the Jersey City police by officials of the steamship company, who discovered a quantity of powder, a fuse and a giant firecracker beneath some paper in a hatchway and near a number of oil casks with which the ship was being loaded. Upon investigation, however, the police believe that the presence of the explosives was due probably to carelessness, the ship having just unloaded a cargo of giant firecrackers from China. It is thought that the powder and fuse dropped from one of the firecrackers and, with the complete firecracker, were swept into the hatchway.

On a Long Pilgrimage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—Mirza Ali Asgar Khan, prime minister of Persia, who has arrived here from the orient en route to Mecca, left on the Overland limited for Chicago. On account of his anxiety to reach his destination the Persian minister lost as little time as possible. He said he would be unable to accept any attention from the authorities at Washington. He will spend a day in Chicago and a day at Niagara Falls and will sail from New York on Saturday of next week.

Noted Steamboat Man Dead.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Jan. 25.—Captain I. H. Wood, agent for all the river steamboat lines at this place since 1856, has died, aged eighty-one years. He was known to thousands of tourists as the man who stood on the wharf and called "Up boat!" and "Down boat!" He wore a diamond medal presented to him by fellow citizens for saving lives from the river, and each of his four sons has a similar medal. He was once chief of the Poughkeepsie fire department.

Tug Sunk by Ice Floes.

LORAIN, O., Jan. 25.—In an effort to save some of the craft swept out into the lake by Friday's flood the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company's tug Cascade was sunk about a thousand feet off this port after a severe battle with a heavy wind and snow storm and great ice floes. The thirteen men of the crew were rescued from an ice pack, where they had jumped when the tug began to go down.

Fought Their Way Through Rebels.

SWAKOPMUND, German Southwest Africa, Jan. 25.—Lieutenant Zuelow's force of 120 men, which, as announced Jan. 16, appeared to be in a dangerous position near Waldau, has fought its way through the rebels besieging Okahandja and has joined the garrison, which occupies a strong position. About twenty-five miles of the railroad are reported to have been destroyed.

Munroe and Sharkey to Meet.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Jack Munroe and Tom Sharkey have decided to accept the offer of the National Athletic club at Philadelphia and will box there before that organization next month. The bout will be for six rounds and is to take place between Feb. 10 and 24, the date to be selected next week.

Fire In Berlin Theater.

BERLIN, Jan. 25.—A moving picture machine set the ceiling of the passage of a theater here on fire. The audience became frightened, but left the building without becoming panic stricken. The flames were extinguished after they had done slight damage.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; fresh west winds.

MOTHER NOT GUILTY

Mrs. Bechtel Acquitted of Accessory Charge.

CHILDREN WILL BE TRIED IN APRIL

Attorney Schaadt In an Eloquent Defense Plea Charged the Lover, Eckstein, With Guilty Knowledge of the Crime.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 25.—Mrs. Catharine Bechtel, the aged mother of Mabel Bechtel, the young factory girl who was found murdered in the alleyway of her home, has been acquitted of the charge of being an accessory to the murder after the fact. Her trial occupied nine days, and the jury deliberated one hour before rendering the verdict of not guilty. The gray haired defendant received the news of her acquittal with tears and expressions of joy. She was immediately released from custody and went to her home, accompanied by her sons and daughters.

Martha, her youngest daughter, and her sons, John and Charles, are under indictment on a similar charge, but their trials have been postponed until the April term of court. Former Mayor Schaadt, counsel for Mrs. Bechtel, says he has instituted an investigation by which he hopes to clear up the mystery surrounding the murder of the young woman.

Attorney Schaadt made an eloquent plea for the acquittal of the accused woman, and during his address he directly charged Alois Eckstein with having a guilty knowledge of the crime. District Attorney Lechtenwalner in his address explained that the theory of the commonwealth was that Tom Bechtel had killed his sister during a quarrel and asserted that the evidence adduced proved the claim. Judge Trexler's charge consumed half an hour. It was impartial. When the jury returned its verdict of acquittal the spectators attempted to applaud, but were checked by Judge Trexler.

Alois Eckstein and David Weisenberg, who were rivals for the affection of Mabel Bechtel, were both tried before the mother for the girl's murder and were acquitted.

Crank Threatened Pastor.

TAUNTON, Mass., Jan. 25.—Terrence Hylen, a metal polisher, aged thirty years, has been taken into custody by the police and will be arraigned in the district court this morning, when an inquiry into his sanity will be instituted. Hylen has been sought since Dec. 4, when a warrant was issued charging him with having threatened the life of the Rev. James Coyle, pastor of St. Mary's church. Hylen had repeatedly accused the clergyman of having placed a curse upon him.

Water Famine In Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 25.—The simultaneous breaking of two of the thirty inch mains which feed the reservoir and supply water to the network of pipes throughout Harrisburg has caused the worst water famine ever known in this city. Houses, hotels, railroads, mills and factories have been cut off from water. This state of affairs is one of the most serious known in years and is made worse by the flood in Paxton creek, which retards the work of repair.

Trap Shooting Tourney.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Arrangements have been completed for the holding of America's biggest trap shooting tournament, the Grand American handicap at clay birds, at Indianapolis during the week commencing June 6. One thousand dollars will be added to prizes, and the winner of the main event will receive a trophy valued at $500, emblematic of the Grand American handicap victory.

British Advance to Be Opposed.

CHUMBI, British India, Jan. 25.—Colonel Younghusband, the commander of the British expedition to Tibet, has had a friendly interview with a general from Lassa and a number of lamas who came out to meet the British mission. The general offered favorable terms for Colonel Younghusband to retire and on his refusal indicated that the British advance would be opposed.

Safe Blowers Got a $1,500 Haul.

DUBOIS, Pa., Jan. 25.—The large store of R. B. Dick at Walston, a mining town near here, and the Delaney postoffice, in the same building, have been robbed of goods and stamps to the amount of $1,500. The burglars dynamited the postoffice safe, secured $500 worth of stamps and carried away from the store jewelry and merchandise valued at $1,000.

Syracuse Will Give $10,000.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Jan. 25.—Citizens of Syracuse will guarantee a $10,000 early closing stake for trotting horses, to be made the feature of the grand circuit meeting here, if the New York state fair commission at its meeting in Albany tomorrow decides to hold the fair two weeks so as to accept the racing dates offered the local track by the stewards of the big ring.

Mrs. Joe Choynski Robbed.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Joe Choynski has arrived, accompanied by his wife. Soon after leaving the Illinois Central station a man grabbed Mrs. Choynski's satchel, containing $150, which the pugilist was carrying, and ran away. Choynski reported the robbery to the police.

San Antonio's Big Blaze.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 25.—L. Wolfson's retail dry goods store, on Main plaza, caught fire shortly after midnight and is a total loss. The store did a large business with all of west Texas. The loss is $400,000.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 25, 1904.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printers' Ink.

The capture of the horse thief, Charles Brown, by Patrolman Vanderweg and the good work of Chief Kiely in wresting a full confession from the prisoner is highly creditable to the police department.

A thorough inspection of the convention hall should be made by the St. Louis authorities and provisions should be made for extra exits. Bryan threatens to make it hot, and no doubt the Cleveland Democrats will want to take sudden flight when the fire works commence.

This delirium is from the Elizabeth Evening Times:

"The brewing element has come to take rank among the most successful and effective interests that combine for local advancement. That is to say, that the business acumen, personal energy, character and ambitious citizenship of those who embark in the vast manufactures conducted under the classification of 'Brewing' contribute in no small degree to the progressive spirit of the community, as employers of high class labor, occupying valuable and numerous properties with diversified local interests, coupled with generous business instincts and methods, the local brewery has grown into public regard as a valuable acquisition to the municipality."

A newspaper which prints such rot as this ought to shut up shop in the interests of "local advancement."

From an economical standpoint big space is the cheapest. It insures attention, inspires confidence—does business. The subject of good copy is not to be overlooked. Poor copy in big space is sure failure, while good copy, a good proposition, big space in the right medium is almost a dead sure winner. There is a reason, a philosophy for this. Advertising is one of the important cog-wheels in the business machine, but all the other wheels must be in place, ready to move when the power is turned on. If not, the advertising wheels will turn all by itself and produce—expense. Have good seed, sow it liberally in good soil and be sure to have the facilities to harvest the crop—properly handle the inquiries and fill the orders.—Printers' Ink.

THE FORUM.

Communications from readers of The Daily Press on all subjects of local interest are invited. All such communications must be stripped of personalities, and must be signed by the writer. His name will not necessarily be published. The editor is not responsible for views expressed in this column.

Editor, The Daily Press:—

Your article of last week mentioning the fact that a trolley car was operated on Friday night in a dense fog without a headlight, should be explained. In justice to the motorman it may be said that the effect of the electric headlight on the fog is to render it absolutely opaque. In conversation with a motorman he has told me it is a choice between a headlight that others may see and get out of the way of the car, or no headlight and the motorman being able to see as best he can in foggy weather. I understand that out of town the headlight is put out, the use of the light being described as very trying to the eyes of the motorman with the strong light dancing in front of him. The illumination of the fog causes a blur of light through which one cannot see ten feet, but without the light he can pick up an object quite a ways off, according to the thickness of the fog.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

The Somerville Union of Christian Endeavor of the Northern Division will hold its convention at Stirling, Feb. 8.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church a social will be held in the chapel, Thursday night.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church will hold its consecration meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the lecture room of the church.

Rev. William Vincent Dawson preached at St. Stephen's church, yesterday, for the last time. This week he will leave for Elk Rapids, Mich., to enter the duties of his new charge.

"The Benediction and the Truth Which it Expresses," will be the subject of the mid-week service for prayer and conference at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church on Wednesday night.

The Men's Club of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church will meet tomorrow night and the Boys' Club Thursday. The Ladies' Aid Society of the church will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 in the church.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church will hold a special meeting, Friday night, when the question of changing the time of meeting from Sunday night to a week-day night will be decided.

Rev. Dr. William R. Richards, formerly pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, is detained at his home in New York, the result of being run into and thrown down by a cab horse in the city last week. His injuries, while not serious, will detain him for several days.

Bishop John Joseph O'Connor, of Newark, has arrived in Rome to pay his respects to the Pope, upon the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the definition by Pious IX, of the dogma of the Immanculate Conception. He will also present the Peter's pence to the Pontiff, of whom he has asked an audience.

Beginning on Wednesday afternoon of this week at 4 o'clock and continuing every Wednesday afternoon until the first week in March, the Rev. J. S. Zelie, minister of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, will conduct a class for young people who are considering the matter of uniting with the church. Similar classes will be held in the chapels by the pastors and some of the teachers.

Although having been in Plainfield but a few months, Rev. L. T. Lindholm, pastor of the Swedish Pilgrim church, has just received his second call to another field. This time the call comes from the Swedish Congregational church, of St. Joseph, Mo., but Mr. Lindholm has declined, believing that his work in Plainfield is not yet completed. There is a mortgage on the Plainfield church and the pastor is desirous of raising it before he considers any call.

There is an unusual interest being manifested in the services at the First Baptist church and the work of Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, the pastor, is already bearing much fruit. Both services yesterday were attended by very large congregations, especially the one last night, when the pastor spoke along the line of decision. At the Sunday-school session in the afternoon the pastor also spoke and eight young persons signified their desire to unite with the church after baptism. Thus far nearly fifteen persons are about to join the church. They will probably be baptized before the next communion service to be held in February. The results are very encouraging to Dr. Chambliss, who has been pastor of the church but two months and a half.

UP AND DOWN THE STATE

All of the potteries in the United States, except three small establishments in remote sections of the country, have been combined under an iron-clad agreement and bond, which controls the manufacture and sale of pottery products throughout America.

Pictures of Physicians.

F. C. Langborne, of this city, is making photographs of the physicians for the new engraving, "Physicians and Surgeons, Union County, New Jersey. 1853-1904." to be made by the Imperial Art Company of New York. The work is designed to contain about eighty portraits, including the members of the county society, and is said to be one of the finest works that the company has ever produced. The size of the engraving will be 20x44 inches, and will be historical as well as professional, and the cities, universities and years of graduation will be engraved at the bottom after each name.

LEGISLATURE MEETS TONIGHT

BILL TO BE INTRODUCED TO ABOLISH SIGNS ALONG RAILROADS.

It is not unlikely that tonight's session of the Legislature will be productive of more beneficial results than was that of last Monday night when a big batch of bills was introduced, referred to the proper committees and adjournment was taken.

The bill to continue in office the members of the State board of taxation and to validate the transactions of the board since December 20 when the revised tax law went into effect, which was passed by the Senate under suspension of the rules, will probably be passed by the House tonight. It was scheduled to pass in the House last Tuesday morning but the failure to have it ready necessitated the postponement of action upon it.

Governor Murphy, in a recent interview, said that in spite of the fact that many persons considered his scheme for the abolishment of the advertising lane through New Jersey along the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad as an impracticable one, he had had conferences with some of the best lawyers of the State, and had been advised that this marring of the scenery of the State could be done away with and he has requested Attorney General McCarter to prepare for presentation to the Legislature this evening a bill that would bring about the desired result.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

Fight for the Presidency.

Congressman Howell is quoted in an interview in the Newark News as saying that in his opinion the Republican party is on the threshold of one of the most bitter political fights ever experienced in the history of the American nation. With a conservative Democratic candidate for the Presidency, Mr. Howell said he believed that the fight would be a hard one, and that the morning after election would find the result very, very close. This, he said, also holds true with regard to the State. Coming from such a source, the opinion is significant that the leaders of the Republican party are very much more alarmed about the chances of success than most of them are willing to admit.—Bound Brook State-Centre.

A Flimsy Excuse.

The crusade against the robin, or the remains of the robin, which we owe to the depression in the sparrows' belligerency, seems to have its foundation in the fact that when there were plenty of robins the cherry crop was apt to be diminished. This will seem to most people a very flimsy excuse for the destruction of the most beautiful and charming of American birds. To those who live in cities, and who greet the coming of the robins with pleasure, this animosity is not understood or appreciated. If man is to kill off all animal life that at all trenches upon our food supply, we will not be able to stop anywhere, short of horses and cows. The true benefactor of the race will encourge the coming of the robin.—From the Trenton True American.

Condition of Small-Pox Victim.

Alexander Stills, the small-pox patient at the isolation hospital, is now passing the height of the disease. Considering that he is very ill, his condition is considered favorable. As yet Mrs. Stills has shown no symptoms of the disease and it is possible that she may not have it.

TWO ODD COMPANIONS.

Man and Bear on a Log Have a Three Hours' Session on Necanicum River.

The Portland Oregonian says that Conductor Dave Houston, of the Southern Pacific railroad, who is taking a ten-days' vacation at Seaside, had a thrilling experience with a big bear which he will not soon forget. He only told a few of the incidents, as he desired to keep it quiet, but the story leaked out. Conductor Houston is a great fisherman, and never lets an opportunity slip to cast the line. He had hardly got settled at the seaside when he went out on the Necanicum river to have a fish all by himself. He made his way through the brush until he came to a log, one end of which projected out into the creek. "That's the place," thought the conductor, and, adjusting his line and pole, he crept out on the log, where he found himself comfortably perched above the cool water of Necanicum creek. Houston lighted his tried and trusty pipe, and then cast his line. He fished and smoked perhaps an hour without getting a bite.

BRUIN SIZED HIM UP.

Suddenly there was a movement in the bushes back of him, and then he felt the log he was sitting on tremble. Instinctively the conductor turned around, when to his amazement he gazed into the face of a black bear. The latter seemed to be sizing him up and estimating how much of a meal the conductor would make, and whether he would "scrap" when it came to the point. For the conductor there seemed no escape. The bear sat complacently on the shore end of the log, and it was not possible for Conductor Houston to get past the monster. The bear held him there for several hours before a hunter came along and killed the animal. The bear weighed 250 pounds when dressed. Conductor Houston now has a few more gray hairs in his head as the result of his experience.

PROFITS OF PUGILISM.

Large Sums Realized by the Leading Prize Fighters in Their Engagements.

It's a profitable business—this prize fighting, after one gets to weigh a couple of hundred pounds and can boast of having "knocked out" a score or two of men, says the Baltimore News. For his part of the proceedings in the recent fight, Jeffries has been able to add to his bank account nearly $33,000, while Corbett's roll has been increased a shade less than $11,000. Of course, the training expenses amounted to something, but when the men have attained such notoriety as the two principals in question have, it is generally the custom for enterprising roadhouses to fall over themselves bidding for the honor of entertaining them during the weeks of preparation. Nearly all of the figures mentioned for each man will be clear profit, and it is a pretty tidy salary for half an hour's work, even though that work consists of being a chopping block for the other fellow. Besides, the prominence with which each man is again brought before the country on the eve of another season on the stage is an asset which must not be overlooked. Such fights as that of a few weeks ago don't need to be "faked." Each man realized that there had been "nothing doing" for so long that he was dropping from public vision, which means death in the supplementary profession each has chosen.

John T. Green, of Somerset street, has recovered from an attack of the grip, which has confined him to his home during the past few days.

LAST FOUR DAYS
OF THE
Pre-Inventory Sale
Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday

THESE DAYS will be full of interest to the careful shopper. Rather than take in stock much of the merchandise, we are going to offer it to you at a great sacrifice in price. This is NOT one of the usual "fake" "Sacrifice Sales," but is a positive saving of from 25c to 50c on the dollar. Such opportunities as these occur only before Inventory, so you will have to wait until next January if you do not take advantage of this one. Remember, just three days.

Potato Contest.
For the benefit of a few of our customers who requested a longer time, we will hold the contest open until January 28th, which is the last day of the Inventory Sale.
Potatoes will be on exhibition January 26, 27, 28, 29, 30.
Awards will be made Saturday, January 30th.

FLOGGED BY FATHER

Tiny Katie Kantor Whipped by Order of Town Recorder.

A Sample of New Jersey Justice Which Seemed Cruel and Un-American to the Good People of Bayonne.

Residents of Bayonne, N. J., are commenting unfavorably on the punishment meted out to tiny Katie Kantor by order of Recorder Hyman Lazarus in his court, before 50 spectators. Katie, who is nine years old, had been accused of stealing eggs, and Recorder Lazarus commanded her father to whip her in the courtroom, the flogging to take place in front of the bench on which the justice sits. On several occasions Recorder Lazarus has compelled fathers to spank their wayward boys in open court, but this is the first time in New Jersey, as far as can be learned, that a girl was soundly whipped in public.

The father placed his little child across his knee and applied the blows with a leather whip which had 14 thongs. The whip was 16 inches long. Big red welts were raised on the child's tender skin by the thongs, and many of the women present turned away their heads, not caring to witness such a beating.

The elder Kantor conducts a small tailor shop, and his family lives in two rooms in the rear. There are six children, Katie being next to the eldest.

"I didn't steal the eggs," said Katie, who is an attractive little girl. "I only took them home to mamma, and thought it would be all right if we gave the grocer the money for the eggs later. I didn't mean not to pay for them."

Katie said she was a pupil in the third grade of the Fourteenth street public school of that village. Her favorite studies are geography and history, she said, and she declared that she was fond of study and of her teacher, who was very good to all the children.

"I had no way out of it; when the judge said to me to whip Katie I had to obey him," declared the child's father.

HER FATHER FLOGGED HER.

He produced the leather whip with the 14 thongs, with which he had chastised the child. He said he had made the whip purposely to punish his children with, as he knew of no other method of correcting them.

"But your father did not whip you very hard, did he, Katie?" was suggested.

"Yes, indeed he did. He hurt me awful!" the little girl answered.

"I had to strike hard because the judge ordered me to do so," explained the father. "People must always do what the judge says, mustn't they? That's the law, isn't it, in this country?"

Then it developed that the complainant against little Katie had not been present in court to press the charge against her, and that therefore the case ought legally to have been dismissed. When Kantor's attention was called to this, he declared that the recorder had said nothing about that phase of the indictment, but had simply ordered the punishment to be inflicted, and had directed a court officer to place a chair in front of the bench for that purpose.

There is talk among residents of Centerville, the suburb of the village in which the Kantors live, of addressing a formal protest to Recorder Lazarus, asking him not to have girls whipped in his court, pointing out to him the ignomy of such punishment. Katie's mother said the child could never outlive the remembrance of the disgraceful whipping in a public court, and she believes that such treatment was likely to ruin a child's future. In this she voiced the sentiments of the neighbors.

Rudeness Proved Expensive.

Claus Spreckles, the sugar king, has just made a San Francisco capitalist pay $6,000,000 for being disobliging. The capitalist is president of a gas and electric company. Smoke from the company's plant annoyed Mr. Spreckles and he went to the president and asked him to abate the nuisance. The president was extremely curt to Mr. Spreckles. To avenge himself for the affront put upon him Spreckles established a rival gas and electric plant at a cost of $4,000,000 and began cutting rates. Prices were brought down to one-fourth what they were when the old company had the monopoly. At length the man went to Mr. Spreckles and begged for quarter. Spreckles' terms were to be bought out at the price of $6,000,000, and to these terms the disobliging capitalist had to assent.

Hard on Female Prisoners.

In the prisons of Great Britain neither male nor female convicts are permitted to see a mirror during the period of their incarceration.

A RENOVATING SHOP.

A Very Good Way For a Painstaking Woman to Earn Her Living.

Miss Bachelor Girl stopped in her busy career long enough to overhaul her wardrobe. It sadly needed it, for she had only one good dress left to wear. "What on earth can be the matter with all the others?" she exclaimed and forthwith proceeded to investigate.

The first suit was in a fair condition only. Oh, dear, I remember now. That horrid torn lining! It is fairly in ribbons and drives me wild. Oh, well, if I take it to the tailor he will charge me too much for relining it, if he will touch it at all, and, anyway, I haven't any time to bother—he is so far away and I will have to wait so long. Now,

"TAKE IT TO THE REPAIRING SHOP."

what is the matter with the other skirt? Oh, I see! A tear where it caught in the door. Well, that is at the bottom. It might be turned up into a short skirt. Very well, only it needs time, and I can't do it myself; neither can I afford fancy prices for it."

At that very moment she noticed a card under her door, where letters were usually slipped. It read:

Don't throw away perfectly good clothes because you haven't time to fix them. Send them to the renovating shop, West Umpty-umpth street.

Miss Bachelor Girl telephoned and found the terms so reasonable that she immediately called a bellboy and, handing him the offending garments, bade him "take them to the renovating shop."

A few days afterward she called at the shop and found everything done to her satisfaction. She also looked about and saw that besides the cleansing and renovating branch of the business the shop held an assortment of notions and small wares such as are needed by tailors and dressmakers. Buttonholes were made to order at short notice and accordion plaiting, pinking and ruffings. Ostrich feathers were curled and cleaned and gloves made spotless again. Even lace was dipped upon occasion when it did not suit the coloring of the gown.

It was indeed a most up to date renovating shop, and one which, as the smiling proprietress informed her, made a very good living and increased its list of customers daily.

AN ARTISTIC STAIRWAY.

A Pretty Way of Decorating and Building It.

The straight stairway, while very useful, mars the looks of the hall, particularly when it has a dark turning, unlighted by any window.

The picture shows how this may be remedied. The stairway shown is of oak. It is broken by a broad landing and takes a turn to the right. On this landing there is a grandfather's clock, and a carved seat under the long, narrow window, which is given a quaint appearance by the casement effect and the small panes. This window has a full curtain of soft green silk. The green and red walls are covered with gay little water colors or prints, and the whole atmosphere is one of cheerfulness.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

SELF IMPROVEMENT

Women Who Care About It and Women Who Do Not

"SOME people are satisfied to be just as they are," remarked the energetic woman.

"That's me," put in the bachelor ungrammatically from the comfortable depths of his armchair.

"I was referring to women," she returned with severity. "Most of them are content to jog along just as they are, without a thought of the future and barely a thought of the present."

"Happy are the people who never think!"

"Oh, you are so contrary! But they do think, only they think afterward, when it is too late."

"I see. Things happen to them."

"Of course. Things always happen to the woman who doesn't try to keep ahead of the times and improve herself, and they are not pleasant things either. Take, for instance, the most common case, the woman who doesn't care for her personal appearance. Once upon a time she was very alert on the subject, strange to say; but that was before she married. Now that she has a man tied to her by law and church contract she doesn't see why she should tire herself prinking and curling her hair and fussing with her dresses in order that they may be up to date. It is far more amusing to gossip with the neighbors or read novels after her daily tasks are over. But even self improvement as regards dress or the lack of self improvement brings its results, as she finds to her sorrow when she discovers her husband making comparisons between her and other women, praising this one's style and that one's personal appearance and taking her out less and less often because he is no longer proud of her. Perhaps, too, it comes to this—some other woman with not half her good looks steals her husband from her because she knows how to make the most of every good point that nature has granted her."

"I have my lesson down pat in case I am a woman in my next incarnation, but what about the charms of the mind and character? Are they not to be cultivated?"

"They are indeed. I could speak volumes on that same subject, on the woman who neglects her mind so that she has nothing in common with her own children after they have been to school a few years; of the wife who is no companion to her husband for this very reason, and who in consequence sees him find companionship elsewhere because he cannot get it at home."

A LIST OF FAILURES AND SUCCESSES.

"And what about girls? Are women the only sinners?"

"I am sorry to say women are apt to take it easy after marriage and think that, as in the story books, they have nothing to do but live happily forever after. But some girls are just as bad. They think, 'Oh, I shall marry, so what is the use of cultivating this talent or improving myself along that line?'"

"Marriage seems to be the great barrier to self improvement," commented the bachelor cynically. "I'm glad I'm not married."

"It isn't so for the man. His ambitions and interests keep getting broader and broader; his wife's, I am sorry to say, as a rule, narrower. It is her own fault. She doesn't seem to realize that there are other things in marriage besides love, companionship and ambition among them."

"But are there no women who try to improve themselves?"

"Oh, any number, and they only make the others stand out in bolder relief. I know of one girl who started with very little education and totally adverse circumstances and yet managed to fit herself for the bar. She is now one of the most prominent women lawyers. I know of another girl who, finding herself subject to fits of despondency and everything going wrong, used to write out every week a list of her failures and of her successes. Opposite each she would write the reason why, the truthful reason why, as far as she could see it, and is it a wonder she succeeded finally, when she had the grit to look things full in the face like that? It is the girl who keeps on and persistently on, regardless of failures, trying each time to do better than the last—it is that girl who, I say, who obtains the best things in life, and keeps them, which is better still.

MAUD ROBINSON.

A NEW FOOD SUPPLY

Argentine Republic Is Coming to the Front as a Producer.

Magnificent Agricultural Area Along the River Platte—Wonderful Development of Thirty Years—What of the Future?

There is being opened up in the territory of the river Platte a magnificent agricultural area. The farmer and the boards of trade of the United States have their eyes upon the Argentine Republic, for that country is making rapid strides toward becoming one of the foremost food suppliers of the world. Agents of big grain handing companies of this country are being sent yearly to Argentina to study the agricultural conditions there, and they never return without bigger stories than ever of the agricultural possibilities of the country.

Thirty years ago the people of Argentina had to buy flour from the United States, and in the whole country there were only 500 miles of railway. But today the 500 miles of railroad have grown to over 10,000 and more are in rapid construction, and when it is remembered that the republic has an area of 1,200,000 square miles, the extent to which this development may go may be but faintly imagined. And all this railroad development is to accommodate the tremendous increase in the production of farm products. To-day the export of breadstuffs amounts to something like $100,000,000, and the meat alive and dead, with its hides, wool and other by-products, is worth over $100,000,000.

NEW DOCKS AT BUENOS AYRES.

Argentina began to awaken to her agricultural possibilities during the Paraguayan war, when she found a good market for her products. When the war was over it was discovered that the supply was sufficient to satisfy the demand of the whole region of the river Plate. This condition of affairs lasted for about ten years, at the end of which time the country began to export considerable quantities of cereals to Europe, till in 1891 the exports of wheat amounted to 448,000 tons, those of maize to 700,000 tons, those of linseed to 40,000 tons, and those of hay to 30,000 tons. In 1892 there were under cultivation 8,200,000 acres of land, which is only 3.7 per cent. of the total area of the republic. The soil which has not yet lost much of its natural phosphates, generally yields abundant crops, especially if the rains have neither been scarce nor excessive. The following figures show the average yield of the soil per acre: Wheat, 990 pounds; maize, thrashed, 2,700; linseed, 720; rice, unthrashed, 2,700; rice, thrashed, 1,350; potatoes, 10,800; tobacco, 765; sugar cane, 40,500; dry lucerne, 22,500; vetch, 1,080; haricots, 1,080; chick-peas, 1,080.

The date of sowing the seed and securing the harvest varies in the different provinces and territories, owing to the variation of their climates, brought about by their geographical situation and physical configuration. In the most noted agricultural provinces—Buenos Ayres, Entre Rios and Santa Fe—the wheat, barley and oats are sown from May to July, the maize from September to November, the lucerne in April, May, September and October. The wheat, oats and barley crops in February and April, and the lucerne crop from November to April. The time of planting the sugar cane, which is grown in Santiago, Tucuman, Salta Jujuy and the territorial governments of El Chaco, Formosa and Misiones, is from July to October, and of the harvesting from June to October of the following year. Rice is sown in September and October, and is gathered from March to May. The mandioca is sown in June and gathered in April and May.

AN ARGENTINE RANCH HOME.

The typical Argentine farmer is nomadic in his habits. He commonly contracts with the owner to undertake all the expense connected with sowing and harvesting the crop, and instead of rent gives a percentage on the results, while the owner only gives the bare land fenced, though in most instances he will advance working animals and provisions and generally guarantee the colonist's credit until harvest.

PICKEREL'S BIG JUMP.

From New York State He Leaped Over New Jersey, Landing Finally in Pennsylvania.

The rock that marks the boundary lines of New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey lies in the Delaware river at Carpenter's Point, N. Y. On that rock the lines come together so that one may spread three fingers of his hand and have a finger in each of those states, and in the counties of Orange, New York; Pike, Pennsylvania, and Sussex, New Jersey.

Floyd Campbell went swimming in the river of tristates rock the other day. After swimming awhile he got upon the rock to sun himself. As he lay there, his head in Pennsylvania, his right foot in New York and his left in New Jersey, he saw a commotion in the water on the New York side of the rock.

REACHED FOR THE PICKEREL.

The commotion came rapidly toward the rock and culminated in the breaking from the water of a sunfish, with a big pickerel in its wake. The terror-stricken sunfish's rush to escape its savage pursuer took it a foot or more beyond the edge of the water on the sloping side of the rock. The pickerel, in fierce pursuit, followed the sunfish, and the impetus of its charge carried it clear through New Jersey and halfway across Pennsylvania, where it stopped.

The sunfish instantly flopped back into the water. If the pickerel had been content to go on either into the water on the Pennsylvania side of the rock or the New Jersey side, it would have saved itself, but it turned on the rock and began flopping back into the New York waters.

That move was fatal. Campbell recovered from his surprise, rose to a sitting posture and reached for the pickerel. His middle finger ran under the gills of the fish and stopped it where it was. As it lay captured its position was such that it covered part of three states and three counties. It weighed nearly three pounds.

WIFE'S VIEW OF IT.

Hubby Repeated Good Joke to His Better Half and Now He Wishes He Hadn't.

The New York Times tells a good story on a prominent citizen of Syracuse who tried to repeat a joke to his wife and found the joke was on himself. It seems that the citizen was in a downtown hat store one evening, after closing hours, and the proprietor from some incentive said: "I will give to any man here a new silk hat if he will swear on his word of honor that never since his marriage has he cast a languishing glance, or the eye of love, on any woman other than his wife."

"WHY DON'T YOU LAUGH?"

A young man stepped forward and said: "Give me the hat."

"Are you ready to so swear?" asked the shopkeeper.

"I am," replied the young man, firmly.

"Take the hat," said the hatter, who then added: "When were you married, by the way?"

"Last night," replied the young man.

This was the joke—the joke on the hatter—which the prominent citizen ran home and repeated to his wife with much gusto.

After he had finished the wife did not seem to appreciate the humor as keenly as had been anticipated by the husband.

"Why, don't you laugh?" asked the latter. "Don't you see it is funny?"

"I was thinking," replied the wife. "Why didn't you bring home the hat, dear?"

"Well, darn it! A silk hat never did look well on me," remonstrated the prominent citizen.

Day Laborers in America.

There are to-day 5,000,000 day laborers in this country. One and one-fourth million belong to national trade unions, another 1,000,000 to trade unions not yet national in their scope, and the remainder comprise the army of non-

BIG BUILDINGS MOVED

Some Peculiar Methods Adopted to Fit Different Conditions.

The Pittsburg Opera House the Latest Giant to Change Its Location—How It and Similar Feats Were Accomplished.

The moving of large buildings has become a science, and one to which many trained engineers are giving their attention.

One of the recent occurrences in this line was the removal of the Pittsburg opera house. This immense building was lifted from its foundations and moved intact and without any comparative damage a distance of 22 feet. The theater, which is the largest in Pittsburg and is the home of one of the best stock companies in America, covers a site measuring 128 feet by 80 feet, and weighs approximately 2,496 tons, yet the building was transferred to its new position without the slightest injury to its contents.

About four weeks were occupied in preparing the building for removal but the actual transference was only a matter of hours, and so smoothly was the feat performed that it was practically impossible to tell that the structure was on the move. Nine hundred jack screws were used to push the building up. Then supports and rollers were placed beneath in order to effect the movement. Jack screws acting horizontally, were now braced against the pavement, each one being arranged as to push the end of one of the great beams upon which the theater was resting. At each jack stood a man, and these operators, in obedience to a whistle, gave the screw a twist. The movement at each twist was imperceptible, but it was none the less sure, and gradually the huge building, weighing 2,496 tons, was pushed into its new position 22 feet from its original site. When the opera house had come into place over its new foundation, it was not lowered again, but the masonry was carried up to meet the brick work of the wall. The steel supporting beams were then carefully removed, and the openings were closed. The cost of the undertaking was over a quarter of a million dollars. Forty-seven men were engaged on the job day and night.

JACKSCREWS UNDER THE PITTSBURG

The moving of this building serves to recall several feats of the same kind that have been remarkable from an engineering standpoint. One of these in which unusual methods were employed was the moving of the Beach hotel, at Coney Island. The building was an enormous structure of wood construction, and the difficulties which confronted the engineers were more a matter of size than of weight. To move it without injury every portion must move at the same time, and to accomplish this the entire building was raised and placed on tracks. Strong cables were then placed about it, and these were fastened to half a dozen locomotives. When all was ready these locomotives started simultaneously and the great building was transferred without mishap.

MOVING A NEBRASKA COURT HOUSE.

An even more remarkable case than this was the removal of the courthouse from Hemingford, Neb., to Alliance. The settlement of a county seat difficulty made the change in the location of the court house necessary. The distance was 19 miles, and some out-of-the-ordinary method had to be devised to accomplish it. After considering a number the engineers in charge conceived the idea of attaching a locomotive to it and hauling it to the new location along the line of railway. This feat was accomplished without mishap, and created a considerable sensation in engineering circles at that time.

In Bangor, Me., it was found necessary to move a building to a new location several blocks distant. The road led up one hill and down another, but the trick was accomplished successfully, and without injury to the building.

SPORTING NEWS.

BASKET BALL.

The basket ball game scheduled for Wednesday night between the Business Men's team of the Y. M. C. A., and Leal's School has been postponed.

The Business Men's team of the Y. M. C. A., which made a name for itself Saturday by defeating Passaic Y. M. C. A. in basket ball, will meet New Brunswick tonight and a hot game is anticipated. The game will be called at 8:15 o'clock.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

There are eight candidates for the Y. M. C. A. athletic team to contest in the inter-association games here February 8. Several new men came out Saturday night.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Miss Sarah Carney, of Woodhull & Martin's store, has returned to her position after a week's vacation.

—Miss Stella Apgar, Miss Huff and Miss Bodine and Irving Martin are among the clerks at Woodhull & Martin's store, who are enjoying a week's vacation. Miss Apgar is spending a portion of the time with friends in New York.

—A permit has been granted S. Schener & Company by Building Inspector Doane to raise the ceiling of the hall in the third story of their building at 119 to 125 West Front street three and one-half feet in the hall to be used for a lodge room.

—William Aten, a venerable engineer of the New Jersey Central, who is well known in this city, is detained at his home in Roycefield with a severe attack of the grip. A few days ago he severely frosted his hands and feet and he will be laid up for some time.

FACTS NOT FANCIES.

Is there anything you want to know? If so, look in The World Almanac for 1904, presenting the most exhaustive array of facts on every conceivable subject, of any book of ready reference; and the information given is presented in the most convenient form. A special feature is an officially compiled guide to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis the value of which will be appreciated by all who intend to go to St. Louis this spring and summer. To the politician who wants exact data on election returns; to the student of current events who wants reliable information in compact form; to the scientist who wants the latest facts about the advances in science during the past year; to the sportsman who wants a brief review of the year's work in athletics; to everyone in fact who holds an interest in any one of a thousand subjects; the World Almanac will prove of inestimable value.

Competant Officials.

Few roads in the East are better advertised than the New Jersey Central. General Passenger Agent Burt is a firm believer in newspaper publicity, and the Central's rapidly increasing business is proof evident of the soundness of his ideas in this connection. The man who looks after the details of the advertising is W. H. Hayden, one of the most competent and experienced advertising men in the American railroad service. Mr. Hayden is a graduate from the advertising department of the Boston and Maine, and his work for the New Jersey Central is of the highest standard of excellence.—Railroad Employe.

Church Social.

The regular monthly social of the Junior Epworth League of the First M. E. church was held in Vincent chapel, Saturday night from 7 to 9 o'clock The programme, which was very informal, was in charge of the superintendent, Mrs. Charles Shupp. After a number of phonograph selections the young folks played games and before the affair terminated those in charge served refreshments.

PERSONAL.

John Billings, of South Second street, is confined to his home by illness.

William Snyder, of 440 West Front street, who has been seriously ill, is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Serisky, of Plainfield, have returned from a visit with Raritan friends.

George Harrison of New Market, has secured the position of city editor of the Bayonne Herald.

Mrs. William White, of Willow avenue, who has been detained at home by illness, is able to be out again.

Mrs. A. D. Edgar, of West Front street, who has been visiting relatives at Allentown, Pa., has returned home.

Ira F. Randolph, of West Seventh street, who has been visiting Captain Dorsett at Barnegat, has returned home.

Mrs. James K. Arnold, of the borough, who has been confined to her home as a result of a fall, is now able to be about again.

Miss Pauline Denton, of Washington avenue, who has been visiting relatives in Brooklyn, is expected home early this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Williams, of East Front street, have returned from Connecticut, where they have been visiting during the past week.

Former State Senator Charles A. Reed, who was called away from the city Saturday on business, will return home in time for the Board of Trade dinner.

Mrs. John H. French and her daughter, Miss French, who have been spending the past month visiting friends in Massachusetts, have returned to their home in West Seventh street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Erickson, of Inwood, L. I., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thom, of Summit avenue. Mr. Erickson was formerly golf instructor at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club, and he now holds a similar position at Inwood.

Mrs. Gerold, trained nurse, who came from her home at Delhi, N. Y., to take care of Alexander Stills, the smallpox patient at the isolation hospital, had given up her residence in Plainfield. This is the second time that she was called from Delhi to Plainfield on a similar errand.

Married Fifteen Years.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Manley are quietly observing their fifteenth wedding anniversary today at their home at 321 Park avenue. Mrs. Manley presented her husband with a handsome overcoat as a remembrance. Mr. and Mrs. Manley have been residents of this city for a long time. They were married in New York city.

Mrs. Crane Dead.

Mrs. Caroline Crane, wife of Albert Crane, died Saturday at her home in North Plainfield at the age of seventy-two. Mrs. Crane is survived by her husband, one son and one daughter. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at the late residence, 188 Grove street.

The Charity Ball.

The programme for the charity ball for Muhlenberg Hospital has been completed and the amount realized from advertisements, it is announced, is sufficient to defray the expense of the entire affair. The money obtained from the sale of the tickets will be a net profit.

Flat Wheel in Service.

Car No. 41, on the route between the depot and Netherwood avenue, ran all day Saturday with a pronounced case of "flat wheel." All day and way into the night it continued to make its trips.

Admit Manslaughter.

The two Italians charged with murder in the Union county court today pleaded guilty to manslaughter. Both crimes were committed in Elizabeth.

Justice Nash Confined to Bed.

Justice V. W. Nash, of Prospect avenue, is confined to his bed as a result of his recent fall down stairs.

VETERAN EMPLOYES ASSOC'N

UNIQUE ORGANIZATION OF MEN LONG IN CENTRAL ROAD'S SERVICE.

The Central Railroad of New Jersey Veterans Employes' Association, which was formed last summer, now has a membership of 73, which includes nearly all the employes of the road who are eligible under their by-laws.

The object of the organization is for social purposes only, and is composed of employes who entered the service during or previous to the administration of the late Colonel Ricker.

The association is formed somewhat similar to the Grand Army of the Republic, inasmuch as the membership cannot increase, but must in the nature of human events grow continually less, year by year. The idea originated with Supt. George H. Frech, of the Southern Division, Captain B. W. Hopper, of Newark, and a few others.

Colonel Ricker relinquished control of the Central in 1877, so that no one can become a member who was not an employe at that time, and who has not been continuously in the service since. Colonel Ricker was probably one of the best known railroad managers of his day and has always been held in high regard by the men who were employed under him.

It is the intention of the association to have an outing and dinner at least once a year, and the officers held a meeting at Lakewood recently and outlined plans for the future.

It was the intention to get together before this time, but owing to the lateness of the season, after the association got well under way, it was thought advisable to postpone the matter to a later date.

The emblem adopted for the members to wear is a gold button, containing the well-known trademark of the New Jersey Central, and inscribed on the back is the member's name and the date of his entering the service.

The oldest member of the association has been with the company fifty-five years, and the youngest twenty-seven years. The average length of service of the 73 members is thirty-eight years, and the combined length of service of all the members, is 2,735 years.

The present officers are: Geo. H. Frech, superintendent Southern Division, East Long Branch, president; J. M. Shannon, joint agent, Hampton Junction, secretary and treasurer; J. A. Haynes, general agent, Plainfield, Captain B. W. Hopper, general agent, Newark, and Samuel Phipps, fuel inspector, Hampton Junction, executive committee.—Railroad Employe.

—Press want ads pay

—John L. Yatman, the well-known expert on lenses, will give a free lecture and demonstration tonight under the auspices of the Plainfield Camera Club, in the Babcock building. Everyone interested in the subject of lenses or photography is cordially invited to attend and any questions on the subject will be answered by Mr. Yatman.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

District Deputy John T. Green, of the borough, will install the officers of Indianola Tribe, I. O. R. M., of Bound Brook, tomorrow night. The degree team of Miantonomo Tribe, of this city, has been invited to assist him in working the adoption degree.

At the regular meeting of Martha Washington Council, No. 28, Daughters of America, held in its rooms Saturday evening, the following officers were installed by District Deputy State Councilor G. B. Allen, of this city: Junior past councilor, G. Thorn; associate junior past councilor, Susan VanCamp; councilor, Jennie Benjamin; associate councilor, Hannah Thompson; vice councilor, Sadie Dodge; associate vice councilor, Annie Angleman; assistant recording secretary, Eldora Beekman; conductor, Flora Moorehouse; warden, Florence Welsh; inside sentinel, F. G. Welsh; outside sentinel, Elizabeth Fritts; trustee, 18 months, F. G. Welsh. Two propositions were received for membership.

—The twelfth concert of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra, of Plainfield, will be held Monday night, Feb. 1, at 8:15 o'clock.

Mrs. Henry Mottet, of New York, has returned home after a visit with Mrs. George Wharton Edwards, of Franklin place.

ROYAL WELCOME FOR KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Louisville to Spend $100,000 in Entertaining Delegates of the Supreme Lodge.

GATHERING IN AUGUST

PRIZES AMOUNTING TO $10,000 TO BE AWARDED IN DRILL CONTESTS.

Illuminations and Decorations to Cost About $40,000—Over 30,000 Knights Expected to be Present—A Great Parade Planned.

Plainfield members of the order will be interested in the announcement that preparations have been begun by the Knights of Pythias of Louisville, Ky., to entertain the supreme lodge of the order when it meets there next August. The first step was the formation of "The Knights of Pythias 1904 Biennial Association," which took place on December 1, 1903. The association has opened offices in Louisville, and its press bureau is in full operation.

It is said that success is crowning the efforts of the finance committee to raise a fund of $100,000, for the entertainment of the thousands of visitors who are expected to be in the city during the convention. The transportation committee has sent circulars to every lodge in the country. Many "Louisville Clubs" have been organized throughout the country. These clubs are making preparations to attend the encampment. As a rule more than 30,000 members and their friends are in the city during the convention.

Several parades are being planned for the encampment. The official parade will take place on August 16 and will be in charge of General James R. Carnahan, the commander-in-chief of the Uniformed Rank.

The sum of not less than $10,000 will be appropriated by the association as prizes for the competitive drills. A band composed of from 1,000 to 1,200 musicians will be seen and heard during the encampment. The music committee also expects to have a band contest for prizes.

The decorations and illuminations committee is now at work on plans to beautify the city in honor of the visitors. The expenditures to be made along this line by the committee itself and by individuals and corporations will aggregate $40,000. Of this sum the committee expects to spend from $20,000 to $25,000 in making Louisville "a city of beauty by day and a dream of brilliancy by night." Clay Lodge No. 1, of Louisville, expects to increase its membership by the initiation of 1,000 candidates between now and August 1.

MRS. TRUELL BUYS HOTEL

PARK AVENUE HOSTELRY SOLD TO WOMAN WHO HAS MADE A SUCCESS.

The Park Avenue Hotel, one of the best known hostelries in this city, and one with a varied career, has been sold to Mrs. J. R. Truell, of Truell Court, by Augustus J. Brunson, the owner. Just what Mrs. Truell proposes to do with the place is not known at present, and as the change will not take place until about March 1, she has plenty of time to make any arrangements she may have in mind. For some time past Truell Court has been occupied to the limit and it is through a desire to secure additional room that Mrs. Truell has taken the hotel property. Whether the place will be continued as a hotel or turned into a place similar to Truell Court, has not yet been decided.

It is understood that since Mr. Brunson became president of the First National Bank, a position that takes a great deal of his time, he arranged to dispose of the hotel property.

Plainfield Alumni.

The Alumni Association of the New York University Law School, which embraces several Plainfield lawyers in its membership list, will hold its twentieth annual dinner at the Hotel Savoy, Tuesday, February 9. Hon. Elihu Root, of the class of '67, will be the guest of honor. Invitations have been sent to the President, Gov. Odell and Mayor McClellan.

Judgment for Plaintiff.

Judgment for full amount and costs was rendered yesterday by Justice Mosher for C. Frank French against Charles W. Hand, on contract. L. A. Clement, Esq., represented the plaintiff.

SCHOOL MONEYS DUE BUT NOT RECEIVED

North Plainfield Board of Education Still After Amount Due From the Borough.

CONFERENCE TO BE HELD

TWO-SESSION DAY FOR PUPILS IN PRIMARY GRADES.

Funds for Manual Training Department All Used Up—Warrants Drawn for Payment of Claims—Pupils' Request Granted.

Becoming tired of waiting for the Borough Council to act the Board of Education, at its meeting in the Somerset street school building last night, decided to begin mandamus proceedings to compel the borough tax collector to pay over to the Borough Board of Education the school moneys, which according to the new school law is due the school board on December 21. John Valiant, chairman of the finance committee, declared that he was disappointed over the tardiness. James R. Joy was in favor of some action being taken and said that the dignity of the Board demanded at least a reply. After a thorough discussion Mr. Valiant offered his services to act as a committee of one to confer with the Mayor and Collector to ascertain the intention of the borough officials in the matter and report at the meeting on Monday night.

Aside from this there was but little transacted at last night's meeting outside of the executive session, where mostly complaints were heard. The members of the junior class were granted permission to have the use of certain parts of the building one night in February. The juniors plan to give a reception to the seniors.

Supervising Principal Homer J. Wightman recommended a two session day in the primary grades. This is asked so that pupils who are backward can spend more time with their teachers. A conference with the teachers' committee and Mr. Wightman will be held.

At the meeting it developed that the funds of the manual training department were exhausted and consequently an estimate for thirteen new lights was laid over. Notes were ordered drawn for $837.50 and the clerk and president were authorized to draw warrants for the payment of claims amounting to $2,641.31.

BRISK GAME OF HOCKEY

SEBRING'S TEAM DEFEATED BENTLIFF'S AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Between the halves of the basket ball game between the Business Men's team and New Brunswick Y. M. C. A., on the local Y. M. C. A. floor last night, a hockey game was played between Capt. Bentliff's and Capt. Sebring's Y. M. C. A. fives. The game was close and interesting occasionally enlivened with a little "rough-house." Sebring's men won, 8 to 6. The line-up:

Sebring's team—Sebring and Gates, forwards; Mundy, centre; Emmons and F. Sheppard, guards. Bentliff's team—L. Sheppard and Aalholm, forwards; Bentliff, centre; Brokaw and Woodland, guards. Referee, Heywood. Timer, Utzinger.

JUDGMENT AGAINST TOTTEN.

Philadelphia Firm Wins Suit in Justice Moffett's Court.

Haney, White & Company, manufacturers of mantels, of Philadelphia, Pa., were given judgment for full amount yesterday in Justice Moffett's court in their suit on contract against James E. Totten. The dispute was over the amount of commission which the defendant claimed was due him for the sale of mantels, the defendant claiming the customary commission whereas it was shown that the sale was a special one with the commission specially contracted for. H. C. Runyon, Esq., represented the plaintiff and V. W. Nash, Jr., the defendant.

Rev. Mr. Dawson Leaves.

Rev. William Vincent Dawson, formerly rector of St. Stephen's church, officiated on Sunday at the church for the last time. Last night he left Jersey City on the Pennsylvania Railroad for Elk Rapids, Mich., where Sunday he will officiate for the first time as rector of St. Paul's church, that city.

Miss Clara Rhodes, of Pennsylvania, is spending a few weeks with Plainfield friends.

FUNERAL SERVICES OVER JAMES CLARK

New York and Plainfield Citizens Attend Obsequies at His Late Home.

BODY PLACED IN VAULT

REV. J. S. ZELIE, PASTOR OF CRESCENT AVENUE CHURCH, OFFICIATED.

Lotus Glee Club Sang—Remains to Rest in Mausoleum in Hillside Cemetery—Beautiful Floral Tributes at House.

The funeral services of the late James Clark were held from the home on West Seventh street, yesterday afternoon. There was a very large gathering of friends, including a number of business men from New York, who were more or less associated with Mr. Clark in his various enterprises. There was also a large and beautiful display of floral tributes, comprising several large set pieces and a number of cut flowers.

The services were conducted by Rev. John Sheridan Zelie, who read appropriate Scripture selections, offered prayer and made a short address. During the services, the Lotus Glee Club sang "I Am But a Stranger Here," "Nearer, My God to Thee," and Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar."

The remains were placed in the receiving vault at Hillside cemetery until the mausoleum, which is now being constructed there, is completed. This mausoleum was commenced some time ago by Mr. Clark and is considered to be one of the most magnificent and costliest in New Jersey.

NEW BRUNSWICK DEAD EASY

LOCAL Y. M. C. A. TEAM WON BASKET BALL GAME WITHOUT ANY TROUBLE.

The Business Men's basket ball team of the Y. M. C. A. continued in its winning streak last night, the first team of the New Brunswick Y. M. C. A. being its vanquished opponents. New Brunswick never had a show to win, Plainfield tallying enough times in the first half to land the victory. The local five led at the end of the first period, 18 to 9, and at the end of the game, 30 to 17. The match was played in the local gymnasium.

Plainfield won last night chiefly through superiority in locating the basket. The team work of the Business Men was more practised, and it was hard work for New Brunswick to break through their guards. Plainfield seemed to improve as the game progressed.

Spicer held down his position in fine style, scoring six goals from the floor and two from fouls. Clark, at guard, made four long-distance shots for baskets. The performance of the team as a whole was well balanced. Ewing was the leading light for New Brunswick. The summary:

Plainfield Business Men—Whitford and Doane, forwards; Spicer, centre; Clark and Lot, guards. New Brunswick—Ewing and Quackenbas, forwards; Gorsline, centre; Rice and Meyer, guards.

Score — Business Men, 30; New Brunswick, 71. Goals from the floor—Doane, 2; Spicer, 6; Clark, 4; Lot, Whitford, Ewing, 5; Quackenbas, 2; Meyer. Goals from fouls—Spicer, 2; Ewing. Referee—Dr. Browning. Umpire — Heinecke. Time-keeper — Utzinger. Scorer—Pittinger. Time—20-min. periods.

BOWLING SCHEDULE.

Games Arranged in The Daily Press Bowling League Tournament.

The Roselle Casino bowling team will meet the Cranford Casino team tonight at Cranford, when an attempt will be made to cut down the lead of the Westfield Club. Roselle captured two of the three games rolled against the Parks last week and this gave the team a decided advantage. An interesting series in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament is looked for on Thursday night when Westfield will meet the Parks on the local alleys. The Parks will make every effort to keep Westfield from increasing her lead.

—Nothing inferior is sold at Neuman Brothers. When the order arrives, which has been secured over the telephone, the customer finds that as much case has been taken in selecting the stock as if the store had been visited personally. Standard brand of canned goods are superior to the average. Two cans for a quarter.

"DAYS OF AULD LANG SYNE"

THISTLE CLUB CELEBRATES THE BIRTHDAY OF BOBBIE BURNS.

Anniversary exercises were held last night at the old Council rooms, where the Scotch Thistle Club holds forth. The evening was spent with literary, musical and vocal selections and in a general social time. It was a "Robert Burns" night and literary selections were rendered from the famous Scotch bard by David Bowden, who also read a sketch of his life. William Wilson gave a violin selection during the evening and Mrs. Wilson sang. Alexander Campbell gave a characteristic song of the Scotch highlands and Andrew Muir favored with a highland fling. Vocal selections were rendered by Thomas Henry.

The programme was arranged in celebration of the birthday of the great poet and the members and their families were present in large numbers. Late in the evening refreshments were served.

In charge of the arrangements was this committee: William L. Gloak, Thomas Henry, William Wilson, assisted by the women of the club.

PRECIOUS FLAG FOR STATE

BANNER CARRIED BY THIRD N. J. VOLS. IN CIVIL STRIFE AND ITS STORY.

Elizabeth is to lose a famous flag, but what the city loses will be the State's gain, for the famous colors of the Third New Jersey Volunteer Militia, which long have been in the keeping of General J. Madison Drake, will shortly occupy a place of honor in the flag room at the State House. Some time ago General Drake wrote to Governor Murphy in regard to the matter, and the State's executive expressed great pleasure at being able to accept the flag in behalf of the State.

The tattered colors of the Third Regiment, New Jersey Volunteer Militia, borne during the first campaign of the war for the Union by General Drake, at that time ensign, will be formally presented by him to the State at the Executive Chamber, Trenton, Monday evening, February 8, the Governor having designated that place and time for the ceremony.

The colors were made by the dainty hands of patroitic women of Trenton in April, 1861, and presented by them to the Third Regiment, the interesting ceremony taking place on East State street the day previous to the departure of the command for the defense of the National Capital.

These colors were the first to be unfurled on Virginia soil at the head of the grand army which crossed the Long Bridge at midnight, May 24, 1861. Upon the muster-out of the Third Regiment at Trenton, shortly after the battle of Bull Run, the colors were deposited in the house of the American Hose Company, where they were zealously cared for until 1875, when that organization, en route to the Eastern States on a pleasure excursion, stopped in Elizabeth, and formally presented the relic to General Drake, many citizens witnessing the ceremony.

Since that time the colors have been carried by the Veteran Zouaves in their many triumphal pleasure tours throghout the country, including their trip across the continent to San Francisco.

General Drake, accompanied by a number of friends, will take the colors to Trenton on the evening designated by Governor Murphy, and transfer them to the perpetual keeping of the State. He has invited the survivors of the Third Regiment to be present on the occasion.

Infant's Death.

Marjorie Johnson, ten months old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Johnson, died this morning at the home of her parents at 312 Arlington avenue, of pneumonia. The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon from the late residence and interment will be made in the Methodist cemetery.

Burglar Scared Away.

A burglar entered the home of Mrs. Emma Coddington, at 408 West Third street, at midnight last night. He was discovered in the hall and was frightened away by Mrs. Coddington's aged father. Nothing valuable was secured. The police have not been notified.

Father Smyth Sails.

The Rev. Patrick E. Smyth, pastor of St. Joseph's church, Jersey City, formerly pastor of St. Mary's cuhrch, this city, has started for Rome, where he will join Bishop John J. O'Connor, of the Newark Diocese.

Miss Mamie Carney, of Cottage place, who has been ill with bronchial trouble, has returned to her duties.

A. W. TEN EYCK WEDS MISS MARY A. WINTER

Rev. Dr. J. R. Bryan Officiates at Ceremony, Which Took Place at His Home

ENJOYING HONEYMOON

BRIDE WORE A TRAVELING GOWN OF BROWN BROADCLOTH.

Couple Will Reside in East Fifth Street—Groom Engaged in Pullman Car Service—Couple Well-Known Young People.

Miss Mary Adelaide Winter, daughter of Mrs. Mary L. Winter, of East Fifth street, and Alvah W. TenEyck, of Norwood avenue, were quietly married last night by Rev. Dr. J. R. Bryan, at his home in Albert street. No other persons were present, except the bride's mother who gave her in marriage. The affair was a quiet one owing to a recent death in the family.

The bride was gowned in a traveling suit of brown broadcloth and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's mother, where supper was served. The home was prettily decorated with smilax and white roses. After the supper Mr. and Mrs. TenEyck left town to enjoy a honeymoon of a week or ten days. Upon their return they will reside with the bride's mother on East Fifth street.

The bride received some handsome presents from relatives and friends. The groom holds a lucrative and responsible position in the Pullman Palace Car service.

FOUND HORSE IN NEW YORK

CHIEF P. S. KIELY RECOVERED MORE STOLEN PROPERTY.

The horse belonging to Nief Apgar, the Somerville liveryman, was recovered yesterday in New York city by Chief of Police Kiely. The Chief obtained his clue from Jacob Rabinowitz, the Perth Amboy saloon man who bought the horse from Charles Brown, wholesale dealer in other people's horse-flesh.

The finding of Apgar's horse was the result of considerable labor on the part of the Chief as Rabinowitz was able to give him only a general idea of its whereabouts. It was located finally in the stables of Brensom & Schulzman, 11th avenue. The animal is of considerable value.

The carriage and harness accompanying the horse the Chief has located at Perth Amboy where they were disposed of by Rabinowitz.

ENTERTAINED CLASS.

Miss Justina Smith Hostess of Eighteen Young Persons.

Miss Justina Smith, of Duer street, entertained the eighteen members of her Sunday-school class of young women at her home last night, the event being an annual one. The evening was spent in playing games, interspersed with vocal and instrumental selections by Miss Smith. The class had a good time and not the least of the enjoyable features was the supper served by the hostess.

DIED IN THE WEST.

Charles Wesley Ulrick Passed Away at Los Angeles, Cal.

Word of the death of Charles Wesley Ulrick, formerly a resident of East Fifth street, has been received from Los Angeles, California, where Mr. Ulrick had been for some time past for the benefit of his health. Death was due to cancer of the stomach. Mr. Ulrick is survived by a widow, two daughters and one son. The children are all married. Mr. Ulrick was sixty years of age.

TELEPHONE CHANGES.

Many Numbers of Local Subscribers Changed in New Directory.

A great many telephone numbers of local subscribers were changed Sunday and yesterday, and new telephone directories were distributed. The company believes that in making the change the service in the city will be quicker and the possibility of mistakes made less possible. The new numbers are below 500, where before they run up to 2,000. Different letters have also been affixed after the numbers.

Mrs. Jeffery, of Summit avenue, who recently fell and fractured her arm, is slowly improving.

THREE GAMES LOST BY Y. M. C. A. BOWLERS

High Scores the Rule and Passaic Carries Off the Honors of Contest.

MENZENBACH HIGH MAN

CULLEN, OF THE PASSAIC TEAM, ROLLED A 190 IN THE THIRD GAME.

All the Games Were Close, Passaic Winning the First by a Margin of Nineteen Points—Next Game With Summit Tonight.

Plainfield made a good fight to win from Passaic, at Passaic, last night, in the first match of the second round in the Y. M. C. A. League of Northern New Jersey. The games were close and all three were won by Passaic by narrow margins both teams scoring more than 700 on each total. Menzenbach, of Plainfield, was high man with 192, Cullen, of Passaic second with 190.

The next match for the local association will be with Summit at Summit tomorrow night. The locals will leave this city on the 6:45 train.

SPEAK-EASY KEEPER FINED

FOR VIOLATING LAW GEORGE ALEXANDER IS MINUS FORTY DOLLARS.

Inside workings of a speak-easy were exposed in the borough court by Recorder Doud last night when arraigned before him were a half dozen fourteen-year-old boys and George Alexander, proprietor of several fruit store-rum shops on Somerset street. It was shown that small boys were sold beer in soda water bottles on Sunday and on week days. The fruit dealer, who is only twenty years old, was severely reprimanded by the Recorder and fined $20 with the alternative of seven days imprisonment for keeping a disorderly house and on a charge of selling liquor to minors he was fined another $20 or seven days.

Chief Marshal William B. Campbell, Christian Mobus, Frank DeCamp, Bert Taynor and Julius Marshal were witnesses against the "joint." They testified that the place was disorderly and that beer was sold to small boys in beer bottles. Marshal Weiss testified that there were numerous fights in the place.

During the trial the Recorder asked the prisoner what church he was a member of and why he persisted in desecrating the Sabbath by keeping open on that day. Alexander answered that he kept open in order to make more money and that business was better on that day than on any other.

In taking the prisoner below some one jostled the officer and Alexander ran down stairs. The officer followed but could not find the fellow. He reported that the prisoner had escaped. The courtroom was filled with people and every one started in to hunt for the escaped prisoner. He was soon discovered hiding behind a small door. When he was brought out he paid his fine and was released.

During the trial Alexander's sister fainted in court and caused considerable excitement. Realizing that a warrant was hanging over his head on a county charge of selling liquor without a license, Alexander paid fourteen dollars extra so as to secure his release from custody and then slipped out of town. In this way he has avoided arrest for illegal selling. His shop was closed this morning.

Freeholder Dead.

Jacob M. Vreeland, a member of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Somerset county, dropped dead on Sunday while hitching his horse to go to church at Rocky Hill. A widow and two sons survive him. The funeral will be held tomorrow, and the Board will attend in a body. Several years ago he served on the Board and many of the big bridges built in the county at that time were under his supervision. He was a Republican in politics and a power in his party in local politics.

Broke His Leg.

John McGrath, of South Second street, broke his leg Sunday by a fall on the sidewalk at the corner of Front street and Grant avenue. He is at Muhlenberg Hospital.

ALIS CLUB'S TEAM ALREADY SELECTED

Who the Men Are, and What They Have Done on the Baseball Diamond.

SEASON OPENS APRIL 23

GAMES SCHEDULED AND MANY OTHERS IN PROSPECT.

Twenty Games to be Played—Six Players Formerly on the Manhattan College Team—Alis Management Active.

When the Alis Club opens the baseball season on Saturday, April 23, the baseball loving public will see a team that will represent the city on the diamond. During the winter the baseball management has been busy getting together one of the finest aggregations that will be seen in New Jersey the coming season, outside of the league nines. As stated a few days ago the management proposes to play the best semi-professional teams from the beginning to the close of the season and it hopes to have its opening game with the Seventh Regiment nine from New York. Already applications have been received for dates from Madison, Pearsalls and many other teams in and around New York, and it is not too much to expect that before the season is over the well-known Orange A. C. may be seen on Crescent Oval.

With the exception of a second baseman, the Alis team is complete. The choice is between two men, either one being well fitted for the position and a decision will be reached soon. Of those absolutely secured for the season, six are Manhattan College men, and each one has a reputation in the metropolitan district as being a cracker-jack. There will be two batteries, the main one being composed of O'Brien and Duff, the regular Manhattan College battery. Duff will captain the team. O'Brien pitched one game last season for Alis against Madison, the latter being defeated by a score of 6 to 1. While the management was trying to get a battery, and Edward Minihan, of Orange, was being considered, the latter being unable to accept the position of pitcher for Alis, he gave O'Brien and Duff the highest recommendation, saying that he believed them to be among the very best of the college players. Minihan now stands a good show of going with the New York Nationals, McGraw having promised him a trial.

First base will be covered by Cotter, while Zimmerman will be on third base and Busbe will play short-stop. These men together with Daly who will play right field, compose the rest of the Manhattang College players, while Gohrmley and Griffin, of the Pearsalls, will compose the extra battery and also play in the field, Gohrmley being in centre and Griffin in right field. The latter, it will be remembered pitched for Alis against Scotch Plains last season in a morning holiday game and defeated them. Gohrmley caught several games for Alis last season and in one game made one of the most phenomenal plays seen on a diamond, that of making a double play, unassisted.

Zimmerman played on St. Mary's team the last of the season, proving himself a crack fielder, heavy batter and good base-runner. As for the rest of the team all are known to be heavy batters and strong men in the several fielding positions to which they are assigned. As for Duff, he as well as his pitcher, O'Brien, are considered the equal of many league batteries. In fact either one could enter the league if they cared to leave college.

With such a team in the field there should be no question as to the support of the Plainfield public. The management has gotten together what is believed to be an exceptionally strong aggregation and the plan is to give the people the best article of semi-professional baseball. Season tickets for a schedule of twenty games will soon be issued.

There will be the usual games with Westfield and Scotch Plains and schedule which will be satisfactory to all three clubs will be arranged. So far as practical the Alis management will endeavor to have as many games as possible played on Crescent Oval and every arrangement will be made for the convenience of the patrons of the game.

The Public Service Corporation has promised to give the best service possible so that the crowds can be carried back and forth quickly and without any unnecessary delays.

John Slevin, B. A. Mumford and Arthur Boone compose the baseball management and now that the team has been decided upon they will soon begin the work of arranging the schedule of games for the season.

BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

Plainfield People Receiving the Full Benefit.

There have been many cases like the following in Plainfield. Everyone relates the experience of people we know. These plain straightforward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

Mrs. M. A. Hall, of 219 Prescott place, says: "For several years I had a dull aching pain across my back, at times extending to my hips. I was compelled to lie in just one position all night and stooping, lifting or bending forward aggravated the pain. Although I used different remedies that were recommended to me I obtained little if any relief. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly endorsed in our daily papers and procured a box at L. W. Randolph's drug store. It was not long before I felt great relief and I was surprised how quickly the pain in my back disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

LITERARY.

There are about 200,000 doctors in the United States, or about one for every 350 people. It has been approximately estimated that the average yearly income of these men is $750, or that the public in the country pays $150,000,000 annually for medical attendance, omitting entirely the money spent for patent medicines which brings millions of dollars to manufacturers, or the amounts spent for doctor's prescriptions, or paid to quacks and commercial doctors. The preparation for the practice of medicine that gives good standing in the profession means an expense of liberally speaking, $4,000 for four years in a reputable medical school, $1,000 for general expenses during two years' hospital service, and perhaps another $1,000 for setting up in practice. A year or two in Europe is also a help.—Leslie's Monthly for February.

The Evils of Divorce in our day are as nothing compared to what they were in Rome. Then the institution existed for the convenience of the men. Now it is defended mainly for the protection it gives to women, who form a large majority of the petitioners. Today the story of Julius Caesar and his wife raises sympathy with the lady and ridicule for the husband. Caesar is not supposed by his fervidest admirers to have been an anchorite, and he divorced his wife not because she was proved guilty of any wrong, but because he wished her to be above suspicion.—Collier's Weekly.

Farmers and Robins.

The farmers in Union County are divided over the matter of the proposed law for the slaughter of the robins. The County Board of Agriculture took no official action. While President Beebe is in favor of the bill to permit fruit growers to kill the birds when found eating their cherries, and some others in the board were of the opinion that the robins must go, the songsters also had their friends at the meeting. In various localities throughout the State the farmers are speaking out in defense of the robins and the catbirds. They disapprove of the bill in the Legislature, and the Camden Courier gives to the farmers this good advice: "Besides talking against the measure, the farmers should put their protests in writing and send them to their respective representatives in the Legislature, where they will have some effect. If fruit growers would endeavor to discover something that would kill off the 'rose-bug,' as some call it, which destroys grapes and cherries in turn every year in South Jersey, they would be doing a good turn for themselves and everybody else. In fact the robin is charged with depredation on cherry trees which is really the work of the bug in question, which puts in its appearance with June flowers, and stays until cherries ripen. The robin bill is a good one to defeat off hand, should it be permitted to come out of committee.—Elizabeth Journal.

Proposed License Increase.

In regard to the proposed increase in the license fee for the sale of liquor from $250 to $500 the following facts will be of interest: This city and Newark are the ony two cities in this State, we believe, where such a low price is charged, and the license fee will be doubled in Newark in a short time, it is stated. Even the little city of Passaic charges $501 a year for a liquor license. In New York city the price was recently raised from $800 to $1,200. The natural inference would be that such large increases would result in a corresponding decrease in the number of saloons, but such has not porved to be the case in any instance quoted. On the contrary, singular to state, there has been almost invariably an increase in the number of saloons after the increase in the license fee.—Paterson Call.

—Notices have been posted in the Reading shops of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, that on and after January 11 the men will work full time. This order affects 3,000 employes.

CHINA WANTS PEACE

Powers Are Asked by Emperor to Intervene.

GREATEST DANGER IS NOW IN KOREA

Russian and Chinese Troops on the Move—Japan Hurrying Forward Completion of Seoul-Fusan Railway.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—A Peking dispatch says:

"The Chinese authorities have approached the ministers of several powers with proposals directed toward attempting mediation with Russia and Japan. China is exceedingly anxious that war should be avoided.

"The American government is arranging to dispatch the senior student interpreters here to Mukden, Port Dalny and Antung to act as American vice consuls.

"A small detachment of Russian cavalry has passed through Kaopangtzu on their way to Ichou. This region was retroceded to China long ago.

"Advices received from Port Arthur are to the effect that a battalion of Russian troops is moving from that point toward the Korean frontier."

Late advices from St. Petersburg say that while the bourse there has been nervous owing to the uncertainty of the situation the progress of the negotiations inspires increasing confidence among those who are well informed, and in some quarters there is a confident belief in a favorable issue.

The first Russian reserves resident at St. Petersburg have been warned to hold themselves in readiness for service. This is possibly a step taken with the object of preparing the public for eventualities and for obtaining the support of public opinion which the war party hitherto has lacked.

The principal danger now is said to be confined to the disorderly elements in Korea. The latest news received here represents a great majority of the Koreans as sympathizing with Russia and hostile to Japan. Other dispatches say that the Japanese are embarking 10,000 laborers at Tientsin in order to hasten the completion of the Seoul-Fusan railroad.

Some anxiety has been expressed in St. Petersburg regarding the military movements of China.

A dispatch from Port Arthur says General Ma, with twenty regiments of Chinese troops, has proceeded from Shanhaikwan, Chili province, in order to occupy strategic points on the border of that province.

General Ma went to Shanhaikwan with 2,000 troops and later was reported to have 20,000 troops under his command. He was quoted as saying that in the event of war he would join his forces with those of Japan. General Ma in 1902 crushed the rebellion in Kwangsi province.

General Ma fought the Japanese at Pingyang, in Korea, and has displayed considerable ability as a military commander.

The Cleveland Ice Jam.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 26. — Work was begun to extricate the three big lake steamers jammed together at the Superior street viaduct as a result of the flood on Friday last. It has been found that it will be necessary to cut away the bow of the James B. Eads before the boats can be moved. The Eads lies slantwise across the stream, her stern against the abutment of the viaduct, her prow resting against the cofferdam of the railroad bridge above. The John W. Moore is backed in between the abutment and the dock, slanted, with a hole in her stern and a gap in her prow. Wedged between the two is the William E. Reis, and above the three are thousands of tons of ice pressing them into the trap. The vessels will come out badly damaged.

Rose Is In Prison.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 26.—Cashier George A. Rose, who is under arrest charged with embezzling $187,000 from the Produce Exchange bank, which has closed its doors, is locked up in the county jail awaiting developments in the examination of the bank's affairs by the officials of the Cleveland Trust company, which has been appointed receiver for the failed bank. One of the principal objects in examining the books will be to learn if Rose cannot be charged with a more serious offense than embezzlement, the maximum penalty for which in Ohio is but ten years' imprisonment.

Chicago Has Sixty-three Fires.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—During the last twenty-four hours the fire department has been called on to fight sixty-three fires. Most of the fires resulted from overheated furnaces. The largest fire of the day destroyed the dry goods store of Johnson Bros., in Milwaukee avenue, entailing a loss of $60,000. During a fire in the asbestus factory of the Sall Mountain company several firemen were injured by falling from icy ladders.

Schooner Abandoned.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Jan. 26.—A telegram from Stephenville, N. F., says that the schooner Fernwood, Captain Vincent Nelson, of this port, has been abandoned off Port au Port Bay, N. F., the crew escaping to shore over the ice. The Fernwood was on her way home from Bay of Islands, N. F.

American Woman Drowned.

MINERS ENTOMBED

Fate of Two Hundred In Harwick Mine Yet Unknown.

MANY BELIEVED TO BE DEAD

Explosion Caused Rumbling Like an Earthquake.

BRAVE ENGINEER ATTEMPTS RESCUE

Cause of Disaster at the Mine Near Cheswick Not Known—Two Brought Out Have Since Died—Harrowing Scenes at the Pit Mouth, Where Families of the Imprisoned Men Have Gathered.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 26.—From all that can be gathered at this hour between 180 and 190 men are lying dead in the headings and passageways of the Harwick mine of the Allegheny Coal company at Chaswick, the result of a terrific explosion. Cage after cage has gone down into the mine and come up again, but only one miner of all those that went down to work has been brought to the surface. The rescued man is Adolph Gunia, and he is still in a semiconscious condition at the temporary hospital at the rude schoolhouse on the hillside above the mine.

In addition to the miners who were at work when the explosion occurred it is now believed by practically all of the men of the rescue party who have come up the 220 foot vertical shaft for a warming and a breathing spell that Selwyn Taylor, the Pittsburg mining engineer who plotted the mine and who was the first to reach the bottom after the explosion happened, is also now among the list of dead. Of those in the mine all are probably dead.

When the explosion occurred the first warning was a sudden rumble under ground, and then a sheet of flame followed up the deep shaft. Both mine cages were hurled through the tipple, twenty feet above the landing stage, and the three men on the tipple were hurled to the ground. A mule was thrown high above the shaft and fell dead on the ground. The injured men were brought at once to this city, where two of them have since died.

As soon as the rumble of the explosion and the crash at the pit mouth startled the little village the wives and children of the men below rushed to the scene of the disaster, but to gain no encouragement. There was no way to get into the deep workings. The cages that let the men into the mines and brought them out again when the day's work was done were both demolished.

All day long there was a jam of waiting women and children about the mouth of the pit. There were calls for assistance and for surgical aid from the men in charge of the mine, but it was not until the afternoon that the first attempt at rescue was made. This was a failure, as the two men who volunteered were driven back by the foul air.

Shortly after this Selwyn M. Taylor and one of his assistants signaled for the engineer to lower them into the shaft. Taylor is still down there. Three times efforts have been made to reach him, but so far without avail. Thomas Wood, one of the first of the rescue party hauled to the surface, told his story of his trip through the mine. He said:

"I was with Taylor, and we clambered over three or four falls. Taylor laid out the mine and seemed to know the way. There was one man alive at the foot of the shaft. He was sent up, and then we took the mule path into the south level. We saw two men who were alive and notified those who were back of us and then went on. We passed the third, fourth and fifth heading and then through an overdrift into the airshaft. I began to feel dizzy and sick, and then I saw Taylor stagger and fall. His lantern fell. We tried to lift him up, but could not carry him up, and I made my own way to safety."

Three of the rescuers, Becker, Smith and Walkenerst, when they returned to the surface declared that, in their opinion, all in the mine outside of the rescue party are dead, including Taylor, the engineer.

Manager Sheets has telegraphed to Chief Mine Inspector J. A. Roderick at Harrisburg as follows:

"Two outside men died of their injuries. But one brought out of the shaft, who is still living. Rescuing party in mine, including Mine Inspector Cunningham, who will advise later."

H. F. Hutchinson, who gave out the lamps to the miners before they went to work in the pit, said:

"At 7:15 o'clock, the time when the whistles blow and when every one is supposed to be at work at the mine, I had given out between 180 and 190 lamps."

"That was one lamp to a man?"

"Yes."

"Did any of those lamps come back?"

"Not one."

There is a light in every cottage in the little hamlet above the pit mouth. There is still a crowd about the mouth of the shaft.

By an explosion in the Harwick mine of the Allegheny Coal company at Cheswick, sixteen miles from Pittsburg, western Pennsylvania promises to add one of the greatest tragedies of years to the already long list of mine fatalities. Even the officials of the Allegheny Coal company, the owners of the mine, do not know at this time the number of men still entombed in the chambers of the mine, 220 feet below the surface, but a conservative estimate places the number at 184.

Even General Manager George Sheets of the coal company, who is in charge of the mine, gives little hope that many of the men will be brought to the surface. The first ray of hope that any of the men had escaped the tremendous concussion of the explosion came at 6 o'clock at night, when Adolph Gorgie was brought to the surface still living.

The explosion occurred at 8:20 o'clock in the morning at the bottom of one of the shafts, presumably caused by fire damp. It was 4 o'clock in the afternoon before it was possible to make the first attempt at rescue. Robert North and Jack McCann, one of the engineers employed by the Allegheny Coal company, tried to get into the mine by way of the stairs through the airshaft. They managed to grope their way some distance, but were finally driven back by the foul air.

The main shaft into the mine, 220 feet deep, was made useless by the explosion, which hurled both cages, one of which was within thirty feet of the bottom of the shaft, through the tipple, thirty feet above the surface.

Shortly after 5 o'clock a temporary rigging had been put in place over the mouth of the main shaft and a small bucket capable of carrying three men fastened to the tackle. The first try with the new rig was made by Selwyn Taylor, the mining engineer who had been summoned from Pittsburg, and an assistant, J. M. Rayburn.

A crowd of anxious men and women was gathered at the pit mouth as the two men were lowered into the black shaft on the work of rescue. Slowly the rope on the big drums of the engine began to unroll, and the two engineers disappeared.

Still there was no sound from the depths below except the occasional shout from the men in the bucket to stop while they tested the air.

Then the cage reached the bottom. There was a silence of fully forty minutes, and then came the summons to haul up slowly. When the cage reached the top Rayburn was there, and with him was Adolph Gorgie, still alive, but gasping for breath and evidently seriously injured.

Again the cage went down into the darkness, and this time it carried with it E. Taylor, an assistant of Selwyn Taylor, and also Robert North and J. McCann, who had made the first attempt.

There was a call for volunteers to aid in the work of rescue and a call for hammers, nails and brattice cloths to enable the rescuers to brace up the workings so that they can grope their way back to where the men were at work when the crash came. The little village of Harwick that surrounds the mining workings, two miles back from the West Pennsylvania railroad, had been horror stricken all day. The wives and relatives of the entombed men have crowded about the entrance to the pit, beseeching for news of the loved ones below, but only to meet with the same answer, "We do not know yet; if we find him, we will send him home."

Mr. Sheets, the manager of the mine, said:

"The explosion was terrific. Both cages were blown from the shaft, one of them a distance of over 200 feet. Three men at work on the tipple were blown to the ground, and one of them is already dead. The other two are badly hurt, but I am told they are resting easily and may recover.

"There are at least 150 men in the mine, and I am afraid that there are a number more, although there are several men on the pay roll who did not report for work."

NASHUA BANK FAILS.

John P. Goggin, Treasurer, Arrested $100,000 Shortage.

NASHUA, N. H., Jan. 26.—The illegal manipulation of notes held by the bank during a period covering nearly a quarter of a century and subsequent attempts to make good a shortage by speculation are the causes assigned by the directors of the Nashua Trust company for the arrest of their treasurer, John P. Goggin, and the closing of the doors of the institution. Many of the notes accepted by the treasurer without the knowledge of the directors were taken for accumulated interest on other notes dating back several years. Goggin's shortage is estimated at $100,000, $25,000 of which is said to have been lost in speculation.

The bank officials had attachments placed on all the property in this city and at Manchester of George E. Gage of Malden, Mass., to protect a promissory note for $20,000 given the bank by Mr. Gage some time ago.

The directors stated that similar proceedings would be instituted against another debtor of the bank, but the name of the debtor was not disclosed.

While investigation of the institution's affairs has been in progress for some time, the exact amount that the stockholders will be called upon to make good is not determined. At a late hour Goggin was still at the police station, having been unable to secure sureties for $10,000, the amount of bail fixed in the local police court. Mr. Goggin's counsel maintains that his client has unwittingly been the victim of another to whom he was under obligation.

A 20 TO 1 SHOT.

Flo Manola Surprised the Sports at Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—A feature of the racing at Oakland was the victory of Flo Manola, a 20 to 1 shot, in the first race. She was practically overlooked in the betting and after running second to Targette most of the way defeated Targette a half length in a drive. Hagardon was a 4 to 5 favorite for the last race at seven furlongs, but tired after setting the pace and was defeated by Futurita. McGregor gained a head victory over Sea Air in the two-year-old race. Results:

First Race—Flo Manola won, Targette second, Harbor third.

Second Race—McGregor won, Sea Air second, Eduardo third.

Third Race—Lady Kent won, Searcher second, Emily Oliver third.

Fourth Race—Nantor won, Telephone second, His Eminence third.

Fifth Race—Frank Woods won, Optimo second, Bill Massie third.

Sixth Race—Futurita won, Hagerdon second, Soothsayer third.

Ocean Dream Lowered the Record.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 26.—The first and second races at Ascot furnished big surprises, Agnes Mac, at 12 to 1, taking the first and Ocyrhoe, at 6 to 1, winning the second. Lunar, the odds on favorite, failed to get in the money in the third race, Farmer Jim, 4 to 1, winning. In the fourth race Ocean Dream won handily, lowering the track record for six furlongs to 1 minute 13½ seconds. Montana Peeress won the fifth from Dolly Hayman, the 1 to 2 favorite.

American Association Baseball Meet.

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—The adoption of a new constitution was the chief result of a meeting of the owners of the American Association of Baseball Clubs. President Grillo said only 3 per cent of the gate receipts would hereafter be collected for a general fund. An assessment will be made for any deficit.

Racing at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 26.—Totness, Jake Weber and Ethel Wheat were defeated favorites. Preakness was run up to $1,200 and bought by Albert Simons. C. R. Ellison claimed Agnes Brennan. MacBeth was run up to $900 and bought in.

Varilla Wants an Apology.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—M. Bunau-Varilla, the minister from Panama, has officially advised the Washington and Panama governments that through his attorney he has demanded of the New York Evening Post a retraction and an apology for a statement which it printed regarding his connection with the Panama canal and the revolution on the isthmus. The minister announces that if a satisfactory reply is not forthcoming within a reasonable time he will begin suit.

Collision on the Burlington.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 26.—A collision between passenger trains on the Burlington north of St. Charles, Mo., is reported. Several are reported dead and many injured. A fast express train from the west was taking water at a tank eight miles north of St. Charles when a local mail train, running at full speed, dashed into the rear end. The railroad report said that two cars were derailed and several passengers hurt.

Churches Are Against Smoot.

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Jan. 26.—In every one of twenty-two churches in this city resolutions have been passed calling upon Senators Ankeny and Foster of this state to cast their votes in the senate against the seating of Senator Reed Smoot of Utah.

Car Barns Destroyed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 26.—Fire has destroyed the car barns of the Indianopolis Traction and Terminal company at McLean place; loss, $100,000. Two firemen were injured.

Record Price For Cotton.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 26.—For the first time in twenty-five years spot cotton sold at 15 cents on the floor of the Norfolk cotton exchange. The sale aggregated 531 bales.

TAFT SUCCEEDS ROOT

Late Governor of Philippines Secretary of War.

TAKES OFFICIAL CHARGE TOMORROW

Important Post of Colonial Governor Given to General Taft at Suggestion of the Retiring War Secretary.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Preparations are making at the war department for the transfer of the secretaryship from Secretary Root to Secretary Taft. The new secretary will be given a hearty welcome at the department here, where he is expected to arrive tomorrow afternoon.

Secretary Root has issued cards for a large reception Friday evening in honor of his successor. The Thursday evening preceding Senator Alger will give a reception in honor of the retiring secretary, at which Governor Taft will be present.

The fact has developed that Secretary Root himself originally selected Governor Taft for the important post of governor of the Philippines, and the reasons for the choice are interesting. Mr. Vanderbilt had purchased abroad the big steam yacht Conqueror, and when the vessel came to New York the customs officers sought to impose a heavy duty on her as an imported article. Mr. Vanderbilt retained Mr. Root to defend the case. The present secretary and Mr. Taft, then solicitor general, met in the legal arena of the United States supreme court, where Mr. Root won his case. But the argument made by the solicitor general excited his admiration, and when Secretary Root cast about for the man for the delicate and difficult post of governor of the Philippines he chose Mr. Taft.

As showing the tenacity of his opinion, it is said that one of the first acts of the new governor on taking his place at Manila was to incorporate in the new navigation laws for the islands a provision used by the preceding Spanish government based on the very principle in the contention for which he had been defeated by Secretary Root. The latter also is tenacious, for he immediately struck the proposed law out of the Philippine code.

Death an Unbidden Guest.

ANOKA, Minn., Jan. 26.—Death was an unbidden and for some time an unrecognized guest at a sleighing party which was given by a number of young merrymakers here. Among them was Lewis Ficker, a young farmer, and by his side, with her arm around him, sat the young lady he had brought. Amid the joking and singing she scarcely noticed that her companion was unusually silent. She thought he was hanging his head on his breast to avoid the cold. Even when she remarked, "How cold your hands are!" and received no reply she thought little of the fact that he did not answer. In this way the "bobsled" sped for miles to the accompaniment of tooting horns, yells and singing and laughter. At last Ficker's continued silence attracted general attention. An investigation followed, and a young doctor in the party declared that Ficker had been dead over an hour of heart failure.

A Passion Play at Boston.

BOSTON, Jan. 26. — "The Star of Bethlehem," a miracle play, reproduced from the Old English Cycles by Professor Charles Mills Gayley of the University of California, has been presented at Chickering hall for the first time on any stage by the Ben Greet English company, under the management of Charles Frohman. Founded upon some thirty old plays such as were presented in the religious houses and in the streets of England 600 years ago, Professor Gayley has written a new story of the nativity, the passion and the resurrection. The simplicity of the gospel narrative was followed largely, being woven at times into scenes of strong dramatic action.

Postal Frauds Trial Near an End.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The trial of August W. Machen, the Groff brothers and Dr. and Mrs. George E. Lorenz, indicted for conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the sale of letter box fasteners, has entered on its third week. It is expected that the government will close its case today. Testimony of the present session related almost entirely to the identification of Machen's signature and initials on certain letters and papers covering Groff fastener transactions.

Cleveland Said, "Let Him Go It."

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 26.—Former President Cleveland, when asked for his opinion on William J. Bryan's statement that no man who voted the Palmer-Buckner ticket can be nominated by the Democrats, smiled and said: "I haven't a word to say on the matter except that Bryan has got the stage. Let him go it. I guess that's definite enough."

Mrs. Roosevelt Sees "Her Own Way."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26. — Mrs. Roosevelt, accompanied by Miss Carow, Miss Hagner, Major McCawley and Mr. Wadsworth, occupied the presidential box at the new National theater and witnessed Miss Maxine Elliott's performance of Clyde Fitch's successful comedy, "Her Own Way." Both star and play scored a hit.

Grand Council at Saratoga.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Jan. 26. — The grand council of the Royal Arcanum, state of New York, has selected this place for the annual session April 26 and 27.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printers' Ink.

Now Mr. Bryan has read Mr. Olney out of the party. A list of the survivors when the Nebraskian completes his work in this line will be as exclusive as the "400."

A ministers' association in Wilkesbarre, Pa., is up in arms because a Shakespearian play was produced at a seminary controlled by the denomination. And this is the twentieth century.

Your neighbors on either side of you are not advertising. They have gone to sleep, promising to wake each other up if anything should happen. It's up to you to happen. — Benjamin F. Briggs.

The fact that according to Commissioner Yerkes, 6,787,554,891 cigars were smoked in the United States in 1903 shows that money often disappears between a whiff and a puff.—Passaic Daily News.

And it also shows where all the cabbage has gone.

This is an extract from an editorial roast on Charles Arthur Reed served by the Newark Evening News:

"He is not likely to be given a chance to monkey with Union County politics so long as the memory of his repudiation in Somerset is fresh in the public mind. Neither Senator Kean nor Congressman Fowler has any use for 'dead ones' at this stage of the political game."

We do not profess to know how Union County would receive the former Senator, but we do know that there is no question about his popularity in this city not only among Republican politicians but among the general public. As for his being a dead one in Somerset, the election returns of late years show that he and his friend Smalley, are very much alive.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Children's Home, 146 Jackson avenue, corner Westervelt. Mrs. Sarah A. Hendrickson, matron. Take Somerset street car to Jackson avenue and walk east two blocks. tf

—The Y. M. C. A. orchestra will hold its twelfth concert next Monday, February 1, in the large hall of the association building. Tickets may be obtained at the drug stores.

—The thirty-sixth annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association will be held in National Rifles Armory Hall, Washington, D. C., February 11 to 17 inclusive.

—The New Jersey Central is making extensive improvements at Phillipsburg, including the demolition of the old roundhouse. On this site a locomotive coaling house will be erected, it is said.

—Joseph Graham, formerly chief engineer, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, has accepted a similar position with the Erie Railroad and has assumed his new duties. He will have charge of the engineering work for the entire system.

—An excellent picture of Benjamin S. Moore, known as "Uncle Ben," appears in the last issue of the Railroad Employe. He has been a locomotive engineer on the New Jersey Central for fifty-three years and is considered the oldest engineer in active service in the United States. He entered the employ of the New Jersey Central on March 20, 1849 and on March 20 next he will celebrate the fifty-fifth anniversary in this connection.

Miss Ethel Jamison, of Basking Ridge, has been the guest of Plainfield friends for a short time.

There will be a special meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society, of the First Baptist church, Friday night at 8 o'clock, primarily to discuss a proposed change in the day of meeting. The reports of committees will be received.

The Rev. Bertrand L. Conway, of the Paulist Fathers, in New York, has given warning to all Roman Catholics that henceforth they must not attend Christian Science meetings nor submit to the treatment of Christian Science healers. He denounces Mrs. Eddy as a false prophet and challenged her followers to bring forward one authentic case in which the mind of a healer has set a broken limb or effected the cure of any organic disease.

POTATO CONTEST.

Lively Competition for the Largest Specimen at Hill & Shupp's.

The potato contest which has been attracting considerable attention at Hill & Shupp's dry goods store will close on Friday and the winners of the various prizes will be announced at that time. For several weeks many persons have been bringing large potatoes to the store in an effort to win either $5, $3 or $2, the three prizes offered for potatoes grown in this vicinity. Contributions of this sort have been received from farmers in this city and vicinity, including South Bound Brook, Oak Tree and Scotch Plains. About thirty-five potatoes have been received, some of them being of an unusual size.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

A meeting of those interested in baseball will hold a meeting this evening to arrange for a series of dances which will be held during the spring months, in order to provide the necessary funds for supporting a strong team. The outlook at present is that the borough will be represented by even a stronger team than that of last season.

The employes of Levering & Garrigues' Iron Works have been notified that a ten per cent. cut in wages will go into effect on the 27th. This is caused by the great slack in the steel business which was caused by the labor strikes last summer and fall.

The local organization of Foresters held its regular bi-monthly meeting in Apgar's Hall last evening. Hugh Birch and William Haze were initiated into the order and three more applications for membership were received.

A gang of men have been stationed at the water troughs at Greenbrook in order to keep the tracks free of ice. The trains flood the tracks while scooping water which soon freezes and makes it dangerous.

Both political parties in the borough have begun to look around for candidates for the coming election to fill the places of the retiring councilmen. Mass meetings will be held early next month.

The Literary Circle met last evening at the home of Mrs. George Schenck. A programme was presented consisting of original poems and compositions. Refreshments were served.

The Holy Name Society, of St. John's church, held a meeting in its rooms last evening, and decided to hold the proposed sociable on the evening of Feb. 10.

A party of young people from the borough attended a reception at Columbia Hall, New Brunswick, last evening.

Thomas Costello has taken a position with the bridge gang on the Central Railroad.

Miss Margaret Whykoff is visiting with her uncle, Mayor Whykoff, this week.

Mrs. Charles Dinneen and daughters, are visiting relatives in Brooklyn.

Mrs. William Whykoff is confined to the house with an attack of the grip.

Hugh Birch has returned from a visit with Paterson relatives.

Mrs. Catherine Meyer is suffering from an attack of pleurisy.

Mrs. Douglas has recovered from her recent indisposition.

Miss May Wahl is entertaining relatives from Stony Hill.

NEW MARKET.

Gladys Penrose won the prize for the handsomest baby in town, given by Mr. Waldron, the glass blower, at Friendship Hall on Saturday night. Other prizes were awarded to William D. Nichols, as the homeliest man; Clarence Sofield, as the laziest man, and Joseph Waglow, as the greatest dude.

A large meat truck from New Brunswick broke an axle near the schoolhouse last evening. A temporary pair of wheels were obtained and the wagon was driven to Plainfield.

A dance will be given in Friendship Hall on Thursday evening, under the auspices of the New Market band.

GOT A COLD?

This weather is apt to produce it.

If you have the grippe, neuralgia, rheumatism, or the like—the next thing is to get rid of it.

Randolph's Gold and Grippe Tablets

will cure you in 24 hours.

They act quickly—leave no bad after effect—and are preferable to quinine.

Won't you try a box? Only cost you a quarter, you know.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
The City Pharmacy,
143 West Front Street, Plainfield.

The Euchre Club will meet at the home of Miss Marjorie Burke on Thursday evening.

Charles Titsworth, of Scranton, Pa., has been visiting his parents on Prospect avenue.

Mrs. Henry Pierce is on the sick list this week.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The baseball lovers will be pleased to learn that George H. Johnson, who has managed the ball team since its organization three years ago, has consented to take partical charge of the team during the coming season. Owing to other business, Mr. Johnston felt unable to take the management this year. Edward L. Hand was elected manager and will have full charge of arranging the season's schedule while Mr. Johnston has consented to take care of the signing of players and getting the team ready. This divides the work, and with these men like Johnston, Hand and Haskard, at the head of the club, the lovers of the game are assured of a fast club and clean baseball.

Grand Regent Washburn and staff will be the guests tonight of Fanwood Council, R. A. Regent Ruth desires a full attendance of members. During the good of the order the entertainment committee will have charge, and a social will be enjoyed while coffee, sandwiches and cigars are served.

The baseball club could add a little money to the treasury of the club by hiring the baseball diamond out for a time, as a skating pond. The thaw of Friday and Saturday left the infield a minature lake. This has frozen and the children are enjoying good skating on it for several days past.

The home of J. H. Thompson in the borough, is under quarantine, owing to one of the children being ill with a light attack of diphtheria.

Augustus Sheelen, of the borough, is able to be around again after an illness of several days, which has detained him at home.

Charles Reick, who has been spending a few days with his father, John Reick, returned to his home in New York, Monday.

Burnett H. Shepard, of Brooklyn, N. Y., has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shepard, of "The Gables."

Alexander Archibold, of Westfield, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Archibold, of Washington Valley.

Mrs. James Buckley, who has been spending two weeks with friends in Plainfield, has returned home.

Rev. G. M. Shott spent Monday with friends in New York.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

William B. Manning, who has been confined to his house by illness during the winter, remains in a fairly comfortable condition.

Mrs. C. H. Smith recently received severe bruises by a fall from her door steps.

Elmer Teeple has returned to work after three days of illness.

Elwood Johnson is ill with chicken pox.

I. P. RUNYON WON THE CASE

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF IN SUIT ON NOTE AGAINST THE DEFENDANTS.

The jury in the case of John V. Boyd, of Trenton, against Seaman Williams and Charles W. Overbaugh, also of this city, to recover $2,500 with interest due on a note, yesterday rendered a verdict for $2,680.83, in less than an hour after a days' trial had been concluded. Isaac P. Runyon, Esq., represented the plaintiff, and Robert M. Clark, Jr., Esq., and Reed & Coddington the defendants.

The facts on which the case is based are that Williams bought shares in the Charles Overbaugh company to the value of $2,500, for which he gave a note to John V. Boyd, secretary-treasurer of the company. Mr. Boyd got the note discounted, but when it fell due it was not paid, and suit was brought. The defense claimed that the company falsely represented to Mr. Williams and that at the time he bought the stock the company was insolvent, and also under the by-laws the transaction was a fraudulent on §

An interesting point raised was whether a patent could be legally considered as an asset. Robert M. Clark representing the defendant, argued that inability of a corporation to pay its debts should be considered a state of insolvency and that a patent could not be generally considered an asset.

The Overbaugh company was incorporated in this county with the object of manufacturing non-refillable bottles, but never got beyond the making of a few sample bottles.

In order to begin operations it was necessary to float $25,000 worth of treasury stock, and this was never accomplished.

Miss Grace Gaddis, of Regent street, has recovered from an illness which detained her at home for a week.

Special trains will be run from several of the prominent towns to carry the four thousand members, and, besides the State officers who will be present and make addresses, it is expected that Senator E. C Stokes and United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge will speak Mr. Cleveland has been asked to make an address on the subject "America's Past and Future."

FRITZ CASE.

Family of Brutal Man Leaves Town and He Will be Given Another Trial.

Adam Fritz, brutal wife beater and exponent of profane hot air, will be arraigned before the borough recorder tomorrow night to be given an opportunity of paying his $20 fine or of serving more time in the borough cooler.

His family has decided to leave him to himself and this morning their household effects were packed in boxes and were shipped to some distant place on the Central Railroad of New Jersey far from a brutal husband and father.

Second Accident.

Clifford Emery, son of Watson Emery, formerly of this city, who has been confined in one of the Newark hospitals for almost nine months, suffering from blood poisoning of the leg, was discharged on Monday. Yesterday afternoon, while crossing a lot, he tripped on a flight of stairs and broke his leg and sprained his hip and has again been sent back to the hospital.

LAST FOUR DAYS

OF THE

Pre-Inventory Sale

Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday

THESE DAYS will be full of interest to the careful shopper. Rather than take in stock much of the merchandise, we are going to offer it to you at a great sacrifice in price. This is NOT one of the usual "fake" "Sacrifice Sales," but is a positive saving of from 25c to 50c on the dollar. Such opportunities as these occur only before Inventory, so you will have to wait until next January if you do not take advantage of this one. Remember, just three days.

Potato Contest.

For the benefit of a few of our customers who requested a longer time, we will hold the contest open until January 28th, which is the last day of the Inventory Sale.

Potatoes will be on exhibition January 26, 27, 28, 29, 30.

THE ISLAND OF GUAM

Some Information About Our Little Pacific Possession

In a Report to the War Department Gen. Wheeler Describes Its Peculiarities and Resources.

While Old Glory has floated from the flagstaff of Guam since 1898 the people of this country have received but scant information regarding this little island possession for the reason that but little was known. Guam, however, is not without interest and this fact is impressed upon us by a study of the report of Gen. Joseph W. Wheeler, recently made to the war department, in which he gives much interesting information about the island, together with the first accurate map of it ever published in this country, the work of government surveyors. The map is reproduced with this article. We will give in a terse way some of the information which this report contains:

In a rough way the island may be said to resemble in form the sole of a shoe. It is only 29 miles long and from three to ten miles wide, with an area of about 150 square miles, or seven times as large as Manhattan Island.

It is the most southern of the chain of the Ladrone or Marianne islands, which stretches 420 miles north and south. All the other islands belong to Germany, but they are very small, and Guam is the largest and most important of the group. It is four days' steaming to the east of the Philippines.

We observe on the map great paucity of information about the interior of the island. The reason is that the jungle which covers it is so dense that not even the natives have penetrated far into it, except in two or three places where paths extend from coast to coast.

The low mountain called St. Rosa peak in the north is easily reached, and a fine view of the northern third of the island is obtained from its summit. Everybody lives along the coasts, and most of the population along the west coast. The natives have cleared away a narrow strip of the jungle bordering the sea for their plantations.

As vessels approach the highland from the south or west a chain of low mountains scarcely over 1,000 feet high is seen stretching along the southwest and south coasts some ten or 12 miles in the interior. Covered with verdure to the tops, they give a pleasing and picturesque aspect to the island. But none of the mountains has been ascended except St. Rosa Peak.

Guam has some peculiarities. The northern half of it consists almost wholly of coral rock, which is very porous, so that the rain sinks immediately into it and makes its way by underground channels to the sea, so that there are no springs or rivers in the northern part of the island.

Near the middle in the neighborhood of Agana, the capital, is a large spring that yields a copious supply of water. It oozes through a swamp and finds its way into the sea by means of a river which has been artificially lengthened and turned for a mile parallel to the coast for the convenience of the natives.

This is one of the reasons why two-thirds of the population is centered at Agana. The southern part of Guam has a number of streams, some of which lose themselves beneath the surface for a time and then reappear from caverns.

Another peculiarity of Guam is that nearly all the inhabitants, though farmers, live in the towns and go out to their ranchos to raise their crops. Some of them have rude houses on their ranchos, where their families spend part of the time.

Nearly the entire population of about 9,000 distributed among six towns, Agana containing 6,400 inhabitants; Sumai, 900; Ynarajan, 550; Agate, 400; Merizo, 300, and Umata, 200. A number of hamlets, each containing a few huts, are distributed along the shores.

Both the Spanish and the natives regarded plenty of good water as more necessary than good harbors. So it happens that Agana, the metropolis of the island, has achieved its preeminence by reason of its abundant water supply, although there is only a roadstead in front of it with unsafe anchorage.

San Luis d'Apra is the largest harbor of the island, with a number of little towns along its extensive shores. Port Tarafofo, on the southeast coast, is the only harbor next to San Luis, which will receive vessels at all seasons of the year. Port Ynarajan and Agfayan bay have also good anchorage and are of some importance in the copra trade.

A LETTER TO GIRLS.

Concerning Self Respecting Old Maids and Very Young Ladies.

My Dear Girls—Not long ago a woman crowded up and made room for me in a street car already so packed that it seemed impossible to seat another person. I thanked her with sincere appreciation, for the ride was long. Then began an acquaintance. I found the lady was employed in a business house, that she was superintendent of a department and received $20 a week. It was her business to direct the labors of about fifty girls and to see that none of them slighted a task. She was Miss Norcross, aged thirty-five.

The girls in the establishment were fifteen to nineteen years old. They received from $4 to $6 a week for their work. Girl-like, those who lived at home spent every cent of this money on clothes, enormous flapping hats, huge muffs, shiny dingle dangles and cheap brooches and pins of various kinds. They liked to go to dances, which was well enough, but they frequently danced nearly all night and came to work next day late and stupid and sleepy, so that they did their tasks laggingly and made mistakes. Miss Norcross was obliged to call them to account, therefore they disliked her, "made fun" of her behind her back—and to her face so far as they dared. They called her "Old Maid" and even "Crossbones," sometimes "Old Maid Crossbones," and she heard them once or twice. They giggled, perpetually giggled, after the way of thoughtless young girls. They considered that the most dreadful thing in this life was to be a single woman. Of course they expected to be married, every one of them, and "get out of work," not knowing in their awful ignorance that the lot of a poor man's wife who is as crude and untrained as they were is nearly always ten times harder than that of the old maid who is earning a comfortable income.

Expecting to marry, these girls adorned themselves in gewgaws and kept their weather eye out morning and evening to catch the men who were to release them from work, as they foolishly imagined. They were not always very tidy as to their skin and clothing—in truth, they sometimes hurried to work in the morning with tangled, tumbled hair, but they always wore upon it the huge flapping hat with feathers—of that you may be sure—and they always and everlastingly giggled.

Now, for better or for worse, it is quite natural for a girl to look forward to marriage. It is also natural, if not wise, for her to try to attract men, if she wants a husband. But, girls, answer me this: Do you think it is either gentle, good tempered, womanly or polite to "make fun" of a woman only because she is an old maid? One likes to think of girls as sweet, bright creatures whose minds are occupied with pleasant, kindly thoughts, whose manners are always courteous.

Besides, was the lot of the married women they knew so delightful and enviable that the girls I speak of were justified in jeering at Miss Norcross because she was single? The women they knew had been mostly working girls like themselves. They, too, had worn exaggerated hats and squeezed themselves nearly in two at the waists and danced away two or three years of young life in a sort of dream. They waked up when they found themselves fast married and tied, with a string of children hanging to them and not always money enough to buy shoes all round. Sometimes even they had drunken husbands. They "lost heart" then, as weak, ignorant women call it, and did not care how they looked any more. They became bad tempered slatterns. They, too, in their youth "made fun" of old maids. Now they envy the neat and tidy single woman who respects herself and is getting on well in the world.

Is there any reason to expect that the fate of the girls who jeered at Miss Norcross will be any different from that of the girls who went before them?

Miss Norcross had to take care of a sickly mother. She began it when she was sixteen and kept it up till her mother died. She had no time to go to balls, and her money had to be spent on the housekeeping. Meantime she mastered perfectly the business she was engaged in and was promoted to her present place. She has now considerable money in bank. But many a time her heart has been made bitter because of the rude and ignorant girls.

The time is quite likely to come when, instead of making fun of old maids, they will envy these with all their souls.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark.
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

THE NEW WOMAN

She Works, Waits and Hopes

A LADY of whom I know is noted among her acquaintances for being a terrific talker. Not one moment of her waking hours is that clacking tongue still. It is certain that she talks to herself when she is alone, for she has been overheard many a time. It is also probable that she talks in her sleep. Well, this lady went for a day's journey with another woman. When she returned she assured her family she had had "not a bit good time" because the other woman had talked her nearly to death. She did not get a chance to put a word in edgeways, she said, and she was just worn out with that incessant gab. Whereupon the family smiled, and one niece slid off by herself in a corner and roared. "The idea of anything but a phonograph being able to talk Aunt Harriet down!" said she. And, speaking of incessant gabblers, did it ever occur to you that many persons employ quite four times as much talk as is really required to express themselves and to impress themselves on others? The great talker is invariably a shallow, flighty person. Her memory is poor. She forgets what she ought to remember, she gets tangled in her statements, and no wonder. She does not still her tongue long enough to digest any thought in her mind or to wholly take in any fact. Wherever she sees two or more people together, or hears others talking, up she comes, pushes herself in and shoots off her opinions, right or wrong. The silent person is the one that wins. She conserves her thought and manifests a fine, dignified reserve concerning the private affairs of herself and others. She does not waste her nerve substance in vocal froth. When she does open her mouth to speak, two words of hers are more effective than half a day's gabble of the talking woman.

Women are in general far too biddable. Let each develop for herself thinking power and will and be an individual. I sometimes doubt whether a woman who never thinks, reasons or wills for herself, but is the mere echo of others, has any immortal soul.

Professor Margaret E. Maltby is so learned that she is professor of physics in Columbia university, New York. Yet women students are not allowed in her classes; only men. The girl students must stick to the instructors appointed for them in Barnard college, the women's annex of the university. The superstitions of the sex question cause mankind to cut strange capers.

A lady I know has started a club of one. It is the Speak No Evil club; its object, to say no word condemnatory of any human being. When she says anything at all of an acquaintance it is something favorable. She looks for the good in everybody and always finds it, on the principle that we find what we look for. You have no idea how popular this woman is.

It is selfish to dress always in forlorn, terrible black. Those who do it forget about its depressing effect on the nerves and spirits of others, especially those who live in the same house with them. Even in mourning apparel it is possible to lighten up the melancholy, dreary effect by touches of white here and there. Dead black garments constantly worn inevitably lower both the mental and physical tone not only of the wearers themselves, but of those who daily see them. They may not know it, but the fact is undeniable. There is enough of gloom in this life that we cannot get away from without gratuitously adding to it.

Sometimes a woman has a little bit of an income, enough to half feed and clothe herself on. All over this land, even in Alaska and in Canada, are openings for such women to earn a generous living and something more. They are in the country, and they are to be found in the vast undeveloped industrial fields of farming, fruit and flower culture, bee keeping, chicken raising and dairying. Too much can hardly be said in this direction. The population of the Union is increasing so fast that home production will soon be unable to keep up with home consumption. There are country towns where eggs are 30 cents a dozen this minute, and the supply is short.

The present is a time of outrageous overdressing among women. Never since the American nation began have its women been so extravagant in their costuming. It is mostly the tradespeople and the men dressmakers who have forced this era of extravagance. There will have to come a reaction from it back to the simplicity of good taste.

It is said that a French architect has devised a revolving house, one that may be swung around like a railway engine upon its turntable. The house is made to follow the sun, which thus shines in every room in the mansion in succession every day. That's the kind of house I want.

* *

London fashionable society has the reputation of having in its ranks one lady, the Countess of Shaftesbury, who is absolutely truthful. She is so sincere she will not even tell white lies. The countess visited America during the past summer. Telling the exact truth seems to be something so rare that her habit of sincerity has made the countess celebrated.

ELIZA ARCHARD CONNER.

EQUAL TO OCCASION.

Ruse of a Young Husband Who Was Not Afraid of His Matrimonial Achievement.

After the last old shoe had fallen on top of their carriage the bride looked up tenderly into the proud young man's eyes and said:

"I feel awfully nervous and silly.

"It will be so horrid to have everybody staring at us and whispering that we are just married.

"Let's act as if we had been married a long, long time, so they won't suspect."

"But I'm proud of it," he said, slipping an arm around her and drawing her lovingly close to him.

"I'd like to stand on a housetop somewhere, darling, and shout so that all the world could hear it that you are mine—

HAD A SHORT CONFERENCE.

my very own—my sweet, adorable, beautiful, superb wife. It won't do any good to try to mislead them.

"They'll all know it the minute they see us. I couldn't keep from looking happy, no matter how hard I tried. But leave it to me. I'll fix it so they won't stare at us or whisper about us."

After the train had started Arthur looked up the conductor and had a short conference with him.

Then the proud groom returned to his wife, and the official, standing at one end of the car, said, waving a hand toward the happy couple:

"Ladies and Gentlemen: I am requested to announce that they have just been married.

"They are anxious to have it understood that they are not at all ashamed of themselves, and they don't propose to pretend that they are old stagers. I thank you, one and all, for your kind attention."

Then, says the St. Louis Republic, their fellow travelers all stepped forward and congratulated them.

EXCITING FOX HUNT.

Begins in Pennsylvania Woods and Ends in Dining Room of the Town Coal Dealer.

A fox hunt which began on the grounds of the Upland Fox Hunting club's fields, then coursed through the streets and ended in the dining-room of a private house, where Reynard was captured, gave the quiet town of Upland, Pa., an exciting turn the other day.

Hounds belonging to Edward Crozer had started a large red fox, which, instead of taking to the woods, dashed into town. The clatter of horses' hoofs, the blare of the huntsmen's bugle and the barking of the dogs in mad pursuit brought the populace on the streets. A hue and cry was raised. "Catch the fox! Catch the fox! There he goes!"

And hundreds of men and boys augmented the ranks of the red-coated

huntsmen. Up and down the streets, in and out of alleys, round lamp-posts, over doorsteps came the crowd at Reynard's heels.

A man placing coal in the cellar of a house saw a red streak whiz before him, pass into the coal hole at his feet and disappear in the cellar. It was the fox.

Tongues hanging out, the dogs leaped to the hole.

Bang, the coal man shut the window on the hounds and the crowd and leaped into the cellar. Up the steps into the dining-room he chased the fox, while the eager huntsmen and more eager dogs waited without.

The fox, cornered in the house, was captured and returned safely to the club for the next hunt.

But the dogs and the boys went away disappointed.

Deaths from Apoplexy.

Only 12 per cent. of the deaths from apoplexy, softening of the brain and paralysis occur under 45 years, 33 per cent. occur between 45 and 60, 55 per cent. occur above 60.

Average Size of Farms.

There are nearly 6,000,000 farms in the United States, the average size being 140 acres.

THE New York Times

"All the News That's Fit to Print."

Gives more space to news than any other New York newspaper. It prints a greater variety of news. It gives impartial news free from bias. It goes into homes that bar other newspapers. It is a sane newspaper, neat in typography, rational in its news treatment, and independent in its opinions. It has refused to appeal to the vicious, the ignorant or the thoughtless.

Special Cable News is one of the most important features of THE NEW YORK TIMES. The London Times' foreign reports appear in this country exclusively in THE NEW YORK TIMES. No other American newspaper excels THE NEW YORK TIMES in the presentation of Domestic Telegraphic news. The Associated Press reports are augmented by hundreds of Special Correspondents.

The New York Times

is now appearing every Sunday

Improved and Enlarged

A departure of the Magazine Supplement which accompanies each number of the Sunday Edition of THE NEW YORK TIMES is the introduction of Cartoons and Illustrations. The many bright, breezy, entertaining articles are brightened by illustrations from the pens of well-known artists.

New features will be constantly introduced to improve the Magazine, but the old friend, THE MAN IN THE STREET, will remain to amuse people with his bright, chatty and clever stories of men and women who figure prominently in the news and events of the day.

The News Section of The Sunday Edition of

will be as interesting as it always is—readers of the SUNDAY TIMES may depend on getting "all the news that's fit to print" promptly, accurately and well told.

The Financial Quotation Supplement which accompanies the SUNDAY EDITION of THE NEW YORK TIMES covers all transactions in Stocks, Bonds and Investment securities—both listed and unlisted. It includes capitalization of corporations—dividends—date and rate, the fluctuations in quotations for the closing week—high and low price for both the current year and the year preceding, and other information indispensable to either investor or speculator to aid him in solving financial problems. The Quotation Supplement is kept on file by all banks and financial institutions for daily references.

The New York Times

Saturday Review of Books

Which accompanies the Saturday Edition, treats books as news. The book publishers of the country have made THE NEW YORK TIMES SATURDAY REVIEW OF BOOKS their preferred medium for announcements of new publications.

THE PEACOCK'S TAIL

It Is Not What Most People Suppose It to Be.

The Tail Is Confounded with the Train of the Bird—An Inexcusable Blunder on the Part of Many.

If a ballot were to be taken for the purpose of determining which was the most beautiful of the birds, the peacock would undoubtedly hold one of the highest places on the list. But this fame has brought with it a rather unenviable reputation for vanity, resting, it must be admitted, on a good foundation. Thus it is that, whether serving as the butt of the moralist, or a subject for the artist or the taxidermist, this poor bird has been made to suffer more misrepresentation than ordinarily falls to the lot of either bird or mortal. Whilst, to make matters harder, the work of these detractors not seldom appears to receive the sanction of the man of science!

The misrepresentation we complain of rests on a misunderstanding. It is popularly supposed that the magnificent train of the peacock is really its tail, and on this account it is almost invariably, when represented in the familiar expanded form, placed where the tail ought to be—at the end of the body. This mistake would be pardonable if made concerning some rare bird known only from "skins;" but in view of the fact that the peacock is one of our common domesticated birds, it is altogether inexcusable. But a very little observation would show that the "tail" of this bird is a quite ordinary kind of tail; at all times concealed from view, save when the bird is moved to make that wondrous display which has been the witness against so many of their inability to interpret what they see. At this time, if the observer will but observe, he will find that the "tail" is used as a support to the train, as may be seen in our illustration.

These tail feathers have their bases covered above and below by certain long stiff feathers known as the tail coverts, and it is the coverts of the upper surface which, by their excessive development, have given rise to the train which we are now discussing. The number of feathers comprising the train, however, is far in excess of the number of the tail quills, and it would seem that their number has been increased by drawing upon the back feathers. In consequence, then, of the character of this train, it is obvious that when erected it cannot occupy the position which is assigned to it in pictures or stuffed specimens—at the end of the body, as though it corresponded to the tail of the fan-tailed pigeon. On the contrary, if we turn to the living bird we shall find that the whole of the feathers of the back are involved in the formation of this gorgeous fan. The small, highly colored metallic and sharply-defined feathers of the upper back are raised to form an oval centerpiece and background for the head; whilst the long feathers of the tail proper rise up so as to stand almost vertically beyond the middle of the back—that is to say, so that they entirely conceal the wings when the display is viewed from the front.

The wonderful symmetry displayed in the arrangement of the "eye spots" is a point specially worthy of attention. No less remarkable is the fashion in which the bottom of the train is finished off. It will be noticed that it may be traced from the level of the breast on either side, outwards and downwards, till finally lost at the outer angle of the fan. If the shafts of the feathers of the whole train be examined, it will be found that they appear to radiate from the oval centerpiece to which we have previously drawn attention. In the stuffed bird, as in pictures, all this symmetry is conspicuous by its absence. Herein the central shield is made to lie horizontally, whilst the lower edge of the fan is made to descend from the top of the back immediately behind the displaced shield. Thus the whole of the body and wings stand out in front of the fan; whilst, as may be seen in the accompanying photographs, only the head and neck are visible from this point of view. The display as represented by the artist and the taxidermist, is a physical impossibility.

SPORTING NEWS.

BASKET BALL.

Now that the Business Men's team of the Y. M. C. A. has defeated the first Y. M. C. A. fives of Passaic and New Brunswick, they are desirous of a try-out with the first team of the local association. The two Plainfield teams met early in the season and the first team won easily. The Business Men have developed their team and individual play considerably since then, however, and a victory for the first team, under present conditions, would not by any means be a foregone conclusion. The first team has played New Brunswick twice, winning and losing. The first game at New Brunswick, December 7, was a 9 to 7 defeat for Plainfield and the second one played here January 11, Plainfield won 27 to 11. The Business Men defeated the same five, last night, 30 to 17.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

The Plainfield-Newark Y. M. C. A. basket ball game at Newark, Saturday, February 6, will be a part in a "grand exhibition of gymnastics, athletics and basket ball" to be given by the Newark Y. M. C. A. The star gymnastic performers will be four members of the Newark association, J. Blesinger, on the horisontal bars; O. Steffens, on the parallel bars; R. Ewry, in the running high jump and high kick; and P. Kempf, on the flying rings.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The Y. M. C. A. bowling team will be accompanied on its trip to Summit tomorrow night to play their second match in the Y. M. C. A. league, by a large crowd of supporters who, with the team, will take advantage of the opportunity for a straw ride.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Plainfield Athletic Association will organize for the coming season next week. Bert Trotter has been engaged for some time in making dates for games during the summer.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Hon. William Jennings Bryan will speak in Madison Square Garden tonight on the "Moral Issue."

Assemblyman Roberts, of Camden county, will make another effort to secure the enactment of a law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to minors.

H. L. McGee, of Orchard avenue, entertained friends over Sunday.

Why Pay Rent!

It's far better to own a home of your own. Perhaps you'll say: "I can't afford to buy a house at present."

We'll answer that question by saying that we believe you CAN afford to purchase the splendid twelve-room house—all modern improvements—excellent location, etc—that we offer. It's a phenomenal bargain.

It would please us to have you know more about it. Ask us.

PERSONAL.

Constable Isaac Bunn, of Rahway, who suffered a stroke of paralysis on Sunday, died this morning.

Charles VanMiddlesworth, of Brooklyn, who has been visiting relatives in Plainfield, has returned home.

Thomas Wickoff, of New York city, who has been ill at the home of his father on Richmond street, has recovered.

Miss Edna P. Williams, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting Plainfield friends for some time, returned home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baker have returned from their honeymoon and are now living at Mr. Baker's home in Somerset street.

The condition of Clarence Anthony, the barber, who is in Muhlenberg Hospital suffering with a cancer in the stomach, is critical.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierrepont Beers Foster and the Misses Bowen, of Watchung avenue, left this morning for a ten days' visit at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Patrick, of West Point, is expected to come to Plainfield this week to spend some days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin I. Cooley, of Rockview avenue.

Harry Wikoff, formerly of Sandford avenue, now of Roselle, is spending a few days in town. He is slowly recovering from injuries sustained several months ago while playing football.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierrepont Foster, of New Haven, who have been the guests of Mrs. Foster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Bowen, of Watchung avenue, left yesterday for Washington, D. C.

Edward Varrey, of North Plainfield, who has one of the important parts in Ada Rehan's company, now playing at the Lyric Theatre, New York, spent Sunday at his home in Washington Valley.

Mrs. Charles L. Brownell, of Elmwood place, who recently underwent an operation at Muhlenberg Hospital, is reported as being convalescent. A complication following the operation was the cause for some anxiety, but hopes are brighter now for recovery.

LECTURE ON LENSES.

Camer Club Listens to Address by John L. Yatman.

Lenses and their manufacture was the subject of an interesting lecture by John L. Yatman before the Camera Club last night, in their gallery in the Babcock building. Many of the club members and friends were present and took a great interest in the lucid descriptions of the camera glasses. An interesting discussion followed. The speaker presented the club with a fine large photograph, 11x14 inches, of President Roosevelt and his family. J. Hervey Doane, vice president of the club, was the chairman of the entertainment committee.

Messenger Quits.

Postmaster Bird announced this morning that he had been notified that Israel Stites, who had been awarded the contract for carrying U. S. mail between the postoffice and the North Avenue station, would be unable to fulfill the contract. Mr. Stites said his withdrawal is due to the fact that he is suffering from an attack of lumbago.

Committed for Non-Payment.

Collector Crane, of Fanwood, has had Jacob Deckart, of that place, committed to the county jail for non-payment of taxes amounting to $174. Deckart was taken to the jail this morning.

EDWARD VARREY AT LYRIC

WASHINGTON VALLEY MAN WITH ADA REHAN AND OTIS SKINNER.

More than ordinary interest has been aroused among lovers of the stage in the return to New York of Miss Ada Rehan, who is now playing a short engagement at the Lyric Theatre. Last week, "The Taming Shrew" was given, and this week "The School for Scandal" is being presented. The third and last week will be devoted to "The Merchant of Venice." Aside from the fact that Miss Rehan has many admirers even among Plainfield people, there is another reason for a distinct local interest in the fact that Edward Phillips, whose home is near Plainfield, has one of the leading parts with Miss Rehan and Otis Skinner in their various productions. Edward Varrey, that being his stage name, is an actor of exceptional ability, and wherever he has appeared his work has attracted the most favorable comment.

For a long time Mr. Varrey was with Joseph Jefferson in his well-known play of "Rip VanWinkle," and in that production he won distinction and fame for his great work. It is not often that Plainfielders have an opportunity of seeing Mr. Varrey or Miss Rehan and the present engagement at the Lyric Theatre will no doubt be an occasion for the visit of a host from this city to witness these performances.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

J. W. Higgins, who has been the local delegate to the Bricklayers and Masons' convention in Trenton, which has been in session for a week, has returned.

Report has it that the Pond Machine Tool Works intends to resume work on full time on March 1. More men are being taken on every week and the night and day gang have a number of orders which they are rushing.

Trolley Signal.

For the purpose of still further increasing the efficiency of the trolley service in this city, the Public Service Corporation has caused to be installed on West Front street, nearly opposite Somerset, a signal box, making it possible for the officials on duty at the Watchung avenue station to know exactly where a car is and this device will do away with confusion heretofore existing between Front and Somerset streets and the trolley stand on Watchung avenue. The signal was put in position lass night.

Society Minstrels.

Two novel minstrel performances by society men will be given at the Casino, Wednesday and Thursday nights, April 6 and 7.

PATIENTS SLEEP OUTDOORS

MISS MAMIE LEAHY, OF THIS CITY, AMONG COLONY AT SARANAC LAKE.

Miss Mamie Leahy, of 820 Richmond street, is one of the most persistent of the village colony of tuberculosis patients who are sleeping outdoors at Saranac Lake, N. Y., this winter. Her bed is arranged on a veranda, one side of which is inclosed by a glass partition. She is well protected in that way from the severe snow storms, which are plentiful there. Miss Leahy has not slept indoors a night since last September.

This winter will go on record as one of the coldest ever experienced in the Adirondacks. The cold has been continuous since early in December, and the thermometer has for days at a time held close to the zero mark. Five mornings of the winter, official figures show, it dropped way below zero. It touched 46 degrees below on January 5.

Not one case is recorded at the sanitarium of the cold driving in a patient who has been sleeping out this winter, and this is also true in the village.

The New Senate Chamber.

The Senators and the people may become accustomed to the little cubby hole, but it seems probable that an early effort will be made to tear down the Senate wing in order to provide a meeting room for the Senate.—Jersey City Journal.

IMPORTANT MEASURES IN THE LEGISLATURE

Bill Giving Boroughs, of More Than 2,500 Population, Control of Liquor Licenses.

DOLLAR GAS DEMANDED

PROPOSED LAW TO COMPEL USE OF ASBESTOS CURTAINS IN HALLS.

State Board to Examine and License Barbers—Time Fixed in One Measure for Municipal Department Reports—Other Interesting Bills.

A batch of bills was submitted by Assemblyman McGlennon in the House Monday night, among them being one which gives boroughs of more than 2,500 inhabitants control over liquor licenses. Another was his measure abolishing the election of fire chiefs in boroughs, and a third gives boroughs of 2,500 or more population one member in the Board of Freeholders.

Among Assemblyman Duff's measures was a dollar gas bill, and his measures to compell all wires to be put underground.

Mr. Taylor introduced a measure requiring all departments of first-class cities to submit reports within ninety days after the first of each year, the Common Council or Board of Finance of such city to have charge of the printing of such reports.

Mr. Lehlbach, of Essex, introduced his bill for a State board to examine and license barbers, the board to consist of a boss barber, a journeyman barber and a physician of "good standing."

Mr. Ernst, of Hudson, one of the youngest men in the House, got in an echo of the Chicago theatre horror in the shape of a bill making it a misdemeanor to use any other than an asbestos curtain in any public hall, theatre or assembly-room, or to permit any camp stools, or chairs, or other obstructions, to be placed in the aisles in any place where any lecture, performance, entertainment or sermon is being delivered or presented.

PRAYED FOR MRS. BECHTEL

MRS. O'BRIEN HAS MISUNDERSTANDING WITH JOHN GOODWIN.

Mrs. Lou O'Brien, the evangelist, approves of the acquittal of Mrs. Bechtel of the charge of the murder of her daughter, Mabel Bechtel. She said so Monday night. She announced that she was rejoiced to find that her prayers for the acquittal were granted and said that if Judge Trexler had not been animated with a Christian spirit, Mrs. Bechtel could not have been proved innocent.

Mrs. O'Brien, as previously announced, has severed all connection with a mission on Grove street and established a home for fallen women in the Lindsay house on West Front street. This she has named the Celia Home for the child of one of her coworker. Her meetings have been attended each night by big crowds which have frequently been not sufficiently sparing of their enthusiasm. Three young men who became too open in their manifestations of interest were informally ejected through a side window Sunday night.

It is said that Mrs. O'Brien's separation from the mission was attended by more or less disorder. Mrs. O'Brien, it is alleged, considers that her services for the mission were not rewarded with that large munificence which they deserved, and takes issue in this matter with the leading spirit of the concern, John Goodwin. It is reported that John Goodwin alleges that Mrs. O'Brien says that, etc., ad libitum; the effect of the sum total of the allegations and surmises and suppositions being that Mrs. O'B. confiscated John's hymn books by way of forcing a satisfactory recompense for her services in bringing thirty odd sinners to the light and that John intends to get the books back if he has to go to law about it.

Loretta Waldron Well.

Loretta Waldron, a colored girl, who was shot in the face by Maggie Bentford, a couple of weeks ago and who has been in the hospital under treatment, has been discharged. No attempt was made to extract the bullet and as it apparently is giving no trouble, no efforts will be made to locate it at present.

Mrs. Margaret Wilson, of Grove street, is the guest of friends in Paterson.

THE BUILDING BEING MOVED

ALTERATIONS TO BE MADE TO DURLACK STRUCTURE WHEN IN NEW POSITION.

The Durlach building at the corner of East Front street and Watchung avenue is being moved by the owners to a point on Watchung avenue in the rear of the Y. M. C. A. building on a lot owned by the Durlach brothers. By this move they have altered their original plans to raise the structure two stories and place beneath it a stone foundation for store purposes.

The present plan is to place the building on the new site and remodel it entirely and on the corner of Watchung avenue to erect a store and flats. The work on this will probably be commenced in the spring and during the winter the work on the other building will be pushed forward to completion.

AS TO OSTEOPHS LICENSE

NONE NEEDED IN NEW JERSEY ACCORDING TO RECENT DECISION.

By an opinion filed in the Supreme Court by Justice Dixon, it is decided that a practitioner of the school of osteopathy who treats a patient only by manipulation does not come within the law which requires practicing physicians in this State to secure licenses after examination before the State examining board.

The syllabus of the opinion says:

An osteopathic physician, whose treatment of his patient consists simply of the manipulation of the body, does not violate that provision of the act of May 23, 1894, which forbids the applying of any drug, medicine or other agency or application by an unlicensed person.

MAY HAVE SUNDAY BASEBALL

RUMORED THAT GAME WILL BE PLAYED NEAR THIS CITY ON SABBATH DAYS.

It is rumored that there may be an attempt next summer to have Sunday baseball near Plainfield. Some persons interested in the scheme have had designs on the Driving Club Park, which is located in Middlesex County, just over the line, and plans of laying out a diamond there and having Sunday games are being talked of strongly.

It is claimed that according to a decision of the courts some months ago, baseball can be played on Sunday so long as there is no disturbance and no one is annoyed by the sport. If the plans should materialize, no doubt an attempt will be made to secure a trolley from this city as well as Metuchen to the park, making it easy to get back and forth. The park is so located that games could be played there without being a source of annoyance to anyone and the promoters believe that the patronage would be large.

H. S. HUMES MARRIED.

Was Quietly Wedded to Miss May S. Teller on Christmas Day.

Hiram S. Humes, a clerk in the Gayle Hardware Company store, and Miss May S. Teller, of Watchung avenue, were married on Christmas Day, according to an announcement made by the couple yesterday. The ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rutan in Newark by Rev. Mr. Osborn, an Episcopal clergyman. The couple is now boarding in this city. Mr. Humes is a member of Trinity Reformed church and Sunday-school.

Mrs. Crane's Funeral.

LADIES AUXILIARY TO THE COMMANDERY

New Organization to Promote Interests of Trinity, No. 17, Knights Templar.

HAS ELECTED OFFICERS

THOSE ELIGABLE TO MEMBERSHIP IN THE AUXILIARY.

Mrs. D. C. Adams, President, and Mrs. J. A. Stafford, Secretary—Another Meeting to be Held Tuesday—"Ladies' Night" Planned.

A Ladies' Auxiliary to Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., was organized yesterday afternoon in the Masonic rooms in the Babcock building. The purpose of the auxiliary as set forth in its constitution is the advancement of the interests of Trinity Commandery and the promotion of sociability among the members. The organization is not secret, and to its membership all wives, widows, mothers, daughters and sisters of members of Trinity Commandery are eligible. The widows of members who afterwards marry a non-member forfeit their membership by so doing.

The auxiliary will hold monthly meetings and monthly sociables. Decision as to the days of meeting was reserved until next Tuesday afternoon when the members will again assemble for the discussion of preliminary business. Committees will be appointed at that time. Arrangements for a ladies' night of Trinity Commandery were begun yesterday. The affair will be held about the middle of February and all the preparations for the entertainment and supper will be made by the members of the auxiliary.

The charter members of the auxiliary number twenty-nine. The officers chosen yesterday were: President, Mrs. D. C. Adams; secretary, Mrs. James Stafford; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Calvin Rugg; treasurer, Mrs. E. J. Cooley.

PAID $125,000 FAIR CLAIMS

OFFER OF SETTLEMENT NOT MADE TO TO HERMANN OELRICHS.

When the hearing in the Fair case was resumed yesterday before Commissioner Hosmer, in San Francisco, Cal., Herman Oelrichs, husband of Theresa Fair, testified that he had been in charge of the arrangements for the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Fair in that city. The offer of a settlement of the claims against the estates of the victims of the automobile accident in France, which had been presented by Mrs. Hannah Nelson, of New Market, mother of Mrs. Fair, and her family, was not made to him, but was suggested by J. W. Harvey in the interest of the Nelsons.

He had met Mrs. Nelson, Abram Nelson and C. J. Smith, all claimants for a portion of the property, but had no direct dealings with them. He went over in detail many of the circumstances of the case and its attempted settlement.

Mr. Oelrichs stated that it was not until after three interviews with Mr. Harvey, who represented the Nelsons, that he consented to settle their claims by signing checks for $125,000. He handed the checks to his counsel, but did not see them delivered. He said that if Mrs. Nelson had testified he went with her to the bank to see them cashed, her statement was untrue.

Fine Menu.

Arrangements are completed for the annual turkey supper to be held at Trinity Reformed church tomorrow and Friday nights under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society. In addition to the attractive menu, there will be a fine programme of orchestral music each night. Supper will be served from 6 to 9.

Injured Man in Bed.

A. B. Dunavan, driver for the U. S. Express Company, is still confined to his bed as a result of injuries received a few nights ago, when a trolley car collided with his wagon on West Front street. Mr. Frost, one of the claim agents for the Public Service Corporation, is endeavoring to settle with Mr. Dunavan.

Capt. Stuart in Brazil.

Kenneth Stuart, of this city, received a cablegram yesterday informing him that his parents, Captain and Mrs. P. E. Stuart, and sister, Miss Inez Stuart, have arrived safely at Bahia, Brazil. They will remain there for a month.

CONGRESSMAN FOWLER MAY ATTEND BANQUET

Senator Kean Not Likely to be Present at the Board of Trade's Festive Occasion.

SUBJECTS OF THE TOASTS

MAYOR N. B. SMALLEY TO SPEAK ON "MUNICIPAL DEVELOPMENT."

Announcement of the Enforced Absence of Assemblyman S. S. Swackhamer—J. E. Martine to Talk on "Municipal Ownership."

The arrangements for the Board of Trade dinner to be held at the Hotel Kensington tomorrow night are practically completed. It is not expected that Senator Kean will be able to accept the invitation to be present, but hopes are entertained that Congressman Fowler will find it possible to come. Covers will be laid for at least seventy-five.

The list of toasts as arranged by former Mayor Alexander Gilbert, the toastmaster, is not entirely complete. The former mayor will speak himself on the duties of a citizen to his municipality. Mayor Newton B. Smalley, of North Plainfield, will describe what should go into "Municipal Development," taking his facts, it is to be presumed, from his own strenuous and checkered career as chief executive of the borough.

Among the other speakers will be Former State Senator Charles A. Reed, Samuel St. John McCutchen and James E. Martine, who will talk on one of his pet subjects, "Municipal Ownership."

Assemblyman S. S. Swackhamer will be unable to attend owing to the fact that he is booked to speak at an entertainment given in Raritan by the Raritan firemen. He has written the Board a letter which will be read by the presiding officer.

S. S. SWACKHAMER AS PUBLIC SPEAKER

Assemblyman to Respond to Toast at Jersey City Board of Trade Banquet.

HIS MANY INVITATIONS

WILL ADDRESS UNION AND HUDSON BAR ASSOCIATION.

Will Not be Able to Speak Here Tomorrow Night—Principal Speaker at Newark Democratic Club Dinner.

Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer, of Somerset County, is deluged with invitations to speak in various places and on account of invitations to speak in Jersey City and Raritan tomorrow night, will be unable to respond to his toast at the local Board of Trade dinner. He had been engaged several weeks ago to be the principal speaker at the Jersey City Board of Trade banquet and early in the evening he will respond to a toast at the firemen's fair in Raritan.

At the Jersey City Board dinner his toast will be "Our State." Mr. Swackhamer has received invitations to address the Union County Bar Association at its banquet on January 30 in Elizabeth and to address the Hudson County Bar Association on the evening of February 4. The Democratic Clubs of Newark are to hold a big banquet on February 3 and the oratorical Assemblyman will appear at that time as the principal speaker. He has been called upon for an address of a patriotic nature before the Americus Club in Camden on Washington's birthday when Senators from Mississippi, Massachusetts and Ohio will be present. He will also address the young men of Whitfield's church in Freehold sometime next month. At tomorrow night's firemen's dinner will be Senator Childs, Surrogate De-Mond, Sheriff McMurtry, County Clerk Alexander Anderson and Chairman Logan, of the Somerset County Board of Freeholders.

JERSEY CITY WOMAN, STOCKER'S WIFE?

Two Women Appear at Fanwood, One Claiming to Have Been Deserted by Him.

TELLS PATHETIC STORY

NO NEWS FROM MRS. MEDHURST OR STOCKER.

Believed That the Two Eloped—Alleged Wife Has a Small Child—He is Said to Have Left Her a Year Ago.

Is Albert Stocker, who left the Central Hotel in Fanwood last Friday morning under circumstances strongly suggestive of an elopment with the wife of the proprietor, James B. Medhurst, married to another woman? That is the question that has stirred a sensation in Fanwood since yesterday when a young woman introduced herself at the Central Hotel as the wife of a man answering Stocker's description.

The woman, who is said to be of a prepossessing appearance, was accompanied by an elderly companion, the younger one claiming to be Mrs. Stocker and the other her mother. Mrs. Stocker's story is that her husband deserted her in Jersey City a year ago after beating and otherwise abusing her, leaving her with a young child. She heard nothing from him until Monday's story of the alleged elopment of Stocker and Mrs. Medhurst was published.

Mrs. Stocker strongly suspected that the erstwhile manager of the Central Hotel was her husband when she read the article and immediately took steps to satisfy herself as to his identity. She states that she has no desire to reclaim the man and that she would not, under any circumstances, live with him again as his wife. She wishes, she says, to get evidence upon which to base a suit for dviorce.

As the result of her inquiries at the hotel, Mrs. Stocker was satisfied that the missing hotel manager and bartender and her husband were one and the same man. Stocker was always reticent when questioned about his past while he was manager at the hotel, though he frequently referred to the fact that he came from Jersey City.

No tidings have been received of Mrs. Medhurst or Stocker since their joint disappearance last Friday morning.

PLAINFIELD AND THE P. S. C.

CORPORATION COUNSEL HEARS GOOD NEWS FROM M'CARTER.

While other cities have been taking radical measures against the Public Service Corporation in an effort to secure better trolley service Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh has been in correspondence with Thomas N. McCarter, president of the corporation, and as a result several changes for better service have been made and more are to follow.

When seen this morning by a representative of The Daily Press Mr. Marsh said: "I made known to the company the complaints of the people of this city with the result that they sent out their superintendent who relieved the situation as to West Front street by operating the through cars from Elizabeth to Dunellen. He also agreed to replace the worst of the cars on the other lines as soon as better cars can be spared from other lines and to have new and up to date cars as soon as they could be manufactured. The cars for the summer service, the superintendent said, would be first-class in every particular."

Mr. Marsh said that his correspondence with the president of the company showed a desire on the latter's part to meet the wishes of Plainfield.

Guest at Roosevelt Dinner.

Among those invited to the dinner for President Roosevelt to be given by the Seventy-seventh Assembly District Republican Club of New York in Madison Square Garden, on February 10, is Assemblyman Edward R. Finch, of New York, whose parents reside on Park avenue.

Little Girl Dead.

A PLAINFIELDER A MEMBER

JOHN DOUGHTY IS IN THE NATIONAL AMATEUR SKATING ASSOCIATION.

John Doughty, of this city, has been made a member of the executive committee of the National Amateur Skating Association. At the annual meeting of the association in Clarmont rink, Brooklyn, it was decided to make war on the Amateur Hockey League in an effort to secure the control of hockey. Fifteen cities were represented. It was decided to make the hockey championships next year national instead of inter-city.

The National indoor skating championships will be contested at Pittsburg, Pa. The outdoor speed championships will be fought next Saturday at Caldwell, if the weather permits. The figure skating championships will be run off at the St. Nicholas rink in New York.

ALIS CLUB SEEKS LEASE

ARRANGING TO SECURE THE CRESCENT OVAL FOR ANOTHER SEASON.

The Alis Club is securing a renewal of the lease of Crescent Oval for another year, or until next fall. The club has also secured the right of way from Randolph road to the oval, something which has not been done before. That has always been a private entrance, but S. D. Drake, the owner, willingly granted the request. The baseball management has also planned to make some changes at the oval so that in every particular the field will comply with league requirements. The diamond, as well as the outfield will be generally improved.

A VETERAN RAILROADER DEAD

WM. H. GORDON, SR., PENSIONER OF PENNSY SYSTEM, HAS PASSED AWAY.

William H. Gordon, Sr., grandfather of Mrs. Walter O. Dobbins, of West End avenue, who was one of the best-known railroad engineers in the country, died at his home in East Millstone on Monday night, after a lingering illness with Bright's disease. Mr. Gordon was born at South River, October 2, 1823, his father being an engineer for Commodore Vanderbilt on the latter's first line of steamboats running between New Brunswick and New York.

At the age of nineteen years Mr. Gordon secured a position of fireman on the Pennsylvania Railroad and continuously for fifty-six years he remained in the service of that company, for the greatest part of the time as an engineer. He was the first engineer to retire under the Pennsylvania's pension system adopted in 1900. He was then 75 years old and up to that time was never obliged to wear glasses when running his engine. Soon after the John Bull engine was brought to this country, Mr. Gordon was among the first to run her. The Pennsylvania company wanted him to take the old style engine to the World's Fair in Chicago in 1893, but on account of his advanced age he did not feel equal to the task.

BALL NEWS.

Patronesses Appointed and Instructions Issued.

Chief of Police Kiely has issued orders that all carriages for the charity ball at the Casino tomorrow night shall approach the Casino from the Seventh street side. The building will be amply policed inside and out and as the exists have all been conspicuously marked by Manager Maze Edwards, those who attend will be assured of complete protection.

These are the patronesses announced: Mrs. Charles J. Fisk, Mrs. E. M. Rodman, Miss Elizabeth R. Cock, Mrs. J. M. Whiton, Mrs. J. F. Hubbard, Mrs. J. E. Tracy, Mrs. W. E. Lowe, Mrs. G. H. PROTEST AGAINST FILTHY PRACTICE

W. C. T. U. to Ask Borough to Take Action Against Expectorating on Pavements.

WANT HABIT STOPPED

METHOD USED IN NEW YORK TO ABATE NUISANCE RECOMMENDED.

Matter to be Brought Up Before North Plainfield Health Board Next Week—Communication From W. T. C. U.

When the Borough Board of Health meets in regular session next week a matter of much importance will be introduced for consideration. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union has sent a communication to the Borough Board as well as the city board, asking that some definite steps be taken to prevent the now prevailing practice that many persons have of expectorating on the sidewalk. The practice has increased to such an extent that the women have felt it their duty to do something toward stopping it. There was a time when the long train skirts were considered in vogue but according to fashion's latest decree these trains are strictly improper except at full dress affairs. Now that the trains for street wear are to be a thing of the past, the women want the spitting habit stopped.

Just what action the local boards will take has not yet been determined. There is no law or ordinance covering the point specifically, although the officials would have the right to abate any nuisance, if this can be decided one. In New York the latest move has been to supply the policemen with small yellow cards containing an extract of the law in that city which provides for the expectoration habit. When a policeman sees a citizen violate the law he simlpy hands him a card, which serves as a warning. If he is again seen to vioalte the law, he is arrested and taken before a magistrate.

The information thus far obtained does not make it clear to the local boards that they would be without the provisions of the law in adopting a similar policy, but at all events some action will be taken if possible and the Boards of Health will endeavor to stop the habit. It is held that if the habit can be stopped in trolley or steam cars, there should be some method to prevent it on the public streets. The street or gutter is considered the proper place for expectoration.

THREE MORE HORSES FOUND

STOLEN BY BROWN WHO IS HELD WITHOUT BAIL FOR GRAND JURY.

Three Long Island liverymen, owners of horses and carriages stolen from them during the past year, were at police headquarters this morning to identify Charles Brown as the thief. All three were positive that Brown had done the business and the recognition between them and Brown was in each case mutual.

Chief Kiely discovered the three men yesterday after a long search. Their names are Fred. M. Brooks, of Hempstead, L. I., Thomas A. Jerome, of Richmond, L. I., and Warren E. Tooker, of Richmond.

Chief Kiely and the liverymen went to Perth Amboy this noon to get the stolen goods which the Chief has already located. It is understood that the horses were disposed of through Jacob Rabinowitz to Perth Amboy men named Hansen, Christiansen and a third man, a butcher, whose name could not be ascertained this morning.

Brown's trial was postponed to Monday at 2:30 this afternoon by Justice Huff. He will be tried at the present term of court. The case against Jacob Rabinowitz, of Perth Amboy, charged with receiving stolen goods from Brown, was continued one week this afternoon by Justice Huff at the request of counsel for Rabinowitz, Geo. J. Plechner, of Perth Amboy. The adjournment was made on account of the fact that Rabinowitz is on trial on a different charge at New Brunswick.

Mayor Ryan Here.

Mayor Ryan, of Elizabeth, and his brother, Edward Ryan, were visitors in this city yesterday and were entertained by James E. Martine. A visit was made to the office of The Daily Press by these politicians.

Political Harmony.

Union County, which was the scene of great political anxiety and factional disturbance a few months ago, seems to have become perfectly peaceful again. It will be remembered that at each of the county conventions, the Republican and the Democratic, there was a break, but that of the Republican party was so much greater than the other the latter was overshadowed. In both instances the city of Plainfield was against all the rest of the county in general and the city of Elizabeth in particular. Following the election, in which the county went Democratic for the first time in nearly a dozen years, the Republicans had a reunion and lovefeast at which the hatchets were all buried. The peace that was then declared seems to have been sincere and on a permanent basis, for the Republican county committee met recently and Hamilton Fish Kean, Senator Kean's brother, was unanimously re-elected chairman. After accepting the office for another year, he gave notice that at the end of this term he would retire from the position and decline another election. The Democratic county committee was equally unanimous in the selection of officials, and at the present time there is not a single ripple of unrest or threatened political disturbance in the whole of Union County. If the party factions there have come to the conclusion that nothing is to be gained by fighting and tearing each other, they are to be commended for their wisdom.—Newark Evening News.

AMUSEMENTS.

Herbert Kelcey and Effie Shannon in "Sherlock Holmes" are at the Grand Opera House, repeating the excellent impression made in the same play, at this theatre last season. This marks the farewell presentation of "Sherlock Holmes" in New York, as after this season, it will be confined to one-night stands. Mr. Kelcey is the very embodiment of Conan Doyle's great detective hero, and the recent revival of the Sherlock Holmes' stories brings added interest to this week's engagement.

"The Medal and the Maid," the new musical comedy now running at the Broadway Theatre, New York, has scored the biggest hit of any musical piece presented in New York this season. The production is a most magnificent one, the music tuneful, the book entertaining, the girls pretty, the comedy amusing and the principals all prominent people in the musical comedy world. It is not to be wondered at that "The Medal and the Maid" should prove a very palatable dish to set before play-goers, when it is considered that the music is by Sidney Jones, composer of "San Joy" and "The Geisha" and the book by Owen Hall, author of "Florodora" and "The Silver Slipper."

A typical Keith programme is the offering for the coming week at the Union Square Theatre. That means that it has been selected with great care and judgment, by one who knows what is wanted, and thenatural result must be an entertainment that will be pleasing to all. One of the features will be that mysterious person, "The Girl with the Auburn Hair." This will be her first appearance in New York in three years, and she will doubtless add to her already great fame. Who and what she is still remains as great a mystery as when she first sang her "sermon in song" and the atmosphere of mystery adds to the charm of an act that is wholly out of the general run of vaudeville.

LITERARY.

The Popular Science Monthly for February contains the following articles: "Scientific Investigations and Progress," by President Ira Remsen; "Comrades in Zeal," by President David Starr Jordan; "The Predecessors of Copernicus," by Dr. Edward S. Holden; "The Conservation of Energy in those of Advancing Years," by Dr. J. Madison Taylor; "The Discovery and Distribution of Meteorites," by Oliver C. Farrington; "Washington University," by Charles P. Pettus; "What is Group Theory;" by Professor G. A. Miller.

"We were having a splendid season," said the Retired Press Agent, "until the manager got one of those realistic bees in his bonnet, and then we went to pieces financially. And we were the only 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' Company on the road carrying three Uncle Toms and three Little Evas too!"

"What caused the break up" asked the Steady Listener.

"The manager of the show insisted on out using real ice for Eliza to escape over. When we struck the Southern States it broke us!"—February Lippincott's.

The February Atlantic offers a group of leading articles which can be neglected by no person earnestly concerned about the urgent issues in America today. These papers, in which subjects of the first importance are treated by the men best qualified to discuss them with authority and vigor, are:

Wall Street and the Country, by Charles A. Conant, a treatise on the uses and abuses of the money power, with which the number opens; followed by a sensible and dispassionate paper on Lynching: a Southern View, by Clarence H. Pope, and a thoughtful discussion of the question, Is Commercialism in Disgrace? by John Graham Brooks.

The Great Airship Race.

The St. Louis World's Fair is going to be the most wonderful thing of its kind the world has ever seen. Among the extraordinary features will be a wonderful airship race for a prize of $100,000 between the most famous aeronauts of the earth. Who will win? What will it be like? Next Sunday's World will tell you in picture and story all about the novel contest. But little is known of the Panama Canal, which the United States will probably build. Everyone ought to be familiar with it. The Sunday World will present the first authentic map and diagram of the gigantic enterprise, with informative facts, that has ever appeared in an American paper. A suicide's record of his dying sensations, a Boston woman's sixteen-year fight for a name, stars of winter-time theatrical shows, etc., will make next Sunday's World a very interesting number.

RESCUERS AT WORK

Bodies of Harwick Victims Still Lie Deep In the Mine.

FIGHTING ICE, WATER AND CHOKE DAMP

Brave Men Come From Pit Covered With Ice and Report No Tidings of Living Men—Many Lie Dead. A Grewsome Sight.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 27.—Even the elements seem conspiring to prevent the work of rescue at the Harwick mine. Almost zero weather and a bitter, biting, cruel wind swept down over the little valley where the mine is located and nearly added another list of dead to the long black table already measured off. Not only was the work of search for the dead and living, if any are still alive, rudely interrupted, but cold and ice and wind combined nearly cost the lives of sixteen more good men.

Sixteen men went down into the shaft to do the work of bratticing, bolstering, tunneling and removing the debris that has so far barred their progress into the workings where the men were at work when the explosion came. Their shift was supposed to be of three hours only. Even at that it was a hard task. Even before the bucket reached the bottom they were drenched with water, which the cold draft through the shaft soon turned to ice.

Shortly after they were let down, two at a time, in the bucket a temporary hoist that had been rigged up to bring up the debris and the dead was started down the shaft. Then came the snow and the cold and the water which makes it almost impossible for the brave workers to go forward in the work of rescue. It is not possible to say when the bodies will be raised.

Driving snow and sleet aided by a biting wind did all in their power to hamper the movements of those who came to this little village to aid in the work of saving the living, if any there were, and recovering the bodies of the dead at the Harwick mine.

Men came from mining districts all about the neighborhood and did valiant work toward searching for the dead. Early in the morning the mine inspectors began to gather to direct the work of rescue, and at 5 o'clock there were present at the pit mouth Mine Inspector F. W. Cunningham of the Fourteenth district, in which the mine is located; W. R. Adams of the Third district, Henry Lauditt of the First district, Isaac G. Roby of the Fifth district and James Blick of the Seventh district. Chief Mine Inspector Broderick had also wired from Harrisburg that he would be on hand if needed.

Cunningham was the first inspector over the ground and spent the greater part of the night in the mine. After snatching a few hours' sleep he went below again and after directing the movements of the volunteer force in bratticing so as to keep back the dangerous gas in front finally announced that he was ready to lead a searching party back into the mine.

The rescuers went back for many feet, but when they came to the surface they had no tidings of living men still entombed. Up and down went the bucket in the bitter cold. Men clambered from the icy elevator, dashed to the nearby engine room and when warmed went back to the bucket and down the shaft.

Then began the rigging of the platform cage. Six hours' work on a wooden platform to take the debris and the dead from the abyss. Some of the dead will now be brought out of the mine, there is little doubt. That the mine officials and inspectors anticipate this was evident in the presence at the mine of Coroner McGeary of Allegheny county.

While the chattering, shivering group of workers and newspaper men were gathered about the ropes and the red faces of the four Pittsburg policemen on duty at the ropes spoke eloquently of the cold, one bright incident occurred that took away for a moment the grewsome aspect of the task.

"Tom Adams has come."

Adams is the oldest mine inspector in the state, and for years until one year ago the stricken mine was in his district.

The old men all knew him. Tall and straight, he stood in the office of the mine, and man after man came up to him, grasped his hand and said:

"Mr. Adams, are you going down?"

It was the same question always, and the same grave answer came back to each:

"Just as soon as I can change my clothes."

"It was only a little group, and the handshakes were hardly over before the veteran had stepped behind a desk and donned a suit of blue overalls and blouse. Then there was a run for it in the wind to the engine house across the tracks for a suit of oilskins. Out even in the cold there was a stop here and there as one whom the inspector knew, black and grimy, stopped and clasped his hand, and then the same old question came:

"Mr. Adams, are you going down?" And here and there was another almost whispered statement:

"Too bad, and Taylor gone too!"

Mike McQuade, one of the leaders of the rescuers, came up from the shaft and said it would be very late before they would be able to get out any of the bodies.

"We have at the bottom of the shaft," said he, "a pile of legs and arms and trunks that resemble anything but the remains of human bodies. It is the most grewsome sight I ever witnessed."

"When do you expect to reach the place where the most of the men are?" he was asked.

"There is no such place," he replied. "They are scattered all over the mine, some of them, poor fellows, in fragments. We find them along the entries or find pieces of them. "My God, man, you have but a faint conception of the awful force of this explosion. It tore men to pieces. It did not leave enough of some of them to tell who they were."

Many theories as to the cause of the explosion are being advanced. One is that the recent high water had something to do with it. Mining experts do not regard this as probable. Men who know the Harwick mine say that gas in dangerous quantity has been in it ever since it was opened, and this fact was recognized by the men in charge of it. Hence they say that the cause of the explosion is that probably a careless miner exposed a naked flame to the gas.

Again and again efforts were made to reach the living men of the rescue party at the bottom of the shaft, but the wooden sides of the hoist, swollen by the water, stuck to the iron guide slide, and then came hours of maneuvering to reach the bottom. The men below had no means of warmth, and many of them were standing in deep water. Every effort was made to lower the cage, and finally it was loosened and got within twelve feet of the bottom. A timber blown across the way by the explosion was in the path. The men were within easy reach of a rope, but their fingers, numbed and almost frozen by the cold, were unable to grasp the offered help.

It was 9 o'clock when the first three men of the party who went down at 3 o'clock were brought to the surface. Not one of them was able to walk, so numb were they from cold, and then they told of the experience in the mine below.

Henry Beckert was one of the first men out of the cage. He was carried to the boiler house and after twenty minutes of warmth managed to straighten himself and say:

"It was a frightful experience. We were too cold to work. There is apparently none to rescue. We had a hard time to find many of the dead—a shred of clothing here and another there, a jacket, a pair of overalls, but few bodies.

"When we left the bottom of the shaft there were twelve bodies lying there ready to be brought up. There are many others there, and the bodies of many will never be found."

Mayor Harrison Arrested.

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—Coroner Traeger and a number of detectives arrested Mayor Carter H. Harrison, Manager Will J. Davis of the Iroquois theater, Fire Marshal William H. Musham, Commissioner of Buildings George Williams, William Salles, the theater fireman; Edward Laughlin, building inspector, and William McMullen and James E. Cummings, stage employees, named by the coroner's jury as responsible for the Iroquois disaster and ordered held for the grand jury. The mayor, who presented himself for arrest, was accompanied by his brother and cousin and by former Mayor Hempstead Washburne. The coroner greeted them, and the party then went to Judge Walker's court, where bonds of $5,000 were furnished. All the prisoners were later released on bail bonds.

Six "L" Trains Ran Over Girl.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—In the midst of the homeward crush on the uptown elevated railroad station a young woman who had tried to board a train was carried half a block clinging to the closed gate, then fell to the rails and was run over by six trains before the police managed to get a motorman to stop and take the body to a station farther up town. The elevated railroad employees at the station and on the trains maintained that they knew nothing of the matter, and the police were unable to identify either the number of the train, the men in charge of it or those on the platform at the time and consequently were not able to make any arrests. The body of the girl was not identified.

Music Lovers Were Shy.

BUTTE, Mont., Jan. 27.—The concert scheduled by Mme. Patti and her company did not come off as expected. Mme. Patti's manager refused to let her appear, saying that the high altitude and smelter smoke had already affected the diva's voice, and he feared to take risks on the remainder of the trip. It is supposed by many, however, that the sale of seats was not up to expectations.

Turin Library Destroyed.

TURIN, Italy, Jan. 27.—The University library has been destroyed by fire. It is roughly estimated that over 100,000 volumes were burned, as well as many rare manuscripts. The University library was considered the most famous in Italy, the others being the Vatican library, the Marciana library at Venice and the one at Monte Cassino.

Forger Took a Sleigh Ride.

GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y., Jan. 27.—The horse and cutter abandoned by William J. Reid, alias Hoffman, the notorious forger who escaped from the Hampden (Mass.) county jail and was recaptured last week at Utica, has been found at the farm of J. K. Vosburg at Tribes Hill. The rig was evidently stolen by the fugitive somewhere in Vermont.

Father and Daughter Burned.

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 27.—Stansbury Jacobs and his twelve-year-old daughter Lena were burned to death in a fire which destroyed the Jacobs home and three other houses at Stanton, Del. Jacobs lost his life in an effort to rescue his daughter.

Whist Expert Dead.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 27.—Arthur Hunter, manager of the Polk Directory company, is dead from acute yellow atrophy of the liver, an extremely rare disease. He was widely known as an authority on whist.

IS FREED BY DEATH

Whitaker Wright, Promoter, Succumbs After Sentence.

EXPIRED IN THE LONDON COURT

Globe Company Financier Got Extreme Penalty—Death Attributed to Heart Disease or Poison. Declared Himself Innocent.

LONDON, Jan. 27.—Whitaker Wright, the company promoter, who became notorious in Great Britain and the United States after the crash of the London and Globe Financial corporation, with the attendant ruin of other companies, died here unexpectedly after receiving sentence.

He was attacked with a sudden illness after he had left the king's bench division of the high court of justice, where he had been convicted of fraud and sentenced to seven years' penal servitude. Two physicians were summoned, but could do nothing for the stricken man, whose death they attribute to heart disease.

The jury before which Wright had been on trial for twelve days on numerous counts for fraud was charged by Justice Bigham and after being out an hour brought in a verdict of guilty. Mr. Walton's plea in mitigation had no effect.

Justice Bigham in passing sentence said he could see nothing to excuse the crime of which Wright had been convicted, and he could not conceive a worse case. He must therefore allot the most severe punishment the law permitted.

Wright, who had stood up to receive his sentence, said in a firm voice, "All I can say is that I am as innocent of any intention to deceive as any one in this court."

The sentence was followed by a commotion in a distant part of the court, and the faint cry of a woman in distress was heard.

An hour after Wright was sentenced he lay dead on the floor of a small room in the law courts. Whether he took his own life by poison or whether death in its natural course robbed the law of its fulfillment will not be known until a postmortem examination is held. The indications, however, point to poisoning.

The career of this man, who was known on three continents for his stupendous financial operations, closed in a startling tragedy. Even in his life, which, with his rise from poverty to enormous wealth, was full of dramatic incidents, there was nothing that could compare with the manner of his death. All London is thrilled with the news of it. No such human tragedy has been enacted in England for many a year.

Until nearly 8 o'clock the body of the man who formerly had controlled many of the world's markets and who had been courted by royalty remained upon the floor of the room where he fell, for as a convicted felon Wright's person had become the property of the crown. Later the home office gave permission for its removal, and the body was given over to the jurisdiction of the coroner. It now lies at Westminster mortuary, where almost all the corpses taken from the Thames are laid out. The inquest probably will be held tomorrow.

Mrs. Wright, the dead man's wife, is an American. She now lies ill at the magnificent country home which Wright made in Surrey. Dispatches from there say, with a certain ingenuous pathos, "The news of Whitaker Wright's death had caused much sorrow. He was well known here for his acts of generosity, and it was generally believed that he would be acquitted and return home again."

The feeling that Justice Bigham's conduct of the case was not very judicial appears to grow in legal circles of London, and the sentence imposed upon Wright would in itself have furnished England with an unexpected sensation.

When Messrs. Isaacks and Walton started to make their appeal to the jury the people woke up to the gravity of the issues concerned. Even the government was involved, for it had taken the stand that Wright could not be prosecuted. Furthermore, it was an open secret that many great and even royal names were indirectly involved in the proceedings. Friends of Wright had said that if driven into a corner he would tell who had profited by his transactions. Suspense reigned in many quarters while counsel for the defense made their appeal, but when the appeal was finished those involved breathed easier and public curiosity remained unsatisfied.

During several previous sessions Wright had gone to sleep. He had adhered to his conviction that he could not possibly be found guilty, and it was upon this conviction that he, against the advice of his lawyers, insisted upon returning from the United States to stand trial.

For an hour Wright awaited the verdict, meanwhile talking cheerfully with his counsel, while the city magnates, members of the aristocracy and the ordinary spectators who crowded the room kept their eyes riveted upon the man whose fate hung in the balance.

When the jury filed in Wright showed his first signs of nervousness. Peering through his glasses, he leaned forward to catch the foreman's answer. At the word "guilty," which broke the tense and expectant silence, Wright did not even flinch; but, sticking his hands deep down into his pockets and gazing rather grimly at his judge, he stood up to receive sentence.

Without exception the London daily papers this morning express satisfaction with the salutary vindication of the law in the case of Whitaker Wright and admit the justice of the verdict and of the sentence.

Sir Robert Finlay and Sir Edward Carson, ought to resign and refer to the "wicked insinuation" of Wright's frends that a prosecution of the case would involve the Duke of Connaught, who did invest in one of Wright's companies, but who was not even remotely involved in its doings.

FOR WORLD'S RECORD.

Vanderbilt's Auto Goes the Mile In 38 or 39 Seconds.

ORMOND, Fla., Jan. 27.—W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., with his ninety horsepower Mercedes automobile, is here for a record. At daylight the young millionaire was on the beach trying out the new flier which is expected to alter the world's figures. He complained that the racer was not running quite to his satisfaction.

When the tide was pretty far up and the beach none of the best, Gould Brokaw, who is to ride with Mr. Vanderbilt, timed the machine. The great Mercedes flew by the start and away down the beach as smoothly as a swallow and as swift as a thunderbolt. It was going great guns, and no doubt of it.

At the end of the ride Mr. Brokaw handed the watch to Mr. Vanderbilt, who smiled and quickly snapped the hands back. The exact time could not be learned, but he said it was about forty-five seconds.

Mr. Brokaw had a different story to tell.

"I have been on some of the great racers," said he, "but never went so fast before. I was pretty busy hanging on, but I managed to snap the watch, and as near as I can judge Mr. Vanderbilt was going between thirty-eight and thirty-nine seconds to the mile.

My Surprise Landed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—Favorites met with disaster at Oakland. My Surprise was the only one to land, and she closed equal choice with Puss In Boots. The feature was the mile and a sixteenth race, in which some clever performers met. Stuyve was the favorite, but failed to get any of the money. Mendon, a three-year-old, finished strong and won by a head from Soothsayer, while Jockey Club was third. Atwood, well played by stable connections, took the seven furlongs race. Sad Sam was regarded as a good thing in the last race, but Jane Holly, an 8 to 1 chance, beat him in a drive.

Racing at Ascot.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 27.—Long shots had another inning at Ascot, and but one favorite got first money. Autumn Time took the first race at 10 to 1. There were fourteen horses in the race, and the start was bad. Dr. Bernays, the redhot favorite, failed to get up to the front at any stage. Brown Study won the two-year-old dash from Azelina, the favorite, covering the three furlongs in 36½ seconds and lowering the track record a quarter of a second.

Will Bar Special Students.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27.—It was learned here that the faculty athletic committee of the University of Pennsylvania will hereafter debar all special students from athletics, no matter how many hours of work they take each week. This ruling is one of the most important that have been made in athletic eligibility at any university, and if enforced by all colleges it would debar nearly 25 per cent of the men who make up the teams.

Racing on the Ice.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Jan. 27.—On the first day of the ice races here Purity, b. m., owned by James Farley of Plattsburg, won the 2:16 class in straight heats, Esma second and Josephine third; best time, 2:29. Fred B., entered by W. N. Phelps of East Alburg, Vt., won the 2:40 class, Delman second and Flora W. third; best time, 2:46.

Stonewall Clipped the Record.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 27.—Falkland, who scored cleverly in the second race, was the only winning favorite. Stonewall in winning the fifth race clipped nearly four seconds off the track record, covering the mile and three-quarters in 3 minutes 1 4-5 seconds.

Mine Fire Now Under Control.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Jan. 27.—The fire in the Locust Gap colliery, owned by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company, which has raged since Saturday last, endangering extensive workings, has been got under control.

Cold Wave Advancing.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Cold wave warnings are displayed in the middle and south Atlantic states, the upper Ohio valley and western New York.

Czar at the Capital.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 27.—The czar and czarina have arrived here from the imperial residence at Tsarskoye Selo.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

The Ossining (N. Y.) Opera House has been closed because of danger from fire.

General Vincent Lukban, instigator of atrocities in the Philippines, has been arrested at Manila.

Two thousand nine hundred and ninety-two barrels of good New York beer were spilled into the North river.

Consul General Skinner has sailed from Port Said for his post at Marseilles on his return from a visit to King Menelik.

The building of the American Mission College For Girls at Erzerum, Armenia, has been burned. The fire is believed to be incendiary.

W. E. Brockway, forger and counterfeiter, now eighty-three years old, has been released after a ten years' term in Trenton (N. J.) prison.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 27, 1904.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printers' Ink.

One year ago today an awful disaster occurred on the Jersey Central Railroad which resulted in the death of twenty-one Plainfielders bringing sorrow to many homes. It is a fitting tribute to have the city flag at half mast today.

Literary note—"The Blue Book of Democracy" by William Jennings Bryan printed on asbestos paper by the Journal press.

Professor Hadley's advice that only the rich man should go into politics is strongly endorsed by the ward healer and floating voter.

We desire to call attention to the highly creditable condition of the Dime Savings Institution which is published in another column.

The Columbus, Ohio, Citizen says that it is debatable whether Indiana is for Hanna or Roosevelt. Missionary societies will please take notice.

There is one plank upon which all Democrats seem to agree and it will find its customary place in the new platform. It is: "We view with alarm and arraign with indignation."

A North Plainfield Republican says that it would not be expensive for the State to provide an executive mansion for Governor Murphy large enough for him to be able to entertain his political friends.

The keying of advertisements is on the increase. Theoretically, publishers favor the plan, as it takes the place of the overworked footnote, "when answering advertisements, be sure to mention," etc. When it comes to the question of the publisher "making good" in case of the omission of the key, or insertion of a wrong number or letter, many publishers set up the claim that as an omission or mistake does not lessen the value of the advertisement to the advertiser, the publisher being the only one who suffers loss, that they are under no obligation, legal or moral, to repeat the insertion with correct key number without cost to the advertiser.—Mahin's Magazine.

The Elizabeth Evening Times already shows signs of the loss of Mr. St. John. Here is a sample from yesterday's edition:

"A North Plainfield wife-beater is spending seven days in jail feeding on bread and water. Should that borough eventually be annexed to Union County, it is to be hoped that this strenuous method of punishment for husbands who are athletically inclined towards their wives will be annexed with it."

If there is any place in New Jersey where the wife beater gets his just deserts it is in the Plainfield police court. In North Plainfield the brutal husband was given seven days imprisonment while in this city on Friday one was sentenced to sixty days' imprisonment in the county jail for beating two women.

PERSONAL.

Benjamin A. Wilson, of Trenton, was the guest of V. W. Nash, Jr., of Prospect avenue, yesterday.

Miss Mary E. Powers, of Newark, who has been visiting at the home of friends on Fairview avenue, has returned home.

Mrs. Henry McGee sailed yesterday on the Kaiser Wilhelm II, to join her husband. They will encircle the globe, visiting Calcutta, Manila, Hong Kong and Japan, thence to San Francisco.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church will hold a social in the church Friday night.

There will be reports and election of trustees at a meeting of the German Lutheran church on Monday night, Feb. 1.

The Young Men's Brotherhood of the First M. E. church will hold a meeting in Vincent chapel Friday night, after which there will be a social.

The subject for discussion at the prayer meeting tonight at the First Baptist church will be taken from Ezra 8, 22. Rev. Dr. J. A. Chamblies will be in charge of the meeting.

Special services are to be held tomorrow night in Whosoever Mission on Whitewood avenue, opposite Regent street. The Sunday-school exercises will be held at 4:15 Sunday afternoon.

A unique social will be held at the Mary E. Wilson Memorial chapel tomorrow night. Each person will pay according to their weight. The fee will be twenty cents for each one hundred pounds.

The Grace M. E. church Men's Assembly will hold its regular monthly meeting tomorrow evening, at which time, Rev. W. H. Burgwin, of the Eighteenth Street M. E. church, Brooklyn, will give an address on "The Ideal and the Impediment." All men of the neighborhood are cordially invited.

The pastor of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will today at 4 o'clock conduct the first session of a class for young people who are considering the matter of uniting with the church. The meeting will be held in the church parlor. These meetings will be held every Wednesday afternoon at the same time and place and they will end the first week in March.

"No man for the episcopacy who is over 50 years of age," is the rallying cry of a certain element of clergy of the Methodist Episcopal church which has recently stirred up opposition of the hottest sort in unexpected quarters. The cry is raised now, on the eve of the meeting of the General Conference of the church, when the friends of ministers who think that they would make good bishops of the church are active in their interests; active, of course, not in the way of the seeker for office in secular life, but rather in the coy manner of the young man who loses no opportunity to appear at advantage in the eyes of his innamorata; hiding those faults of temperament which would be likely to make him appear at disadvantage, and throwing out in the limelight traits of an opposite character.—N. Y. Evening Sun.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

John Sebring and a westerner visiting at Greenbrook, known as "Lightning Jack," were arrested late Monday evening by Marshal Mahan for drunkenness and disorderly conduct and were fined $3 each by Recorder Campbell. The men attempted to take the Park Hotel by storm and were captured before they had time to escape.

The Dunellen A. C. met last evening and decided to hold a fair on Feb. 12 and 13 in Apgar's Hall in order to raise funds for the baseball team next spring. If enough money is raised, new uniforms will be purchased for the members of the team.

The Checker Club met in the office of William H. Cole last evening and elected Charles Boice president, and John Moynihan secretary and treasurer. It was decided to rent a room and to enlarge the membership of the club.

The home of John Cooper on Madison avenue, was entered by burglars Saturday night and about $6 in money taken. Nothing else of value has been missed.

The firemen will meet tomorrow evening in the town hall. The Chief requests a good attendance as some important matters will be taken up.

Mrs. Charles Dinneen and daughters have returned from a few days' visit with relatives in New York city.

Miss Nellie Brown has returned home after an extended visit with New York relatives.

Invitations have been issued for a private dance to be held in Apgar's Hall Feb. 4.

Weekly prayer meeting will be held in the Presbyterian chapel this evening.

Mrs. Mathew Eganey has entirely recovered from her recent indisposition.

Mr. Day has returned to work after a two months' illness with pneumonia.

NEW MARKET.

The Banjo Club met for rehearsal last evening. It was decided to give a musical and reception the early part of next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moohamer have removed to Harrisburg, Pa., where Mr. Moohamer is now employed.

Chester Gaskill has returned to work in New York after a three months' vacation.

Miss Nellie Tabb has returned from a visit with relatives at Montreal, Canada.

Miss Irene Day has returned from a few days' visit with friends in Hopewell.

Cottage prayer meeting was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Gaston.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Fanwood Council, No. 744, Royal Arcanum, entertained Grand Regent Washburn and staff at its semi-monthly meeting last night. The meeting was an enthusiastic love feast, the Grand officers congratulating Fanwood for its hustling work during the year just closed. During the good of the order cigars, sandwiches and coffee were enjoyed while interesting speeches were made by Grand Regent Washburn, Grand Vice Regent Rogers, Supreme Representative Messeck, District Deputy Collyer and others. Two applications for membership were received and one candidate initiated. Grand Regent Washburn has offered the Council a banner if they will initiate ten new members during the month of March. Beside this the Council will offer individual prizes for the purpose of keeping the work hustling during the year.

The baseball fans are already beginning to make guesses on the lineup for the team for the coming season. Manager Johnston has the verbal contract of several of last year's team already. There is some talk of joining the association, and in this way be protected in the contract match. The local team has never had any trouble with a player breaking their contract, but good material is scarce, so it is a good thing to be protected by knowing a player under contract must play or be blacklisted the same as in the larger leagues.

The public schools of Springfield, which have been closed for the past month on acount of an epidemic of scarlet fever in the town, reopened Monday. Miss Nancy Wade, who is a member of the corps of teachers, has been spending her enforced vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Wade.

Councilmen F. J. Palmer and H. E. Knight, whose term of office expires in March, will no doubt be renominated. Both have fulfilled their office to the entire satisfaction of the residents.

The position of night watchman in the borough, which has been held for the past year by Charles Hooke, has been abolished.

The members of the Amity Club enjoyed one of their regular weekly meetings for reading and study last night.

The Chautauqua Boys' Club holds its weekly meeting tonight in the class room of the Methodist church.

Mrs. T. J. Mercein has been entertaining relatives from out-of-town for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Archibold and children have been visiting friends in town.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

It is said that John Otto, the owner of the mill property at New Market, has brought suit against the water company whose wells and pumping station are located here.

The brewery grain traffic conducted here by Luther Morris, of Plainfield, every Wednesday, brings a number of dairymen to town from quite a distance.

Miss Meta Soper has been suffering with a slight illness a day or two, but continued her duties as teacher in the public school.

The severe storm last night prevented the holding of the regular prayer meeting at the church.

Miss Sarah Giles is still filling the position as a supply teacher in the New Market school.

Florence Johnson, after a week's illness, has returned to school at Plainfield.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Irving Martin, of Woodhull & Martin's store, is spending a week's vacation at Morristown.

MINERALS OF CUBA

The Resources of the Island Are Known to Be Extensive.

Gold Is Said to Exist in Large Quantities and Preparations Are Being Made to Mine It—Other Minerals.

The recent rediscovery of gold in Cuba leads one to inquire concerning her mineral resources in general. Everybody knows about her wealth in sugar, tobacco, fruit, woods and hides, but probably few have much knowledge of her mineral riches.

The early Spanish settlers, having in mind the various colonies of Spain that had emptied rivers of gold into her coffers, were confident in Cuba also the precious metal was to be found, and it is said they did get out considerable quantities of gold, by the process known as placer mining. Those early placers were located on the Sagua la Grande and Agabama rivers, and there were placers along the streams emptying into Cienfuegos bay. Humboldt reported gold as being washed up from the sands of the rivers Damuji and Canao, and doubtless there existed several placers whose locations are now unknown.

In 1827, silver combined with copper was found in a district south of the city of Santa Clara, which some authorities say yielded 75 ounces of silver to the ton of ore, while others place the yield at 140 ounces. There is no record that this discovery was followed by any extensive prosecution of the industry, or much prospecting for similar deposits. Which seems strange when one remembers the Spaniard's greed of gold, and strange when one learns that experienced mining engineers who have explored the mountains of Cuba report strong indications there of silver and copper.

The Cuban mines of Cobra, located north of the city of Santiago, were once the greatest copper producing mines in the world, and were worked as early as 1524. From two to three million dollars' worth of copper were shipped annually from Cuba to the United States between the years 1828 and 1840; but now the mines are abandoned.

The iron mines of Cuba, which are of great importance, are situated a few miles east of Santiago. American capital opened these mines and built the railways and piers necessary for the shipment of the ore. The yield is very rich, the ores, mixed brown and red hematite, containing from 65 to 68 per cent. of pure iron. The ore has been shipped almost exclusively to this country and during the war extensive shipments were continued. In 1890, the product of the Juraqua company, one of the principal producers, was 362,068 tons, an amount equal to one-fourth of the importation of iron ores into the United States for that year. Just prior to the war, a beginning was made by the Cuban iron men to open up an extensive trade with England.

The war stopped Cuban exports of manganese, the insurgents closing the mines early in the hostilities, because the Spaniards received such a rich royalty therefrom. The demand for this ore from the United States has been much greater than the mines have been able to supply. Santiago is the center of Cuba's mineral district, and from this city railways reach out their arms to the various iron and manganese mines scattered throughout the surrounding region.

In the southeastern part of the province of Santa Clara, near Trinidad, building slate and marble of good quality are plentiful. Near Trinidad there exists also talc and amianthus, and these minerals are found too in the broad belt to the north. Unusually rich asphaltum lies beneath the waters of Cardenas bay, as well as in other parts of the island. The asphaltum mines about Cardenas have been worked for many years, but the supply of some grades is apparently inexhaustible, and for a long time asphaltum has been one of Cuba's standard exports. It looks like cannel coal and frequently in Cuba has been mistaken for coal. This mineral is found in various localities of the island, but the beds about Cardenas are the principal ones.

Spanish rule interfered with the development of the mineral resources of Cuba, and though foreign enterprise frequently attempted the work her mineral wealth had remained largely undeveloped. Mr. Robert J. Hill, of the U. S. Geological Survey, in his book "Cuba and Porto Rico," concerning the problem of Cuban mining, reports that the field is a promising one, and that the mining industries, when opened up, will be confined to the mountainous region of the eastern part of the island

DAME FASHION'S HUES.

Colors Which Will Be Most Popular In the Spring.

The new color cards are out for the coming spring, and we see that grays and combinations of black and white are to be among the most fashionable of all things for dress materials. I find, too, in looking about that silks are shown in many combinations of black and white. This does not mean checkerboard squares by any means, but fine stripes and in some few cases pin head checks. These latter are always neat and desirable, especially for such garments as are to be worn often. Trimmed simply with black braid or a little velvet ribbon, they are very pleasing, and there is something very Frenchy about the pin head and shepherd check.

Hair lines are seen in many kinds of materials adapted for spring wear, and now is the time to make such garments. There are several kinds of homespun stuffs with the body of the material in solid color or pepper and salt clusters of white stripes. These may all be of the same width, or some may be an eighth of an inch wide, while others are but one thread. But, however they are, they are always neat and pretty. They really require but little trimming, and here stitching comes in as a natural selection.

So long a time has passed since silk was worn to any extent in the street as a full costume we have almost come to regard silk as intended only for the house, but the coming season will, if all signs do not fail, see many suits of silk, and not all black either. There is a design in which the rich and heavy body of the silk is black, but there are clusters of white stripes, arranged so that two narrow stripes are set each side of a wider one. Sometimes there will be six or more fine white lines all together and of the same width. Again they will begin on one side with fine lines, which widen until the last one is a quarter of an inch wide. These are all straight, but once in awhile we see one where the lines are all wavy. Sometimes the lines are made up of tiny checks of black and white.

Cinnamon brown and several of the pleasing wood shades will be seen and some dull and navy blues for ordinary spring outdoor wear, but grays, gun metal mixtures and black and white effects would now seem to be the outlook. For the present, while still the winter festivities are in order, there are many different weights and qualities of white silks, and these are all fine and look well when properly made. Black lace medallions, spangles and chenille embroidery are all suitable, and flounces are frequently seen where the lace has narrow black velvet ribbon run through the holes made for the purpose. Crepe de chine in white and cream makes pretty gowns for dinner and all evening dresses except dancing frocks for the young. For this purpose there are many different kinds of light silks, such as louisine, liberty and delicate satin liberty. For evening waists where high necked gowns are suitable there are some really handsome corded silks, which look superbly rich and sumptuous and yet cost very little.

Among the silks intended for late spring and summer are many fancy foulards, polka dotted twills and satin liberties. Taffeta is now one of the standard silks and has displaced almost entirely all the heavy corded ones, such as rhadames, armure, faille and peau de soie. We do see some of these heavier silks occasionally, but they are more for cloaks than for gowns. It is a pity, for there is nothing to equal black silk.

Woolen goods for the spring are now shown, and among them we find all sorts of colors in all wool vicuna cheviots, tweeds, plain cheviots, canvas suitings, covert cloths, satin faced coverts, flake suitings, twilled and plain homespuns, many kinds of voiles in canvas weave and plain, waistings in Scotch cheviots and wools, granite cloths craped and plain, and most of these are both mercerized and cravenetted so as to be lustrous and waterproof.

From present appearances there will be much of the semimilitary ornamentation on suits for young women. It is very striking, and therefore should not be worn by those who have passed their first youth. The plan consists in having braid or cord or velvet put on the coat, with lots of shining brass buttons. The illustration shows deep cuffs with the gold braid and buttons, and also the arrangement of the same trimming on the shoulders and in front. The skirt of such a suit should be plain but neatly made, and the hat to be in keeping should be of the tricorne variety.

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Needs of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL, IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

BODILY POISE

DID you ever sit in an audience hall in one of the back seats and watch the women come in and walk down the aisles? If not, then do so next time you go to such a place. You will be unpleasantly surprised at the awkward, ungainly gait of many of the women. In fact, the way a considerable proportion of our women carry themselves is a disgrace to a free country. Mrs. M. Landon Reed, the beautiful Delsartean herself a teacher of physical culture, declares that when the average woman walks her weight is thrown upon her heels, her stomach is usually protruded, her shoulders are either held too far backward or bent too far forward, while she holds her arms stiffly, one shoulder often being shoved higher than the other by the way in which she clutches up her skirt or carries a parcel.

This is sad, solid truth!

What is worse, and more of it, Mrs. Reed tells us that thoughts, disposition and feelings are plainly shown in the motions of the body. Think, then, what a sloppy, uncultivated, wabbling mentality many girls and women must have if they think the way they walk! If, as the Delsartean lady insists, we tell on ourselves with every movement of the body, isn't it high time we were training our walk and carriage?

There is really much more in this than most of us know or consider. You see the picture. It is one whereby Mrs. Reed illustrates to us the "correct poise" of a woman's body. It is the position all persons should assume and keep in walking and standing. If we do, we may be assured we shall always stand and walk gracefully.

To get this attitude stand erect and hold your chest up. Always hold the chest up and breathe as deeply as possible, away around to the very tips of your lungs under the shoulder blades. The deep breathing habit of itself tends to lift the chest and enlarge it, securing a noble poise. To do real good the air you breathe must be the purest you can find. When you stand erect don't try to "throw your shoulders back" too far. That is the direction usually given, but it is a mistake. If you hold your chest persistently up, your shoulders will naturally assume the right position without much trouble on your part in the matter of turning them back.

The next point is to bear your weight upon the front part of your feet. It is a horrible walk, that of the girl or woman who goes slump, slump along with her weight on her heels. It gives the impression of age and oxlike heaviness even to a girl of sixteen. Besides, at every step there are the terrible jar and shock upon the spine and nerves of the back and head. Really, such a walk is enough to shake all the sense out of a woman's brains. The heel walking habit undoubtedly aggravates the tendency to weakening and paralysis of the spinal nerves and disease of the back. Are you a heel walker?

To illustrate perfectly what I mean, stand before a mirror in which you can see yourself full length. Now, take the position many middle aged women, and girls as well, let themselves fall into in standing and walking—chest down, stomach consequently protruding and shoulders rounded, with the weight of the body upon the heels and out of all graceful balance. So! Your reflection is not a pretty sight, is it?

Now stand the correct and beautiful way. Lift your chest as far up as you can easily and naturally, take a deep breath or two to fix the pose, then, advancing one foot slightly, throw all your weight upon the front third of your foot. See! You will feel buoyant as a ballet dancer. A heavy, slumpy old woman can take a dozen years off her figure by assuming the correct poise and keeping it.

An old woman can correct bad habits quite as readily as a young woman.

The essence of Delsarteism is, perhaps, that bodily poses affect the mind.

MARCIA W. CAMPBELL.

RAILWAY ROBBERS ROUNDED UP.

Seven Men In Custody at Lynn Robbed Many Stations.

LYNN, Mass., Jan. 27.—By the arrest of seven men in this city, two of whom were captured after an exchange of shots with the police, the authorities, state, county and city, believe they have at last rounded up the gang of burglars and highwaymen who for nearly four months have terrorized Essex county.

One of the men, Frank Hayden, a native of Wisconsin and considered the most desperate of the number, has been identified as the leader in the holding up of Chief of Police Nixon of Merrimac on Nov. 18, the robbery of the safe of the Metropolitan Coal company in East Boston on Dec. 6, which resulted in a battle with the police and the death of one of the robbers, and the assault at an early hour on Station Agent R. E. Whitman at Danvers.

Hayden has served three years in the Essex county jail in Lawrence, from which institution he escaped on April 4, 1900, being captured in Thomaston, Me., a few weeks afterward.

The men under arrest include George Dart, a native of Maine; John McDermott and Hartley Carver of Lynn and Frank Murray, said to be from the west. These men, with Hayden, the police believe, were the ringleaders in the recent series of crimes, but the police also took into custody William Higgins and John Nestor principally for the reason that they were associates of the other five. Dart and McDermott were also identified by Station Agent Whitman as being with Hayden during the robbery of the railroad station. Hayden and Dart fought desperately against arrest.

Kaiser's Birthday Celebration.

BERLIN, Jan. 27.—The general rejoicing over the recovery of Emperor William from his recent throat trouble is expressed in the unexampled celebration of his birthday here today. The emperor was born Jan. 27, 1859. King Leopold of Belgium arrived last night and was welcomed at the railroad station by the emperor and the crown prince with hearty greetings. The royal party proceeded to the castle, the emperor and the king chatting pleasantly. The streets are filled with people who have come out to witness the celebration, and the crowd is probably more enthusiastic and greater than upon any other occasion of the present reign. The palaces are overcrowded with visiting royal personages.

Rebels Threaten American Property.

SANTO DOMINGO, Jan. 27.—It having been learned that the insurgents are destroying American property in Santo Domingo, the United States cruiser Columbia has left for San Pedro de Macoris to protect American interests there, the American consul at San Pedro having telegraphed Minister Powell advising him of the necessity of the cruiser's presence and saying also that other foreign interests were imperiled. The government is unable to afford the necessary protection. Certain American sugar estates at San Pedro are considered to be especially threatened, as they are some distance from the town and quite without protection.

Lily White Committee Meets.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 27.—The lily white Republican state central committee met here and selected Feb. 17 as the date of the convention to nominate a state ticket and name delegates to the national convention at Chicago. No negroes were present at the meeting.

ARE SOCIAL DICTATORS.

Three Army Officers Who Manage All the Society Events at the National Capitol.

The social season for the coming winter at the white house will shortly be inaugurated, and much interest already centers about the men upon whom falls the task of serving as social aids. Upon the shoulders of Col. Thomas W. Symonds rests the chief burden, as master of ceremonies, but scarcely less important will be the duties of Maj. Charles McCawley and Capt. Henry M. Leonard.

Both officers are Washington men. The former has been conspicuous in the society of the capital for more than a dozen years and during the Santiago campaign in Cuba proved himself a brave and capable soldier. He is handsome and accomplished, popular and an athlete. If it be added that he is one of the best dressed men in Washington, his description will be fairly complete.

COL. THOMAS W. SYMONDS.
(Master of Ceremonies at the Executive Mansion at Washington.)

Capt. Leonard has likewise beheld the front of war, and in its sternest aspect. He took active part before he saw 25 years of age in three wars—in Cuba, in the Philippines and in China. During the Tientsin campaign he risked his life by going to the rescue of a wounded comrade, carrying him to safety on his back across a fire-swept fiend and lost his left arm as a penalty for his achievement. If he had been an Englishman the Victoria cross, prized beyond all other decorations of the soldier, would have been bestowed upon him.

OUT FOR GOVERNORSHIP.

Congressman Warner the Latest Aspirant for Gubernatorial Honors in the State of Illinois.

The roll of republican aspirants for the gubernatorial nomination in Illinois has been increased by the addition of the name of Congressman Vespasian Warner, of Clinton. The list of pronounced candidates now includes the names of Gov. Yates, State's Attorney Deneen, of Chicago; Col. Lowden, also of Chicago; Attorney General Hamlin, ex-Speaker Sherman and several others. Congressman Warner, whose ambition has now made him a formidable opponent of the gentlemen named, was born on a Dewitt county farm April 21, 1842. He enlisted in the army June 13, 1861, and served continuously until July, 1866. In 1868 he entered Harvard university law school, from which he later was graduated.

HON. VESPASIAN WARNER.
(Illinois Congressman Who Wants to Be Governor of His State.)

He began practice at Clinton, his present home. He was judge advocate of the state militia during the administrations of Govs. Oglesby, Hamilton and Fifer. In 1888 he was a presidential elector. He was elected to the Fifty-fourth congress and reelected to the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh. He has a wife and five children.

Most Famous Lighthouse.

No lighthouse the world over has as wide fame among mariners as that which stands 14 miles off the coast of Land's End. It is perhaps the most celebrated in the world. It has often been used as an illustration by poets and preachers, for no other lighthouse is in such a lonesome or dangerous place and none costs so much money and trouble. There are three keepers who live there with their families, and two of them are always on duty, while the third is on the main coast enjoying a vacation. They relieve each other each month, so that none of the keepers remains on duty more than two months at a time. This change and rest is said to be absolutely necessary to preserve the nerves of the keepers. The lighthouse is 135 feet high, was erected in 1882 at a cost of $400,000, and rises from a submerged rock.

JAPAN CALLS TIME

Will Permit No Further Delay For Russia's Reply.

SITUATION DEMANDS NO EVASION

The Tokyo Government Would Have the Nation's Support In a Declaration of War and the Seizure of Korea.

TOKYO, Jan. 27.—The Japanese government has diplomatically intimated to Baron de Rosen, the Russian minister, that an early response is desired to Japan's recent note to Russia. It is calculated here that the Japanese note reached the Russian cabinet on Jan. 16, and it is felt that sufficient time has elapsed for its consideration and the preparation of a response.

The Japanese government is conscious of the possible necessities of the military and naval situation and is unwilling to permit evasions and delays which are designed to gain time. The future course of the Japanese government is a carefully guarded secret.

The length of time that Japan is prepared to await the pleasure of Russia is unknown. It seems probable that it has been determined to act decisively within a few days. The popular temper has long opposed further delay.

While many objected to Japan's taking the initiative, a majority would now welcome the issuance of a brief ultimatum and a declaration of war, if that should prove ineffective. Some outside opinion here inclines to the belief that the activity of the Japanese will be limited to the seizure of Korea, which enterprise, it is thought, Russia would not oppose. The Japanese government proceeds with absolute secrecy, and the people of Japan are not even informed of the exact nature of the demands made on Russia.

A dispatch from Seoul, Korea, says 100 armed Japanese have been sent to Pyengyang to insure the safety of the people, it having been reported that the houses of wealthy natives there were being looted by Korean soldiers and police disguised as robbers.

Advices from Peking say that an imperial edict just issued there relating to the raising of the funds necessary for the new army plans has been published. It orders the taxation of wines and tobacco, decrees that all official perquisites shall be applied to the army fund, enjoins the reduction of the expenses of the imperial household, orders the public works department to stop all unimportant work and appeals to officials and merchants to contribute, promising to reward the contributors. Officials everywhere are exhorted to show loyalty in supporting the government. In conclusion the edict threatens bunishment for those who obstruct the execution of the plans.

A telegram received from Newchwang says the magistrate at Kinchoufu, Manchuria, has received instructions to accommodate seventy Cossacks who have been sent there as a guard by the Russian military authorities.

Spaniard Shot Both.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Finding his wife Lydia entertaining Stephen Little, a neighbor, in the dining room of her house in Cranberry street, Brooklyn, Joseph Sarriera, a Spaniard, without an instant's warning drew a revolver and shot both, inflicting injuries which are regarded as fatal. Sarriera was arrested. He said that he had frequently warned Little to keep away from his home, but declared that he had no intention of shooting his wife.

Carelessness Caused Death.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Jan. 27.—Word has just reached this city from Warren Center, Pa., of the fatal shooting of the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Payne. An older son left a loaded rifle lying across a bed. It is supposed that the little child attempted to pull the gun to her muzzle first. A report was heard, and when the mother rushed into the bedroom she found the child dead.

Alleged Americans Arrested.

NICE, France, Jan. 27.—The police here have arrested two alleged Americans, one named William Hurst and the other Ireland, upon charges of swindling, card sharping and theft. Both men have been prominent in sporting circles here and are supposed to belong to an international gang, several members of which have been apprehended lately.

A 2,000 Mile Trip to Pay Poll Tax.

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 27.—Congressman W. S. Burleson has arrived from Washington, having traveled 2,000 miles to pay his poll tax of $1.75 in order that he might retain his privileges as a voter and officeholder in Texas. The trip was necessary because he did not pay his taxes before leaving for Washington.

Albers Found Guilty.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Jan. 27.—Ex-Circuit Court Commissioner Gerritt H. Albers has been found guilty by a jury in the superior court here of the charge of perjury committed on a former trial for bribery. Albers' counsel moved for a stay of sentence, and the court granted a stay until Feb. 21.

The Cliffs Burned.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Jan. 27.—The Cliffs, famous as a hotel and resort, located on Walden's ridge, ten miles from this city, has been destroyed by fire. The hotel will be rebuilt.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

Owing to other engagements Roselle Casino was not able to bowl Cranford, last night, in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament, and the series will be rolled tomorrow night. The series scheduled between the Westfield Club and the Parks for tomorrow night on the Park Club alleys have been postponed to Friday night on account of several important events in local society.

DIAMOND DUST.

Judging from the talk now heard in local baseball circles, the Alis Club is not likely to join any league that may be formed by clubs along the line of the New Jersey Central. The management prefers to play independent games, a majority of which will be on Crescent Oval, while if the team was in a league too many games would be played away from home.

CHURCH SOCIAL.

Delightful Affair at East Third Street Chapel.

A social under the auspices of the members of the East Third Street chapel was held last night in the Sunday-school rooms. Music was a feature of the evening. Clifford Braider favored with piano selections and Clarence L. Murphy gave several phonographic selections. Frank Mullins, an adept on the violin, gave a number of renditions and Miss Florence Randolph sang several songs. John Viebock gave renditions on musical instruments and Roger Adams gave pleasing selections on the mandolin. C. W. Frank favored with violin selections and G. M. Staats sang. U. B. Crane was in charge of the programme, associated with John Viebock and L. W. Randolph. A handsome bouquet was presented to Mrs. Leggett by the committee, in behalf of the members of the chapel.

MASONS' BIG TIME.

Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., Celebrates 25th Anniversary.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the institution of Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., was appropriately observed last night, when all of the past masters of the lodge, with the exception of one, were present and conferred the Master Mason degree, after which a collation was served. Among the visitors present were Benjamin Wakefield, senior grand warden, Passaic; Walter Chandler, junior grand warden, Elizabeth, and Joseph Parker, district deputy of the seventh Masonic district.

Mrs. Harden's Grandfather Dead.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Harden, of Somerset street, attended the funeral of Mrs. Harden's grandfather in Bound Brook today. Some time ago his wife leaned over a hot stove and her shawl caught fire. She was burned about the face and arms, and he was nearly paralysed from fear. He had suffered from heart trouble and the excitement caused him to grow rapidly worse until his death occurred on Sunday. His wife survives him.

Lost Watch in New York.

E. E. Dorman, of Central avenue, suffered a loss a few nights ago, while going from his New York place of business to the ferry, on his way home. A gold watch, which he had carried for fifty-two years, was picked out his pocket. Mr. Dorman did not miss the timepiece until he reached his train in Jersey City and it was then too late to make an effort to recover it.

Strong Institution.

The annual statement of the Dime Savings Institution of this city, as printed on page 5 of this issue of The Daily Press, shows that the bank is in a healthy financial condition. Its strength, safety and conservatism and its value to the moderate investor can best be realized by a glance at the figures as printed.

SNAP SHOTS.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

The enrollments at the great seats of learning in this country are as follows: University of Michigan, 3,900; Harvard, 4,265; University of Chicago, 4,550; Yale, 2,785; Northwestern University, 3,200; Pennsylvania, 2,500; University of Minnesota, 3,700; Princeton, 1,350.

While the trolley cars now operated on the Front street line in this city are a great improvement over the old ones, there is one feature of the service that needs attention and that is running the cars on time. It frequently happens that two or three cars will be going in one direction, within a shot distance of one another, while there will be no cars in the opposite direction for a long time.

"Cut It Out."

When you're running to a fad,
Cut it out;
If you're drifting to the bad,
Cut it out;
When you want to tell a joke
That is old enough to smoke,
Have a thought for other folk;
Cut it out.

When you get a grouchy spell,
Cut it out;
When you're head begins to swell,
Cut it out;
If you want to be a sport,
Noisy clothes and pocket short,
Swaggering where toughs resort,
Cut it out. —Exchange.

The recent election of Mr. L. A. Lores, as president of the Rock Island system, marks another of the many changing events which have taken place in the conduct of that property within the past two years. It is an open secret in railroad circles that no road in the West, or in the country for that matter, is in worse shape to handle traffic than is the Rock Island, a result of Mr. Warren's ideas of management and economy. The rank and file of the service, as were the employes of the New Jersey Central, under Mr. Warren's rule, are dissatisfied and disheartened and there can be no doubt that the property generally is in a deplorable condition.—Railroad Employe.

A newspaper story that is going the rounds of one of the larger western cities concerns a young and very green reporter who had just been taken on the staff of the town's leading daily. It happened that several theatrical openings occurred on the same night, and the staff of the paper's dramatic department was able to "cover" only three out of the four events. Space was reserved for a story on Mme. Modjeska, who was to open that night in a new play, and the young reporter was assigned to the story.

About 9 o'clock he strolled into the office. The city editor greeted him with astonishment.

"Why, how's this?" he exclaimed. "Didn't you get any story?"

"No," explained the reporter; "there wasn't any story. I saw Mme. Modjeska attacked by a footpad as she was leaving her carriage at the stage door, and as she didn't come too, I knew that the performance was off, so I didn't wait."—Harpers.

Unconscious From Fall.

Miss Wilhelminia Vroom, of East Fifth street, while on her way home last night, fell on the icy sidewalk near the corner of Fifth street and Watchung avenue, and for a short time she was unconscious. In the fall she broke her gold-rimmed eye-glasses. A passerby assisted Miss Vroom to her home and today she is able to be out again.

Sawbones Congregate.

The members of the Doctors' Club were entertained last night at dinner at the home of Dr. E. W. Hedges, of Watchung avenue. It was the regular monthly meeting of the Club. A paper was read by Dr. Hedges.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Auerbach, who have been spending their honeymoon in the Bermudas, have returned and are residing at the home of the bride, West Front street.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

Robin and Pigeon.

Robin Redbreast promises to be as much of an issue in legislative debate at Trenton this winter as the pigeon was last winter.—Camden Post-Telegram.

Roosevelt, Not Hanna.

When the Chicago Inter-Ocean intimates that Connecticut is doubtful for Republicans if Roosevelt is nominated, it misrepresents—either purposely or through complete ignorance. No other man in the United States could today get as many votes in this State as Theodore Roosevelt can get—and will get.—Hartford Courant.

First Fool Bill.

The first fool bill in the Legislature is a measure introduced by one Senator Strimple, which proposes to allow, if not encourage, the slaughter of robins and catbirds, because certain ignorant farmers in South Jersey say they harm their crops. To kill these birds would be bad enough if it were true that they did harm, but as a matter of fact they far more than earn their living by their war on insect life. That they occasionally mar fruit is true, but it is a matter of small importance at its worst and bears no comparison to their usefulness.

Visit of Kean and Fowler.

United States Senator Kean and Congressman Charles N. Fowler are invited to sit at the same festive board in Plainfield on the 28th inst., and drink to Plainfield's prosperity. If they do so it will be a surprise to Union county Republicans and a indication that an outward show of harmony is to be maintained for the coming campaign. There is no reason why the party should suffer because of their mutual antipathy, but unfortunately such was the case at the recent election in Union, presenting a deplorable situation which both should endeavor to correct at the coming election.—Camden Post-Telegram.

Backing Up the Governor.

Governor Murphy touched a popular chord when he denounced the practice of cutting into Jersey's landscape beauty with objectionable signboards. All Jerseymen, and especially the dairily traveler on the principal roads, echo his sentiments. Now let the Legislature impose a tax on such signs, the revenue to go to the taxing district, making the levy so high as to insure relief from the obnoxious spectacle. Owners of the land on which these signs appear evidently are paid for the privilege, but that doesn't compensate others whose sensibilities are shocked without any compensation.—Hackensack Democrat.

Coal Statistics.

Official statistics of anthracite coal mined and marketed in 1903 show the proportion of the coal carried by each of the railroads. The total amount of coal marketed was 59,362,831 tons, compared with 31,200,890 in 1902, the abnomal strike year, and 53,568,601 in 1901, a normal year. Of this record-breaking output the Reading carried 19.86 per cent.; the Lehigh Valley, 16.40 per cent.; Central Railroad of New Jersey, 12.47 per cent.; Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, 16.13 per cent.; Delaware and Hudson, 9.99 per cent.; Pennsylvania Railroad, 6.67 per cent.; Erie, 10.68 per cent.; the New York, Ontario and Western, 2.54 per cent.; and the Delaware, Susquehanna and Schuylkill, 2.76 per cent.—N. Y. Herald.

The Exclusive Senate.

The Senate quickly abandoned the plan of adding to the exclusiveness required by the arrangement of the new chamber. There were some loud murmurings when the public found that it was shut out entirely from the new Senate chamber, but when an attempt was made to exclude it also from the foyer, the dissatisfaction became so manifest that the order was quickly countermanded and the explanation made that "it was a misunderstanding." There has been nothing quite like the incident since the winter of 1894, when the attempt at secrecy was a part of the scheme to steal the State and that ended disastrously to the party responsible for the plotting. The new Senate chamber is none too popular.—From the Trenton Times.

Robin Pot Pie.

Poor Cock Robin! The farmers are after him. There is a demand from all sections of the State where fruit is grown, we are told by W. H. Reed, a member of the New Jersey State Horticultural Society, for an open season during which robins may be shot. The praises of the robin sung in song and story until we have come to look upod it as a creature to be loved and protected, but the fruit growers say that it destroys their crops and costs them thousands of dollars every year. There is no good reason to doubt the statements of the fruit growers. They would not complain against the robin, we believe, unless they had just cause, and if the bird has become a menace to the fruit-growing industry he should be done away with. The dead robin may be turned to good account. There is nothing quite equal to a robin pot pie.—State Gazette.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Society folk are planning to give a minstrel show in the Casino early in April.

—The case of Martin against Brennan on contract will be heard Tuesday, February 2, in Justice Huff's court.

—W. H. Kirch, carpenter and general contractor, has removed his office from 148 East Fifth srteet, to his residence, 66 Duer street.

—The Plainfield Building and Loan Association met at the offices of Leifke & Laing on Monday night and transacted routine business.

—Since the new arrangement of operating the Elizabeth and Plainfield trolley cars through to Dunellen went into effect, patrons of the main line trolley have had less cause to complain. The cars are roomy, usually well-heated and afford a striking contrast to the old "truck," used on the line for so long a time.

PERSONAL.

Miss Mary Insay, of Montclair, who has been the guest of friends in this city for the past few days, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Montgomery, of West Front street, have returned from a visit to Mrs. Montgomery's parents in Brooklyn.

Hideous Signs.

The suggestion in the second annual message of Governor Murphy, of New Jersey, to the Legislature of that State, urging a concerted effort to remove the advertising signs placed along the lines of railway through the State, is one which has the hearty support of The Outlook, and which ought to have the support of every citizen who cares for the dignity and beauty of the landscape. The scores of thousands of men and women who live in the New Jersey towns and cities near New York are compelled, whenever they come to or go from the city, to pass a long procession of monstrosities in the way of advertising signs, and vigorous condemnation is heard on all sides. These signs are an outrage on the traveling public, which finds itself forced to read about remedies, articles of food and wearing apparel, instead of securing a clear view of what is, in many seasons of the year, a bit of landscape of exceptional interest and beauty. The journey from New York to Philadelphia is made hideous by a long procession signs which seem to move with the trains, many of which are vulgar, all of which are offensive; and the day is not distant, which Governor Murphy foresees, when the passenger "will pass through a continuous and unbroken lane of signboards that will trouble his nights and days with suggestions of things that are disagreeable." Governor Murphy proposes to strike at this abomination by levying a high tax. If the State is to be used for advertising purposes and the public are to be offended, somebody ought to pay for the privilege; and the rate of payment ought to be made so high that this kind of advertising will cease to be profitable for the proprietors of patent medicines, or the inventors of gigantic elephants, monstrous cologne bottles, and other things.—The Outlook.

Fire In Barrett's Cellar.

A still alarm at 11:05 o'clock this morning was for a fire in the cellar of E. D. Barrett's house on East Fifth street. Some rubbish at the foot of the cellar stairs caught fire probably from hot ashes. The firemen had no difficulty in removing all danger. There was no damage.

Fractured Leg.

John Powers, an aged man living at 221 Grove street, fell yesterday afternoon while walking along the above street and fractured his leg. He was removed to his home, where under the care of a physician he is doing as well as can be expected.

Birthday Party.

Clifford Stites, of West Second street, entertained a number of his friends last night at a party given in honor of his birthday. Games were played during the evening and a social time was held. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Small-Pox Patient Better.

Alex. Stills, the small-pox patient, is reported by the hospital authorities as slightly better today.

BOROUGH FIREMEN EXPLAIN THEIR SIDE

North Plainfield Volunteer Department Gives Its Version of the Trouble.

ADDRESS TO CITIZENS

AFTER APPROPRIATION SECURED FOR DEFINITE PURPOSE CHANGE IS MADE.

Before Disbanding, the Fire Laddies Tell the Whole Story, Claiming That the Blame Should be Placed Where It is Due.

To the Citizens of the Borough of North Plainfield:

Now that the "paid fire department" is an assured fact the firemen have thought that it would not be amiss if they were to state their position of the matter in controversy before disbanding their organization as a volunteer fire department.

The history of the matter in controversy is as follows:

"About two years ago the Council was convinced from a statement made to them by the fire, water and lamp committee that the old fire house was unsanitary and also inadequate to meet the needs of the Borough and a resolution was passed that a new fire house be built and the firemen were instructed to secure the necessary signers to the petition, asking that an election be held for this purpose. In order that there might be no objection on the part of the taxpayers whose signatures were desired, the firemen were instructed to tell the taxpayers that the new 'fire house' would effect a saving in taxes—that the Council intended to occupy the upper part of the old fire house for a Council chamber and the rest of the building would be used for a collector's office, recorder's court and lock up.

"When the election was held it was with this end in view that the new fire house was for fire purposes only and no other view was ever expressed or implied either by the Mayor or Counil.

"It must be remembered also that on account of the original estimate being too high the plans were altered two or three times and new estimates obtained in order not to exceed the amount voted for a 'new fire house.'

"And during the time the plans were being altered and new estimates obtained if it was the intention of the Mayor and Council to occupy part of the new house why did not they at this time declare their intention of so doing; but instead they declared in all their discussion relative to the 'new fire house' that they wanted the firemen to have a nice and sightly fire house as a monument to their past services.

"It seems strange there should be absolute silence on the part of the Mayor and Council as to their intention until the new fire house was nearly completed and the studding partly up dividing the upper story into rooms for the use of the different officers of the fire department when the Mayor and Council suddenly conceive the idea that part of the fire house must be used for a Council chamber and the firemen were then notified of the intention of the Council and asked to give their consent.

"After receiving this notification the firemen held a meeting and at this meeting adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That all power is vested in the Council and they can take any part of the new fire house they desire for Councilmanic purposes, but as a 'fire department' we dissent against the Council occupying any part of the new fire house as a Council chamber.

"And there is nothing in the above resolution but what is pacific and courteous in tone and surely nothing in it that reveals the slightest indication of a spirit of insubordination such as would warrant the Mayor and Council in creating a paid fire department.

"The firemen did not say they would not occupy any part of the new fire house if the Council took possession of a part of it, they simply said they dissented and in so doing they were standing on principle that as the fire house was built for, and voted for, for fire purposes only the Council had no more right to occupy any part of the new house than they would have a right to occupy any part of a new school house voted for and built for school purposes.

"The firemen would not think for a moment of publishing anything in connection with this controversy were

BILLIARD TOURNAMENT OF MUCH INTEREST

Number of Well-Known Players Participating in Camera Club's Contest.

OSMUN AND POPE LEAD

HIGHEST AVERAGE SCORE IS HELD BY HENRY B. DUNBAR.

Two Loving Cups Offered as Prizes—Trophies to Be Exhibited at Doane's Jewelry Store—Contest Closes April 1.

The billiard tournament started in the Plainfield Camera Club rooms among the members on Christmas Day, is being attended with considerable interest. The contestants include Henry B. Dunbar, J. Hervey Doane, F. T. Ostrom, Captain Stillman, Samuel Craig, George A. Bicknell, J. F. O'Keefe, Fred'k J. Pope and Richard A. Osmun.

The tournament is now about half completed and there is a close contest between R. A. Osmun and Fred'k J. Pope, who lead. The highest average score, 181, is held by Henry B. Dunbar. It is expected that the tournament will close about April 1.

Two loving cups are offered as prizes, one to be presented to the person who makes the highest average score and the other to the one winning the tournament. One person cannot receive both cups. The prizes will soon be placed on exhibition in the window of J. Hervey Doane's jewelry store.

ADAM FRITZ IS RELEASED

WIFE-BEATER PAYS FINE AND IS DISCHARGED BY RECORDER.

Adam Fritz, who has been sojoining in the borough lockup for the past seven days, serving a sentence for wife-beating and profanity, was released last night after paying a fine of $20. He had the required sum in his pocket and paid it over to Chief Marshal William B. Campbell. He was represented by Walter L. Hetfield, Jr. Yesterday afternoon he sent for his wife and they had a long conversation which resulted, it is believed, in his wife refusing to live with him again. He was about town this morning.

FOR BETTER ROADS.

Mr. Meeker is at the Convention in Washington and Calls on the President.

R. A. Meeker, State engineer of New Jersey, of Trenton and Plainfield, was the New Jersey delegateto the national good roads convention, held in Washington, D. C. The delegates spent the entire day Tuesday and yesterday before the agricultural committees of both Houses of Congress, working for an appropriation of $420,000,000 from the national government for the improvement of old roads and the construction of new ones.

The several States represented agree to appropriate a like amount, the total that is proposed to be expended by the advocates of good roads being $48,000,000. The several State Legislatures will make appropriations based on population. Under the proposed plan New Jersey would get $546,000 and New York $2,000,000.

New Jersey is thoroughly organized with a State law and commissioners with an official force. The other States having regular road commissioners are Massachusetts, Connecticut and New York.

The improvement proposed in New Jersey, according to Mr. Meeker, is on the principal roads within the Newark section and the Delaware Valley section. Also to construct an approved highway along the seacoast from Jersey City to Cape May.

Mr. Meeker was one of the committee of five named by the convention to call upon President Roosevelt. The call was made Tuesday afternoon.

Saengerbund Hall Insurance.

Insurance adjusters are engaged in trying to effect an adjustment of the claims resulting from the Saengerbund Hall fire. The insurance upon the furniture amounting to $1,350 has been paid. Liefke & Laing and W. A. Woodruff represented the insurance company.

Slippery Sidewalks; Fractured Hip.

Mrs. James M. MacDonald, of West Front street, slipped and fell on West Seventh street yesterday afternoon and fractured her hip. She was removed to her home in a carriage.

VERDICT OF JURY FAVORED ZIMMERMAN

Mercer County Jury Held That Trenton Man Had No Cause of Action.

SUIT OVER MACHINERY

DISPUTE AS TO WHAT WAS INCLUDED IN A SALE.

Schlicher Sold Packing House Business on West Front Street to Peter Zimmerman—Suit to Recover $350.

Peter Schlicher of Trenton, lost his suit yesterday in Mercer County Court at Trenton, against Peter Zimmerman, formerly of this city, to recover from whom he sued for $365 for bologna making machinery he claims the defendant unlawfully retained.

It seems that Zimmerman, in July last, bought of Schlicher the business of the Plainfield Packing Company, then doing business in the Cutter building on West Front street, and the good will and fixtures were transferred to him. There is a building in the rear of the main plant used as a bologna kitchen, and Schlicher maintains that Zimmerman had no right, according to the bill of sale, to take possession of the machinery there. Zimmerman holds that he bought the entire plant, including the machinery.

In charging the jury Judge Swayze told them that if they found that the bologna kitchen and the front building had been operated by Schlicher as one plant they must find for the defendant. If the bologna kitchen had been a separate concern they should find for the plaintiff.

The jury returned after 11 o'clock, last night with a verdict of "no cause of action."

CLARENCE ANTHONY IS DEAD

SOMERSET STREET BARBER DIES IN MUHLENBERG HOSPITAL.

Clarence Anthony, of West End avenue, who was taken to Muhlenberg Hospital recently to be treated for cancer of the stomach, died at that institution this morning. His condition was such that there was no hope for his recovery and his death was expected at any time.

Mr. Anthony was born at Elmira, N. Y., from which place he went to Binghamton, N. Y., where he conducted a livery business. He afterward moved to Scranton, Pa. Two years ago he came to Plainfield and at different times and places he followed his business, being engaged the last time with Lafayette Rosenstiehl, the barber, of Somerset street. He made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Utter on West End avenue. He is survived by parents and they are expected to arrive in Plainfield tonight. A wife and one child also survive him.

Mr. Anthony was a member of the local Barbers' Union and some action will be taken by the union regarding the death. Funeral services will be held at A. M. Runyon & Son's parlors Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

MARRIED 18 YEARS.

Mr. and Mrs. VanWinkle Happily Surprised by Their Friends Last Night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah VanWinkle, of 110 Park avenue, were surprised by fifty relatives and friends last night on their eighteenth wedding anniversary.

Dancing, games and music were among the chief features of the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served at a late hour and a pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. VanWinkle were married on January 27, 1886, by Rev. A. V. V. Raymond, at the home of the bride, who was Miss Miriam Garretson, of Central avenue, this city. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith Garretson. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah VanWinkle. Many of those present came from out of town.

Lodge of Instruction.

A party of fourteen members of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 226, F. and A. M., attended a grand lodge of instruction held in Washington Lodge rooms, Elizabeth last night at which the district deputies of the Masonic order in New Jersey exemplified the work.

Academy Opened.

St. Gabriel's academy in North Plainfield has reopened for its second term.

ST. STEPHEN'S NEW RECTOR

REV. WM. R. HARRIS TO ASSUME HIS DUTIES ON SUNDAY.

Matters of interest to the parish were discussed at a meeting of the vestry of St. Stephen's church was held last night at the home of Dr. Dupuy, the senior warden. The call extended to Rev. William R. Harris, of Martine avenue was announced, and he is to serve for three months commencing on Sunday. If at the expiration of that time everything is satisfactory arrangements for a longer term will be made. Mr. Harris was present last night and opened the meeting with prayer. Charles Suhr was engaged as organist for a term of three months. The church is now in a fairly prosperous condition and the prospects for the future are exceedingly bright. Those present included Dr. Dupuy, senior warden; J. H. Buckley, junior warden; Fred Hebert, treasurer; A. R. Hill, secretary; Alfred Lacey, clerk.

BAPTIZED BY DR. CHAMBLISS

FOUR RECEIVED RITE LAST NIGHT AND OTHERS TO RECEIVE IT LATER.

Following the mid-week prayer meeting at the First Baptist church, last night, four persons were baptized by the pastor, Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss. There were three young men and one woman. Several others were received last night at the prayer meeting, making in all twenty-two. Of this number seven will be baptized on Sunday and the others on Wednesday night of next week. This is done so that the new members can be received at the next communion, February 7.

There was a very large attendance at the prayer meeting last night and unusual interest was manifested. Dr. Chambliss gave a helpful talk, especially to the new converts and a genuine spirit of increased interest in spiritual matters was evidenced.

A letter of dismissal to unite with a church in Malvern, Ohio, was granted Alexander Grant; a similar letter was given W. O. Chapman to unite with a church in Brooklyn; and others to Mrs. Samuel P. Dunn and her daughters, Miss Nellie M. Dunn and Miss Evelyn Dunn, to unite with the Sixth Avenue Baptist church, of Brooklyn.

The four who were admitted into the church by baptism were Mrs. J. B. Probasco, John Rittenhouse, of Miss Ada Fountain's Sunday-school class, Everett Sherman, of Miss May Shreve's class, and Leslie Powlison, of N. Douglass Drake's class.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Surprised Tendered to Mrs. George VanNest, of Mariners Place.

Marking the anniversary of her birthday, a surprise party was given to Mrs. George VanNest, last night, at her home in Mariners place. The affair was arranged by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Conover, of Elmwood place, and those present included the relatives and a few friends. The evening was spent in a social way and the playing of games added to the pleasure. Mrs. VanNest received a number of handsome and useful presents as reminders of the occasion. Before the guests departed for their homes, supper was served.

EMPLOYES' BALL.

Scheuer & Sons' Men to Have Gala Time in Newark February 16.

Preparations are being made for the fifth annual reception and dance of S. Scheuer & Sons' employes, which is scheduled to take place at the Krueger Auditorium, Newark, February 16. The committee in charge has spared neither time nor effort to make the function a success, and present indications point to a large attendance. The interior of the hall will be decorated with a profusion of choice plants and flowers. Sweet's Military Band will play promenade music between 9 and 10 o'clock.

Reversible Social.

A social gathering for the whole congregation is arranged for tomorrow evening at the Congregational church. The committee in charge has termed it a "Reversible Social," and it promises novel amusement for young and old.

Elected Director.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Trade and Transportation, held yesterday in New York, Frank O. Herring, of East Ninth street, was elected one of the managing directors to serve until January, 1907.

RABINOWITZ FACES A SERIOUS CHARGE

Perth Amboy Man to be Given a Hearing, Being Implicated by Horse Thief's Confession.

PURCHASED OF BROWN

IF HE IS FOUND GUILTY IT WILL GO HARD WITH HIM.

Must Answer for Receiving Stolen Goods—Hearing Next Wednesday Afternoon—Brown's Only Thefts Among Liverymen.

Jacob Rabinowitz, the saloon keeper in Perth Amboy, who is on trial at New Brunswick for keeping a disorderly house, is in more trouble. He has already been arrested by Chief Kiely, of this city, on a charge of receiving stolen goods from the horse thief, Charles Brown, and will be given a hearing on that charge next Wednesday afternoon. In addition, he refused yesterday to divulge to Chief Kiely the whereabouts of a horse which Brown says he sold him, and the Chief states that unless he comes to time and produces the horse he will be liable to re-arrest.

The wagon and the harness which accompanied the horse in question were recovered in Rabinowitz's barn in Perth Amboy yesterday afternoon by the Chief and were positively identified by the owner, Warren E. Tooker, of Richmond Hill, L. I. In spite of this fact and the additional evidence that Brown says he sold the animal to Rabinowitz, the latter denies that he ever received it. From the completeness of Brown's confession there is every reason to believe that he is telling the truth.

The horse belonging to Thomas A. Jerome, of Richmond Hill, L. I., was recovered. The animal, which is a valuable little gray, was disposed of by Rabinowitz for Brown to a butcher named Christiansen, in Perth Amboy, who in turn sold it to a farmer. W. A. Brooks, of Hempstead, L. I., recovered his horse and carriage.

Chief Kiely stated this morning that Brown's only thefts had been committed from livery stables according to Brown's own statement. The Chief does not believe that he was connected with the numerous thefts of horses from farmers during the past few months. Several farmers were in town yesterday in an attempt to see Brown. They were not allowed to interview him.

OWN THEIR TRADING STAMPS

TWENTY-FIVE MERCHANTS ORGANIZE A COMPANY IN ELIZABETH.

Articles of incorporation were filed in Elizabeth yesterday by the Merchants' Union Stamp Company, of Elizabeth, which is capitalized for $25,000. The incorporators are twenty-five of Elizabeth's best known merchants and storekeepers. They intend to get up a trading stamp of their own and which will be given out and reclaimable at the business establishments of any of the incorporators. This is a direct opposition to the trading stamp companies now in existence, and it is said their stamps will not be recognized by any of the members of the Merchants' Union. The latter will begin operations with $1,660 paid in capital.

CHURCH CONCERT.

Chorus Choir of Heavenly Rest to be Assisted by Orchestra and Soloists.

Under the auspices of the choir of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, and the direction of Garret T. Dunham, conductor, a concert will be given in the parish house on Clinton avenue and West Fifth street, on Thursday night, February 4. The regular choir of twenty-seven voices will be assisted by Mrs. F. M. Ward, contralto; George H. Smith, tenor, and William Holmes, baritone. The accompanists will be Miss Charlotte Conger and Miss Daisy Houston. There will be an orchestra of twelve pieces. An excellent programme has been arranged.

Repairing Tracks.

It is said that early in the spring the Public Service Corporation will commence the work of replacing old rails with new and heavier ones in this city, so that they may stand the traffic of the large trolley cars.

In the State Senate Mr. McKee, of Passaic, has introduced a bill to abolish the State Board of Arbitration.

SUMMIT BOWLERS DEFEAT PLAINFIELD

Local Men Lose Two Out of Three Games in Y. M. C. A. League Contest.

THE COMPLETE RESULTS

SUMMIT TEAM MAKES 844 IN THE THIRD GAME.

Sutphen, Menzenbach and Koons Do Good Work for Plainfield—Local Aggregation to Play Rahway on Friday, February 5.

Plainfield Y. M. C. A. lost two out of three games to Summit in bowling last night. The games were rolled at Summit, the team with its supporters making the trip from here in a sleigh. Summit won the first game by a big margin and Plainfield took the second as easily. The third was won by Summit by exactly 100 pins. It was a league match.

Menzenbach, Sutphen and Koons did the best work for Plainfield. Menzenbach came within one of scoring a 200 and Sutphen did some high rolling in the last two frames. Summit did remarkable work in the third game, her total being 844. Rutan made the highest score of the night in this frame with a total of 214.

The next game for Plainfield in the Y. M. C. A. league of Northern New Jersey will be with Rahway, Friday, February 5, on the local alleys. The scores:

CHARITY BALL AT CASINO

EVERY TICKET SOLD WILL BE DIRECT CONTRIBUTION TO HOSPITAL.

The Charity Ball is attracting a great deal of interest and the event this evening at the Casino is looked forward to with much pleasure. A good attendance is expected. Details have been carried out most minutely to insure success in every way and those who attend will be amply repaid with the good time that will be offered. The music will be of the best and the musical entertainment, to be given in the front part of the clubhouse during the evening for those who prefer it to the dancing, will be an unusual feature.

Any one who has not procured a ticket may purchase one at the door. Each ticket purchased means an actual contribution of five dollars to Muhlenberg Hospital, as the programme committee has obtained from the advertisements, etc., a sufficient amount to defray the entire expense of the ball. Therefore, all the money received for tickets actually goes to the hospital.

These are the patronesses announced: Mrs. Charles J. Fisk, Mrs. E. M. Rodman, Miss Elizabeth R. Cook, Mrs. J. M. Whiton, Mrs. J. F. Hubbard, Mrs. J. E. Tracy, Mrs. W. E. Lowe, Mrs. G. H. Goddard, Mrs. H. P. Reynolds, Mrs. E. H. Ladd, Mrs. W. L. Saunders, Mrs. E. R. Ackerman, Mrs. D. C. Ivins, Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, Jr., Mrs. G. A. Chapman, Mrs. W. C. Kinney.

MRS. BORNEMAN DEAD.

Warrenville Woman Succumbs to Cancer After Long Illness.

Mrs. Julia A. Borneman, who has conducted a grocery business in Warrenville for fifty years, died last night at her home in that place of cancer. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock and the interment was in Warrenville. Mrs. Borneman was seventy-seven years old and lived nearly all her life in that community. She is survived by three sons and two daughters: John Borneman, the collector of Warren township, William Borneman, of Basking Ridge, Joseph Borneman, of Warrenville, Mrs. Anna McKinsey, of Elizabeth, and Miss Lizzie Borneman, of Warrenville. The pallbearers will be R. K. R. Waldron, John E. Flammer, H. P. Williams, J. E. Reinman, A. J. Jennings and J. C. Cooper.

Administratrix Sale.

An administratrix sale of the belongings of the late William H. Ruckman will be held at 81 Manning avenue, on Tuesday afternoon, February 2, at 1:30 o'clock. P. H. Latourette will be the auctioneer and among the things to be sold will be a cow, horse, four wagons, poultry and furniture.

ALLEGED ELOPEMENT NEATLY FRUSTRATED

Lawyer Said to Have Planned to Carry off His Sweetheart at a Dinner Party.

SHE IS A FANWOOD GIRL

MR. UNGER, THE FATHER, GETS AHEAD OF DAN CUPID.

Declared That Parent Declared the Dinner Date Cancelled and That He is Opposed to Match—No Reasons Given.

Like a knight of old, Jerome Langer planned to carry his love off from the midst of her friends during a dinner at Sherry's, in New York, but a stern parent got wind of his intentions and called the dinner off. Dan Cupid was asleep at the switch.

Langer is an electrical engineer in the equipment department of the New York Navy Yard. He met Miss Madeline Uhler for the first time on March 21, 1903. She is the daughter of J. M. Uhler, a wealthy resident of Fanwood. He wooed with ardor and proposed on Oct. 18. He asked the consent of her father the following day, and was accepted conditionally upon his ability to satisfy the prospective father-in-law regarding his social standing.

Langer comes from Nebraska. He is a graduate of the Nebraska University, a veteran of the Spanish War, and a sergeant in Company I, Twenty-third Regiment. He submitted a list of references, mostly Nebraska notables, including a brother, who was a bank president.

Mr. Uhler was satisfied, and the engagement was to have been formally announced on Thanksgiving Day. On Thanksgiving Eve Langer received a curt note from Mr. Uhler cancelling the engagement. No explanation was given, and Langer was unable to see Miss Uhler. He could not even get a message to her.

He learned that the Uhlers were to give a dinner party, at which Miss Uhler would be present. Counting upon the girl's loyalty he planned to enter the room and carry her off under her father's nose. Uhler got wind of his plans and recalled the invitations for the dinner.

"I am confident that Miss Uhler is loyal in her heart to me, but her father dominates her," said Langer.

"I am completing arrangements to do some professional work in India, and expect to sail soon for the Orient. I would like to see her before I go."

"Langer? Oh, yes. He had a mild flirtation with my daughter, I believe," said Mr. Uhler. "They were never formally engaged. I simply exercised my right as a father and cut him out. Why I did so is my own business. I will not tell him or anybody else."

Cupid, with a quiver full of bent arrows and a broken wing, is limping back home. — New York Evening World.

Mrs. J. M. Uhler said to a reporter for The Daily Press this afternoon, in answer to a question for a verification of the story: "There isn't any truth in it; that's all I have to say."

FOUND DEAD IN HIS BED

J. AUGUSTUS GALLAGHER SUCCUMBED TO PNEUMONIA AT DUNELLEN.

J. Augustus Gallagher was found dead in his bed yesterday, in Dunellen, at the home of his brother, Theodore Gallagher, of South avenue. The dead man had been living alone of late and when he failed to appear yesterday morning for his customary duties about the place, the neighbors investigated and found him dead. The body was taken to the house of his nephew, Thomas Reynolds, of South Second street.

Mr. Gallagher had lived in Dunellen fifteen years. He had been afflicted with heart disease. He was fifty-seven years old. Funeral services will be held from the residence of Mr. Reynolds tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The interment will be in the Samptown cemetery.

Purchase of Business.

B. F. Fowler, the enterprising confectioner who formerly conducted the store on East Front street, has purchased the business of Raymond, the candy manufacturer in Perth Amboy. He will take charge of the business at once.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

There is no doubt of the success of the Board of Trade dinner. It will be held in the Hotel Kensington.

Only the finest stock of cigars, wines and liquors are sold at the Hotel Waldorf on Front street. All are treated right.

John Wirth, of West Front street, gives complete satisfaction to all who buy his cakes, pies, and other table delicacies. His bread is unequalled.

L. Moraller & Son, of Park avenue, make a specialty of fine jewelry, watches, diamonds and silverware. All kinds of repairing done at most reasonable prices.

J. Hervey Doane, the Park avenue jeweler, is offering an exceptional line of jewelry and silverware, also diamonds and watches. He is always pleased to show goods and give any desired information.

The finest line of cigars carried by any dealer in this city is that in stock at M. C. Dobbins' store on Park avenue. There the famous Yara cigars can be bought and over a hundred varieties of smoking and chewing tobaccos.

Allen B. Laing, the North avenue electrician, has just completed a large contract for rewiring Deerhurst, the home of J. Ackerman Coles. New cables were installed for carrying the wires and new lights and fixtures were set in place.

In selecting meats or fish you want the best, of course, and Roth & Co., of East Front street, can serve you with the best of meat or seafood. The firm leads among the butchers of the State and has the reputation for fair dealing and satisfactory service to all of its customers.

In preparing for painting or paperhanging it is best to make contracts early in the year before the rush comes. Charles Conover & Co., of Elmwood place, will gladly furnish you with all necessary information along this line and will do the work to your satisfaction.

The Gayle Hardware Company is headquarters for all kinds of hardware, stoves, ranges and contractors' materials. Before purchasing elsewhere examine the goods at this store and you will see at once that you can save considerable money. All goods are just as represented and guaranteed to give satisfaction.

The oldest residents claim that this is the most severe winter in many years. All the more reason why all should be well supplied with good warm clothing such as Weinberger, of West Front street, sells. His stock of clothing for men and boys is one of the largest in the State and his prices are very low. He also carries a complete line of comfortable overcoats.

Every week there is something remarkable in the line of bargains at the Great A. and P. Tea Company's store on West Front street. This week there is something specially remarkable. Besides giving you the very finest groceries at the lowest possible rates, the company makes some unexampled offers of extra trading stamps. It will pay you to investigate the A. and P. Tea Company's store and stock. You will wonder how it is possible to give so much for so little.

Shade Tree Commissions.

Two cities in the State have now taken advantage of the act of the Legislature in 1893, which authorizes the appointment of a shade tree commission. Passaic was the first to adopt the law, but the activity which was first displayed there in beautifying the city has practically ceased. At the suggestion of the Board of Trade of Newark, Mayor Doremus has appointed a tree commission, and the movement to plant trees in that city is being undertaken with enthusiasm. The commission has charge of tree culture, and there are citizens in Newark who are hoping to see the day when it will become a city noted for its shade trees. Elizabeth was at one time famous for the beauty of its shade trees along its public streets, but there has been a lamentable neglect of this important feature for making the city attractive. Trees have died because the care necessary was not given them, and the efforts to protect them from the ravages of insects were not put forth. Civic pride needs to be aroused in this direction, and perhaps the day is not far distant when Elizabeth can become one of the cities having a tree commission.—Elizabeth Journal.

BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

Plainfield People Receiving the Full Benefit.

There have been many cases like the following in Plainfield. Everyone relates the experience of people we know. These plain straightforward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people.

Mrs. M. A. Hall, of 219 Prescott place, says: "For several years I had a dull aching pain across my back, at times extending to my hips. I was compelled to lie in just one position all night and stooping, lifting or bending forward aggravated the pain. Although I used different remedies that were recommended to me I obtained little if any relief. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills highly endorsed in our daily papers and procured a box at L. W. Randolph's drug store. It was not long before I felt great relief and I was surprised how quickly the pain in my back disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

BOOK NEWS.

It is planned to issue on Thursday of each week items of library news. This will frequently take the form of book lists, such as lists of books recently added, lists on special subjects and like topics. Frequently the lists will be annotated, the aim being to make these annotations of real service to the reader, by giving him the opinion of a trustworthy critic as to the value of the books or a few words as to their scope. Borrowers should keep these lists. The Plainfield Public Library will furnish to anyone making application a list of its books on a given subject.

MINE GIVES UP DEAD

The Harwick Disaster Victims Crushed Out of All Shape.

IT IS NOW FEARED MINE IS ON FIRE

Force of the Explosion Was Terrific, Breaking Arms and Legs of the Imprisoned Men—Work of Rescue Impeded by Ice.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 28.—The Harwick mine, in which 184 miners lost their lives, is giving up its victims as fast as the engineer can raise and lower the cage in response to the signals from the men who are working at the bottom of the shaft. The burned and mangled bodies are drawn on sleds to the temporary morgue at the schoolhouse. There they are prepared for burial. Seventy-four bodies have been taken from the mine.

The air in some parts of the mine is very hot, and it is now feared the mine is on fire. If this proves to be the case the work of the searching party will be seriously interfered with.

The work of removing the bodies from the ice and debris is so severe that it is difficult to get men enough to prosecute the search. The company has made a second appeal for experienced miners. The mine pumps will shortly be put into operation again, and the burden of the search will be lightened.

Every body brought out thus far is crushed well nigh into shapelessness. Each has the arms raised and the hands spread before the face, showing that the doomed men foresaw their fate and tried to ward it off. The fact that the legs and arms are broken and disjointed indicates that the force of the explosion must have been terrific.

The only means of identification in most cases are the brass weigh checks, bearing a number, which each man draws upon going into the mine. A checkman keeps a record of the number given each miner. As the bodies are identified the names will be posted on a sheet of paper on the schoolhouse wall.

H. A. McMillen, who led one party of searchers, said:

"Fifteen bodies were found in butt 1 of the south entry. All of them, with the exception of that of the stranger, were badly mangled. One had his head blown off. In room 1 of the south entry we found two men lying face downward near each other. They had evidently been killed by the force of the explosion. In another place we found six men, all negroes, I believe. Five were in a heap, and one was pinned under a car. We found the driver of that entry lying along the roadway, where he had been blown."

Chief Mine Inspector Roderick has reached the mine and assumed charge. The finding of the dead body of Daniel Lysle of Leechburg and the report that another of the searchers is missing is keeping down the number of volunteers, for they realize that there is still much danger in the mine, but it is believed that Mr. Roderick will get a sufficient number of men to prosecute the work vigorously. It is planned now to hold union funeral services for all victims on Sunday, with the exception of the Catholics, who will be buried according to the rites of their church. Rev. Father Richard Hamilton of Colfax and a Slavish priest from Pittsburg will probably have charge of the services over the bodies of the Catholics.

James S. Bell, the superintendent of the Pittsburg Humane society, was at Harwick to see if the children needed anything. He found that the company is providing food and fuel for all the families, and they had no immediate needs. Mr. Bell said the humane society would place any of the children in orphanage who had no one to look after them if the relatives so desired.

St. Paul's Roman Catholic Orphans' asylum of this city has notified the Harwick authorities that that institution can take care of 200 children. The mystery about the well dressed man who was found in the mine and who, it was surmised, must have been the unwitting cause of the explosion has been cleared. The remains were identified as those of David Lysle, the volunteer, who was overcome while searching for the victims of the explosion.

Professional Witness Cost $10.

BUFFALO, Jan. 28.—Burrett A. Arnett, convicted of perjury, has been sentenced to Auburn prison for not more than three years and six months and not less than two years. Arnett, it was charged, acted as a professional witness in damage suits against railroad companies, swearing to anything desired for from $10 to $15.

General Kellogg Dead.

WATERBURY, Conn., Jan. 28.—General Stephen W. Kellogg, a former congressman, a delegate to the Republican national convention which nominated Abraham Lincoln for the presidency and one of the best known men in this section, is dead at his home here, aged eighty-two years, after an illness of but a few hours.

Nineteen Indictments Found.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 28.—The United States grand jury returned nineteen indictments against Fred W. Peterson, charging him with embezzlement from the Merchants and Planters' Farley National bank, where he was formerly employed as collection clerk. It is said he secured $5,000.

Diplomat Kicks Against the Pricks.

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, Jan. 28.—A cablegram has been received from the minister of Ecuador at Rio Janeiro, Brazil, announcing that owing to his diplomatic influence Brazil, Chile and Argentina have postponed their recognition of the republic of Panama.

GONG SAVED O'BRIEN.

Philadelphian Had a Slight Advantage—Both Severely Punished.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 28.—Jack O'Brien and Tommy Ryan fought one of the fastest six round bouts ever seen in this city last night, and the Philadelphian had a slight advantage. O'Brien clearly outfought Ryan in the first four rounds and in the fifth dropped him with a hard blow to the jaw. Ryan took the count of eight and came up groggy. He saved himself by clinching until he had regained his bearings. A moment later Ryan drove a vicious left to O'Brien's stomach, which sent the Philadelphian to his knees. Ryan seemed to regain his wind as the round progressed and landed repeatedly on O'Brien's stomach with vicious lefts. It was only the gong that saved O'Brien from being knocked out.

In the sixth round honors were about even, both men having received severe punishment. When the gong sounded ending the fight both men were in very bad shape. Near the close of the fifth round, while O'Brien was on the floor, one of his seconds threw a sponge full of water upon him. Many persons were of the opinion that this meant the termination of the fight, but the referee said no.

Notwithstanding that the authorities permit only six round bouts in this city, the fight between Ryan and O'Brien has created more interest in pugilistic circles here than any similar event for years. For three years the two fighters have been endeavoring to arrange a battle in order to decide who was entitled to the middleweight championship, but some unforeseen hitch usually terminated the negotiations until the present match was arranged in Chicago three weeks ago.

The men fought a six round bout for a $5,000 purse.

The National Athletic club was packed to its limit long before the hour set for the pugilists to enter the ring.

Eastern Contingent's Coup.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 28.—The eastern contingent effected a coup with A. L. Aste's colt, Moored Law, in the Debutante stakes. The Parke pair, Arch Oldham and Stella Allen, were favorite at 4 to 5 in the betting, with the Morris & Walden entry, Viperine and All Scarlet, a strong second choice at 9 to 2. Moored Law opened at 100 to 1, and 75 to 1 was plentiful at post time. The stake was worth $1,200 to the winner. Viperine had the best of the start and led for half the distance, when the Aste colt caught up with and drew away from her without an effort in the run home. Scorpio and Blue Mint were the only winning favorites.

Golden Rule Was a Disappointment.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 28.—Three favorites won at Ascot. Three second choices and an outsider captured the other events. Golden Rule, favorite for the fourth race, furnished the biggest disappointment of the day. There was a thrilling finish in the third between C. B. Campbell, Celebration and Diamante. They finished in the order named, heads apart. Blue Miracle led all the way to the stretch and then quit. Stemwinder won the fourth. In so doing he lowered the track record for the Slauson course to 1:10 flat.

Waswift Took the Handicap.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—Waswift took the mile handicap, the feature at Oakland, and ran the distance in 1:39. A field of four met in the event, with Gold Money a 3 to 5 favorite. Waswift received strong support. Hildebrand sent him to the front, and, although Gold Money made a strong bid, he outran her and won in a drive by a length. The fifth race resulted in a close finish, three horses being heads apart. Lady Wadsworth, the heavily played favorite, secured the decision.

Racing on Saratoga Lake.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Jan. 28.—The Saratoga Ice Trotting association's annual meeting of three days has opened on Saratoga lake. The 2:22 class, $200, was won by Frank Nolan's Alice Wild of Saratoga in three straight heats; best time, 2:27. The 2:17 class, $200, was unfinished, the first heat being won by Howard Avery's Little Patsey of New Brighton; second, by John Quinlan's B. and M. of Troy, and third by J. J. Cunningham's Vinco of Glens Falls; best time, 2:18½.

Courtney's Rowing Device.

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 28. — Coach Charles E. Courtney's latest device for coaching crews is the use of a mirror twenty feet in length, in which the eight men in the varsity machines in the crewroom can see themselves as they row.

Fits and Hart to Meet.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 28.—The Southern Athletic club has the signatures of Marvin Hart and Bob Fitzsimmons to fight in Louisville if the bill permitting limited round bouts in Kentucky goes through the legislature.

Yale Outclassed Brown.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28. — Yale completely outclassed Brown at hockey last night in the St. Nicholas rink, winning by the score of 10 to 0.

Injured Mate Succumbs.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., Jan. 28.—After three days of intense suffering Lewis Duff, the unfortunate mate of the schooner William L. Douglas, whose legs were caught in the sheet and amputated while the vessel was off Chatham, succumbed to his injuries in the Marine hospital.

Alleged Embezzler Arrested.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 28.—Herbert S. Robertson, accused of embezzling $10,000 from a New York publishing house, has been arrested here by an officer from New York. Robertson has been living at one of the most expensive hotels in the city.

Many Conflicting Reports From Russia and Japan.

PEACE OR WAR ON RUSSIA'S REPLY

St. Petersburg Press Again Bellicose, Saying Russia Must Now Choose Her Position and Maintain It. More Talk of Yellow Peril.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 28. — The exchanges regarding the Russian response to the Japanese note are still progressing, and the foreign office here announces that there is no change in the situation. The Japanese legation does not credit the report from Tokyo that Japan has requested Russia to hasten her reply. M. Kurino, the Japanese minister, has received no instructions on the subject. On the contrary, he apparently realizes that the delay is consequent upon exchanges between St. Petersburg, Viceroy Alexieff and Baron de Rosen, the Russian minister at Tokyo. M. Kurino reiterates his opinion that Japan will not press Russia for a reply.

The admiralty insists that the movements of Russian ships in the neighborhood of Port Arthur are entirely without significance, saying in explanation that they are probably merely routine changes of station and certainly made without the expectation of a collision. A prominent admiral said:

"The admiralty believes in the peaceful termination of the negotiations. Some of our ships in the far east are still in reserve. The steps now being taken should be described as precautionary rather than warlike preparations."

Prince Khilkoff, minister of railroad communications, will leave here in a few days for Irkutsk to inspect the nearly completed railroad line around Lake Baikal, which connects the two ends of the Siberian railroad. This connection, which will permit the movement of through trains, is considered of great advantage, especially in the event of winter military exigencies. The czar when voicing his approval of Prince Khilkoff's mission said in substance that he desired peace, which, he believed, would not be broken, but that it was proper to be prepared for all emergencies.

Some of the Russian newspapers are again becoming bellicose. The Bourse Gazette declares that Russia has reached the parting of the ways and must now choose her position and maintain it. It discusses seriously "the yellow peril," contending it to be the duty of the powers to intervene as they did after the Chino-Japanese war. The Gazette concludes its article with saying that if Japan persists in her warlike attitude Russia is not going to be intimidated.

A Man on the Cowcatcher.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—"Block the limited. There's a man on the cowcatcher!" This message flashed along the Pennsylvania line told the story of a railroad accident just outside of Chicago which nearly cost a man's life and which, trainmen say, was almost unprecedented in their experience. John Hancrow while crossing the tracks in Park Manor was caught from his feet, hurled in the air, caught on the cowcatcher, and while the train sped on nearly a mile a minute he saved himself by wrapping his arms around the iron beams in front of the engine. Two of his ribs and one leg were broken, yet in spite of a freezing temperature he clung for four miles, unable to get a signal to the engineer and fireman, who were only a few feet behind him. Not until telephone messages were sent ahead and the train was stopped by signal at the river line station was the man rescued. Hancrow will probably recover.

In Honor of Secretary Root.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28. — Senator Russell A. Alger, formerly secretary of war, gave a reception last night at his residence in honor of Secretary Elihu Root, his successor in the war department, who retires from that office in a few days. Among the guests of the evening were President Roosevelt, the members of his cabinet, many senators and members of the house, the supreme court, military officers, men distinguished in civil life and ex-Governor William H. Taft, who has come from Manila to succeed Secretary Root as the head of the war department.

Arrested For Miss Schaefer's Murder.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 28.—With his clothing in several places clotted with blood and his face badly scratched, Harry Behr has been taken into custody as a suspect in connection with the murder of Miss Sarah Schaefer at Bedford, Ind. Chief of Detectives Sullivan and Detective Maher arrested Behr at the home of Roger White, a negro, with whom he has been boarding since the day following the murder.

Soldier Saves a Life.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28. — Private John S. Maloney, Company F, First infantry, has received honorable mention for gallant and heroic conduct in saving the life of an ex-soldier at Fort Wadsworth, New York, by jumping off the dock with his clothes on and rescuing the man from drowning.

A Philadelphia professor declares that a mother who teachers her child to kill insects is sowing the seeds of murder. It would serve the professor right to make him spend a summer in Paterson.

It is recorded that a jury of Yale law students voted nine to three to hang Hamlet for the murder of Polonius. They are perhaps quite as kind as the numerous Thespians who habitually murder the melancholy Dane on the stage.

it not for the fact that they have been maligned from the very beginning of this controversy, that a stigma has been cast upon their organization and they only desire is to state their position honestly and clearly to the citizens of the borough whose servants they have ever been as a volunteer organization, leaving them to determine as to whether they have been guilty of such a heinous crime that the punishment meted out to them by the Mayor and Council 'is—that they shall be wiped out of existence.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Many will be interested to learn that Lent begins on Wednesday, February 17.

There will be an informal social tonight of the Monroe avenue branch of the Y. M. C. A.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, pastor of the First Baptist church, will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. There will be special music.

The regular communion service will be held at the First Baptist church on Sunday morning, February 7, when it is expected that a number of new members will be received.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, will hold its meeting for sewing in the chapel tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Rev. A. E. Finn, the new pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church, is meeting with genuine success in his new field. He has made a favorable impression upon his congregation and the prospects for a successful pastorate are bright.

This is ideal weather for a turkey supper and those who attend the one tonight at Trinity Reformed church, under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society. An excellent programme of music will be given an orchestra. The supper will be continued tomorrow night, the hours of serving being 6 to 9.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Samuel Dreier, of West Front street, has disposed of his house on the corner of West Front and New streets to one of his sons.

—A meeting of the German Benevolent Society will be held tonight at the home of Charles Schantz on Park avenue. Special business will be transacted.

—Charles F. Gulberg, of 708 South avenue, who is employed in the Government mail service, has received word of the death of his father in Washington.

—Lincoln's birthday, February 12, will be appropriately observed at Lincoln. Rev. Mr. Cleaver, of Bound Brook, formerly of this city, will deliver the address.

—Children's Home, 146 Jackson avenue, corner Westervelt. Mrs. Sarah A. Hendrickson, matron. Take Somerset street car to Jackson avenue and walk east two blocks. tf

—"If the assessor loses faith in human nature do not blame him," says an exchange, "for he meets all his friends and neighbors on lines where human nature is weak."

—The Y. M. C. A. orchestra will repeat the descriptive piece, "Burning of Rome" at a concert February 1, and has the promise of the composer, E. T. Paull, that he will come from New York and listen to the rendition of his selection.

—The statement made yesterday that Mrs. Lou O'Brien, the evangelist, had prayed for the acquittal of Mrs. Bechtel has been denied by her. It is also denied that there has been trouble between Mrs. O'Brien and the mission on Grove street with which she was recently associated. The allegation that Mrs. O'Brien confiscated the mission hymn books is false.

—Notice has been given to those interested in the estate of Frederick W. Radel, a minor, that a settlement will be made, the estate audited and reported for settlement to the Orphans' Court in Essex County on Saturday, February 13. The administrators are Edward H. At the close of the reception the members of the various councils enjoyed a smoker.

The thirty-seventh convention of the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias will be held in Masonic Temple, Trenton, beginning February 17, to continue about two days. A special effort will be made to have the date on which the grand lodge is held changed. This can only be effected by the passage of an amendment to the constitution. The change is urged, partially, because of the inclement weather that has prevailed for several years during the convention. While the matter will be strongly urged, it is expected that strong opposition will develop from certain quarters.

—It is stated by one who has made a count that there are thirty-six practicing lawyers in Plainfield.

DRAKE'S CLAIM DISPUTED.

Trenton Veterans Say They Have First Flag Unfurled in Virginia.

Aaron Wilkes Post, No. 28, Grand Army of the Republic, of Trenton, has decided to make an emphatic protest to Governor Murphy against the action of General J. Madison Drake, of Elizabeth, who claims to have the first American flag unfurled on Virginia soil in the Civil War, and who has made an official arrangement with the Chief Executive for the presentation of the flag to the State for perpetual keeping in the State's care.

The Trenton members of the Third New Jersey Regiment have drawn up a formal protest against the proposed action on the ground that Company A, of Trenton, unfurled the first flag on Virginia soil.

This flag was carried by Joseph Lawton, now a member of Aaron Wilkes Post, and the flag is still in the possession of the post. The protest plainly states that General Drake is mistaken in the contention to the Governor that his flag is deserving of the honor claimed.

CONCERN MAY BE SOLVENT.

Receiver for L. Sternberg & Co., Thinks Firm Can Pay Its Debts.

Vice Chancellor Stevens has continued for sixty days the appointment of Edward S. Campbell as temporary receiver of L. Sternberg & Co., with power to continue the business during that period. In the preliminary report submitted by the receiver the liabilities are fixed at $125,029.82, and the nominal assets at $342,580.

The report shows that the concern has a very large amount of outstanding accounts, and that if even a small percentage of these can be closed the assets will more than meet the liabilities. In recommending the continuance of the business Receiver Campbell declares that he has little doubt that the concern can pay all its debts in full.

VanSyckel Again Justice.

Governor Murphy has sent to the Senate the renomination of Bennett VanSyckel, of Trenton, to be Justice of the Supreme Court. The nomination was, under the rules, referred in executive session and will not come up for confirmation until next week. This will be the sixth term for Justice VanSyckel who has served thirty-five years on the bench. The Senate in executive session, confirmed the appointment of William H. Vredenburgh, as Judge of the Court of Errors and Appeals, which was sent in by the Governor last week. These have been the only names sent to the Senate before the sesion began, much to the disquitude of the scores of anxious seekers after the place.

Hairpins and Cold Weather.

If the present cold weather continues it will be necessary for the manufacturers of women's hair-pins to work overtime, according to the statement of a woman clerk in a local dry goods store. She claims that the cold weather causes the pins to break so easily that it is difficult for storekeepers to keep a stock on hand, the demand for them is so great.

White Goods.

Many of the new styles on the counters. Many choice things represented here that will not be on the counters later in the Spring. The early buyer will profit on prices this season as the enormous advance in raw cotton has made advances necessary on all classes of cotton goods and the later advances will be much more pronounced.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Jan. 31—Comment By Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Topic.—Every Christian called to be a missionary.—Luke xxiv, 44-49.

There are few things more plainly set forth in the New Testament than that every Christian should be a missionary. Christ plainly teaches that the disciples should make disciples of others and they of still others, and thus the world was to be won for Him.

The commission of Christ to His disciples concerning the evangelization of the world was among the last commands of Christ and should therefore have the more weight with His disciples. Just before His ascension He said to them, "Ye are witnesses of these things," referring to the things concerning His life and death. It was at this time that He said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." Nor did these commands simply apply to His immediate hearers, but to all who in future time should become His disciples. The command "This do in remembrance of Me" was given to the disciples, yet no one would claim that it was for them alone. No more were the missionary commands of Christ. The disciples stood for all coming disciples, and through them Christ gave us our commands for today.

According to the commission of Christ every Christian should be both a home missionary and a foreign missionary—that is, an interested supporter of both home and foreign missions. He declared that "repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem." The fact is, Christ made no distinction between home and foreign missions, and it is unfortunate that the church has done so. All work of discipling others is missions, whether it is done at home or abroad. Missions is the one word that should be used. The making of this distinction gives many a person a loophole of escape from contributing. When the foreign missionary offering is being taken up they are in favor of home missions, and vice versa. Missions is the one great work—the sending of the good news of salvation through the only begotten Son of God.

Instead of trying to escape our missionary duties every Christian should look upon it as a great privilege to have some part in winning the world for Christ. Nor should we forget that if there had been no missionaries we would never have known Christ. Through missionaries He came to us, and through them we should do all we can to send Him to others. Gratitude demands it as well as duty. Then, too, we should remember that Christ Himself has taught us by example to be missionaries. He left His home in heaven and came to earth "to seek and to save the lost." The disciple cannot be above his Lord. Where Jesus leads we must follow. Are we following His missionary example? If not, let us take up the work which comes to us along these lines. "The world for Christ" should be the watchword of every Christian until the kingdoms of this world shall have become a part of the kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

BIBLE READINGS.

Neh. ii, 1-8; Ps. lxxii, 8, 17-19; Eccl. ix, 10; Isa. vi, 1-8; Nah. i, 15; Jonah iii, 1-10; Matt. x, 1-8; Acts i, 1-11; xiii,1-3; Rom. x, 14, 15.

His Reasons For Enthusiasm.

I am frank to confess I have become an enthusiast in the Christian Endeavor movement, and the more I know of its principles and workings the more fervent is my enthusiasm, and for reasons like these:

First.—Because of the emphasis the movement puts upon the local church.

Second.—That it is so thoroughly a religious movement is another reason for my enthusiasm.

Third.—A third reason for my glad indorsement of this movement is the specific pledge of service it exacts.

Fourth.—Another reason for my deep interest in this movement is that it takes equal grasp on the young women as well as on the young men.

Fifth.—Still another reason why I so rejoice in this movement is its tender management of young Christians.

Sixth.—Still an added reason for my gladness in this movement is the delightful interrelations it brings about between the various evangelical denominations.—Rev. Dr. Wayland Hoyt in Ways and Means.

Evangelistic Endeavor.

I think we might well have in every society an evangelistic conference—I mean by this dignified name a meeting of those who have the welfare of the society at heart, the executive committee and perhaps a few others—for the purpose of considering the situation and making plans for some aggressive work; this, of course, with the consent and co-operation of the pastor.—Rev. Dr. Edwin Forrest Hallenbeck.

Two State Conventions.

The Pennsylvania state convention will be held in Allentown July 13-15, and the New York state convention in Buffalo July 6-8. Both give promise of being very large meetings.

Pen Points.

You can be sure you are not the material they make presidents of if you lightly regard your committeeship.

No Endeavor society can long survive on its reputation as a "has been."

Christ is the center of our Christian Endeavor or we have missed its real motive.

Christian Endeavor is an "I'll try society," but it is more since the striving is in the strength of One who knows no failure.

"Church extension" is not the least significant definition of Christian Endeavor.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Jan. 31: "Christian Stewardship." Mal. iii, 10; 1 Cor. xvi, 2.

The depth of a person's piety is quite accurately measured by the use he makes of his money. Religion which costs nothing has no relationship with that of Jesus Christ and is not based on the Christian Scriptures.

The reason for this is not found in the need of money to carry forward the work, though such need always is pressing. It does not arise from the idea of showing gratitude to God for benefits received. It is in no sense a tax or tribute which when paid secures the use of the remainder of one's goods for one's own benefit, free from all obligation or danger of a further levy upon them. Some seem to regard all gifts made for religious purposes as a direct payment of premium for some sort of insurance of life and property, and the business of the Almighty is to act as executive of such an organization for protection. Disease and disaster are to be averted because of the fidelity with which the payments are met. Not a little of this superstition lingers in the minds of many who give largely to the church support.

The necessity for liberality arises from the nature of true religion itself. Whatever one feels intensely and sees clearly he must express forcibly. If one loves God and sees himself, a child of God, put in charge for a little while of some of His work and intrusted with some of God's treasure he soon begins to search for the best ways to invest the Lord's capital that it may do the best work. He feels obligation and eagerness to accomplish all possible with it in bringing in God's kingdom. He does not feel that he is giving his own so much as that he is investing God's own and administering for Him.

So if there is need of a church building he helps build it. If there is need o. a preacher and a house for him he aids in that support. If men in far lands can be reached by the gospel, he puts some cash into missions. Doing this because of his position as a steward of God, he is careful to investigate needs and search for the most worthy causes. He carefully examines all claims and the results of his benefactions. Because a solicitor is urgent he is not more liberal, but likely to be more careful to examine the case. He has no right to waste his Lord's goods.

What proportion should he give? That depends entirely upon circumstances. A Jewish custom of old time required the tenth of all that grew from the ground and all the increase of flocks and herds. As all Israelites were supposed to be landholders this was a kind of land tax for support of temple worship—a convenient form for those times, but not in any sense of the nature of a moral obligation for all men, at all times and under different conditions of society.

The movement among our young people to secure from all the pledge of a tenth of their income for the service of the church may have excellent results if rightly conceived and carried out. If it arises from heart devotion it will blessedly enlarge all spirituality as well as bless all whom it reaches. Him that gives and him that receives it will bless. Some can give more than the tenth. If such stop satisfied with such giving they will not reach the measure of obligation. Some cannot justly give so much to this cause. No pressure, no odium, no sense of shame or guilt, should attach to such. Pharisaic bondage is to be shunned strenuously. Right use of every dollar should be our intention. But careful calculation will help one to regularity and liberality in giving God's goods.

Leave the Future to God.

Why is it that we are so busy with the future? It is not our province. And is there not a criminal interference with Him to whom it belongs in our feverish, anxious attempts to dispose of it and in filling it up with shadows of good and evil shaped by our own wild imaginations? To do God's will as fast as it is made known to us, to inquire hourly—I had almost said each moment—what He requires of us and to leave ourselves, our friends and every interest in His control, with a cheerful trust that the path which He marks out leads to our perfection and to Himself—this is at once our duty and happiness. And why will we not walk in the plain, simple way?—William E. Channing.

A Wise Providence.

It is a wise providence that we cannot see the future. We can see through one pane of glass easily, but through ten placed together we cannot see, yet each is transparent. By living a day at a time we get along well, and all is clear, although we cannot see through all the purposes of God concerning us.—Lutheran.

The Peace of God.

We need the peace of God in our heart just as really for the doing well of the little things of our secular life as for the doing of the greatest duties of Christ's kingdom.—Miller.

Unkindness.

How many of us have even a desire to forget an unkindness? For this desire we should pray.—Spurgeon.

Unrest.

Oh, what a demon of unrest
Doth stir the human heart to strife
When by a narrow sphere oppressed
It hungers for completer life!

Why is dull drudgery the lot
Of some who would but cannot rise?
By what mistake or counterplot
Do they aspire to the skies?

Though lowly be thy ministry,
Thy thought may know no prison bars;
The universe is all for thee,
And thou mayest walk among the stars.

He is not in a prison kept
To whom the Father's house is free.
O hungering soul, why not accept
God's boundless hospitality?
—George Lawrence Spining, D. D.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark.
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad
Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Hands of Families and Investors
BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.
BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL, PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.
LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW
BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.
BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.
LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT
BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR UTILITY WEAR.

The Golf Cape No Longer Modish. New Rain Coats.

The golf cape seems to be a thing of the past, and instead we have the loose cape coat especially invented for sporting occasions with wide capelike sleeves cut on one with the rest of the coat. This is made of the same heavy reversible materials as the golf cape and has in addition pretty buttons of enamel to harmonize with the color scheme.

Although collars are out of date on coats, yet there is an exception, a straight stand up collar with pointed ends, which may be buttoned over, and this looks equally well open or closed.

The new rain coats have wide sleeves, some of them tucked, and in general they are almost as modish as the fair weather garments.

Millinery seems to be growing smaller as spring draws nearer. There is a marked tendency toward small, oddly shaped toques made of materials which harmonize with the gown, sometimes, indeed, made of the material of the gown itself.

Velvet is no more the only material for a winter hat. Some of the very smartest are made of hairy cloth or zibeline, while others designed for later wear are of shirred taffeta or bands of silk and shirred chiffon.

Nothing can be more dressy than a combination of white cloth, white lace and ermine. Corduroy velvets are much improved by an edging of mink or sable, though marten is a good substitute.

The picture shows a cloth costume. The three-quarter length coat has a vest of spotted red velvet. The skirts of the coat have an original double effect. JUDIC CHOLLET

FADS OF FASHION..

The Vogue of Coarse Lace—The Small Fur Sets.

Coarse lace is well to the fore, and, indeed, the fine weaves seem to be relegated to summer garments. This lace is dyed, embroidered and enriched in countless ways. In the spring it will be used to make entire three-quarter length wraps.

The popularity of ermine is on the increase, but a good many of the cheaper sets are merely rabbit sewed with ermine tails. Furs are not so heavy in design as formerly, and tiny little collarettes are used which formerly would have been considered very mean looking. The style of the fur, however, is everything, and very attractive little cravat effects in fox, ermine and Persian lamb are the smartest and latest things out.

GRAY CLOTH DRESS.

Scotch goods having a hair line plaid composed of black and gray are very smart for walking costumes. The coats of these are made with wide cuffs and collars of deep gray chiffon velvet.

The cut shows a visiting gown of gray cloth having a very full skirt and a waist with a V shaped yoke of gray pure and two V shaped bands of mole skin. The hat is of deep velvet with a lighter plume. JUDIC CHOLLET.

ST. LOUIS STATUARY

Orders Are Being Executed in a Wholesale Manner.

Economical Methods That Are Saving Many Thousands of Dollars to the Exposition—The New Jersey Workshops.

Of the many millions of dollars contributed by the government of the United States and by the legislatures of the different states to the Louisiana Purchase exhibition, an effective proportion is being put into the statuary for the decoration of the fair. Americans have learned from this and previous exhibitions at home and abroad how to measure the good done by such works in educating and elevating public taste. Over 250 groups and about 1,000 figures are now being made, and the artists realizing that the occasion is one to inspire the best effort and a patriotic duty as well, are stimulated by ambition and love of art to do their best.

The monumental and architectural sculpture for the Louisiana Purchase exhibition is being executed according to a well considered and carefully supervised system, so that the money expended upon this part of the fair is being made to go much farther than it otherwise would, and accomplish more in the way of artistic results. Instead of commissions begin given to this or that sculptor in a haphazard manner, instead of the enlargement of figures being done in many different studios, and material for the plaster figures being purchased by different persons in small quantities, everything is done as a well organized business corporation should carry on such operations. Commissions for execution of figures and groups are awarded in the first instance, not by directors or other officials unfamiliar with artistic requirements, but by a chief of sculptors, Mr. Karl Bitter, aided by an advisory committee of sculptors consisting of Messrs. John Q. A. Ward, Augustus St. Gaudens and Daniel C. French, men whose names are a guarantee that what meets with their approval must show a high standard. The general sculptural scheme, and the figures and groups executed in accordance with it, thus come before the public with the approval of qualified representatives of the sculptural profession, while the mechanical work is placed on an economical basis, the enlargement of figures being done in one large workshop instead of several small ones, and material for this purpose being purchased in cart-load lots.

It is the fashion with some to cast slurs upon the modern methods of creating statuary on a large scale as though turning out such a vast number of figures and groups must involve a sacrifice of art. But such a result need not follow. The improved mechanical inventions merely do away with a great deal of the arduous mechanical labor which formerly was incident to the enlargement process, and the artist who models the original figure from which the enlargements are made must live in the same artistic atmosphere, must aspire to the same high ideals, and must labor with the same ardent desire to produce artistic and inspiring creations as in times gone by, when the old masters in the field of art did their work.

Our illustrations give a glimpse into the workshops at Weehawken, New Jersey, where the enlargement processes are being carried out. Nearly 100 sculptors were commissioned to design and execute figures and groups for the adornment of the fair. The models which these sculptors made in the privacy of their studios are enlarged at this workshop, and to do this work of "building up" the statues requires the services of about 100 other persons—some of them sculptors and art students. Over 20 car loads of statuary have been shipped to St. Louis fr[illegible]

PANAMA PARLIAMENT.

Measure Passed Empowering the United States to Intervene.

PANAMA, Jan. 28.—At the session of the Panama constitutional convention Dr. Amador proposed that the following article be included in the constitution of the republic:

"Should public peace or constitutional order be disturbed in any part of the republic of Panama the government of the United States may intervene to restore peace and order in the event that the United States, by treaty or convention, shall have assumed or expressed the intention of assuming the obligation of guaranteeing the independence and sovereignty of this republic."

Dr. Amador spoke eloquently on this matter, and the proposal to incorporate the article was approved by a big majority.

Another measure, by which the convention ratifies all the acts of the provisional governing junta, including the ratification of the canal treaty, was also approved. This is considered to show the perfect understanding existing between the legislative and the executive authorities.

General Reyes En Route to Bogota.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Information has reached here from New York that General Rafael Reyes, the Colombian envoy, will sail from that city on Saturday next on the steamer Valencia for Barranquilla, whence he will proceed immediately to Bogota. Several of the Colombians who came to Washington to assist him will return to Colombia with him, including General Ospina and General Caballero. Since General Reyes' departure from Washington there has been no communication between him and the state department.

POSTAL FRAUDS' TRIAL.

Government Case Against A. W. Machen and Others Now Closed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—In the trial of August W. Machen and others, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with the sale of Groff letter box fasteners, the prosecution has rested its case.

The testimony was confined entirely to postoffice inspectors. Inspector Mayer under continued cross examination declared that he made no promise of immunity from prosecution to D. B. Groff. Inspectors Williams and Farrell detailed their conversations in Toledo with Dr. and Mrs. Lorenz prior to their arrest. From Mrs. Lorenz, they said, they had secured a statement that she never knew or heard of D. B. Groff and that she had received no checks from him and had no knowledge of her husband receiving any. In answer to various questions put to Dr. Lorenz both inspectors stated that Dr. Lorenz said:

"That is none of your business. That is my personal affair, and I don't propose to answer."

Dodge Arrested For Perjury.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Word has been received at the district attorney's office that Charles F. Dodge, who has figured prominently in the Dodge-Morse divorce proceedings recently, had been arrested in Houston, Tex., charged with perjury. The arrest was made by the Houston chief of police on a request from the district attorney's office. He is held awaiting extradition, the arrest being legal, inasmuch as the present grand jury handed down an indictment against him. Dodge, who was en route from New Orleans to San Antonio, declined to make a statement other than to say he supposed his arrest was in connection with the divorce case.

WHITAKER WRIGHT'S SUICIDE.

By Means of Cyanide of Potassium Promoter Ended His Career.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The tragic end of the Whitaker Wright trial is the one topic of interest, and wherever men and women congregate here it is discussed in all its features. The possibility of the financier's escape from justice by suicide was clearly foreseen by Detective Willis, who brought Wright from New York. Acting on hints dropped by Wright during the voyage, Willis gave the court officials a special warning to keep the closest guard over him.

At the post mortem examination of the body his features showed no trace of the suffering he must have endured prior to death. His face was calm and peaceful. His brain was found to have been abnormally large, and as the examination proceeded the doctors found evidences of cyanide of potassium, which confirmed their previous impression of the cause of death. Portions of the deadly tabloids still undissolved were found in the stomach. Wright evidently having swallowed several of them.

The report that a revolver had been found on his person has been confirmed. The weapon is of American make, silver plated and of heavy caliber, and was fully loaded. It was concealed in his hip pocket and is an evidence of his strong determination to end his life.

It is now supposed that Wright's ostentatious consumption of tabloids for indigestion and insomnia during the last days of the trial was designed to disguise in case of necessity the taking of the fatal dose. According to the doctors, the dead man prolonged his agony by taking too many of the cyanide of potassium tabloids, as a smaller dose would have brought death more swiftly.

TILBURY ON TRIAL.

Mrs. Thurston's Former Coachman Charged With Blackmail.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—James Gordon Tilbury, former coachman for Mrs. Hollis M. Thurston, a prominent society woman, on trial here for attempting to blackmail his employer, claimed he had received letters from Mrs. Thurston and threatened her with their publication unless he was given $12,000. Mrs. Thurston arranged to give him the money, and officers placed him under arrest at the very moment he was receiving it. Mrs. Thurston declared that she had never written any letters to Tilbury and that the entire matter was a blackmailing scheme.

Tilbury when placed on the stand swore that he had received the letters and that Mrs. Thurston had offered him $12,000 for them and had promised to marry him after securing a divorce from Mr. Thurston. Although he claimed that he had received 250 letters from Mrs. Thurston, he failed to produce them.

Arrested For Intent to Defraud.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Capitol Detective F. N. Weber has arrested M. W. McKesson, charged with "soliciting with intent to defraud" in the capitol. McKesson gave his address as 23 Park row, New York, and his occupation as representative of the "Writers' Press association." He was soliciting contracts for illustrated writeups in a proposed publication entitled "Personal Reminiscences of the Fifty-eighth Congress." In the prospectus he carried were portraits of President Roosevelt and his cabinet and many prominent senators and members of the house, with whom he claimed to have concluded contracts. Representative Mudd of Maryland, who admits paying $25 for a writeup, says he did so solely on the statement of McKesson that the money was for the benefit of the newspaper men doing work in the capitol.

Fair Case at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—The cross questioning of Herman Oelrichs was begun by Commissioner Hosmer, who is taking depositions in the Charles L. Fair estate contest now pending in New York. The witness said that he didn't favor the holding of an autopsy on the remains of Mr. Fair and his wife when they reached here from France, but by the advice of his attorney he consented. Although a settlement had been made in the Nelson family, of which Mrs. Fair was a member, an autopsy was held in order to perpetuate evidence. The $125,000 paid to the Nelsons came from Mrs. Theresa Oelrichs and Mrs. Virginia Vanderbilt.

New War Secretary Taft Arrives.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—William H. Taft, the former governor general of the Philippines and new secretary of war, has arrived here. He was enthusiastically welcomed by a large crowd at the depot. Lieutenant General Adna R. Chaffee, chief of staff of the United States army; Assistant Secretary of War Oliver and Colonel Clarence Edwards, chief of the division of insular affairs, formally greeted the new head of the war department.

Senator Burton Pleads Not Guilty.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 28.—United States Senator J. R. Burton of Kansas has been admitted to bail to answer in the United States circuit court for trial on the indictment charging him with accepting money for the alleged use of his influence with the postal authorities to prevent the issuance of fraud orders against the Rialto Grain and Securities company. When arraigned before Judge Adams he pleaded not guilty to the charge.

Infernal Machine at Levee.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—A dispatch to the Central News from Madrid says it has been learned that during King Alfonso's levee at the palace the police discovered an infernal machine underneath a bench near the doorway of the palace, which was crowded at the time with persons of distinction.

MAYOR DID HIS DUTY

Judge Relieves Harrison of Blame For Iroquois Fire.

VERDICT PUT UNJUST STIGMA ON HIM

Chicago's Chief Magistrate, Exonerated by Court, Justifies Appointment of Fire Chief Musham and Commissioner Williams.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Mayor Carter H. Harrison has been ordered by Judge Richard S. Tuthill to be immediately discharged from custody in connection with any responsibility for the wholesale loss of life in the Iroquois theater fire.

The judge declared that the mayor was in no way whatever guilty or liable and that the coroner's jury in ordering Mayor Harrison held to the grand jury had put an unjust stigma upon the mayor, who had failed in no particular whatever, either in omission or commission.

Following his release Mayor Harrison made the following statement:

"The only possible feature which the jury were able to find connecting me with the Iroquois fire disaster was the alleged negligence and incompetence of my appointees, Fire Chief Musham and Building Inspector Williams. I want to call attention to the fact that Chief Musham has been connected with the Chicago fire department for forty years, beginning at the bottom of the ladder and winning his way to the position of assistant chief by the gallant and heroic conduct of a lifetime. Upon the retirement of Chief Swenie I appointed Musham chief. The appointment was strictly on merit and met with unanimous approval.

"When the position of building commissioner became vacant last summer I invited the Builders' club, the Association of Architects and various other nonpartisan professional organizations to nominate the best available man for the vacancy. They named in nominating Mr. Williams a Republican and gave me the strongest testimonials to his character and efficiency. I appointed him, and he entered most earnestly upon his duties. Both of these men were considered ideal appointments. The imputation of guilt upon these two men is entirely unjustifiable, but to strike at me over their shoulders is little short of infamy."

In delivering his opinion Judge Tuthill said:

"I have gone over the testimony of Fire Marshal Musham and Building Commissioner Williams and the mayor particularly, and I can say without qualification or hesitation that I find not one word in the evidence so far as I have examined it which tends even remotely in my judgment to show that the mayor had any knowledge of this matter or that he was in any respect negligent of any duty imposed upon him by the laws or by the rules that commonly apply to persons who are responsible for the safety of others.

"I find that he instituted through his office an investigation of the theaters of Chicago, as has been stated, and that a report was made from the commissioner of buildings that there were none of the theaters of Chicago that were absolutely in compliance with the law or the ordinances of the city, something that is now well known.

"I find that an order was introduced into the council on Alderman Novak's motion suspending the enforcement of the penalty attached to having theaters that were not in compliance with the ordinances pending an investigation by the city council and that this report was sent in promptly by the mayor to the city council and that the council promptly referred it, as was proper and orderly and in the usual course of proceedings, to a committee of the council, the judiciary committee, and that that committee in the same proper and orderly course of proceedings referred it to a subcommittee, which had the report printed for the information of the council, for the information of the people and for the information of the officials of the city in particular. Now, in so acting he was not negligent in any respect. He did his duty."

Demand For Glover Refused.

VICTOR, Colo., Jan. 28.—Deputy Sheriff Underwood, armed with a capias issued from the district court, made a demand on Colonel Verdeckberg for John M. Glover, a former Missouri congressman, who is incarcerated in the bull pen at Camp Goldfield. Colonel Verdeckberg refused to surrender Glover, saying that he had good reasons for keeping him in confinement. Glover is charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

American Cotton In Europe.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—A revolt against American cotton is the title of a long report just received at the state department from United States Consul General Mason at Berlin. Mr. Mason says there is a simultaneous effort on the part of Great Britain, France and Germany to emancipate their textile industries from dependence on American cotton.

The annual billiard and pool tournament has been started at the Park Park Club and considerable interest in it has been manifested.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Laughing hit of the season," is a comprehensive expression which neatly fits "An English Daisy," the new musical comedy which Messrs. Weber & Fields have launched under most successful auspices at the Casino. There are more roars of laughter in the three hours of "An English Daisy" than in any production which has been seen on Broadway in a score of years. This is the natural result of engaging such a competent company to interpret the various roles. Headed by Charles A. Bigelow and Miss Christie MacDonald, it would be extremely difficult to see where the cast could be improved.

There will be extra matinees of "Babes in Toyland" at the Majestic Theatre, on Friday, February 12, Abraham Lincoln's birthday, and on Washington's birthday, February 22, and on the occasion of the 130th performance of the "Babes," the night of February 15, handsome souvenirs will be given away to all women in the audience. Interest in the personnel of the "Babes" has revealed the fact that many women of the higher walks of life are in the chorus, particularly among the widows who form the lively background for the new song, "He Won't be Happy 'Til he Gets It." Through an attache of the embassy at Washington it has been learned recently that Miss Helen Hilton, one of the beautiful women in the widows, is the lineal decendant of one of the highest families in Russia and at various times has received communications, inviting her to return to her ancestral halls and become a Russian. Miss Hilton has accepted the kind invitation and during the hot summer months will embark for St. Petersburg.

Klaw & Erlanger's production of the great Drury Lane spectacle, "Mother Goose," is in its ninth week at the New Amsterdam Theatre, where it is attracting large audiences at every performances. This is the most expensive production ever made at the Drury Lane Theatre in London. It has been the custom of the Drury Lane directorate, during the past three years, to spend $1,000 or $5,000 more each season on the Christmas spectacle. This piece represented an outlay of over $175,000 before it was brought to this country by Klaw & Erlanger, who spent a fortune in new scenery and costumes made necessary by John J. McNally's adaptation of it to the requirements of the American stage. As presented at the New Amsterdam Theatre, it represents a most lavish expense by two great theatrical managements, who have given it the best that intelligence, wide experience and a most generous outlay of money could bring to it. From every standpoint "Mother Goose" is the greatest musical spectacle ever staged in America.

Suit for Meat Bill.

SEVERAL INJURED BY FALLS

ICY PAVEMENTS CAUSE TROUBLE TO COLLECTOR BROWN AND OTHERS.

Borough Tax Collector George F. Brown slipped and fell yesterday on an icy pavement on Manning avenue and received an injury to the head. He suffered considerably from the injury but was able to attend to his duties this morning. Mrs. Anna Kane, of 538 West Third street, mother of James J. Kane, fell yesterday at the corner of West Fifth street and Plainfield avenue and received a deep cut on the head. She was picked up unconscious and removed to her home. It was several hours before she recovered. Mrs. McDonough, of Metuchen, slipped as she was alighting from a Lehigh Valley Railroad train at South Plainfield yesterday morning and received two fractures of her arm. She was brought to the home of her son, John McDonough on Somerset street.

Ernest Whitney, aged twenty-one years, a resident of West Fourth street, and a student at Colgate University, at Hamilton, N. Y., has been brought to Muhlenberg Hospital for the treatment of a compound fracture of the arm near the elbow. The young man fell on some ice at Hamilton and considering the injury thought he would rather return home for treatment.

John Powers, a gardener of Grove street, slipped and fell on upper Grove street, Tuesday afternoon and broke his leg. He is an old man and his injuries are serious.

UP AND DOWN THE STATE

Assemblyman Roberts, of Camden, has again introduced in the House of Assembly, a bill prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to boys under 16 years of age. The bill is identical with the one introduced by him at the last session and which passed both houses only to be vetoed by the Governor. Mr. Murphy took the view then that the act interfered with personal liberty. Since then the Governor has thought differently of the matter and has informed Mr. Roberts that he will sign the bill, provided some change is made so as to make the person offending a disorderly person instead of one guilty of a misdemeanor. This is agreeable to Mr. Roberts and when the bill is taken up for consideration by the committee on revision of laws, to which it was referred, the gentleman from Camden will offer amendments to meet the Governor's views. Not only does the bill direct that no person shall sell cigarettes or tobacco in any form to any minor under sixteen years of age, but also makes it a crime for any one to purchase the same for or on behalf of minors.

Among the bills introduced in the House is one by Assemblyman Duffield, of Essex, which provides for the establishment of a State board of examiners to pass upon the qualifications of all persons desirous of becoming public accountants. The measure provides that on the recommendation of the board of examiners to be appointed under the act the Governor shall issue to any citizen of the United States, residing and having a place of business in this State, who shall be over twenty-one years of age and of good moral character, a certificate authorizing him to act as an expert accountant in this State. The person so authorized is to be known as an expert accountant. Any person who shall assume such titles without being so authorized, or who shall use the abbreviation "C. P. A.," or any words, letters or figures indicating that the person using the same is a certified accountant, without such certificate, shall be fined $50. The board created by the bill is to consist of three public accountants to be appointed by the Governor for terms of three, four and five years, respectfully. It is authorized to adopt rules and regulations for its procedure and to recommend to the Governor for a certificate any person it shall find competent to act as a public accountant. Each applicant for a certificate is to pay $25 to the State, and out of the fund so created the expenses of the board are to be paid.

Fire in Auto-Plate Works.

Fire caused by a spark from the chimney of the Campbell Auto Plate Works burned a hole between the ceiling and the roof yesterday afternoon in the works shortly after 5 o'clock. The blaze was discovered by one of the employes of the machine room who gave the alarm to the rest of his shopmates. No alarm was turned in to fire headquarters as the place is filled with valuable machinery and new casting which might easily become rusted and spoiled. The men in the shop organized a bucket brigade and successfully fought the flames. The damage was trifling.

CLAIMS HE IS PERSECUTED

RABINOWITZ SAYS POLITICS CAUSED HIS ARREST ON TWO CHARGES.

The trial of Jacob Rabinowitz, of Perth Amboy, who is charged by the local police with receiving stolen goods from the horse thief, Charles Brown, which has been before the courts at New Brunswick for four days, has developed into a question of whether Rabinowitz is persecuted by the police of Perth Amboy because his countrymen did not vote the Democratic ticket there last fall. The man is charged with keeping a disorderly house, and in his defense he claims that the police are persecuting him and trying to drive him out of business for political reasons.

It will be remembered that the Republicans carried Perth Amboy last fall. Rabinowitz had considerable to do with working the ticket. Immediately after election, he claims, the persecution began and it has continued right up to last week, when he was arrested for receiving stolen horses. It is pointed out that while Rabinowitz was arrested for buying the stolen horses the man who bought the stolen rigs was not arrested.

T. C. Cowenhoven has intimated by his cross-examination of the State's witnesses that this is the object of the prosecution of the man by the Perth Amboy police. The State denies this and upholds Chief Burke in his fight against the place. The State claims that the chief was doing his duty in trying to rid the city of an obnoxious place. The police of Amboy, the State claims, prides itself on keeping the city clear of such places.

It is understood that the defense will put several reputable men on the stand to prove that Rabinowitz kept a decent place and that he was a law-abiding citizen and that there was never any disorder at his place. It will also be claimed by the defense that the owner of the building wants to get Rabinowitz out so that he can rent the place to a relative who wants it.

C. T. Cowenhoven and George J. Piechner are defending the man.

MRS. STODDARD'S DEATH.

A Sister of Mrs. F. W. Runyon and Mrs. G. F. Odiorne Passes Away Suddenly.

Word was received this morning of the sudden death at Indianapolis, Indiana, of Mrs. Jennie B. Stoddard, sister of Mrs. F. W. Runyon and Mrs. G. F. Odiorne, of this city. Mrs. Stoddard was the daughter of the late Dr. William Munnell, of Wheeling, W. V., and the wife of Dr. S. P. Stoddard, a well known specialist of Indianapolis and son of the late Professor Stoddard, author of the Stoddard's series of Latin and Greek textbooks. A brother of Mrs. Stoddard, Rev. Dr. Henry Munnell, of Louisville, died ten years ago, and a sister, Mrs. M. E. Hyde, five years ago.

SAVAGE ASSAULT.

George McEntee Broke Michael Quinn's Collar Bone and Was Arrested.

In a savage attack upon Michael Quinn, a bartender at Watson's saloon in the West End, George McEntee broke Quinn's collar bone last night. McEntee was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct. Quinn attempted to put the offender out of the saloon and his collar bone was broken in the mix-up that followed.

Let Us Hope So.

There are now twelve large trolley cars operating between Elizabeth and Dunellen and it is stated to be the purpose of the Public Service Corporation to give the people of Plainfield, as well as those on the main line, good service. There has been a recent improvement in the schedule, the cars keeping nearer to the regular time. The trouble experienced lately is largely due to the prevalence of ice and snow on the tracks, delays resulting from the burning out of controllers.

M'CARTER ANNOUNCES CHANGE

COL. HINE BECOMES ASSISTANT TO PRESIDENT OF P. S. C.

Walter W. Wheatly has resigned as General Manager of the Street Railway Department of Public Service Corporation of New Jersey, and of the street railway companies controlled by Public Service. His resignation has been accepted, and will take effect February 1.

Colonel Edwin W. Hine, who has been the executive agent of the company, has been appointed by the President, and designated to represent the president in all matters pertaining to the street railway department. His headquarters will be for the present at the office of the North Jersey Street Railway Company in Jersey City.

The practical operation of the street railway service will be under the personal direction of Mr. Albert H. Stanley, who has recently come to the company as General Superintendent of its street railway department, from Detroit, where he held a similar position.

IN GOOD FINANCIAL CONDITION

STATE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETY PROSPERING ACCORDING TO REPORTS.

Rev. T. E. Davis, of this city, presented his report as treasurer of the State Christian Endeavor Society at a meeting of the executive committee of the New Jersey Union in Newark Monday night. The report showed the finances of the Union to be in good condition. The president, John T. Sproull, of Arlington, presided, and there was a large attendance from the various counties. R. A. Alberts, of Jersey City, reported an increased interest in missions by the societies of the State, and Rev. B. B. Ware, of Merchantville, recommended, on behalf of the evangelistic department, that all the societies devote their meetings, from February 14 to 28, to prayer for conversion of the associate members and quickening of the active members. The committee adopted the suggestion.

Dr. Clarke, of Spring Lake, stated that the Christian citizenship committee had prepared 1,000 petitions to be circulated and signed, protesting against the seating of Smoot in the Senate. The Bible study department has prepared outlines for the year, and Superintendent Lumbar, of Newark, has supplied a number of societies with the series. Bishop Alexander Walters, of Jersey City, who was present, accepted the position of superintendent of the colored department, and will visit the societies in his churches. Miss Stephens, of Hackettstown, the State secretary, in her report, told of the conference of secretaries held in Camden.

President Sproull announced that a banner will be presented by the executive committee at the annual convention to the society making the highest proportionate gain in membership during the year. The committee arranging for the State convention to be held in Elizabeth reported through the chairman, Rev. W. D. Stultz, that the programme was well under way. Among the speakers at the two days' meeting will be Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tompkins, of Philadelphia; Rev. Dr. Cornelius Woelfkin, of Brooklyn; General Secretary VanOgden Vogt, of Boston; Bishop Alexander Walters, of Jersey City; President Sproull, Vice Presidents Rev. Dr. John T. Kerr, of Elizabeth, and Rev. W. T. S. Lumbar, of Newark; Rev. Dr. J. H. Clarke, of Spring Lake, and Rev. George C. Hortor, of Camden. The controlling topic of the entire convention will be "The Spiritual Life."

CITY JOTTINGS.

—The case on contract of Arthur M. Griffen against James E. Totten, in Justice Hand's court, was adjourned from this morning for trial this afternoon, if a jury can be empannelled. L. A. Clement, Esq., represents the plaintiff, and V. W. Nash, Jr., Esq., the defendant.

Baseball Club's Fair.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the fair to be held under the auspices of the St. Mary baseball team, met last night, and completed the same. It was reported that a number of donations had already been made.

CHARITY BALL, BIG SUCCESS

Affair at Casino for Benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital a Gala Occasion.

GOODLY SUM REALIZED

Vaudeville Performance Served as An Attraction — Ballroom Artistically Arranged—Dinner at Midnight — Handsome Decorations in the Interior.

For sweet charity, society danced the hours away last night at the Casino. That it was the greatest social function of the season is shown by the fact that the committee this morning had over fifteen hundred dollars to hand over to the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital. Socially the ball was a big success. Hundreds of people were present, not only from this city but from out of town. The Casino was decorated in a manner entirely appropriate to the object of the dance and the arrangements were carried in a faultless manner. Huge red crosses, symbolic of the hospital, were hung on the sides of the stage. There were novel features galore and the vaudeville performance provided for those patrons who did not care for dancing, was high class in every particular and proved to be quite as successful as the dance.

Among the spectators who occupied the gallery over the large fireplace in the main ball room, were some of the representative business men in this city and many other well known citizens and their families. The success of the affair was apparent from the first. The programme committee, of which J. Evarts Tracy was chairman, arranged the programme in such a way that the advertisements more than paid for the expenses of the affair, so that the proceeds from the sale of the tickets was clear profit, so hat all expenses were mett before the dance took place.

The big hall was artistically decorated. Greens tied in clusters with wide silken ribbons practically covered the center chandeliers and about the sides of the room were festoons of greens tied with the same colored ribbons. The electric light globes were covered with red tissue paper which served to take away the glare of the lamps. An innovation was introduced by Maze Edwards in turning the balcony running along the west side of the hall into a conservatory promenade. Tete-a-tetes were arranged along this passage way and on the side walls were hung large theatrical posters, and flaming circus announcements. Scenes from the play, "The Charity Ball," were portrayed in large posters as well as from the "Babes in Toyland," "Mother Goose," "The Circus Girl" and other well known plays. The effect was pleasing.

These pictorial posters were also the feature decorations of the men's smoking room to the west of the main parlors where the vaudeville entertainment was held. The smoking apartmendt was arranged with a Bohemian effect and here the evening was spent by some of the men in an enjoyable manner listening to the vaudeville selections. The music was especially fine. This part of the arrangements was left with Lewis G. Timpson, chairman of the ball committee. The orchestra was composed of fifteen pieces and was of an exceptionally high character. The police and fire arrangements were in charge of Elliot T. Barrows and to his careful planning is due the fact that there was no confusion as to the entrance and exists among the spectators.

Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Maze Edwards their private apartments were thrown open for use as dressing rooms for the patrons. As each couple entered the reception hall they were greeted by the wives of the members of the Board of Governors of the Hospital who were the patronesses. They were Mrs. Charles J. Fisk, Mrs E. M. Rodman, Mrs. J. M. Whiton, Mrs. J. F. Hubbard, Mrs. J. E. Tracy, Mrs. W. E. Lowe, Mrs. G. H. Goddard, Mrs. E. P. Reynolds, Mrs. E. H. Ladd, Jr., Mrs. W. L. Saunders, Mrs. Ernest R. Ackerman, Mrs. D. C. Ivins, Mrs. B. A. Hegeman, Jr., Mrs. G. A. Chapman, Mrs. W. C. Kinney and Miss Elizabeth R. Cook.

Dinner was served in the lower part of the Casino on the bowling alleys. This was a part of the arrangements which was especially well carried out.

FEASTED ON TURKEY AT TRINITY CHURCH

Annual Supper of Ladies' Christian Work Society Enjoyed by a Throng.

UNUSUAL PATRONAGE

GOOD MUSIC FURNISHED WHILE THE GUESTS ATE.

Mrs. Cornelius Schenck, Chairman of General Committee—Members of the Society Presided at the Tables—Those in Charge.

Success attended the annual turkey supper given last night in Trinity Reformed church under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Work Society. The supper was served from 6 to 9 o'clock and during those hours the lecture room was thronged with people, it being difficult at times to get a seat at any of the tables. Over three hundred suppers were served. Provision was made for a large attendance, but notwithstanding this fact nearly everything was disposed of last night and an additional supply has been purchased for tonight, when the supper will be continued.

An attractive feature, while the supper was being served, was a programme of excellent music, comprising many of the latest selections. The music was furnished by Kenneth Stuart's orchestra, and consisted of a violin, piano and cornet.

As for the supper, it was complete in every detail and generous portions of turkey, with all the appetizing accompaniments, from cranberry sauce to the various kinsd of pies and coffee, were served. At each table one member of the society presided. They were Mrs. Edward J. Cooley, Mrs. Salmon C. Baker, Mrs. H. B. Paul, Mrs. Robert Clark, Jr., Mrs. Garret VanWinkle and Mrs. John H. Whitenack. The latter was assisted by Mrs. D. C. Adams.

In addition to the supper there were other tables where pop-corn, cake and candy were sold. At the pop-corn table Mrs. Jacob Beckman, Mrs. J. C. VanDyke and Mrs. B. Frank Coriell were in charge, while Mrs. Henry VanName, Mrs. M. F. Gano and Mrs. O. W. Dunham presided at the cake table. Those at the candy table were Mrs. Charles P. Leggett, Mrs. Julius Williams and Mrs. C. Frank French.

Mrs. Cornelius Schenck was the chairman of the general committee composed of these women: Mrs. Seaman Williams, Mrs. Henry P. Pugh, Mrs. Anna M. Gillem, Mrs. Edward J. Cooley, Mrs. George W. Coles, Mrs. Charles E. Ball, Mrs. O. W. Dunham, Mrs. H. W. Marshall, Mrs. Emma VanDoren, Mrs. G. Q. Dolliver, Mrs. Winfield C. Schomp, Mrs. Charles Denckla, Mrs. Caspar Bolsterle, Mrs. Abram VanCleef, Mrs. Henry VanName, Mrs. E. T. VanWinkle, Mrs. Manning F. Gano, Mrs. Templin, Mrs. Salmon C. Baker, Mrs. H. B. Paul, Mrs. Robert Clark, Jr., Mrs. Jacob Beckman, Mrs. D. C. Adams, Mrs. John H. Whitenack, Mrs. Garret VanWinkle, Mrs. Charles Leggett, Mrs. Julius Williams, Mrs. A. L. Force, Mrs. Ellen Disborough, Mrs. Sarah A. Meader, Mrs. Mary E. Kershaw, Mrs. J. C. VanDyke, Mrs. B. Frank Coriell, Mrs. C. Frank French, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Parse.

Assisting at the various tables as waitresses were these young women: The Misses Hattie and Anna Randall, Lucy Coriell, Mamie Davenport, Nettie Krietling, May Randolph, Eva Dunavan, Dora Wilson, Florence Bennett, Clara Martin, Grace Emmons, Minnie Berg, Ada VanDoren, Alice Pugh, Annie Scheelem, Jessie Garthwaite, Florence Smalley, May Van Fleet, Lida and Minnie Wyman, Grace Rowland. Mrs. Abbott, Mrs. J. H. Higgins, Mrs. John P. D. Kirch.

Others who assisted were Mrs. Winfield C. Schomp, Frank Storr, Albert Schomp and Robin Meeker in the cloak room; Mrs. B. D. Newell and Mrs. Robert Clark, Jr., cashiers, and Will F. Williams received tickets at the door.

The supper will be continued tonight when an equally large attendance is expected to replenish the treasury of the society.

W. R. HEARST CLUB ORGANIZED HERE

Frank Shattle Chosen Temporary President at Meeting in Jiovino's Shop.

WANT HEARST NAMED

CLUB'S HEADQUARTERS TO BE IN WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Officers to be Elected Thursday Night, Feb. 11—Hearst "Fearlessly Advocates in His Newspapers the Rights of Common People."

A William Randolph Hearst Democratic Club was organized in the barber shop of James Jiovino, at 430 Watchung avenue last night and a resolution, in which the principals of the organization are embodied was adopted unanimously. Frank Shattle was chosen temporary president and the officers will be elected at the next meeting which will be held at the barber shop Thursday night, February 11. The resolution:

"We, the undersigned, believing that in William Randolph Hearst the great body of workingmen have a true friend and one who believes that the distribution of wealth is just as important as its creation and who does not believe in excessive wealth for the few and poverty for the many, and who at all times fearlessly advocates in his great newspapers the rights of the common people against organized greed and criminal trust combinations; hereby agree to become members of the William Randolph Hearst Club of Plainfield and pledge ourselves to use every honorable means to secure his nomination as candidate of the Democratic party for President of the United States and following such nomination we pledge ourselves to further his election by our votes and influence."

The members of the club will number about thirty-two, most of whom work in the different machine shops in the city. The headquarters in the rear of the shop has been decorated with greens and American flags and reading matter will be provided by the club for the benefit of the members.

CHURCH SOCIAL MUCH ENJOYED

PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT GIVEN BY WOMEN OF FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

An entertainment and social under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society attracted a large number of people to the chapel of the First Presbyterian church, last night. The programme included piano duets by Miss Alberta Waterman and Miss Clara VanFleet, soprano solos by Miss Ada Dunham, recitations by Miss Rita Pond and readings by Mrs. Charles Hazletine. Each one was well received and given several encores.

The rest of the entertainment consisted of cutting out various objects and placing them on a large sheet. The one attaining the greatest proficiency in this effort was presented with a prize. This was presented to Edward Burroughs. The object chosen by him was that of a soldier. Then followed the social features which proved a pleasing climax to the evening's affair.

W. C. T. U. WORK.

Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson Recounts Doing of Organization at National Convention.

Mrs. T. H. Tomlinson, county president of the W. C. T. U., addressed a large number of women at the home of Mrs. Frank Rowley, corner of Mercer avenue and Grove street, yesterday afternoon, giving echoes of the National W. C. T. U. convention held in the West recently. Mrs. Tomlinson spoke of the most helpful things that came to her notice and attention at the convention which showed a steady advancement of the cause of temperance as indicated by the many reports presented at the conference. After the address, there was an informal discussion of the Union work, followed by a social time.

Wedding Postponed.

The marriage of Miss Georgie Anna Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Phillips, and Ernest William Stones, announced to take place Wednesday night, Feb. 10, at 8:30, has been postponed. Miss Phillips has been called south and will not return in time to make preparations for the marriage as scheduled. The wedding will be celebrated at a later date.

M'ENTREE'S HEAVY PENALTY

TO SOJOURN AS WARDEN DODD'S GUEST UNTIL JULY 4.

The severest punishment that has been visited upon an offender at the city court for months was put upon George McEntee this morning by Judge Runyon. McEntee, otherwise known as "his nibs," was sentenced to fifty-nine days in the county jail and fined $100, the whole practically amounting to a 159 day sentence. George will breathe the free air of Heaven again in just about time enough to celebrate the Fourth of July.

The charge against McEntee was disorderly conduct by attacking Michael Quinn, bartender at Watson's saloon in the West End, the result of the attack being a broken collar bone for Quinn. "His nibs" told His Honor that he had no place to sleep, so the Judge provided for him for some time to come, with the remark that the prisoner was a general nuisance and a menace to society.

UNIQUE SCHOOL.

The Mountain Park Inn Has Been Leased for a Pedagogical Enterprise.

Mountain Park Inn is to become the new home of a unique educational work founded some years ago by Dr. Maximilian P. E. Groszmann, who for a long period of time had been connected with the pedagogical enterprises of Dr. Felix Adler, of New York. The Grossmann School for Nervous and Atypical Children, at present conducted on Washington Heights, New York, has been established for the benefit of a small number of children whose individual needs require physical, mental and moral treatment by experts. This work is essentially new, and has been made possible only by the recent researches into the conditions of growth and development in children.

In connection with his school, Dr. Groszmann will establish a labaratory for the exact scientific study of atypical children. Recently, he gave several lectures on his subject before New York scientific bodies. He is booked for a course of lectures before the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences next fall.

The school will probably move to its new home some time in April.

To My Friends, the Customers of L. Sternberg & Co.

Owing to the frequent idleness, which was voluntary at the beginning, enforced at the end of the year, a very large number of the customers of L. Sternberg & Co. fell in arrears with their payments, which made it impossible for the company to meet its obligations when due and impelled me to apply for the appointment of a receiver, so that the business might be protected and continued.

This business has been a boom to many thousands of industrial workers throughout the State for the past sixteen years, and its existence should be prolonged by the co-operation of all interests.

I make an earnest appeal to all my friends and customers to pay as promptly and regularly as possible, and thus enable me to get back my business and continue it. L. STERNBERG.—Adv.

Notice to All Who Owe Money to L. Sternberg & Co.

By order of the Court of Chancery, I, Edward S. Campbell, have been appointed receiver for L. Sternberg & Co. As such receiver I request that all who owe money to L. Sternberg & Co. remit their indebtedness to either of the stores of L. Sternberg & Co. or pay same to the regular collectors, who will issue receipt stamps to be pasted in the books.

All who have removed without notifying L. Sternberg & Co. of their whereabouts, as provided for in their contracts, will call at any of the said stores or give notice of their present address by mail and remit their dues.

230 Market street, Newark, N. J.
EDWARD S. CAMPBELL,
Receiver.—Adv.

The Plainfield branch has been discontinued but approved customers will be accommodated with further credit by the main store in Newark.—Adv.

Injured by a Fall.

Mrs. Levey, a nurse in the Mercer Hospital, Trenton, is detained at her home in Duer street, the result of a fall on the ice, Wednesday. She sustained a sprain and contusion of the left forearm.

Mr. Billett Abandons Scheme.

J. F. Billett, who had planned an "Art and Culture" course of entertainments for the winter, has given up the idea, owing to the early commencement of the Lenten season.

ROSELLE TAKES THREE STRAIGHT

Cranford Loses a Series in The Daily Press Bowling League Tournament.

THE PRESENT STANDING

WESTFIELD AND ROSELLE MAKING A HOT FIGHT FOR CUP.

Park Club Meets Westfield Club Tonight — Cranford Has Little Chance of Winning the Trophy —The Scores in Detail.

The Roselle Casino bowling aggregation went to Cranford last night and before they got through with the Cranford Casino team, succeeded in winning the entire series of games in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament. This team is trying hard to get in first position and the standing now places them and the Westfields nip and tuck for the trophy.

Roselle took the first game by a score of 783 to 775, the second by a score of 879 to 761 and the last by a score of 856 to 753. While the men did not roll any remarkable scores, their work was of a good average throughout and this gave them the advantage over their opponents whose scores in many instances were below the average. Cranford is last in the race and unless the members get a move on they will remain there for the rest of the season.

Tonight the Westfield Club will meet the Park Club on the local alleys and there is sure to be something doing.

The detailed scores of last night's series follows:

ROSELLE.				CRANFORD.
S. Smith	159	187	179	Park	138	178	172
C. Smith	148	156	151	Dohrman	142	156	153
Harris	165	186	186	Crane	129	129	119
Howe	165	182	157	Bates	171	144	148
Mulford	146	168	133	Plummer	195	153	551
	783	879	856		775	761	753

This is the standing in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament:

	Won.	Lost.
Westfield	14	4
Roselle	15	6
Parks	4	11
Cranford	3	15

SUIT AGAINST NEW PROVIDENCE

I. P. RUNYON RETAINED TO RECOVER ON BONDS ISSUED BY TOWNSHIP.

An action is about to be insitituted against the township of New Providence by Isaac P. Runyon, Esq., counsel for New York parties who are the owners of certain bonds of the township on which face value and interest amounts to about ($27,000) twenty-seven thousand dollars. These bonds were issued by the township on January 1, 1869 by virtue of "An act to authorize certain towns in the counties of Somerset, Morris, Essex and Union, to issue bonds and take stock in the Passaic Valley and Peapack Railroad Company," and sold throughout this State and adjoining States and the proceeds invested for the purpose.

The township has not paid these bonds, but other bonds have been purchased by representatives of the township at different periods since the issue. Mr. Runyon had a number of these bonds last year and was successful in effecting a settlement of the same, by sale to an individual who it is alleged was acting for the township of New Providence. There has been much litigation over this issue of bonds at different times and it is said there are very few bonds now outstanding against the township.

The city of Summit having been a part of the township at the time of the original issue of the bonds, it is claimed is liable for a proportionate share of the obligation.

At Y. M. C. A. Convention.

The thirty-third State convention of the Y. M. C. A. and the second biennial, at Trenton, February 11, 12, 13 and 14, will be attended by Fred H. Andrews and William D. Murray among others from the local association. Both Mr. Murray and Mr. Andrews are members of the State committee of the Y. M. C. A. and will take a prominent part in the discussions of the convention.

Entertained Fraternal Organization.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Allen, of Linden avenue, entertained the members of Martha Washington Council, No. 23, Daughters of America, at their home last night. A large number were present. Games were played and refreshments served.

MINISTER AT CHURCH; BURGLAR AT HIS HOME

While Rev. Dr. Schenck Was at Trinity's Turkey Supper Burglar Got in His House.

ENTRANCE BY WINDOW

A SMALL BANK CONTAINING ABOUT TWENTY DOLLARS WAS STOLEN.

Chief Kiely Had Extra Force of Policemen Patroling Residential Districts Because of the Numerous Public Events Last Night.

The house at 904 West Front street, of Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, was entered by a burglar last night and a small bank containing $20 in money was stolen.

An entrance was forced through a window of the house between 6 and 6:30 o'clock. Dr. Schenck left at 6 to attend a turkey supper at Trinity church and the house was left vacant until the servant girl employed at the house returned at 6:30. The thief must have worked speedily. He left no clue to his identity. He is in all likelihood the man who has operated so frequently and so successfully in the city and borough during the past few weeks.

Whoever he was, he evidently knew that Dr. Schenck would be at Trinity church and watched the house until his departure. He shows himself well acquainted with Plainfield and its people.

Chief Kiely said this morning that he had feared that something of the sort might happen last night owing to the fact that the Trinity supper, Board of Trade dinner and Charity Ball called so many people away from home. As a consequence he had an extra force of men patrolling the streets and took every possible precaution to protect vacant houses.

MRS. GILL DEAD.

Widow of a Contractor Died at Age of Seventy-Five—Funeral Sunday Afternoon at 3 o'Clock.

Mrs. Ellen C. Gill, widow of Charles H. Gill, for many years one of Plainfield's leading contractors, died yesterday afternoon at her home, 429 West Fourth street. She had been ill since Sunday.

Mrs. Gill had been a resident of this city about twenty years. She was in the seventy-sixth year of her age. The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home in West Fourth street. Rev. Mr. Appleton, of Brooklyn, will have charge and the interment will be in Hillside cemetery.

NINTH HORSE RECOVERED.

Animal Stolen by Charles Brown Recovered in South Plainfield.

Part I of the career of Charles Brown, horse thief, has been brought to a close. The ninth and last horse was recovered in South Plainfield last night by the Chief. Rabinowitz refused yesterday to tell where the horse was, but his lawyer, George Plechner, telephoned the information to police headquarters from New Brunswick. The animal was in the possession of Joseph M. Stierer, a grocer and liquor dealer, of South Plainfield. It belonged to Warren E. Tooker, of Richmond Hill, L. I.

Decision Reserved.

The case of Henry Voehl, of North Plainfield, against the Lackawanna Railroad was tried yesterday in the District Court at Hoboken and decision reserved two weeks by Judge Frembach to permit the lawyer for the defendant corporation to prepare a brief. Suit was brought to recover $300 for damages done to the plaintiff's wagon on December 5, 1902. F. J. Blatz, Esq., represents the plaintiff.

Swackhamer Honored.

Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer, of North Plainfield, responded to the toast "Our State" at the Jersey City Board of Trade's annual banquet last night. There were three hundred business men present at the affair. Earlier in the evening he delivered an address before the Somerset County Firemen's association at Somerville.

Rig and Car Collide.

By driving Dr. Endicott's carriage across the car tracks in front of a westbound trolley car at 12:30 this afternoon, the colored driver, the motorman claims, was responsible for the smashing of the carriage and the vestibule of the car. The horse was cut loose from the carriage and has not yet been found.

PROGRESSIVE MEN BANQUET

Feast of Good Speeches at Board of Trade's Annual Dinner at The Kensington.

PUBLIC OFFICIALS TALK

Speeches by the Mayors of City and Borough Among Others—Smalley on "Municipal Development," and Martine on "Municipal Ownership"—The Menu.

"If I haven't accomplished anything else for the development of the borough, I have done at least three things to be satisfied about. I have put Adam (Fritz) on a diet; I have put the fire department on a paid basis; and I have put John Goodwin on the bum."—Mayor Newton B. Smalley, at last night's Board of Trade dinner.

Perhaps the most significant fact about the Board of Trade dinner at the Hotel Kensington last night was the spirit of civic pride and patriotism that animated it. It was all for the glory of Plainfield, the greater Plainfield; for there was scarcely a speaker that did not express the sentiment that North Plainfield is an essential economic part of its sister municipality as well as such in spirit and in the ties of a common interest and purpose. The old battle cry, "annexation" was sounded in the speeches of the mayors of the city and borough and the toastmaster, former Mayor Gilbert; and every mention of its desirability brought forth demonstrations of approval.

Seated at the table of honor were the guests of the evening who were also the speakers: Mayor Olin L. Jenkins, whose subject was "Free Lance" and who delved deep and interestingly into Plainfield's history; Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh, who defended "The Native Jerseyman" and exalted the good works of Plainfield and her representative citizens; Former Mayor Alexander Gilbert, the toastmaster, who was particularly happy and witty in his introductions of the speakers; L. W. Woolston, president of the Board of Trade, who introduced the toastmaster; Mayor Newton B. Smalley, who advocated annexation and a borough park and whose speech on "Municipal Development" was one of the evening's brightest; Hon. James E. Martine, who rode a favorite hobby, "Municipal Ownership," with the force and fervor that went far towards carrying conviction; County Chairman Hamilton F. Kean, who complimented Plainfield on the strength of its business interests; and Samuel St. John McCutchen, who mentioned some of the good things that "The Commuter" has brought to Plainfield.

Senator Kean and Congressman Fowler who, it had been hoped, would be able to attend, were unavoidably detained by other engagements, but the Senator had his brother, the county chairman, to represent him. Besides those mentioned, the list of eighty-two members and guests of the Board of Trade present included: Assemblyman Charles L. Moffett, Sheriff B. F. Coriell, City Judge William N. Runyon, Former President of the Council James F. Buckle, City Collector Frank H. Smith, J. S. Higham, Postmaster E. H. Bird, J. C. Pope, W. A. Garrigues, C. C. Burke, T. S. Davis, W. S. Bullock, C. N. Codding, President of the Common Council R. I. Tolles, George J. Tobin, H. W. Marshall, Councilman R. L. Lee, City Treasurer W. F. Arnold, E. C. Mason, Street Commissioner Andrew J. Gavett, H. Schwed, Samuel Metzler, Evarts Tracy, W. L. Gloak, H. C. Newman, E. M. Laing, W. W. Coriell, Edward Kapp, Former Judge W. R. Coddington, Amos Andwers, Harry C. Runyon, Charles J. Ward, H. C. R. W. Barnes, Park avenue, makes a specialty of table delicacies. He has fine No. 1 mackerel, buckwheat, maple syrup, fresh country sausage and potato salad.

It's just as easy to get good service as poor in the express business in Plainfield. Good service comes to those who patronize Hoagland's express, Park avenue.

Mrs. Gustave Meissner, of 432 Watchung avenue, makes a specialty of laundrying fine fabrics. Lace curtains are made a specialty of. Fine hard work done at most reasonable prices.

M. R. Giles, butcher at the corner of Park avenue and Second street, makes a specialty of fine meats, roasts, broils and frys. He makes his own sausage, which is superior to much that is sold in this city.

In the selection of writing materials and stationery of all kinds, A. M. Harper, of Park avenue, is an expert. Patrons of this store get the benefit of his experience and they get the best goods at the lowest prices.

Quality is what counts. You get quality at Peck's and more of it than at any other store in Plainfield for the same cost. Biggest values in dry goods at Peck's store on West Front street. Greatest assortment of fancy articles.

Everything from a complete dinner, with all the appetizing accompaniments to a substantial sandwich, can be obtained at T. Timbo's restaurant on North avenue. The food is well cooked, well served and is always satisfying, while the prices are right.

If you have not yet examined the new laces and embroideries at Putnam & DeGraw's dry goods store, you have no idea of the pretty designs being offered for the coming season. The firm has just placed these goods on sale and an inspection is invited.

If you want to go to the seafood market that has the best fish, go to the one that does the most business. The people know the difference between a good and a bad thing. The Rogers seafood market does the most business. It is because the people can rely upon it.

Always striving to please his patrons, L. W. Randolph, the West Front street druggist, has just introduced a new beverage at his soda fountain. It is called walnut frappe and it is one of the most satisfying concoctions served. The delicious flavor of the walnut and ice cream make a combination hard to beat.

Coming here with an assortment of fine bargains, The Fair, in the Babcock building, has grown to be a popular business place. Unusual bargains are offered and courteous treatment of customers is a strict rule. People desiring fine bargains in dress goods, made up or by piece, should visit this store. There is a great chance in the notion department for bargains.

The Boston Cloak and Fur Store on West Front street, is just the place to buy furs of all kinds. This firm makes all furs and they can be depended upon as being all right, as to quality and price. There are so many worthless furs on the market that it is a pleasure to find a place where absolute confidence can be placed in the selection of a coat, collar or muff.

The winter is passing. All winter goods must go at once at Rottberg Brothers' New York Bargain Store on West Front street. That is the reason why they are offering some of the most noteworthy bargains in their history. You cannot fail to be pleased by their great offers of overcoats and suits. Some of their men's shirts of the best brands are being sacrificed at prices 'way down. There are also fine opportunities to save money by buying boots, shoes and rubbers at their store.

Prof. Griggs' on Shakespeare.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. church has secured Prof. Edward Howard Griggs to deliver six lectures on "Shakespeare" next fall. The first lecture will be held in the chapel of the church, October 12.

AMERICAN AUTO WON

Barney Oldfield's Flier on Florida Beach.

VANDERBILT'S FRENCH CAR BEATEN

Parisian Mercedes Car That Lately Made World's Record of Thirty-nine Seconds Beaten by American Winton Racer.

DAYTONA, Fla., Jan. 29.—Barney Oldfield with the American auto Bullet beat W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., in his French Mercedes, and America was victorious over Europe in the great meeting of automobiles on the Daytona course. The Winton beat the Mercedes in the final heat for the one mile championship by 120 yards in 46 3-5 seconds. Mr. Vanderbilt was beaten three seconds. A great demonstration was given the American machine and its driver.

The start was a good one, and the pair raced abreast for a quarter of a mile. Then Oldfield began to pull away to the end and swept over the line amid a crazy outburst of joy from the Americans at the finish. The big crowd gave him another ovation when he returned to the start.

"I just let her go," said Barney. "She went, and that was all. The time counts for nothing, as we had a slow rolling start. I won't say I can beat Mr. Vanderbilt's 39 seconds until I do, but I have beaten him."

Mr. Vanderbilt had nothing to say except:

"A quarter mile out I threw on my fourth speed, but Oldfield jumped right away from me. I was not ahead of him at any time of the race."

Stevens broke his throttle and trailed in far behind. Laroche met with an accident to his machine and did not start.

Racing on Saratoga Lake.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Jan. 29.—The second day of the annual meeting of the Saratoga Ice Trotting association on Saratoga lake attracted a large attendance despite the cold weather. The event for the 2:17 class, purse $200, was concluded. J. J. Cunningham's Vinco of Glens Falls winning the third, fourth and fifth heats; best time, 2:18¼. The second race, 2:40 class, purse $150, was won by Gus Harrison's Lafliga of Ballston Spa in three straight heats; best time, 2:30½.

Double Six Was Domino.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—Double Six won the five and a half furlong race at Oakland by a head from Sad Sam and broke the California record, covering the distance in 1:05½. This is a half second off the previous mark. Sad Sam was a 7 to 10 favorite and opened up a gap as usual. He tired some in the final furlong, and Double Six, finishing strong, beat him a head. St. Winifred was third. Jockey Club was the only favorite to win.

Flora Hunter's Fast Time.

OTTAWA, Jan. 29.—At the races of the Central Canada Ice Racing association Flora Hunter, owned by L. H. Taylor of Niagara Falls, N. Y., paced a mile in the 2:18 class in 2:18½, which is within a quarter of a second of the world's record for a half mile ice track, the record being held by Jewel. Gypsy Girl, who is matched to meet Looking Glass here on Monday for $1,000, beat Flora Hunter in the three heats which followed.

Cyclone Won on Plattsburg Ice.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Jan. 29.—The free-for-all at the ice races here was won by Cyclone, owned by James Farley of Plattsburg, Josephine second and Compton, Jr., third; best time, 2:25. Esma, b. m., owned by Frank Wicker of Ticonderoga, won the 2:19 class, David R. second and Fred B. third; best time, 2:33.

Ethics Was Disqualified.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 29.—Clangor, St. Tammany and Ostrich were the winning favorites. Ethics, who finished first in the fourth race, was disqualified for fouling St. Tammany, and Cochran, who had the mount, was set down for rough riding. Algonquin was run up to $1,000 and bought in.

Ocean Dream Won Again.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 29.—Ocean Dream, the Wyman mare, won the free handicap at Ascot and incidentally clipped three-quarters of a second off the track record for a mile. A crowd of 5,000 was in attendance, and the form players had the better of the argument with the books.

Rochester Bench Show.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 29.—The annual bench show of the Rochester Kennel club, which will take place on March 16-19, will be the largest ever given here. Harry Lacey and Arthur Mulvey of Boston and E. M. Oldham of New York will act as judges.

Minnesota, 28; Rochester, 17.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 29.—The University of Rochester was defeated at basket ball last night by the University of Minnesota by the score of 28 to 17.

Dodge Will Fight Extradition.

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 29.—Charles P. Dodge, who has been arrested here upon the request of District Attorney Jerome of New York, charged with perjury, has engaged local counsel and announces that he will fight extradition.

Snow Deep In Georgia.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 29.—The heaviest snowfall ever known since the local weather bureau was established fell here, a depth of eight inches. The temperature dropped to freezing, but is rising. Street car traffic was delayed.

OF OUR NOTABLE SEMI-ANNUAL DEEP

Price-cutting Sale of Furniture

THE REDUCTIONS OF TEN TO TWENTY PER CENT. ON EVERY ARTICLE in the department will be withdrawn after Saturday, and prices set to straight away regular figures; but even then our prices will be lower than the specials of the big stores (our class) of New York.

The importance of this sale rests in the genuine sacrifice of profit on high, medium and ordinary grades of Furniture, every piece being the best in its class, thoroughly made, strictly up-to-date in style and character, and desirable in every way.

In no sense is this a clearance of hurt, old style or imperfect articles, but merely an unloading of the stock purchased for fall and winter selling. Our buyer returned only this week from his periodical visit to the Western manufactories, where all the big stores of the country buy their furniture. He purchased several carloads of goods to be delivered in the course of a few weeks, and room must be made in our TWO ACRES OF FLOOR SPACE for this display of the very newest styles, woods and textiles.

The New York stores prate about their low prices for the same grades of furniture we have been selling all this month. Compare those prices with ours, and the saving here will at once become apparent. Whoever intends refurnishing their home in town, country or at the seashore will do wisely if they buy of Hahne & Co. the next two days, even though they must delay delivering for several weeks.

WAR EXPECTED NOW

Russia Will Not Concede Japan's Demands.

TOKYO'S DEFIANCE MAY COME TODAY

Reply of St. Petersburg Courteous, but Will Not Guarantee Integrity and Independence of China, Japan's Principal Contention.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 29.—Russia's draft of her reply has not yet been officially presented to Japan, but it has been communicated to M. Kurino, the Japanese minister at St. Petersburg, who has transmitted the contents to Tokyo, whence it will be conveyed to the friendly powers. The Russian reply is courteous, but it refuses in uncompromising terms to permit the reinsertion in the draft of the treaty of the two words guaranteeing the integrity and independence of China, upon which Japan insisted in her last note.

The clause proposed by Japan was that Russia and Japan should mutually agree to respect the "integrity and independence of China and Korea." Russia has now stricken out twice the words "China and," and it is understood that this will close the negotiations.

It is probable that when this note has been presented Japan will notify Baron de Rosen, the Russian minister at Tokyo, that she has no alternative but to take up arms in defense of her interests and that M. Kurino will be instructed to demand his passports. In the meanwhile instructions have been sent to the two Japanese cruisers now at Colombo to proceed to Singapore, where in the event of war being declared their crews will be paid off and the vessels laid up.

Among those present at the meeting of the council of state to consider the Russian reply to Japan were Foreign Minister Lamsdorff, War Minister Kuropatkin, Vice Admiral Avellant, head of the admiralty department; Admiral Abazn, executive chief of the committee of the far east; General Sakharoff, chief of the army staff, and M. Hartwig, chief of the Asiatic division.

Grand Duke Alexis will draft the report, which, it is believed, will receive the signatures of the members of the council and be presented to the czar today. It is probable that the reply will be transmitted to Japan early tomorrow.

It is significant that Count Lamsdorff has arranged to give the Japanese minister, M. Kurino, an immediate audience.

Late dispatches from Tokyo say it is expected that the answer of Russia to Japan's latest note will reach Tokyo tomorrow. Besides the intimation conveyed to Baron de Rosen, the Russian minister, that an early reply was desired, Minister Kurino, at St. Petersburg, called on Foreign Minister Lamsdorf and politely requested a response.

Clever Postoffice Thief.

BUFFALO, Jan. 29. — William C. Goehrig, a letter carrier, has been arrested, charged with stealing from the mails. The arrest was made by Inspectors Owen of Cincinnati, Duryea of Philadelphia, Kyle of Syracuse and Cochrane of this city. Goehrig's operations, it is alleged, covered a period of nearly a year, his clever work baffling the efforts of the inspectors. The loss through the Buffalo postoffice during that time has amounted to several thousand dollars. Goehrig is a native of Buffalo and has been a mail carrier for five years.

Mrs. Ingersoll Guilty.

SALEM, N. J., Jan. 29.—Mrs. Alice M. Ingersoll has been found guilty of assault and battery with intent to kill her husband, Duke Ingersoll. She will be sentenced tomorrow. William Denelesbeck, the young man who confessed to having shot Mr. Ingersoll, will also be sentenced tomorrow. Denelesbeck and the woman conspired to kill Ingersoll, and Denelesbeck later confessed to having shot Ingersoll while the latter was sitting in his dining room.

Italian Sun Helps Mrs. Clemens.

FLORENCE, Italy, Jan. 29.—The sun and the soft climate of Italy have brought a notable improvement in the health of Mrs. Samuel L. Clemens, wife of Mark Twain. Mr. Clemens is very busy with writing, and it is his habit to dictate to his secretary as he walks up and down his wife's room.

Reorganization Plan Discussed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The Sheldon reorganization committee of the United States Shipbuilding company has discussed the plan of Receiver James Smith, Jr., but no definite action was taken. The committee's existence is now ended by limitation, but it is believed it will reorganize at once.

A Graduate of Heidelberg.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Professor J. Leon Magnes, professor of Hebrew in Union college, Cincinnati, has been called to the pastorate of Temple Israel, Brooklyn. He is a native of Oakland, Cal., and a graduate of the University of Heidelberg.

Chicago Elevator Burned.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29. — Fire has destroyed the grain elevator owned by R. E. Pratt & Co., at Seventy-fifth street and Western avenue. The building had no grain in it at the time and was to have been opened Monday. The loss is $75,000.

General Darr Is Dead.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29. — General Joseph Darr, formerly chief of staff of General Rosecrans and provost marshal general of the department of the Missouri, is dead here. He was a prominent member of the Order of Elks.

Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 29, 1904.

The Daily Press has a higher circulation rating than is accorded to any other paper in Plainfield.—Printers' Ink.

The office boy says that the difference between Whittaker Wright and Charles M. Schwab is that one is dead and the other is not.

Chicago University, the incubator of "ratty" ideas, is no longer a Baptist institution according to a statement made by President Harper. The Baptist church is to be congratulated.

The Plainfield Press, in trying to show how popular former Senator Reed is in Somerset County political circles, declares that "the election returns of late years show that he and his friend Smalley are very much alive." Yes; Somerset County has gone Democratic two years a-running, and Reed is nominally a Republican! —Newark Evening News.

Quod erat demonstrandum.

This is the birthday of William McKinley whose memory is held in reverence by every American and is respected by all Nations. Had not an enemy of God and man robbed the earth of his presence he would be sixty-one years of age and would be filling the most exalted position to which his admiring countrymen could raise him.

What does the advertiser seek to accomplish by his advertisements? The answers to this question differ, merely as to form of expression or point of view. One says: "The aim of advertising is to attract attention and to sell goods." Another statement would be, that the purpose of advertising is to attract attention to the goods and to create such a favorable impression for them that the reader will desire to possess them. Whatever the statement may be, this seems certain—one aim of every advertisement is to attract attention. Therefore, the entire problem of attention is one of importance to the advertiser, and an understanding of it is necessary for its wisest application as well as for a correct understanding of advertising.—Walter Dill Scott.

E. Benjamin Andrews, chancellor of the University of Nebraska, whose ideas on the money question secured for him a permanent leave of absence from the presidency of Brown University some years ago, furnishes himself as exhibit No. 2, for the negative side of the question: "Does a college education pay?" Dr. Harper, of Chicago, being generally conceded the position of exhibit No. 1. This is a sample of the many shocking utterances which Dr. Andrews has contributed to procure him the degree A. S. S.:

"Society, as it becomes more enlightened, will snuff out the lives of sickly and deformed infants, to prevent their becoming at maturity a burden to it and to themselves. As with the cradle, so it will be with other cases. A committee of skilled physicians, I firmly believe, eventually will determine the fate of those who are sickly, or whose recovery from disease is impossible. Such persons, if the physicians agree, will mercifully be put to death."

The Spartan-like scholar evidently believes that the world is going backward. Fortunately he has few supporters of his heathenish idea. We are living in a Christian age.

—V. W. Nash, Jr., Esq., has made numerous changes and improvements in his law offices, Park avenue.

Krausse, F. A. Nelson, H. A. Todd, B. K. Dilts, D. J. Carney, Frank Linke, W. R. Stanbery, W. G. De Mess, W. A. Woodruff, E. M. French, M. Armstrong, Charles H. Hand, Hippolyte Texier, Edmond Texier, Charles Jensen, H. S. Potter.

The dinner itself was excellent. The menu could not fail to please the most Epicurean of the diners. Here it is:

Oysters on the Half Shell
Green Turtle Soup Clear
Olives, Radishes, Celery,
Salted Almonds
Boiled Salmon
Pomme Duchesse
Tenderloin of Beef, larded
Spaghetti a la Neapolitan
Sherbet and Cigarettes
Roast Squab, Canape
Chicory Salad
Ice Cream Assorted Cakes Fruit
Coffee and Cigars

The tables were prettily decorated and a white rose adorned each plate. "Our Country, 'Tis of Thee" was sung between the courses. In an intermission during the speaking, Judge W. N. Runyon raised his stentorian voice in song, and T. M. Muir also carolled a couple of pathetic ballads to the Judge's accompaniment.

Toastmaster Gilbert, in opening the speaking, made his address without notes referring to the fact that "it requires a good memory to make an effective impromptu speech." He said that his table was the dullest in the room because those seated at it were all busy rehearsing their impromptu speeches. He referred in glowing terms to "the absent ladies," and waxed serious about the difficulty in getting men to do their full duties as citizens. He said that there is no such thing as government of and by the people when men neglect to go to the primaries. He thanked God that issues make themselves and force themselves upon the people. He explained the necessity for such an organization as the Board of Trade in stimulating interest in matters of public moment.

In introducing Mayor Jenkins, the toastmaster said there should be need for but one mayor in Plainfield and North Plainfield and both mayors, Jenkins and Smalley, agreed with him.

Mayor Jenkins, beginning with the expression of a hope that the day for union of Plainfield and North Plainfield was not far distant, gave an account of the city's early history from its founding. He said that the main credit for Plainfield's present excellent system of education is due Dr. Stillman.

Toastmaster Gilbert, after referring to Plainfield's numerous advantages as a home city, spoke of its just pride in its lawyers and introduced Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh, rallying him good naturedly on the fact that he "sometimes does things he ought not to."

"Slander always loves a shining mark," said Mr. Marsh referring to the fact that the "Native Jerseyman" about whom he discoursed was so often made the butt of the humor of the country's funny men. He made mention of what he evidently considered the Jerseyman's chief and most valued characteristic, his thrift. He expatiated on Plainfield's high financial standing, calling the city the financial capital of Union county. The proverbiality of Jersey justice, the incorruptibility of Plainfield's officials and the willingness of her best men to serve in public office was emphasized.

When Hamilton Kean was introduced, James E. Martine called for three cheers which were given with will. Mr. Martine said that though he differed in political opinion from the county chairman yet he had the highest regard for his social and manly qualities.

Mr. Kean referred to the excellence of the conditions in Plainfield's factories more especially in the press manufacturing concerns. He touched upon national politics stating that the ports of Manchuria should be kept open for the trade of the U. S. and that in fact no nation should be allowed to say "no" when the trades vessels of the U. S. demand admittance. He thought that this is the golden age of U. S. history.

Mayor Smalley talked about "Municipal Development" and said that if he hadn't done anything else for the advancement of the borough as a municipality, he had at least three things to be satisfied about: He had put Adam (Fritz) on a diet, put the fire department on a paid basis, and put John Goodwin on the bum.

The Mayor made a strong plea for a borough park and hoped to live to see the line between Plainfield and North Plainfield eliminated. He believed in Somerset but was a "greater believer in Union." He said facetiously that he was talking without notes because he didn't have his notes; "everybody else had 'em." He declared that the greatest help towards municipal development is for men to lay aside their seeking for the almighty dollar and give themselves over in part at least to the public service.

Mr. Martine's speech was characteristic. It was serious and earnest and expressed with natural eloquence and force. "God never meant John Kean and Hamilton Kean to deal out water to the citizens of Plainfield," he said, in advocating municipal ownership of public utilities. "Municipal ownership means fraternalism rather than paternalism."

Mr. McCutchen's talk on "The Commuter" ended the speaking.

The special music at next Sunday afternoon's men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. will probably be furnished by the choir of Trinity Reformed church. Miss Florence Bennett will be the soloist. The speaker will be Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, of the First Baptist church.

Skating in the Streets.

This winter for the first in many, Plainfielders have enjoyed the sight of seeing boys and girls skate about the city and borough both in the streets and on the sidewalks. In some instances many of them have been able to skate to and from their homes to school. According to the "oldest inhabitant," the present winter has been the most severe in a number of years, and they say it recalls to their minds the old-fashioned winters of long ago.

Injured by Fall.

F. W. Bird, Jr., of East Front street, fell on the ice yesterday and severely sprained his leg and wrist. He will be detained at home for some time.

GOT A COLD?

This weather is apt to produce it.

If you have the grippe, neuralgia, rheumatism, or the like—the next thing is to get rid of it.

Randolph's Gold and Grippe Tablets

will cure you in 24 hours.

They act quickly—leave no bad after effect—and are preferable to quinine.

Won't you try a box? Only cost you a quarter, you know.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Invitations have been issued by Crescent Company, No. 13, Uniform Rank, K. of P., for an entertainment and dance to be given in the Casino Monday night, February 8.

Wetumpkah Tribe, No. 229, I. O. R. M., discussed fish chowder at last night's meeting. Jerry Foss was the purveyor. The chief's and warrior's degrees were worked on two candidates. A smoker ended the programme.

The annual inspection of Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., will be held Monday night, February 1, at which time Eminent Sir William Carman, Grand Captain General and his associate officers of the Grand Commandery, of New Jersey, will be present.

Mrs. Colby Loses Her Dog.

Mrs. Everett Colby, formerly Miss Edith Hyde, of this city, wife of Assemblyman Colby, of West Orange, reported to the New York police yesterday the loss of a valuable Irish terrier dog. She was shopping in a store in Sixth avenue when the animal was either stolen, Mrs. Colby says, or strayed away by accident. The Colbys are living at 65 West Forty-ninth street, New York, their West Orange home being closed for the winter.

There's a Moral in It.

Miss Wilhelmina Vroom, of East Fifth street, who lost her gold rimmed eyeglasses a few nights ago and advertised her loss in The Daily Press, had them returned to her yesterday by John Gellette, of 328 East Fourth street. He saw the advertisement in The Daily Press and returned the glasses to the owner.

Quietly Married.

Jesse Perrine, formerly of this city, and Miss May Randolph, of Rahway, were married Wednesday night by Rev. Dr. W. O. Snodgrass at his home in Central avenue. After a honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Perrine will live in Rahway, where the groom is in business.

Birthday Party.

In honor of his birthday, which occurs tomorrow, fifty friends gathered at the home of Chauncey F. Stout on Madison avenue last night and spent a pleasant social time. Singing, music, dancing and cards were among the events of the evening and at a late hour refreshments were served.

Borough Council Meeting.

The North Plainfield Borough Council will meet tonight. The paid fire department ordinance will be brought up for the third and final hearing, and it generally believed that the matter of turning over to the Board of Education monies due it will be discussed.

Mrs. J. Ringel, of Carlton, avenue, left today for Palm Beach, Fla. Her daughter, Mrs. Hille and child will join her in a few days, returning the end of April.

AMUSEMENTS.

Delighted audiences that fill the Manhattan Theatre, New York, mark the great success of "The Virginian," from Owen Wister's popular novel, and the run of this play at the Manhattan promises to be long and prosperous. Even more distinctly successful than is Mr. Wister's romance among books treating of life in the West, is the play made from it among so-called Western dramas, for it pictures with unusual and remarkable fidelity the types and scenes that have made its original so popular, thanks to the skill of the dramatizers and the ability and fitness of the actors selected to give the characters life. Mr. Dustin Farnum as The Virginian has made one of the most pronounced hits recorded in New York by a young leading man in several seasons, and he is supported by one of the strongest and best-balanced companies seen on Broadway.

THREE TROLLEYS CRASH.

Heavy Truck and Cars In Bad Mixup Many Injured.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Three trolley cars of the Westchester avenue line of the Union railway in the Bronx and a truck laden with heavy steel girders figured in a smashup last night, in which half a dozen persons were injured, three so seriously that they were removed to Lebanon hospital.

The accident happened on the steep hill in Westchester avenue at the intersection of Intervale avenue. Owing to the darkness Motorman Joseph Seistenberg did not see the truck, laden with several heavy girders for the new elevated structure, until he was close upon it and was powerless to stop his car. The momentum was so great that the car was torn asunder. Half a dozen passengers, three of them women, were in the car, but escaped serious injury. The motorman was thrown ahead of the car and had his left leg fractured. Conductor Patrick Griffin was badly hurt, and two of the women were cut by flying glass and splinters.

The car was left in darkness, and before the passengers could alight another car crashed into it from the rear. The motorman, Patrick Gallogoy, did not see the wreck until he was almost upon it, and so steep was the grade that he was unable to stop. He was crushed between the two cars and had one hip dislocated.

Great confusion followed when the first car took fire, but the flames were soon extinguished. In the midst of this a third car came rushing down the hill and drove its way into the wreck. None of its passengers was seriously hurt. The line was blocked for several hours, as the first two cars were wrecked beyond repair.

Election Riot In Cienfuegos.

CIENFUEGOS, Cuba, Jan. 29.—A riot in which four men were seriously injured and a dozen others slightly hurt occurred here as a result of bad feeling engendered by the election campaign. The trouble began in the Central cafe when Francisco Canellos and Victor Segreran, Republicans, who were entertaining some Colombian friends, were attacked by several Liberal Nationalists. The cafe was transformed into a battlefield, and a large and excited crowd surged back and forth in the street. The principal fight occurred in front of the city hall. Many revolver shots were fired, but nobody was shot, the injuries resulting from stick and fist encounters. The people of the city were alarmed and barred their doors and windows and closed all the stores. The situation is calmer now, but political feeling runs high. Previous to the row in the Central cafe there was another fracas at the railroad station, but this was quelled by the police.

Gas Explosion Fatality.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 29.—An explosion of illuminating gas beneath the sidewalk on Lonsdale street killed Edward Cull, twenty-nine years old, and endangered the lives of other persons in the vicinity. Many windows were broken and the foundations of neighboring buildings disturbed. Cull was one of a gang of workmen in quest of a leak in the gas pipe. The men had drilled a hole in the concrete sidewalk, through which the gas escaped. One of them applied a lighted match near the leak, the explosion resulting.

Work Stopped by Fire.

UNIONVILLE, Conn., Jan. 29.—Seventy-five employees are thrown out of work by the burning of a frame building occupied by the cutlery department of the Upson Nut company here. The loss on the building and contents is $30,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

An Ideal Location

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

COMING STYLES.

What Will Be Worn This Spring. Revival of Sequins.

Cape and collar effects continue to be the proper thing, and hardly a coat is complete without them.

Wreaths are being used once more for the hair. They are made of gilt or silver, with acorns, or else they are of green and silver ivy leaves or other oddly shaped foliage. Large Alsatian bows of black velvet are seen in the way of headdress.

CHIFFON VOILE GOWN.

Large Spanish combs are being revived in real and imitation tortoise shell ornamented with gold or silver.

There is a revival of sequins and of jetted gowns, but they must be fine sequins and jet of good quality.

All black gowns made of beautiful lace or jetted effects are always smart and useful, and they can be relieved by touches of chiffon velours in lustrous black or tiny bits of gold or silver embroidery.

Ecru pongee gowns embroidered in deep red or deep blue will be very popular next summer, and they will be worn with hats of ecru straw trimmed to match.

Stoles and muffs of leopards' skins are worn in Paris with dull brown or green costumes, and they are certainly very becoming to the statuesque woman.

The picture shows an evening dress of pale blue chiffon voile trimmed with ecru guipure lace and narrow black velvet ribbon. JUDIC CHOLLET.

CHANGES OF MODES.

Skirts Growing Fuller All the Time. Princess Effects.

Long coats are giving way to shorter ones for spring wear, and these short shapes are to be very fancy, with wide girdles, floppy sleeves and little vest effects.

Skirts are growing fuller and fuller, and the wise girl in buying a suit ready made will take this fact into considera tion. The very dressy tailor mades, indeed, have almost an equal amount of fullness in the front and in the back of the skirts, and this is disposed in tucks, shirrings and even box plaits.

EVENING GOWN.

Princess effects are seen in cloth for street gowns, but these are laid in plaitings from neck to heel, so that there may be a requisite amount of fullness at the feet.

The thin chiffon velours will be worn much later in the season than the plain velvet and will be seen during the summer even for evening and hotel wear.

Lace is used in great profusion more than ever on sleeves, and in many cases it forms the extra wide cape collar and a hip yoke and front panel as well, but when it becomes as prominent a factor in the gown as this it is dyed to match, as a rule.

Stitched points are taking the place of the scallops which have been with us so long, and vandyked effects appear on many of the best gowns.

Accordion plaited skirts will be seen again this spring, and many leading dressmakers are making gowns entirely of accordion plaiting. Black voile and black crepe de chine adapt themselves excellently to this mode, and china silk is also used.

The picture shows an evening gown of white mousseline. It has a shirred waist and is trimmed with applications of yellowish guipure lace.

BRITISH COLUMN IN TIBET.

Depon Lama to Make Trouble if Younghusband Will Not Retire.

CHUMBI, British India, Jan. 29.—Colonel Younghusband, commanding the British expedition to Tibet, has received a personal visit from the depon lama, one of the five great lamas of Tibet, who delivered an ultimatum warning him to return to Gnatong and promising that there would be serious trouble if he did not do so.

Large re-enforcements of infantry and cavalry have already reached the Tibetan camp, and more are coming from Lassa and Shigatso, the western capital.

It is expected that an attack will be made on the British camp at Tuna when the Tibetans are sufficiently re-enforced. In the meantime the British are pushing the work of roadmaking through a gorge north of Lingmathang, which is said to be more difficult to traverse and higher than the Kyber pass.

The military telegraph is keeping pace with the roadmakers. All this work is being done in the face of arctic weather. The British expedition is still waiting a proper representative from the dalai lama at Lassa.

A flying column under command of Colonel McDonald is ready to push forward at any moment should necessity arise.

JOINT CONFERENCE.

Miners and Operators—Mitchell Will Not Take Government Job.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 29.—The first session of the joint conference of the miners and operators of the central competitive district was devoted almost entirely to speeches, and the second session was delayed because of the late arrival of the Pittsburg delegation of operators.

President John Mitchell of the mine workers said:

"The union will welcome every eligible man, whether he be Democrat, Republican, Populist or Socialist. All I ask is that he shall not thrust politics down the throats of other members."

He denied having any intention of accepting a government position, saying, "I prefer to be at the head of this organization."

General Upton's Book Republished.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The war department has just published a remarkable book entitled "Military Policy of the United States," by the late Major General Emory Upton. General Upton's military career, according to Secretary Root, who directed this publication, was one of exceptional excellence and brilliance, and no one, it is believed, was more fit than he to undertake such a difficult task as the writing of this work. He had not only the widest experience in the field during the civil war, but he had a perfect genius for organization and tactics. These attainments he supplemented by a personal tour of Europe to observe the workings of the military systems of that continent, one of the results of which was the revolution of the military tactics of the United States army.

Was Miss Pilcher the "Short Man?"

MILLERS, S. D., Jan. 29.—This town is much wrought up over the mystery surrounding the arrest of Miss Hattie Pilcher, a pretty and popular schoolteacher, who is charged with having donned man's clothes at night and assisted in the holding up, drugging and attempted robbery of Wilbur Quirk, a clerk in Collins' drug store. Miss Pilcher, it was learned, had a bullet wound in her shoulder and was arrested as being the "short man" of the two. Miss Pilcher's testimony was offered to show she told the physician who attended her wound that she was shot with a noiseless gun, like that with which the robbers threatened Quirk.

Naval Force Doing Good Work.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Advices from the isthmus received by the navy department show that the naval force there has been busy in scouting and in survey work. Small scouting parties have followed clews to various trails and charted these, so that when the work is completed the government will be in possession of a complete military map of the whole isthmus. Both Admirals Coghlan and Glass report that the health of the sailors and marines is good. There is only one case of yellow fever in the city of Panama, and this case is regarded as sporadic.

A Record Murder Suspect Arrest.

HANOVER, Mass., Jan. 29.—Quong Sing, a laundryman, was murdered in his shop here, his head having been forced into a tub of water and held there by a box of soap. Chris R. Ryan, who has been working for the L. H. Clapp Rubber company here, was arrested by the state police on leaving a train in Boston on suspicion of having killed the Chinaman. Quong Sing was about twenty-five years old. He had been in business here for several years.

White House Dinner For Judges.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—President and Mrs. Roosevelt entertained at dinner at the White House last night in honor of the supreme court. Covers were laid for a large company of guests. All the justices of the supreme court were present except Justice White, who was detained at home by injuries resulting from a fall while on his way home from court, and Justice Brown, who is suffering from eye trouble.

Bryan's Sister, Ill, Wires For Him.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 29.—Miss Nannie Bryan, sister of W. J. Bryan, is critically ill with tubercular peritonitis at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. S. Allen, in this city. Her illness has taken a sudden change for the worse, and Mr. Bryan has been wired to return home. Announcement is made that he will probably reach Lincoln tomorrow.

Governor Pennypacker Informed Ice Gorge Cannot Be Broken.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 29.—Weather Observer De Main of this city has issued a statement to the effect that the condition of the river and ice gorge on the north branch of the Susquehanna river is critical.

Solid, impenetrable ice extends in one long gorge from Beach Haven, Luzerne county, to Sunbury, a distance of probably thirty miles, without a break. Conditions at Bloomsburg are improving gradually, and the river is falling back to near its normal height.

Governor Pennypacker sent the following telegram to Mayor John R. Townsend of Bloomsburg:

"Your telegram to Secretary Fuller stating that ice gorges have formed in the Susquehanna river for thirty miles north of Sunbury and asking for aid to the county is at hand. In what way do you think the state could aid you? A definite report made to me by an agent sent to investigate the matter is that the mass of ice is so great that no effective means could be taken."

RATES TO ST. LOUIS FAIR.

Passenger Agents In Convention Decide as to Excursion Fares.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 29.—It has been decided by passenger agents to recommend to their respective roads reduced rates to the world's fair from all parts of the United States. They will ask for:

First.—A season excursion rate to St. Louis, beginning April 25 and continuing until Nov. 30, selling tickets during that period at 80 per cent of double the one way fare.

Second.—Excursion rates with final return limit of sixty days at rate of one and one-third fare.

Third.—Excursion tickets of ten days' limit in territory 200 miles distant from St. Louis at rate of one fare plus $2.

Fourth.—That coach excursions be run not oftener than one day each week by each line.

Deschamps Will Aid Jiminez.

CAPE HAITIEN, Jan. 29.—When the Dominican gunboat Presidente arrived here her captain made a request upon the Haytian government for munitions of war, to which President Nord made no response. After the installation of the new Dominican consul here the Presidente left for Monte Cristi. It is said she will attempt to prevent the German steamer Schaumburg, at present here, from entering Monte Cristi. Word has been received here from General Deschamps, the partisan of General Jiminez, who was taken to Guantanamo, Cuba, by the United States cruiser Hartford, of the shipping of munitions of war and saying also that he and numerous followers of Jiminez will soon return to Santo Domingo. Leopold Espaillat, ex-minister of war, has arrived at Monte Cristi to help Jiminez.

One Hundred Miles of Tunnels.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29. — The Illinois Telephone and Telegraph company has sold all its property to the Illinois Tunnel company, with an authorized capital of $30,000,000. The sale gives the latter company the control of the tunnels, tracks, telephone cables, etc., forty feet underneath the city of Chicago. At present the whole downtown district is honeycombed with tunnels, the total mileage being twenty. It is the intention of the new company to extend the tunnels in all directions, an addition of 100 miles being contemplated. The motor used is electric, and the trains are to run twenty miles an hour.

Statue of Kosciusko.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—President Roosevelt has transmitted to congress a recommendation "that the very patriotic offer of the Polish organizations be accepted and that there be a pedestrian statue of Kosciusko accepted by the government to be placed on one of the four corners of Lafayette square. These four corners thus ultimately would be occupied by statues of Lafayette, Rochambeau, Von Steuben and Kosciusko, all of whom in the stormy days which saw the birth of the republic rendered service which can never be forgotten by our people."

Why Did He Carry a Loaded Gun?

ITHACA, N. Y., Jan. 29.—Coroner Judd has decided that Nellie Deviney, who was shot and killed by her sixteen-year-old brother, Erie Deviney, met her death by accident. It appeared that the lad was about to go hunting when his sister playfully took hold of the barrel of the gun and attempted to detain him. The weapon discharged, and the shot lodged in the young woman's brain.

Jury Says Gross Carelessness.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 29.—The coroner's jury that investigated the grade crossing accident which resulted in two deaths and in which more than thirty people were injured returned a verdict of gross carelessness and negligence on the part of the Grand Trunk gatekeeper at Gratiot avenue and Dequindre street in not closing the gates.

Iona Explosion Court Martial.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The court martial in the case of Gunner Otto Fries, U. S. N., who was in charge of Iona Island naval magazine at the time of the explosion on Nov. 4, 1903, has been closed and the findings forwarded to Washington. No decision has yet been given out.

WOULD BUNKO BATES

Captain Mannix Under Arrest Charged With Fraud.

HAD LITTLE RELIC OF BOXER RISING

Governor Bates Called Upon and Presented With Curios and Check to Cash—He Gave Up Five Dollars and Then Notified the Police.

BOSTON, Jan. 29.—A young man with a military bearing, representing himself as Captain William F. Mannix of the Ninth United States regular infantry, retired, was arrested in the executive chamber of the statehouse after he had failed in an attempt to defraud Governor Bates out of $50 by inducing him to cash a worthless check.

Mannix passed an alleged worthless check for $25 upon John E. Breslin, proprietor of the Hampton House. This check was drawn upon the Columbia National bank at Washington and was signed in the name of Secretary George B. Cortelyou. The man told Mr. Breslin that he had an engagement with Governor Bates, who was going to cash a draft of $50 for him. This statement led to his arrest, as the police were waiting for Mannix when he later called upon the governor.

Some days ago Governor Bates received a typewritten letter upon the stationery of the Raleigh hotel, Washington. Inclosed in the letter was a check drawn upon the Columbia National bank of that city, made payable to William R. Mannix, Jr., and signed William F. Mannix. The writer greeted his excellency in a familiar manner and told him that his son would call in a few days and bring him a little reminder of the Boxer troubles in China. The governor was requested to cash the inclosed check for the young man upon the latter's arrival.

Mannix called upon Governor Bates and presented him with several interesting curios. The subject of the check was then brought up, and the governor instructed his secretary to advance Mannix $5 and told the latter to call again for the balance of the check.

The governor communicated with the Columbia National bank at Washington and discovered that the check was worthless. Mannix confessed to the police that the checks passed by him were forgeries and said that he was intoxicated at the time they were made. He claimed to be the proprietor of the Hennepin County Herald at Long Lake, Minn.

Petronievitch Get $30,000.

BELGRADE, Servia, Jan. 29.—Miloch Petronievitch, formerly chief of the late King Alexander's cabinet, is implicated in the misappropriation of $30,000 belonging to the estate of a natural son of Prince Michailo Obrenovica, in connection with which former Minister of the Interior Todorovics, who was wounded in the palace during the assassination on June 11 of King Alexander and Queen Draga, was arrested on Jan. 27. Petronievitch admits that he remitted money to certain persons in England, claims he obeyed a direct order of King Alexander and refuses to furnish further details. He has been arrested pending an examination of the statements made.

Harwick Mine Victims Buried.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 29.—Burial processions and rescue parties in charge of newly recovered bodies passed each other on the road that leads from the Harwick mine to the morgue, and many were the pathetic scenes. Of the 103 bodies recovered and taken to the schoolhouse morgue thirty-nine have been identified, and eighteen have been buried. The first funeral services of the victims were held by the Rev. E. O. Graham in the Lutheran church and by the Rev. Vincent Manelli in the Italian Catholic church of New Kensington.

Rubber Workers' Strike Still On.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 29.—The strike of the rubber workers in this city continues unsettled. Most of the mills are attempting to operate, but are running short handed. The strikers have pickets out, and when the men employed at the Grieb Rubber works were returning from work they were attacked by men who were hanging around the place. The police were called out, and the men were escorted to their homes. Officers of the strikers insist that they are not resorting to any violence and that they are using only moral suasion.

Square at Progreso Burned.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 29. — A great fire at Progreso, the chief port of Yucatan, has destroyed an entire square of business houses and public buildings, including the market. The loss is conservatively put at $2,000,000. The railway offices were also wholly consumed. The public buildings were not insured, and the loss on them is estimated at $300,000. Fifteen thousand bales of jeniquin were burned.

The Magic Radium.

TO SAVE THE SHADE TREES

MATTER OF APPOINTING COMMISSION BROUGHT TO MAYOR'S ATTENTION.

A law has been in effect in New Jersey Statutes for many years empowering the Mayor of each city to appoint a tree commission to look after the condition of the shade trees in the cities, taking care that they are not molested by telephone, telegraph and electric light companies in stringing wires.

Such commissions have been appointed in Elizabeth, Newark, Jersey City, Paterson and New Burnswick. In all these cities the commission has done much in preserving the shade trees, especially along trolley lines.

Such a commission is thought by many to be needed here and the matter has been presented to Mayor Jenkins with a view to having him pass upon it and possibly make a recommendation along this line to the Common Council. It is understood that he is in favor of the scheme. The matter will probably be discussed at the next meeting of the Common Council.

The trees in this city are said to be the handsomest in the State and have done much to give Plainfield its title of Queen City of New Jersey. Nevertheless it frequently happens that they are mutilated by telephone and telegraph linemen and the trolley company in stringing wires. Not long ago a heavy cable was strung along East Fifth street, following the trolley tracks, and some of the largest limbs of a handsome tree were ruthlessly lopped off.

GOVERNOR TO ENTERTAIN.

Franklin Murphy Plans Series of Brilliant Events for Season.

Governor Murphy has planned for some elaborate social functions during the present legislative session. Not only will Governor Murphy give the annual weekly dinners at the executive home at the State Capitol, but he proposes to give some additional larger and more elaborate functions.

Principal among these will be a reception to the members of all the State boards and their families. This affair is to be given in the executive department at the State House and upwards of 500 invitations will be issued. The date has not yet been fixed.

February 16 Governor Murphy will give a dinner in the executive departments at the State House to the State officials and members of the legislature.

Later the Governor will, as usual, give dinners to the judges of the State courts and to the legislative correspondents. It is planned to have both of these affairs in the executive apartments at the State House.

DIED IN HOSPITAL.

Frank Hancock Passes Away Among Strangers.

Frank Hancock, who was employed by Charles Baldwin, a carter, of Mariners place, died at Muhlenberg Hospital, yesterday afternoon, following a few days' illness with pneumonia. The fact that Hancock was somewhat of a stranger in Plainfield gave rise to a little suspicion as to who he was and as to whether he had any relatives.

Just before he died he told the hospital authorities that his father and mother live in Mystic, Conn. He gave his age as forty-two years and said that he was unmarried. His parents will be communicated with and the remains will be held awaiting an answer from them.

It was in charge of Thomas R. VanBoskerck and George T. Rogers. In order to avoid undue confusion temporary telephones were used. These were placed in the dining hall gratuitously by Charles W. Runyon. One was placed at the exit and the other at the entrance to the dining hall. Supper being served between the hours of 11 and 1 o'clock it was necessary to allow only a limited number in the dining room at once. As soon as one couple left the table and passed through the exit, which was arranged under the stage and up through the promenade, the committeeman at the entrance was notified from the exit that one more couple could be accommodated. The decorations were most complete in this apartment. Greens tied with red ribbons formed the background for numerous bunches of cut flowers. The ball returns of the alleys were boarded over and the tables were arranged over the frameworks.

The vaudeville performance was provided by Edward J. Brown, harp and guitar; Jesse Wilson, banjoist and comedian and J. P. Staples, mandolin, and baritone. Popular selections of the day were rendered in a pleasing manner by these artists from 10 until 1 o'clock.

Executive committee—Dr. Frank C. Ard, president; Harry V. Borden, secretary; William C. Kinney, treasurer; George P. Mellick, Edward H. Ladd, Edwin H. Booth, Charles J. Fisk, Frank de L. Fiance committee—George P. Mellick, chairman; Dr. William H. Murray, Dr. Frank C. Ard, Harry V. Borden, Frank de L. Hyde, Samuel St. J. McCutchen, Evarts Tracy, Lewis E. Waring, Edward H. Ladd, Ernest R. Ackerman, Dr. Benjamin Van D. Hedges, William C. Kinney, William S. Tyler, Lewis G. Timpson, Thomas R. VanBoskerck.

Programme committee — Evarts Tracy, chairman; James W. DeGraff, Samuel St. J. McCutchen, William S. Tyler.

Ball committee—Lewis G. Timpson, chairman; Elliott T. Barrows, George T. Rogers, Thomas R. VanBoskerck, Theodore D. Wilson.

Aides — Dr. Norman Probasco, George T. VanBoskerck, Howard Huntington, Morris J. Dumont.

To the ball committee, of which Lewis G. Timpson was chairman, is due the credit of the success of the affair. Associated with him were Elliot T. Barrows, Thomas R. VanBoskerck, Theodore B. Wilson and George T. Rogers. These men worked enthusiastically and they were ably assisted by the other committees.

These were present: Mr. and Mrs. William L. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. De Witt C. Ivins, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Gough, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Otterson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. VARREY, AN ARTIST.

Dramatic Critic Pays Great Tribute to Jerseyman, Who is at the Lyric.

In his criticism of "The School for Scandal" at the Lyric Theatre the New York Sun's dramatic critic pays this tribute to Edward Phillips, of Washington Valley, whose stage name is Edwin Varrey: "But to come to the Sir Peter of Mr. Edwin Varrey. That is a piece of work that the puplis of the schools of acting should study on their knees. Mr. Varrey is one of those great artists who make their points not by what they do, but by what they don't do. He doesn't need long speeches, or the centre of the stage. He lives the part. The barrier of the footlights is eliminated when he is on the stage. The spectator becomes a part of the scene. To watch him is a liberal education in the art of acting. How Charles Lamb would have delighted in him!"

PERSONAL.

Jacob Blimm, Jr., of Somerset street, is visiting friends in Mt. Bethel.

Wm. Mills, of the borough, is visiting relatives and friends in Boston.

Miss Catherine Blimm, of Somerset street, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Edward O. Clark, of Newark.

Walter M. Sherwin, who has been traveling for three years as a member of the cast of the "Over Niagara Falls" theatrical company, has returned to his home in this city for a three months' vacation.

Carnation Day.

The Ohio House of Representatives on Tuesday, adopted a joint resolution, offered by Representative Hill, of Columbiana County, making the scarlet carnation the State flower. The concurrence of the Senate is assured. The scarlet carnation was a favorite of the late President McKinley, and the resolution declares it shall be the State flower as a token of love and reverence of the people of Ohio for him.

Sleighing Party.

A sleighing party of twenty young people from this city visited Westfield last night. Miss Bessie Felmley and Miss Todd, of Duer street, were the leaders.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR PLANS

ARRANGING FOR STATE CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN ELIZABETH.

The work of the New Jersey Christian Endeavor Union for the coming year was discussed on Wednesday at the winter meeting of the State committee, which was held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms in Newark. The arrangements for the State convention to be held in Elizabeth were given by the Rev. W. D. Stults, the chairman, who reported that the programme for the two days' session was nearly completed. "The Spiritual Life" will be the reigning topic of the entire meeting. The quiet hour will be conducted by the Rev. Dr. Tompkins, of Philadelphia.

The convention sermon will be preached by the Rev. Dr. Cornelius Woelfkin, of Brooklyn. General Secretary Von Ogden Vogt, of Boston, will bring greetings from the united society. Bishop Alexander Walters, of Jersey City, has promised to tell of the work among the colored Endeavorers. Conferences will be held, conducted by the superintendents of department work. A junior rally will be a feature of one of the afternoon sessions.

The singing will be conducted by Mr. Jacobs, well-known to Endeavorers. President Sproull will lead the consecration service.

As is the custom at the meetings of the executive committee, reports were given of the work throughout the State by the superintendents of department work. The Bible study committee, the Rev. W. T. S. Lumbar, chairman, has prepared the outlines for the coming year. The Rev. Dr. Clarke, of Spring Lake, has issued one thousand letters to be signed protesting against the seating of Smoot in the Senate.

The evanglistic department suggested that all the societies devote the meetings from February 14 to 25 to prayer for the conversion of the unsaved, and that the topic be "Christ for the World and for Me." The executive committee adopted the plan.

Bishop Alexander Walters, of Jersey City, who succeeds Mrs. Florence Randolph in the colored work, told of his intention of visiting the colored societies of which there are a large number in New Jersey, especially in Jersey City, Newark and Camden.

President Sproull, on behalf of the executive committee, announces that a new banner will be presented at the Elizabeth convention to the society making the greatest proportionate gain in members during the year.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Fred Dunavan, of L. W. Randolph's drug store, is detained at his home by illness.

—Irving Martin, of Woodhull & Martin's store, has returned from a visit with Morristown friends.

—The alumni of Rutger College, who include several Plainfielders, will dine tonight in the rooms of the New York Athletic Club.

—Admission to the twelfth concert of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra next Monday night, February 1, at 8:15 o'clock will be open to all men and women. Tickets may be had free at the drug stores. A silver offering will be taken up and the money devoted to the general Y. M. C. A. fund.

Boys Have Jolly Time.

The Monroe Avenue church branch of the Y. M. C. A. held a social last night under the direction of Kenneth Robbie. Games were played and refreshments served. The arrangements were made by the boys' executive committee of the branch, Chas. Leland, Fred Dow, Chauncey Lantz, Russell McIntyre and John Rittenhouse.

Medical Men Meet.

The Somerset County Medical Society met yesterday afternoon in Somerville. Papers were read by prominent Somerset county physicians. North Plainfield was represented by Dr. Albert Pittis, Dr. A. H. Dundon and Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan.

MASTER BARBERS PROTEST

AGAINST ENACTMENT OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION REGULATING BUSINESS.

The master barbers throughout the State are opposed to the proposed legislative enactment of the sanitary laws which the Barbers' Union is endeavoring to have passed. The bill in question is one which master barbers all over the State are opposed to, owing to the fact that the salaries of the inspectors and sub-spectators will have to be paid by them. The bill was born in Newark and launched by the Barbers' Union of that city. Journeymen barbers in general favor it, but it is said will not contribute toward the payment of the salaries of the officers provided by the bill. It calls for the sanitary regulation of shops, the appointment by the Governor of a board whose duty will consist of visiting all shops and examining their condition. It also calls for the appointment of a physician, whose duty will be to examine the helath of all barbers and all who apply for positions as barbers. The association state this provision is unnecessary as the local Board of Health in all Jersey cities is capable of performing its duties without the State officials' interference or the creation of a so-called barber shop Board of Health.

Planning Anniversary Event.

At the regular monthly business meeting of the Germania Beneficial Society, last night, two candidates were received into membership. Arrangements are being completed for the celebration of the eighth anniversary of the organization of the society. It will take place at the home of Charles Schantz, Thursday night, Feb. 25.

Historical Society Meeting.

The Somerset County Historical Society will meet in the First Reformed church chapel, Somerville, Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 2. Rev. Oscar M. Voorhees, of High Bridge, will make an address on "The East and West New Jersey Boundary Line Controversy."

Interment Here.

The remains of Carl Gulberg, father of Charles Gulberg, of South avenue, will reach Plainfield from Washington today. Mr. Gulberg died Wednesday in the Capitol City, and the funeral services will be held from the home of the son.

Exempts to Meet.

There will be a meeting of the Exempt Firemen's Association Monday night, when matters pertaining to the question of sending the silver hose carriage to St. Louis will be discussed.

SWACKHAMER'S TALK BEFORE HUDSON'S MEN

Address Made by North Plainfielder at Annual Banquet of Jersey City Board of Trade.

EVEN-HANDED JUSTICE

RAILROAD COMPANIES NOT PAYING THEIR PROPORTION OF TAXES.

Only An Anarchist Would Destroy Vested Rights of a Railroad Company—Tribute Paid to Hudson County's Legislators.

Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer's address on "Our State" before the Jersey City Board of Trade Thursday night has attracted more than passing notice. His utterances were greeted with spontaneous applause. He said incidently:

"In Jersey City the railroad companies own one quarter of the property and pay but one and one-half per cent. on their second class railroad property and nothing at all on the main stems while the private citizen is taxed on all property at the rate of 2.8 per cent."

While Mr. Swackhamer said that he was not an enemy of corporations and he realized that New Jersey was indebted to them for a large part of her wealth and prestage and that marching steadily behind advancing civilization, they have developed the natural resources and augmented the material prosperity of the country at large.

"Any man who would infringe upon or attempt to destroy any of the legitimate or vested rights of a corporation would be an anarchist," said Mr. Swackhamer, "and should be discountenanced, but the great principle for which the sturdy sons of New Jersey have always stood is equal taxation, evenhanded justice and equality before the law.

"If it is true that the railroad companies are not paying their fair share of the taxation then the private citizens are subjected to grievous burdens which it is not just that they should bear and it should be the aim of all upright and fair minded men to secure such legislation as will equalize the burden of taxation and place the corporations on an equality with the citizens of flesh and blood.

"Hudson County is the terminus of great trunk lines which gridiron the country and is situated in the fairest harbor of the world. With one hand she reaches out and gathers in the golden harvest of 10,000 farms and the varied products of countless factories while with the other she sweeps in the rich argusies of the seas from every part of the world. New Jersey has possession of such vast importance and is possessed of so much wealth, intelligence and political wisdom that she should assert the rights of her citizens and secure such reform as may be needed for the general good."

Mr. Swackhamer paid a tribute to the Legislators representing Hudson County at Trenton by saying that they were men who could not be led astray by the spoils of office and were above being used as tools of great corporations.

TALK ON FLAG.

Rev. Dr. Glazebrook to Make Presentation Speech When Third's Colors Go to State.

Rev. Dr. Otis A. Glazebrook, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, Elizabeth, chaplain of the veteran Zouaves of that city and former chaplain of Confederate Camp No. 1, of New York, has been selected by General Drake, commander of the Zouaves, to make the presentation speech when the old regimental flag of the Third New Jersey militia is turned over to Governor Murphy on February 8, to be placed in the custody of the State.

Rev. Dr. Glazebrook is one of Elizabeth's most eloquent speakers and a former Confederate verteran, he being an officer in "Stonewall" Jackson's brigade. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia. Coming from his hands, the ceremony of giving to the State the old historic colors will have more than ordinary significance.

Too Good for a Brute.

Hats off to Recorder Doud, of North Plainfield. In sentencing one Adam Frits for wife beating the Recorder scored him bitterly and gave him a term of seven days in the city dungeon and a fine of $30. Frits will be served nothing but bread and water the entire term. Even that is considered too good fare for such a brute.—Westfield Standard.

R. P. M'CULLOUGH, ANNAPOLIS GRADUATE

North Plainfielder on Naval Academy's Senior Class Roll-of-Honor.

SON OF R. H. M'CULLOUGH

"MIDDY" IS NOT TWENTY-THREE YEARS OF AGE.

Boroughite Appointed Four Years Ago—Has Won Honors in Athletic Arena and in the Classroom.

Richard Phillip McCullough, son of R. H. McCullough, of Steiner place, represents New Jersey on the honor roll of graduates of this year's senior class at Annapolis. His career, short as it has been in the naval academy, has not been without honor and during his term there he has won many laurels in atheletics as well as in his scholarship.

He is expected home in a few days on furlough and will await orders from the Government appointing him to some service in the navy. Usually graduation at Annapolis takes place in June but on account of a scarcity of officers in the navy at present those who stand highest in their classes are to be graduated this year four months ahead of the usual time.

Although not yet twenty-three years of age he is on the verge of an appointment to a responsible position by the Government. He was a pupil at the Somerset street high school. His appointment to the Naval Acadamy was secured through Representative Benjamin F. Howell, of New Brunswick, four years ago. He was identified during his first year in college on the Annapolis football team.

The graduating exercises will take place on Monday.

HIAWATHA PLAY.

Indians to Give Performance at the Casino on February 19.

Tetebahbundung, one of the Ojibway actors in the Hiawatha play to be produced at the Casino, might well have been in Longfellow's mind when he pictured Chibiabos, "He the sweetest of all singers." He sings with a depth of feeling that amazes all who have erroneously supposed that the Indian is a creature devoid of emotion.

This Indian is one of the number whom Mr. Frederick Burton will have with him at the Casino, on Friday, Feb. 19, afternoon and evening, when he gives an entertainment consisting of various ceremonies and scenes from "Hiawatha," and an exposition of Indian music. Tetebahbundung's son, Adamosa, will also be present, a bright little fellow who plays the boy Hiawatha. In this quaint play three persons are required to represent the Indian prophet—a papoose, strapped to its board cradle, a seven-year-old boy, and a grown man. All these will be with Mr. Burton, and Nokomis, a venerable squaw who is a born comedienne, will sing the lullaby from which Longfellow took the line, "Hush, the Naked Bear Will Get Thee."

Among others in the company with Mr. Burton are decendants of famous tribal chieftains, the Wabunosas, Bubwujjininis, and Shingwauks.

Mr. Anthony's Funeral.

The funeral services of Clarence Anthony, who died this week at Muhlenberg Hospital, will be held from the undertaking parlors of A. M. Runyon & Son, Park avenue, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be in the Methodist cemetery.

Purchased Valuable Horse.

Frank Hand, of the borough, has purchased at the Madison Square horse exchange, a horse with a record of 2:10. The horse is listed as "Franklin" and was owned by a New York man before Mr. Hand made the purchase.

The Potato Contest.

The potato contest will close at Hill & Shupp's dry goods store tonight. It was announced that it would end last night, but it was afterward decided to extend the time as there will probably be several returns today.

Second Cotillion.

The Cotillion Club will hold the second dance of the season at the Casino on Tuesday night, February 9. It is expected that there will be a large number of out-of-town guests present.

Donald A. McGee, of North Plainfield, has been chosen secretary for the Yale Football Association.

MAYOR N. B. SMALLEY HAS A PARK SCHEME

Tract of Land in Borough Suggested As a Site for Proposed Pleasure Ground.

HIS PLANS OUTLINED

IDEA IS TO HAVE PARK FOR USE OF BOTH CITY AND NORTH PLAINFIELD.

Island to be Arranged in Centre of Land and to be Used and a Band-Stand to be Placed on It—Benches, Fountains and Other Plans.

Plans have been drawn up for the proposed park to be laid out jointly by the municipalities of Plainfield and North Plainfield. They were made by Borough Engineer H. C. VanEmburgh and the scheme is cleverly portrayed. This public improvement was mentioned incidently by Mayor N. B. Smalley, of North Plainfield, in his speech before the Board of Trade at the banquet Thursday night.

The site embraces the property surrounded by Elm place, East Front street, Chatham street and Watchung avenue. One hundred feet west of the Elm place bridge it is planned to construct a rustic causeway or bridge connecting each bank of Tier's lake. In the center of this body of water it is proposed to lay out an artificial island which will be used as a foundation for a band stand where summer band concerts can be given. This will be called "Band Island."

There will be numerous driveways in the recreation ground surrounding artistically arranged grass plots and flower beds. Fountains will be placed in the reserve. Benches will be provided no doubt.

Pearl street will terminate in a well kept macadam driveway as will Bank place and Elm place. There will be twelve entrances to the place and it is possible thta boating will be a feature of the park during the summer. In the winter the lake will make a delightful skating rendesvous for the younger people. The buildings facing on Front street and Bank place will in no way interfere with the improvement. Those who have seen the plan declare that the park will be one of the greatest improvements of the past decade.

TURKEY SUPPER SUCCESSFUL

CLOSE OF PROFITABLE AFFAIR AT TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

The annual turkey supper continued at Trinity Reformed church, last night, under the auspices of the Ladies' Christian Society, was well attended, considering the stormy weather. Those who braved the elements were well repaid for their trouble. The supper was excellent, while a satisfying programme of music was rendered by Kenneth Stuart's orchestra of three pieces.

There were 165 suppers served last night, a little more than half the number of the night before. The women who had charge of the affair are gratified with the success attending it and especially as it will place a snug sum in the society's treasury.

An Athletic Attraction.

Fred Metz, the National amateur champion club-swinger, has been secured to give an exhibition swing with illuminated clubs, on the night of February 8, when the New Jersey Y. M. C. A. athletic meet will be held at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. The entries of this meet will close tonight. Five entries are expected from eight associations and spirited contests are being anticipated. The prize medals were ordered on Thursday.

Borough Council Meeting.

No meeting of the North Plainfield Common Council was held last night although it was stated that a special session had been called. The next meeting will be on Friday, February 5. At that time the third and last reading of the new paid fire department ordinance will be read.

Annual Statement.

The fifty-ninth annual statement of The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, Newark, N. J., appears in this issue. Orra S. Rogers, of this city, represents the concern here.

Masquerade Dance.

A number of Plainfielders have received invitations to attend the annual masquerade dance to be given at the Westfield Club on Lincoln's Birthday eve.

AWARD OF TROPHIES AT COMPANY K'S FAIR

Medals and Cups to be Presented for Work Done at Sea Girt Range.

LOCAL CRACK SHOTS

BRIGADIER GENERAL GILMORE AND COL. COLLINS TO ATTEND.

Presentation to Take Place on the Night of Washington's Birthday Captain Bell to be Present—Gold Medal for A. I. Littell.

Arrrangements are rapidly being completed for the annual fair of Co. K to be held in the armory on West Front street for one week, beginning Monday night, February 22. The opening date will be known as "military night" and it will include several events of interest, including the presentation of medals. There will be the presentation of the solid gold medal to A. I. Littell for the best individual marksmanship made by any member of the regiment on the range at Sea Girt last summer. This medal will be presented by Capt. Bell, inspector of rifle practice at Sea Girt.

The individual bronze medal for marksmanship will be presented to members of the company as will also the silver loving cup for qualifying the largest number of members on the rifle range. These presentations will be made by Col. Collins. It is expected that there will be a number of officials of the State militia and altogether the affair should be one of unusual interest. Brigadier General Gillmore will be present.

PECULIAR CASE.

Trouble in Her Eye Makes Miss Kate Coles, of West Sixth Street, Seriously Ill.

Miss Kate Coles, of West Sixth street, has been seriously ill at her home for several days, the result of a peculiar attack of eye trouble. While dining at a hotel in New York last Saturday, Miss Coles suddenly experienced a most terrific pain in her eye. It was so intense that she was unable to get any relief through the ordinary methods. As quickly as possible she was brought to her home in this city and a physician was summoned. An examination showed that an operation would afford the only relief. This was performed and a quantity of serum was removed from the iris. The operation was one of the most difficult and delicate known to surgery and while the patient's condition is serious, there are hopes that she will recover.

Want to Sell Apparatus.

A committee has been appointed by the West End Hose Company, of the borough, to make overtures to the Borough Council for the purchase of apparatus which belongs to that company. It is said that the company expects to sell their hose wagon for between $500 and $800. A member of that committee was present in the Council chambers, last night, with the intention of presenting the matter to the Council.

Afforded Entertainment.

One of the most attractive features of the Board of Trade dinner at the Hotel Kensington Thursday night was the musical selections rendered during the repast by Fred and William VanEps and Walter McClyment. Fred VanEps played the banje, William VanEps the mandolin and Mr. Mac Clymont accompanied on the piano.

Pupils Promoted.

The semi-annual promotions in the North Plainfield schools took place yesterday. Many of the pupils in the lower grades were advanced to the next highest and some of them were transferred from the Somerset street school to the Watchung avenue school.

Body Sent to Parents' Home.

The remains of Frank Hancock were sent to Mystic, Conn., yesterday, by Undertaker George Cole. The dead man's parents live there. His wife lives at Hartford, Conn. Mr. Hancock died in Muhlenberg Hospital.

Mrs. Trembath Critically Ill.

Mrs. W. J. Trembath, who is a member of Trinity Reformed church choir and who sang on Sunday at both services, is critically ill at her home on Chatham street, suffering with pneumonia.

WESTFIELD ROLLED 993 IN SINGLE GAME

Phenominal Work of Leaders in The Daily Press Bowling League Tournament.

PARKS LOST THE SERIES

CRACK PLAYERS OF WESTFIELD CAPTURED ALL THREE GAMES.

"Rooters" Made the Contest a Lively One—Parks Had Eight Splits and the Westfields Three—The Individual Scores.

The great luck that is possible in bowling was forcibly illustrated last night at the Park Club, when the Westfield Club bowling team took all three games in the series with the Parks in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament. In the second game the visitors rolled the phenominal score of 993, the highest ever made in this vicinity. Both teams missed an equal number of spares, three. The Parks had eight splits to their credit while the Westfield team had three. The luck of the game was principally shown in the number and kind of strikes which the visitors made. They had 23, while the Parks had twelve, and the Westfields were lucky in getting them bunched, while the Parks failed to get any in pairs.

The second games was won by Westfield with 146 pins to spare, which was purely by this same run of luck. Both teams bowled almost perfect games, but fortune was against the home team in all three games. They had 25 splits to their credit as against 9 for Westfield. Much excitement prevailed throughout the entire evening, but during and upon the conclusion of the second game enthusiasm reached a top-notch and it was some time before the yelling ceased. The Westfield teiam was accompanied by a large number of "rooters" who cheered the team consiantly.

The detailed scores:

WESTFIELD.			PARK.
Forster. . .	171	184 169	Wm.M'C'en.	182	166 135
Halsted. . .	133	201 161	Wm.T'n'nd	166	182 119

C. E. SOCIETY'S NOVEL AFFAIR

REVERSIBLE SOCIAL HELD BY CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH ORGANIZATION.

A "reversible social" was held last night under the auspices of the social committee of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church which, in originality, was a cleverly arranged affair. Every thing was done backwards. As the people entered the door they walked backwards and games were played in a reversed manner. In a spelling match words were spelled backwards and in a contest, Miss Amy Winants won the prize. "Twisted games" were also played in which tongue confusing sentences and words were recited by those present. Before the refreshments were served a grand march was played in which the participants walked backwards. Miss Waterbury played the piano for the marching. Miss J. Louise Jenkins, is chairman of the social committee and in arranging for the social she was ably assisted by the other members.

Inspection of Guard.

Following instructions from the Commanding General of the Department of the East, Governor's Island, New York, orders have been issued by Major General Wanser of the New Jersey National Guard, designating the time and place for an official inspection of the militia by an officer of the regular army. The inspection for Company K will take place in the present drill hall Friday night, Feb. 19, at 8 o'clock. Co. M will drill on the 16th at Somerville, and Co. H will drill at New Brunswick Feb. 23.

Holiday Dinner.

Mrs. Evarts Tracy will give a dinner to a number of friends at her home on Lincoln's Birthday, Feb. 12. The guests invited are the members of the Bridge Whist Club.

Off to Europe.

J. E. McClintock, of Fairview avenue, sailed today for Europe, on a business trip. He will be absent several weeks.

PLAINFIELD BOY CRUISING HIGH SEAS

William R. Sweeney Arrives at Delaware Breakwater After a Two Years' Trip.

PURSER OF THE VESSEL

HE TWICE CIRCLES THE DANGEROUS CAPE HORN.

Visits Japan, New Zealand, the Philippines, Hawaii and Other Places—The Juteoplis, the Good Ship—Story of His Travels.

After sailing the seas for two years and seeing half the globe in his travels, William R. Sweeney, of this city, has arrived at the Delaware Breakwater and will be home in three weeks. The ship, "Juteoplis," on which he sailed as assistant purser, is awaiting orders from the Standard Oil Company, by which it is owned, as to whether it shall proceed to Philadelphia, Boston or New York.

Mr. Sweeney has twice circled Cape Horn since the Juteoplis set sail from Philadelphia in February, 1902. On the voyage out, lasting six months, the ship touched first at New Zealand, going from there to Kote, Japan. From Japan sail was set for Illio in the Philippine Islands. It was expected that this cruise would last only eight days but the ship was blown out of its course by a furious storm and did not reach its destination until it was forty-two days over-due.

About a year ago word was received from Mr. Sweeney in Hong Kong, whence he went to Honolulu in the Hawaii Islands. The last heard from him by his relatives in this city until this morning was on September 9 of last year, just before he was about to start from San Francisco on the long journey around South America for home.

PEDDLED WITHOUT LICENSE.

Former Employer Prompts Action Against Plainfield Man.

The case of Frederick English, of this city, arrested on complaint of Elmer Barrett, charged with peddling without a license, was continued yesterday in the city court by Judge Runyon. English sold coffee for a Bound Brook firm whose employ he left only to start in the same business for himself. It is alleged that he filled orders which he had obtained for Barrett with his own goods, the charge of peddling without a license being entered as a result. W. A. Coddington, Esq., represents English.

P. S. C. New Manager Popular.

Since the announcement of the appointment of Col. Hine to succeed W. W. Wheatly in the management of the Public Service Corporation trolley lines, there is a general feeling of satisfaction among the motormen and conductors on the various lines. Several motormen and conductors expressed themselves yesterday in assuring tones and declared that they will do all that they can to make Col. Hine's management a success.

Attended Normal Exercises.

Samuel St. John McCutchen, of North Plainfield, member of the State Board of Education, was at the commencement exercises attendant upon the graduation of the February class of the State Normal School which were held last night in the State school auditorium at Trenton before a large audience. The class consisted of forty-six members, only two of whom were men.

More Teachers.

There will be a meeting of the County Board of Examiners of Somerset County for the examination of candidates for teachers' certificates at the public school building, Somerville, on Friday and Saturday, February 5 and 6, beginning at 9 in the morning. County Superintendent H. C. Krebs is in charge of the examinations.

Dinner Party Arranged.

Mrs. Theodore D. Wilson has issued invitations for a dinner party to be given by her at her home Tuesday evening, Feb. 9. The guests will attend the dance of the Cotillion Club afterwards.

Alis Club Social.

A social time was enjoyed at the Alis Club, last night, the occasion being a euchre among the members. A supper was served and a smoker followed.

Building Permit.

Elston M. French, of North Plainfield, has received from Building Inspector T. O. Doane a permit to erect a frame dwelling on Evergreen avenue.

BASEBALL PLANS FOR THE Y. M. C. A.

Arrangements Being Made to Place Team on the Diamond for the Coming Season.

F. ARMSTRONG MANAGER

THE AGGREGATION TO BE STRICTLY AMATEUR IN ITS STATUS.

Morris Sutphen as Assistant Manager—Good Material From Which to Select Players—Games With Nearby Teams.

The baseball fever has already reached the Y. M. C. A. and there is now good prospects for an association team for the coming season. Fred Armstrong, of the borough, who is a student at Rutgers College, has been invited to take charge of the aggregation and he has accepted. He will no doubt be assisted by Morris Sutphen, who two years ago was one of the strongest local players.

Armstrong would probably pitch for the team. That is his strong position and after getting into condition he should make one of the best amateur twirlers in this vicinity. He will have the selection of a team to make and it is understood that this year there is plenty of material in the association to make up a strong aggregation.

The team would arrange to play Dunellen, Bound Brook and teams of that class. It would be useless to make dates with Scotch Plains, Westfield or other semi-professional teams, for the inequality in playing strength would make such games uninteresting. It is believed, however, that a series of games with strictly amateur teams would prove interesting to many people who would gladly witness such contests.

Within the near future a meeting will be called and a list made of the available material for a team. After this is done practice will commence so that the players will be in good condition when the baseball season opens.

CARD OF THANKS.

The Ball Committee Appreciates the Contributions to the Charity Affair.

The ball committee of the charity ball wishes to return thanks for the contribution of material and labor which enabled the committee to keep the expenses within the amount gained from advertisements in programme. These were the contributors: Brooks Carson, florist, of Blemont avenue, general decorations; C. L. Stanley, florist, North avenue, in decorating front of stage; A. E. Lincoln, florist, Park avenue, in decorating mantel in west room; L. J. Denton, florist, Front street, in decorating in east room; Chas. M. Wilson, builder, for carpenter work; Shirley & Johnson, for awnings and floor coverings; Chas. W. Runyon, for telephones; Allen B. Laing, for electric work; A. M. Runyon & Son, for chairs; J. W. Gavett, ofr electric globes; police and fire department, for personal attendance; Maze Edwards, and employes, for courtesies and services; Daily Press ofr information published and placards printed; Courier-News, for information published; Mrs. Lena Hellstrom and her assistants for services; Chas. Mumford, for services; Frank Hedden, for services; Chas. Mann, for services; Blair stables for use of carriage.

Ball at Olympia.

The annual masquerade ball was held last night in Olympia Hall, and wasa successful affair, eighty couples being in attendance. The hall was well decorated in red and green, the club's colors. Suhr's orchestra furnished the music. The committee was composed of J. Vardon, S. Vardon and W. Hartfelder. The club will hold their Saturday night reception as usual tonight.

Strawride to Westfield.

Miss Ella Saunderson, of Fairview avenue, last night, entertained a number of her friends by giving a dinner and later a straw ride to Westfield and back. There were about thirty in the party and at Westfield they were entertained by Miss Maude Collins, a member of the Thursday Night Whist Club.

Society Event.

The third and final cotillion of the season will be held at the Casino Monday night, April 4. The committee consists of T. R. VanBoskerck, L. E. Waring, E. T. Barrows and Lewis G. Timpson.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

If you want the best fruit and the freshest buy it of Alex. Lusardi, of West Front street. This is a word to the wise.

Baldness is a sin when it is so easy to prevent it by the use of Reynolds' Petroleum Hair Tonic. Sold by T. S. Armstrong, Park avenue druggist.

Fine prescription work at the most reasonable prices is that done at B. J. Schreiner's drug store on Park avenue and Second street. If you have the grip, try Schreiner's famous grip cure.

The patrons of TenEyck & Harris, the coal dealers, have been very well satisfied with the high grade obtained from the firm this season. It gives the greatest possible heat with the least waste.

When you need drugs or medicines or a prescription compounded call at Dudley Miller's pharmacy on Park avenue. You will get the purest drugs and prescriptions will be compounded quickly and accurately.

When you have your house papered and painted have it done right. The best workmanship, the most artistic effects and the lowest rates are obtained by those who have Hansen, East Front street, do their work.

William H. Kirch, the builder has moved from his Fifth street office and is now making his headquarters at his home on Duer street. He is making a specialty of fine carpenter work and contracts for the erection of new buildings.

Charles E. Vail, the Park avenue jeweler, is constantly receiving new goods to supply the increasing demands of his customers. The quality of the goods at this store is unquestioned and you are not obliged to pay any fancy prices.

The best milliner in town is H. A. Bonn, as all know who have once bought their hats at Bonn's store. Bonn's hats are made according to up-to-date models and trimmed in the most artistic fashion. There is a style about Bonn's hats that no other milliner can equal.

That the people of Plainfield and vicinity appreciate such a store and meat market as S. Scheuer & Co. conduct on West Front street, is evidenced by the increasing patronage given. All the goods are of the best quality and you are never disappointed in anything purchased here, whether it be groceries or meats. The prices are low considering the quality and prompt deliveries are made at the convenience of the customer.

Olive oil which is made in France, of olives picked from the finest groves, is that sold at Neuman Brothers. That firm imports their oil from France and therefore it is superior to much of that so called imported oil sold in many other grocery stores. Neuman Brothers also lead in fresh vegetables. In spite of the fact that many of them are not in season, Neuman Brothers are in a position to provide green beans, spinach, cucumbers and other vegetables. Trade at Neuman Brothers.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Checkers," better than ever, is the attraction at the Academy of Music and as a consequence the immense house is filled at every performance. Thomas W. Ross appears in the cast. If you haven't seen the production you have missed one of the best attractions New York's playhouses have offered this season. The matinees are on Wednesday and Saturday at 2, and the evening performances are at 8:15. The best seat in the house is but one dollar.

The Proctor theatres in the shopping district, the 23d Street and Fifth Avenue, have long been popular as meeting places for out-of-town shoppers who, after an arduous morning spent in the stores, refresh themselves with an afternoon's entertainment before returning home. At the Fifth Avenue Theatre patrons may arrange to meet in the lobby, where a handsome reception room, opening directly into the lobby, is provided for their especial accommodation. This is particularly appreciated by those who desire to meet at the theatre and enter together, since it obviates the necessity of waiting around in a cold lobby for some late comer. This is but one instance of the care which Mr. Proctor and all his managers exercise in providing for the comfort of patrons.

Superior to Imported Wines.

Dr. S. F. Howland, formerly of 29 West 42nd St., New York, says:

I can say emphatically that the quality of Speer's wines for invalids is far better than any of the imported wines. His Port, Claret and Burgundies are extraordinary fine.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

Mr. Peewee.

The strongest candidate the Democratic party can nominate for the presidency is William Randolph Hearst, publisher of the New York Journal, the Chicago American and the San Francisco Examiner. Mr. Hearst is the authority for this statement. He confesses he is a man of unimpeachable youth, unblemished energy, violent liberality, and that his friendship for the people can be expressed only in wood type and red ink.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Bryan and the Whale.

Bryan says that the Democratic national convention must indorse the original Kansas City platform. If he succeeds in accomplishing this, the campaign of 1904 may be placed on the shelf alongside those of 1896 and 1900. Bryan isn't a fool by any means, but he knows just enough not to be possessed of any common sense. Why Jonah should place himself in a poistion to be swallowed by a whale for the third time is more than we can comprehend. Neither can the whale.—Paterson Call.

New Jersey Wealthy.

New Jersey is growing so fast in wealth, population, industrial expansion and new industries, not to speak of its pre-eminent prominence as a mecca of the health and pleasure-seeker, that it is hard for the various statisticians to keep track of her increase. The time was, and not so long ago, that New Jersey was referred to as a foreign country and was flippantly called "Spain." But these detractors have taken to the tall timber, and their crude jokes and senseless sneers no longer have the power of evoking a smile.—Atlantic City Press.

Westfield's Boast.

Westfield enjoys the distinction of being the only place in the English speaking world where a magazine devoted exclusively to Shakespearean study and current records, is published. New Shakespeareana, owned and conducted by the Shakespeare Society of New York, has been published in Westfield by The Shakespeare Press for the last three years, and now has a circulation, not only in the United States and England, but in Germany, France, India and Australia. As the magazine is set up and printed in the Standard's establishment it is gratifying to us to see its typographical make-up spoken of in a German Review as "dignified, elegant and in sober taste."—Westfield Standard.

Railroad Pass Graft.

It is now asserted that Assemblyman McGlennon, of Hudson County, who was put off a train while on his way to Trenton because he had no pass, was denied free transportation by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company because he had last year abused his privilege, with the result that his pass had been taken up more than once when found by conductors in the hands of strangers. It is said that Assemblyman McGlennon will bring suit against the railroad company, because it has not complied with the law and furnished him a pass, and it may be that he will win his case. But should he gain a victory, that will not mean that the practice of loaning passes is not essentially wrong. It cannot be considered other than petty "grafting," regardless of whether the owner of the transportation receives money for the accommodation, or expects to have his political or private interests advanced by the recipient of the favor. The custom—for it is practised so frequently as to make it fair to call it acustom—is no less than robbery of the railroad companies. That they have submitted to the imposition so long is due entirely to a disinclination to offend officials who have it in their power to annoy the companies or to oppose railroad legislative schemes. Assemblyman McGlennon may have been simply following precendent in this matter, but if so, it is to be hoped that the notoriety arising out of his eviction from a train may bring about reform and result in abolishing this small species of grafting.—Newark Evening News.

NOTICE TO PARTIES IN INTEREST TO REDEEM UNDER MARTIN ACT.

To George Gifford, executor of Alexander Bonnell, Sarah J. Bonnell, Edith Nisbett and William Nisbett her husband, Kate Davis Bonnell and Kate Davis Bonnell guardian of George Bertram Bonnell, Kate B. Tappan and James McF. Tappan her husband, and George Gifford:

You are hereby notified, That at a public sale made by the City Collector of Plainfield, on the seventh day of May, A. D. 1903, Arthur Murphy purchased for the sum of twenty dollars, all the land and real estate situate in the City of Plainfield, County of Union and State of New Jersey, fronting on Rose street, being laid down and designated as lot No. 1055-1057 Rose street, in Block No. 326, in the Third ward of said City, on the official assessment map of the said City of Plainfield, on file in the office of the City Collector, and the certificate of said sale was afterwards assigned to me, said sale being made pursuant to the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of New Jersey, passed March 20th, 1886, entitled "An Act concerning the settlement and collection of arrearages of unpaid taxes, assessments and water rates or water rents in cities of this State, and imposing and levying a tax, assessment and lien in lieu and instead thereof, and to provide for the sale of lands subjected to future taxation and assessments," and the several supplements hereto and amendments thereof.

And you are further notified, that you appear or claim to have an estate or interest in said land and real estate, and unless the said lands and real estate shall be redeemed, as provided in said act, before the expiration of six months from and after the service hereof, and when one year has elapsed from and after the date of said sale, a deed for the same will be given conveying to the purchaser the fee simple of said land and real estate according to the provisions of said act.

AUTO TOURNAMENT.

Ormond Beach the Scene of Vanderbilt Victories.

ORMOND, Fla., Jan. 30.—All of the events in the automobile tournament in which W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., entered he won handily on the beach here. In the one mile class he beat Brokaw, Breeze and Bowden, winning his final heat in 47 3-5 seconds. Bowden won the 56 second class, one mile, in the final heat in 50 4-5 seconds.

The best time in this race was made by Bowden in the first heat, 48 seconds. A. W. Curtiss won the one mile motocycle race in 59 1-5 seconds. In the five mile race for gentlemen amateurs, Mr. Vanderbilt won, his best time being 3:34 3-5. He also won in the five mile free-for-all with a record time of 3:31 3-5.

Louis S. Ross won the five mile runabout race in 7:53 1-5. The course was in good condition and the attendance large.

Iridius Won the Feature.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—A six and a half furlong handicap was the main feature at Oakland. A field of five met, with Futurita favorite and the Jennings colt Iridius next in demand. Away to a good start, Iridius took the lead at once and, though hard pressed by Princess Titiana, beat her half a length. Futurita ran gamely and took third money. Dick Turpin was plunged on in the three-year-old race, but third was the best he could do. Young Pepper led until the final sixteenth, when Toledo caught him and won handily.

Yale Downed Quakers.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 30.—In a game in which first one side and then the other took the lead so often that intense excitement prevailed up to the last few seconds of play the Yale university basketball five won from the University of Pennsylvania. About 300 spectators braved the storm. McCudden of the University of Pennsylvania was compelled to take a rest of five minutes because of an accidental blow in the stomach.

National Boxing Association.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 30.—The promoters of the plan to form a national boxing association, T. S. Andrews of Milwaukee and Charles E. Davies of New Orleans, have issued a call for a meeting to be held in Detroit, Mich., on Monday. The boxing promoters and writers of the country have been invited. Many responses have been received, and a large attendance is expected.

Saratoga Ice Meet Ends.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Jan. 30.—The Saratoga Ice Trotting association's meeting on Saratoga lake has ended. The free-for-all purse of $250 was won by M. Washington Church on Fire.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Fire broke out last night in the Luther Place Memorial church and caused damage to the extent of about $25,000. The fire was confined to the roof of the main auditorium, which fell, but the interior of the church was thoroughly water soaked. A reception in honor of the birthday of Rev. Dr. J. G. Butler, pastor of the church, was in progress in the chapel of the church when the fire broke out, but all persons present escaped safely.

Will Mortgage Gate Receipts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Louisiana Purchase Exposition company is willing to mortgage the gate receipts for the protection of the government. This in the main is the proposition submitted, although Governor Francis said any reasonable safeguards which congress may decide on would be acceptable to the exposition management. At today's meeting of the committee the proposition will be considered.

Marquette Train Jumps Track.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Jan. 30.—Four coaches, two Pullman day coaches and a blind baggage car in the rear of a southbound Pere Marquette passenger train jumped the track in the yards here. Brakeman Ralph Edwards was thrown from the train and received severe injuries, but none of the passengers was hurt. The falling of a car beam is believed to have caused the accident.

Miss De Choiseul Dead.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 30.—A special from Greenville, S. C., says that Miss Eliza de Choiseul, eldest daughter of the Marquis Xavier de Choiseul of the branch of the family distinguished in French history, is dead at her home there. She was born in Palermo, Sicily, but spent the greater portion of her life in this country. Her brother, the Count de Choiseul, was killed in the civil war fighting for the Confederacy.

BECHTELS HIT BACK

Grave Charges Made Against the State's Attorney.

ACCUSED OF GROSS MISCONDUCT

Lichtenwalner Charged With Intoxication and Insulting Manners Toward the Family of the Murdered Girl, Mabel Bechtel.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Jan. 30.—Proceedings have been started before Judge Trexler by William J. Jones, a lawyer who assisted Captain James L. Schaadt in the defense of Mrs. Bechtel, against District Attorney Edwin J. Lichtenwalner to oust him from office upon charges of gross misconduct. The petition to have the district attorney removed is supported by the affidavits of Mrs. Bechtel and her daughter Myrtha as well as by a number of other people. The nominal complainant is Allison K. Brobst, son-in-law of Mrs. Bechtel. Judge Trexler took the papers and will issue a rule calling on the district attorney to file an answer to the charge.

The petition of Brobst sets forth that the district attorney "has willfully and grossly neglected to comply with his duties, much to the chagrin and humiliation of the deponent, his wife and her family as well as counsel." It is further alleged that the district attorney on Oct. 27, 1903, at the very beginning of his inquiries into the cause of the death of Mabel Bechtel, "grossly and negligently conducted the same while in a state of intoxication and in an insulting and immoral manner toward the family of the murdered girl; that the district attorney later in the course of the several trials did attempt to conduct the same while in a state of beastly intoxication, which fact compelled your honor to adjourn court until the following day, when he was again incompetent to try the cases properly because of his condition the day previous; that on Thursday, Jan. 21, he was again unable to appear at the afternoon session of court and had to be taken away from the law library, thereby throwing upon his assistant the entire onus of the trial, which again constituted willful and gross negligence on his part."

Attached to the complaint of Brobst are a number of affidavits in support of his allegations. The first on the list is that of Mrs. Catherine Bechtel, the mother of the murdered girl, in which she affirms that when on Oct. 27 the district attorney called at her home he was in a state of intoxication. She asserts that she was ill and nervous and was barely conscious of what was going on.

"I remember," she states, "that the district attorney staggered, and I was really afraid of him. He seated himself on the couch beside me and announced that he had come to get evidence to hang David Weisenberger. He embraced me and repeatedly kissed me. I made attempts to repulse him, but in my weakened condition I was unable to do so. I was so overcome with grief and emotions and so frightened and insulted at the man's actions that I became partly unconscious and don't remember clearly what happened save that he thrust money in my hand. I asked my family to get some one to put the man Lichtenwalner out and would not have tolerated his actions but for the fact that he had announced himself to be the district attorney, and I thought he could not be interfered with while there in his official capacity.

"I resented the manner in which the said Lichtenwalner acted toward my daughters. I saw him embrace and try to kiss my daughter Myrtha. I next recalled that the police entered to take Lichtenwalner from the house."

Mrs. Bechtel avers that prior to that date she had no acquaintance with Lichtenwalner.

Mrs. Harry D. Newhard in an affidavit avers that "Lichtenwalner was insulting, and his apparel was in disorder." Mrs. Newhard alleges that Lichtenwalner made improper proposals to other women in the house and that to Mrs. Brobst, sister of the murdered girl, he offered a ring.

Mrs. Brobst makes similar charges against Lichtenwalner in her affidavit. She alleges that he "took her mother around the neck, kissed her repeatedly and hugged her roughly. Then Lichtenwalner sat beside my mother while lying on the couch and presented her with his endearments. Then Lichtenwalner ordered ham and eggs and drink and cigars to be brought, as though in a saloon, and wanted a cab to be brought to carry my mother home, not knowing that she was then home. He persisted in his assaults and indecent and immoral behavior, and I was forced to have an officer called."

Myrtha Bechtel, also a sister of the murdered girl, corroborates the testimony of her mother and Mrs. Brobst.

Fire at the Capitol.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Washington fire department was called to extinguish a blaze coming from the chimney leading from the fireplace of the foreign affairs committee room at the house end of the capitol. The fire was speedily extinguished by the use of the chemical apparatus without apparent damage to the building.

RUSSIA HOLDS BACK

Reply to Japan Needs Grave Consideration.

VICEROY'S VIEWS AWAITED BY CZAR

Answer of St. Petersburg Marks a Critical Stage, and Muscovite Government, as Usual, Procrastinates.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 30.—The Russian reply to Japan will not be transmitted until next week, according to high authority here. It is said that the delay was necessitated in consequence of the extreme care taken in drafting the document. Viceroy Alexeieff's views are also awaited before its transmission to the czar. It is fully realized here that the forwarding of the answer will mark another critical stage in the negotiations, everything depending on Japan's attitude. It is feared that despite pacific influences the hands of the authorities may be forced on account of the excitement of the press and people.

An admiral who is influential in the councils of the empire when interviewed said:

"The enormous loss which the commerce of Japan is sustaining as a result of the mobilization of steamships for transport service probably accounts for the impatience the Japanese are displaying over the delay in the Russian reply, but this reply will go to Tokyo next week. It will be so conciliatory that I do not foresee other than a peaceful settlement, although it is difficult to feel certain in this respect because of the erratic course of the Japanese government during the later stages of the negotiations.

"Japan has increased her demands while the negotiations were still in progress by insisting upon treaty recognition of Chinese sovereignty in Manchuria. Russia has declerad her intention not to annex Manchuria, therefore why comply with a demand that is tantamount to a humiliating reiteration of a former voluntary declaration?

"It is undeniable that the attitude of Japan is causing irritation in St. Petersburg and that a feeling of impatience is growing throughout Russia. It is hard to account for Japan's persistent aggressiveness, but this must be attributed to the incendiary influence of the Japanese press, which is acting under foreign inspiration. The Japanese government must know it stands no chance of defeating Russia, while Japan has much to lose if Russia is forced back against the wall.

"Should Japan proceed to hostilities her first objective probably would be the cutting of the Siberian railroad, for which purpose she would land troops in Korea. She could not, however, land more than 160,000 men, and Russia has an equal number of men in Manchuria to meet this attack, which, I think, would be quickly repulsed. I do not believe in a naval war. The Russian warships would make it impossible for the Japanese to endanger Port Arthur. But, let me repeat, war is improbable."

The British ambassador at St. Petersburg is the authority for the announcement that the Russian reply, which it is expected will be delivered today, is satisfactory. Although no further details are obtainable, it is assumed if the information of the ambassador is correct that Russia has made certain concessions and that Great Britain will prevail on Japan to accept them as satisfactory.

A cable dispatch from London says the Statist in a long article on the Russo-Japanese situation makes a striking suggestion for the solution of the difficulty which seems to meet the claims and contentions of both Russia and Japan.

After commenting on the advantages of the Chino-American treaty, which, it says, if carried out would assure an open door in Manchuria for the rest of the world, it continues as follows:

"When Russia was at the gates of Constantinople and practically had dictated peace to Turkey, Great Britain interfered, and the result was the Berlin congress. Is there any good reason why the world should wait for the conclusion of war to summon a similar council? Would it not be more statesmanlike and certainly more humane to summon such a council now in order to prevent war? Would it not be possible for the Russian government to sell its railways in Chinese territory to an international syndicate, all the powers guaranteeing the safety and the interests of this syndicate? In that way, it seems to us, the real rights of Russia in Manchuria would be safeguarded, while the apprehensions entertained by Japan that Russian extension threatens her very existence would be permanently removed."

Egbert Paid the Penalty.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 30.—Harry D. Egbert, who murdered John G. Saxton and John West last October, was hanged here. Egbert made a brief speech on the scaffold. "My friends," he said, "take me as a mark. Keep your children off the street and above all out of the saloons. Bad raising and bad company is the cause of my downfall. I have repented my sins."

Panama Resolution Defeated.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 30.—The senate by a vote of 23 to 9 defeated Senator Catron's resolution indorsing President Roosevelt's action in the matter of the Panama treaty. Three Democrats voted with the Republicans in favor of the resolution.

Ex-Secretary Pleaded Guilty.

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 30.—J. A. McEwan, secretary of the University of California, has pleaded guilty to the charge of embezzlement. He will be sentenced on Feb. 12.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

Change In Price of Staples Was a Disturbing Element.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

Business conditions would be most satisfactory if present high prices for the leading staples were the result of wholesome demand, but the prominence of manipulation prevents any such gratifying conclusion. Aside from the lines temporarily stimulated by severe weather trade is quiet, and evidences of increased activity with the approach of spring are hopefully awaited. Thus far the volume of forward business is limited, and conservatism is increased by the large number of insolvencies. Reports of the building outlook have been prepared by branch offices of R. G. Dun & Co. at the leading cities and indicate that high cost of material and labor has curtailed operations, although the year 1903 showed a good gain over 1902.

Demand for lumber is gradually improving, stocks in the yards are light as a rule, and attractive prices promise a large cut. Weather conditions are favorable for winter wheat. Transportation has suffered some interruption by storms, but railway earnings thus far reported for January are 3.8 per cent larger than in 1903. On the whole, mercantile payments show a slight improvement. Foreign commerce for the last week at this port exceeded last year by $3,845,017 as to exports and $3,824,770 as to imports.

Money continues to accumulate at this center, and the low rates have facilitated security dealings, which largely exceeded those of a year ago. This accounts for the small increase in bank exchanges of 9 per cent over last year. At other leading cities there was also a gain of .8 per cent.

Optimistic reports are not numerous regarding the iron and steel industry. Anticipations of rapid recovery with the advent of a new year are not yet realized, although it is still hoped that new business cannot be much longer deferred.

Buyers of cotton goods have at last begun to exhibit anxiety regarding the situation, and they find it increasingly difficult to secure prompt deliveries, while prices are steadily appreciating. Orders are constantly rejected, either because of inadequate stocks or insufficient bids.

Leather markets are strong, particularly for hemlock, and some varieties of calfskin have been advanced, but no improvement has occurred in oak leather. Comparatively quiet conditions in hides have not depressed the tone, dealers insisting on full quotations for domestic, and small advances are asked for foreign dry hides.

Western speculators have produced erratic fluctuations in wheat, and the general level is maintained at a high position, although much liquidation occurred whenever the May option rose materially above 90 cents at Chicago. To some extent the movement was hampered by severe weather, and interior arrivals were 3,510,813 bushels for the week against 4,243,594 a year ago. Atlantic coast shipments of wheat were very unsatisfactory, but the outgo of flour was heavy, and the total of both from all ports of the United States aggregated 2,522,205 bushels, which compares with 3,896,089 bushels a year ago. Western receipts of 3,757,404 bushels of corn fell short of the 5,528,278 bushels sent out a year ago, and Atlantic coast exports of 1,204,966 bushels were small in comparison with the 2,753,449 bushels last year. Minor cereals have ruled much steadier than wheat.

Liabilities of commercial failures thus far reported for January aggregated $12,579,138, of which $4,961,445 were in manufacturing, $6,099,598 in trading and $1,518,095 in other commercial lines. Failures this week numbered 302 in the United States against 243 last year, and 28 in Canada compared with 30 a year ago.

Teacher Wanted to Make New Start.

DENVER, Jan. 30.—W. T. Coolidge, a schoolteacher who was reported to have been drowned in San Francisco bay last fall, has been found alive at Sheridan, Wyo. This discovery saves benevolent orders and insurance companies $11,000, for which amount he was insured. Coolidge said he had caused the report of his drowning to be circulated because of estrangement from his wife and in order that he might start life anew under an assumed name. He denied any intention of enabling his relatives to collect insurance fraudulently.

Rapid Transit Engineers Honored.

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—In recognition of their services to the state Emperor William has had decorations conferred upon Dr. Schulz, president, and Herr Rathenau, general manager of the General Electrical company of Berlin; Herr Denninghoff, manager of the Society For Experimentation In Rapid Electrical Transit, and to several engineers who have been connected with these experiments.

Ships In Grip of the Ice.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Jan. 30.—The Gloucester fishing schooners Fernwood and Nicholson, homeward bound with cargoes of herring from Bay of Islands, N. F., have been crushed in the ice floes off St. George's bay. The crews abandoned the ships and walked over the floes to the land, and the schooners are now drifting out in the gulf of St. Lawrence in the grip of the ice.

Will Be a Total Wreck.

CUTTYHUNK, Mass., Jan. 30.—The tug George M. Winslow, while bound out of Vineyard sound for New York with a light barge, the Eckley, in tow, ran on the outer ledge of the Sow and Pig reef and is likely to become a total wreck. The boat was in charge of the mate, who mistook a vessel's light for that of the Vineyard sound lightship

"STANDARD OF HIGHEST MERIT."

FISCHER PIANOS.

It is an indisputable fact that the high esteem given to any work of Art must be founded upon merit. When the Musical Artist and the Home Player are united in their high appreciation of the FISCHER PIANO, we take their verdict unqualifiedly. Both have for years maintained the supremacy of the FISCHER PIANO because of its Tone-quality, its Artistic Individuality and its Durability.

AGAINST SUNDAY OPEN DOORS

Bishop Colton Strongly Opposes Sunday Liquor Traffic.

BUFFALO, Jan. 30.—Bishop Colton of the diocese of Buffalo has announced himself as strongly opposed to the measure now pending at Albany for the Sunday opening of saloons in New York city and Buffalo. It is the first time that Bishop Colton as bishop has felt called upon to make a statement through the press on a public question The statement says in part:

"From my standpoint as a Catholic bishop the opening of a saloon or place where drink is sold on any part of Sunday is objectionable. It is the spirit of the Catholic church to keep the Lord's day a day for rest and spiritual observance, and anything that would clash with the religious observance of the day is something that the Catholic church in this country is opposed to.

"There have been in Europe sad results from the allowing of the sale of intoxicants on Sundays — namely, it broke in on the religious character of the day, and instead of seeing, as we do here in America, a quiet, restful and religious day it takes the character of a day given up to pleasures of every kind and which are ofttimes sinful.

"We should take warning by them and not give way to the small minority, for once our American Sunday is lost to us we shall never, like them, be able to regain it."

New War Secretary's Policy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Philippines for the Filipinos will be the keynote of the policy of Secretary Taft toward the far eastern archipelago. In almost the last speech he made before leaving the Philippines for home he reiterated this keynote, which he first sounded when he was inaugurated governor of the Philippine Islands. This speech has been published by the insular government in an official form and has just reached the war department. In it Governor Taft declared that this doctrine does not exclude the encouragement of American enterprise or the American investment of capital in the Philippines, for the reason that nothing, not even education or a free form of government, "can make more for the elevation and civilization of the Filipino people than the investment of American capital in the material development of these islands."

Thief Sold Art Treasure Cheap.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Sir David Wilkie's sketch, "Blindman's Buff," which was stolen from the Lenox library, was returned to Director Wilberforce Eames of the library by C. F. Eble, an art dealer at 105 West Forty-second street. Mr. Eames paid Mr. Eble $2.50, which the art dealer innocently paid for the famous picture, which is valued at $500. According to Mr. Eble, a man who said he was "Mr. Wilson of 210 West Thirty-eighth street" entered the store on Tuesday and offered to sell the picture for $5. Mr. Eble was busy at the time, and a clerk, not knowing the value of the picture, but noticing that the frame was worth something, offered to give half of the asked price. The man accepted $2.50 and left the store.

To Drive Germs From Libraries.

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—The Berlin municipal authorities have decided to make an attempt to exterminate the microbes in the public libraries, Professor Koch having called attention to the danger of spreading infectious diseases through books loaned indiscriminately from libraries. The professor's representative, during the former's absence in South Africa, where he is studying the rinderpest for the British government, has drawn up a plan for attacking the microbes, which will be submitted to the library committee of the municipal council next Tuesday.

HANDS ACROSS SEA.

Pilgrims of London and New York Dine Simultaneously.

WIRES IN SUPPER ROOMS IN TOUCH

Grandfathers' Clocks Enable Choate to Take Time of Two Continents. American Dinner Was to Honor Durand.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—While the American branch of the Pilgrims' society was giving its dinner last night at Delmonico's in New York in honor of Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, British ambassador to the United States, the English branch of the society celebrated the occurrence with a supper at the Carlton hotel.

Shortly before the Delmonico banquet commenced some seventy members of the Pilgrims' society here sat down to a number of small tables which were all looped up with telegraph wires strung on miniature poles and decorated with foliage. Among those present were: Joseph H. Choate, the American ambassador; the Earl of Halsbury, lord high chancellor; Sir Edward L. Durand, brother of Sir Henry; Sir Thomas Lipton, Lord Deerhurst, Lord Fairfax, Sir Alfred Lewis Jones, John Henniker Heaton, Secretary Carter of the United States embassy, Moberly Bell, Rev. William Macdonald Sinclair, archdeacon of London, and Alexander Siemens. Several well known Pilgrims, including Lord Roberts and Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, who are both ill, sent regrets.

The unique feature of the evening consisted in the installation by a transatlantic cable company of cable instruments in one end of the supper room. By means of this arrangement frequent messages were exchanged between Delmonico's, in New York, and the Carlton hotel here, so that the English pilgrims felt almost as much in touch with the New York celebration as if they had been actually present.

Two old grandfathers' clocks, one showing English and the other American time, enabled Mr. Choate, the Earl of Halsbury and the others to keep an eye on the progress of the New York banquet. The usual cable company's clock, with a red hand showing American time, was placed between the two old grandfather clocks and noticeably marked the progress of the age.

Strands of the Atlantic cable laced upon the tables enabled the guests to realize the means by which such instantaneous and intimate interchange was possible in spite of the difficulties of distance and the difference in time.

The name of Sir Henry Mortimer Durand was, when pronounced, given a warm welcome.

Rescuers Get 150 Bodies.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 30.—The workers in the Harwick mine have brought up the remains of 150 victims. It is estimated that twenty more are buried under the extensive fall of slate brought about by the explosion, and it will be several days before they can be recovered. Chief State Mine Inspector James E. Roderick has called a meeting for today in this city of the mine inspectors who have been at the mine since the explosion. The result of their investigation will be made known only to the coroner at the inquest.

Worst Over at Bloomsburg.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 30.—The worst of the flood at Bloomsburg has passed. The conditions of the Susquehanna river from that place to Sunbury are practically normal, and traffic on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western, the Pennsylvania and other railroads has all been resumed on schedule time. The water is now down to the twenty foot mark, which is many feet below the floors of any of the bridges spanning the river along the line of the gorge.

Handcuffs Now Barred.

BERLIN, Jan. 30. — There having been repeated complaints from newspaper editors who were condemned to confinement for journalistic offenses that they were transported to prison handcuffed, the Prussian minister of justice, Dr. Schoenstedt, has issued an order forbidding the handcuffing of any one on the way to prison, with the exception of persons condemned to the penitentiary, without a special court order.

Steamer Aids Fire Victims.

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—The North German Lloyd steamer Weimar has reached Aalesund, the town in Norway which was destroyed by fire, and is taking her part in the relief work inaugurated by the Phœnicia. She is caring for 2,500 persons, of whom 500 are women, children and sick people, who are sleeping on board.

Could Not Identify Assailant.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 30.—William Hayes, the supposed assailant of Mrs. Stella Applegate of this city, has been brought here for identification. Mrs. Applegate, who has now recovered sufficiently to leave home, confronted the negro, but failed to recognize him.

Von Plehve's Powers Increased.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 30.—The czar has granted Minister of Interior Von Plevhe and the governor of the province of Tver special plenary powers over the local officials of Tver in consequence of the latter's subversive tendencies.

Head of St. Viateur Order Dead.

CHICAGO, Jan. 30. — Very Rev. A. Corcoran of Chicago, provincial of the Order of St. Viateur, is dead at Pheaix, Ariz. He was born in Rodon, Canada, forty-eight years ago. The interment will take place at Bourbonnais, Ill.

There's two ways of finding out what people really think of you. Get into politics or become identified with a business corporation.

James E. Martine entertained Mayor Ryan, of Elizabeth, yesterday, incidently showing him a few of the many improvements which make Plainfield the model city of Union county. Elizabeth people are always welcome. "While there's life there's hope," and Elizabeth may yet reform.

Probably the unfortunate lad would not exchange his chances of getting into Heaven for those of the average Ohio politician who does know that there is Holy Writ.

Any fool can buy advertising space. But it takes a smart, clever, business man to fill that space so that it will sell goods. Don't waste precious hours in trying to get trivial discounts on space. For better employ those hours in getting out advertisements that will bring business that will more than cover any discount you consequently may not get.—Russell Smart, in Progressive Advertising.

If the following paragraph from the Jersey City Evening Journal's account of the Board of Trade's banquet in that city is a verbatim extract from the reporter's story there should have been some mention made of the wines consumed. The Jersey City paper says:

"Then came a very palatable repast, during which the orchestra played such classic airs as 'Bedelia,' saais smusic ssNID FREIeN Ed and 'Down Where the Wurzburger Flow,' and followed up with the National anthem, when all rose and waved napkins."

THIEF HAD NARROW ESCAPE

SERVANT ENTERED HOUSE WHILE THE CROOK WAS AT WORK.

The burglar who broke into Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck's house on West Front street Thursday evening had the narrowest escape from detection in his career of thieving from Plainfield houses. He was at his work when the servant girl employed by Dr. Schenck returned to the house. The girl noticed that the light was burning low in the library and thought it strange, as she knew the family were all at the Trinity Reformed church supper. She did not suspect that anything was wrong, however, and passed directly by the library door to her room without making any investigation. The library is in the second story of the house.

Frightened probably by hearing the girl moving about the house when he had thought it vacant, the burglar left in a hurry, leaving behind him on the library table the jimmy which he had used to pry open the front bay window in forcing his entrance. He left by the front door. The jimmy, which is being held by the police, had evidently seen much service. It is worn and rusted.

Besides the $20 in the small bank, it was found that about a dollar in small change had been taken from a small purse. In the purse was a foreign coin which Dr. Schenck valued highly and which was carefully replaced along with a Wanamaker coin and a mutilated penny.

The thief evidently wanted nothing but cash for he took nothing else. His method of effecting his entrance was probably his usual one. Waiting until the family left, he rang the door bell and receiving no response started to his work of forcing the window. The wonder is that he was not seen from the street. The return of the servant girl he had not expected.

Chief Kiely does not think that the fellow is an experienced burglar though he admits that he is clever. The evidence all goes to show that he is a Plainfielder and well acquainted with the habits of Plainfield people.

Orders from Chief Kiely directing the arrest of all strangers in the city acting suspiciously have been in force for several weeks and the fact the man is a Plainfielder is all the more evident for this reason. No one has ever seen the man to obtain the slightest description of him. The "jimmy" that he left behind him is in reality nothing more than a piece of old iron and has nothing about it that would lead to the tracing of its owner.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

The report that the cars of the Elizabeth and Plainfield Trolley Company will be run through the borough, is received by boroughites with delight. The poor connections between the two lines has caused the patrons to suffer long delays, which are very disagreeable in such weather.

While walking down North avenue yesterday afternoon, M. J. McNamarra fell on the ice and wrenched his right arm. The arm was put in place by Dr. Platt. Mr. McNamrra will be detained from work for a week or ten days.

Paul Kratzel, Jr., a former resident of the borough, and Miss Emma Kooney, of Westfield, were married on Tuesday evening. The young couple visited friends and relatives in town yesterday.

Hugh Birch has resigned his position as tinplate maker at the factory of Levering & Garrigues Company, and has gone to St. Louis, where he will work at the Exposition.

John Carvin has resigned his position as brakeman on the Port Reading Railroad, and returned to the borough.

Miss Frances Hunt, who has been laid up with a severe attack of the grip, is considerably improved.

Mrs. Fred Schafer is in a precarious condition with lung trouble at her home on Walnut street.

The borough Council will hold its regular monthly meeting in the borough hall on Monday.

Mrs. John Griggs, of Metuchen, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Staats.

William Carpenter is confined to the house with an attack of the grip.

Bernard Siriski is entertaining Hammond Henry, of Somerville.

John Cain has taken a position as day fireman on the pusher.

Conductor Harrick is on the sick list.

NEW MARKET.

The Y. M. A. will hold an important meeting in Friendship Hall Monday evening for the purpose of electing a captain and manager for next year's baseball team. The question of holding a fair for the benefit of the association will also be taken up. A good attendance is desired.

Miss Edith Dent has returned from a visit with relatives in Easton, Pa.

James Darling, of Perth Amboy, was in town yesterday on business.

A party of young people from here will attend the dancing class at Bound Brook this evening.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The borough has hard work trying to fill the office of Justice of the Peace The last two elected to the office being James Hunt and Charles B. Loomis, both failed to qualify. Another attempt to fill the office will be made at the election to be held in March.

Friday's snow storm upset the Public Service Corporation trolley schedule as usual. The public is beginning to become accustomed to waiting from one-half to three-quarters of an hour for a car, so very little complaint was heard.

Manager Johnston has already began getting a line of players for the baseball team of 1904. Many of the old faces will be found in their usual places when the season opens, notwithstanding reports to the contrary.

Service tomorrow at the Baptist church will be: Sunday-school, 9:30 a. m.; morning preaching service, 10:45; B. Y. P. U. meeting in the parlors of the church, 7 p. m.; evening service, 7:45.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Peterson, who have been visiting Mrs. Peterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Clark, have returned to their home at Montclair, N. J.

A meeting of the Town Committee was held in the town rooms last night. A number of bills were ordered paid and other routine business was transacted.

Mrs. Samuel Parsell and daughter, of New Brunswick, have been visiting Mrs. Parsell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bartle, of Glenside.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bright, of New York, have been visiting Mrs. Bright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shepard, at "The Gables."

Robin Frasee, who has been seriously ill at his home on Cook avenue, for the past two weeks, is improving.

Augustus Sheelen is around again after an illness of several days which detained him at home.

Miss Sadie Reger is spending Saturday and Sunday with her sister at Westfield.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Public worship at the Baptist church tomorrow will be at the usual hour, 10:30 and 7:45; Sunday-school at 11:45; Christian Endeavor, 7. The pastor will speak morning and evening. The evening sermon will be on the subject: "Putting Your Life at Christ's Disposal."

The Board of Education will hold its regular monthly meeting in the New Market school house Monday at 2:30.

The Township Committee met this afternoon for the purpose of settling up the year's business.

The teachers of the local school attended the teachers' institute yesterday afternoon.

The snow fall yesterday has again made ideal sleighing in the country.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Patrick Connelly, Joe LaFluer and Robert Slorab, were among those laid off at the Pond plant this week.

William Mague, of West Fourth street, has returned to work at the Potter plant, after three months' of severe sickness.

The erecting department of the Potter Press Company's Works, is working overtime every night until 9 o'clock. Saturday night the gang works from 6 o'clock until 12 o'clock.

Jack Davis, of the Potter Press Company's plant, is wearing the "smile that never comes off." Mr. Davis is the happy father of a girl which arrived at his home this week.

PERSONAL.

Miss Reba Kline, of Somerset street, was taken ill yesterday with appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. August Smith, of Elm place, have been visiting relatives at Bound Brook.

W. M. Smith, of Elmwood place, has returned from a visit with his sister at Orange.

William Campbell, of West Front street, is contemplating a trip to South Carolina.

Fred Underhill, who resides near Watchung, is convalescing from an attack of pneumonia.

Miss Stella Apgar, of West Front street, has returned from a visit with relatives in Brooklyn.

Henry Ginard, of Watchung, sailed a few days ago for France. He will be away about two months.

John Willis and Louis Volz have disposed of their farms at Watchung, and will in the future live at New Market.

Mrs. David Bowden, of West Fourth street, who is in Muhlenberg Hospital under treatment, is said to be slowly improving.

James E. Martine entertained Mayor Ryan, of Elizabeth, yesterday. He showed him some of the beauty spots of the city.

Miss Pauline Denton, of Washington avenue, who has been spending a week with Brooklyn relatives, has returned home.

Mrs. George Demler, of Watchung, who has been detained at her home with a severe attack of rheumatism, has recovered.

Mrs. Howard Martin, of West Front street, who was quite ill last week, is now very much better and she hopes to be out soon.

—Children's Home, 146 Jackson avenue, corner Westervelt. Mrs. Sarah A. Hendrickson, matron. Take Somerset street car to Jackson avenue and walk east two blocks. tf

GOT A COLD?

This weather is apt to produce it.

If you have the grippe, neuralgia, rheumatism, or the like—the next thing is to get rid of it.

Randolph's Gold and Grippe Tablets

will cure you in 24 hours.

They act quickly—leave no bad after effect—and are preferable to quinine.

Won't you try a box? Only cost you a quarter, you know.

Plainfield, N. J., January 26, 1904.

THE CHRISTIAN churches at Constantinople, Turkey, and Yokohama, Japan, have long used the Longman & Martinez Paints for painting their churches.

Liberal contributions of L. & M. Paint will be given for such purpose wherever a church is located.

F. M. Schofield, Harris Springs, S. C., writes, "I painted our old homestead with L. & M. twenty-six years ago. Not painted since, looks better than houses painted in the last four years."

W. B. Barr, Charleston, W. Va., writes, "Painted Frankenburg Block with L. & M., shows better than any buildings here have ever done; stands out as though varnished, and actual cost of paint was less than $1.20 per gallon. Wears and covers like gold." ☐

These Celebrated Paints are sold by Woolston & Buckle, Plainfield; H. C. Meyer, Scotch Plains.

OUR WILD NEIGHBORS

Many of Them Die of Hunger During the Winter Season.

Both Birds and Beasts Suffer for the Necessities of Life and Are Driven to Cannibalism — What Would Men Do?

When I hear a man say, "I wouldn't do that if I were starving," I am led to smilingly wonder how near he has ever been to dying for want of food, and how long he would adhere to his lofty resolutions in the face of actual starvation. A few men, a very few, there are, who know the pangs of extreme hunger, and these will tell you that no man is prophet enough to say what he will or will not do when "the wolf" is snarling in his face.

I regret to say that it is frequently experienced by animals, from deer to field mice. At no time is it so prevalent as in winter, when more food is necessary and less is available than at any other season. Then it is that many birds and other gentle creatures die either of starvation or of cold which they might have endured had they had sufficient food, and that many less gentle are driven to devour their fellows in order to save their own lives.

In the absence of organized relief amongst the animals themselves, it seems reasonable to suggest that those of us who love them might at this season give them substantial evidence of our love. Few of them need shelter; most of them have snug homes of some sort, and about all of them have jackets of feathers or fur which, under ordinary circumstances, will withstand very severe cold; but food, as a rule, is scarce in winter, and a little trouble and a very little exxpense on our part will save a great deal of suffering.

In giving our attention to this subject, naturally most of us think of the birds first of all. Indeed, it is often difficult for even thoughtless people to avoid feeding the birds, for when the snow comes and covers up their natural food supply, they come to our door yards and hop about beneath the windows, or sit in flocks upon the naked shrubs and trees, as though to remind us to do the decent thing. And it is not much they ask, these little pensioners; they will be grateful for the sweepings from the tablecloth, if that is all we have. But most of us can do at least a little better, for cracked oats, sunflower seed and canary seed are cheap, and a cent's worth will give many birds a breakfast. At a pinch, these seeds may be thrown out on the bare ground, or, if there is deep snow, a place may be swept clear. But it is better, perhaps, to serve them on portable trays, which may be fastened in the trees, to piazza railings, or even to the window sills. If, in addition, we can spare a lump of suet, or the trimmings from the meat, they may be tied upon the trunks and branches of trees, for the benefit of woodpeckers, chickadees, nuthatches and other birds which might not come for the seeds. Among my bird pensioners last winter were juncos, tree sparrows, song sparrows and chickadees, all of which came on the piazza; nuthaches and blue jays, which patronized the suet tied to an old tree stump, and goldfinches, whicch condescended to pick up seeds.

But the birds are not by any means the only creatues which need help at this season; many of the four-footed animals find food dreadfully scarce, and we can often help them with little trouble to ourselves. Ears of corn, bundles of wheat or other grain, also in the ear, tied in the trees, will make a fine feast for the squirrels, and the bundles of wheat, tied to the trunks of trees in the woods, just above the snow will be a boon to the grouse, not to mention the wood mice. The idea of voluntarily feeding mice will no doubt seem very funny to many people, but I am very fond of wood mice. All through the year they give me pleasure in my walks, and the least I can do to repay them is to give them a square meal now and then, at a season when square meals are apt to be scarce with them. So, when I am passing their way, I just call and leave a handful of nuts, a slice of bread, or an apple or two, and I have reason to think that sometimes they enjoy their Thanksgivings and Christmases rather more than if I had left them to forage for their dinners in the cold. And the muskrats, too, earn all they get in the way of food which the snow is deep and the thermometer low. A muskrat would go a mile for an apple if he knew where to go for it, and if you are out for a walk it is not too much of a task to carry down a few apples in your pocket.

Of course it is little that any of us can do toward feeding the needy among our wild neighbors, but if each one of those who realy love them will take a little trouble every winter we shall not only save many lives which would otherwise be lost to us, but we shall get a better understanding of the creatures whose biographies are so closely interwoven with our own.

ERNEST HAROLD BAYNES.

WOMEN'S WORK IN JAPAN.

Girls Employed Now as Conductors of Railroad Trains an Innovation of the Far East.

The social condition of woman is a fairly trustworthy measure of the civilization of a state, and judged by this standard Japan has not yet reached the summit of western culture. This fact, however, is not a reproach, says the London Daily Telegraph, seeing that it is not long since even European nations have bridged the abyss which sunders former barbaric customs from the humane legislation of to-day. And the Japanese are even now working hard to imitate us. Hitherto, and, indeed, at the present moment, the ranks of female "hands" in Japan are recruited from among the rural population by agents, who induce the country lasses to sign contracts for quite a number of years —the best portion of their lives. And the wages averaged 3d. a day! For that miserable mess of pottage the girls not only labor during working hours, but permit themselves to be wholly isolated from the outer world, just as if they were in prison, a hospital or a nunnery. Thus they are entirely in the power of their employers, the least scrupulous of whom take an unfair advantage of their helplessness. Thanks to the initiative of the press and to the high spirits of a few wealthy firms, a strong lurid light has been thrown upon these dark places of Japan, and redress is already in sight. The Manchester of the mikado's realm is Osaka, and it was the terrible state of things in vogue in the mills and works of that city which first attracted attention. The slaves of the southern states of North America had a better time than some of the wretched girls of Osaka, the products of whose labor were thrown upon European markets at nominal prices. Happily, the Guild of Weavers has now set to work to better the lot of these helots, and its efforts are being reenforced by government employes.

Curiously enough, in the higher callings and professions which require skill or scientific training instead of mere manual labor, there was hardly any field for woman's activity. Thus in none of the ministries or government offices was a woman to be found as civil servant. The respectable firms of merchants likewise rigidly excluded members of the fair sex, refusing to employ them as saleswomen; only in a few cheap bazars, where the work was very fatiguing and the pay utterly inadequate, were women to be seen behind the counter. But here, too, a beneficent change is now being made. The firm of Mitsui, the weavers, for example—one of the wealthiest in Japan—have just decided to take on girls.

For a considerable time past women have been engaged at railway stations, especially in dealing with passenger traffic, and now the Sanui line, which had hitherto eliminated the female element, has completely broken with its traditions, and in future the passengers by that company's line will be looked after by lady conductors, and, perhaps, lady controllers as well. The crown prince of Japan takes a keen interest in this movement, which aims at making life less miserable to his future female subjects, and he has begun by setting an excellent example. He has married but one wife, and has allowed it to be generally understood that he is, and intends to remain, a monogamist to the end of his days.

MEET WITHOUT COLLISION.

Device by Which One Train Runs Over Another Without Accident —Like Traveling Bridges.

Even in this age of wonders no one would have expected to experience the doubtful pleasure of a head-on collision without the usual horrors of a smashup, yet that is put forward by an inventor for his most recent invention, according to the New York Tribune.

A single track is used, on which railway cars are caused to travel.

Two cars go head-on for each other, at a speed of 25 miles an hour. They approach within the danger limit, and suddenly the car having the right of way runs over the other and lands on the track again, where it continues in safety until it reaches its destination. The under car has proceeded as if nothing had happened.

The cars, although they run upon wheels, are really traveling bridges, with compartments for the accommodation of passengers. Over the framed structure of the cars thus constituted an arched track is carried, fastened to the car and serving the purpose of providing a roadbed for the oncoming car.

The forward ends of the pilots of the superimposed tracks are provided with rollers and skids, which are so designed that one car shall mount the other without shock.

The skids gently ride up the inclined track of the car ahead, and sufficiently elevate the rollers of the pilots to permit them to run upon the superimposed track without jar. The car itself follows with a motion equally as gentle. In actual practice cars of 11 feet 6 inches in length will be employed, the extreme length being 43 feet.

Where Negroes Legislate.

Each of the small British colonies in the West Indies has its own legislature, and in some of them, notably Barbados, Grenada and Jamaica, negroes and mulattoes are often elected to these bodies by their brethren who enjoy the suffrage. They are usually men of no education or experience in public life, and naturally they make egregious blunders. In Grenada the other day the government proposed that $750 per annum be given to the attorney general for framing the laws of the colony. Thereupon one indignant member rose excitedly to oppose the motion. It was gross extravagance, he said, for his own carpenter would put the laws in a spick did frame for $1.50.

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL, PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

WALKING SUITS.

They Are Now as Elaborately Made as the Longer Costumes.

Walking suits are undergoing a decided transformation, and the newest models show little difference in elaborateness from the full length costumes.

The skirts are very full, some of them shirred on yoke foundations, others box plaited and held down only for a short distance, while others still are accordion plaited. The newest jackets are bolero in cut with floppy cape effects and wide belts of folded leather or silk.

Cape effects are still very much the mode, and when the cape effect is not seen a hood arrangement frequently takes its place. This is brought low down around the shoulders, lined with some pretty lace and knotted with cord and lace at the front. Of course the lace must be of the heavy variety, either cluny or Irish lace.

There is another form of the walking costume which is strictly tailor made to please the devotees of that style of dressing. It consists of a three-quarter length coat with tailor sleeves and a stitched and kilted skirt. It is particularly effective in fine black or brown cloth.

The French sailor, or else the new turban, seems to be the most popular style of hat to go with the walking suit, although now almost any hat can be worn with it.

The cut shows a walking suit of blue zibeline, trimmed with a scarf of silk and gold buttons.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

NEW COLOR COMBINATIONS

Cold Tints Fashionable—Less Black Is Used Than Formerly.

It promises to be a color season. Fewer blacks and whites will be seen. On the other hand, browns will be worn; also royal blues, coffee shades, grays and principally lavenders and blacks.

There is a marked attempt to introduce green. This was noticeable in the mixtures and coat trimmings, but it does not seem to be a popular shade. Experts predict, however, that it will be prominent in foulard silk this summer combined with a rich blue or a peculiar shade of purple. In general, it may be said that the colder shades—grays, blues and purples—will predominate. Red will be comparatively little seen.

One of the favorite combinations is pale blue and a deep violet. This is particularly effective in millinery, although it was recently seen to good advantage on a gray dress.

This gray dress was of veiling trimmed with a gray taffeta applique and ruchings of gray pinked silk. The bolero opened over a blouse of gray chiffon. At one side there were three little rosettes, one deep purple, the other a lighter shade and the third a pale blue. A touch of these three shades also appeared at the girdle in front.

Gray blends beautifully with the tones of old lace, and a fashionable combination is this same old lace over gray satin, with touches of gray chiffon velvet and a touch or two of silver braid.

The picture shows a toque of lavender chiffon trimmed with a velvet bow.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE WORLD OF DRESS.

Up to Date Hints For the Smartly Gowned Woman.

Some very smart coat and skirt costumes intended for dressy wear have the skirt of kilted cloth, while the bolero is of cloth embroidery edged with fur.

The most fashionable fur scarf and one which will be worn with dresses late in the spring is of ermine folded over like a shawl, with long, pointed ends trimmed with lace. This will be copied later on in cloth to match the gown with which it is worn.

The hair is either worn very high or very low. The latest mode is to take it straight up at the sides, gathering it high on the top with a large velvet bow, chou or flower placed at the side.

Fancy trimmings of every kind add to the cost of gowns and tailor mades, but also add immensely to their artistic worth. Jeweled buttons and buckles are a feature of every smart costume, while handsome fringe jeweled tassels and huge lace puffs are seen on nearly all the up to date outer garments.

Flowered mousseline de soie and muslin in rather large patterns will make delightfully quaint gowns well adapted to the early Victorian modes which are being revived.

The cut shows a waist of white crepe de chine having a wide caplike yoke composed of shirrings, cordings and lace work.

NEW COSTUMES.

Boleros Worn More Than Ever—Figured Silks and Muslins.

The sleeveless bolero appears on many elaborate evening gowns, and this has simply a little extension cap on the shoulder.

An up to date reception dress seen recently had the skirt trimmed with three flounces, each bordered with black velvet. It had also an accordion plaited bodice strapped with velvet. Over this was worn a bolero of velvet embroidered with black chantilly and appliqued velvet flowers, with a little inner cravat of white muslin and lace.

Flowered silks are to be extremely fashionable this spring, and so are the sprigged muslins of our grandmother's day. These flowered materials are very pretty trimmed with ruchings of taffeta to match the color of the figurings.

Fichus will be seen largely on summer gowns, and indeed they are even now being revived in a particularly full and ornate style on evening frocks.

Skirts require more material and are becoming more fussy all the time, so that only the lightest materials make up prettily in the new styles.

From Paris comes word that accordion plaiting in all its glory is being revived by the best dressed women.

Some of the buckles worn at the back of the wide boned girdles are very stunning and cost quite a good deal. The girl who has to economize, however, can obtain a very pretty effect at the back of her wide girdle by sewing three steel buttons on either side of the center of the back, so that they almost join at the bottom in a V shaped effect, leaving a distance of about two or three inches between the top buttons.

The illustration shows a dove gray gown. The skirt is very full and is trimmed with wide tucks. A bolero effect is the principal feature of the bodice. This is trimmed with narrow ribbon.

HE GAINED CONSENT.

Impulsive Suitor Forces Girl's Father to Capitulate.

Talked, and Talked, and Talked, Until Pater Familias Would Have Been Ready to Agree to Any Old Proposition.

"Sir!" declaimed young Brash, the bookkeeper, "I desire to gain your consent to my marriage with your daughter."

And the intrepid young man proudly threw back his head, awaiting the answer that would be made by his employer.

The great merchant slowly swung his chair around, so that he might face the bold individual who had uttered the words quoted. It was clearly to be seen that he was amazed. "I cannot but say, Mr. Brash," he began, "that this is—"

"I know what you would say, sir," passionately interrupted the bookkeeper. "You would say that my position in this establishment does not justify this presumption on my part. Therefore, sir, I wish to add that I have means aside from the salary that I receive from you. I—"

"Young man! young man!" exclaimed the merchant, his voice rising to a tone seldom adopted by him, "will you not let me have a word? I was about to say that—"

"O, sir!" interposed the bookkeeper, "I feel that you were about to state your conviction that, even if she were of an age to wed, I am not; that a youth of 22 does not realize the seriousness of the step. Do not say, sir, that I am too young! Reflect, sir, upon the fact that I love her dearly; that she is devoted to me, and that if you withhold your consent you may blight two lives! Two lives, sir! Think of that! And if you—"

Then, says the New York Times, the merchant gave a spasmodic clutch at his throat, as if he were going into apoplexy. Then he beat frantically upon his desk. "Will you, will you," he shouted, when he had in a measure recovered the use of his voice, "will you let me get a word in edgewise?"

"YOU MAY BLIGHT TWO LIVES!"

The young man bowed his head in assent. "Pray go on, sir," he said.

"I desire to say," gasped the merchant, in a broken voice, "that I do not—"

"O, sir, you do not—"

"I do not—"

But the employer's words failed him, and his head sank upon the desk before him. Hastily ringing the bell for assistance, the bookkeeper afforded what relief he could to the exhausted man, until other and more efficacious aid arrived.

When the old man had recovered the use of his faculties, he said to the employes who had hastened into his office: "Thank you, gentlemen, and now you may leave me with Mr. Brash. I may say, however, that I would esteem it a favor if some one of you would gag the young man, as I much desire to have a word with him, a thing that seems impossible under any other condition than that of enforced silence."

"And now, sir!" he said sternly to young Brash, when once more they were alone, "if you utter another word before I shall have completed the observations which I now purpose to make, depend upon it I shall certainly offer you grievous bodily harm! Listen!

"You wish to marry a daughter of mine. Well, sir, you may! This is not an entire surprise to me. I made so bold some time since as to institute an investigation with regard to this attachment on your part; and the result of that investigation showed me no reasons why you two should not marry. But I submit that I was entitled, in all propriety, in my role of father to four marriageable girls, to ask the usual, formal and conventional query:

"Which one is it?"

Baldness Among Bachelors.

It has been found on study of 300 cases of loss of hair that baldness prevails most with unmarried men, which is contrary to the general belief. The worries of the bachelor may be fewer, but they are more trying to the scalp than are the multitudinous cares of the man of family. Most bald people are found to live indoor lives, and almost all of them belong to the intellectual class. Usually the loss of hair begins before the thirtieth year. In women it usually constitutes a general thinning; in men it affects the top of the head. Diseases that affect the general nutrition of the body are likely to thin the hair.

Street Paved with Glass.

A street in Lyons, France, the Rue de la Republique, is paved with glass. The blocks are eight inches square, and so closely fitted that water cannot pass between the interstices.

AUTO CANINES.

A Glimpse Into the Future When the Gasoline Dog Will Bark by Steam.

"I admit that I was pretty sore on automobiles when they first came out," confessed the red-faced man, with the horseshoe pin in his scarf, to a New York Sun reporter. "But since our friend Goggleton here has explained their infinite superiority over—well, I don't see how on earth I've managed to be content with horses all these years, 'deed I don't.

"Why, just think, you don't have to feed automobiles, or exercise 'em, or shoe 'em, or anything. While, as for speed, you can make an ordinary passenger locomotive hide its headlight in shame.

"Of course, the smell of some of 'em is a bit overpowering at first, but if you go fast enough you can generally manage to keep in front of it. As I said, I don't see how I've managed to get along without one."

The red-faced man paused, and seemed lost in thought.

"Say," he continued, in a few minutes, "isn't it funny that no one has ever thought of having auto dogs? Now that they've solved the horse problem, why don't they try the dog problem?

"No, no, I don't mean like those little mechanical toys you see on Fourteenth street. I mean a sure enough gasoline dog, with a steam bark attachment. Something that could be regulated by a rubber tube leash with a bulb on the end.

"Just think of it. You could regulate his speed and direction, and there'd never be any danger of his getting in fights. You wouldn't ever have to feed him. And during the summer, if you didn't want to take him to the country, you could store him with some furrier, who would be only too glad to insure him against fleas and moths.

"Great, isn't it? I expect 'most any day now to read in my morning paper that 'Willie Lightweight was seen on the avenue yesterday with his new racing auto-terrier, the Purple Towser,' or 'Miss Dolly Dimpletoe was noticed in the park exercising her recently imported motor-poodle, the Pink Fido.'

"Of course, there'll be accidents at first, just as there were with automobiles. I shouldn't be a bit surprised to hear 'most any minute that 'While nine-year-old Lizzie Schlitz was playing with her 16-pup power gasoline grayhound the dog exploded, inflicting slight wounds about the face. Lizzie's face was cauterized and the pieces of dog were gathered up and taken to the junk pound.'

"There are naturally bound to be some accidents, but think of the great good that will eventually—What? No, thanks, old man. I'm going down to look at a horse this afternoon, and wouldn't dare."

FIRST FATAL DUEL

Ever Fought in America Took Place Nearly Two Centuries Ago on Boston Common.

The first fatal duel fought in what is now the United States was upon Boston Common, between Benjamin Woodbridge and Henry Phillips, on the evening of July 3, 1728, says the United Service Review. These young men had quarreled over cards at the Royal Exchange tavern, in King street (now State street), and under the influence of drink had agreed to settle their differences with swords in the public grounds above named. They met at a little after eight o'clock in the evening, and Woodbridge was motally wounded and was found dead the following morning.

Both were gentlemen of good social position. Phillips was a brother of George Phillips, who married Marie, the sister of Peter Faneuil, the builder of Boston's famous hall. Woodbridge had not completed his twentieth year. He was a young merchant who had recently been admitted to business as a partner with Jonathan Sewall, one of the most active merchants of the place. Henry Phillips, a young graduate of the college at Cambridge, was about four years older than Woodbridge, having at the time of this melancholy affair completed his twenty-third year. Woodbridge was the son of a gentleman of some distinction in Barbados, one of the magistrates there, who had formerly been settled in the ministry as pastor in Groton, Conn.

The place of meeting was on the rising grounds of the Commons not far from the Great Elm, near where in the olden time a powder house stood. Small swords were used. No one but themselves participated. Woodbridge fell mortally wounded and died on the spot before the next morning. Phillips was slightly wounded, and at midnight, by the aid of his brother Gillam and Peter Faneuil, of famous memory, made his escape to the Sheerness, a British man-of-war then lying in the harbor, and before the sun of the next morning had fully discovered to interested friends the miserable result of the unfortunate meeting, he was on his way to France, where he died in less than a year of grief and a broken heart.

Steel Buildings.

The demolition of a steel building three years old in New York city was watched by the experts of the bureau of buildings with reference to deterioration. They report "that no other corrosion of consequence could be discovered than had obviously begun and gained measurable headway before the building was covered in."

TALES OF WHITE BUFFALO.

They Were Very Scarce and the Particular Object of Every Plainsman's Quest.

The disappearance of the stuffed white buffalo from the Kansas state house, presumably taken by the daughter of the man who left it there on exhibition for so many years, will recall some queer experiences to old buffalo hunters on the western Kansas prairies, says the Kansas City Journal. There was a tradition among the hunters that some one had hung up a reward of $1,000 for the skin of a white buffalo. There were white buffalo—albinos, such as are found at rare intervals in all the families of the animal kingdom—but the number of those which existed in fact and of those which existed in the imagination was in wonderful disproportion.

Every buffalo hunter could tell stories of having seen and pursued white buffalo. Many a hunter has been sent on a wild goose chase by false reports of this character. In 1873, for example, old Ben Canfield, who roamed the plains with his tall, gaunt wife for a companion followewd a bunch of buffalo from the northern edge of what is now Oklahoma to the sand hills of Nebraska, thinking to kill a big white bull at the head of his harem of cows. And, after three weeks of patient stalking, Canfield did kill the bull, only to find that he was covered with a coat of whitewash, which gave him the appearance of being white in fact.

An explanation of this phenomenon would not be needed by people familiar with the natural lime beds of western Kansas. The habit of the buffalo is to roll in every pool of water or hole of mud which he comes to. The well known "buffalo wallow" still to be seen over the great plains was the product of this habit.

Canfield's buffalo had simply been rolling in a bed of the native lime, which coated his hide, when dried in the sun, with a kind of plaster. And no doubt these lime holes could account for many of the white buffalo so often reported by hunters.

The plains were the home of many characters, but none more unique than the wife of this same Canfield. She was six feet tall and as thin as the proverbial rail. She came from Arkansas, and she was the type of girl immortalized in a bit of doggerel:

"I can saw'r more wood than mam can saw's,
I can chaw'r more terbacker than pa can chaw'r,"
Said this gay young girl from Arkansaw'r.

Canfield boasted that she could take the hide off a buffalo quicker than any man on the plains. She certainly could consume more tobacco than her husband. She could swear, too, with an artistic finish not easily acquired. And when she came to die she died like a hero, as was testified to by the pile of empty "big-50" shells found by her side as she lay dead and scalped with her husband on the prairie some miles north of Wallace. This was in 1875, and the surroundings betokened an Indian fight, in which the husband had died first, leaving his wife to continue the battle.

REMARKABLE PLANT.

Gives Off Combustible Gas—Said to Be Moses' "Burning Bush"—Easily Takes Fire.

A remarkable plant is now at Kew Gardens, London's celebrated horticultural grounds, on the Thames, says the Kansas City Times. The plant has just been brought from the Arabian desert, and numerous scientists declare it to be identical with the "burning bush," which Moses saw burst into flames at his approach and blaze for some time without being consumed. The plant at Kew, which grows to the height of five or six feet, possesses a remarkable property of exhaling an inflammable gas from its flowers, which, on being approached by a light, takes fire and burns brightly for a few moments, the plant in the meanwhile remaining uninjured, owing to its sap.

In the hot deserts of Arabia, where the plant naturally grows more vigorously than at Kew, a larger quantity of this gas is exhaled, and it is probable that the fierce rays of the sun frequently cause it to take fire. It cannot be said that the discovery of this plant and its strange characteristics add greatly to the impressiveness of the Bible story, but there it is, to be regarded as you please.

In appearance the "burning bush" plant suggests an arid, sterile habitat. Its leaves are of a dull sage green color and the gas-exhaling blossoms are pale pink.

It is not generally known that numerous flowers give forth gases in a small degree, notably the lily-of-the-valley and the meadow sweet, which grows so profusely in English meadows. The blossoms of both these plants exhale the fumes of deadly prussic acid by night, and all flowers throw off considerable quantities of carbonic acid gas in the darkness, this being why it is unhealthy to keep flowers in a bedroom.

A Quaint People.

The heart of Brittany never changes, says Andre Saglio, in the Century, but its face is rapidly losing many of its prominent characteristics with the leveling influence of the French republic. It is only far out of the beaten track, now, or on special occasions like fetes, that you see universally the costumes and customs of the old Armorican peninsula. Only an hour's journey from Quimper, the modernized chief town of Finistere, and you are among the Bigoudines, a people whose dress suggests the Eskimos and Chinese, whose faces are strongly Mongolian in type, and who in language, customs and beliefs seem to have no relation with the rest of France. More and more the picturesque problem they present is coming to attract attention. Artists, students and tourists alike are fascinated by it.

A TALK ABOUT GUAM.

Little Island in the Pacific Is an Interesting Spot.

People Are Industrious and Glad That Uncle Sam Owns the Island—Causes That Made Agana an Important Town.

The only good map that has yet been made of the island of Guam is the result of a government survey and has been published by the war department. The little sketch map shown here is a reduction from it, and the map will interest many because very few people have as yet any idea of the form of the island, which is shown in the atlases scarcely larger than a dot.

In a rough way the island may be said to resemble in form the sole of a shoe. It is only 29 miles long and from three to ten miles wide, with an area of about 150 square miles, or seven times as large as Manhattan Island.

It is the most southern of the chain of the Ladrones or Marianne islands, which stretches 420 miles north and south. All the other islands belong to Germany, but they are very small, and Guam is the largest and most important of the group. It is four days' steaming to the east of the Philippines.

We observe on the map great paucity of information about the interior of the island. The reason is that the jungle which covers it is so dense that not even natives have penetrated far into it, except in two or three places where paths extend from coast to coast.

Guam, like all the other islands of the Ladrones, was built up partly by outpourings from volcanoes and partly by the work of coral insects; but it has this advantage over islands to the north, that its volcanoes are all extinct, while there are still eruptive mountains on some of the more northern islands.

Guam has some peculiarities. The northern half of it consists almost wholly of coral rock, which is very porous, so that the rain sinks immediately into it and makes its way by underground channels to the sea, so that there are no springs or rivers in the northern part of the island.

Near the middle in the neighborhood of Agana, the capital, is a large spring that yields a copious supply of water. It oozes through a swamp and finds its way into the sea by means of a river which has been artificially lengthened and turned for a mile parallel to the coast for the convenience of the natives.

This is one of the reasons why two-thirds of the population is centered at

LATEST MAP OF GUAM.
(Island in Pacific Acquired by United States in 1898.)

Agana. The southern part of Guam has a number of streams, some of which lose themselves beneath the surface for a time and then reappear from caverns.

Another peculiarity of Guam is that nearly all the inhabitants, though farmers, live in the town and go out to their ranches to raise their crops. Some of them have rude houses on their ranchos, where their families spend a part of the time.

Nearly the entire population of about 9,000, distributed among six towns, Agana containing 6,400 inhabitants; Sumai, 900; Ynarajan, 550; Agate, 400; Merizo, 300 and Umata, 200. A number of hamlets, each containing a few huts, are distributed along the shores.

If we were to drop into any of these towns we would meet men and women who would welcome us most cordially. We should find them lighter in color than the Filipinos, fully clad, comparatively free from disease, bright of face and cheerful in disposition, having little money, but procuring their food from their farms or the sea and making in their houses most of the things they need.

In the towns we should see them living in very well built houses, many of them of stone, surrounded by gardens. The country houses erected on the plantations, intended only for temporary occupancy, are little more than huts. On Saturday evenings a procession of ox carts, a mile long, may be seen bringing the families back to the capital after their week's work, so that they may be ready for early mass the next morning.

Found After Many Years.

A pocketbook containing $50 in gold was lost eight years ago by Mrs. Davolt, of New Boston, Mo. She never heard from it until the other day, when the money was found in a peculiar way. A young man rode up to the Davolt home and tied his horse to a tree near the house. When he returned for the horse he found that it had pawed a pocketbook out of the earth. It was the one Mrs. Davolt had lost eight years before.

Pig with Elephant's Head.

A remarkable animal was lately born at Rye, England. It is a boar pig, with the head and features of an elephant. One ear is of immense proportions, and a trunk protrudes from the forehead. Between the trunk and the snout is a huge eyeball containing two pupils.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

The annual meeting of the Westfield Baseball Association will be held on the morning of February 12, when reports for the past year and the election will include the principal business.

"Matty McIntyre, who used to play on the Westfield baseball team, will play with Detroit the coming season at a salary of $3,400. It is said that when he played in Westfield he received as compensation 40 cents a game, that amount representing his railroad fare from Staten Island to Westfield and return.

The Westfield Standard says: "There are troubles about ball in the trolley village, (Scotch Plains). Such as possibility of losing grounds, hard work to secure players, etc., but the ingrain blood and spunk of that sporty hamlet is looking to Ed Hand to give them a team and a chance at Westfield and there is good chance of their continuing in the business." Geo. Mallen will undoubtedly select the players for Westfield and it is stated that Burke, Barry, Waller, Wallen, Goldberg and McManus are positive fixtures and the remainder of the team will be selected for a betterment over that of last year, if such a thing is within the association's means.

GOLF.

Secretary Thompson, of the East Jersey Golf League, announces that the annual meeting of the organization will be held at Achtel Stetter's, in Newark, on the evening of February 9. Officers for the ensuing year are to be elected and the new rules which the committee has been working on since the last meeting are to be ratified. Action will also be taken at this meeting upon the applications from such clubs as may wish to join the league.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

The next series of games in The Daily Press Bowling League tournament will be rolled Thursday night, February 4, at Roselle, when the Park Club bowlers will visit that place. The same night Cranford Casino will meet Westfield at the latter place.

—The funeral services of the late Carl Gulberg will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 from the home of his son, Charles Gulberg, South avenue.

Miss Julia Hasbrouck, of Jersey City, who has been the guest of the Misses Bryan, of West Fourth street, has returned home.

Why Pay Rent!

It's far better to own a home of your own. Perhaps you'll say: "I can't afford to buy a house at present."

We'll answer that question by saying that we believe you CAN afford to purchase the splendid twelve-room house — all modern improvements—excellent location, etc—that we offer. It's a phenomenal bargain.

It would please us to have you know more about it. Ask us.

Salvation Army's Meetings.

The Salvation Army will conduct meetings tonight and all day tomorrow in its newly renovated hall on East Front street. A stereopticon lecture on the work of the army will be delivered in the hall in about two weeks by Major Sheppard, of Newark. For two weeks during February, there will be special meetings in charge of prominent officers of the army in New York.

—Mrs. Levey, of Duer street, has given up her position as a trained nurse in the Mercer Hospital, Trenton, and until an accident on Wednesday, when she fell and sustained injuries, has been doing private nursing here.

James T. McCullough, of East Front street, who has been ill with pneumonia, has recovered.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector of Grace church, is confined to his home by illness.

There will be a meeting of the official board of Monroe Avenue church Monday night.

At the Third Street chapel, tomorrow night. G. H. Staats will sing "The Holy City."

There will be baptism at the First Baptist church tomorrow. Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, the pastor, will have charge.

Rev. A. E. Finn will be publicly recognized as pastor of the Park Avenue Baptist church on Feb. 4, at 7:45. Dr. T. E. Vassar, of Elizabeth, will preside, and Dr. J. A. Chamblias will preach the sermon.

The rite of baptism will be administered at Hope Memorial chapel tomorrow morning. In the evening the Lord's Supper will be observed. Fully twenty-five candidates will be admitted to the church roll.

An entertainment was given Thursday night to the members of the Grace church choir and their friends. The evening was spent in playing progressive games with music and literary features interspersed. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

The meeting of the Young Men's Brotherhood of the First M. E. church scheduled for last night, was postponed, partly on account of the weather and partly because of the absence of some of the members. The meeting will be held within a short time.

The University of Chicago is no longer a Baptist institution. President William R. Harper has announced that the University had outgrown its denominational character. He declared that in the nature of its faculty, its students and its methods it had spread beyond its allegiance to the Baptist Church. Religious denominationalism in universities, he said, was "narrow mindedness," and the fact that the University of Chicago had broken away from this class was an evidence of its progress.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church met last night at the church and after a general discussion of the subject, decided that in the future the weekly meetings will be held every Friday night instead of Sunday night as at present. The president, J. Henry Crane, occupied the chair, and it was the unanimous opinion of all that Friday night will generally be more convenient. At the conclusion of the meeting, the social committee provided refreshments and there was a social time.

PERSONAL.

Adam Blair, of East Fifth street, who has been quite ill with typhoid fever, is now steadily improving.

Miss Emma Wolf, of Plainfield, has been spending several days with relatives at Valley, Hunterdon County.
